GEORGE FOX NIPS WHITWORTH 2-1 IN DOUBLE OVERTIME

SPOKANE, Wash. --- Brooke Pitner scored on a put-back off of a keeper save with just over one minute left in the second overtime period to give the visiting George Fox University Bruins a 2-1 win over the Whitworth College Pirates in a Northwest Conference women's soccer match here Sunday afternoon (Oct. 22).

The win improves the Bruins' record to 12-4 overall and 10-2 in the NWC, and keeps their hopes alive for a conference title. The Bruins trail first-place Puget Sound by one game and are tied with Willamette for second place in the NWC after the Loggers beat the Bearcats 1-0 in overtime Sunday in Tacoma. Whitworth fell to 5-9-2 overall and 3-8-1 in the conference.

Pitner scored when Whitworth keeper Stacey Roberts made a diving stop on a shot by Sara Oates. The ball bounced off of Roberts to the right side of the net where Pitner was waiting to score the winning goal.

The Bruins got on the board first when Karli Holub headed the ball into the net off of a corner kick by Ashleigh Hughes at 27:21. Pitner actually headed the ball to Holub to set up the goal, giving both Hughes and Pitner an assist on the play.

George Fox dominated the first half of play, out-shooting the Pirates 11-3, but Whitworth rallied in the second half and scored the equalizer when Piper Moore took a short crossing pass from Heather Sale and beat Bruin keeper Cori Wulf to the bottom left corner of the net.

Both teams had chances to score the winning goal in the first overtime period, but each keeper made a big save. Roberts finished with a season-high 12 saves for the Pirates. Wulf made six stops for the Bruins.

George Fox visits Willamette Friday (Oct. 27) for a 1:00 p.m. contest, while Whitworth will visit Pacific Lutheran University on Friday at 12:00 noon.

BRUINS CRUISE PAST WHITWORTH 4-1

NEWBERG, Ore. --- George Fox used three late game goals, two by freshman forward Sara Oates (Fr., Grover Beach, Calif./Arroyo Grande HS) to put away the visiting Whitworth College Pirates in Northwest Conference women's soccer action on Saturday.

The Bruins took a 1-0 first half lead when forward Karli Holub (Jr., Pleasant Hill, Ore./Pleasant Hill HS) headed in a corner kick from Ashleigh Hughes (MF, Sr., Portland, Ore./Jesuit HS). It was Holub's 33rd career goal, tying her with Gegi Bonera (1992-95) as George Fox's all-time goals leader.

Whitworth fought back in the second half, with Erika McGraw (MF, Fr., Vancouver, Wash./Skyview HS) drilling a shot to the left post off a high midfield feed from teammate Dalyce Young (D, So., Bellingham, Wash./Ferndale HS), to tie the game 1-1 at 73 minutes.

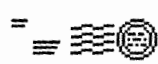

Less than one minute later, Hughes put the Bruins back up for good by connecting on a penalty kick following a Whitworth handball inside the box.

At 77 minutes, Sara Oates notched her first score when a Tori Taylor (So., Portland, Ore./Wilson HS) pass was bobbled by the defense and Oates hooked it to the left post.

Oates struck again on a fast break when Holub sent a short cross to midfielder Mindy Venable (So., Newberg, Ore./Faith Academy), who tapped to the left wing where Oates beat the keeper for the game's final score.

George Fox moved to 4-2 on the season, 2-0 in Northwest Conference play, while Whitworth fell to 3-2-1 overall, 1-1 in conference. The Bruins are back in action tomorrow, hosting Whitman College at noon, where forward Karli Holub will continue her assault on the record books. She needs only three points to break the school record for career goals (32) and points (79), both by Gegi Bonera. Whitworth will go on to play at Pacific tomorrow.

Whitworth Women Rock Whitman 7-0 in NWC Opener

Spokane, WA - It was the Carly and Dalyce show at the Whitworth College soccer field on Wednesday afternoon as the Pirates defeated visiting Whitman College 7-0 in the Northwest Conference opener for both teams.

Carly Sullivan (So., D, Pasco, Wash.) scored three times, all on headers off of corner kicks sent in by Dalyce Young (So., D, Bellingham, Wash.), two of which came in the first half. In addition to her three assists, Young also scored a goal on a corner kick in the first half.

Addie Norman (So., F, Grass Valley, Calif.) also added a pair of goals for Whitworth.

Sullivan and Young gave the Pirates a 1-0 lead six minutes into the match when Young drove a corner into the box and Sullivan headed the ball over Whitman keeper Kirstin Sandvik (Fr., GK, Medina, Wash.). Four minutes later Young's corner kick curved around the post for an unassisted goal. The scored became 3-0 at 31:38 when Young and Sullivan again connected on a goal identical to the first one.

Mary Hultgren (Fr., MF, Pasco, Wash.) wrapped up the first half scoring by knocking in a pass from Heather Sale (Fr., F, Spokane, Wash.) at 36:59.

Norman scored both of her goals in the second half and the Young/Sullivan corner-kick connection clicked again to round out the scoring.

Sullivan now has five goals this season, while Young has two goals and a conference-best eight assists.

Sandvik made five first-half saves for the Missionaries, while Claire Creighton (Fr., GK, Farmington, Conn.) made three while playing the second half. Whitworth outshot Whitman 24-1 during the match.

The win is Whitworth's third in a row and improved the Pirates' record to 3-1-1 (1-0 in the NWC). Whitman fell to 0-3 in 2000 (0-1 in the NWC). Both teams are on the road in Oregon this weekend. Whitworth plays at George Fox University on Saturday, while Whitman travels to Pacific University. The two teams swap opponents on Sunday.

Whitworth Men Shut Out Whitman 3-0

Spokane, WA - Whitworth College won its fourth straight match by shutout as they defeated visiting Whitman College 3-0 at the Whitworth College soccer field in a Northwest Conference match.

The Pirates, who improved to 5-1 overall and 1-0 in the NWC, have not allowed a goal in 415 minutes of play, stretching over four and a half matches.

Mark Lupton (Sr., D, Spokane, Wash.) gave the Pirates a 1-0 first half lead at 38:29 when he lobbed a ball over Whitman keeper Travis Exstrom (So., GK, Issaquah, Wash.) and into the top right corner of the net.

The Missionaries had a couple of opportunities to take an early lead when both Neils Larson (Fr., MF, Portland, Ore.) and Jeff Wagoner (Fr., F, Coeur d'Alene, Idaho) had good shots at the goal. But both shots were stopped by Pirate keeper Doug Lupton (Jr., GK, Spokane, Wash.).

Herbert Barbosa (Sr., F, Prosser, Wash.) finally gave Whitworth some breathing room at 69:41 when he took a crossing pass from Brendan Siefken (Jr., MF, Richland, Wash.) and beat Exstrom to the upper right corner. Less than a minute later Siefken followed with a goal of his own from 20-yards in front of the goal.

Whitman fell to 3-4 overall and 0-1 in the NWC. The Pirates and Missionaries are on the road this weekend. Whitworth plays at George Fox University on Saturday, while Whitman travels to Pacific University. The two teams swap opponents on Sunday.

BRUINS EXPLODE IN 2ND HALF TO ROUT WHITMAN 5-1

WALLA WALLA, Wash. --- Exploding for four second-half goals, the George Fox University Bruins routed the Whitman College Missionaries and stayed in contention for the Northwest Conference women's soccer crown with a 5-1 win here Saturday afternoon (Oct. 21) at Ankeny Field.

Karli Holub, the Bruins' all-time scoring leader, put the visiting Bruins ahead 1-0 with an unassisted goal at 10:16, but the Missionaries responded at the 28:51 mark on a goal by Heather Groshong, assisted by Sara Weihmann. The game was knotted 1-1 at the half.

George Fox took the lead for good, however, less than a minute into the second half, Anna Carlson breaking the tie with an unassisted score at the 45:54 mark. The Bruins then proceeded to tack on three more insurance goals to cruise to victory. Brooke Pitner scored at 64:49 with an assist from Rachel Denning, Pitner and Holub teamed up to pass the ball to Mindy Venable for another goal at 72:07, and Kirsten Gooch capped the Bruins' scoring with her first career goal at 81:50.

George Fox improved to 12-4 overall and 10-2 in the conference, remaining no worse than one game behind the league leaders, Willamette University and the University of Puget Sound. Whitman dropped to 0-13-1 and 0-11-1 in the conference. The Bruins visit Whitworth College Sunday (Oct. 22) while Whitman hosts Pacific University, both games at 12:00 noon.

HOLUB BREAKS RECORDS AS GEORGE FOX DOMINATES WHITMAN 5-0

NEWBERG, Ore. --- Junior forward Karli Holub (Pleasant Hill, Ore./Pleasant Hill HS) had two goals and one assist, breaking the George Fox University record for career goals and career points, to lead the Bruins to a 5-0 shutout win over visiting Whitman College in Northwest Conference women's soccer action Sunday (Sept. 24) here at Morse Athletic Field.

Holub assisted on a Tori Taylor (So., Wilson HS, Portland, Ore.) score in the first half, and then scored on back-to-back shots in the second half to break Gegi Bonera's (1992-95) career record of 32 goals and 79 points. Holub, only a junior, now has 34 career goals and 82 career points.

George Fox controlled the game from the start, when forward Sara Oates (Fr., Grover Beach, Calif./Arroyo Grande HS) dribbled around three defenders and nailed a hard shot at 32 minutes to put the Bruins up 1-0. Taylor's score five minutes later gave George Fox a 2-0 halftime lead.

Both of Holub's goals came within three minutes of each other on almost identical plays. At 51 minutes, Holub took a pass from forward Anna Carlson (So., Beaverton, Ore./Sunset HS), backed in a defender, faked, pivoted, and drove in a strong shot to the left post. Minutes later, she did the same thing off an Ashleigh Hughes (Sr., Portland, Ore./Jesuit HS) pass.

George Fox added one more goal in the game's final minute when Brooke Pitner (Fr., Vancouver, Wash./Skyview HS) headed in a goal-box cross from Sara Oates.

George Fox dominated Whitman on offense, taking 27 shots to the Missionaries' four. Keeper Cori Wulf (So., Salem, Ore./Santiam Christian HS) notched her first shutout of the year.

George Fox is now 3-0 in Northwest Conference play, 5-2 overall, and Whitman is 0-3 in NWC action, 0-5 overall. The Bruins' next game will be at the University of Puget Sound on Saturday (Sept. 30) at 12:00 noon, while the Missionaries will head back to Walla Walla to face Linfield College on the same date at the same time.

BRUINS BLANKED 2-0 BY CALIFORNIA BAPTIST

RIVERSIDE, Calif. --- Getting only nine shots at the goal all game, the George Fox University Bruins could not get a ball in the goal and were whitewashed 2-0 by the California Baptist University Lancers in women's soccer action here Friday afternoon (Sept. 8).

Lisa Muench scored off a cross from Amy Harris in the 16th minute to put the Lancers ahead 1-0, then added an assist to Yvette Vascones for an insurance score in the 70th minute. California Baptist outshot George Fox 22-9, with Bruin goalkeeper Cori Wulf recording 13 saves to keep the final count from being even higher.

The Bruins dropped to 1-1 on the season, while the Lancers evened their mark at 2-2. George Fox had picked up California Baptist as a last-minute replacement on its schedule for U.S. International University, which could not reschedule the Bruins after leaving them off their original slate of games.

George Fox continues its California swing Saturday (Sept. 9), facing the University of La Verne at 7:00 p.m.

CAVS SCORE EARLY IN O.T. TO DEFEAT BRUINS 2-1

PORTLAND, Ore. --- A goal within the last two minutes of regulation play tied the game, and another goal 43 seconds into overtime ended it as the Concordia University-Portland Cavaliers stunned the George Fox University Bruins 2-1 in a women's soccer match here Saturday afternoon (Sept. 16).

The defensive struggle was knotted 0-0 at the half before the Bruins' Rachel Denning put George Fox ahead at 57:03 with a penalty kick, courtesy of a foul by Concordia keeper Shelley Butcher inside the box. Bruin goalie Cori Wulf turned away 10 Concordia shots and it appeared she might get her first shutout of the season, but the Cavaliers' Bre Starzecki deflected a shot into the net off a feed from Missy Clark at the 88:05 mark to tie it 1-1.

Just 43 seconds into overtime, at 90:43, Clark came in from the right side and nailed the winner off a pass from Amy Jackson. It was the first win for Concordia over George Fox in their sixth meeting, the Bruins having owned a 4-0-1 record against the Cavs before this game.

George Fox closed out its pre-conference schedule with a 2-2 record. Bruins forward Karli Holub was shut out of point production and will have to wait until the Bruins' next game to move closer to the team records for career goals and career points (she has 31 goals and 72 points, second all-time to Gegi Bonera's 32 goals and 79 points). She will get her chance Wednesday (Sept. 20) when the Bruins host Pacific University at 3:00 p.m. in their first conference and home game of the season. Concordia also plays Wednesday, visiting Western Oregon University for a Cascade Collegiate Conference contest.

SECOND-HALF GOALS SPARK BRUINS TO 3-1 WIN AT LA VERNE

LA VERNE, Calif. --- Tori Taylor and Karli Holub scored late second-half goals, breaking a 1-1 tie and leading the George Fox University Bruins to a 3-1 win over the University of La Verne Leopards in women's soccer action here Saturday night (Sept. 9).

Kelly McCabe scored her first career goal off a goalkeeper deflection at the 15:07 mark of the first half to give the visiting Bruins an early 1-0 lead. La Verne countered with its only goal just before the half ended when Katie Zwissler scored off a feed from Erica Borbon at 42:23.

Taylor broke the tie for the Bruins with her rebound goal at 72:34, and Holub put the icing on the win with her solo score at 88:57. With that goal, Holub, a junior, now has 31 career goals and 72 total points, and needs only two more goals and eight points to break the George Fox all-time records of 32 goals and 79 points held by Gegi Bonera.

George Fox is now 2-1 on the season, while La Verne drops to 1-3. The Bruins will be back in action next Saturday (Sept. 16), visiting Concordia University-Portland for a 1:00 p.m. contest.

BRUINS KEEP PLAYOFF HOPES ALIVE WITH 3-0 WIN OVER LINFIELD

McMINNVILLE, Ore. --- Still hopeful of receiving an at-large bid to the NCAA Division III National Tournament, the George Fox University women's soccer team kept its dream alive for a while longer with a critical 3-0 win over Linfield College in their final regular season game, a Northwest Conference match, here Saturday afternoon (Oct. 28)

The University of Puget Sound has the conference title and the automatic bid that goes with it, and runner-up Willamette University, nationally-ranked in the top 10, seems assured of a playoff spot. The Bruins are 13-5 overall, 11-3 and in third in the conference, and with three of their losses to UPS and Willamette, are relying on their strength of schedule to persuade the selection committee of their credentials for inclusion in the tournament. Selections will be announced some time Sunday, Oct. 29.

Karli Holub scored first for the visiting Bruins and Sara Oates scored twice as George Fox denied the Wildcats their first-ever .500 conference season. Linfield finished 5-7-2 and in fourth place in the NWC, and 6-9-3 overall. It was the Bruins' 20th straight win over the Wildcats, and they are 20-1 lifetime over Linfield.

George Fox's stellar defensive backfield of Kelly McCabe, Erin Oates, Beth Liljenberg and Ashleigh Hughes allowed Linfield only two shots while the Bruins got off 13 themselves. Cori Wulf picked up her fourth shutout of the season.

HUGHES LIFTS BRUINS OVER LINFIELD IN DOUBLE OVERTIME

NEWBERG, Ore. --- Midfielder Ashleigh Hughes (Jr., Portland, Ore.) chased down a defensive clear off her own corner kick and fired the game-winning shot from 20 yards out, lifting the George Fox University Bruins over the Linfield College Wildcats 2-1 in a double-overtime women's soccer thriller Saturday afternoon (Oct. 7) here at the Morse Athletic Field.

After a scoreless first half, Tori Taylor (So., Portland, Ore.) found the back of the net on a goal box scramble following a corner kick to put the Bruins up 1-0 at 58 minutes. George Fox almost notched its second shutout of the year, but Linfield's Lauren Millhollin beat Bruins keeper Cori Wulf (So., Salem, Ore.) on a fast break to force overtime.

The first overtime was fairly even, with both teams taking a single shot. Five minutes into the second extra period, Hughes got the only shot that was needed, kicking home the winner at the 110:46 mark.

It was the Bruins' second double-overtime win in as many games, after a 3-2 win at Pacific Lutheran last Sunday. George Fox improved to 7-3 overall and 5-1 in the Northwest Conference, while Linfield dropped to 3-5-2 overall and 2-3-1 in the conference.

The Bruins will host NCAA Division III 4th-ranked Willamette University Sunday (Oct. 8) at 12:00 noon, while the Wildcats visit Pacific University in Forest Grove Sunday, also at 12:00 noon.

NORTHWEST CONFERENCE WOMEN'S SOCCER
Linfield 1, Pacific Lutheran 0, 2 OT

It took two overtimes for Linfield to beat Pacific Lutheran in women's Northwest Conference soccer action Saturday in McMinnville. Joelle Tybon scored the deciding goal from 35 yards out, after taking a short, indirect kick from Lauren Millhollin.

The match remained scoreless throughout regulation and the first 15-minute overtime. Tybon, a freshman defender, scored her first goal of the season as the Wildcats improved to 2-3-1 and 1-1 in the NWC. PLU saw its record drop to 1-5 and 0-2 in conference play.

The Wildcats out shot the Lutes 15-13. Jessica Gabbert totaled seven saves in goal for Linfield. Gloria Cefali made nine saves for PLU.

Matt Wheaton's goal with less than two minutes to play lifted Linfield to a 2-1 Northwest Conference men's soccer victory over Pacific Lutheran Saturday in McMinnville. Playing without three starters, including leading scorer Chris McDonald, the Wildcats (7-0, 2-0 NWC) narrowly avoided a sudden-death overtime session with the Lutes (1-5, 0-2 NWC) thanks to Wheaton's last-minute heroics.

Todd Dolan threw the ball in bounds, Wheaton gained control and fired a shot from 10 yards out that hit the bottom of the cross bar and bounced past PLU goalkeeper Jonas Tanzer.

Shanon Hopkins made the score 1-0 Wildcats 19 minutes into the game on a breakaway shot that beat Tanzer to the left side. Andrew Yarborough tied the contest six minutes later, scoring unassisted with a shot from the right side that bounced in off the left post.

The game remained deadlocked until Wheaton's goal in the 114th minute, his fourth of the season. Linfield outshot the Lutes 20-6. The Wildcats face defending champion Puget Sound Sunday in McMinnville. The teams split their two meetings a year ago.

BRUINS HOLD OFF BOXERS 2-1 FOR 10TH WIN

FOREST GROVE, Ore. --- Scoring one goal in each half, the George Fox University Bruins made those two scores stand up as they held off the Pacific University Boxers 2-1 in a Northwest Conference women's soccer game Wednesday afternoon (Oct. 18) here at Tom Reynolds Field.

