2/24 – ALL-CONFERENCE: Bruins' Parker and Satern Garner All-NWC Recognition

NEWBERG, Ore. – Senior post Chris Parker and junior point guard Brent Satern of George Fox University have received All-Northwest Conference men's basketball recognition, Parker earning a Second Team berth and Satern gaining honorable mention, in recent balloting by the league's nine coaches.

Parker completed his senior season in fine fashion as the Bruins' top scorer and one of the most accurate shooters in the league. He ranked fourth in the conference in scoring (16.1 ppg), sixth in free throw percentage (.805), 10th in field goal percentage (.517), and 18th in rebounding (4.8). Scoring in double figures in 21 of 25 games, he had 20 or more seven times, including a career-high 32 at Pacific Lutheran. He posted his first double-double with 18 points and 10 rebounds vs. Holy Names. Nine times he led the Bruins in scoring, and seven times in rebounds. He was named the NWC Men's Player of the Week for Nov. 13-19, was honorable mention for the honor five times, and was a six-time winner of the Bruin Athletic Association Men's Athlete of the Week. He ended his four-year George Fox career with 988 points, 12 short of becoming the 33rd Bruin to reach 1,000 points, but he did not become a starter until the final 10 games of his junior year. He was also named to the ESPN The Magazine/CoSIDA Men's Basketball Academic All-District VIII College Division First Team this year. In his career, he ranks 11th in field goal pct. (.543) and 11th in free throw pct. (.805) at George Fox. Parker is from Aloha, Oregon, and went to Aloha High School.

Satern proved to be one of the top point guards in the league for the second straight year. He ranked second in the conference in steals (2.08 spg), third in assists (5.28 apg), eighth in assist/turnover ratio (1.32:1), and 14th in scoring (13.5 ppg). His assists per game average also ranked 35th nationally. He scored in double figures 19 times, with 20 or more points three times, including a career-high 25 vs. Linfield. He was the Bruins' top scorer seven times, and had a double-double with 14 points and 10 assists vs. Corban in the season opener, the second of his career. He was named the Bruin Athletic Association Men's Athlete of the Week three times, and was honorable mention for NWC Player of the Week three times. He has handed out 338 assists in his career, 36 away from moving into the top 10 all-time list at George Fox. Satern is from Silverton, Ore., and Silverton High School.

Both Parker and Satern were instrumental in the Bruins' success this season. George Fox finished with a 12-13 overall record, just missing a third straight winning season, and came in fifth in the NWC standings at 7-9. Included in the Bruins' wins were an 85-65 win over Holy Names, ranked No. 9 in the NAIA at the time, and a 75-63 victory over then-No. 13 Puget Sound in which the Bruins battled back to out-score the Loggers 34-5 over the last 12 minutes of the game.

NWC co-champion Whitworth swept both individual awards, point guard Bryan Williams earning the Northwest Conference Men's Player of the Year award while ranking third nationally in assists, and head coach Jim Hayford taking Coach of the Year honors. The entire list of 2006-07 All-Northwest Conference men's basketball players is available on line at the Northwest Conference web site at http://www.nwcsports.com/sports/basketball_men/All-NWC.htm.

COMING UP: Season Over, Bruins Look Ahead to 2007-08

Aiming for their 3rd straight winning season, the Bruins instead dropped under .500 for the first time this season and ended up at 12-13 after a pair of home-court losses to Pacific Lutheran and Northwest Conference co-champion Lewis & Clark. The Bruins finished 5th in the NWC at 7-9. Nevertheless, the team posted some impressive victories this season, including wins over Holy Names (ranked 9th in the NAIA at the time) and Puget Sound (ranked 13th in the NCAA Division III) by out-scoring the high-powered Loggers 34-5 over the final 12 minutes. The Bruins lose two players to graduation in post Chris Parker and wing Phil Heu-Weller, but will return starting point guard Brent Saturn and forwards Brady Strutz and Taylor Martin in 2007-08 in an effort to return to the plus side of the ledger.

COACH MARK SUNDQUIST

Mark Sundquist (Seattle Pacific '89) is 73-101 (.420) after seven seasons as a college head coach, all at George Fox. In the past three years, he has guided the Bruins to a 46-31 record (.613). He was the NWC Coach of the Year in 2004-05 for leading the Bruins to an 18-7 record and 2nd place in the conference. He coached the boys' programs at Woodburn (Ore.) High for two years and at Newberg (Ore.) High for one year before joining the Bruins. Click here for the complete bio on Coach Sundquist.

BRUIN BITS:

 Parker Honorable Mention for NWC Player of the Week

Chris Parker received honorable mention for Northwest Conference Men's Player of the Week for Feb. 12-18, the sixth time this season he was nominated for the award. In an 78-66 loss to Pacific Lutheran Friday, he scored 14 points on 4-10 field goals and 6-10 free throws, with 5 rebounds, an assist and a steal. In a 75-63 loss to NWC co-champion Lewis & Clark Saturday, he had 22 points on 7-14 field goals and 8-10 free throws, with 5 rebounds and an assist. For the week, he scored 36 points (18.0 ppg) on 11-24 (.458) field goals and 14-20 (.700) free throws, with 10 rebounds, 2 assists and a steal. 2/16 – PACIFIC LUTHERAN 78, GEORGE FOX 66: First-Half Woes Doom Bruins to Defeat by Lutes

NEWBERG, Ore. – Struggling from the field, at the line, and on the boards in the first half, the George Fox University Bruins fell behind by 20 points at halftime and never seriously threatened thereafter as the Pacific Lutheran University Lutes coasted to a 78-66 victory in a Northwest Conference men's basketball game Friday night here at the Wheeler Sports Center's Miller Gym.

Phil Heu-Weller's three-point field goal gave George Fox its only lead of 7-4 just over four minutes into the game, but a three by Gabe Smith and two free throws by Lawrence Brooks put PLU ahead 9-7 with 15 minutes left in the half, and the Lutes never looked back. Josh Dressler, who had 12 points in the half, hit a three to give PLU a double-digit lead for good 25-13 with 7:31 left, and it was 40-20 at the break after an Andrew Eisentrout layup with 35 seconds to go. The Bruins shot only .280 (7-25) in the half, hit .400 (4-10) from the line, and were out-rebounded 24-15.

Scott McDaniels' jumper to open the second half gave PLU its largest lead at 42-20, and the gap stayed between 14 and 18 points over the next 14 minutes or so. The Bruins finally got within 10 twice in the final minute-and-a-half, only to have Dressler hit two free throws and McDaniels dunk to maintain the margin. The Bruins' shooting improved to .464 (13-28) in the half, but it was not nearly enough to overcome the first-half problems, enabling the Lutes to snap a six-game losing streak to the Bruins.

Evan Atwater came off the bench to lead the Bruins with 16 points, Chris Parker added 14, and Heu-Weller and Brent Satern had 10 apiece. Satern passed out eight assists and had four steals. Brady Strutz was the Bruins' top rebounder with nine.

Dressler led all scorers with 18 points for the Lutes, McDaniels scored 17, Jared Brandeberry posted a double-double with 11 points and 11 rebounds, and Eisentrout added 10 points. Landon Heidenreich and Brandeberry handed out five assists each.

George Fox (12-12, NWC 7-8) hosts Lewis & Clark College, which will be seeking a share of the conference title with Whitworth College, while Pacific Lutheran (9-13, NWC 6-9) goes to Pacific University for their final regular-season games Saturday, both starting at 8 p.m. NWC women's games precede the men's games at 6 p.m.

COMING UP: Homecoming Weekend as Bruins Shoot for 4th in NWC

The Bruins close out the season with two games on Homecoming weekend, and a sweep of both would guarantee them sole possession of 4th place in the standings after being picked to finish 7th in the pre-season. At least one win assures the Bruins of their 3rd straight winning season. Saturday's game vs. Lewis & Clark is also a chance to play "spoiler", as the Pioneers are a half-game behind Whitworth for 1st place.

* Fri., Feb. 16, 8:00 pm – vs. Pacific Lutheran University (8-13, NWC 5-9, 7th), at Newberg, Ore.

KFOX Radio webcast at www.kfoxradio.net ... Northwest Conference doubleheader (women's game at 6 p.m.) ... 2/9 – WILLAMETTE 84, GEORGE FOX 79: Free Throws the Difference as Bearcats Hold Off Bruins

SALEM, Ore. – Dead even in field goals (27) and three-pointers (10), it was free throws that made the difference as the Willamette University Bearcats, behind a record-tying 12-12 performance from the line by Rob Andrus, hung on to defeat the George Fox University Bruins 84-79 in a Northwest Conference men's basketball game Friday night here at the Cone Fieldhouse.

George Fox held early leads of 5-0 and 7-3 before the teams were tied twice and exchanged the lead seven times. Later in the half, Willamette led by as many as 11 points when two free throws by Andrus gave the Bearcats a 35-24 margin with 3:47 on the clock. The Bruins cut the lead to seven points, 39-32, at the break.

The Bearcats remained in front for the first eight minutes of the second half, but George Fox took a 50-49 lead on a three-pointer by Brent Satern with 11:31 remaining. C.J. Stuvland countered with a three for Willamette 18 seconds later, then the Bruins' Taylor Martin sank a jumper with 10:50 left to tie the game for the final time at 52-52. Tyler McClary gave Willamette the lead for good, 54-52, with a jump shot at the 10:36 mark.

Willamette raised its lead to 11 points at 75-64 on a basket by Dan Nugent at the 2:26 mark, but the Bruins scored nine of the next 11 points on three-pointers by Brady Strutz, Phil Heu-Weller, and Mark Metzler, cutting the deficit to 77-73 with 1:19 left. Andrus sank two free throws with 57 seconds remaining, and McClary added one charity shot with 38 seconds to go, as Willamette increased its advantage to 80-73. Satern made the second of two free throws with 31 seconds left to pull the Bruins within six points, but Willamette made two more free throws and a layup the rest of the way to hold off the Bruins. Satern scored the game's final basket on a three-pointer with one second remaining.

George Fox was led by Satern, who scored 21 points on 7-12 shooting, including a trio of threes. Chris Parker contributed 18 points, Brady Strutz tacked on 14, and Heu-Weller provided 11. Parker had a team-high five rebounds, while Satern and Strutz each handed out four assists.

Andrus led all scorers with 27 points, with his 12-12 showing at the line tying the Willamette record for most free throws in a game without a miss, first set by Russ Sovde vs. Pacific University on Jan. 16, 1990. Stuvland added 18 points, hitting 5-6 from three-point range, McClary had 14, and Nugent scored 12. The Bearcats were 20-23 (.870) from the line as opposed to the Bruins' 15-23 (.652), and also held a 37-28 advantage on the boards, led by Ian Mansfield's game-high 11 rebounds. Nugent had five assists.

