OUTDOOR TRACK AND FIELD

OUTDOOR TRACK AND FIELD

Showing good depth with 11 men scoring points, Texas Southern University (Houston, Tex. - Dist. 8) picked up its third NAIA Outdoor Track and Field Championship May 18-20 on the campus of Abilene Christian University in Abilene, Texas. Coach Dave Bethany's Tigers - with wins in three events and two seconds - outdistanced runner-up Adams State (Colo.) by 25, 67-42, and host Abilene Christian by 30.

Meet Outstanding Performer Frank Gross of Adams State accounted for two of the event's five individual records - winning the shot put at 63-1 and the discus at 198-5. The Colorado Springs bred senior weightman also took second in the hammer. Wisconsin-LaCrosse's Tom Antczak set a marathon record, winning the event in 2:22:26.49 while Kelly Jensen's (Southern Oregon) 8:47.49 was a new electronically timed best in the steeplechase. Abilene's Billy Olson soared 16-7 for a new pole vault mark. Two records were also set in the decathlon where Western New Mexico's Jack Wiley took the long jump at 24-1 3/4 and Point Loma's (Calif.) Bill Waters won the javelin at 207-0. Abilene's Carl "Sugar" Williams defended his national long jump crown going 27-1 but the effort was wind-aided.

Williams and Waters were joined by Prairie View A&M's (Tex.) Evans White - the 800 - as the only successful defending champions of a year ago. Meet double winners were Gross, Pembroke State's (N.C.) Garry Henry (5000 and 10,000 meters); Southern U.-Baton Rouge's (La.) James McCraney (110 and 400 meter hurdles); and Eastern Washington's Vic White (high jump/triple jump).

Individuals representing 123 institutions competed in the meet - the first held in Abilene since 1955.

Technical procedure - technique, training, & physical rest at this level

Swimmers - 113

Shot - 1000 lbs

Bennett workout

Fall - back - speed - cond

Mon - Shot discs - conditioning for 400m lift

Tue - jav. handle - leg speed work for 400m 180 - 220 uds

Wed - 113 intervals - 1/4 mi

Thur - PU

Fri - 1/4 pop ups run through / blocks / step up + step down

Sat - Dist Run

Sun - rest

Train first things which give high points but don't eliminate work on weak event

Decathlete must get it done in first 3 throws - don't get prelims & finals - must be mentally prepared ~~for~~ to get it done in 3 throws. 1st get mark in then go for it on other two throws.

Don't let 'em work only on things they are best at Concentrating effort -

- being able to go from one event to next not allowing poor mark to bother next event
 - give 'em something specific to think about eg. mark for each event coaching points to help him reach the suggested mark
- take best efforts from all time - go to scoring table - take 90% of the total

Identifying decathletes

3 Basic skills to make world class athlete

- 1 - runner
- 2 - jumper
- 3 - thrower
- 4 - all around - Bruce Jenner

or long jumper hurdler with speed muscular with speed

* - almost always good jumpers adventurous type person who want to try things

Impact of IAAF table on training

1. Running events go up much higher with top speech
2. Throwing events go the opposite must emphasize speed don't worry so much about the skill events high scoring events - only 4 of 10 events where 1000 pts have been scored 20 in PV 3-4J 1-800 1-100

16.5 HJ = 45' shot in terms of points

Do basic 400m workout then go from there open 400 + mi relay - gets training for all 3 running events this add bit of extra endurance work doing HJ - IJ training would be about the same they don't require AM workouts