The Bruins earned their first goal at the 19:10 mark in the first half when Tori Taylor hit a left-side runner off a cross-field pass from Brooke Pitner. Sara Oates connected for a valuable insurance goal in the 54th minute of the second half when she stole the ball from a Boxer defender, dribbled in, and nailed a shot from the right side.

Pacific made a late push and cut the lead to 2-1 when Abby Hunt found the net in the 81st minute, striking from the right side off an assist from Kelli Ann Miller, but that was all the scoring the Boxers could muster.

Both goalkeepers turned in excellent performances, the Bruins' Cori Wulf saving five of 11 shots and the Boxers' Leslie Renier saving a season's-best 13 out of 27 shots.

With the win, the Bruins reached double figures in victories for the third straight season, climbing to 10-4 overall and 8-2 in the conference. The Boxers dropped to 4-8 overall and 3-7 in the NWC.

Both teams are on the road this Saturday (Oct. 21) to eastern Washington, George Fox visiting Whitman College in Walla Walla and Pacific at Whitworth College in Spokane for 12:00 noon contests.

BRUINS HOLD OFF BOXERS 3-2 IN NORTHWEST CONFERENCE OPENER

NEWBERG, Ore. --- Mindy Venable scored the tie-breaking goal shortly before the halftime, and Brooke Pitner added an insurance goal in the second half that proved critical, as the George Fox University Bruins held off the Pacific University Boxers 3-2 in Northwest Conference women's soccer action Wednesday afternoon (Sept. 20) here at Morse Athletic Field.

The Bruins, who entered the game ranked 7th in the NCAA Division III West Region, got on the board first with a goal off the bench from Anna Carlson, who drilled home a left-footed shot from the left side off a pass from Karli Holub 30:48 into the game. The Boxers bounced back to tie it at 1-1 shortly thereafter as Andrea Powell headed one in off a corner kick from Rhiannon Gagnon at 35:21.

Venable, another Bruin sub, notched her first career goal at 42:34 off a tip from Holub to break the deadlock and give George Fox a 2-1 lead at the interval. The Bruins made 3-1 at 50:49 in the second half when Pitner corralled a deflected shot by Holub and punched it into the left corner of the net.

The Bruins out-shot the Boxers 29-6 in the game, but the Pacific group made the most of their opportunities and made it close with a second goal at 86:40, Leeann Ogasawara lifting an indirect free kick over the head of Bruins goalkeeper Cori Wulf, but the home team ran out the clock before the visitors could get another shot off.

The game was the conference opener for both teams, and left the Bruins with a 3-2 overall record, while Pacific dropped to 1-2-1. Both teams are back in NWC action Saturday at 12:00 noon, George Fox hosting Whitworth College, ranked 10th in the region, and Pacific hosting Whitman College.

WOMEN'S SOCCER: DeVilliers earns Player of Week in 9-1 victory as conference games open

Senior Malia DeVilliers (Vancouver, Wash.) led the way with three goals and an assist as Pacific smashed Simpson College, 9-1, Saturday for the Boxers' first victory of the 2000 season.

The win was a much needed one for Tim Copeland's squad, who had yet to score a goal in their previous two contests. "We needed this victory to build some confidence in our offense, regardless of the final score," Copeland said.

The Boxers' open up their Northwest Conference season this week with three games, including a Wednesday showdown with fierce rival George Fox.

DeVilliers, who earned NWC Player of the Week honors for the second time of her career (see below) scored the first two goals of her "hat trick" within two minutes of each other. She hit in the eighth minute on a direct shot from five meters out. DeVilliers connected the second time in the ninth minute, finding the net off of Rhiannon Gagnon's (So. Mukilteo, Wash.) corner kick.

Pacific's other first half scorers included Abby Hunt (So. Beaverton, Ore.), hitting in the 14th minute; Kelli Ann Miller (Sr. Kihie, Hawaii) in the 20th minute unassisted and Andrea Bowden (Fr. Eagle River, Alaska) in the 43rd minute on a breakaway from Naomi Stucky (So. Klamath Falls, Ore.).

Susan Doyle (Sr. Seattle, Wash.) opened the second half with a point-blank shot in the 45th minute. Malia Ho (Fr. Wailileu, Hawaii) then connected in the 59th minute off a pass from DeVilliers. Thirty seconds later DeVilliers completed the "hat trick" on a direct shot in front of the goal off an assist from Stacy Amano (Fr. Oceanside, Calif.). Joely Gutierrez (Fr. Hilo, Hawaii) closed out scoring in the 89th minute on a breakaway off a Hunt assist.

Simpson's only goal came in the first half when Leah Hildreth scored on a penalty kick. It was the Vanguards' only shot as the Boxers outshot Simpson 29-1.

THIS WEEK: Pacific's Northwest Conference season begins with a flurry this week with three games on the docket.

The Boxers' open up Wednesday by traveling to Newberg to face George Fox. The Bruins enter the contest ranked fifth in the latest NSCAA West Regional Coaches' Poll. The Bruins played only one game last week, a 2-1 overtime loss to Concordia. Last year Pacific lost both games to George Fox. The Boxers took a 4-2 loss at home Sept. 22, then fell again 3-1 at Newberg Oct. 20.

Saturday and Sunday the Boxers host Whitman and Whitworth, respectively. The Missionaries are struggling early with a 0-2 record going into conference action. They were blanked Saturday 5-0 by Central Washington. Whitworth is 2-1-1 entering this week and were ranked 8th in the latest West Region Poll. They did not compete last week. Whitman and Whitworth face off against each other Wednesday in Spokane, Wash.

DeVILLIERS PLAYER OF THE WEEK: For the second time in her Pacific career, Malia DeVilliers earned NWC Player of the Week honors. DeVilliers earned distinction by scoring three goals and adding an assist in Pacific's 9-1 victory over Simpson. She leads the Boxers in goals scored (3), points (7) and is tied with five other for assists (1).

YOUTH MOVEMENT: Three Pacific freshman scored their first goals as Boxers Saturday. Andrea Bowden hit in the 43rd minute, Malia Ho connected in the 59th minute (off Malia DeVilliers) and Joely Gutierrez hit with 14 seconds left to play (off Abby Hunt). Ho has started all three games this season, while Bowden and Gutierrez are consistent role players off the bench.

MEN'S SOCCER: Boxers hope to regroup as conference season begins with three games

Five games into the 2000 season, a talented Pacific men's soccer team is still looking for little bit more chemistry.

In their last contest before the start of the NWC season, Pacific fell last Wednesday to Concordia 1-0. They enter the conference schedule 2-3-0. They will be tested early, facing regionally ranked George Fox Wednesday.

The Boxer offense could not find their spark against Concordia, managing only six shots on goal compared to the Cavaliers' 12. The goal came in the 30th minute when Peter Voiles put one by Ryan Stanley (So. Honolulu, Hawaii).

The Boxers are getting the shots, but are having trouble putting it in the net. In the last four games, Pacific has taken 49 shots on goal with six

DeVilliers' three goals take Boxers past Simpson

Women's Soccer
Pacific 9, Simpson (Calif.) 1

FOREST GROVE— Malia DeVilliers (Sr. Vancouver, Wash.) scored her first career "hat trick" to lead the Pacific women's soccer team to their first win of 2000, a 9-1 rout of Simpson College.

The effort evens up Pacific's record at 1-1-1 overall as they prepare for the start of Northwest Conference action Wednesday. Pacific outshot the Vanguards 29-1, with the opponent's only shot on a penalty kick.

DeVilliers scored the first goal of the game, hitting an unassisted shot from 10 meters at the eighth minute. She repeated the scenario a minute later, hitting off a corner kick from Rhiannon Gagnon (So. Mukilteo, Wash.).

The third goal was a second half direct shot off a pass from Stacy Amano (Fr. Oceanside, Calif.).

Abby Hunt (So. Beaverton, Ore.) hit in the 14th minute unassisted on a long cross. Kelli Ann Miller (Sr. Kihie, Hawaii) struck in the 20th minute on the right side, unassisted. Andrea Bowden (Fr. Eagle River, Alaska) was the first of three Boxer freshman to score, hitting on a breakaway in the 43rd minute, assisted by Naomi Stucky (So. Klamath Falls, Ore.).

Susan Doyle (Sr. Seattle, Wash.) opened scoring in the second half, scoring 37 seconds into the stanza off a Miller assist. Malia Ho (Fr. Wailuleu, Hawaii) scored her first Pacific in the 59th minute, connecting off an assist from DeVilliers. Joely Gutierrez (Fr. Hilo, Hawaii) closed scoring in the 89th minute on a direct kick off of a Hunt assist.

Simpson's only goal came in the 38th minute when Leah Hilgreath hit on a penalty kick. Simpson goalkeeper Wreth Griffin finished with 13 saves.

Pacific opens up the NWC season Wednesday, traveling to Newberg to take on George Fox. Game time is scheduled for 4:00 p.m.

WOMEN'S SOCCER: Boxer lose, tie season opening games;
home opener Saturday

The Pacific's women's soccer team has ones in two separate columns: loss and tie. Now they want to put one in the win column.

The Boxers went 0-1-1 in their opening week, losing Wednesday to Western Baptist 2-0 and battled to a scoreless tie Saturday against the College of Notre Dame in Arcata, Calif.

A tough start considering the Boxers have yet to manage a score. Western Baptist outshot the Boxers 18-12 in their 2-0 win over Pacific on Wednesday. KeriAnn Lawson had both goals for the Warriors. The first was an unassisted shot from 20 yards out, then hit in the 71st minute on a pass from Karen Schipper.

Saturday turned into a defensive dual as neither team managed to get off many shots. The Argonauts outshot the Boxers 11-7, but both teams were limited to one shot in the overtime stanza. Leslie Renier (So. Tucson, Ariz.) had two saves behind a spectacular defensive effort.

THIS WEEK: Like their male counterparts, the Boxers play only one game this week. They play their home opener Saturday against Simpson College of Redding, Calif. The Vanguard's went 5-13-1 last season, and are 0-4 this season. Over the weekend Simpson recorded a 2-0 loss to Oregon Tech and an 8-0 loss to Western Baptist. They will play Linfield Friday before playing the Boxers.

WOMEN'S SOCCER: Boxers open season this week with two road contests; Calif. Road trip

Pacific women's soccer head coach Tim Copeland says his squad is ready for their upcoming two-game road trip to open up the 2000 season.

The Boxers, who finished 9-8-2 overall in 1999, face NAIA foe Western Baptist Wednesday, then travel to Arcata, Calif. for a tilt with the College of Notre Dame.

Copeland had a preview of his up-and-coming talent Saturday, as his freshmen and sophomores beat a combined senior and alumni squad 2-0 in a scrimmage at Tom Reynolds Field.

"Our underclassmen were impressive," Copeland said.

"They played strong in their game situation and showed our seniors that they are ready to play."

THIS WEEK: The Boxers begin the 2000 campaign Wednesday against Western Baptist, a NAIA rival in Salem. Saturday the Boxer women join the men in playing the College of Notre Dame, a first year program from Belmont, Calif.

COACHES' POLL: The Boxers have been picked to finish sixth this season in the Northwest Conference, according to a coaches poll conducted before the beginning of the season.

The Boxers received 19 votes in the poll after finishing 9-8-2 overall last season and 5-7-2 in NWC action. Defending champion Willamette, who did not lose a game last season, is picked to repeat as champs. The Bearcats received 66 points, including five of eight possible first place votes. They fell in the first round of the NCAA West Regional to Puget Sound in a 2-2 shootout. The Loggers are selected to finish second, receiving 62 points and three first place votes. Whitworth is selected third, followed by Pacific Lutheran, George Fox, Pacific, Linfield and Whitman.

CROSS COUNTRY: Harriers open season in rare dual meet against NWC rival Linfield

The Pacific cross country team prepares this week for their first contest, a rare NWC dual meet matchup with Linfield Saturday at Joe Dancer Park in McMinnville. Start time is 10:00 a.m. for the women with the men to follow. Both will run 5,000 meters.

The meet is a late addition for the Boxers in order to comply with NCAA regulations. Their scheduled first contest, the Pacific University Open on Sept. 2, was cancelled.

First year head coach Ron Tabb says he plans to use the race as a test for his crew, most of which are adjusting to a new training system.

"This will be our first true speed test of the year,"

Tabb said. "This will be a good barometer to see where we are at as a team. Overall, I am quite impressed with how our runners are responding to the workouts."

Pacific's men return most of their top men from the 1999 season. Carl Hoogesteger (So. Gold Beach, Ore.) and Russ Getchell (Jr. Beaverton, Ore.), Pacific's top runners in 1999, both return. Hoogesteger posted a personal best

2000 Preview

In their 1999 campaign the Pacific women's soccer team turned a new leaf with a new coach, 10 new players and more wins than the previous two seasons combined.

The storyline is much the same for 2000: 22 newcomers join 10 returning players from last season, with the hope of improving on their 9-8-2 record. "We're still rebuilding," said second year head coach Tim Copeland. "Last year was a good step. Now we'll continue to rebuild and get some wins in the process."

While the high number of new Boxers will make for an interesting mix on the pitch, Copeland believes that as the season progresses the old and new will gel. "There is a lot of potential," Copeland said. "The hard part will be finding out where the pieces fit best. We will work it out in the preseason and hope to be on the same page when we open the conference season." Copeland will lay out his puzzle around two senior anchors up front. Malia DeVilliers (Vancouver, Wash.) and Susan Doyle (Seattle, Wash.) both posted five goals for the Boxers last season. Doyle was an early season surprise, moving from defender to forwarder and scored three goals in Pacific's first three games. DeVilliers was an NWC Player of the Week, and will be relied upon as a field leader for this young team.

BRUINS BLANK PLU 4-0 TO REMAIN IN NWC TOP SPOT

NEWBERG, Ore. --- Spreading the scoring wealth around among four different players, the George Fox University Bruins shut out the Pacific Lutheran University Lutes 4-0 in Northwest Conference women's soccer action on Saturday (Oct. 14) here at Morse Athletic Field.

The Bruins were overpowering on offense in the first half, taking 20 shots and jumping to a 3-0 halftime lead. Forward Karli Holub put George Fox on the board when she sent a high midfield flick from Ashleigh Hughes to the back of the net at 7:29. Ten minutes later, Holub assisted Sara Oates, passing to Oates inside the box, and Oates turned, faked the keeper right, and drove in a hard shot to the left to make it 2-0. Forward Anna Carlson came off the bench to score the final goal of the first half off a high cross from midfielder Tori Taylor.

In the opening minutes of the second half, Carlson collided with a defender at the top of the box on a fast break and midfielder Mindy Venable powered the loose ball to the left post at 49:56 for a 4-0 George Fox lead. Play was more even for the remainder of the second half, but GFU's defensive squad of Beth, Kelly McCabe, and Samara Thornburg frustrated the PLU offense with double teams to preserve the Bruins' third shutout of the season.

Keeper Cori Wulf made five saves on 11 shots for George Fox, while PLU's Gloria Cefali, the NWC leader in saves, collected 11 more as the Bruin offense took 27 shots on the day.

George Fox improves to 9-3 and maintains its share of the conference lead with a 7-1 NWC record. Pacific Lutheran drops to 3-9 on the season, 2-6 in conference play. Sunday (Oct. 15) the Bruins will battle the University of Puget Sound in Newberg at 12:00 noon for first place in the conference. The two teams are currently tied with Willamette for the top spot. PLU travels to Forest Grove to face Pacific Sunday at 12:00 noon.

HOLUB'S HAT TRICK LEADS BRUINS PAST LUTES 3-2 IN TWO OT'S

TACOMA, Wash. -- Karli Holub scored her third goal of the game with 16 seconds remaining in the second overtime, leading the George Fox University Bruins to a 3-2 Northwest Conference women's soccer victory over the Pacific Lutheran University Lutes Sunday afternoon (Oct. 1) here at the PLU soccer field.

The host Lutes took the early lead on Alison Brennan's goal at the 18:46 mark, her shot angling from right to left and into the far side net. George Fox showed its offensive prowess throughout the first half, however, taking 10 shots and forcing PLU goalkeeper Gloria Cefali to make seven saves in the opening 45 minutes.

The Bruins finally tied the score at the 74:50 mark when Holub, who two games ago became the Bruins' career leader in goals scored and total points, scored her first goal on an assist from Anna Carlson. A little less than four minutes later, Holub spun away from her defender and beat Cefali for her second goal. With 1:06 remaining in regulation, however, PLU's Katie Pfister right-footed an 18-yard blast through a crowd and past Bruins goalkeeper Cori Wulf for the 2-2 tie.

In the second 15-minute overtime period, the Lutes came close to pulling off an upset of the Bruins, the No. 7 team in the NCAA Division III West Region, only to see Brennan's left-footed shot bang off the crossbar. A minute later, with the seconds counting down, Holub pounced on a rebound off a Tori Taylor shot in front of the goal and lifted it over Cefali, who was on the ground after making a save, to complete her hat trick.

George Fox fired 31 shots in the game, forcing Cefali to make 15 saves, one short of the PLU record for saves in a game of 16 set twice by Lisa Cole in 1996. Wulf had eight saves on 20 Lute shots.

The Bruins improved to 6-3 overall and 4-1 in the conference, while the Lutes lost for the sixth straight time and are now 0-5 in conference play and 1-8 overall. George Fox returns to NWC action Saturday (Oct. 7), hosting Linfield College at 12:00 p.m., while Pacific Lutheran visits Whitman College Saturday, also at noon.

WOMEN'S SOCCER: Lutes welcome Pacific, George Fox

COMING UP: Pacific Lutheran hosts Pacific, Saturday, noon; hosts George Fox, Sunday, noon.

LUTES SEEK NWC VICTORIES: After three Northwest Conference road matches last week, the PLU women's soccer team is happy to be back on familiar turf this weekend. The Lutes host Pacific on Saturday and George Fox on Sunday in conference matches that kick off at noon. Both opponents have winning conference records, Pacific at 2-1 and George Fox at 3-0.

LAST WEEK'S SUMMARY: The Lutes were 0-3 on the road last week, losing 3-0 at Puget Sound, 1-0 in overtime at Linfield and 5-1 at Willamette. The Linfield result was particularly disappointing as the Lutes battled the host Wildcats on even terms, PLU finishing with 13 shots to Linfield's 15. Senior goalkeeper Gloria Cefali (Gardnerville, Nev. / Douglas HS) had a solid game in goal with nine saves. The Lutes forced seven saves from the opposing keeper. Freshman midfielder Maja Pederson (Fairbanks, Alaska / West Valley HS) tallied PLU's goal against Willamette, giving her a team-best two for the season.

CROSS COUNTRY: Lutes run at National Course Preview Meet

COMING UP: Pacific Lutheran at National Course Preview Meet, Friday, 10 a.m.