The loss leveled the Bruins' overall record at 11-11 and dropped them to 6-7 in the conference. The Bearcats climbed to 10-12 overall and 6-7 in the NWC, creating a three-way tie, along with Pacific, for fourth place in the league standings. However, with the three teams ahead of them - Whitworth College, Lewis & Clark College, and the University of Puget Sound - having only three losses each, none of the fourth-place teams can catch that trio for a spot in the three-team NWC Tournament.

George Fox plays its final three regular-season games at home, starting Saturday with Pacific at 8 p.m. Willamette, which has concluded its home season, visits Linfield College Saturday, also at 8 p.m. Both games will follow women's NWC games at 6 p.m.

2/8 – ACADEMIC ALL-DISTRICT: Bruins' Heu-Weller and Parker Named to Academic All-District Team

NEWBERG, Ore. – Two George Fox University players, Phil Heu-Weller for the second straight year and Chris Parker for the first time, have been named to the 2006-07 ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District VIII College Division Men's Basketball First Team as voted on by members of the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA).

Heu-Weller, a senior wing from Olympia, Wash., has fashioned a 3.86 grade point average while majoring in business administration. On the court, he has played a major role in the Bruins' 11-10 record and fourth-place standing in the conference race, ranking second on the Bruins in scoring at 13.8 points per game and third in rebounding at 4.1 rebounds per game. He ranks sixth in the Northwest Conference in 3-point field goal pct. (.405), 10th in 3-point field goals (2.13), and 13th in scoring (13.8), despite missing five games in mid-season with a foot injury. He has been named the Bruin Athletic Association Men's Athlete of the Week once and received honorable mention for NWC Player of the Week once.

Parker, a senior post from Aloha, Ore., has a 3.70 grade point average while majoring in political science. He is the Bruins' leading scorer at 16.0 points a game and is second in rebounding with 4.8 boards per game. In the conference, he ranks second in free throw pct. (.824), seventh in scoring (16.0), ninth in field goal pct. (.523), and 19th in rebounding (4.8). He has been named the Bruin Athletic Association Men's Athlete of the Week five times, was honorable mention for NWC Player of the Week four times, and received the NWC Men's Player of the Week award for Nov. 13-19. He is closing in on 1,000 points for a career with 922, needing 78 in the Bruins' last four games to become the 33rd player in GFU history to reach that milestone.

Other First Team members of the Academic All-District VIII Team, which includes institutions in Oregon, Washington, Alaska, Idaho, Utah, Nevada, Arizona, California, and Hawaii, are Chapman University's Patrick Carney, Daniel Markus of the University of Redlands, and Kyle Born of Whitman College. All are automatically nominated for Academic All-America honors.

The Academic All-America Teams program honors over 800 male and female student-athletes annually who have succeeded at the highest level on the playing field and in the classroom. Individuals are selected through voting by CoSIDA, a 2,000-member organization consisting of sports public relations professionals for colleges and universities in the United States and Canada. Since the program's inception in 1952, CoSIDA has bestowed Academic All-America honors on more than 14,000 student-athletes in Divisions I, II, III and the NAIA.

To be eligible, a student-athlete must be a varsity starter or key reserve, maintain a cumulative grade point average of 3.20 on a scale of 4.00, have reached sophomore athletic and academic standings at his or her current institution, and be nominated by the school's sports information director.

Now in its second season of sponsoring the Academic All-America Teams program, ESPN The Magazine – winner of the 2003 National Magazine Award for General Excellence – is a provocative and innovative sports publication. Full of insight, analysis, impact and wit, the oversized bi-weekly with a circulation of 1.85 million looks ahead to give fans a unique perspective on the world of sports.

2/2 – WHITMAN 69, GEORGE FOX 59: Missionaries Deal Blow to Bruins' NWC Tournament Chances

WALLA WALLA, Wash. – Northwest Conference scoring and rebounding leader Kyle Born scored 20 points and grabbed 17 rebounds, pacing the Whitman College Missionaries to a 69-59 men's basketball win over George Fox University Friday night here at the Sherwood Center that dealt a damaging blow to the Bruins' hopes of making the three-team conference tournament.

The Bruins, who began the day in fourth place in the league standings one game out of third, fell to 11-9 overall and 6-5 in conference play. The last-place Missionaries picked up only their second league win of the season, improving to 6-14 overall and 2-9 in the NWC.

The teams battled on even terms throughout the first half, with seven lead changes in the first 13 minutes. The Bruins' largest lead was three points at 19-16 on a free throw by Brent Satern with 7:17 to go in the half. The Missionaries twice held six-point leads, the last at 29-23 on a three-pointer by Chris Faidley with four minutes to go, but the Bruins scored the final four points on layups by Chris Parker and Satern to cut the halftime margin to 29-27.

Whitman never trailed in the second half, although the Bruins managed to tie it up five times before the Missionaries took the lead for good. A jumper by Faidley broke a 39-39 tie with 12:30 to play, and Garth Brandal's two layups capped an 8-0 run that gave Whitman its first double-digit lead of 57-46 with 7:21 remaining. The Bruins fought back within three points when Satern nailed a trey to cut it to 57-54 with 3:42 left, but Faidley hit another three half a minute later, igniting a 12-5 stretch run by the Missionaries that sealed the win.

Satern led the Bruins with 19 points and Evan Atwater added 10 off the bench. Brady Strutz had a team-leading six rebounds, Matt Noble passed out three assists, and Satern led the defense with five steals. The offense had a tough night, hitting only .350 (21-60) from the field and .235 (4-17) from three-point range.

In addition to Born's big game, Faidley finished with 16 points and Aaron Hazel added 14, hitting a perfect 7-7 from the floor. Ian Warner had six assists and three steals. The Missionaries dominated the backboards 44-33 and shot .472 (25-53) from the field, including .389 (7-18) from beyond the arc.

The Bruins now visit 13th-ranked and league-leading Whitworth College in Spokane Saturday at 8 p.m. The Missionaries host Linfield College Saturday at 6 p.m. Both games follow NWC women's games which start two hours earlier.

BRUIN BITS:

 Strutz BAA Athlete of the Week, HM for NWC Player Honors

Brady Strutz has been named Bruin Athletic Association Men's Athlete of the Week and received honorable mention for Northwest Conference Men's Player of the Week for Jan. 22-28 as the Bruins picked up two wins. In a 65-64 win at Linfield Tuesday, he scored 16 points on 6-9 field goals (1-3 on threes) and 3-4 free throws, including a winning pair with 2.5 seconds left, 8 rebounds and a blocked shot. In a 75-63 upset of #13 Puget Sound Saturday, he had 18 points on 5-14 field goals and 8-13 free throws, with 10 rebounds for his first career double-double, 5 assists and 5 blocks. For the week, he scored 34 points (17.0 ppg) on 11-23 (.478) field goals, including 1-4 (.250) on threes, and 11-17 (.647) free throws, with 18 rebounds (9.0), 5 assists, and 6 blocks. He is 4th in the NWC in blocked shots (1.06), and 6th in rebounding (6.8) and assists (3.50).

 2006-07 Honors:

- Chris Parker - Bruin Athletic Association Men's Athlete of the Week (Nov. 13-19, Dec. 4-10, Jan. 1-7, Jan. 15-21); NWC Player of the Week (Nov. 13-19, HM-Dec. 4-10, HM-Jan. 1-7, HM-Jan. 15-21)
- Phil Heu-Weller - Bruin Athletic Association Men's Athlete of the Week (Nov. 20-26); NWC Player of the Week (HM-Nov. 20-26)
- Brent Satern - Bruin Athletic Association Men's Athlete of the Week (Nov. 27-Dec. 3, Jan. 8-14); NWC Player of the Week (HM-Nov. 27-Dec. 3, HM-Jan. 8-14)

 Bruin Injuries Open Doors for Reserves to Step Up

The Bruins have been hampered in the last couple of weeks by injuries to a pair of starters. Shooting guard Phil Heu-Weller, the team's No. 2 scorer at 15.4 ppg, suffered strained ligaments in his foot at Pacific on Jan. 13 and has missed the last five games. Forward Brady Strutz, averaging 9.3 ppg and the leading rebounder at 6.8 rpg, injured his shooting hand vs. Puget Sound on Jan. 27 and sat out the Jan. 29 game at Northwest Christian. He may be back in time to play, even if briefly, on the eastern Washington trip.

Those injuries have allow several Bruin reserves to get their opportunities, and they have made the most of them. Mark Metzler moved into the starting lineup to replace Heu-Weller and the southpaw shooter became the hottest Bruin over the last two games vs. UPS and NWCC, scoring 36 points while hitting 15-19 (.789) from the field, with 12 rebounds, 7 steals, and 4 blocked shots. Evan Atwater hit 8-8 free throws in the final two minutes to seal a win at Pacific Lutheran, then scored 12 at Linfield and 11 at Northwest Christian while hitting 3 treys in each. Grant Vahalla scored 8 much-needed points at Linfield, while Joe Ahn sparked a comeback vs. Puget Sound with 6 points on 3-4 shooting and 4 rebounds. Matt Noble scored 10 points and had 9 rebounds in the last two games, and Bryan O'Connell, playing in his home town of Eugene, picked up his first points of the season with a basket at Northwest Christian.

1/27 – GEORGE FOX 75, PUGET SOUND 63: Bruins Rally to Hand #13 Loggers Second Straight Loss

NEWBERG, Ore. – Down by 17 points with 13 minutes to play against the fourth-highest scoring team in the country, the George Fox University Bruins stunned the University of Puget Sound with a 34-5 run to end the game, taking a 75-63 victory over the 13th-ranked Loggers in Northwest Conference men's basketball Saturday night here at the Wheeler Sports Center's Miller Gym.

George Fox improved to 10-8 overall and 6-4 in the league, while Puget Sound slipped to 14-4 overall and 7-3 in the NWC. Coupled with a 119-108 loss at Willamette University Friday, it was the first time since the 2001-02 season that the four-time defending NWC champion Loggers had lost back-to-back league games.

The first half was all Loggers as the visitors forced 21 Bruin turnovers and led for the entire 20 minutes, taking as much as a 14-point lead of 29-15 on a Robert Krauel basket with 5:08 left. A 12-2 run, led by Joe Ahn's two baskets and an assist on a third, brought the Bruins within four at 31-27 with 2:47 to go, but the Loggers ended the half with an 11-2 outburst to go up 42-29 at the break. Ryan DeLong with 14 points and Krauel with 12 led the Loggers, while Brady Strutz had 10 in the half for the Bruins.

Puget Sound stayed comfortably in front while building up a 17-point lead of 58-41 in the second half on a three-pointer by Jeff Walker with 13:00 to go - and then the Loggers, averaging 103.9 points coming in, went stone-cold, making only two their final 19 shot attempts and ending the half with a .212 shooting mark (7-33). The Bruins turned up the defensive pressure as well, making nine steals and forcing 18 second-half Logger turnovers while cutting their own miscues down to eight.

