preface

This booklet is sent to you to provide a picture of the Quaker campus. Obviously, a college education is comprised of much more than you learn in all of your books. We have outlined many traditions, standards, and privileges of George Fox College for you in such a way that from your first step onto the campus you will be able to feel at home.

We ask you to plan your activities and attitudes in the light of these standards and traditions. As you come to college, aim your ambitions toward the very highest social, spiritual and academic goals possible.

Best wishes to you as you plan one of life's greatest experiences—going to college!

message from the president

Dear Students,

I am happy to be back on the George Fox campus after a year's sabbatical of traveling. May I welcome you all—both our new students and those who are returning. We hope that your years with us in college will be the happiest you have known until now. We promise to do all in our power to make this year most rewarding, one of physical and social development which will be exciting and important.

This Handbook will mean much in your orientation to your college career, especially for the new students. It is not concerned with classes and grades and library books as such, but rather with the other side of college living—the home away from home, college traditions and spirit, social life, and what to do and when and where. Here at George Fox College you will get an ideal opportunity for a Christian liberal education. We ask you to make the most of your opportunity.

Cordially yours,
Milo C. Ross, President

greetings from the a.s.g.f.c.

Ready or not, here I come! For many of you the time of waiting is over and now you are finally a part of college life. For you who are returning it is another chance to prove yourself, another opportunity to show the faculty and your fellow students that you can make a real contribution to this college.

But for all of us, the beginning of school this year marks a time of opportunity, the chance to be together at a class party or an all-school outing, to thrill to the climax of a choir number, or the basket that sends the game into overtime, to know the satisfaction which comes from finishing a classroom assignment or making the honor roll.

We have every reason to be proud of George Fox College, and it is with pride that I welcome you to a new and unique year at GF.

But Freshmen, you are not merely an observer of the college experience—not just a commuter between high school and a career via the George Fox College Express. On the contrary, you will create the college experience. Out of your questioning, your reactions, and your growing awareness of yourself and others will come the force which will give meaning to the structure and tradition of George Fox College.

In the power of the Holy Spirit, students at George Fox can develop their ability to live in a meaningful way because they have found Jesus Christ, and through Christ, themselves.

Sincerely,
Dorlan Bales
A.S.G.F.C. President

the george fox "experience"

George Fox College is a Christian college which has maintained through the years highest standards of Christian principles of living. You are encouraged to be consistent in maintaining these principles. Start your year right by establishing a time for daily Bible reading and prayer, for you will need the help and inspiration of this time, if you are to measure up to the standards of Christ while at college.

You will enjoy the warm spiritual atmosphere in the Newberg churches. All students are warmly welcomed at the Newberg Friends Church. Those who prefer to worship in the church of their own denomination will find a hearty welcome and concern for their spiritual welfare.

At the college church you will find excellent college age Sunday School classes and evening Friends Youth services.

The pastor of the Newberg Friends Church is our college pastor. He is most willing to counsel with you concerning your spiritual needs and to be your pastor away from home. You will find a friendly and spiritual atmosphere in the Sunday church services. The informal evening church hour is given to testimonies, live gospel singing, and evangelistic preaching. You will find opportunity for real Christian service in the work of the Sunday School. Friends Youth, Boys and Girls Clubs, or by joining our college church choir. Avail yourself of the privilege of being a faithful worshipper in both morning and evening services. There are also possibilities for serving through deputation work in various churches, representing the college as you serve in these places.

One of the mid-week highlights on our campus is the Student Prayer Meeting which is held each Wednesday evening. Don't miss it!

In line with our emphasis on highest planes of Christian living, attendance at programs inconsistent with Christian principles is seriously discouraged. The college endeavors to furnish activities which provide for the social development of the students. Opportunity is provided for participation in the finest cultural programs in the Portland area. Attendance at theater programs which are not consistent with Christian principles is both disapproved and seriously discouraged. Social dancing, the use of "playing cards," alcoholic beverages, or tobacco are not permitted by students attending George Fox College.

Information for Arrival

The college administration is responsible for living arrangements for all students who will not be living in their homes. Men and women shall report immediately upon arrival to the Student Union where the student welcoming committee will direct them to their respective residence hall assignments. It is expected that all students will plan to live in campus residence halls insofar as space permits. Any arrangements to live off campus must be approved by the Dean of Students.

Get the Facts

If at any time you have questions to be answered do not accept rumor in place of facts. If in doubt, go to one of the administrative officials or a Student Council member and ask! The president, deans, faculty, staff and student leaders will welcome the opportunity to help you. They know the answers, or can direct you to the one who does know. You are not bothering them when you call at one of their offices; their business is serving you. "Whom to See for What You Want," will help you to know what people you might contact about questions you may have.

tips on academic matters

Entrance Tests

A series of entrance tests is given to freshmen and incoming transfer students. These tests are used to aid the counselors in knowing more about you so that they can serve you better. The results are useful in helping you decide on a major field of study; whether or not you should plan on graduate school; and they help the college adjust the curriculum to meet the changing needs of students. The Dean of Faculty, Dean of Students, or the Chairman of the Division of Education and Psychology will be glad to go over your results with you after they are given to you.

