Same Teams Repeat in Championships at Charleston

CHARLESTON, WV — In a repeat of the 1983 championships Azusa Pacific CA and Prairie View TX again emerged as team winners in the NAIA outdoor track & field championships May 24-26 at Laidley Field.

Azusa Pacific's world-class sprinter Innocent Egbunike won the 100 and 200 meter dashes for the second consecutive year (it was his third straight victory at 100 meters) and he established meet records in both events, winning the 100 in 10.15 and the 200 in 20.76.

Egbunike and teammate Christian Okoye, who won the discus and hammer, keyed Azusa's second consecutive men's championship meet victory. The Cougars accumulated 26 of their winning 93 points in the hammer and also picked up 20 more in the decathlon with Doug Loisel winning that event.

Prairie View outdistanced runner-up Adams State CO, 100-83, in the women's division based primarily on three relay victories and 39 points from its sprinters in the 100, 200 and .00 meter dashes.

Ed Brown of Saginaw Valley MI set a meet record in the 400 meter hurdles with a 50.05 clocking while Sam Montoya of Adams State established a new mark at 10,000 meters with a 29:22.4 showing. Besides the Azusa Pacific double winners of Egbunike and Okoye the meet also produced two-event winners from Montoya (5,000 & 10,000 meters) and Sammy Epps of Southern Arkansas, who won at 400 meters and the long jump.

Chicago State IL sprinter Denise Bullocks was named the outstanding performer in the women's division with her record-setting performance at 200 meters (23.93) and her victory in the 400 meters.

Record-breaking performances were also established by Julie Jenkins of Adams State CO in the 800-meters (2:08.60); Denise Falzone of Adams State CO in the 3000 meters (9:47.30); Virgie Bullie of Midland Lutheran NE in the 100 meters (11.71); Cindy Reinhart of Saginaw Valley MI in the marathon (2:57.20.5); Thomasina Busch of Hampton Institute VA in the 100-meter hurdles (13.73), Jennifer Schwartz of Azusa Pacific CA in the heptathlon (4,981) and Joan Williamson of Western Washington in the javelin (50.76, 166-6).

Texas Schools Sprint to Team Titles

A pair of Texas schools—Texas Southern and Prairie View A&M raced to team titles in the NAIA National Indoor Track & Field Championships, February 24-25 in Kansas City's Municipal Auditorium.

Texas Southern piled up all of its points (70) in seven events to win the men's division while Prairie View (92 points) dominated the sprints and short races, easing to a victory in the women's division.

Texas Southern received firsts from Paul Emordi (long jump and triple jump—the men's division only double winner) and Edward Thorton (880), and only in the triple jump, where the Tigers placed 1-2-3, did they dominate the competition.

The best race of the meet may have been in the 880 where Thorton nudged Joel Ngetich of Wayland Baptist TX to win the event. Ngetich was going after his fourth consecutive 880-yard crown indoors. Ngetich did win his third consecutive 1,000 title but the Pioneers finished second with 62 points.

Two-time defending champion Saginaw Valley MI slipped to third (57 points) despite winning the mile and two-mile relays and Hampton Institute VA was fourth (46 points) with Fredrick Johnson named the outstanding male performer of the meet. Johnson set a meet record in the 60 with his 6.08 clocking and ran the opening leg of the Pirates' second-place mile relay unit.

The only other record to fall in the men's division came from Sammy Epps of Southern Arkansas who clocked a 47.64 in the 440-yard dash.

The threesome of Margaret Lynn Gamble, Easter Gabriel and Jocelyn Tatum paced Prairie View's 30-point victory over runner-up Texas Southern (62 points) in the women's division.

Gamble set a meet record in the 440-yard dash with a 56.30 clocking while Tatum anchored the Patherettes' winning effort in the mile relay. Gamble was also fifth in the 60-yard dash and ran a leg on the mile relay while Tatum was second in the 440 and fourth in the 60. Gabriel, a two-time defending champion in the 600, finished third in the 60 but injuries forced her out of the 600.

Tori Neubauer of Wisconsin-LaCrosse, who won the mile and two-mile, was selected as the outstanding female performer. Neubauer's 4:59.20 in the mile was a meet record as LaCrosse finished third in the team scoring with 52 points.

Kathrene Wallace of Texas Southern set a pair of meet records in the 60 (6.79) and long jump (6.28, 20-7 1/2). Other meet records established were by Julie Jenkins of Adams State CO (1:21.78 in the 600), Luann Soderling of Nebraska Wesleyan (15.06, 49-5 in the shot put), and Midland Lutheran NE in the distance medley relay (12.02.93). NAIA

Central State Rolls Up Points in Winning Mat Championship

EDMOND, OK — Host institution Central State University racked up the second highest point total in event history enroute to the team championship of the 27th annual NAIA National Wrestling Tournament, March 1 - 3 at the Broncho Fieldhouse.

Central State amassed 122.25 points on the strength of seven individuals finishing in the top four places, and easily outdistanced Jamestown ND in second with an 89.25 total. Defending champion Southern Oregon finished third with 73.50 points and Simon Fraser CAN captured the fourth place team award with a 63.50 total.

The victory was the fourth mat title for the Bronchos, tying them for second on the all-time list with Lockhaven State PA. Adams State College CO has won the most team championships with seven. It was Central State's third title in the last four seasons.

Three-time All-American Benny Coleman, who was voted the meet's outstanding wrestler, won the 177-pound title, and unseeded sophomore Jack O'Conner was victorious at 155 pounds to give Central State two individual titles. Other outstanding performances for the Bronchos came from seniors Darren Huff (134) and Mark Allen (150), both second, Ronnie James (142) and Mickey McGowan (118) with third place finishes, and senior Gary Astle, whose consolation semifinal victory for fourth place clinched the team trophy.

Ronnie James' loss in the championship semifinals denied him the opportunity to become only the third NAIA wrestler to win four individual titles in a career. He is the younger brother of second-year Broncho coach David James, himself a three-time champion in NAIA tournaments.

Heavyweight Bob Molle of Simon Fraser was the only wrestler to repeat as weight class champion with a pin of Ted Reehl of Kearney State NE at 2:38 into the match. It was the fifth fall of the tournament for Molle who won all of his matches in a total time of just 15 and a half minutes.

Other weight class champions were Greg Ford (134) of Adams State CO, Nathan Winner (142) of Southern Oregon, Paul Syvrud (150), Jamestown ND, Tony Ramsay (167) of Simon Fraser and Lari Mertens (190) of Mesa CO.

A total of 63 schools and over 225 athletes were represented in the three-day event. David James, Central State's 26-year-old coach was voted the National Coach of the Year.

The 1985 Tournament will be held March 7-9 at the Jamestown Civic Center in Jamestown, North Dakota.