Picking it up offensively, the Bruins shot 9-15 from the field over the final 13 minutes. A 10-0 run, featuring baskets by reserves Matt Noble and Ahn and back-to-back layups by Mark Metzler, cut the deficit to 58-51 before Krauel scored inside to make it 60-51. The Bruins then went on an 8-0 run to slice the Logger lead to a single digit at 60-59 with 7:06 remaining. A steal and layup by Metzler gave the Bruins their first lead at 62-61 with 4:08 to go, but after a Brent Satern free throw made it 63-61, Weston Wood tied the game for the last time 63-63 with a layup at 3:27, the last points the Loggers would score.

Satern broke the tie with a three-pointer at the three-minute mark, igniting a 12-0 Bruin run to end the game. Metzler made a layup after a steal and feed by Satern, and the Bruins iced the game with seven free throws in the final minute, five by Satern and a pair by Metzler.

Strutz paced the Bruins with his first career double-double, knocking down 18 points while grabbing 10 rebounds to go with five assists and five blocked shots. Metzler had a career-high 17 points, sinking 7-8 from the field, along with seven boards, six steals, and three blocks. Satern added 12 points and four steals, and Chris Parker chipped in with 10 points. The Bruins finished with a .500 shooting mark (24-48) and controlled the boards 44-41.

Krauel led the Loggers with a double-double of 20 points and 10 rebounds, and DeLong finished with 17 points. Antwan Williams had five assists and five steals. The final shooting percentage for the Loggers was .320 (24-75), and they were only 8-31 (.258) from three-point range.

George Fox plays its final non-conference game Monday at Northwest Christian College in Eugene at 7:30 p.m. Puget Sound returns home to host cross-town rival Pacific Lutheran University Tuesday at 8 p.m., following the women's NWC game at 6 p.m.

2/10 – GEORGE FOX 68, PACIFIC 59: Bruins Battle Back from Big Deficit to Baffle Boxers

NEWBERG, Ore. – Down by 13 points midway through the second half and by 10 with 7:30 to play, the George Fox University Bruins staged a furious comeback to defeat the visiting Pacific University Boxers 68-59 in a Northwest Conference men's basketball game Saturday night here at the Wheeler Sports Center's Miller Gym.

The Bruins opened the game with a basket by Chris Parker and a three-pointer and a pair of free throws by Phil Heu-Weller for a 7-0 lead in the first two minutes before Ross Bartlett's two free throws at the 17:54 mark got Pacific on the scoreboard. That started the Boxers off on a 14-2 run that put them ahead 14-9 with 11:09 left in the half. After falling behind by as many as eight, the Bruins rallied within a point at 20-19 on a pair of Brady Strutz free throws with 4:04 left, but the Boxers outscored the Bruins 13-5 over the last four minutes to lead by nine, 33-24, at the half. The Bruins struggled to a .292 shooting percentage (7-24) in the period.

The game was delayed for almost 15 minutes with 7:47 left in the first half when a visiting Pacific cheerleader fell during a timeout stunt and had to be carried from the court on a stretcher. She was taken in an ambulance to Providence Newberg Hospital for observation.

The Boxers extended their lead in the second half to 13 on back-to-back threes by Jesse Wong that made it 49-36 with 12:15 to play. The lead was still 10 at 54-44 when the Bruins went on an offensive rampage, outscoring the Boxers 24-5 over the last 7:30. An 11-0 run, capped by Brent Satern's three, gave George Fox a 55-54 lead with 5:08 left. Donnie Harrison-Davis' free throw tied it 55-55 with 3:44 to go, but Mark Metzler's three from the left wing put the Bruins up 58-55 with 3:22 left and ignited a final 13-4 Bruin outburst. The Bruins hit 8-10 free throws in that stretch, six of them by Satern, and twice led by as many as 11.

Heu-Weller, playing his first major minutes since suffering an ankle injury a month ago at Pacific, led all scorers with 20 points, while Satern and Parker added 12 each and Joe Ahn came off the bench for a career-high 11. Parker had six rebounds, and Satern and Heu-Weller had three assists apiece. Strutz was the defensive star, swapping away five Pacific shots. The George Fox shooting improved significantly to .480 (12-25) in the second half, and they were hot at the line, sinking 23-28 in the game for a .821 mark.

Wong topped the Boxers with 17 points, scorching the nets on 6-7 shooting and a perfect 3-3 from beyond the arc. Kyle Motta and Harrison-Davis chipped in with 11, while Motta's eight rebounds led the Boxers to a 37-33 advantage on the glass. The Boxers shot .396 (21-53) from the field for the game but managed only a .600 mark (12-20) from the line.

George Fox (12-11, NWC 7-7), now alone in fourth place in the conference, hosts Pacific Lutheran University Friday at 8 p.m., following the NWC women's game at 6 p.m. Pacific (10-12, NWC 6-8) goes to Northwest Christian College Tuesday for a non-conference game at 7:30 p.m.

BRUIN BITS:

 Parker BAA Athlete of the Week, HM for NWC Player Honors

Chris Parker has been named Bruin Athletic Association Men's Athlete of the Week and received honorable mention for Northwest Conference Men's Player of the Week for Jan. 15-21 as the Bruins split a pair of conference road games. In a 77-68 win at Pacific Lutheran Friday, the senior post scored a career-high 32 points on 12-17 field goals and 8-10 free throws, with 7 rebounds. In a 61-74 loss at Lewis & Clark Saturday, he had 20 points on 7-13 field goals and 6-8 free throws, with 3 rebounds and an assist. For the week, he had 52 points (26.0 ppg) on 19-30 (.633) field goals and 14-18 (.778) free throws, with 10 rebounds and an assist. The NWC Player of the Week for Nov. 13-19, he has been named BAA Athlete of the Week four times now. He is 6th in the NWC in field goal pct. (.543), 7th in scoring (16.3), and 8th in free throw pct. (.798).

 2006-07 Honors:

- Chris Parker - Bruin Athletic Association Men's Athlete of the Week (Nov. 13-19, Dec. 4-10, Jan. 1-7, Jan. 15-21); NWC Player of the Week (Nov. 13-19, HM-Dec. 4-10, HM-Jan. 1-7, HM-Jan. 15-21)

- Phil Heu-Weller - Bruin Athletic Association Men's Athlete of the Week (Nov. 20-26); NWC Player of the Week (HM-Nov. 20-26)

- Brent Satern - Bruin Athletic Association Men's Athlete of the Week (Nov. 27-Dec. 3, Jan. 8-14); NWC Player of the Week (HM-Nov. 27-Dec. 3, HM-Jan. 8-14)

- Brady Strutz - Bruin Athletic Association Men's Athlete of the Week (Dec. 11-21); NWC Player of the Week (HM-Dec. 11-21)

 Bruins Lose No. 2 Scorer Heu-Weller Indefinitely

It has been a tough senior season for Bruin wing Phil Heu-Weller. In December, he suffered a broken nose in practice and played several games with a clear plastic mask on his face to protect it. On Jan. 13 at Pacific, he suffered what was later diagnosed as strained ligaments in his foot and has missed the last three games. He is hopeful of returning in time for the Bruins' final two regular-season games on Homecoming weekend Feb. 16-17. Heu-Weller was the Bruins' No. 2 scorer (15.4 ppg) when he went out. When the season began, he had a chance to become the 33rd player in the Bruins' 103-year basketball history to reach 1,000 points, but if he does not play again, he will end his three-year GFU career with 809 points and a total of 817 in four years (he had 8 points as a freshman at Claremont-Mudd-Scripps in 2003-04).

1/23 – GEORGE FOX 65, LINFIELD 64: Bruins Rally Late from 14 Down to Stun Wildcats

McMINNVILLE, Ore. – Down by 14 points with eight minutes left, the George Fox University Bruins used the three-point field goal and a pair of free throws by Brady Strutz with 2.5 seconds left to stun the Linfield College Wildcats 65-64 in a Northwest Conference men's basketball game Tuesday night here at Ted Wilson Gym.

After early ties at 2-2 and 4-4, Khaatim Smith took over for Linfield, scoring nine points on three shots in the lane and a three-pointer in a 16-5 spurt that put the Wildcats up by 11 at 20-9 with 11:57 remaining in the period. Not to be outdone, the Bruins responded with a 15-0 run of their own, capped by a driving layup by Brent Satern, to take a 24-20 lead with 5:37 to go. Andy Baldwin hit a pair of threes in the final two minutes as Linfield took a 33-31 lead with 31 seconds left, but Strutz hit a jumper in the lane with 10 seconds left to send the teams into the locker rooms at halftime knotted at 33-33.

Smith broke the tie with a jumper from the right wing 21 seconds into the second half and the Wildcats held the Bruins without a field goal for almost seven minutes while taking a 43-35 lead. Grant Vahalla finally canned a jumper with 13:13 left for the Bruins' first basket, but Linfield continued to stretch the margin, taking its largest lead of 14 points at 58-44 on a dunk by Smith with 8:32 to play.

George Fox then went to the long ball to get back in the game. Treys by Satern and Strutz and a pair by Evan Atwater keyed a 14-2 run that brought the Bruins within a pair at 60-58 with 5:38 to go. The teams traded baskets over the next four possessions before Smith missed the front end of a one-and-one with 48.6 seconds left and Strutz rebounded, giving the Bruins a chance.

Fouled with 16.1 seconds left, Strutz made only the second of a two-shot foul, leaving the Bruins down 63-64. Resorting to a full-court trap, the Bruins' pressure forced Linfield into a 10-second backcourt violation, giving them the ball back with 4.1 ticks left. Strutz received the inbound pass and was fouled again with 2.5 seconds left on a drive to the goal, then calmly sank both free throws for the win. Smith's half-court try for the winner bounced off the backboard and the rim.

Strutz and Satern led the Bruins with 16 points each and Atwater added 12. Leading scorer Chris Parker was held to only eight points, half his average, and all on free throws, as the Wildcats double and triple-teamed him every time he got the ball and limited him to two shots. The Bruins were also without number two scorer Phil Heu-Weller, who is sidelined indefinitely with a foot injury. Strutz had eight rebounds, and Satern passed out five assists.

Smith led all scorers with 17 points for the Wildcats and Jeremy Goodman chipped in with 15. Linfield's leading scorer, Evan Timperly, managed only four points, 14 below his average, but led all rebounders with 10 as Linfield controlled the boards 35-28. Smith had four assists.

George Fox (9-8, NWC 5-4), with a four-game NWC road stretch over, returns home Saturday to host the University of Puget Sound at 8 p.m. Linfield (6-12, NWC 1-8) hosts Pacific Lutheran University Friday at 8 p.m. Both games will follow women's NWC games at 6 p.m.

1/20 – LEWIS & CLARK 74, GEORGE FOX 61: Pioneers Overtake Bruins with Big 2nd-Half Run

PORTLAND, Ore. – Down by four points with just under 10 minutes to play, the Lewis & Clark College Pioneers exploded for a 22-4 run over a seven-minute span to seize control and went on to defeat the George Fox University Bruins 74-61 in a Northwest Conference men's basketball game Saturday night here at the Pamplin Sports Center.

