Quaker Religious Thought is happy to publish in this issue a paper by Dean Freiday originally prepared for the Faith and Life Panel of Friends. Wilmer Cooper, chairman of the panel, comments on the importance of this essay in the following pages.

The Quaker Theological Discussion Group held its annual conference at Powell House this summer on the theme, "Christ as Prophet." We hope to publish one or more of the papers presented at that meeting in a subsequent issue of this journal.

At the business meeting held in conjunction with that conference it was decided that Vail Palmer (Rio Grande College, Rio Grande, Ohio 45674), our present treasurer, will assume the editorship of QRT, beginning with Volume 16. John McCandless has become treasurer and manager, which means that our business address is now Route 1, Alburtis, Pa. 18011. R. W. Tucker is the new promotion manager. T. Canby Jones remains as chairman.

Our European subscribers will be interested to learn that Woodbrooke College (Extra-Mural Services, 1046 Bristol Rd., Birmingham, B29 6LJ, England) has agreed to act as QRT agent in the United Kingdom, Eire and Western Europe. We look forward to improved service to present subscribers, and increasing circulation, in that area.