SITE OF DIVISION III NATIONALS: The Lutes will get to test out the site of this year's NCAA Division III national cross country meet when they compete this Friday in the National Course Preview Meet at Wandermere Golf Club in Spokane. The meet, which starts at 10 a.m., will be hosted by Whitworth College, also the host for nationals. PLU had last weekend off after opening the season Sept. 16 at the New Balance Festival in Clackamas, Ore. The Lute women won the New Balance Festival title with senior Marée George-Milles (Gig Harbor, Wash. / Peninsula HS) and juniors Lia Ossiander (Chugiak, Alaska / Chugiak HS) and Lisa Lindsay (Monmouth, Ore. / Central HS) finishing first through third. The PLU men are paced by sophomore Floyd Bangerter (Brier, Wash. / Mountlake Terrace HS) and junior Ryan Reed (Freeland, Wash. / South Whidbey HS).

No. 18 in the country, against the No. 12-ranked Pioneers. A Pacific Lutheran victory would help establish the Lutes as one of the stronger teams in the West Region. The current national poll lists the following West Region teams: Cal State Hayward at No. 12, Colorado College at No. 13 and PLU at No. 18 (tie). Weekend results of particular interest to the Lutes showed Northwest Conference teams Puget Sound and George Fox both beating Colorado College. Last year, PLU advanced to the Division III nationals, winning one match and then losing in the West Region semifinals.

MEN'S SOCCER: Lutes start season with 1-0 victory

COMING UP: Pacific Lutheran at Hawaii Pacific, Monday, 3 p.m.; at Hawaii Pacific, Thursday, 10 a.m.

LUTES OPEN WITH VICTORY: Pacific Lutheran got the 2000 campaign off to a good start with a 1-0 victory over BYU-Hawaii last Saturday. Senior defender Cody Johnson (Kirkland, Wash. / Lake Washington HS) scored in the 47th minute on an assist from senior midfielder Brian Kuklish (Sacramento, Calif. / Rio American HS) for the game's only tally. Junior Nate Wiggins (Puyallup, Wash. / Rogers HS) was credited with the shutout in goal.

RIGHT BACK AT IT: PLU has two matches remaining, both against Hawaii Pacific, on the early season trip to Hawaii. The Lutes square off with the Sea Warriors at 3 p.m. Monday, Sept. 4, followed by a 10 a.m. match on Thursday, Sept. 7. The last time that PLU and Hawaii Pacific met was in 1997, the Lutes winning a 2-0 decision on their home field.

WOMEN'S SOCCER: Lutes kick off 2000 season in Hawaii

COMING UP: Pacific Lutheran at Hawaii Pacific, Wednesday, 4 p.m.; vs. Southern Indiana in Kaneohe, Friday, 2 p.m.

IT'S TIME TO PLAY: After 2 1/2 weeks of practice, it's time for the Pacific Lutheran women's soccer team to put on their uniforms and get the 2000 season underway. The Lutes have been practicing since arriving in Hawaii in August 31, and get their season underway at 4 p.m. this Wednesday when they battle Hawaii Pacific. Two days later, the Lutes go up against Southern Indiana at the Hawaii Pacific field.

SEASON OUTLOOK: Pacific Lutheran figures to be solid in defense again but still has some significant questions to answer regarding its goal-scoring potential as the 2000 women's soccer season approaches. Last year, the Lutes finished with a 7-10 record but just as easily could have turned that record around. That's because PLU lost four of the five overtime matches it played in 1999. It wasn't until the final match of the season, when the Lutes defeated Whitman 2-1, that they took an overtime victory. Anchoring the defense will be goalkeeper Gloria Cefali (Gardnerville, Nev. / Douglas HS), who returns in the nets for the third straight season. She had a solid 1999 campaign with five shutouts and a 1.07 goals against average. With 208 saves in two seasons as a starter, she is in position to establish a PLU career record. The defensive line includes junior Angela Carder (Auburn, Wash. / Fife HS), who started all 13 matches that she played when not injured in 1999. The sweeper will be sophomore Kelly Wright (Lynnwood, Wash. / Lynnwood HS), a quick and aggressive defender who plays bigger than 5-2. Wright earned valuable experience with 11 starts at outside marking back last season. Another veteran defender is junior Kira Johnson (Logan, Utah / Logan HS), who has played defender, midfielder and forward in her two previous seasons. Senior Alison Brennan (Gig Harbor, Wash. / Gig Harbor HS), who earned first team all-conference honors last year, will orchestrate the play in midfield. Brennan split time between forward and midfield last year, but seems to be settled at the latter position where her skill with the ball, field vision and understanding of the game will be crucial to PLU's success. Despite missing seven matches with an injury, Brennan led the '99 squad with four goals and four assists. Brennan, who had nine assists as a sophomore, is tied for ninth on the PLU career assists list with 17. Joining Brennan in the midfield will be sophomore Abby Buck (Portland, Ore. / Lincoln HS), who had a goal in four starts there last year. The Lutes welcome junior Leah Anderson (Shoreline, Wash. / Shorewood HS), who transfers from Western Washington University. Other than Brennan, there are no proven goal scorers at the collegiate level on the Pacific Lutheran roster. PLU has hardly an offensive power last year, managing just 20 goals in 17 matches, and only 35 percent of those goals were scored by players on this year's squad. Junior Brionne Shimoda (Seattle, Wash. / Kennedy HS) and sophomore Laurie Allen (Port Orchard, Wash. / South Kitsap HS) both return at forward. Head coach Sue Shinafelt-Waters is hoping for offensive production from not only that duo, but from freshman Nina Tandberg (Amot, Norway / Vestfold College) and Maja Pedersen (Fairbanks, Alaska / West Valley HS).

PACIFIC LUTHERAN HIRES WOMEN'S TENNIS, CREW COACHES

Pacific Lutheran University athletic director Dr. Paul Hoseth has announced the appointment of two new head coaches within the athletic department.

Stacia Marshall has been named women's tennis head coach, returning to the same position she held during the 1985 and 1986 seasons. The Lutes had a combined 32-12 dual match record during those seasons, winning the 1986 Northwest Conference championship. Marshall replaces Sue Schoettler, who resigned after one season in which she led PLU to a 13-10 dual match record and the school's second straight Northwest Conference title.

Marshall played her collegiate tennis at Pacific Lutheran, helping the Lutes to four straight AIAW national tournament appearances. She served as PLU women's tennis assistant coach in 1999 and is the wife of PLU assistant athletic director and head baseball coach Larry Marshall.

Sarah Halsted, who has been a PLU assistant crew coach since 1997, has been promoted to the head coaching position at the school. She has been in charge of the PLU men's novice program for the past three seasons. Halsted, who did her collegiate rowing at Washington State University from 1990-92, earned a bachelor's degree from The George Washington University in 1995 and a master's in education from Pacific Lutheran in 1997.

NO. 11-RANKED PUGET SOUND EDGES GEORGE FOX 1-0

NEWBERG, Ore. --- In a showdown between two of the Northwest Conference's top teams, forward Julie Louis scored at 17:10 to provide the University of Puget Sound Loggers all the offense they would need as UPS beat the home-standing George Fox University Bruins 1-0 here at Morse Athletic Field on a cold Sunday afternoon (Oct. 15).

The loss snaps George Fox's four-game winning streak and marks the first time the Bruins have lost in Newberg this season. George Fox's last loss came on Sept. 30 against UPS in Tacoma. Puget Sound, the No. 11-ranked team in NCAA Division III, swept the season series against George Fox and is tied with No. 5-ranked Willamette for first place in the Northwest Conference.

In the first half, after working the ball around in the midfield, Dusty Marcell centered a pass from the left flank to Louis to set up the game-winning shot. After that, the Puget Sound midfield took over, consistently shutting down the Bruin's offense and intercepting passes. Of the Bruins' nine shots, only two were on-goal. The Puget Sound defense recorded its eighth shutout of the season, as keeper Karen Ecklebe made two saves on nine shots.

George Fox drops to 9-4, 7-2 in conference play. Puget Sound improves to 10-1-1 overall, and 8-1 for a share of the Northwest Conference lead with Willamette. The Bruins will travel to Pacific University for a conference match on Wednesday (Oct. 18) at 3:00 p.m., and the Loggers will head to Tacoma to face Pacific Lutheran on Wednesday (Oct. 18) at 2:00 p.m.

LOGGERS EARN WET WIN OVER BRUINS 3-2

TACOMA, Wash. --- While wet playing conditions played havoc with the match, the University of Puget Sound and George Fox University provided plenty of action, the Loggers scoring quick early goals and hanging on for a 3-2 win over the Bruins in a critical Northwest Conference contest Saturday afternoon here (Sept. 30) here at Baker Stadium.

The Loggers got on the board at the 7:14 mark off of a corner kick by Dusty Marcell when Beth Taimi flicked the ball to the left corner of the net past Cori Wulf, the Bruins' goalkeeper. Less than two minutes later, it was Dusty Marcell on a breakaway, beating two Bruin defenders and nailing the goal at the 8:45 mark. Puget Sound went in at half with the 2-0 lead.

Puget Sound looked to put the game away, going up 3-0 as Michelle Moore broke free and beat two Bruin defenders to score a goal in the 57th minute. But the Bruins came roaring back, scoring at the 58:03 mark when Brooke Pitner got free in the box and connected with the back of the net, making the score 3-1 in favor of Puget Sound. Just four minutes later, the Bruins were at it again, Tori Taylor receiving a cross from Karli Holub that a Logger defender did not quite clear well enough, and Taylor slotted the ball home past the extended arms of Karen Ecklebe, the Logger goalkeeper, putting George Fox down just one goal.

The Loggers clamped down defensively and the two teams battled for field position for the remaining 25 minutes without another goal being scored. UPS out-shot the Bruins 16-7 and had 6 corners compared to 3 for the Bruins.

It was the first conference loss of the season for the Bruins, the 7th-ranked team in the NCAA Division III West Region, dropping them to 5-3 overall and 3-1 in the league. The win moves the Loggers to 3-1 in the NWC and 5-1-1 overall. The Loggers host Pacific University Sunday (Oct. 1) at 12:00 noon, while George Fox also plays Sunday at 12:00 noon at Pacific Lutheran University.

Mahoe accounted for 114 yards of total offense, rushing for 101 yards on 23 carries and scoring a touchdown in the 7th minute of the first quarter to put the Loggers ahead 7-0.

WOMEN'S SOCCER

PUGET SOUND ON HOME TURF FOR TWO NWC OPPONENTS: The Loggers look to keep the pressure on for the Northwest Conference Title, as they will take on two tough NWC opponents this coming Saturday and Sunday. On Saturday, October 30th at noon the Loggers will go against, George Fox University, who are undefeated in NWC play at 3-0 and stand 5-2 overall. Puget Sound defeated George Fox both times last season, (1-0 and 4-1). On Sunday, October 1st it will be Pacific University in town for the noon match at Baker Stadium. The Boxers are 3-2-1 overall and 2-1 in the NWC. Last season the Loggers came away with a win and a tie against the Boxers by the scores of (4-0 and 1-1).

LOGGERS TAKE 2 OF 3 NWC MATCHES, HAT-TRICKS EVERYWHERE: Dusty Marcell, Sophomore from Redmond, Washington scored the hat trick for the Loggers as they defeated Pacific Lutheran 3-0 in NWC action on Wednesday, September 20th. Marcell got Puget Sound on the board early in the first period in the ninth minute. Marcell got free in the box when the ball came off of a Lute defender who was fighting for possession with Puget Sound's Michelle Moore. Marcell added her second goal of the half at the 18:19 mark taking a pass from the Logger goalkeeper Karen Ecklebe for the 2-0 halftime lead. Marcell and the Loggers were not finished scoring. At the 54:38 mark Brianna Hultgren took a shot on goal that hit the crossbar and ricocheted backed to Marcell who drilled it home for her third goal and the 3-0 lead. Puget Sound received outstanding play from goalkeeper Karen Ecklebe who had two saves on the afternoon as the Lutes recorded just six shots of goal.

The Loggers had mixed results over in NWC league play over the weekend. Puget Sound women's soccer program took #4 in the nation, Willamette University to a familiar place, overtime. The Loggers had the 1-0 lead early in the match as Brianna Hultgren scored the unassisted goal at the 60:25 mark. Puget Sound was given a red-card and had to play one person down and Willamette then took it to the Loggers taking numerous shots on goal. With just six minutes remaining in the match Heather Ebert sent a lob to the right corner of the Logger goal to earn the 1-1 tie. At the 112:00 mark in overtime Ann Merten received a pass from Julie Hourigan and sent the golden goal into the back of the net to earn the 2-1 win. Logger's goalkeeper Karen Ecklebe had 12 saves on the day; it is the first goals Ecklebe has given up all season. On Sunday the Loggers rebounded and stayed in the hunt for the NWC title as Beth Taimi scored three goals in a nine-minute span to launch Puget Sound past Linfield College in Northwest Conference action this Sunday at McMinnville, Oregon. All three of the Loggers' goals came off of corner kicks. The first goal came at the 26:37 mark as Dusty Marcell put the ball in play from the corner and Taimi found the right corner of the net. Just three minutes later the Marcell-Taimi combo hooked up again with Taimi finding the back of the net on the left side. Ironically, it was Marcell recording the hat trick in the Loggers win over Pacific Lutheran (3-0) on September 25th. The Loggers kept the pressure on and put the game out of reach at the 35-minute mark as Taimi

WOMEN'S SOCCER TO HOST WEST REGION OPPONENT, UC-SANTA CRUZ: The Women's soccer team will have just one home game this week on Sunday, September 17th at noon on Baker's Stadium Field. The Banana Slugs are members of the NCAA III and members of the West Region as well. As many remember, the Loggers defeated UC-Santa Cruz in second round action of the NCAA national tournament 1-0 to advance on to the West Regional Finals against UC San Diego in 1999. UC-Santa Cruz went in to the tournament ranked third in the West Region behind #1 UC San Diego, #2 Willamette. The Loggers were ranked #6 in the West Region, last year going in to post season play. The Loggers are 1-0-1 overall and at the time of the release were ranked second in the West Region, behind Willamette University. UC-Santa Cruz is ranked third in the West Region and Chapman is fourth. Rounding out the West Region are 5th ranked Cal Lutheran, sixth ranked La Verne and seventh ranked George Fox University.

LOGGERS EARN ONE WIN IN CALIFORNIA: The University of Puget Sound opened the season with a double over time tie against Montclair State at the Redlands tournament. Goalkeeper Karen Ecklebe recorded 13 saves as the Loggers could not convert any of their ten shots on goals. The Loggers had 6 corners to that of 4 corners for Montclair. Game two of the tournament pitted the Loggers against University of Redlands and again it proved to be a defensive battle with the Loggers finally connecting at the 53:29 mark when sophomore Brianna Hultgren found the back of the net on a pass from junior Katie Fanning. Again Ecklebe had a solid performance as she recorded 10 saves. The overall records for the tournament was: University of Redlands with a 1-1-0 mark, University of Puget Sound at 1-0-1, Montclair State 1-0-1 and Baldwin-Wallace finished 0-2-0 in the tournament.

ECKLEBE NAMED NWC PLAYER-OF-THE -WEEK: Junior Goalkeeper, Karen Ecklebe was named Northwest Conference Women's Soccer Player-of the-Week for her performance last weekend verses Montclair State and University of Redlands. Ecklebe recorded two shutouts in the win and the tie with a total of 195 minutes played. She also had 23 saves.

PUGET SOUND VOLLEYBALL

LOGGER VOLLEYBALL TO HOST TWO MATCHES THIS WEEK: The University of Puget Sound volleyball team will host two matches this week. First up for the Loggers on Tuesday, September 5 will be Cal-State Hayward. The contest is set to begin at 7:00pm in the fieldhouse. This match is another early test for the Loggers as they will face the 12th ranked team in the nation, the Pioneers. Cal State Hayward is 5-0 overall as they have been on a All-Northwest Conference road trip. Most recently the Pioneers played #18 ranked Pacific Lutheran and came away with a win (15-10, 9-15, 15-8 and 15-11). The Loggers won't have much time off, as they will host Seattle University on Thursday, September 7th with the match set for a 7:00pm start time. Seattle University is 1-2 overall and competes at the NCAA II level.

EYE OPENING EXPERIENCE FOR LOGGERS AT PIKES PEAK TOURNEY: The Loggers got their season off on the right foot in the Pikes Peak Tourney this past weekend taking the Tournament Title with a 4-0 mark. It may be too soon to tell but the Loggers are looking to get themselves back at the top of the Northwest Conference and open some eyes in the regional and national rankings. The Loggers started the tournament defeating Concordia University of Texas (15-1, 15-9 and 15-6). Next up for Puget Sound was number 13th ranked Colorado College. The Loggers upset the nationally ranked team (15-10, 15-8, 12-15 and 15-9). The team was led by the outside hitting of Eileen Gamache and middle hitter Karen Elmgren who each recorded 20 kills. The Loggers were the only team to go undefeated in day one of the tournament. Saturday's action pitted the Loggers against fellow Northwest Conference opponent George Fox University. The Loggers beat the Bruins in three games (15-4, 15-8, 15-9). Senior outside hitter Eileen Gamache led the way for the Loggers with eight kills. The Loggers then faced Howard Payne University who they defeated three games to one, (15-1, 10-15, 15-4, 15-4). Sophomore outside hitter Anna Marsh led the Loggers with six kills. Gamache was voted tournament MVP while senior setter Lindsay Weber and sophomore middle blocker Karen Elmgren were also named to the all-tournament team.

PUGET SOUND WOMEN'S SOCCER

WOMEN'S SOCCER HIT THE ROAD RUNNING:

The University of Puget Sound will open their 2000 campaign on the road as they travel down to Redlands, California to play in a four team round robin tournament. The Loggers will play Montclair State University at 11:00am on Saturday September 9th and the go up against University of Redlands Sunday September 10 at 1:00pm. Montclair State is a NCAA III opponent out of New Jersey who competes in the NJAC and ECAC conferences. The Red Hawks finished with a 7-10 overall mark. The University of Redlands another NCAA III opponent plays in the SCIAC conference and is members of the West Region along with the Loggers. The Bulldogs finished 9-9.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR SEASON PREVIEW:

Look for the Loggers to build upon last season successes with 17 returning athletes and 5 newcomers to the Logger roster. Puget Sound received three first place votes in the NWC pre-season poll but the Bearcats of Willamette came out on top as the odds-on-favorites to take the title for the eighth consecutive year. The Loggers slipped past the Bearcats in first round NCAA playoffs, on penalty kicks last season to advance on to second round action of the NCAA national tournament. Coach Randy Hanson, 1999 NWC Coach of the Year, took his team to the West Region final losing to UC San Diego in 0-1 in triple overtime. The Loggers have a solid core of returners leading the way and several new additions that should prove to be helpful.

Coach Hanson will continue to stress defense as the Loggers were second in the conference in goals against. Back for the Loggers is First Team All-Conference goalkeeper Karen Ecklebe. Ecklebe is outstanding in goal and was selected to First Team All-Region. The Loggers have 6 Seniors who had a taste of post-season play and they are showing the way to the underclassmen and newcomers. Senior Laura Grinstead, another First Team All-Conference, returns for the Loggers and has proven to be one of the many leaders of the Loggers. Grinstead was selected as a First Team All-Region. Kerri Cerelli is another Senior who will lead by example and earned First Team All-Conference honors last season. Expect scoring from Senior Michelle Moore and Sophomores Brianna Hultgren and Dusty Marcell. Julie Louis is back and could also provide some additional scoring power for the Loggers.

