Christmas, 1956

CAN anyone think of Christmas and not of Gethsemane?
Can anyone think of Easter and not of Calvary?
Yet over the Bethlehem hilltops the blessed angels sang.
“Glory to God in the highest” their heavenly voices rang.
“Peace on the earth” they chanted, “and God’s good will to men.”
Now in this day of crisis we hear their song again.

FAR they looked down the ages and saw a triumph sure,
Victory for the Christ Child, and peace that should endure.
So let us join with the angel choir who sang that blessed morn
And hail with joy the happy day when Jesus Christ was born.
With grateful hearts let us greet the day Immanuel had His birth,
And look with faith to the future day when peace shall reign on earth.