There were 12 lead changes in a closely-contested first half, with George Fox's biggest lead at two points and Lewis & Clark twice taking five-point leads. Jeff Christensen hit a pair of free throws with 34 seconds left for a 29-24 Pioneer lead, but Joe Ahn's reverse layup with six seconds left cut that margin to 29-26 at the half. Both teams struggled from the field, the Bruins sinking only .323 (10-31) and the Pios only .296 (8-27). Mark Robinowitz had 11 for the Pios with a pair of three-pointers, while Chris Parker kept the Bruins in the game with eight first-half points.

The Pioneers twice took eight-point leads early in the second half, going up 39-31 on a rebound basket by Thomas Tillery with 16:10 left, before the Bruins rallied. With Parker scoring nine points in a seven-minute span, the Bruins went on an 18-6 run to take a 49-45 lead with 9:41 to play. The Pioneers then exploded for a 13-0 run over the next three minutes, with six points by Robinowitz and five by Joey Toboni, to go up 58-49 with 6:18 left. Baskets by Parker and Brent Satern pulled the Bruins within 58-53, but Gene Rivera hit an uncontested layup and a three from the top of the key to give Lewis & Clark a 10-point lead of 63-53 with 2:26 left. The Pios cemented the win with three free throws and four fast-break layups in the final two minutes as the Bruins pressed in an effort to get back in the game.

Parker finished with 20 points and Satern with 18 as the only Bruins in double figures. Brady Strutz just missed a double-double with nine points and a game and career-high 14 rebounds, and also had six assists. The Bruins struggled from the field, shooting only .379 (22-58) overall and .222 (4-18) from three-point range, but held a 40-30 edge on the boards

Robinowitz led all scorers with 21 points for the Pios, while David Berggren had 13 and Toboni 11. Rivera had seven rebounds and three blocked shots, and Nick Thierry passed out six assists. The Pios raised their final shooting mark to .480 (24-50) by hitting a blistering .696 (16-23) in the second half, and connected on .407 (11-27) from three-point range.

George Fox (8-8, NWC 4-4) begins the second half of the conference season Tuesday with a visit to Yamhill County rival Linfield College for an 8 p.m. game. Lewis & Clark (10-6, NWC 5-3) hosts Whitman College Friday, also at 8 p.m. Both games will follow women's NWC games at 6 p.m.

1/19 – GEORGE FOX 77, PACIFIC LUTHERAN 68: Parker's Career High Powers Bruins past Lutes

TACOMA, Wash. – With No. 2 scorer Phil Heu-Weller sidelined indefinitely by a foot injury, senior post Chris Parker stepped up with a career-high 32 points, leading the George Fox University Bruins to a 77-68 win over the Pacific Lutheran University Lutes in a Northwest Conference men's basketball game Friday night here at Olson Auditorium.

George Fox maintained the lead for the first 11 minutes of the game as Parker scored 10 of his 12 first-half points in that span, carrying the Bruins to an 18-14 lead. Back-to-back three-pointers by Kurt Oliver and Jared Brandeberry gave Pacific Lutheran its first lead at 20-18, and they remained ahead until the final 30 seconds of the period. The Bruins regained the lead for the break 32-31 when Brent Satern stole the ball as Josh Dressler went up for a three-point attempt and drove for the go-ahead layup.

With Scott McDaniels scoring nine points in the first six minutes of the second half, the Lutes used a 6-0 run to take a 47-45 lead, but the Bruins answered with an 8-0 run on layups by Parker and Satern and two baskets by Brady Strutz for a 53-47 lead with 10:27 to play. The visitors would not trail again, although the Lutes stayed close until the very end. Parker's fast break layup with 1:54 to go put the Bruins up 67-58, and they hit 10-10 free throws in the final 1:30, two by Parker and eight by Evan Atwater, as the Lutes resorted to fouling in an effort to catch up.

Parker, whose previous high was 27 points in the season opener against Corban, hit 12-17 from the field and 8-10 from the line. Satern added 17 points and Strutz had 13. Parker and Strutz grabbed seven rebounds each as the Bruins controlled the boards 38-35. Strutz had four assists and Satern picked up three steals. The Bruins shot .520 (26-50) from the floor and .800 (24-30) from the line.

Brandeberry led the Lutes with 19 points, Oliver ended with 11, and McDaniels had 10. Dressler, the NWC's leading scorer with a 20.4 average coming in, was held to eight points on a 3-11 night from the field. Landon Heidenreich had a team-high six rebounds, and he and Brandeberry had three assists each. The Lutes managed a .379 shooting mark (25-66).

George Fox (8-7, NWC 4-3) continues its conference road swing Saturday, visiting Lewis & Clark College for an 8 p.m. game. Pacific Lutheran (6-8, NWC 3-4) hosts Pacific University Saturday, also at 8 p.m. Both games will follow women's NWC games at 6 p.m.

1/13 -- PACIFIC 64, GEORGE FOX 57: Boxers' Blistering First Half Leads to Win over Bruins

FOREST GROVE, Ore. -- Shooting almost 60 per cent from the field in the first half, the Pacific University Boxers mounted a double-digit lead but had to hang on for dear life in the second half to defeat the George Fox University Bruins 64-57 in a Northwest Conference men's basketball game Saturday night here at the Pacific Athletic Center.

George Fox led only once in the first half, taking a 3-2 lead on a three-pointer by Phil Heu-Weller after Donnie Harrison-Davis had opened the scoring for Pacific with a layup. Harrison-Davis made another chippie to break a 5-5 tie and spark a 9-0 run that gave the Boxers a 14-5 lead with 15 minutes left in the period. The Bruins closed within five when Heu-Weller hit a three and a jumper back-to-back to cut the Pacific lead to 23-18 with 6:22 left, but the Boxers went on a 13-7 run to close out the half with a 36-25 lead. Joe Van Domelen's basket gave Pacific its largest lead of 14 points at 36-22 with 57 seconds left. The Boxers shot .593 (16-27) to .391 (9-23) for the Bruins in the half.

The Boxers cooled off considerably at the start of the second half, missing 11 of their first 14 shots, and the Bruins got hot, hitting six of eight from the field and the free throw line, to get back in the game. A jumper by Matt Noble with 10:36 left brought the Bruins within two at 46-44, but the Boxers responded with a rebound basket by Kyle Motta, a jumper by Ryan Turcott, and a pair of free throws by Jesse Wong to push the Pacific lead back to 52-44. A three-pointer by Satern got the Bruins back within three at 54-51 with 3:55 left, but Ross Bartlett hit a three-point play at 3:34 as the Boxers regained momentum, making seven free throws down the stretch to preserve the win.

Satern finished with 19 points and Heu-Weller 13 to pace the Bruins. Heu-Weller was the top rebounder with five, and Satern had four assists. After their hot start to the second half, the Bruins went cold and hit only three of their final 15 attempts, ending with a .391 percentage (18-46) for the game.

Harrison-Davis led the balanced Boxer attack with 13 points, Bartlett added 11, and Thomas Bright scored 10. Motta's nine rebounds led the Boxers to a 35-25 margin on the boards. Harrison-Davis had four assists. After their sizzling first half, the Boxers had to settle for a .440 percentage (22-50) for the game, hitting only .261 (6-23) in the second half.

George Fox (7-7, NWC 3-3) visits Pacific Lutheran University and Pacific (8-6, NWC 4-2) goes down the road to Linfield College for conference games Friday, both at 8 p.m. following women's NWC games at 6 p.m.

1/12 – GEORGE FOX 72, WILLAMETTE 52: Bruins Snap 11-Game Skid Against Bearcats

NEWBERG, Ore. – Led by point guard Brent Satern's 18 points and six assists, the George Fox University Bruins snapped an 11-game losing streak to the Willamette University Bearcats with a 72-52 win in a Northwest Conference men's basketball game Friday night here at the Wheeler Sports Center's Miller Gym.

Layouts by Phil Heu-Weller and Satern gave the Bruins an early 4-0 lead and the home team never trailed again. A three-pointer by Satern gave George Fox its first double-digit lead at 17-6 with 12:32 left in the period, and the Bruins led by as much as 15 when Chris Parker sank a free throw to make it 33-18 with 2:42 left. It was 33-20 at the half after the Bruins shot .500 (11-22) in the period to .308 (8-26) for the Bearcats.

Willamette's Dan Nugent scored the first two baskets of the second half to get the Bearcats within nine at 33-24, but that was as close as the visitors would come. The Bruins responded with a three by Satern and back-to-back baskets by Parker for a 40-24 lead, and eventually built a 23-point lead at 72-49 on a bucket by Taylor Martin with 34 seconds left.

Satern was joined in the George Fox scoring column by Parker with 13 points and Heu-Weller with 11. Martin led all rebounders with eight as the Bruins controlled the glass 36-27. The Bruins shot .460 (23-50) for the game, and sizzled from outside the three-point arc at .600 (9-15). The Bruins also held a 10-free throw margin, hitting 17-22 to 7-13 for the Bearcats.

Willamette was led by Michael Smith with 13 points and Rob Andrus with 11. Ian Mansfield and Tain Cantrell grabbed six rebounds apiece, and Smith passed out four assists. The Bearcats hit .400 (20-50) from the field but only .294 (5-17) from three-point range.

George Fox (7-6, NWC 3-2), which last beat the Bearcats 106-104 in double overtime on Jan. 16, 2001, visits Pacific University and Willamette (5-9, NWC 1-4) hosts Linfield College Saturday in conference action at 8 p.m., following women's contests at 6 p.m.

1/6 – WHITWORTH 83, GEORGE FOX 53: 6th-Ranked Pirates Pound Bruins for Best Start Ever

NEWBERG, Ore. – Running their record to 13-0 for the best start in team history, the Whitworth College Pirates jumped out to an early lead and were never threatened in an 83-53 rout of the George Fox University Bruins in Northwest Conference men's basketball action Saturday night here at the Wheeler Sports Center's Miller Gym.

In topping the 12-0 start by the 2002-03 Whitworth team, the Pirates jumped out to a 7-1 lead, and reached a double-digit lead for good on a layup by Jon Young to make it 18-7 with 10:17 left in the first half. The Pirates hit a 20-point lead with 6:32 to go when Ryan Symes' jumper made it 29-9. The Pirates shot .481 (13-27) while holding the struggling Bruins to a .167 figure (5-30) in building up a 42-13 halftime lead behind Symes' 15 first-half points.

The Bruins battled the Pirates on virtually-even terms throughout the second half, being outscored only 41-40, but the damage had been done in the first half. Whitworth's largest margin was 36 points when Calvin Jurich made a rebound basket to for a 68-32 advantage with 6:41 remaining.

The nation's best-shooting team at .548 coming in, Whitworth managed a .481 mark this time, making 26-54 from the field, but they didn't need more accuracy as George Fox wound up at only .298 for the game on 17-57 shooting. The Pirates also owned the boards with 43 rebounds to 30 for the Bruins.

