Enclosed is the printer's copy sheet for Who's Who on the Pacific Coast, with restricted order form for a copy when the volume is out.

I have not added anything to the copy as it is to appear in Who's Who in America, for I do not know how much detail of present activities is desired. Though I retired from the presidency of Pacific College in 1941, it seems to me I was never busier. In addition to the volume of poetry listed, I have been preparing some other literary productions which I hope may some day soon see the light as books. But I am unable to do as much along this lone as I should like because of the many other things that need doing. Here are some of the causes I am seeking to serve, and perhaps some of them ought to be listed for this Pacific Coast edition:

Friends Committee on National Legislation, an organization of national scope; I am on the executive committee, the only representative of the organization in Oregon.

American Friends Service Committee, with the world service of which you are of course familiar. I am a member of the executive committee of the Oregon Branch.

National Council for Prevention of War, composed of many different organizations. I am a vice president and Oregon representative.

Heifers-for-Relief, an inter-faith organization for the sending of bred and tested heifers and goats for the relief of suffering peoples in Europe and Asia. I am first vice present and member of the executive committee of this organization, and have spent months in field work for it.

Oregon Council of Churches. I was on the program committee for their convention this year, and was on the program last year. Now raising Newberg's quota of their annual budget.

Service Board of Oregon Yearly Meeting of the Friends Church. I am head of the National Service Section.

If in your judgment any of these things are worthy to be mentioned in Who's Who on the Pacific Coast, I shall be glad to try to put them into proper shape, or it can be done in your office.

Sincerely yours,

Levi T. Pennington.
