CONTRIBUTORS

COREY BEALS is Assistant Professor of Religious Studies at George Fox University, where he teaches theology and philosophy. He earned his Ph.D. in philosophy from Fordham University in New York, his M.A.R. in philosophical theology from Yale Divinity School, and his B.A. from George Fox University. He lives with his wife, Jill and one-year-old son, Jonathan, in Newberg, and they attend Newberg Friends Church.

ARTHUR O. ROBERTS began teaching at George Fox University over 50 years ago, after completing his Ph.D. at Boston University. In addition to his many writings on Quaker history, faith and practice, Arthur has also written several books of poetry and the text of a musical presentation of the early Quaker movement: Children of the Light. He edited Quaker Religious Thought from 1989-2000. Arthur and his wife Fern have returned to Newberg after living for fifteen years on the Oregon Coast, and they are active attenders at North Valley Friends Church.

T. VAIL PALMER JR. serves in retirement as clerk of the Center for Christian Studies of Reedwood Friends Church in Portland, OR (Northwest Yearly Meeting). He grew up in Philadelphia Yearly Meeting and received his Ph.D. from the University of Chicago. He has been Professor of Philosophy and Religion at Rio Grande College (in Ohio), and he edited Quaker Religious Thought from 1974-1978, serving as co-editor with dean Freiday from 1979-1982.

STEPHANIE FORD is Assistant Professor of Christian Spirituality at the Earlham School of Religion. She received bachelor's and master's degrees from Oral Roberts University, an M.A. from Oklahoma State, an M.Div. from the Baptist Theological Seminary, and a Ph.D. from the Catholic University of America. Stephanie attends Richmond First Friends Meeting.

DOUG GWYN is pastoral minister at First Friends Meeting in Richmond, Indiana. He has also served as a Friends pastor in Noblesville, Indiana and Berkeley, California, and has taught at the Pendle Hill and Woodbrooke Quaker Studies Centers. Doug received his Ph.D. from Drew University and has published three books on early Friends: Apocalypse of the Word (1986), The Covenant Crucified (1995), and Seekers Found (2000).