Chris Parker scored 13 points and Mark Metzler 12 to lead the Bruins. Brady Strutz had a team-high eight rebounds, Brent Saterm handed out three assists, and Metzler made three steals.

Symes finished with 24 points for the Pirates to lead all scorers, and also had a game-high nine rebounds. James Jones added 17 points and Young had 10. Bryan Williams, the national leader in assists, had five this time around.

George Fox (6-6, NWC 2-2) hosts Willamette University and Whitworth (13-0, NWC 4-0) returns home to play 13th-ranked University of Puget Sound in a showdown for first place in the league Friday, both games at 8 p.m. following women's NWC contests at 6 p.m.

1/5 – GEORGE FOX 77, WHITMAN 63: Bruins Inaugurate '07 with Win over Missionaries

NEWBERG, Ore. – Led by Phil Heu-Weller's game-high 19 points, 14 in the second half, the George Fox University Bruins inaugurated the 2007 portion of their schedule with a 77-63 win over the Whitman College Missionaries in Northwest Conference men's basketball action Friday night here at the Wheeler Sports Center's Miller Gym.

There were four ties and four lead changes in the first ten minutes of the game, with neither team leading by more than four during that time. The Bruins went ahead 19-18 on a three-pointer by Brady Strutz with 10:36 left and led throughout the remainder of the period, taking their largest lead of eight points at 39-31 with 31 seconds left after back-to-back treys by Brent Satern and Heu-Weller. Garth Brandal's three at the buzzer pulled the Missionaries within 39-34 at intermission.

With Heu-Weller hitting 5-7 from the field in the second half, the Bruins began to pull away. A steal and layup by Chris Parker and a three by Heu-Weller gave George Fox a double-digit lead of 55-44 with 12:49 to play and sparked a 20-4 run over a seven-minute span that put the game out of reach. Grant Vahalla's layup with 6:26 to go gave the Bruins their biggest lead of 22 points at 70-48.

Joining Heu-Weller, who sank five three-pointers, in the scoring parade for the Bruins were Parker with 17 and Satern with 15, 11 in the first half. Strutz and Mark Metzler had six rebounds apiece, leading the Bruins to a 34-32 advantage against the league's best rebounding team with an average margin of +8.8. Strutz and Satern had seven assists each.

Chris Faidley topped the Missionaries with 17 points, Jordan Wheeler had 11 off the bench, and Kyle Born, the NWC's leading scorer with a 23.6 average, was limited to 10 points after scoring a Whitman-record and conference record-tying 53 at the University of Redlands Wednesday. Born also had eight rebounds, and Ian Warner passed out three assists.

George Fox (6-5, NWC 2-1) hosts 6th-ranked and unbeaten (12-0) Whitworth College and Whitman (3-8, NWC 0-3) visits Linfield College Saturday in conference games at 6 p.m., following women's games at 4 p.m.

Whitman - 6-6 (4-2 home, 2-4 away)
Whitworth - 5-7 (3-3 home, 2-4 away)

BRUIN BITS:

 Strutz BAA Athlete of the Week, HM for NWC Player Honors

Junior wing Brady Strutz has been named the Bruin Athletic Association Men's Athlete of the Week and received honorable mention for Northwest Conference Men's Player of the Week for Dec. 11-21 for his all-around game in the Bruins' only game of the week. In a 78-67 loss at NCAA Division II St. Martin's on Dec. 20, he scored 10 points, one of five Bruins in double figures, on 4-6 from the field and 2-2 from the line, with 6 rebounds, 3 assists, and 3 steals. He is currently 7th in the conference in assists (3.30), 8th in rebounding (5.8), and 8th in blocked shots (0.60).

 2006-07 Honors:

- Chris Parker - Bruin Athletic Association Men's Athlete of the Week (Nov. 13-19, Dec. 4-10); NWC Player of the Week (Nov. 13-19, HM-Dec. 4-10)
- Phil Heu-Weller - Bruin Athletic Association Men's Athlete of the Week (Nov. 20-26); NWC Player of the Week (HM-Nov. 20-26)
- Brent Satern - Bruin Athletic Association Men's Athlete of the Week (Nov. 27-Dec. 3); NWC Player of the Week (HM-Nov. 27-Dec. 3)
- Brady Strutz - Bruin Athletic Association Men's Athlete of the Week (Dec. 11-21); NWC Player of the Week (HM-Dec. 11-21)

 Double-Doubles:

Brent Satern: Career 2, season 1 - 14 pts/10 ast vs. Corban, 11/17
Chris Parker: Career 1, season 1 - 18 pts/10 reb vs. Holy Names, 11/18
Phil Heu-Weller: Career 1, season 1 - 13 pts/10 reb at St. Martin's, 12/20

 Records Set or Tied in 2006-07:

- Most Turnovers, Player, Game - 12 by Brent Satern vs. Concordia-Irvine at Pukalani, Hawaii (old record was 11 by Gary Chenault at Portland State, 1/13/78)

 Bruins vs. Ranked Teams (1-2):

Nov. 18 - defeated NAIA D-II #9 Holy Names 85-65 in Newberg, Ore.
Dec. 2 - lost to NCAA D-III #22 Puget Sound 79-92 in Tacoma, Wash.
Dec. 8 - lost to NAIA D-II #2 Oregon Tech 73-84 in Salem, Ore.

 Heu-Weller Gets First Double-Double Before Home Folks

Phil Heu-Weller posted his first career double-double in front of a large gathering of his family and friends when the Bruins dropped a 78-67 decision to NCAA Division II St. Martin's Dec. 20 in Lacey, Wash. Lacey is a suburb of the state capital of Olympia, where Heu-Weller was a star at Olympia High School. He had 13 points and a game-high 10 rebounds, tying his career best, but it did not come easy. Earlier in the week, he had suffered a broken nose in practice and had to wear a protective clear plastic shield in the real game, which hampered his shooting accuracy. Normally one of the best long-range shooters in the league, he was 5-16 from the field and 2-9 from three-point range en route to his 13 points.

 Career Lists: Parker Among GFU Leaders in Both FG and FT Pct.

- Phil Heu-Weller began the season with the 4th-best free throw pct. in Bruin history (.847, 138-163). He was 1-2 in the last game and is now at .810 (175-216), ranking 10th ...
- Chris Parker entered the season with the 6th-best field goal pct. in Bruin history (.559, 208-372). He was 4-10 in the last game and is now at .556 (262-471), still 6th ... He also entered the season with the 12th-best free throw pct. (.805, 169-210). He was 6-7 in the last game and is now at .802 (227-283), still 12th ...

 The Wirta Watch: "Biggs" to Hit 600 Straight Games vs. Whitworth

Mike "Biggs" Wirta, George Fox's statistical guru who saw his 1,000th Bruin men's basketball game on the final day of last season vs. Willamette on Feb. 18, can stretch his streak of consecutive GFU men's basketball games watched to 600 when the Bruins host Whitman and Whitworth Jan. 5-6. With the Bruins' game at St. Martin's on Dec. 20, he has now seen 1,010 GFU men's games (49.6% of all 2,038 games in the team's 103 seasons of competition). He has worked 431 in a row at home, not missing a home game since 1972 when he was in military service.

12/20 – ST. MARTIN'S 78, GEORGE FOX 67: Bruins' Balance Not Enough to Overcome D-II Saints

LACEY, Wash. – Despite a balanced offense that saw five players score in double figures, the George Fox University Bruins were unable to overcome the Saint Martin's University Saints on the road and dropped a 78-67 decision to the NCAA Division II team in a non-conference men's basketball game Wednesday night here at the SMU Pavilion.

The first half was tight as neither team was able to mount more than a five-point advantage. The Bruins twice held four-point leads, the last at 19-15 on a free throw by Phil Heu-Weller, playing just 10 minutes from home, with 8:33 left in the half. The Saints held five-point margins three times, the last when Jake Linton hit a three-pointer with a second remaining for a 33-28 halftime lead. The Bruins' Chris Parker had 12 first-half points to keep his team in the game.

St. Martin's never trailed in the second half, though the Bruins got within a single point four times, the last at 47-46 on a free shot by Mark Metzler with 11:11 left in the game. The Saints went on a 12-3 run over the next three minutes, however, capped by a pair of Greg O'Neal layups following Bruin turnovers, to take a 59-49 lead with 8:17 to go. The teams all but traded points thereafter, as the Bruins got no closer than eight but the Saints led by no more than 12 the rest of the way.

Parker led the Bruins with 14 points, Heu-Weller had 13, Brent Satern 12, and Brady Strutz and Metzler had 10 each. Heu-Weller posted his first career double-double by hauling down a game-high and career-high tying 10 rebounds, leading the Bruins to a 37-34 advantage on the boards. Satern passed out seven assists.

The Saints got 16 points each from Linton and Stephon Harris, while Brendan Campbell added 12 and O'Neal 10. Harris and Campbell had six rebounds apiece, and Linton handed out seven assists.

George Fox (5-5) returns to Northwest Conference action Friday, Jan. 5, hosting Whitman College at 8 p.m. following the women's NWC contest at 6 p.m. St. Martin's (3-8) plays again Saturday, Jan. 6, hosting Western Oregon University at 7 p.m. in a Great Northwest Athletic Conference game.

 The Wirta Watch: "Biggs" Closing in on 600 Straight Games

Mike "Biggs" Wirta, George Fox's statistical guru who saw his 1,000th Bruin men's basketball game on the final day of last season vs. Willamette on Feb. 18, continues to add to his remarkable streaks of attendance. With the Bruins' two games this past weekend in the Hillyer's Mid-City Ford Classic in Salem, Ore., he has now seen 1,009 GFU men's games (49.5% of all 2,037 games in the team's 103 seasons of competition). He has seen 597 straight games, home and road, and has worked 431 in a row at home, not missing a home game since 1972 when he was in military service. A member of the GFU Sports Hall of Fame Class of 1998, he also serves on the Hall of Fame Committee as its resident historian, calls statistics for the women's games, and keeps the Bruins' baseball scorebook. He was the GFU Volunteer of the Year in 1988, and inducted into the NAIA District 2 Hall of Fame in 1994.

12/9 -- GEORGE FOX 80, CORBAN 63: Bruins Blitz Warriors with Second-Half Shooting Spree

SALEM, Ore. -- Shooting over 60% in the second half, the George Fox University Bruins broke upon a tight game and defeated the Corban College Warriors for the second time this season 80-63 in the final game of the Hillyer's Mid-City Ford Classic men's basketball tournament Saturday night here at Corban's C.E. Jeffers Sports Center.

George Fox never trailed in the game, but could never take more than a three-point lead through the first 10 minutes of the contest. Phil Heu-Weller scored 10 points in the first five minutes to spark the Bruins to an early 12-9 lead, and they gradually built up a seven-point lead at 33-26 on a layup by Brent Satern with 40 seconds left in the period. A pair of free throws by the Warriors' Brad Reynoso cut the Bruin lead to 33-28 at the half.