Puget Sound is ranked at ninth in the nation but Coach Hanson stresses the importance of taking care of the "now" rather than placing emphasis on "what" could happen. Coach Hanson takes care of the "little" things during practice but has his eyes on the larger picture. The Loggers have several goals but one cannot be achieved without the other. With the structure of NCAA post-season play, the number one goal for the Loggers is to earn a NWC title which ensures them a trip to first round NCAA national play.

PUGET SOUND MEN'S SOCCER

LOGGERS TAKE LONG ROAD TRIP TO TEXAS: Fresh off of a road trip to California last weekend the Loggers are hitting the road again to play some top notch NCAA Division III opponents. The Loggers will take on Trinity University Friday September 8, in San Antonio, Texas. The game is set for a 7:30pm start. Trinity University eliminated the Loggers from the West Region in the Championship game 1-0. Trinity University is a member of the Southern Collegiate Athletic Conference. Last season the Tigers finished 19-3-1 breaking the school mark for wins in a season and earning a national ranking of 6th. Trinity took the SCAC title for the fourth time and made their fourth straight NCAA appearance in the National Tournament as they won the West Region Title. The Tigers are ranked 21st in the nation in the pre-season polls. The Loggers then will face Texas Lutheran on Sunday,

BRUINS DOWN TRINITY WESTERN 3-1 (THOUGH IT WON'T COUNT)

SALEM, Ore. --- Even though it won't count on their official record, the George Fox University Bruins were happy to get a win in their 2000 women's soccer opener with a 3-1 decision over the Trinity Western University Spartans in the Western Baptist College Courthouse Athletic Club Classic here Friday afternoon (Sept. 1).

Because Trinity Western is a Canadian college in Langley, B.C., and not affiliated with either the NCAA or the NAIA, George Fox cannot count the game in its record. Nevertheless, the victory gave the Bruins some insight into what to expect this year.

The Bruins spread the scoring wealth around, with six different players sharing the team's three goals and three assists. After the Spartans took a 1-0 lead at the 22:10 mark of the first half on a goal by Tauren Stonehouse, the Bruins tied it at 26:05 on a header by Rachel Denning off a pass from Beth Liljenberg.

Three minutes later, at 29:16, Tori Taylor rolled one into the left corner of the goal off a feed from Samara Thornburg, giving the Bruins a 2-1 lead. They added an insurance score at 66:52 in the second half when Sara Oates booted one in off a cross from Darcey Stocking.

"This was our first game and their third, so I'm pleased we responded so well to our first test," said Bruins coach Byron Shenk, now entering his 10th season as the only coach the George Fox women's program has had. "We were aggressive on offense, we had some excellent passing, and we took advantage of the other team's mistakes. We still have to work on a few things, though; our defense in the last 25 minutes gave them more scoring opportunities than we should have. But for a first game, I liked what I saw."

The Bruins take on the host Western Baptist Warriors Saturday afternoon (Sept. 2) at 3:00 p.m. -- and this time, the score counts!

PITNER PACES BRUINS PAST WARRIORS WITH PAIR OF GOALS

SALEM, Ore. --- Freshman forward Brooke Pitner scored the first and last goals and three other Bruins got into the scoring act with a goal apiece as George Fox University coasted to a 5-1 win over the Western Baptist College Warriors in the WBC Courthouse Athletic Club Women's Soccer Classic here Saturday afternoon (Sept. 2).

Pitner connected from the left side after a feed from Karli Holub at the 32:37 mark in the first half, and finished off the Bruins' scoring at the 67:13 mark in the second half with a shot into the left corner of the net off a pass from Sara Oates. Holub scored the Bruins' second goal at 39:32 with a chip shot over the head of Warriors goalie Chrissy Cacioppo for a 2-0 George Fox halftime lead.

Tori Taylor scored over the top of Cacioppo after a pass from Oates to make it 3-0 at 46:39 in the second half. WBC's Wendy Trent cut the lead to 3-1 with a shot to the left corner of the net on a pass from Karen Schripper, but the Bruins answered with an unassisted goal by Anna Carlson off a rebound at 62:31 and Pitner's last goal.

"I was very pleased with this effort," said Bruins coach Byron Shenk. "I honestly anticipated a tougher game, but we thoroughly dominated in every aspect, and I couldn't ask for more."

The Bruins' dominance was evident in the fact that they outshot the Warriors 24-11, and held the host team to only two shots the entire first half. George Fox also cleared its bench with 15 minutes to play, giving all its reserves, most of them newcomers to the program, plenty of playing time in their first college game.

George Fox is now 1-0 on the season, Friday's 3-1 win over Trinity Western University being unable to go on the team's record because TWU is a Canadian college that is unaffiliated with either the NCAA or the NAIA. The Bruins were declared the Classic champions because of their two victories, however.

The Bruins return to action next weekend with a trip to southern California, playing U.S. International University on Friday, Sept. 8, at 7:00 p.m. in La Verne, Calif., then playing the University of La Verne the next night at 7:00 p.m.

MORRIS' EARLY GOALS BOOST BEARCATS BY BRUINS

SALEM, Ore. --- Buffy Morris, the leading scorer in the Northwest Conference, scored three goals, including two in the first 18 minutes, sparking the Willamette University Bearcats to a 4-0 win over the George Fox University Bruins in a conference women's soccer match Friday afternoon (Oct. 27) here at Sparks Field.

The Bearcats' victory avenged a 1-0 loss to the Bruins on Oct. 8 that snapped Willamette's 62-game regular-season conference winning streak, and broke a tie for second place in the conference. Willamette is 16-2-1 overall and 11-2 in the NWC, while George Fox dropped to 12-5 overall and 10-3 in the league.

Willamette, ranked No. 8 in the NCAA Division III national poll and No. 2 in the West Region, struck quickly against the Bruins, ranked No. 5 in the West, scoring at the 4:48 mark on a header by Morris off a perfectly-executed corner kick from Heather Ebert a mere 4:48 into the game. Morris made it 2-0 at 17:38, dribbling around a Bruins defender and drilling a point-blank shot into the net from the left side.

In the second half, Morris added a third goal from in front of the net off a pass from Anne Merten for a 3-0 lead at 47:52. Merten capped off the scoring with a shot from the left side after a feed from Jenny Bellone at 71:31.

George Fox closes out the regular season at Linfield College Saturday (Oct. 28) at 12:00 noon, while Willamette hosts Pacific University Saturday at noon. While the Bearcats seem a lock for the NCAA playoffs, the Bruins have high hopes of receiving an at-large bid as well. Playoff teams will be announced Sunday afternoon.

GEORGE FOX UPSETS NO. 4-RANKED WILLAMETTE 1-0

NEWBERG, Ore. --- For the first time in three years, Willamette University lost a Northwest Conference match, as the George Fox University Bruins squeaked out a 1-0 win over the NCAA Division III No. 4-ranked Bearcats in women's soccer action Sunday (Oct. 8) here at Morse Athletic Field.

With less than seven minutes left in the scoreless contest, Bruins forward Karli Holub (Jr., Pleasant Hill, Ore.) flicked a loose ball while five feet out from the left post. The ball bounced off Willamette keeper Shelby Springer's hands and rolled across the goal line between two Willamette defenders for the game's only score at the 82:51 mark. The Bruin defense then held off a tenacious Willamette comeback bid in the final minutes to preserve the shutout win.

Both teams played evenly through the first half, and Willamette had a chance to take the lead early in the second half when forward Buffy Morris beat Bruin keeper Cori Wulf (So., Salem, Ore.) on a fast break, but Morris' shot missed the left post by just inches. Wulf finished the day with six saves on 11 shots to notch the biggest shutout of her career.

It was the first win for the Bruins over the Bearcats since a 1-0 victory on Sept. 21, 1993, a string of 12 straight games (the Bruins did manage one tie during that time). The loss breaks Willamette's nine-game winning streak this season, and also ends the Bearcats' 58-game regular-season unbeaten string. Willamette's most recent regular season defeat was a 2-1 loss to Pacific on Sept. 24, 1997.

George Fox moves to 8-3 on the season and moves them into a share of first place in the conference with Willamette at 6-1. Willamette drops to 10-1-1 overall and 6-1 in the NWC standings. The Bruins will host Pacific Lutheran University next on Saturday (Oct. 14), and Willamette will play Whitman College in Salem, Ore., on the same date. Both games are set for 12:00 noon.

GEORGE FOX WOMEN'S SOCCER

HOLUB, OATES NAMED TO ALL-FAR WEST 2ND, 3RD TEAMS

NEWBERG, Ore. – George Fox University forward Karli Holub (Jr., Pleasant Hill, Ore.) and Bruin defender Erin Oates (Sr., Grover Beach, Calif.) have received two more post-season honors, being named to the NCAA Division III All-Far West Second and Third Teams respectively by the National Soccer Coaches Association of American / adidas All-America Committee.

Holub was the 2000 Northwest Conference "Player of the Year" after finishing second in the conference in scoring (35 points, 1.94), goal scoring (13, 0.72) and assists (9, 0.50) while leading the Bruins to their second-best record ever at 13-5. Of the 13 goals she scored, 9 either tied a game, put the Bruins ahead at that point, or was a game-winner. She had a hat trick to beat Pacific Lutheran 3-0, and scored the goal in a 1-0 win over Willamette that snapped the national power's 62-game regular season winning streak in conference play. A three-time All-NWC First Team selection, she was Third Team All-Far West last year.

Oates, a four-year starter for the Bruins, was a key player in the backfield, anchoring a defense that allowed only 23 goals in 18 games for a 1.22 goals allowed average, tied for third-best in the conference, and recorded four shutouts. One of this year's team captains, she was an All-Northwest Conference First Team honoree as well.

NSCAA / adidas 2000 All-Far West First Team: Karen Ecklebe (GK), Brianna Hultgren (F), Dusty Marcell (F), and Laura Grinstead (D) of Puget Sound; Buffy Morris (F) and Jenny Ballone (M) of Willamette; Betsy Fisch (F), Alia Khan (M), and Lisa McCreary (D) of California Lutheran; Sara Struhs (M) and Lehua Simmons (D) of Chapman.

Second Team: Kim Rudloff (GK), Hannah Moore (M), and Kristie Hoback (D) of Chapman; Danielle Pellscano (F) of California-Santa Cruz; Karli Holub (F) of George Fox; Kerri Cerelli (F) and Maya Mendoza (D) of Puget Sound; Katie Zwissler (M) of La Verne; Dana Christopherson (M) of Willamette; Sydney Johnston (D) of Redlands.

Third Team: Jessica Garref (GK) and Cherish Kaa (F) of Linfield; Anne Merten (F) of Willamette; Alexandra Yarosevich (F) of California-Santa Cruz; Grace Grabner (M) of Whitworth; Beth Taimi (M) of Puget Sound; Erin Oates (D) of George Fox; Heather Moore (D) of California Lutheran; Kelly Black (D) of La Verne.

HOLUB NAMED "PLAYER OF THE YEAR" AS FIVE BRUINS HONORED BY NWC

NEWBERG, Ore. – George Fox University forward Karli Holub (Jr., Pleasant Hill, Ore.) was named the 2000 Northwest Conference "Player of the Year" in women's soccer, highlighting the choice of five Bruins for All-Conference honors.

Bruin defender Erin Oates (Sr., Grover Beach, Calif.) joined Holub on the First Team, while defender Beth Liljenburg (Jr., Portland, Ore.), midfielder Rachel Denning (So., Boring Ore.) and midfielder Brooke Pitner (Fr., Vancouver, Wash.) were named to the All-Conference Second Team.

Holub, who surpassed every George Fox career scoring record this season with 102 points, 42 goals and 18 assists, earned NWC "Player of the Week" honors for the week of Sept. 18-24 and was Honorable Mention once. She finished the regular season second in the conference in scoring (35 points, 1.94), goal scoring (13, 0.72) and assists (9, 0.50). It was her ability to score in the clutch that attracted the attention of the conference coaches who elected her, for of the 13 goals she scored, 9 either tied a game, put the Bruins ahead at that point, or was a game-winner. She had a hat trick to beat Pacific Lutheran 3-0, and scored the goal in a 1-0 win over Willamette that snapped the national power's 62-game regular season winning streak in conference play. It was the third straight year for her to make First Team All-NWC.

Oates, a four-year starter for the Bruins, was a key player in the backfield, anchoring a defense that allowed only 23 goals in 18 games for a 1.22 goals allowed average, tied for third-best in the conference, and recorded four shutouts. One of this year's team captains, she earned All-Conference for the first time.

Liljenberg, who teamed with Oates in the Bruin defensive line, continued to be recognized as one of the top defenders in the league. She was a First Team All-Conference pick as a freshman, and received Honorable Mention last year.

Denning, a versatile player who contributed both offensively and defensively, was named All-Conference for the first time. She had the team's lone goal against Concordia-Portland and assisted on an insurance goal in a 5-1 win at Whitman.

Pitner was eighth in the conference in points per game (1.00) and goal scoring (0.39), tying for the ninth-most goals in a season at George Fox with 7 and ranking 12th in total points in a season with 18. She also had four assists, and was Northwest Conference "Player of the Week" for Oct. 16-22 when she had two goals and three assists on the week. She scored the first George Fox goal of the season to ignite a 5-1 win over Western Baptist.

All five were instrumental in the Bruins' 13-5 overall record, third-place conference finish at 11-3, and No. 6 ranking in the NCAA Division III West Region.

Randy Hanson of Puget Sound was named NWC "Coach of the Year" for leading the Loggers to the conference championship, a No. 4 national ranking, and a berth in the NCAA Division III National Tournament.

Others on the All-Conference First Team were Cherish Kaaa (F) of Linfield; Alison Brennan (F) of Pacific Lutheran; Kerry Cerelli (M), Laura Grinstead (D), Karen Ecklebe (GK), Dusty Marcell (F), and Maya Mendoza (D) of Puget Sound; and Jenny Bellone (M), Dana Christopherson (M), Buffy Morris (F), and Anne Merten (F) of Willamette.

Also on the Second Team were Jessica Gabbert (GK) of Linfield; Leann Ogasawara (M) of Pacific; Briana Hultgren (F) of Puget Sound; Corinne Schuler (M) of Whitman; Grace Grabner (M) and Heather Sale (F) of Whitworth; and Erin Moore (D) and Karen Heaston (D) of Willamette.

Honorable Mention selections were Kim Reeves (D), Joelle Tybon (D), and Lauren Millhollin (F) of Linfield; Susan Doyle (M) of Pacific; Kira Johnson (M) of Pacific Lutheran; Beth Taimi (M) of Puget Sound; and Meghan Bowen (D) of Whitman.

HOLUB LEADS LIST OF FIVE BRUINS HONORED BY CONFERENCE

NEWBERG, Ore. – George Fox University forward Karli Holub (Jr., Pleasant Hill, Ore.) was named the 2000 Northwest Conference "Player of the Year" in women's soccer, highlighting the choice of five Bruins for All-Conference honors, according to an announcement from NWC information director Steve Flegel at Whitworth College.

Bruin defender Erin Oates (Sr., Grover Beach, Calif.) joined Holub on the First Team, while defender Beth Liljenburg (Jr., Portland, Ore.), midfielder Rachel Denning (So., Boring Ore.) and midfielder Brooke Pitner (Fr., Vancouver, Wash.) were named to the All-Conference Second Team.

Holub, who surpassed every George Fox career scoring record this season with 102 points, 42 goals and 18 assists, earned NWC "Player of the Week" honors for the week of Sept. 18-24 and was Honorable Mention once. She finished the regular season second in the conference in scoring (35 points, 1.94), goal scoring (13, 0.72) and assists (9, 0.50). It was her ability to score in the clutch that attracted the attention of the conference coaches who elected her, for of the 13 goals she scored, 9 either tied a game, put the Bruins ahead at that point, or was a game-winner. She had a hat trick to beat Pacific Lutheran 3-0, and scored the goal in a 1-0 win over Willamette that snapped the national power's 62-game regular season winning streak in conference play. It was the third straight year for her to make First Team All-NWC.

Oates, a four-year starter for the Bruins, was a key player in the backfield, anchoring a defense that allowed only 23 goals in 18 games for a 1.22 goals allowed average, tied for third-best in the conference, and recorded four shutouts. One of this year's team captains, she earned All-Conference for the first time.

Liljenburg, who teamed with Oates in the Bruin defensive line, continued to be recognized as one of the top defenders in the league. She was a First Team All-Conference pick as a freshman, and received Honorable Mention last year.

Denning, a versatile player who contributed both offensively and defensively, was named All-Conference for the first time. She had the team's lone goal against Concordia-Portland and assisted on an insurance goal in a 5-1 win at Whitman.

BRUINS KEEP PLAYOFF HOPES ALIVE WITH 3-0 WIN OVER LINFIELD

McMINNVILLE, Ore. --- Still hopeful of receiving an at-large bid to the NCAA Division III National Tournament, the George Fox University women's soccer team kept its dream alive for a while longer with a critical 3-0 win over Linfield College in their final regular season game, a Northwest Conference match, here Saturday afternoon (Oct. 28)

The University of Puget Sound has the conference title and the automatic bid that goes with it, and runner-up Willamette University, nationally-ranked in the top 10, seems assured of a playoff spot. The Bruins are 13-5 overall, 11-3 and in third in the conference, and with three of their losses to UPS and Willamette, are relying on their strength of schedule to persuade the selection committee of their credentials for inclusion in the tournament. Selections will be announced some time Sunday, Oct. 29.

Karli Holub scored first for the visiting Bruins and Sara Oates scored twice as George Fox denied the Wildcats their first-ever .500 conference season. Linfield finished 5-7-2 and in fourth place in the NWC, and 6-9-3 overall. It was the Bruins' 20th straight win over the Wildcats, and they are 20-1 lifetime over Linfield.

George Fox's stellar defensive backfield of Kelly McCabe, Erin Oates, Beth Liljenberg and Ashleigh Hughes allowed Linfield only two shots while the Bruins got off 13 themselves. Cori Wulf picked up her fourth shutout of the season.

MORRIS' EARLY GOALS BOOST BEARCATS BY BRUINS

SALEM, Ore. --- Buffy Morris, the leading scorer in the Northwest Conference, scored three goals, including two in the first 18 minutes, sparking the Willamette University Bearcats to a 4-0 win over the George Fox University Bruins in a conference women's soccer match Friday afternoon (Oct. 27) here at Sparks Field.

The Bearcats' victory avenged a 1-0 loss to the Bruins on Oct. 8 that snapped Willamette's 62-game regular-season conference winning streak, and broke a tie for second place in the conference. Willamette is 16-2-1 overall and 11-2 in the NWC, while George Fox dropped to 12-5 overall and 10-3 in the league.

Willamette, ranked No. 8 in the NCAA Division III national poll and No. 2 in the West Region, struck quickly against the Bruins, ranked No. 5 in the West, scoring at the 4:48 mark on a header by Morris off a perfectly-executed corner kick from Heather Ebert a mere 4:48 into the game. Morris made it 2-0 at 17:38, dribbling around a Bruins defender and drilling a point-blank shot into the net from the left side.

