MEN'S GAME 2:30 PM

WOMEN'S NOTES:

Bruins Battle Loggers for 3rd in NWC

The Bruins return home to Morse Athletic Field, where they haven't played since Sept. 14, a 2-1 comeback win over Concordia. The Loggers split their previous two matches, a 2-1 loss to Willamette in double overtime, and a 1-0 victory on the road against Linfield.

George Fox boasts a dangerous trio that leads the NWC in scoring. Karli Holub, Jen Overstreet and Noelle Miller have accounted for 17 of the team's 20 goals this season. Holub with 15 points, seven goals and an assist, also led the conference in points last year. Teammates Noelle Miller and Jen Overstreet are tied for second each with 13 points.

Overstreet was named the NWC Player of the Week for Sept. 20, for her four goals in three games. The senior from Beaverton scored two goals in a 4-2 win against Pacific and both goals in a 2-1 road victory at Whitman. Miller has four goals and five assists on the year, and is tied for the lead in assist average (0.62) with Katie Edmonds of Willamette.

In the latest NSCAA national rankings poll, the Bruins are tied for sixth, along with California Lutheran, in the West Region. George Fox returns Sunday to host Pacific Lutheran, scheduled for a noon starting time.

MEN'S NOTES:

Bruins Look to Upset Powerful Puget Sound

Fresh from a scintillating 2-1 overtime win at Pacific, the Bruin return to Morse Field for their Northwest Conference home opener against powerful Puget Sound. The Loggers are ranked No. 4 in the West Region of the NCAA Division III, and have received votes for the Top 20 in the latest poll conducted by the AVCA.

The Loggers get the job done on both offense and defense, ranking second in the NWC in scoring with an average of 2.75 goals per game, and lead the conference in defense, allowing only 0.61 goal a game while posting five shutouts.

The Loggers boast a balanced attack on offense, with three of the top six scorers in the conference. Tye Tolentino is third with 1.75 points a game (5 goals, 4 assists), while David Ludwin and Chris Raymond are tied for fifth at 1.38 (4 goals, 3 assists each).

The top point producer for the Bruins, who are seeking their 14th straight winning season, is Merrick Brownlee, who is seventh in the league at 1.29 (3 goals, 3 assists). Bryan Erickson and Jamie Johnson are tied for 10th at 1.14 (3 goals, 2 assists each).
