60R Prime Minister Expresses Skepticism

Blames Bagasora and Ndirorera for Orchestrating Massacre.

RPF acts <sup>within</sup> RPF rules rather than legal framework - execution of soldiers

Kagame may have lost control of mid level officers - <sup>Muruvu</sup> Kagame would take pie but Bony would not go along with it

use of names in songs is dangerous

Kagame reasonable to claim

Col. Kabeza & Col. Kagamba as power centers

Terribly dis. Humiliated & extremely frustrated and would have to pursue some form of power-sharing. Thus, we believe some negotiated settlement is probably inevitable.

EU has expressed a desire to work closely with the U.S. to end violence in Liberia. We welcome the interest and want to coordinate our efforts through France + Belgium.

What role do you see for Mr. K. We are concerned that he will use his role in regard to "rehabilitation" his message might get in way of facilitator's role.

Tanzanians disappointed but not discouraged by the lack of agreement at Ambo May 3-5.

Some form of power sharing is inevitable and continue to believe that Ambo process is viable. Parties should pursue as much of the accord as possible.

Shattuck Trio - a success - raised level of attention + pressure, showed leaders we intended to help and would not abandon them.

II. Reaction to PDD 25 has been mixed. Secretariat liked an practical approach and the offer of tools
to accomplish the job.
delegations worry <sup>that</sup> ~~that~~ our decision process would delay dispatch of new mission

Provision in PDD reducing U.S. <sup>PK</sup> ~~PK~~ <sup>assembly</sup> to 25% has provoked strong criticism of perceived US
unilateralism
