

1-26-1992

Four Flats Correspondence

George Fox University Archives

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.georgefox.edu/fourflats_papers

Recommended Citation

George Fox University Archives, "Four Flats Correspondence" (1992). Four Flats Papers. 106.
https://digitalcommons.georgefox.edu/fourflats_papers/106

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the The Four Flats at Digital Commons @ George Fox University. It has been accepted for inclusion in Four Flats Papers by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ George Fox University. For more information, please contact arolfe@georgefox.edu.

January 26, 1992

Dear Chris and Divonna:

I guess whenever I hear a good story I think of you. Two burglars were casing a house, watched through the windows marked where things were, were sure the family was away, so one night they went in. Because they knew the house well they didn't even use their flashlights. When they had gathered all the loot and were about to leave by a side door, they heard a high pitched voice from the corner of the living room: " I see you. I see you and Jesus sees you too." This was repeated and then "I see you and Jesus sees you, too, and he really doesn't like what he sees."

Of course they froze in their tracks, then shining their lights they focused on a parrot in a cage in the corner of the living room. They burst out laughing and in doing so let the light fall till it shined on a huge doberman with teeth bared. An then the parrot said "Sick-um, Jesus."

Dick Eastman told this in a conference on spiritual warfare. A lot of us lately are saying "sick-um, Jesus" and its working. The ideas of the conference were so stimulating I decided to send you a copy of my notes. It's good preaching material.

I'm also sending a paper of evidences that "God is up to Something." I prepared this for a conference in Colorado Springs over inauguration day that issued the call to prayer (also enclosed). What an exciting time to be serving the Lord.

By the way, Mary and I will be in the Hayden Lake area for a week March 14 to 21. Do you still have kids there. Why don't you visit them at that time.

Sincerely,

Norval

Norval