In the second half, Morris added a third goal from in front of the net off a pass from Anne Merten for a 3-0 lead at 47:52. Merten capped off the scoring with a shot from the left side after a feed from Jenny Bellone at 71:31.

George Fox closes out the regular season at Linfield College Saturday (Oct. 28) at 12:00 noon, while Willamette hosts Pacific University Saturday at noon. While the Bearcats seem a lock for the NCAA playoffs, the Bruins have high hopes of receiving an at-large bid as well. Playoff teams will be announced Sunday afternoon.

GEORGE FOX NIPS WHITWORTH 2-1 IN DOUBLE OVERTIME

SPOKANE, Wash. --- Brooke Pitner scored on a put-back off of a keeper save with just over one minute left in the second overtime period to give the visiting George Fox University Bruins a 2-1 win over the Whitworth College Pirates in a Northwest Conference women's soccer match here Sunday afternoon (Oct. 22).

The win improves the Bruins' record to 12-4 overall and 10-2 in the NWC, and keeps their hopes alive for a conference title. The Bruins trail first-place Puget Sound by one game and are tied with Willamette for second place in the NWC after the Loggers beat the Bearcats 1-0 in overtime Sunday in Tacoma. Whitworth fell to 5-9-2 overall and 3-8-1 in the conference.

Pitner scored when Whitworth keeper Stacey Roberts made a diving stop on a shot by Sara Oates. The ball bounced off of Roberts to the right side of the net where Pitner was waiting to score the winning goal.

The Bruins got on the board first when Karli Holub headed the ball into the net off of a corner kick by Ashleigh Hughes at 27:21. Pitner actually headed the ball to Holub to set up the goal, giving both Hughes and Pitner an assist on the play.

George Fox dominated the first half of play, out-shooting the Pirates 11-3, but Whitworth rallied in the second half and scored the equalizer when Piper Moore took a short crossing pass from Heather Sale and beat Bruin keeper Cori Wulf to the bottom left corner of the net.

Both teams had chances to score the winning goal in the first overtime period, but each keeper made a big save. Roberts finished with a season-high 12 saves for the Pirates. Wulf made six stops for the Bruins.

George Fox visits Willamette Friday (Oct. 27) for a 1:00 p.m. contest, while Whitworth will visit Pacific Lutheran University on Friday at 12:00 noon.

BRUINS EXPLODE IN 2ND HALF TO ROUT WHITMAN 5-1

WALLA WALLA, Wash. --- Exploding for four second-half goals, the George Fox University Bruins routed the Whitman College Missionaries and stayed in contention for the Northwest Conference women's soccer crown with a 5-1 win here Saturday afternoon (Oct. 21) at Ankeny Field.

Karli Holub, the Bruins' all-time scoring leader, put the visiting Bruins ahead 1-0 with an unassisted goal at 10:16, but the Missionaries responded at the 28:51 mark on a goal by Heather Groshong, assisted by Sara Weihmann. The game was knotted 1-1 at the half.

George Fox took the lead for good, however, less than a minute into the second half, Anna Carlson breaking the tie with an unassisted score at the 45:54 mark. The Bruins then proceeded to tack on three more insurance goals to cruise to victory. Brooke Pitner scored at 64:49 with an assist from Rachel Denning, Pitner and Holub teamed up to pass the ball to Mindy Venable for another goal at 72:07, and Kirsten Gooch capped the Bruins' scoring with her first career goal at 81:50.

George Fox improved to 12-4 overall and 10-2 in the conference, remaining no worse than one game behind the league leaders, Willamette University and the University of Puget Sound. Whitman dropped to 0-13-1 and 0-11-1 in the conference. The Bruins visit Whitworth College Sunday (Oct. 22) while Whitman hosts Pacific University, both games at 12:00 noon.

BRUINS HOLD OFF BOXERS 2-1 FOR 10TH WIN

FOREST GROVE, Ore. --- Scoring one goal in each half, the George Fox University Bruins made those two scores stand up as they held off the Pacific University Boxers 2-1 in a Northwest Conference women's soccer game Wednesday afternoon (Oct. 18) here at Tom Reynolds Field.

The Bruins earned their first goal at the 19:10 mark in the first half when Tori Taylor hit a left-side runner off a cross-field pass from Brooke Pitner. Sara Oates connected for a valuable insurance goal in the 54th minute of the second half when she stole the ball from a Boxer defender, dribbled in, and nailed a shot from the right side.

Pacific made a late push and cut the lead to 2-1 when Abby Hunt found the net in the 81st minute, striking from the right side off an assist from Kelli Ann Miller, but that was all the scoring the Boxers could muster.

Both goalkeepers turned in excellent performances, the Bruins' Cori Wulf saving five of 11 shots and the Boxers' Leslie Renier saving a season's-best 13 out of 27 shots.

With the win, the Bruins reached double figures in victories for the third straight season, climbing to 10-4 overall and 8-2 in the conference. The Boxers dropped to 4-8 overall and 3-7 in the NWC.

Both teams are on the road this Saturday (Oct. 21) to eastern Washington, George Fox visiting Whitman College in Walla Walla and Pacific at Whitworth College in Spokane for 12:00 noon contests.

George Fox nets two in wins over Boxers

Northwest Conference Women's Soccer
George Fox 2, Pacific 1

FOREST GROVE— The George Fox Bruins scored a goal in each period to take a 2-1 victory over Pacific in the women's soccer closer at Tom Reynolds Field Wednesday afternoon.

With the victory, the Bruins (10-4, 8-2 NWC) continue their quest for an NCAA Division III playoff berth. The Boxers (4-8-1, 3-7 NWC) will look to try to even up their record with four games remaining.

The Bruins earned their first 19 minutes into the contest when Tori Taylor hit a left side runner off a pass from Brook Pitner. Sarah Oates connected on what would become the game-winner in the 54th minute, stealing the ball from a Pacific defender and striking.

Pacific caught their second wind and made a late push. Abby Hunt (So. Beaverton, Ore.) found the net in the 81st minute, striking on the right side off a Kelli Ann Miller (Sr. Kihie, Hawaii) assist.

Both goalkeepers came away with excellent performances. Cori Wulf picked up the win for the Bruins, capturing five saves. Leslie Renier (So. Tucson, Ariz.) finished with 13 saves on the afternoon, her best save tally of the season. The Bruins outshot the Boxers 27-11.

Today's game was the final contest for four Boxer seniors: Miller, Malia DeVilliers (Vancouver, Wash.), Susan Doyle (Seattle, Wash.) and Leann Ogasawara (Springfield, Ore.).

Pacific hits the road for the next weekend of contests, playing Saturday at Whitworth and Sunday at Whitman. Game time is 12:00 p.m. both days.

BRUINS REMAIN 5TH IN WEST

After defeating Pacific Lutheran 4-0 and falling 0-1 to Puget Sound, the George Fox Bruins stayed at 5th in the latest NSCAA/NCAA Division III West Region poll of Oct. 16. The Bruins' 5th-place ranking is the highest the team has earned since becoming full-fledged members of the NCAA last year. With a 12-1-1 record, Willamette and 10-1-1 Puget Sound also maintained No. 1 and No. 2 rankings respectively, while Willamette climbed to 4th and Puget Sound 9th nationally. Linfield, with a No. 9 ranking, became the fourth Northwest Conference team to earn a spot in this week's regional top ten.

BRUINS BLANK PLU 4-0 TO REMAIN IN NWC TOP SPOT

NEWBERG, Ore. --- Spreading the scoring wealth around among four different players, the George Fox University Bruins shut out the Pacific Lutheran University Lutes 4-0 in Northwest Conference women's soccer action on Saturday (Oct. 14) here at Morse Athletic Field.

The Bruins were overpowering on offense in the first half, taking 20 shots and jumping to a 3-0 halftime lead. Forward Karli Holub (Jr., Pleasant Hill, Ore.) put George Fox on the board when she sent a high midfield flick from Ashleigh Hughes (Sr., Portland, Ore.) to the back of the net at 7:29. Ten minutes later, Holub assisted Sara Oates (Fr., Grover Beach, Calif.), passing to Oates inside the box, and Oates turned, faked the keeper right, and drove in a hard shot to the left to make it 2-0. Forward Anna Carlson (So., Beaverton, Ore.) came off the bench to score the final goal of the first half off a high cross from midfielder Tori Taylor (So., Portland, Ore.).

In the opening minutes of the second half, Carlson collided with a defender at the top of the box on a fast break and midfielder Mindy Venable (So., Newberg, Ore.) powered the loose ball to the left post at 49:56 for a 4-0 George Fox lead. Play was more even for the remainder of the second half, but GFU's defensive squad of Beth Liljenberg (So., Portland, Ore.), Kelly McCabe (Sr., Camas, Wash.), and Samara Thornburg (So., Tigard, Ore.) frustrated the PLU offense with double teams to preserve the Bruins' third shutout of the season.

Keeper Cori Wulf (So., Salem, Ore.) made five saves on 11 shots for George Fox, while PLU's Gloria Cefali, the NWC leader in saves, collected 11 more as the Bruin offense took 27 shots on the day.

NO. 11-RANKED PUGET SOUND EDGES GEORGE FOX 1-0

NEWBERG, Ore. --- In a showdown between two of the Northwest Conference's top teams, forward Julie Louis scored at 17:10 to provide the University of Puget Sound Loggers all the offense they would need as UPS beat the home-standing George Fox University Bruins 1-0 here at Morse Athletic Field on a cold Sunday afternoon (Oct. 15).

The loss snaps George Fox's four-game winning streak and marks the first time the Bruins have lost in Newberg this season. George Fox's last loss came on Sept. 30 against UPS in Tacoma. Puget Sound, the No. 11-ranked team in NCAA Division III, swept the season series against George Fox and is tied with No. 5-ranked Willamette for first place in the Northwest Conference.

In the first half, after working the ball around in the midfield, Dusty Marcell centered a pass from the left flank to Louis to set up the game-winning shot. After that, the Puget Sound midfield took over, consistently shutting down the Bruin's offense and intercepting passes. Of the Bruins' nine shots, only two were on-goal. The Puget Sound defense recorded its eighth shutout of the season, as keeper Karen Ecklebe made two saves on nine shots.

BRUIN BITS:

*** Karli Holub now officially owns every scoring record at George Fox. Earlier this season, Holub surpassed Gegi Bonera's (1992-95) records for career goals and points, but in Saturday's 4-0 win over PLU, Holub assisted Sara Oates in the 17th minute to eclipse Bonera's career assist mark of 15. Holub is now GFU's all-time leader in career points (94), goals (39), and assists (16).

COACH BYRON SHENK

Coach Byron Sherk (Goshen '63) is now 88-72-11 in his 10th year at George Fox, and 192-185-37 in his 31st year overall.

NO. 11-RANKED PUGET SOUND EDGES GEORGE FOX 1-0

NEWBERG, Ore. --- In a showdown between two of the Northwest Conference's top teams, forward Julie Louis scored at 17:10 to provide the University of Puget Sound Loggers all the offense they would need as UPS beat the home-standing George Fox University Bruins 1-0 here at Morse Athletic Field on a cold Sunday afternoon (Oct. 15).

The loss snaps George Fox's four-game winning streak and marks the first time the Bruins have lost in Newberg this season. George Fox's last loss came on Sept. 30 against UPS in Tacoma. Puget Sound, the No. 11-ranked team in NCAA Division III, swept the season series against George Fox and is tied with No. 5-ranked Willamette for first place in the Northwest Conference.

In the first half, after working the ball around in the midfield, Dusty Marcell centered a pass from the left flank to Louis to set up the game-winning shot. After that, the Puget Sound midfield took over, consistently shutting down the Bruin's offense and intercepting passes. Of the Bruins' nine shots, only two were on-goal. The Puget Sound defense recorded its eighth shutout of the season, as keeper Karen Ecklebe made two saves on nine shots.

George Fox drops to 9-4, 7-2 in conference play. Puget Sound improves to 10-1-1 overall, and 8-1 for a share of the Northwest Conference lead with Willamette. The Bruins will travel to Pacific University for a conference match on Wednesday (Oct. 18) at 3:00 p.m., and the Loggers will head to Tacoma to face Pacific Lutheran on Wednesday (Oct. 18) at 2:00 p.m.

BRUINS BLANK PLU 4-0 TO REMAIN IN NWC TOP SPOT

NEWBERG, Ore. --- Spreading the scoring wealth around among four different players, the George Fox University Bruins shut out the Pacific Lutheran University Lutes 4-0 in Northwest Conference women's soccer action on Saturday (Oct. 14) here at Morse Athletic Field.

The Bruins were overpowering on offense in the first half, taking 20 shots and jumping to a 3-0 halftime lead. Forward Karli Holub put George Fox on the board when she sent a high midfield flick from Ashleigh Hughes to the back of the net at 7:29. Ten minutes later, Holub assisted Sara Oates, passing to Oates inside the box, and Oates turned, faked the keeper right, and drove in a hard shot to the left to make it 2-0. Forward Anna Carlson came off the bench to score the final goal of the first half off a high cross from midfielder Tori Taylor.

In the opening minutes of the second half, Carlson collided with a defender at the top of the box on a fast break and midfielder Mindy Venable powered the loose ball to the left post at 49:56 for a 4-0 George Fox lead. Play was more even for the remainder of the second half, but GFU's defensive squad of Beth, Kelly McCabe, and Samara Thornburg frustrated the PLU offense with double teams to preserve the Bruins' third shutout of the season.

Keeper Cori Wulf made five saves on 11 shots for George Fox, while PLU's Gloria Cefali, the NWC leader in saves, collected 11 more as the Bruin offense took 27 shots on the day.

George Fox improves to 9-3 and maintains its share of the conference lead with a 7-1 NWC record. Pacific Lutheran drops to 3-9 on the season, 2-6 in conference play. Sunday (Oct. 15) the Bruins will battle the University of Puget Sound in Newberg at 12:00 noon for first place in the conference. The two teams are currently tied with Willamette for the top spot. PLU travels to Forest Grove to face Pacific Sunday at 12:00 noon.

BRUINS CLIMB TO 5TH IN WEST WITH BIG WINS

A double-overtime thriller over Linfield and a stunning upset of No. 3-ranked Willamette has vaulted the George Fox Bruins from 8th to 5th in the latest NSCAA/NCAA Division III West Region poll of Oct. 9. The Bruins posted a 2-1 win over Linfield, then shocked Willamette 1-0 on Karli Holub's goal in the waning minutes, handing the national power Bearcats their first conference loss in three years. The Bruins' 5th-place ranking is the highest the team has been since becoming full-fledged members of the NCAA last year. Willamette remains No. 1 in the region and Puget Sound No. 2, while Pacific, tied for 10th, gives the Northwest Conference four teams in the region's top ten.

HUGHES LIFTS BRUINS OVER LINFIELD IN DOUBLE OVERTIME

NEWBERG, Ore. --- Midfielder Ashleigh Hughes (Jr., M, Portland, Ore.) chased down a defensive clear off her own corner kick and fired the game-winning shot from 20 yards out, lifting the George Fox University Bruins over the Linfield College Wildcats 2-1 in a double-overtime women's soccer thriller Saturday afternoon (Oct. 7) here at the Morse Athletic Field.

After a scoreless first half, Tori Taylor (So., M, Portland, Ore.) found the back of the net on a goal box scramble following a corner kick to put the Bruins up 1-0 at 58 minutes. George Fox almost notched its second shutout of the year, but Linfield's Lauren Millhollin beat Bruins keeper Cori Wulf (So., GK, Salem, Ore.) on a fast break to force overtime.

The first overtime was fairly even, with both teams taking a single shot. Five minutes into the second extra period, Hughes got the only shot that was needed, kicking home the winner at the 110:46 mark.

It was the Bruins' second double-overtime win in as many games, after a 3-2 win at Pacific Lutheran last Sunday. George Fox improved to 7-3 overall and 5-1 in the Northwest Conference, while Linfield dropped to 3-5-2 overall and 2-3-1 in the conference.

GEORGE FOX UPSETS NO. 3-RANKED WILLAMETTE 1-0

NEWBERG, Ore. --- For the first time in three years, Willamette University lost a Northwest Conference match, as the George Fox University Bruins squeaked out a 1-0 win over the NCAA Division III No. 3-ranked Bearcats in women's soccer action Sunday (Oct. 8) here at Morse Athletic Field.

With less than seven minutes left in the scoreless contest, Bruins forward Karli Holub (Jr., F, Pleasant Hill, Ore.) flicked a loose ball while five feet out from the left post. The ball bounced off Willamette keeper Shelby Springer's hands and rolled across the goal line between two Willamette defenders for the game's only score at the 82:51 mark. The Bruin defense then held off a tenacious Willamette comeback bid in the final minutes to preserve the shutout win.

Both teams played evenly through the first half, and Willamette had a chance to take the lead early in the second half when forward Buffy Morris beat Bruin keeper Cori Wulf on a fast break, but Morris' shot missed the left post by just inches. Wulf finished the day with six saves on 11 shots to notch the biggest shutout of her career.

It was the first win for the Bruins over the Bearcats since a 1-0 victory on Sept. 21, 1993, a string of 12 straight games (the Bruins did manage one tie during that time). The loss breaks Willamette's nine-game winning streak this season, and also ends the Bearcats' 58-game regular-season unbeaten string. Willamette's most recent regular season defeat was a 2-1 loss to Pacific on Sept. 24, 1997.

BRUIN BITS:

*** Bruins goalkeeper Cori Wulf received Honorable Mention for Northwest Conference "Player of the Week" with two outstanding defensive efforts during games of Oct. 2-8. She allowed only one goal in 111 minutes in the Bruins' double-overtime 2-1 win over Linfield, then recorded six saves in 11 shots in a shutout as the Bruins stunned 3rd-ranked Willamette 1-0. She had eight total saves in the two games in 17 shots and a goals-against average of 0.45. "Player of the Week" honors went to Alison Brennan of Pacific Lutheran, who had a hat trick of three goals against Whitworth and added an assist in a win over Whitman. Karli Holub is the only Bruin to earn NWC "Player of the Week" honors this season, for the week of Sept. 18-24.

*** Karli Holub's game-winning goal against Willamette boosted her career totals to 38 goals and 91 total points, extending her own career records at George Fox. Gegi Bonera (1992-95) stands second in both categories with 32 goals and 79 points -- and Holub still has her senior year to go!

COACH BYRON SHENK

Coach Byron Shenk (Goshen '63) is now 87-71-11 in his 10th year at George Fox, and 191-184-37 in his 31st year overall. He is the only coach the women's program at George Fox has ever had. Commenting on the Bruins' big win over Willamette, he said,

"That is definitely the biggest win in our history. My second year here, we beat Pacific Lutheran the year after they had won the national championship, but there was not nearly as much riding on that game back then as there was today -- a share of first in the conference, a possible playoff berth, a nationally-recognized power. Coach (Jim) Tursi (of Willamette) was very gracious; he told me, 'We've stolen some from you in the past, but your girls deserved this one today; they played an outstanding game'. I couldn't agree more -- but we've still got a lot of work ahead of us. We're only halfway through the conference season."

