Alan Kolp was reared on an Indiana farm and grew up in Winchester, Ind., Friends Meeting. He and his wife, Letitia, graduated from Guilford College in 1967. He received B.D. and Ph.D. degrees from Harvard University. He served as pastor of Lynn, Mass., Friends Meeting; Alan and Letitia were also active in Cambridge Friends Meeting. In 1973-1974 Alan was a Fulbright Fellow in Munster, West Germany. Since 1974 he has taught New Testament and early church history at Earlham School of Religion, and in 1978 became its dean. He was Visiting Fellow at Woodbrooke in 1981. Alan and Letitia are the parents of Felicity and Christina.

Ronald D. Allen was reared in Haviland, Kansas. He is a graduate of Friends Bible College there, and of Earlham School of Religion. He has been pastor of Friends churches in Kansas (now Mid-America), Indiana, and Northwest Yearly Meetings. Since 1977 he has been senior pastor of the Friendswood Friends congregation, near Houston, Texas. His writings have appeared in the Friends United Meeting Penn series, Quaker Life, Evangelical Friend, and Fruit of the Vine. He and his wife, Carolyn, have two children, Lora and Barclay.

Lawrence E. Barker was born in Marion, Ind. He is a graduate of Earlham College (with a major in history) and of Earlham School of Religion. He has also attended Hamma Divinity School. After serving as pastor of West Milton, Ohio, Friends Meeting, and associate pastor of Wilmington, Ohio, Meeting, he has been pastor of Wilmington Friends since 1967. Through his leadership the Meeting has sponsored four housing projects for elderly and for developmentally disabled persons. He is the author of several articles in Quaker Life and of a play, The Answer Is Christmas. He and his wife, Sarah, have two sons, Bartholomew and Daniel.

Gardiner Stillwell: "Quaker? Yes, more or less, for about 18 years. Profession: one-time teacher of English, especially medieval literature, at the University of Illinois; retired 1975. Time of conviction: midwinter 1978-79. Present occupation: presuming to help Quakers rediscover their roots and therefore helping with the work of the New Foundation Fellowship. Biological activity: married (to one Ruth, another English major). Results: a son, a daughter, and three grandsons."
