

1-24-1988

Four Flats Correspondence

George Fox University Archives

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.georgefox.edu/fourflats_papers

Recommended Citation

George Fox University Archives, "Four Flats Correspondence" (1988). Four Flats Papers. 107.
https://digitalcommons.georgefox.edu/fourflats_papers/107

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the The Four Flats at Digital Commons @ George Fox University. It has been accepted for inclusion in Four Flats Papers by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ George Fox University. For more information, please contact arolfe@georgefox.edu.

a note from

 Dick
Cadd

January 24, 1988

Surprize/!

It's not even Christmas and here I am writing you guys a letter. There must be something up. You're right.

I suppose you all got the enclosed letter already, but just in case they haven't caught up with you yet (having left a crooked trail), I thought I'd get the jump on you and suggest what some of you are probably already thinking. (Maybe this is the unthinkable.)

How about the FOUR FLATS doing some music for this shindig? Maybe they wouldn't even want us but it looks like they are all oldtimers and we could add to the nostalgia. (I guess speakers are supposed to get better and better as they get older, but that may not hold for singers.)

I can't remember, did we promise each other that the last Farewell Concert would be the last farewell? Who took minutes at our last meeting? (How much money is there in the pot?) Did we really close out our bank account?

Well, I don't know whether my mission would even let me go. Our furlough may come early so we can have a family reunion (after 10 years) while Jon and Cher are home. (May) I would^{be} interested to know if there is any interest however. Drop Us (all) a line and let us know your feelings. Please, no letter bombs.

MC
"J.C." CADD