GEORGE FOX UPSETS NO. 4-RANKED WILLAMETTE 1-0

NEWBERG, Ore. --- For the first time in three years, Willamette University lost a Northwest Conference match, as the George Fox University Bruins squeaked out a 1-0 win over the NCAA Division III No. 4-ranked Bearcats in women's soccer action Sunday (Oct. 8) here at Morse Athletic Field.

With less than seven minutes left in the scoreless contest, Bruins forward Karli Holub (Jr., Pleasant Hill, Ore.) flicked a loose ball while five feet out from the left post. The ball bounced off Willamette keeper Shelby Springer's hands and rolled across the goal line between two Willamette defenders for the game's only score at the 82:51 mark. The Bruin defense then held off a tenacious Willamette comeback bid in the final minutes to preserve the shutout win.

Both teams played evenly through the first half, and Willamette had a chance to take the lead early in the second half when forward Buffy Morris beat Bruin keeper Cori Wulf (So., Salem, Ore.) on a fast break, but Morris' shot missed the left post by just inches. Wulf finished the day with six saves on 11 shots to notch the biggest shutout of her career.

It was the first win for the Bruins over the Bearcats since a 1-0 victory on Sept. 21, 1993, a string of 12 straight games (the Bruins did manage one tie during that time). The loss breaks Willamette's nine-game winning streak this season, and also ends the Bearcats' 58-game regular-season unbeaten string. Willamette's most recent regular season defeat was a 2-1 loss to Pacific on Sept. 24, 1997.

George Fox moves to 8-3 on the season and moves them into a share of first place in the conference with Willamette at 6-1. Willamette drops to 10-1-1 overall and 6-1 in the NWC standings. The Bruins will host Pacific Lutheran University next on Saturday (Oct. 14), and Willamette will play Whitman College in Salem, Ore., on the same date. Both games are set for 12:00 noon.

HUGHES LIFTS BRUINS OVER LINFIELD IN DOUBLE OVERTIME

NEWBERG, Ore. --- Midfielder Ashleigh Hughes (Jr., Portland, Ore.) chased down a defensive clear off her own corner kick and fired the game-winning shot from 20 yards out, lifting the George Fox University Bruins over the Linfield College Wildcats 2-1 in a double-overtime women's soccer thriller Saturday afternoon (Oct. 7) here at the Morse Athletic Field.

After a scoreless first half, Tori Taylor (So., Portland, Ore.) found the back of the net on a goal box scramble following a corner kick to put the Bruins up 1-0 at 58 minutes. George Fox almost notched its second shutout of the year, but Linfield's Lauren Millhollin beat Bruins keeper Cori Wulf (So., Salem, Ore.) on a fast break to force overtime.

The first overtime was fairly even, with both teams taking a single shot. Five minutes into the second extra period, Hughes got the only shot that was needed, kicking home the winner at the 110:46 mark.

It was the Bruins' second double-overtime win in as many games, after a 3-2 win at Pacific Lutheran last Sunday. George Fox improved to 7-3 overall and 5-1 in the Northwest Conference, while Linfield dropped to 3-5-2 overall and 2-3-1 in the conference.

The Bruins will host NCAA Division III 4th-ranked Willamette University Sunday (Oct. 8) at 12:00 noon, while the Wildcats visit Pacific University in Forest Grove Sunday, also at 12:00 noon.

HOLUB NAMED NWC "PLAYER OF THE WEEK" HONORABLE MENTION

A week after breaking the Bruins' all-time scoring record, Karli Holub (Jr., F, Pleasant Hill, Ore.) extended her own career marks by notching a hat trick in George Fox's 3-2 overtime win over Pacific Lutheran, as the Bruins went 1-1 last weekend.

Holub's scoring touch earned her an honorable mention as Northwest Conference "Player of the Week." She was named NWC "Player of the Week" for Sept. 18-24, during which she broke the former records of 32 goals and 82 points by Gegi Bonera (1992-95). She continues to add to her own school record of 37 career goals and 88 career points.

BRUINS REMAIN IN 7TH IN WEST DIVISION POLL OF OCT. 2

After splitting two games this week, George Fox remained in 7th place in this week's NCAA Division III West Region poll conducted by the National Soccer Coaches Association of America. The Bruins have stayed at the No. 7 spot for three straight weeks after opening the season with the fifth spot. George Fox is joined in the West Region top ten by three other Northwest Conference teams: Willamette University (9-0-1) at No.1, the University of Puget Sound (6-1-1) at No. 2, and Pacific University at No. 8.

LOGGERS EARN WET WIN OVER BRUINS 3-2

TACOMA, Wash. --- While wet playing conditions played havoc with the match, the University of Puget Sound and George Fox University provided plenty of action, as the Loggers scored quick early goals and hung on for a 3-2 win over the Bruins in a critical Northwest Conference contest Saturday afternoon (Sept. 30) at Baker Stadium.

The Loggers, ranked No. 13 in the nation, got on the board at the 7:14 mark off of a corner kick by Dusty Marcell when Beth Taimi flicked the ball to the left corner of the net past Cori Wulf (So., GK, Salem, Ore.), the Bruins' goalkeeper. Less than two minutes later, it was Dusty Marcell on a breakaway, beating two Bruin defenders and nailing the goal at the 8:45 mark. Puget Sound went in at half with the 2-0 lead.

Puget Sound looked to put the game away, going up 3-0 as Michelle Moore broke free and beat two Bruin defenders to score a goal in the 57th minute. But the Bruins came roaring back, scoring at the 58:03 mark when Brooke Pitner (Fr., M, Vancouver, Wash.) got free in the box and connected with the back of the net, making the score 3-1 in favor of Puget Sound. Just four minutes later, the Bruins were at it again. Tori Taylor (So., M, Portland, Ore.) received a cross from Karli Holub that a Logger defender did not quite clear well enough, and Taylor slotted the ball home past the extended arms of Karen Ecklebe, the Logger goalkeeper, putting George Fox down just one goal.

The Loggers clamped down defensively and the two teams battled for field position for the remaining 25 minutes without another goal being scored. UPS out-shot the Bruins 16-7 and had 6 corners to 3 for the Bruins.

HOLUB'S HAT TRICK LEADS BRUINS PAST LUTES 3-2 IN TWO OT'S

TACOMA, Wash. -- Karli Holub (Jr., F, Pleasant Hill, Ore.) scored her third goal of the game with 16 seconds remaining in the second overtime, to lead the George Fox University Bruins to a 3-2 Northwest Conference women's soccer victory over the Pacific Lutheran University Lutes Sunday afternoon (Oct. 1).

The host Lutes took the early lead on Alison Brennan's goal at the 18:46 mark, her shot angling from right to left and into the far side net. George Fox showed its offensive prowess throughout the first half, however, taking 10 shots and forcing PLU goalkeeper Gloria Cefali to make seven saves in the opening 45 minutes.

The Bruins finally tied the score at the 74:50 mark when Holub, who two games ago became the Bruins' career leader in goals scored and total points, scored her first goal on an assist from Anna Carlson (So., F, Beaverton, Ore.). A little less than four minutes later, Holub spun away from her defender and beat Cefali for her second goal. With 1:06 remaining in regulation, however, PLU's Katie Pfister right-footed an 18-yard blast through a crowd and past Bruins goalkeeper Cori Wulf for the 2-2 tie.

In the second 15-minute overtime period, the Lutes came close to pulling off an upset of the Bruins, the No. 7 team in the NCAA Division III West Region, only to see Brennan's left-footed shot bang off the crossbar. A minute later, with the seconds counting down, Holub pounced on a rebound off a Tori Taylor shot in front of the goal and lifted it over Cefali, who was on the ground after making a save, to complete her hat trick.

LATE GEORGE FOX GOAL RESULTS IN OVERTIME VICTORY

TACOMA, WA -- Karli Holub scored her third goal of the game with 16 seconds remaining in the second overtime to lead George Fox to a 3-2 Northwest Conference women's soccer victory over the host Pacific Lutheran Lutes on Sunday afternoon.

With the seconds counting down, Holub pounced on a rebound in front of the goal and lifted it over Pacific Lutheran goalkeeper Gloria Cefali, who was on the ground after making a save. With the victory, George Fox improves to 4-1 in the conference and 6-3 overall. The hard-luck Lutes lost for the sixth straight time and are now 0-5 in conference play and 1-8 overall.

Pacific Lutheran took the early lead on Alison Brennan's goal at the 18:46 mark, her shot angling from right to left and into the far side net. George Fox showed its offensive prowess throughout the first half, however, taking 10 shots and forcing Cefali to make seven saves in the opening 45 minutes.

The Bruins finally tied the score at the 74:50 mark when Holub, an all-conference forward, scored her first on an assist from Anna Carlson. A little less than four minutes later, Holub spun away from her defender and scored her second goal. With 1:06 remaining in regulation, however, PLU freshman defender Katie Pfister right-footed an 18-yard blast through a crowd and past Bruins goalkeeper Cori Wulf.

In the second 15-minute overtime period, the Lutes came close to pulling off the upset, only to see Brennan's left-footed shot bang off the crossbar. A minute later, Cefali saved a shot by Tori Taylor on the near post. That led to the final result, with Holub finishing off her hat trick.

George Fox fired 31 shots in the game, forcing Cefali to make 15 saves. The PLU school record for saves in a game is 16 set twice by Lisa Cole in 1996. Wulf had eight saves on 20 Pacific Lutheran shots.

LOGGERS EARN WET WIN OVER BRUINS 3-2

TACOMA, Wash. --- While wet playing conditions played havoc with the match, the University of Puget Sound and George Fox University provided plenty of action, the Loggers scoring quick early goals and hanging on for a 3-2 win over the Bruins in a critical Northwest Conference contest Saturday afternoon here (Sept. 30) here at Baker Stadium.

The Loggers got on the board at the 7:14 mark off of a corner kick by Dusty Marcell when Beth Taimi flicked the ball to the left corner of the net past Cori Wulf, the Bruins' goalkeeper. Less than two minutes later, it was Dusty Marcell on a breakaway, beating two Bruin defenders and nailing the goal at the 8:45 mark. Puget Sound went in at half with the 2-0 lead.

Puget Sound looked to put the game away, going up 3-0 as Michelle Moore broke free and beat two Bruin defenders to score a goal in the 57th minute. But the Bruins came roaring back, scoring at the 58:03 mark when Brooke Pitner got free in the box and connected with the back of the net, making the score 3-1 in favor of Puget Sound. Just four minutes later, the Bruins were at it again, Tori Taylor receiving a cross from Karli Holub that a Logger defender did not quite clear well enough, and Taylor slotted the ball home past the extended arms of Karen Ecklebe, the Logger goalkeeper, putting George Fox down just one goal.

The Loggers clamped down defensively and the two teams battled for field position for the remaining 25 minutes without another goal being scored. UPS out-shot the Bruins 16-7 and had 6 corners compared to 3 for the Bruins.

It was the first conference loss of the season for the Bruins, the 7th-ranked team in the NCAA Division III West Region, dropping them to 5-3 overall and 3-1 in the league. The win moves the Loggers to 3-1 in the NWC and 5-1-1 overall. The Loggers host Pacific University Sunday (Oct. 1) at 12:00 noon, while George Fox also plays Sunday at 12:00 noon at Pacific Lutheran University.

UNIVERSITY OF PUGET SOUND WOMEN'S SOCCER NORTHWEST CONFERENCE

Tacoma, WA: LOGGERS EARN VICTORY OVER GEORGE FOX UNIVERSITY

The wet playing conditions played havoc with the soccer match and the Loggers and Bruins provided plenty of action in a critical Northwest Conference match-up as Puget Sound hosted George Fox University in NWC action. George Fox was 3-0 in NWC league play coming in to the match. The Loggers scored early in the first half and hung on to defeat NWC opponent George Fox University 3-2.

The Loggers got on the board quickly at the 7:14 mark, off of a corner kick by Dusty Marcell when Beth Taimi flicked the ball to the left corner of the net past Lori Wulf the Bruin's goalkeeper. Less than two minutes later it was Dusty Marcell on a break away beating two Bruin defenders and nailed the goal at the 8:45 mark. Puget Sound went in at half with the 2-0 lead. Puget Sound out-shot the Bruins 9-2 at the mid-way point.

Puget Sound looked to put the game away going up 3-0 as Michelle Moore broke free and beat two Bruin defenders to score a goal in the 57th minute. The Bruins came roaring back in the second half scoring at the 58:03 mark when Brooke Pitner got free in the box and connected with the back of the net, making the score 3-1 in favor of Puget Sound. Just four minutes later the Bruins were back at it scoring again. Tori Taylor received a cross from a Bruin teammate, that a Logger defender did not quite clear it well enough and Taylor slotted the ball home past the extended arms of Karen Ecklebe, the Logger goalkeeper, putting George Fox down just one goal. The Loggers clamped down defensively and the two teams battled for field position for the remaining twenty-five minutes without another goal being scored and the Loggers prevailed 3-2.

The Loggers out-shot the Bruins 16 to 7 and had 6 corners compared to three for the Bruins. The win moves the Loggers to 3-1 in the NWC and 5-1-1 overall. The loss is the first for the Bruins in NWC 3-1 and 5-3 overall. The Loggers will host Pacific University Sunday at noon at Baker Stadium while George Fox will play at Pacific Lutheran.

HOLUB SCORES NEW RECORD/NAMED NWC "PLAYER OF THE WEEK"

Karli Holub (Jr., F, Pleasant Hill, Ore.) has made her mark as the all-time top scorer in George Fox women's soccer. In the Bruins' opening week of conference play, she scored three goals and passed out four assists to overtake Gegi Bonera's (1992-95) school record for career goals and total points. Holub's efforts earned her conference "Player of the Week" honors.

Going into Sunday's game against Whitman, Holub had tied the career mark for goals (32) and was three points shy of breaking the points record of 79. In the first half, she assisted on a goal to put herself within striking distance, and at the 51-minute mark, Holub took a pass inside the box, backed in a defender, faked, pivoted, and hit a hard shot to the left post to break both records. Three minutes later, she added another goal for good measure and is now the all-time leader in goals (34) and points (82) at George Fox.

BRUINS REMAIN IN 7TH IN WEST DIVISION POLL OF SEPT. 25

Despite three straight wins, including a win over No. 10 in the region Whitworth, George Fox remained in 7th place in this week's NCAA Division III West Region poll conducted by the National Soccer Coaches Association of America. The Bruins are joined in the West Region top ten by three other Northwest Conference teams: Willamette University (7-0-1) at No.1, the University of Puget Sound (4-1-1) at No. 2, and Pacific College at No. 10. George Fox visits UPS on Saturday, Sept. 30 in Tacoma, Wash.

BRUINS HOLD OFF BOXERS 3-2 IN NORTHWEST CONFERENCE OPENER

NEWBERG, Ore. --- Mindy Venable (So., M, Newberg, Ore.) scored the tie-breaking goal shortly before the halftime, and Brooke Pitner (Fr., M, Vancouver, Wash.) added an insurance goal in the second half that proved critical, as the George Fox University Bruins held off the Pacific University Boxers 3-2 in Northwest Conference women's soccer action Wednesday afternoon (Sept. 20) here at Morse Athletic Field.

The Bruins, who entered the game ranked 7th in the NCAA Division III West Region, got on the board first with a goal off the bench from Anna Carlson (So., F, Portland, Ore.), who drilled home a left-footed shot from the left side off a pass from Karli Holub 30:48 into the game. The Boxers bounced back to tie it at 1-1 shortly thereafter as Andrea Powell headed one in off a corner kick from Rhiannon Gagnon at 35:21.

Venable, another Bruin sub, notched her first career goal at 42:34 off a tip from Holub to break the deadlock and give George Fox a 2-1 lead at the interval. The Bruins made 3-1 at 50:49 in the second half when Pitner corralled a deflected shot by Holub and punched it into the left corner of the net.

The Bruins out-shot the Boxers 29-6 in the game, but the Pacific group made the most of their opportunities and made it close with a second goal at 86:40, Leeann Ogasawara lifting an indirect free kick over the head of Bruins goalkeeper Cori Wulf, but the home team ran out the clock before the visitors could get another shot off.

BRUINS CRUISE PAST WHITWORTH 4-1

NEWBERG, Ore. --- George Fox used three late game goals, two by freshman forward Sara Oates (Fr., F, Grover Beach, Calif.) to put away the visiting Whitworth College Pirates in Northwest Conference women's soccer action on Saturday.

The Bruins took a 1-0 first half lead when forward Karli Holub headed in a corner kick from Ashleigh Hughes (MF, Sr., Portland, Ore.). It was Holub's 33rd career goal, tying her with Gegi Bonera (1992-95) as George Fox's all-time goals leader.

Whitworth fought back in the second half, with Erika McGraw (MF, Fr., Vancouver, Wash./Skyview HS) drilling a shot to the left post off a high midfield feed from teammate Dalyce Young (D, So., Bellingham, Wash./Ferndale HS), to tie the game 1-1 at 73 minutes. Less than one minute later, Hughes put the Bruins back up for good by connecting on a penalty kick following a Whitworth handball inside the box.

At 77 minutes, Sara Oates notched her first score when a Tori Taylor (So., Portland, Ore./Wilson HS) pass was bobbled by the defense and Oates hooked it to the left post. Oates struck again on a fast break when Holub sent a short cross to midfielder Mindy Venable, who tapped to the left wing where Oates beat the keeper for the game's final score.

HOLUB BREAKS RECORDS AS GEORGE FOX DOMINATES WHITMAN 5-0

NEWBERG, Ore. --- Junior forward Karli Holub had two goals and one assist, breaking the George Fox record for career goals and career points, to lead the Bruins to a 5-0 shutout win over visiting Whitman College in Northwest Conference women's soccer action on Sunday.

Holub assisted on a Tori Taylor score in the first half, and then scored on back-to-back shots in the second half to break Gegi Bonera's (1992-95) career record of 32 goals and 79 points. Holub, only a junior, now has 34 career goals and 82 career points.

George Fox controlled the game from the start, when forward Sara Oates dribbled around three defenders and nailed a hard shot at 32 minutes to put the Bruins up 1-0. Taylor's score five minutes later gave George Fox a 2-0 halftime lead.

Both of Holub's goals came within three minutes of each other on almost identical plays. At 51 minutes, Holub took a pass from forward Anna Carlson, backed in a defender, faked, pivoted, and drove in a strong shot to the left post. Minutes later, she did the same thing off an Ashleigh Hughes pass. George Fox added one more goal in the game's final minute, when Brooke headed in a goal-box cross from Oates.

George Fox dominated Whitman on offense, taking 27 shots to the Missionaries' four. Keeper Cori Wulf (So., Salem, Ore./Santiam Christian HS) notched her first shutout of the year.

