July 20, 1947.

Ward Miles,
45 Lansing Ave.,
Salem, Oregon.

Dear Friend:--

In sending out the notices for the meeting of your section of the Oregon branch of the American Friends Service Committee, we prepared the list of names and addresses, and I thought you might find it useful, so I am enclosing it, and also sending a copy to Della Osburn, the secretary.

And I have tried to do a bit of thinking about folks who might be of value to the movement, financially or otherwise. I omitted a good many that were already associated with the work, either as members of the executive committee or of the two sections. Their names can be secured from Emmett W. Gulley. This list is not being sent to Della Osburn.

I am to meet tomorrow with the nominating committee of the Northwest Institute of International Relations. I do not think that the matter of the executive secretary of that organization will be up for consideration, though of that I cannot be sure. That has usually been considered by the entire executive committee, which is to meet later this month, I understand unofficially.

Sincerely your friend,

Levi T. Pennington.
