Terry Arendell is an Assistant Professor in the Department of Anthropology and Sociology at Hobart and William Smith Colleges, Geneva, NY. She is a member of Berkeley Friends Church, Berkeley, CA which she joined earlier while completing her work for the Ph.D. at the University of California (Berkeley).

For a previous contribution by her, see QRT #66 (Fall 1987), "A Sociological Perspective on Sin and Evil."

This is a first appearance in QRT for David L. Johns, Pastor of New London Friends Church in Russiaville, Indiana. He is currently completing his studies at the Earlham School of Religion, and was the recipient of the 1988-1989 Glenn A. Reece Award given each year to an outstanding student who demonstrates special gifts for ministry.

Arthur O. Roberts currently serves as professor-at-large at George Fox College, following a teaching career as Professor of Religion and Philosophy at that Newberg, OR institution, where he has taught since completion of a Ph.D. at Boston University in 1953.

His books on Quaker history and thought include Early Quaker Writings (Eerdmans, 1973), which he co-edited with Hugh Barbour. He is author of Tomorrow Is Growing Old: Stories of the Quakers in Alaska (Newberg, OR: Barclay Press, 1978); and recently completed research and writing on a 19th-century traveling minister, John Frederick Hanson.

Arthur Roberts has been a frequent contributor to professional journals, including QRT, and to Quaker magazines. He also writes poetry, some of which is published in Sunrise and Shadow (Barclay Press, 1985).