Jason Klontz scored on a driving layup to open the second half to pull Corban within three at 33-30, but then the Bruins went to work. Satern hit a jumper in the lane, Chris Parker completed a three-point play, and Heu-Weller drained a three from the left wing in less than a minute, and the Bruins held a double-digit lead of 41-30 with 17:48 left. The Warriors closed within six at 46-40 on a basket by Jason Braun with 14:24 remaining, but another trey by Heu-Weller and another layup and free throw by Parker put the Bruin lead back into double figures for good. The Bruins twice led by as much as 21 points before settling for the 17-point win.

Satern led all scorers with 20 points, Parker had 17, Heu-Weller finished with 16, and Brady Strutz added 10. Strutz and Mark Metzler hauled in six rebounds each, leading the Bruins to a 39-31 advantage on the glass, and Satern passed out four assists. The Bruins connected on 17-28 (.607) from the floor in the second half to finish 29-56 (.518) for the game.

Wade Douglas was the only Warrior in double figures with 19 points. Braun had a team-high six rebounds and Nate Morris handed out four assists. The Warriors shot .393 (22-56) from the field.

In Saturday's early game in the tournament, the Oregon Institute of Technology, ranked 2nd in the NAIA Division II, improved to 13-0 with a 60-56 win over Lewis-Clark State College. The Warriors from Lewiston, Idaho, dropped to 6-4 on the season.

George Fox, which defeated Corban 74-61 in Newberg to open its season on Nov. 17, snapped a three-game losing streak in raising its record to 5-4. Corban fell to 1-12 as it lost for the eighth straight time.

The Bruins are off until Dec. 20 when they visit NCAA Division II St. Martin's College in Lacey, Wash., for a 7 p.m. game. The Warriors host Eastern Oregon University on Dec. 19 at 7:30 p.m. in a Cascade Collegiate Conference contest.

12/8 – OREGON TECH 84, GEORGE FOX 73: Miles Gets 800th Coaching Win as Owls Overcome Bruins

SALEM, Ore. – Coaching legend Danny Miles became the 10th coach in men's college basketball history to win 800 games as his Oregon Institute of Technology Hustlin' Owls came back in the second half to defeat the George Fox University Bruins 84-73 in the opening game of the Hillyer's Mid-City Ford Classic Friday night here at Corban College's C.E. Jeffers Sports Center.

Miles ran his career record to 800-351 in 36 seasons as the Owls, ranked No. 2 in the NAIA Division II, improved to 12-0. The Bruins fell to 4-4 with their third straight setback, but they threw a scare into the small college power for most of the game.

George Fox never trailed in the first half after jumping out to a 6-0 lead on a layup by Phil Heu-Weller and a shot from the left corner and two free throws by Chris Parker. With Oregon Tech struggling to find the basket early and Parker scoring nine of his 13 first-half points in the first six minutes, the Bruins took a double-digit lead of 15-4 on a layup by Brent Satern and stretched it to 13 at 20-7 on a three-pointer by Heu-Weller with 9:42 left.

The Owls rallied behind All-American point guard Levell Hesia, who scored nine of his 11 first-half points over a seven-minute span, cutting the lead to one at 31-30 on a pair of free throws with 1:10 left. Mark Metzler's back-door layup with 38 seconds left sent the Bruins into the locker room with a 33-30 lead.

The Bruins scored the first two buckets of the second half on layups by Taylor Martin and Parker before the Owls began to find the range. Tech took its first lead on a layup by Josh Garrett 44-43 with 15:03 to go, and the teams played on even terms over the next seven minutes. The Owls finally broke the game open when Hesia hit a pair of threes and Garrett hit another in a one-minute span, raising a one-point lead to 10 at 67-57 with 7:20 remaining. The Bruins got no closer than five, with the largest deficit 14 points on another three by Hesia that made it 82-68 with 50 seconds left.

Parker paced the Bruins with 26 points, Martin had a career-high 14, Heu-Weller added 11, and Brady Strutz scored 10. Martin also had a career game on the boards with nine rebounds, while Satern passed out four assists. The Bruins shot well, making .509 (28-55) from the field, but had 15 turnovers to only eight for Tech.

Hesia led all scorers with 27 points for the Owls, 16 in the second half, while Ryan Fiegi added 19, Garrett 13, and Myles Daley 12. Joshua Wetzler had nine rebounds as Tech held a 35-33 edge on the glass. Hesia also had five assists. After shooting only .290 (9-31) in the first half, the Owls doubled their percentage in the second half to .583 (21-36).

In Friday's second game, host Corban took on Lewis-Clark State College. Saturday's tournament schedule pits Oregon Tech against Lewis-Clark State at 6 p.m., followed by George Fox and Corban 8 p.m.

12/5 – NORTHWEST 72, GEORGE FOX 68: Eagles Hang On for Down-to-the-Wire Win Over Bruins

KIRKLAND, Wash. – Despite surrendering all by one point of a 12-point lead with 10 minutes left, the Northwest University Eagles managed to hang on for a 72-68 win over the visiting George Fox University Bruins in a down-to-the-wire non-conference men's basketball game Tuesday night here at the Northwest Pavilion.

With Phil Heu-Weller opening up on fire, the Bruins jumped out to a 17-10 lead 10 minutes into the game. Heu-Weller scored the Bruins' first 11 points, including three three-pointers, and 15 of the 17, but left the game with his second personal foul with 9:26 to play. The Eagles then went on a 14-0 run, capped by a three-point play by Aaron Sawyer, to take a 24-17 lead with 3:05 remaining. A jumper by the Bruins' Grant Vahalla ended the Northwest streak and ignited a 10-3 George Fox run to close out the period, Brent Satern making a pair of free throws with no time left on the clock to create a 27-27 halftime deadlock.

Sawyer, who had 12 points in the first half, scored 11 in the first six minutes of the second half as the Eagles moved ahead 42-36 with 14:08 to play. Heu-Weller sank another three to make it 42-39, but the Eagles then reeled off eight unanswered points to take a double-digit lead at 50-39 on a three-pointer by 24 with 12:11 left. A layup by Chris Keller gave Northwest its largest lead of 12 points at 54-42 with 10:48 left.

The Bruins answered with a 7-0 run to get back in the game, sparked by a three-pointer and a layup by Mark Metzler that made it 54-49 with 7:45 left. The teams then traded scores several times before the Bruins got a three-pointer from Satern and a free throw by Heu-Weller after a Northwest turnover to cut the gap to two at 68-66 with 33 second left. Morgan Axton hit one of two free throws before Satern drove for a basket to cut it to one at 69-68 with 17 seconds to go, but Chris Burnett hit a pair of free throws with 15 seconds left for a 71-68 lead, then added a free throw with two seconds left after Satern's three-point try for a tie was just short.

Heu-Weller led the Bruins with 19 points, Satern scored 16, and Parker added 13. Satern passed out six assists, while Brady Strutz topped the Bruins on the boards with five rebounds. The Bruins had their lowest shooting performance of the season, hitting only .397 (23-58) from the field.

Sawyer led all scorers with 26 points, Burnett added 12, and Keller had 10. Stephen Ishmael handed out five assists. Sawyer and Burnett had eight rebounds each as Northwest won the board 39-32. The Eagles connected on .453 (24-53) of their shots from the floor.

George Fox (4-3) takes on the Oregon Institute of Technology Friday at 6 p.m. in the Hillyers Mid-City Ford Classic at Corban College in Salem. Northwest (9-3) hosts Pacific Lutheran University Friday at 7:30 p.m.

12/2 – PUGET SOUND 92, GEORGE FOX 79: No. 22 Loggers Have Enough Left to Defeat Bruins

TACOMA, Wash. – Coming off a triple-overtime win over Willamette University the night before, the 22nd-ranked University of Puget Sound Loggers showed few signs of fatigue as they outran the George Fox University Bruins 92-79 in a Northwest Conference men's basketball game Saturday night here at Memorial Fieldhouse.

After Chris Parker hit a jump hook for an early 2-0 George Fox lead, Taylor Marsh hit a pair of three-pointers around one by Ryan DeLong as Puget Sound jumped ahead 9-2 three-and-a-half minutes into the game. The Loggers stretched their lead to as much as 12 points three times in the half, the last at 37-25 on a basket by Jordan Thurston with 4:20 to go. Evan Atwater came off the bench to hit a pair of threes, sparking the Bruins on an 11-2 run to close the half that narrowed the deficit to 39-36 at the break. Both teams shot well in the half, the Bruins hitting .522 (12-23) and the Loggers .536 (15-28).

A jumper by Jason Foster and two more threes by DeLong to open the second half boosted the Logger lead back to 11 at 47-36, and the Bruins got no closer than eight the rest of the way, though the home team was never able to fully pull away. UPS took its largest lead of 17 points at 85-68 on a three-point play by Robert Krauel with 3:32 left.

Atwater, hitting a career high, and Brady Strutz topped the Bruins with 14 points, while Phil Heu-Weller added 10. Taylor Martin led the Bruins on the boards with six, and Strutz had four assists. The Bruins finished with a .509 shooting percentage (29-57), and the teams were even in rebounds with 33 each. The turnovers were nearly even as well, the Bruins committing 30 and the Loggers 24.

DeLong led a quartet of Loggers in double figures with 20 points, followed by Foster with 19, Marsh with 17, and Krauel with 11. Foster made it a double-double with 11 rebounds. Antwan Williams handed out seven assists. The Loggers sank .517 from the field on 30-58.

George Fox (4-2, NWC 1-1) goes to Northwest University Tuesday for a non-conference game at 7:30 p.m. Puget Sound (5-1, NWC 2-0) hosts Puget Sound Christian College Wednesday at 7:30 p.m.

 The Wirta Watch: "Biggs" Adds Three Games to Streaks

Mike "Biggs" Wirta, George Fox's statistical guru who saw his 1,000th Bruin men's basketball game on the final day of last season vs. Willamette on Feb. 18, continues to add to his remarkable streaks of attendance. With the Bruins' two games games in Hawaii over the Thanksgiving holidays and the NWC opener Tuesday vs. Linfield, he has now seen 1,005 GFU men's games (49.4% of all 2,033 games in the team's 103 seasons of competition). He has seen 593 straight games, home and road, and has worked 431 in a row at home, not missing a home game since 1972 when he was in military service. A member of the GFU Sports Hall of Fame Class of 1998, he also serves on the Hall of Fame Committee as its resident historian, calls statistics for the women's games, and keeps the Bruins' baseball scorebook. He was the GFU Volunteer of the Year in 1988, and inducted into the NAIA District 2 Hall of Fame in 1994.

11/28 -- GEORGE FOX 91, LINFIELD 85: Bruins Hold Off Wildcats to Take Early Conference Lead

NEWBERG, Ore. - Point guard Brent Satern scored 11 of his career-high 25 points in the final nine minutes and the George Fox University Bruins sank 12 free throws in the final two-and-a-minutes to hold off the Linfield College Wildcats 91-85 Tuesday night here at the Wheeler Sports Center's Miller Gym, giving the Bruins an early lead in the Northwest Conference men's basketball race.

