Elaine Sutterfield's life is filled with "if onlys." If only Jenny hadn't disappeared. If only she could get rid of all the guilt. If only ... she hadn't seen that picture in the newspaper. If only she had not gotten her detective husband involved. If only

Ever since one of her students disappeared on a field trip twelve years earlier Elaine's life has been atypical, but now, this – not knowing who she can trust, what to do, or where to go. A fifty-eight-year-old woman should be at home gardening and doing "dirt therapy," but instead Elaine Sutterfeld is on the run for her life. Can she even trust her police officer friend, or is he the one behind it all?

This is a marvelous, and at times, intense mystery that keeps you engrossed till the very end.
