

2022

Contributors-Quaker Religious Thought, No. 136

Jon R. Kershner
Pacific Lutheran University

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.georgefox.edu/qrt>

 Part of the Christian Denominations and Sects Commons

Recommended Citation

Kershner, Jon R. (2022) "Contributors-Quaker Religious Thought, No. 136," Quaker Religious Thought. Vol. 136, Article 12.

Available at: <https://digitalcommons.georgefox.edu/qrt/vol136/iss1/12>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by Digital Commons @ George Fox University. It has been accepted for inclusion in Quaker Religious Thought by an authorized editor of Digital Commons @ George Fox University. For more information, please contact arolfe@georgefox.edu.

CONTRIBUTORS

PHIL BAISLEY is Professor of Pastoral Ministry at Earlham School of Religion and pastor of the Greenfield (IN) Friends Meeting (New Association of Friends). His book on the uniqueness of Quaker pastoral ministry, The Same, But Different: Ministry and the Quaker Pastor, was published by Friends United Press in 2019. Tales of a Canarsie Boy, Phil's memoir of growing up fundamentalist Protestant in 1950–60s Brooklyn is available in episode form on his blog at philbaisley.com.

CHERICE BOCK teaches at George Fox University and its seminary, Portland Seminary. Her recent co-edited book, Quakers, Creation Care, and Sustainability (2019, with Stephen Potthoff), highlights her academic interests and sense of calling at the intersection of Quakerism, environmental concerns, and the peace testimony. A recorded Friends minister, Bock lives in Newberg, OR with her family.

DEREK BROWN is Vice President of Graduate Studies and Distance Education at Barclay College, where he also serves as Professor of Pastoral Ministry. His research interests are Quaker ecclesiology and practical theology, and his book, On Quakers and Pastors (2019), explored historical and contemporary pastoral ministry in the Friends tradition. A recorded minister, he is a member of Haviland Friends Church with his wife, Jessica, and his twin daughters, Sophia and Sarah.

MARK CONDO lives in Portland, Oregon with his wife and two children. He serves as a recorded minister at Reedwood Friends Church and has been in pastoral ministry for 16 years. He is a graduate of Malone University and Portland Seminary. He enjoys music, the outdoors, and sipping Fireweed Coffee in the morning.

C. WESS DANIELS, Ph.D. is the William R. Rogers Director of Friends Center & Quaker Studies at Guilford College. He lives in Greensboro, North Carolina with his wife, Emily and their three children. He is the author of, Resisting Empire: The Book of Revelation (2019) and A Convergent Model of Renewal: Remixing The Quaker Tradition in Participatory Culture (2015). He is active in the Poor People's Campaign: A National Call for Moral Revival. For more information visit: <http://gatheringinlight.com>.

OSCAR LUGUSA MALANDE is a member of Religious Society of Friends (Quakers) Vihiga Yearly Meeting in Kenya and holds an MA and Certificate in Entrepreneurial Ministry from Earlham School of Religion. He is a doctoral student at University of Birmingham, Woodbrooke Quaker Study Centre. Oscar currently teaches at Friends Theological College Kaimosi. He has contributed to writing on "Quakers in Africa" in Cambridge Companion to Quaker Studies, Pink Dandelion and Stephen Angell, eds. (Cambridge University Press, 2018), "Ecclesiological Ethical Aspects in Resource Management: Exploring Jesus' Vision," African Ecclesial Review, Vol. 60 Nos 1&2, Article 5 (March–June 2018): 63–69, and in Quaker Religious Thought #133, September 2019 on "The Concept of Hierarchy and Doing Ministry in the Church: Evaluating the Roles of Leaders and the Use of Authority in Quakerism."

STUART MASTERS is a Learning and Research Team Leader at Woodbrooke Quaker Study Centre in Birmingham, UK. His work has appeared in the Quaker publications The Friend and The Friends Quarterly, and in the academic journals Quaker Studies and Anabaptism Today. His research and teaching focuses on early Quaker spirituality and theology, Christian doctrine, and the relationship between Quakerism and other Christian traditions. He is a convinced Friend, and a member of Central England Area Meeting, within Britain Yearly Meeting.

RUTHIE SEVERANCE is a pastor at East Hill Friends Church in Kent, WA. She has been a member of East Hill Friends for 20 years and just completed her first year as a pastor. She lives in Renton, Washington, with her husband Shannon Severance and three children: Anthony (11), Ellenore (9), and Ian (9). She loves writing poetry, reading about interesting people, and hearing God speak through both the profound and the mundane.

CAROLE DALE SPENCER is Adjunct Professor of Spiritual Formation at Portland Seminary of George Fox University. She was formerly Associate Professor of Christian Spirituality at Earlham School of Religion. She is author of Holiness: The Soul of Quakerism (Paternoster, 2007) and has contributed numerous book chapters and articles on Quaker history, theology, and spirituality. She is a member of Reedwood Friends Church in Portland, Oregon.

ASHLEY M. WILCOX is the author of The Women's Lectionary: Preaching the Women of the Bible throughout the Year (forthcoming from Westminster John Knox Press) and founder of Church of Mary Magdalene. She is a graduate of Candler School of Theology and Willamette University College of Law. Ashley teaches preaching at Candler School of Theology and her online class, Preaching with Confidence. Her writing has been published in Friends Journal, Western Friend, Quaker anthologies, and on www.ashleymwilcox.com.