George Fox took the lead for good with 17:50 left in the first half on a pair of Chris Parker free throws following a technical foul on Linfield's Emil Kim, but the Wildcats stayed close as Evan Timperly and Payton Brooks scored nine points each in the half. The Bruins built up as much as a 12-point lead at 42-30 with 2:11 left in the period on a three-pointer by Brady Strutz, and held a 46-36 halftime lead behind 11 points from both Parker and Strutz.

The Bruins took a 14-point lead three times, the last at 63-49 with 12:47 to play on a layup by Satern, who had 17 points in the second half. Mark Metzler's three with 6:39 left gave the Bruins a 75-64 lead before the Wildcats ripped off seven unanswered points, Khaatim Smith's trey cutting the margin to 75-71 with 5:35 to go. Satern's driving layup and subsequent free throw put George Fox back up by nine at 80-71 with 2:36 to play, and the Bruins went 12-17 from the line the rest of the way to keep the Wildcats at bay.

Satern led all scorers with 25 points and also passed out eight assists, while Phil Heu-Weller added 20 points, Parker 18, and Strutz 12. Parker was 10-10 from the free throw line. Heu-Weller had a game-high nine rebounds, leading the Bruins to a 38-27 advantage on the boards. The Bruins shot 54.9% from the field (28-51).

Timperly led the Wildcats with 19 points, seven below his league-leading average coming in, Andy Baldwin added 15, Payton 12, and Sten Morgan 11. Morgan and Baldwin were the top rebounders for the Wildcats with four each, and Kim had four assists.

George Fox (4-1, NWC 1-0) travels to Tacoma, Wash., Saturday to take on the pre-season league favorite University of Puget Sound. Linfield (2-2, NWC 0-1) goes to Tacoma Friday, visiting Pacific Lutheran University. Both games tip off at 8 p.m., following women's conference games at 6 p.m.

11/24 -- GEORGE FOX 63, ALVERNIA 56: Bruins Blast Crusaders Late to Earn Split in Hawaii

PUKULANI, Hawaii - Brady Strutz nailed a three-point shot with just under three minutes left, breaking a 54-all tie and sparking a 9-2 run to close the game as the George Fox University Bruins downed the Alvernia College Crusaders 63-56 Friday afternoon in the US Bank-Whitworth College Maui Classic men's basketball tournament here at the Kamehameha High School-Maui campus gym.

Both teams opened the game shooting well from the floor, with the Crusaders from Reading, Pa., taking a six-point lead at 9-3 with three minutes gone. The Bruins connected on nearly 80 percent of their shots in the early going, however, and quickly erased the deficit to build up a 13-point lead with 11 minutes left. Down 11-9, Chris Parker ignited a 15-0 spurt with five straight points, and Brent Satern capped it with a layup for a 24-11 Bruin lead. George Fox held a 35-27 lead at the intermission.

Ryan Finger scored on a layup, capping a 10-0 run, to pull Alvernia within two at 44-42 at the 13:17 mark in the second half, only to have Phil Heu-Weller respond with back-to-back threes that upped the George Fox lead to eight again at 50-42 with 11:22 remaining. The Crusaders battled back and finally knotted the game 54-54 on a trey by Terrence Shawell with 4:54 left, but Strutz hit his tie-breaking three with 2:48 to play, and baskets by Mark Metzler, Satern, and Strutz iced it for the Bruins.

Heu-Weller topped the Bruins with 16 points, and Parker and Satern added 13 apiece. Satern just missed a double-double with 9 assists. Strutz had 7 rebounds.

For the Crusaders, Shawell had a double-double with 17 points and 13 boards, while Matt King and Garrett Etzel had 10 points each. Finger passed out 4 assists.

George Fox (3-1) returns home to begin Northwest Conference play Tuesday, hosting Yamhill County rival Linfield College at 8 p.m. The women's NWC game precedes that at 6 p.m. Alvernia (2-2) heads home for its Pennsylvania Athletic Conference opener on Dec. 2 at 3 p.m. against Immaculata College.

In other tournament Friday games, California Lutheran University hung on to defeat Lewis & Clark College 65-61, and Concordia University-Irvine belted Bethany Lutheran College 109-83.

11/23 - CONCORDIA-IRVINE 84, GEORGE FOX 61: NAIA's Eagles Overpower Bruins in Hawaii Tournament

PUKULANI, Hawaii - NAIA Division I power Concordia University-Irvine forced 17 first-half turnovers to open up a 20-point halftime lead and the Eagles went on to an 84-61 win over the George Fox University Bruins in the final Thursday game of the US Bank-Whitworth College Maui Classic men's basketball tournament at the Kamehameha High School-Maui campus gym.

Concordia, which won the NAIA championship in 2003 and was ranked No. 1 nationally at one point last year, jumped out to an early 12-0 lead and never trailed. The Bruins got as close as 15-10 on a pair of free throws by Brent Satern with 11:19 left in the half, but the Eagles answered with an 18-3 run to open a 20-point lead at 33-13 on a layup by Adam Greenaway with 5:08 remaining. It was 45-25 Concordia at the break.

George Fox sliced the Concordia lead to 11 at 58-47 when Joe Ahn hit a layup with 12:01 left in the game, but the Eagles were never seriously threatened again. Another Greenaway layin with 2:08 left gave the Eagles their largest lead of 24 points at 82-58.

Phil Heu-Weller led all players with 23 points for the Bruins, while Chris Parker scored 12. Parker and Taylor Martin had 6 rebounds each, and Satern handed out 5 assists. The Bruins were out-shot .460 to .432 from the field and were out-rebounded 36-29, but the biggest difference was the turnover margin, as George Fox ended up with 28 to 18 for Concordia.

Four Eagles scored in double figures, led by Kyle Huggett's 15 points off the bench. Terrence Worthy added 13 points, Greenway tallied 11, and Joe Roberson scored 10. Huggett and Levi Luster had 6 rebounds apiece, while Worthy, Roberson, and Rafael Da Silva each had 3 assists.

George Fox (2-1) will play Alvernia College Friday at 12:30 p.m. Hawaii time (2:30 p.m. PDT). Concordia (5-1) will play in the tournament's final game, taking on Bethany Lutheran College at 3 p.m. Hawaii time.

In other Thursday games, it was Whitworth over California Lutheran University 68-55 and Lewis & Clark College over Bethany Lutheran 96-73.

BRUIN BITS:

 Parker Named BAA, NWC Player of the Week for Nov. 13-19

Senior post Chris Parker has been named the Bruin Athletic Association Men's Athlete of the Week and the Northwest Conference Men's Player of the Week for Nov. 13-19 as he led the Bruins to a 2-0 start to the season. In the opener on Friday, a 74-61 win over Corban, he scored a career-high 27 points on 9-11 from both the field and the line, with 6 rebounds, 3 steals, and an assist. In an 85-65 win over Holy Names on Saturday, he posted his first career double-double with 18 points on 6-9 from the field and 6-8 from the line and 10 rebounds. For the week, he scored 45 points (22.5 ppg) on 15-20 (.750) from the field and 15-19 (.789) from the line, grabbed 16 rebounds (8.0 rpg), and had 3 steals and an assist. He is 2nd in the NWC in scoring and 4th in rebounding and field goal pct. in the early going.

 2006-07 Honors:

Chris Parker - Bruin Athletic Association Men's Athlete of the Week (Nov. 13-19); NWC Player of the Week (Nov. 13-19) 4-20

 Knocking Off the Ranked Teams: Holy Names the Latest

Holy Names out of Oakland, Calif., came to Newberg on Saturday with a No. 9 ranking in the NAIA Division II pre-season national poll, but that meant little to the Bruins as they shot .625 (25-40) from the field and plucked the Hawks 85-65. The Bruins hit a scorching .737 (14-19) from the field in the second half. The last time George Fox defeated a nationally-ranked team was on Jan. 21, 2005, when they upset Puget Sound, ranked 5th in the NCAA Division III poll, 68-66 in Newberg.

 Double-Doubles: Satern and Parker Get One in Opening Games

Brent Satern: Career 2, season 1 - 14 pts/10 ast vs. Corban, 11/17

Chris Parker: Career 1, season 1 - 18 pts/10 reb vs. Holy Names, 11/18

 Career Lists: Heu-Weller, Parker Ranked on FT, FG Pct. Charts

- Phil Heu-Weller began the season with the 4th-best free throw pct. in Bruin history (.847, 138-163). He was 15-19 in the first two games of the season and is now at .841 (153-182), ranking 5th ...

 The Wirta Watch: "Biggs" Adds to Incredible Streaks

Mike "Biggs" Wirta, George Fox's statistical guru who saw his 1,000th Bruin men's basketball game on the final day of last season vs. Willamette on Feb. 18, continues to add to his remarkable streaks of attendance. With the Bruins' two games at home Nov. 17-18 to open the season, he has now seen 1,002 GFU men's games (49.4% of all 2,030 games in the team's 103 seasons of competition). He has seen 590 straight games, home and road, and has worked 430 in a row at home, not missing a home game since 1972 when he was in military service. A member of the GFU Sports Hall of Fame Class of 1998, he also serves on the Hall of Fame Committee as its resident historian, calls statistics for the women's games, and keeps the Bruins' baseball scorebook. He was the GFU Volunteer of the Year in 1988, and inducted into the NAIA District 2 Hall of Fame in 1994.

11/18 – GEORGE FOX 85, HOLY NAMES 65: Bruins Balanced and Efficient in Harassing Hawks

NEWBERG, Ore. – With all five starters scoring in double figures and shooting over 50% from the field, the George Fox University Bruins were both balanced and blazing in dispatching the Holy Names University Hawks 85-65 in a non-conference men's basketball game Saturday night here at the Wheeler Sports Center's Miller Gym.

It was the Hawks, ranked 9th in the NAIA Division II pre-season national poll, who took flight early, jumping out to a 9-4 lead five minutes into the game before the Bruins got untracked. Phil Heu-Weller sank all three free throws after being fouled on a three-point try to give the Bruins the lead for good 19-17 with 5:41 left in the period, and with Heu-Weller scoring 14 first-half points and Chris Parker 13, the Bruins extended the lead with a 16-7 run to end the period. Dan Lingenfelder's three-pointer with 32 seconds left gave the Bruins an 11-point lead, 35-24, at the break.

The Bruins stayed comfortably ahead by double digits throughout the second half by torching the twine to the tune of 73.7%, draining 14 of 19 field goal tries, and finished with a mark of 62.5% (25-40) for the game. Holy Names shot only 36.4% (24-66) from the floor. The Bruins also benefited from a decided edge in free throws as the Hawks fouled often late in the game in a vain effort to catch up. With the Hawks committing 27 fouls to 14 for the Bruins, the home team made 31-40 free throws to 8-15 for the visitors from Oakland, Calif.

