1996 Squad: Young and Athletic

Getting back to the Northwest Conference championship game won't be easy for the George Fox volleyball squad.

Last year's NCIC runners-up face a stronger league, key personnel losses including one of the nation's leading NAIA hitters, and a training room full of injuries. If this team doesn't make the title game this season, there's consolation. The entire squad can try again in 1997. No seniors are on the roster.

"Our goal is to make the playoffs," said 15th-year head coach Steve Grant. "There are too many unknowns to make any predictions."

What's known is the Lady Bruins' athleticism. Five of the projected starters will play for other George Fox varsity teams this year.

"We have outstanding athletic ability," said Grant. "This will be a fun team to coach. Our strengths will be our youth and heart."

Five full- or part-time starters are gone, including NAIA honorable mention All-American Joanna Lofgren, who finished third in the nation with 5.60 kills per game.

Filling the void will be two returning starters, last year's reserves and three freshman recruits.

The two veteran starters are setter Kari Guyer (Jr., North Medford HS, Ore.) — who earned Northwest Conference first-team honors last season — and left-side hitter Michelle Harper (Jr., Central HS, Monmouth, Ore.). Harper, George Fox's tallest player at 6-1, gives the Lady Bruins solid blocking and hard hitting. She plans to play basketball this winter.

Jennie Rennie (So., Curtis HS, Tacoma, Wash.) will push Guyer for playing time at setter.

Grant says the class of 2000 might be one of his best recruiting groups.

"I'm very pleased with our three freshman varsity recruits," said Grant. "All three will step in and make contributions this year."

Off of Salem Academy's Oregon class 2A volleyball state championship team come two volleyball first-team all-state players. Outside hitter Sharon Barnett (Fr., Salem Academy, Ore.) will be a strong offensive and defensive player.

"Our style will change from a left-side attack to being more versatile, but our top hitter will probably be Barnett if she's healthy," he said.

In track, Barnett was an 11-time 2A state champion in four events.

Multi-talented middle hitter Beth Davis (Fr., Salem Academy, Ore.) is 6-foot and mobile. Last year, she was Oregon's 2A softball Player of the Year as a pitcher.

From southern Oregon, Grant recruited Angela Powell (Fr., Roseburg HS, Ore.), a high jumper who has cleared 5-5.5. She likely will start at right-side or middle hitter.

Also moving into a starting role at the middle hitter or right-side position is last year's back-up middle hitter Amy Redenius (So., Douglas HS, Tenmile, Ore.). Redenius won All-American honors at the 1996 NAIA track meet as the anchor of George Fox's fourth-place 4x400 relay team.

Another track athlete, Julie Puckett (So., Kamiah HS, Idaho), will provide depth at middle hitter, and Dina Smith (Jr., Yakima HS, Wash.) will back up the outside hitters.

Defensive specialists expected to receive playing time are Janette Monckton (Jr., David Douglas HS, Portland, Ore.), Coby Van der Meer (So., Barlow HS, Gresham, Ore.) and Rachel Evans (So., Hawaii Baptist HS, Honolulu, Hawaii).

"Defense is our strength," said Grant. "We have great anticipators and we're fundamentally solid."

George Fox Advances to Conference Championship Game

Gutsy performances by two injured outside hitters helped the 1995 Lady Bruins reach the championship game of the Northwest Conference of Independent Colleges.

With about a month left in George Fox's volleyball season, the Lady Bruins were hobbling along with a 13-10 record.

George Fox's best hitter, Joanna Lofgren, was coming off a serious ankle sprain, and her counterpart, Michelle Nelsen, was fighting a variety of injuries including a broken bone in her foot.

After going 3-4 through the first half of round-robin conference play, George Fox ran off nine consecutive wins, defeating every NCIC opponent, and secured the No. 2 seed in the Northwest Conference playoffs in their final regular-season match.

"They played some of the best volleyball that George Fox teams have ever played," said head coach Steve Grant.

A confident squad sailed past Linfield College in a four-game semifinal match but was ambushed by No. 1-seeded Willamette University in the title game. George Fox finished 22-11 overall, its ninth straight winning season.

The Lady Bruin squad put two players on the six-member Northwest Conference first team. Lofgren led the conference and finished third in NAIA national statistics with 5.60 kills per game. A transfer from Montana State University, she finished her two-year career at George Fox with five school records.