HOLUB BREAKS RECORDS AS GEORGE FOX DOMINATES WHITMAN 5-0

NEWBERG, Ore. --- Junior forward Karli Holub (Pleasant Hill, Ore./Pleasant Hill HS) had two goals and one assist, breaking the George Fox University record for career goals and career points, to lead the Bruins to a 5-0 shutout win over visiting Whitman College in Northwest Conference women's soccer action Sunday (Sept. 24) here at Morse Athletic Field.

Holub assisted on a Tori Taylor (So., Wilson HS, Portland, Ore.) score in the first half, and then scored on back-to-back shots in the second half to break Gegi Bonera's (1992-95) career record of 32 goals and 79 points. Holub, only a junior, now has 34 career goals and 82 career points.

George Fox controlled the game from the start, when forward Sara Oates (Fr., Grover Beach, Calif./Arroyo Grande HS) dribbled around three defenders and nailed a hard shot at 32 minutes to put the Bruins up 1-0. Taylor's score five minutes later gave George Fox a 2-0 halftime lead.

Both of Holub's goals came within three minutes of each other on almost identical plays. At 51 minutes, Holub took a pass from forward Anna Carlson (So., Beaverton, Ore./Sunset HS), backed in a defender, faked, pivoted, and drove in a strong shot to the left post. Minutes later, she did the same thing off an Ashleigh Hughes (Sr., Portland, Ore./Jesuit HS) pass.

George Fox added one more goal in the game's final minute when Brooke Pitner (Fr., Vancouver, Wash./Skyview HS) headed in a goal-box cross from Sara Oates.

George Fox dominated Whitman on offense, taking 27 shots to the Missionaries' four. Keeper Cori Wulf (So., Salem, Ore./Santiam Christian HS) notched her first shutout of the year.

George Fox is now 3-0 in Northwest Conference play, 5-2 overall, and Whitman is 0-3 in NWC action, 0-5 overall. The Bruins' next game will be at the University of Puget Sound on Saturday (Sept. 30) at 12:00 noon, while the Missionaries will head back to Walla Walla to face Linfield College on the same date at the same time.

BRUINS CRUISE PAST WHITWORTH 4-1

NEWBERG, Ore. --- George Fox used three late game goals, two by freshman forward Sara Oates (Fr., Grover Beach, Calif./Arroyo Grande HS) to put away the visiting Whitworth College Pirates in Northwest Conference women's soccer action on Saturday.

The Bruins took a 1-0 first half lead when forward Karli Holub (Jr., Pleasant Hill, Ore./Pleasant Hill HS) headed in a corner kick from Ashleigh Hughes (MF, Sr., Portland, Ore./Jesuit HS). It was Holub's 33rd career goal, tying her with Gegi Bonera (1992-95) as George Fox's all-time goals leader.

Whitworth fought back in the second half, with Erika McGraw (MF, Fr., Vancouver, Wash./Skyview HS) drilling a shot to the left post off a high midfield feed from teammate Dalyce Young (D, So., Bellingham, Wash./Ferndale HS), to tie the game 1-1 at 73 minutes.

Less than one minute later, Hughes put the Bruins back up for good by connecting on a penalty kick following a Whitworth handball inside the box.

At 77 minutes, Sara Oates notched her first score when a Tori Taylor (So., Portland, Ore./Wilson HS) pass was bobbled by the defense and Oates hooked it to the left post.

Oates struck again on a fast break when Holub sent a short cross to midfielder Mindy Venable (So., Newberg, Ore./Faith Academy), who tapped to the left wing where Oates beat the keeper for the game's final score.

George Fox moved to 4-2 on the season, 2-0 in Northwest Conference play, while Whitworth fell to 3-2-1 overall, 1-1 in conference. The Bruins are back in action tomorrow, hosting Whitman College at noon, where forward Karli Holub will continue her assault on the record books. She needs only three points to break the school record for career goals (32) and points (79), both by Gegi Bonera. Whitworth will go on to play at Pacific tomorrow.

BRUINS HOLD OFF BOXERS 3-2 IN NORTHWEST CONFERENCE OPENER

NEWBERG, Ore. --- Mindy Venable scored the tie-breaking goal shortly before the halftime, and Brooke Pitner added an insurance goal in the second half that proved critical, as the George Fox University Bruins held off the Pacific University Boxers 3-2 in Northwest Conference women's soccer action Wednesday afternoon (Sept. 20) here at Morse Athletic Field.

The Bruins, who entered the game ranked 7th in the NCAA Division III West Region, got on the board first with a goal off the bench from Anna Carlson, who drilled home a left-footed shot from the left side off a pass from Karli Holub 30:48 into the game. The Boxers bounced back to tie it at 1-1 shortly thereafter as Andrea Powell headed one in off a corner kick from Rhiannon Gagnon at 35:21.

Venable, another Bruin sub, notched her first career goal at 42:34 off a tip from Holub to break the deadlock and give George Fox a 2-1 lead at the interval. The Bruins made 3-1 at 50:49 in the second half when Pitner corralled a deflected shot by Holub and punched it into the left corner of the net.

The Bruins out-shot the Boxers 29-6 in the game, but the Pacific group made the most of their opportunities and made it close with a second goal at 86:40, Leeann Ogasawara lifting an indirect free kick over the head of Bruins goalkeeper Cori Wulf, but the home team ran out the clock before the visitors could get another shot off.

The game was the conference opener for both teams, and left the Bruins with a 3-2 overall record, while Pacific dropped to 1-2-1. Both teams are back in NWC action Saturday at 12:00 noon, George Fox hosting Whitworth College, ranked 10th in the region, and Pacific hosting Whitman College.

BRUINS SLIP TO 7TH IN WEST DIVISION POLL OF SEPT. 18

A 2-1 overtime loss at Concordia University-Portland in their only game of the week led to the George Fox Bruins dropping from 5th to 7th in this week's NCAA Division III West Region poll conducted by the National Soccer Coaches Association of America. The Bruins are joined in the West Region top ten by three other Northwest Conference teams: Willamette University (4-0-1) at No.1, the University of Puget Sound (2-0-1) at No. 2, and Whitworth College (2-1-1) at No. 10. George Fox and Whitworth meet this week on Sept. 23 in Newberg.

CAVS SCORE EARLY IN O.T. TO DEFEAT BRUINS 2-1

PORTLAND, Ore. --- A goal within the last two minutes of regulation play tied the game, and another goal 43 seconds into overtime ended it as the Concordia University-Portland Cavaliers stunned the George Fox University Bruins 2-1 in a women's soccer match here Saturday afternoon (Sept. 16).

The defensive struggle was knotted 0-0 at the half before the Bruins' Rachel Denning (So., M, Boring, Ore.) put George Fox ahead at 57:03 with a penalty kick, courtesy of a foul by Concordia keeper Shelley Butcher inside the box. Bruin goalie Cori Wulf (So., GK, Salem, Ore.) turned away 10 Concordia shots and it appeared she might get her first shutout of the season, but the Cavaliers' Bre Starzecki deflected a shot into the net off a feed from Missy Clark at the 88:05 mark to tie it 1-1.

Just 43 seconds into overtime, at 90:43, Clark came in from the right side and nailed the winner off a pass from Amy Jackson. It was the first win for Concordia over George Fox in their sixth meeting, the Bruins having owned a 4-0-1 record against the Cavs before this game.

George Fox closed out its pre-conference schedule with a 2-2 record.

George Fox	1	0	0	-	1

GF	Rachel Denning (penalty kick)				2nd 57:03 GF, 1-0
CU	Bre Starzecki (A - Missy Clark)				2nd 88:05 Tie, 1-1
CU	Missy Clark (A - Amy Jackson)				OT 90:43 CU, 2-1

BRUIN BITS:

*** Karli Holub (Jr., F, Pleasant Hill, Ore.) is closing in on school records for goals scored and total points. She is second all-time in both categories with 31 goals and 72 points, trailing only Gegi Bonera's 32 goals and 79 points from 1992-95.

*** Tori Taylor (So., M, Portland, Ore.) was not in the Bruins' starting lineup and missed the entire game at Concordia-Portland due to swelling in her right ankle. She is expected back in time for the Northwest Conference opener on Wednesday against Pacific.

COACH BYRON SHENK (82-72-11 in 10th year at GFU, 186-185-37 in 31st year overall)

On Concordia-Portland: "We outplayed them for most of the game, but just wore down at the end and had a couple of defensive lapses that allowed them to tie it late in the game and then win it in overtime. We played the entire game without Tori Taylor in the middle, and I have little doubt that, had we had her in there, we'd have won this game. She could have played, but since this was a non-conference game, we decided we'd rather have her at full strength for Pacific. But Concordia is a good team and they took advantage when they had opportunities."

On this week's opponents: "There are no easy ones in the conference. Pacific is an improving club, and Whitworth is going to challenge the top teams for the conference championship. Whitman gave us trouble last year and we certainly can't overlook them this year."

George Fox closed out its pre-conference schedule with a 2-2 record. Bruins forward Karli Holub was shut out of point production and will have to wait until the Bruins' next game to move closer to the team records for career goals and career points (she has 31 goals and 72 points, second all-time to Gegi Bonera's 32 goals and 79 points). She will get her chance Wednesday (Sept. 20) when the Bruins host Pacific University at 3:00 p.m. in their first conference and home game of the season. Concordia also plays Wednesday, visiting Western Oregon University for a Cascade Collegiate Conference contest.

Concordia Tops George Fox in Overtime, 2-1 The Cavs defeat the Bruins for the First Time in their Six-Year History

(Portland) -- Sophomore midfielder Missy Clark scored just 43 seconds into overtime to give the Concordia University women's soccer team a 2-1 victory over the visitors from George Fox University.

It was the first time in the six-year history of the women's soccer program that Concordia has defeated the Bruins. The Cavaliers were 0-4-1 coming into today's match.

The game was notched at 0-0 at halftime, but George Fox got the upper hand in the second half when CU goalkeeper Shelley Butcher was called for a foul inside the box and the Bruins were awarded a penalty kick. Rachel Denning converted for the Bruins to put them 1-0 at the 57th minute.

The Cavs pressured the Bruin goal for the remainder of the half, as GFU goalkeeper Cory Wolf made some outstanding saves to preserve the lead. With less than two minutes left, Clark took a through-ball down the right side, cut it back and beat Wolf to the far post. Junior forward Bre Starzecki deflected the ball in past Wolf to equalize.

With the momentum going into overtime, Clark again got through on the right side and beat Wolf over the top to the far post at 90:43.

The Cavs outshot the Bruins 15-10. Butcher made six saves, and Wolf recorded 10. Next up for Concordia is a Wednesday, September 20th match against Western Oregon in Monmouth. George Fox hosts Pacific on Wednesday as well.

BRUINS 5TH IN WEST DIVISION POLL OF SEPT. 11

For the first time since becoming full-fledged members of the NCAA last year, the George Foxwomen's soccer team finds itself ranked in the polls. The Bruins placed 5th in the Sept. 11 NCAA Division III West Region rankings in balloting conducted by the National Soccer Coaches Association of America. The Bruins opened the season by winning the Western Baptist College Courthouse Athletic Club Classic and split on their California road trip, losing to NAIA power California Baptist before bouncing D-III West Region member La Verne.

BRUINS BLANKED 2-0 BY CALIFORNIA BAPTIST

RIVERSIDE, Calif. --- Getting only nine shots at the goal all game, the George Fox University Bruins could not get a ball in the goal and were whitewashed 2-0 by the California Baptist University Lancers in women's soccer action here Friday afternoon (Sept. 8).

Lisa Muench scored off a cross from Amy Harris in the 16th minute to put the Lancers ahead 1-0, then added an assist to Yvette Vascones for an insurance score in the 70th minute. California Baptist outshot George Fox 22-9, with Bruin goalkeeper Cori Wulf (So., GK, Salem, Ore.) recording 13 saves to keep the final count from being even higher.

The Bruins dropped to 1-1 on the season, while the Lancers evened their mark at 2-2. George Fox had picked up California Baptist as a last-minute replacement on its schedule for U.S. International University, which could not reschedule the Bruins after leaving them off their original slate of games.

SECOND-HALF GOALS SPARK BRUINS TO 3-1 WIN AT LA VERNE

LA VERNE, Calif. --- Tori Taylor (So., M, Portland, Ore.) and Karli Holub (Jr., F, Pleasant Hill, Ore.) scored late second-half goals, breaking a 1-1 tie and leading the George Fox University Bruins to a 3-1 win over the University of La Verne Leopards in women's soccer action Saturday night (Sept. 9).

Kelly McCabe (Sr., D, Camas, Wash.) scored her first career goal off a goalkeeper deflection at the 15:07 mark of the first half to give the visiting Bruins an early 1-0 lead. La Verne countered with its only goal just before the half ended when Katie Zwissler scored off a feed from Erica Borbon at 42:23.

Taylor broke the tie for the Bruins with her rebound goal at 72:34, and Holub put the icing on the win with her solo score at 88:57. With that goal, Holub, a junior, now has 31 career goals and 72 total points, and needs only two more goals and eight points to break the George Fox all-time records of 32 goals and 79 points held by Gegi Bonera.

BRUIN BITS:

* Junior forward Karli Holub advanced closer to school records for goals scored and total points with her goal against La Verne. She is second all-time in both categories with 31 goals and 72 points, trailing only Gegi Bonera's 32 goals and 79 points from 1992-95.

* Ashleigh Hughes (Sr., D, Portland, Ore.), a four-year starter for the Bruins, missed the La Verne game when she suffered a bruised leg in the California Baptist game. She is expected back in time to play this Saturday against Concordia-Portland, however.

COACH BYRON SHENK (82-70-11 in 10th year at GFU, 186-183-37 in 31st year overall)

On California Baptist: "It was a long trip. We left at 5:30 in the morning to fly to California, drove for a long way, sat around under a hot sun for an hour-and-a-half with no air-conditioned room to rest in -- and then went out and played well. Our defense was good, but we missed a number of scoring opportunities that, had we finished them, could have given us the game. Their coach was very complimentary after the game; he said that we obviously outplayed them and that they got an 'ugly win'. I said, 'I'll take an ugly win over a pretty loss any day!'"

On La Verne: This was a great win for us. We played a magnificent game, particularly the second half. There was one stretch there where we had four shots in front of the net in something like six seconds -- one shot hit the post and bounced right back, and a couple more hit La Verne players before they cleared the ball -- or the score could have been even higher. All in all, it was a very satisfying trip."

BRUINS BLANKED 2-0 BY CALIFORNIA BAPTIST

RIVERSIDE, Calif. --- Getting only nine shots at the goal all game, the George Fox University Bruins could not get a ball in the goal and were whitewashed 2-0 by the California Baptist University Lancers in women's soccer action here Friday afternoon (Sept. 8).

Lisa Muench scored off a cross from Amy Harris in the 16th minute to put the Lancers ahead 1-0, then added an assist to Yvette Vascones for an insurance score in the 70th minute. California Baptist outshot George Fox 22-9, with Bruin goalkeeper Cori Wulf recording 13 saves to keep the final count from being even higher.

The Bruins dropped to 1-1 on the season, while the Lancers evened their mark at 2-2. George Fox had picked up California Baptist as a last-minute replacement on its schedule for U.S. International University, which could not reschedule the Bruins after leaving them off their original slate of games.

George Fox continues its California swing Saturday (Sept. 9), facing the University of La Verne at 7:00 p.m.

BRUINS DOWN TRINITY WESTERN 3-1 (THOUGH IT WON'T COUNT)

SALEM, Ore. --- Even though it won't count on their official record, the George Fox University Bruins were happy to get a win in their 2000 women's soccer opener with a 3-1 decision over the Trinity Western University Spartans in the Western Baptist College Courthouse Athletic Club Classic here Friday afternoon (Sept. 1).

Because Trinity Western is a Canadian college in Langley, B.C., and not affiliated with either the NCAA or the NAIA, George Fox cannot count the game in its record.

The Bruins spread the scoring wealth around, with six different players sharing the team's three goals and three assists. After the Spartans took a 1-0 lead at the 22:10 mark of the first half on a goal by Tauren Stonehouse, the Bruins tied it at 26:05 on a header by Rachel Denning (So., Boring, Ore.) off a pass from Beth Liljenberg (Jr., Portland, Ore.).

Three minutes later, at 29:16, Tori Taylor (So., Portland, Ore.) drilled one into the left corner of the goal off a feed from Samara Thornburg (So., Tigard, Ore.), giving the Bruins a 2-1 lead. They added an insurance score at 66:52 in the second half when Sara Oates (Fr., Grovers Beach, Calif.) booted one in off a cross from Darcey Stocking (Fr., The Dalles, Ore.).

PITNER PACES BRUINS PAST WARRIORS WITH PAIR OF GOALS

SALEM, Ore. --- Freshman forward Brooke Pitner (Fr., Vancouver, Wash.) scored the first and last goals and three other Bruins got into the scoring act with a goal apiece as George Fox University coasted to a 5-1 win over the Western Baptist College Warriors in the WBC Courthouse Athletic Club Women's Soccer Classic here Saturday afternoon (Sept. 2).

Pitner connected from the left side after a feed from Karli Holub (Jr., Pleasant Hill, Ore.) at the 32:37 mark in the first half, and finished off the Bruins' scoring at the 67:13 mark in the second half with a shot into the left corner of the net off a pass from Sara Oates. Holub scored the Bruins' second goal at 39:32 with a chip shot over the head of Warriors goalie Chrissy Cacioppo for a 2-0 George Fox halftime lead.

Tori Taylor scored over the top of Cacioppo after a pass from Oates to make it 3-0 at 46:39 in the second half. WBC's Wendy Trent cut the lead to 3-1 with a shot to the left corner of the net on a pass from Karen Schripper, but the Bruins answered with an unassisted goal by Anna Carlson (So., Beaverton, Ore.) off a rebound at 62:31 and Pitner's last goal.

The Bruins' dominance was evident in the fact that they outshot the Warriors 27-10, and held the host team to only two shots the entire first half. George Fox also cleared its bench with 15 minutes to play, giving all its reserves, most of them newcomers to the program, plenty of playing time in their first college game.

The Bruins were declared the Classic champions because of their two victories, although the Friday game with Trinity Western cannot go on the team's record, since TWU is affiliated with neither the NAIA or the NCAA.

BRUIN BITS:

* The Bruins' win at Western Baptist marks the fourth straight year the team has won its season opener.

* Junior forward Karli Holub advanced closer to school records for goals scored and total points with her goal, assist, and three points against Western Baptist. She is second all-time in both categories with 30 goals and 70 points, trailing only Gegi Bonera's 32goals and 79 points from 1992-95.

* Brooke Pitner's two goals and the solo score by Anna Carlson against Western Baptist were the first goals of their careers.

* Defender Erin Oates (Sr., Grovers Beach, Calif.) is engaged to George Fox men's soccer player Jamie Johnson.

COACH BYRON SHENK (80-68-11 in 10th year at GFU, 184-181-37 in 31st year overall)

Quoting Coach Shenk:

On Trinity Western: "This was our first game and their third, so I'm pleased we responded so well to our first test. We were aggressive on offense, we had some excellent passing, and we took advantage of the other team's mistakes. We still have to work on a few things, though; our defense in the last 25 minutes gave them more scoring opportunities than we should have. But for a first game, I liked what I saw."

