MEET THE COACHES

Michael Meek
Head Coach (2010-)
mmeek@georgefox.edu
503-554-2920

Michael Meek, the 2011-12 D3hoops.com NCAA Division III National Coach of the Year, enters his fifth season as the head coach of the George Fox University women's basketball program in 2014-15, having successfully transitioned to the college ranks after leading Southridge High School of Beaverton, Ore., to five Oregon large-school classification state titles in a six-year span between 2005 and 2010.

Replacing 14-year veteran Scott Rueck, who had taken over the women's program at his alma mater, Oregon State University, Meek kept the wheels spinning smoothly at George Fox in 2010-11 as he guided the Bruins to a 25-6 overall record and a 14-2 Northwest Conference mark that earned the team a share of its fifth straight conference crown. After winning the NWC Tournament in overtime over co-champion Lewis & Clark College, the Bruins made their fifth straight appearance in the NCAA Division III National Tournament, reaching the "Elite 8" round for the third consecutive year (the 2008-09 team went on to win the Bruins' first national championship). George Fox was ranked sixth in the final USA Today/ESPN/Women's Basketball Coaches of America poll and 12th in the D3hoops.com final poll.

The Preview

George Fox enters tonight's game on the heels of a tough 81-76 loss to Linfield College last week. Although the game didn't go their way, the Bruins had a strong outing from JJ Lacey, who fired off 21 points and shot well over 50 percent from the field. His performance earned him Northwest Conference Men's Basketball Student-Athlete of the Week honors. Senior Jonny Howard continues to impress recently, being named to the 2014-15 Capital One/CoSIDA Academic All-District 8 Men's Basketball First team for his work on and off the court. Howard leads the NWC with 18.1 points per game. The Bearcats also enter tonight's game after a tough loss, as they fell 90-83 to Whitworth last week.

The Preview

For the first time this year, the Bruins have cracked the nation's top 5, moving to No. 4 in D3hoops.com's Top 25 rankings. The Bruins are also ranked at No. 5 in USA Today's Top 25 Coaches' Poll. George Fox coasted to an 82-51 victory over Linfield College last week. Senior guard Jami Morris ranks at No. 11 all-time in career scoring with 1,105 points, and Justine Benner is averaging 16.2ppg, third-best in the Northwest Conference. Senior forward Lauren Codling is also having a fantastic senior season, averaging a double-double per contest (11.3ppg, 11.0rpg). The Bearcats enter tonight's game after falling to Whitworth on Jan. 31, 67-51. They are led by Jojo DeLong, who leads the squad in almost every statistical category.

ABOUT THE TEAM

In his fifth year at the helm of the women's basketball team, head coach Michael Meek enters the 2014-15 season led by a trio of seniors, four juniors, five sophomores and three freshmen.

The 12 returners enter the new season after posting a 22-5 record in 2013-14. The Bruins finished 13-3 in the Northwest Conference and made their 10th NCAA appearance in the last 15 seasons.

Although the famous "Big Three" resides in Cleveland, the Bruins welcome back their own "Big Three," as George Fox will be led by Jami Morris, Lauren Codling and Dacia Heckendorf. The three seniors not only possess a highly competitive spirit, they also have the leadership skills to inspire the 2014-15 team.

The women's basketball program has been one of the most successful teams here at George Fox. They have made two NCAA "Final Four" appearances (2009, 2012), had five NCAA "Elite 8 appearances" (2005, 2009, 2010, 2011 and 2012) and seven NCAA "Sweet 16" appearances (2000, 2005, 2008, 2009, 2010, 2011 and 2012). In fact, the women's program has had 21 consecutive winning seasons (1994-2014) and nine Northwest Conference Championships (2000, 2001, 2005, 2007, 2008, 2009, 2010, 2011 and 2012). Coach Meek has also become the fastest coach in George Fox history to hit 100 wins after taking down the University of La Verne on Sunday, Nov. 16, 2014.
