APPLE BLOSSOMS.

O sweetheart do you remember in the sunset's crimson glow,
Underneath the apple blossoms you and I alone you know,

When I told you that I loved you, you were all the world to me
Only you and I together 'neath the dear old apple tree,
Only you and I together and the blossoms on the tree.

Chorus:

Apple blossoms, apple blossoms falling light round you and me
But you're sweeter, love, and fairer than the blossoms on the tree.

I should always live in sunshine, I could all things else endure,
Only that one promise given, O how happy I would be
If you'd tell me that you loved me 'neath the dear old apple tree.
If you'd tell me that you loved me 'neath the dear old apple tree.

If only your heart would tell me of its love so so strong and sure
