

1970

Four Flats Quartet Wives

George Fox University Archives

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.georgefox.edu/fourflats_papers

Recommended Citation

George Fox University Archives, "Four Flats Quartet Wives" (1970). Four Flats Papers. 102.
https://digitalcommons.georgefox.edu/fourflats_papers/102

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the The Four Flats at Digital Commons @ George Fox University. It has been accepted for inclusion in Four Flats Papers by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ George Fox University. For more information, please contact arolfe@georgefox.edu.

LIVING AND WORKING TOGETHER

QUESTIONS;

1. You have been together for a number of years could you tell me one positive thing about the other gals. Encouraging me to do sub-teaching
2. When differences arise how do you handle them?
3. They say that the family that prays together stays together. I like to say those that pray and play together stay together. How has praying or playing been of help to you?
4. What ways have you found to be of encouragement to one another, to your husbands and to your family?
5. Looking back over the years could you share one humorous experience that involved your families?
- 6.
- 7.
- 8.

I thought as a way of introducing you to begin the session I would ask each of you to tell one positive thing about the others.

Any other questions you have please jot down and I will either add them or substitute them for the questions I have written.

Each of you does not have to speak on every question unless you want to. This should be a fun time and also one in which those attending will hear something that will enable them to better handle working closely with family and friends.

Thanks for your willingness to participate. We will meet in the Meeting House (the tabernacle) and have mikes for each one. There will be chairs for you.

Love and appreciate each of you

Howard