Sophomore setter Kari Guyer was the only underclassman to make the NCIC first team. She averaged 10.94 assists a game.

Nelsen won second-team honors. She averaged 3.68 kills a game and was George Fox's leading defensive player with 365 digs. She also had a team-high 63 aces.

Head Coach
Steve Grant

Over the last decade and a half, Steve Grant has established a winning volleyball program at George Fox.

Just once in his 14 seasons has one of his teams finished with a losing record. His teams have a 332-218 (.616) record under his guidance. They've won two National Christian College Athletic Association national championships (1984 and 1987), and each time he was named NCCAA national coach of the year. NAIA District 2 Coach of the Year honors came his way in 1984 and 1990.

George Fox no longer competes in the NCCAA or NAIA District 2, but his teams continue to win. Last season, George Fox advanced to the championship game of the Northwest Conference of Independent Colleges.

During the nineties, three of his athletes have won NAIA All-American awards, two also named NAIA All-American Scholar-Athletes.

Grant, 50, took the head volleyball coaching job in 1982. He served as basketball assistant coach until 1995.

Grant is a 1969 graduate of Biola University, where he was a three-sport athlete. As a guard for the basketball team, he was named team MVP both his junior and senior years. He earned first-team all-conference, all-district and all-Far West honors as an Eagle defender on the soccer team and played baseball his freshman and junior years.

After graduation, Grant stayed two years as a basketball and soccer assistant coach.

In 1971, Grant moved to Salem, Ore., to become head boy's basketball coach and head baseball coach at Salem Academy. In 1975, he switched from baseball to women's volleyball.

At Western Baptist College in 1981-82, Grant coached the women's basketball team and was head men's soccer coach.

Grant earned a master's degree in education from Linfield College in 1985. In addition to coaching duties, he teaches courses as associate professor of health and human performance.

Grant and his wife, Kathy, live in Newberg and both work at George Fox. Kathy is an admission counselor for the Continuing Education Department. They have two children, Jeff, 24, and Bryan, 21, who is a junior business major at George Fox.

Kari Cline, one of the best outside hitters in George Fox history, is starting her first year as assistant coach.

A native of Wyoming, Cline (Bashford) was a standout player for four seasons at George Fox before graduating in 1995 with a biology degree. A great jumper, Cline totaled 483 kills in 1993 — the most ever in one season at George Fox. That same year, her 3.93 kills-per-game average was 23rd-highest in the nation. She appears in the George Fox top 10 in career digs, career kills, season kills-per-game, season kills, season attack percentage and season digs per game.

About George Fox

George Fox University enters its 106th year as one of America's Best Colleges. Nine times it has been given that designation by U.S. News & World Report magazine.

Founded in 1885 by Quaker settlers as Friends Pacific Academy, George Fox is one of the nation's fastest-growing universities. Enrollment has nearly quadrupled from 549 in 1986 to 2,188 in the fall of 1996. About 1,300 are traditional undergraduates.

The University offers unique programs to its students. Every incoming freshman is given a Macintosh computer to use and keep upon graduation. When George Fox students reach their third year, they are eligible for the Juniors Abroad program, where the University pays transportation costs for a three-week overseas study tour.

George Fox switched from college to university in 1996 when it merged with Western Evangelical Seminary (a graduate school of about 350 students in Tigard, Ore.). The University offers students a Christ-centered education and the choice of 35 undergraduate majors and 12 graduate degrees.

George Fox's most prominent alumnus is the late President Herbert Hoover, who attended Friends Pacific Academy.

Athletic Affiliation

George Fox is a member of the Northwest Conference of Independent Colleges (NCIC). The NCIC is leaving the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) for the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) Division III. Currently a provisional member, George Fox and the NCIC will be eligible for NCAA national championship play in 1998-99. Until then, the NCIC will continue to compete nationally in the NAIA.

The NAIA is an autonomous association administering programs leading to 13 men's and 11 women's national championships. The NAIA includes about 350 four-year colleges and universities in 49 states and Canada. They are grouped in nine regions and 44 conferences.

The NCAA administers 80 championships in 21 sports for its member institutions, involving nearly 21,000 men and women student-athletes.