On Western Baptist: "I was very pleased with this effort. I honestly anticipated a tougher game, but we thoroughly dominated in every aspect, and I couldn't ask for more. It was nice to be able to give our subs some significant playing time as well, because it only gets harder from here on out."

PITNER PACES BRUINS PAST WARRIORS WITH PAIR OF GOALS

SALEM, Ore. --- Freshman forward Brooke Pitner scored the first and last goals and three other Bruins got into the scoring act with a goal apiece as George Fox University coasted to a 5-1 win over the Western Baptist College Warriors in the WBC Courthouse Athletic Club Women's Soccer Classic here Saturday afternoon (Sept. 2).

Pitner connected from the left side after a feed from Karli Holub at the 32:37 mark in the first half, and finished off the Bruins' scoring at the 67:13 mark in the second half with a shot into the left corner of the net off a pass from Sara Oates. Holub scored the Bruins' second goal at 39:32 with a chip shot over the head of Warriors goalie Chrissy Cacioppo for a 2-0 George Fox halftime lead.

Tori Taylor scored over the top of Cacioppo after a pass from Oates to make it 3-0 at 46:39 in the second half. WBC's Wendy Trent cut the lead to 3-1 with a shot to the left corner of the net on a pass from Karen Schripper, but the Bruins answered with an unassisted goal by Anna Carlson off a rebound at 62:31 and Pitner's last goal.

"I was very pleased with this effort," said Bruins coach Byron Shenk. "I honestly anticipated a tougher game, but we thoroughly dominated in every aspect, and I couldn't ask for more."

The Bruins' dominance was evident in the fact that they outshot the Warriors 24-11, and held the host team to only two shots the entire first half. George Fox also cleared its bench with 15 minutes to play, giving all its reserves, most of them newcomers to the program, plenty of playing time in their first college game.

George Fox is now 1-0 on the season, Friday's 3-1 win over Trinity Western University being unable to go on the team's record because TWU is a Canadian college that is unaffiliated with either the NCAA or the NAIA. The Bruins were declared the Classic champions because of their two victories, however.

The Bruins return to action next weekend with a trip to southern California, playing U.S. International University on Friday, Sept. 8, at 7:00 p.m. in La Verne, Calif., then playing the University of La Verne the next night at 7:00 p.m.

George Fox women win Courthouse soccer classic

SALEM, Ore – George Fox defeated tournament host Western Baptist to capture the women's soccer title in the WBC Courthouse Athletic Club classic.

The Bruins opened a three-goal lead early in the second half and cruised to a 5-1 victory. Brook Pitner (Vancouver, WA) scored twice for George Fox and Karli Holub (Pleasant Hill, OR) had one goal and one assist.

After failing to take a shot in the first half, Linfield got by Trinity Western in the first match with a pair of second period goals. Joelle Tybon (University Place, WA) and Lovisa Dvorak (Monroe, WA) scored for the Wildcats in their 2-0 win.

BRUINS DOWN TRINITY WESTERN 3-1 (THOUGH IT WON'T COUNT)

SALEM, Ore. --- Even though it won't count on their official record, the George Fox University Bruins were happy to get a win in their 2000 women's soccer opener with a 3-1 decision over the Trinity Western University Spartans in the Western Baptist College Courthouse Athletic Club Classic here Friday afternoon (Sept. 1).

Because Trinity Western is a Canadian college in Langley, B.C., and not affiliated with either the NCAA or the NAIA, George Fox cannot count the game in its record. Nevertheless, the victory gave the Bruins some insight into what to expect this year.

The Bruins spread the scoring wealth around, with six different players sharing the team's three goals and three assists. After the Spartans took a 1-0 lead at the 22:10 mark of the first half on a goal by Tauren Stonehouse, the Bruins tied it at 26:05 on a header by Rachel Denning off a pass from Beth Liljenberg.

Three minutes later, at 29:16, Tori Taylor rolled one into the left corner of the goal off a feed from Samara Thornburg, giving the Bruins a 2-1 lead. They added an insurance score at 66:52 in the second half when Sara Oates booted one in off a cross from Darcey Stocking.

"This was our first game and their third, so I'm pleased we responded so well to our first test," said Bruins coach Byron Shenk, now entering his 10th season as the only coach the George Fox women's program has had. "We were aggressive on offense, we had some excellent passing, and we took advantage of the other team's mistakes. We still have to work on a few things, though; our defense in the last 25 minutes gave them more scoring opportunities than we should have. But for a first game, I liked what I saw."

The Bruins take on the host Western Baptist Warriors Saturday afternoon (Sept. 2) at 3:00 p.m. -- and this time, the score counts!

GEORGE FOX WOMEN'S SOCCER

George Fox 2000 Women's Soccer Pre-Season Outlook ---

BRUINS RETURN STRONG NUCLEUS IN BID TO CHALLENGE FOR CONFERENCE CROWN

With seven starters and 11 letterwinners returning, the George Fox University Bruins are hopeful of challenging for their first-ever Northwest Conference women's soccer crown in 2000.

The Bruins finished 11-8 overall and were fourth in the NWC with a 7-7 mark last year, including single-goal losses to No. 2-ranked and conference champion Willamette. Close encounters such as the Willamette series and an improved defense could give the team a legitimate shot at the top.

"Our returning players have come to fall practice better prepared than last year, and are showing more maturity," notes veteran coach Byron Shenk, the only coach the George Fox women's soccer program has ever known (he's 79-68-11 in nine years at George Fox and 183-181-37 in 30 years overall). "The team seems more ready to compete than last year, and I like our front-line payers. The big issue this year will be our depth; that's a area of concern.

Records-Chasing Holub Leads Returning Nucleus

The Bruins' offense should not suffer much, despite the loss of the team's second- and third-leading scorers, forward Jen Overstreet (7 goals, 5 assists) and midfielder Noelle Miller (5 goals, 6 assists), the latter an Honorable Mention All-Conference selection. That's because Karli Holub (Jr., Pleasant Hill, Ore.) and Tori Taylor (So., Portland, Ore.), a pair of outstanding scorers, are back to lead the attack.

Holub, a First Team All-Conference pick and possible All-America candidate, was second in the league in scoring with 30 points (14 goals, 2 assists) last year after leading the NWC in scoring as a freshman. Already she ranks second on the all-time George Fox list for points (67) and goals (29), and should pass Gegi Bonera's records (79 points, 32 goals) with any kind of season at all. Taylor came on strong at the end of the year with three goals in her final four games, finished with 12 points (5 goals, 2 assists), and will be counted on to continue her offensive output from her midfield position.

"Karli and Tori are two of the most aggressiveness, hustling players I've ever had, and we know we're going to get a few goals from them," Shenk affirms, "but we must also get some goals from the other midfielders, and maybe even a few backs."

Two returning midfielders whom Shenk hopes can step up their offensive output are Rachel Denning (So., Boring, Ore.), who produced 8 points (2 goals, 4 assists) in her first year, and three-year starter Ashleigh Hughes (Sr., Portland, Ore.), whom Shenk says "must develop more consistency in the middle".

On defense, the Bruins lost Second Team All-Conference defender Megan Diefenbaugh to graduation, but return Honorable Mention All-NWC Beth Liljenberg (Jr., Portland, Ore.), Erin Oates (Sr., Grover Beach, Calif.), and part-time starter Samara Thornburg (So., Tigard, Ore.) to give the team an experienced backfield.

"Beth is coming into her own as one of the best defenders in the conference," says Shenk. "Erin is one of our captains this year, giving us lots of leadership both on and off the field. Samara is probably our most improved player from last year to this and has been playing very well."

As the Bruins' last line of defense, goalkeeper Cori Wulf (So., Salem, Ore.), who played every minute of every game last year, has shown steady improvement. "Cori is more aggressive coming off the line and has improved on crosses," Shenk notes, "but we've got to hope she can stay injury-free, because we have no backup goalie."

Returning to provide depth and challenge for starting roles are forwards Mindy Venable (So., Newberg, Ore.) and Anna Carlson (So., Beaverton, Ore.), and defender Kelly McCabe (Sr., Camas, Wash.). "Mindy is a talented athlete but still very young in her knowledge of the game," Shenk comments. "Anna has improved as a forward, and she moves the ball well and is more of a feeder than a scorer. Kelly is steady and reliable and gives us some senior leadership."

One or Two Freshmen Could Start

At least one or two of the Bruin newcomers are expected to start, with the best candidates to emerge in the regular lineup being Brooke Pitner (Fr., Vancouver, Wash.) and Sara Oates (Fr., Grover Beach, Calif.), Erin's younger sister. "Brooke is our fastest player, with good skills and very athletic," notes Shenk. "She will probably play a flanker with Tori on the other side. Sara is a strong scorer who is a good possibility for the other forward position if Anna doesn't claim it."

Two newcomers to the program who did not play soccer the last couple of years, Sarah Jones (Jr., Lake Oswego, Ore.) and Darcey Stocking (Fr., The Dalles, Ore.), have been hampered by pre-season injuries but will contend for playing time on defense. Jones transferred from Westmont College, while Stocking played basketball at George Fox last winter.

Others who could get opportunities before the season is over include Shayda Rohani (Fr., Oregon City, Ore.) and Sydney Seyfert (Fr., Lewistown, Mont.), who can play either midfield or forward, midfielder Kristen Gooch (Fr., Taylorsville, Utah), and defender Nicole Fitzhugh (Fr., Coos Bay, Ore.)

Summary

Assessing his team as a whole, Shenk says, "Defense is still a bit of a concern, because we're going to have to rely on it more this year than in the past several seasons, and our depth is not as extensive as it has been."

"One of the things I do like about our team is that they play more physically, more aggressively this year than last. Another strength is our team unity, and I'm not talking about just typical team spirit; these players really enjoy being with one another. I think our new assistant coach, Heather Thibodeau, is one of the reasons behind our great team chemistry; she relates so well to our players, and having come from a very successful Division I program at the University of Portland, they pay close attention to her."

"All in all, I think it's going to be a fun year."

GEORGE FOX WOMEN'S SOCCER

BRUINS PICKED 5TH IN NWC; SEASON OPENS SEPT. 1

NEWBERG, Ore. --- George Fox University has been picked to finish fifth in the 2000 Northwest Conference women's soccer race, according to a pre-season poll of conference coaches, while the defending champion Willamette University was a narrow choice over the University of Puget Sound to win the league.

The 2000 campaign gets under way for the Bruins on Friday, Sept. 1, when they take on Trinity Western University at 11:00 a.m. in the Western Baptist Tournament in Salem, Ore. As TWU is a Canadian school, the game will not count on the Bruins' record for NCAA purposes.

Willamette, which went 13-0-1 in the NWC and 18-0-3 overall but lost to UPS in a shootout in the first round of the NCAA Division III National Tournament, received five first-place votes and 66 points, UPS, 9-3-2 in the league, 12-6-3 overall, and a West Region finalist, received three firsts and 62 points.

Whitworth College (9-8-2, NWC 7-6-1) was third with 43 points, followed by Pacific Lutheran University (7-10, 6-8) with 39, George Fox (11-8, 7-7) with 35, Pacific University (9-8-2, 5-7-2) with 19, Linfield College (4-15, 2-12) with 17, and Whitman College (7-12, 4-10) with 15.

The Bruins lost two All-Conference players, Second Team defender Megan Diefenbaugh and Honorable Mention midfielder Noelle Miller, but return First Team All-NWC forward Karli Holub, the second-leading scorer in the conference with 30 total points, and Honorable Mention All-NWC defender Beth Liljenberg. Five other starters also return as the Bruins seek their third straight winning season.

Veteran Bruins coach Byron Shenk, the only coach the women's program has had, is 79-68-11 in nine years at George Fox and 183-181-37 overall in 30 years of college coaching.

In addition to the season opener, the Bruins will play four more road games against Western Baptist College, United State International University, the University of La Verne, and Concordia University-Portland before their home opener on Sept. 20 against Pacific. That match also marks the start of a 14-game conference schedule.

For more information, contact the George Fox sports information office (503-554-2127) or the athletic department (503-554-2910).

GEORGE FOX WOMEN'S SOCCER

BRUINS NAME HEATHER THIBODEAU ASSISTANT COACH

NEWBERG, Ore. --- Heather Thibodeau, whose background includes two trips to the NCAA Division I Final Four with the University of Portland, has been named the new assistant women's soccer coach at George Fox University.

Thibodeau will be stepping in for former assistant Tim Tsohantaris, an assistant professor of religion at George Fox, who is taking a year off from coaching to work on a Greek Bible dictionary.

Thibodeau, a native of Yuba City, Calif., was a walk-on for the women's soccer team at Portland, year-in and year-out one of the strongest programs in the nation. Though she never started, she does admit to "playing more than I ever anticipated for a national power. I probably could have played more at a D-II program, or even some other D-I's, but I wouldn't trade my experiences at the University of Portland for anything; they're all like sisters to me."

In her four-year career from 1996-99, Thibodeau, whose primary position was defender, played on Pilot teams that went to the Final Four in both 1996 and 1998.

Thibodeau graduated from Portland in May 2000 with a B.S. in life science and a minor in business administration. She recently returned from a one-and-a-half month trip to Malaysia and Australia on the university's Entrepreneur's Scholar Program, an experience she anticipates will help toward her long-range goal of entering the field of biotech enterprises.

"I love coaching, too," Thibodeau says, pointing to her two summers of working with young players at University of Portland soccer camps. "The game of soccer has given me so much enjoyment in life, and I'd like to take some time to give a little something back to the game through coaching. The position at George Fox, even though it's only for three months, is an ideal situation for me right now."

Bruins head coach Byron Shenk is delighted to have Thibodeau on board. "We'll miss Tim, of course, but we're excited about Heather joining our program," says Shenk, who is entering his 10th season at George Fox. "She brings to our athletes the knowledge of what it takes to compete at the highest level possible, and can relate it from a female perspective obviously better than I can! I know she will connect with our players and can teach them much from her experiences. She is definitely a "people person" who has a real love for the Lord that will be right at home here at George Fox."

HOLUB LEADS LIST OF FIVE BRUINS HONORED BY CONFERENCE

NEWBERG, Ore. – George Fox University forward Karli Holub (Jr., Pleasant Hill, Ore.) was named the 2000 Northwest Conference "Player of the Year" in women's soccer, highlighting the choice of five Bruins for All-Conference honors, according to an announcement from NWC information director Steve Flegel at Whitworth College.

Bruin defender Erin Oates (Sr., Grover Beach, Calif.) joined Holub on the First Team, while defender Beth Liljenburg (Jr., Portland, Ore.), midfielder Rachel Denning (So., Boring Ore.) and midfielder Brooke Pitner (Fr., Vancouver, Wash.) were named to the All-Conference Second Team.

Holub, who surpassed every George Fox career scoring record this season with 102 points, 42 goals and 18 assists, earned NWC "Player of the Week" honors for the week of Sept. 18-24 and was Honorable Mention once. She finished the regular season second in the conference in scoring (35 points, 1.94), goal scoring (13, 0.72) and assists (9, 0.50). It was her ability to score in the clutch that attracted the attention of the conference coaches who elected her, for of the 13 goals she scored, 9 either tied a game, put the Bruins ahead at that point, or was a game-winner. She had a hat trick to beat Pacific Lutheran 3-0, and scored the goal in a 1-0 win over Willamette that snapped the national power's 62-game regular season winning streak in conference play. It was the third straight year for her to make First Team All-NWC.

Oates, a four-year starter for the Bruins, was a key player in the backfield, anchoring a defense that allowed only 23 goals in 18 games for a 1.22 goals allowed average, tied for third-best in the conference, and recorded four shutouts. One of this year's team captains, she earned All-Conference for the first time.

Liljenberg, who teamed with Oates in the Bruin defensive line, continued to be recognized as one of the top defenders in the league. She was a First Team All-Conference pick as a freshman, and received Honorable Mention last year.

Denning, a versatile player who contributed both offensively and defensively, was named All-Conference for the first time. She had the team's lone goal against Concordia-Portland and assisted on an insurance goal in a 5-1 win at Whitman.

Pitner was eighth in the conference in points per game (1.00) and goal scoring (0.39), tying for the ninth-most goals in a season at George Fox with 7 and ranking 12th in total points in a season with 18. She also had four assists, and was Northwest Conference "Player of the Week" for Oct. 16-22 when she had two goals and three assists on the week. She scored the first George Fox goal of the season to ignite a 5-1 win over Western Baptist.

All five were instrumental in the Bruins' 13-5 overall record, third-place conference finish at 11-3, and No. 6 ranking in the NCAA Division III West Region.

Randy Hanson of Puget Sound was named NWC "Coach of the Year" for leading the Loggers to the conference championship, a No. 4 national ranking, and a berth in the NCAA Division III National Tournament.

Others on the All-Conference First Team were Cherish Kaaa (F) of Linfield; Alison Brennan (F) of Pacific Lutheran; Kerry Cerelli (M), Laura Grinstead (D), Karen Ecklebe (GK), Dusty Marcell (F), and Maya Mendoza (D) of Puget Sound; and Jenny Bellone (M), Dana Christopherson (M), Buffy Morris (F), and Anne Merten (F) of Willamette.

Also on the Second Team were Jessica Gabbert (GK) of Linfield; Leann Ogasawara (M) of Pacific; Briana Hultgren (F) of Puget Sound; Corinne Schuler (M) of Whitman; Grace Grabner (M) and Heather Sale (F) of Whitworth; and Erin Moore (D) and Karen Heaston (D) of Willamette.

Honorable Mention selections were Kim Reeves (D), Joelle Tybon (D), and Lauren Millhollin (F) of Linfield; Susan Doyle (M) of Pacific; Kira Johnson (M) of Pacific Lutheran; Beth Taimi (M) of Puget Sound; and Meghan Bowen (D) of Whitman.

8.	Whitman (Wash.)	15	7-12	4-10

(First-place votes in parenthesis. Points awarded on 9-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis).

Defending champion Willamette University is a narrow choice of Northwest Conference coaches to repeat as conference champions over the University of Puget Sound. The Bearcats received five first place and 66 total points, while the Loggers were tabbed by three coaches to win and got 62 points.

Willamette, which has won or tied for the previous seven NWC titles, finished 18-0-3 overall last season and won the conference title handily with a 13-0-1 record. But the Bearcats have lost 1999 NWC Player of the Year Katie Edmonds and First Team All-NWC selection Natalie Flindt to graduation.

Puget Sound (12-6-3 overall, 9-3-2 in 1999) finished second to Willamette last season, but knocked off the Bearcats on penalty kicks in the first round of the NCAA playoffs. Randy Hanson, 1999 NWC Coach of the Year, led the Loggers to another win in the playoffs before finally losing 1-0 at UC San Diego in triple overtime of the West Region final.

Whitworth College finished third in the poll, well behind the leaders with 43 points. Pacific Lutheran University and George Fox University were grouped behind the Pirates with 39 and 35 points, respectively.

Pacific University, Linfield College and Whitman College rounded out the coaches' poll in 6th - 8th places.
