TO THE RIJASET (LEADERSHIP) OF THE ISLAMIC COMMUNITY IN SARAJEVO

We deeply regret that it was not possible for you to travel to Geneva for the very important joint meeting which we have held, for in our conversations we desire to contribute to the peace so much desired by all peoples.

Our message and our appeals express the united positions taken at this meeting, but your reflections and proposals are lacking. We are convinced that you will agree with the principles and positions we have set forth, which are based on equality of rights, justice and peace. We hope there will be an opportunity for a future meeting in which all three sides can participate and in which we can exchange ideas and draw constructive conclusions for our future life together in Bosnia-Herzegovina.

From this meeting we send our best wishes to you and pray to the Almighty God that he will bring the conflicts to an end and that peace may prevail among all people.

The participants in the meeting.