Heu-Weller led all scorers with 23 points, including 12-15 from the line. Parker picked up his first career double-double by adding 18 points and grabbing a game-high 10 rebounds. Brent Satern added 15 points, Brady Strutz had 13 and eight assists, and Taylor Martin chipped in with a career-high 10 points.

For the Hawks, Troy Cotton had 16 points and Luke Williams 10, both off the bench. Josh Dozier had six rebounds, and Julius Cumlat passed out seven assists.

George Fox (2-0) will spend the Thanksgiving holidays in Hawaii, playing Thursday and Friday in the US Bank-Whitworth College Invitational at Kamehameha High School-Maui campus in Pukalani. The Bruins take on Concordia University-Irvine Thursday at 2:30 p.m. (Pacific time) and Alvernia College Friday at 5 p.m. Holy Names (2-5) hosts Fresno Pacific University Friday at 8 p.m.

11/17 – GEORGE FOX 74, CORBAN 61: Early Outburst Boosts Bruins to Opening Win over Warriors

NEWBERG, Ore. – A 15-0 run early in the first half enabled George Fox University to build up a double-digit lead that it would never relinquish as the Bruins cruised to a 74-61 season-opening win over the Corban College Warriors in a non-conference men's basketball game Friday night here at the Wheeler Sports Center's Miller Gym.

Chris Parker scored seven points as the Bruins took an early 12-5 lead. The Warriors' Jason Braun scored to cut the margin to 12-7 with 16:17 left in the half, but then the Bruins exploded. With five different players contributing, the Bruins reeled off 15 unanswered points over the next seven minutes for a 27-7 advantage before the Warriors were able to end the streak. A basket by Parker gave the Bruins their largest lead of the game of 22 points at 35-13 with 4:47 to go, but the Warriors ended the half with an 11-3 run to make it 38-24 George Fox at the break.

The Bruins maintained a double-digit lead the rest of the way, again building a 20-point lead at 51-31 with 14:49 left on a jumper by Parker. Corban got within 10 at 62-52 on a three-pointer by Garrett Kauffman with 7:19 to play, but George Fox sank eight of 10 free throws down the stretch to remain comfortably in front.

Parker finished with a career-high 27 points for the Bruins, sinking 9-11 from both the field and the free throw line, while Phil Heu-Weller and Satern added 14 apiece. Satern made it a double-double with 10 assists, nine in the first half. Brady Strutz had a game-high eight rebounds and blocked three shots. George Fox shot 51.0% (26-51) from the field while holding Corban to 29.6% (16-54).

Nate Morris came off the bench to pace the Warriors with 13 points, with Kauffman adding 11 and Braun 10. Hennes Gehring had seven rebounds as the Warriors held a one-rebound advantage, 37-36.

Both teams are at home for non-conference games Saturday, George Fox (1-0) hosting the NAIA's 9th-ranked Holy Names University at 8 p.m. while Corban (0-4) welcomes Whitman College at 7:30 p.m.

11/15 – PREVIEW: Bruins Must Plug Three Big Holes in Bid for 3rd Straight Winning Season

NEWBERG, Ore. – After four years of painstaking rebuilding by coach Mark Sundquist, the pieces of the puzzle all fell into place for the George Fox University men's basketball team, which went 34-16 over the last two seasons. For the Bruins to make it three winning seasons in a row, however, there are three gaping holes in the starting lineup the team must plug.

George Fox fashioned an 18-7 record and finished second in the Northwest Conference at 13-3 in 2004-05, when Sundquist was named NWC Coach of the Year, and followed that up with a 16-9 campaign and fourth-place finish in the NWC at 9-7 last year. Gone from those two teams are three starters: two-time All-Conference First Team and All-West Region Second Team wing Aaron Schmick, All-Conference Second Team post Scott Szalay, and do-it-all Ben Melvin, who played everything from point guard to forward in his four-year career.

Schmick averaged 17.6 points per game, was 16th nationally in free-throw percentage (.888), and ended his career 7th on the GFU all-time scoring chart with 1,470 points. Szalay led the NWC in blocked shots (1.8 bspg), was second in rebounds (9.0 rpg) while averaging 12.6 points a game, and in three seasons blocked 105 shots, 5th all-time. Melvin scored at an 8.9 clip and finished with 741 career points and 230 assists.

"Those three played a lot of minutes for us over the last three years and will be sorely missed," admits Sundquist. "We have a couple of people who played extensively in reserve or spot-starting roles last year who should be able to step in for them, but even most of our returnees don't have a lot of experience."

Returnees

The Bruins lost six letterwinners but return nine, including starters Phil Heu-Weller (6-1 Sr., Olympia, Wash. / Olympia HS) at wing and Brent Satern (5-10 Jr., Silverton, Ore. / Silverton HS) at point guard. Heu-Weller received All-Conference Honorable Mention while averaging 13.0 points and 4.3 rebounds per game with a .432 three-point field goal percentage that was 4th in the league. Satern was 2nd in the league in assists per game (5.7 apg) and 1st in assist/turnover ratio (2.49:1) while scoring 8.3 points a game.

"Phil and Brent are two of our tri-captains this year and have given us a lot of leadership already," says Sundquist. "Phil brings a tremendous amount of athleticism and shooting ability, and much of our offense will obviously be directed around him. The main thing we will look for from him is consistency. We believe Brent is one of the top two or three point guards in the league, an excellent passer who is almost unselfish to a fault. We have challenged him to look for more scoring opportunities this season because we're going to need it from him, both driving and getting to the foul line and taking the shot from the perimeter."

Two key subs from last season are expected to move into the starting lineup this season. Chris Parker (6-6 Sr., Aloha, Ore. / Aloha HS), who averaged 12.5 points and 3.3 rebounds a game and shot .605 from the field, will also serve as a tri-captain. Brady Strutz (6-4 Jr., Oregon City, Ore. / Oregon City HS), who had 4.2 points and 3.2 caroms a game, will provide strength under the boards as well as a sharp-shooting touch from the outside.

"Chris was a part-time starter who gave us some outstanding scoring, and we need him to continue that this season," says Sundquist. "Even more, we will need him to become more aggressive on the offensive and defensive boards. The main thing for Brady is just to stay healthy - he has some chronic knee problems. If he is, his defensive presence and rebounding ability will be huge for us, and we expect his offensive production to climb as well."

Matt Noble (6-6 Jr., Albany, Ore. / West Albany HS), coming off an injury-plagued sophomore season in which he only appeared in five games, averaging 1.8 points and 0.8 rebounds, will battle for Szalay's job in the middle. Notes Sundquist, "Matt has the size we need, if not the experience. He can be an inside defensive presence as well as a solid rebounder for us."

On the perimeter, lefty Mark Metzler (6-3 Jr., Brookings, Ore. / Brookings-Harbor HS), who averaged 1.2 points a game in 11 appearances, has matured and will provide some instant offense with increased playing time. Twin brothers Andrew and Taylor Martin (6-3 Jrs., Silverton, Ore. / Silverton HS), who appeared in five games last year, give the Bruins some versatility with their rebounding strength and plenty of hustle and defense. Joe Ahn (5-11 So., Beaverton, Ore. / Beaverton HS), who played in two games, is the backup to Satern at the point and can also shoot the three if needed.

"Mark will play a lot anywhere from the one-spot to the three," predicts Sundquist. "We have even used him at the point and he's looked pretty good there. The Martins are just warriors who work so hard; they are scrappy and can help us by doing the little things like rebounding or setting screens for our more offensive-minded players. Joe gives us outstanding defense and quickness in those times when we need to go with a smaller lineup."

Newcomers

The Bruins' tallest player in the Sundquist era, Bryan O'Connell (6-9 Fr., Eugene, Ore. / Churchill HS), has proven to be a pleasant surprise in the pre-season and could see plenty of playing time as a rookie. Jake Heilsberg (6-4 Fr., Colfax, Wash. / Colfax HS) is another post player whom the Bruins will work into the mix.

"Bryan is a good offensive player, a good rebounder, and has good hands; he just needs experience," observes Sundquist. "He's going to make an impact for us before he's through. Jake is a post who works extremely hard and gives us some much-needed depth at that position."

Sundquist also welcomes in four new wings who should give the Bruins added firepower on the outside: Evan Atwater (6-3 Fr., Port Orchard, Wash. / South Kitsap HS), Dan Lingenfelder (6-3 Fr., Longview, Wash. / Mark Morris HS), Grant Vahalla (6-3 Fr., San Diego, Calif. / La Costa Canyon HS), and Justin Hull (6-2 Fr., Gresham, Ore. / Gresham HS).

"Evan is a very good spot-up shooter and a basketball 'junkie'; he loves the game and thrives on it," says Sundquist. "Dan comes from a great winning program, gives us great team defense, and is getting better offensively all the time. Grant is a good shooter and very athletic; he just needs to develop consistency in his defense and effort. Justin tried out and almost made the team as a freshman last year, but he worked out in the weight room and the gym to get stronger over the summer and has made a good impression this fall."

Summary

With so many new faces on the team and in the lineup, the Bruins expect to try a number of new or modified strategies in the early portion of the season.

"The fifth spot in our rotation may be filled out 'by committee' in the early going, until someone asserts himself in that position," admits Sundquist. "Our lineup may vary at times, depending on the opposition; we might go small and quick defensively for a while, or we might go up-tempo and make extensive use of our bench. Right now our biggest challenge is finding out what style is best for us, particularly in regard to the conference race, which looks to be very tough but more balanced this year. Our non-conference schedule is very strong and we will probably face some adversity in the early going, but that ought to prepare us well for the rest of the season."

"All in all, I am optimistic. We have a great group of guys in every kind of way - spiritually, academically, socially - and great team chemistry; they really like being with one another and working together as a team."

The 2006-07 season gets under way for the Bruins on Friday, Nov. 17, with an 8 p.m. home game against Corban College. The schedule also includes three top 15 NAIA Division II programs in Holy Names University (#9), the Oregon Institute of Technology (#4), and Northwest University (#13), an NCAA Division II opponent in St. Martin's College, and the usual tough 16-game Northwest Conference slate.

 The Wirta Watch: "Biggs" Closing in on 600 Straight Games

Mike "Biggs" Wirta, George Fox's statistical guru who saw his 1,000th Bruin men's basketball game on the final day of last season vs. Willamette on Feb. 18, continues to add to his remarkable streaks of attendance. With the Bruins' two games this past week at Puget Sound and Northwest, he has now seen 1,007 GFU men's games (49.5% of all 2,035 games in the team's 103 seasons of competition). He has seen 595 straight games, home and road, and has worked 431 in a row at home, not missing a home game since 1972 when he was in military service. A member of the GFU Sports Hall of Fame Class of 1998, he also serves on the Hall of Fame Committee as its resident historian, calls statistics for the women's games, and keeps the Bruins' baseball scorebook. He was the GFU Volunteer of the Year in 1988, and inducted into the NAIA District 2 Hall of Fame in 1994.