How to Register

All students above the Freshman level will validate their registration in the library on Tuesday, September 24. Freshmen and new students will register in the library on Monday, September 23. Every student is assigned to a faculty advisor who will assist them in selecting their class schedule. A more detailed instruction sheet will be given you at the time of registration.

How to Change Registration

Late admission to classes because of registration changes made after the close of the first week of classes must be by petition to the Academic Committee, consent of the professor involved, and payment of a $3 fee.

How to Withdraw

A student who wishes to withdraw from a course must secure a change-of-course form from the registrar which is to be approved by the instructor involved, the registrar, and the bursar. If a course is dropped without permission, or if after the third week, a course in which he is not doing passing work is dropped, the student shall receive a "Failure" grade. A student may not withdraw from a course after the close of the sixth week of the term.

A student should realize that "quitting" does not constitute a withdrawal from college. He is required to inform the registrar of his intention to withdraw, and to fill out the withdrawal forms furnished by the registrar's office. Unless this is done the student may forfeit his right to clear transcript of credits and honorable dismissal.

How to Petition for Extra Hours

The proper balance of class work, co-curricular involvements and part-time work is extremely important. Your advisor will want to talk with you about any plans you have to take more than the 17½ units allowed normally. If G.P.A. is over 3.00, 18½ units may be allowed. Please note page 34 in the catalog for the policies covering this.

General Academic Regulations

Please read carefully pages 32 to 35 in the college catalog for other academic policies not mentioned here.

Finance and Finals

No student shall be allowed to receive the results of any of his final examinations or his grades until he has completed satisfactory financial arrangements for the payment of fines assessed following registration. All registration costs are due and payable under policies on page 27 of the catalog or as revised by the administration and board of trustees.

Class Attendance

The responsibility rests with the student to maintain good standards involving satisfactory scholarship. Regular class attendance is expected of each student in all courses. Professors set individual standards for achievement in their respective courses, and notify students of these requirements. Students should be present and prepared for daily participation in class discussions and quizzes, and well prepared for all exams. All projects should be completed according to established deadlines.

Permission to be absent from class for participation in co-curricular activities must be granted by the Dean of Faculty. In order to secure this permission get from the Dean of Faculty an ADVANCED ASSIGNMENT SLIP. He will record the dates you are to be absent from the class with the reason for the absence. You then record the classes you will be missing and get the assignment from each of these classes from the respective professors. When the work is completed, the professor will sign your Advanced Assignment Slip. After securing the signature of each professor involved, turn your slip to the Dean of Student's office to cover chapel absences. Such permission must be requested one week in advance of the anticipated activity, and turned to the Dean of Student's office completed one full day prior to departure for the co-curricular event.

Work lost because of any other absences may be made up only in the case of prolonged or confining illness, death of close relatives, or other similar emergency. See the Dean of Students for excuses for these kinds of absences.

Excused Absence Procedure—Illness

On-campus students:

In those rare cases when you believe you are too ill to attend classes, please follow this procedure. If at all possible, get up and go to breakfast, then see the nurse. See nurse's hours on Hall Policy Card. She will then help you make the decision regarding the health procedure best for you. If the nurse is unavailable, see the Dean of Women. For absence because of illness, the head residents, the Dean of Women, and the Dean of Students are the only ones who can excuse you from class with the privilege of making up any work missed. So, be sure and get the excuse slip signed by one of them before you return to class. After presenting the slip to each of your professors, leave the slip at the Dean of Students office to be excused from chapel absence.

Off-campus students:

If you are too ill to attend classes and need to make up the work missed, have your mother (or your wife or husband, or roommate, whichever one applies in your case) call the Dean of Students office and inform them before the absence is incurred. Then stop at the office later for the excuse slip and follow the same procedure listed above for on-campus students.

Exam Fee

For taking duly announced examination at other than the announced time for reasons approved by the Dean of Faculty (illness not included) a fee of $5 is charged for each such examination.

Lost and Found

One of our finest traditions is the honor of respecting the possessions of others. If you lose an article or if you find a stray article, report to the Dean of Students. Notice of lost and found items will appear in the Student Bulletin. All lost articles which are found may be retrieved from the Dean of Students office.

Mail Call

Those students living in Pennington and Edwards Halls may pick up their mail at the office in the lounge of each hall. All other students mail will be handled in the mail room in the basement of Wood-Mar Hall. For a fee of $.50 a year a student may rent a self-service box which is usually shared by two or three people. Arrangements to rent a box are made at the mail room.

Telephones

The college telephone system operated through the switchboard in Pennington Hall may be used by students for local calls provided they use those instruments provided for general use. This does not include the use of phones in faculty and administrative offices without the express permission of the one in charge of the office. All long distance calls placed by students must be placed from the pay phones provided in several locations on the campus.

Co-Curriculum and Eligibility

Those activities which are carried on in addition to academic studies are still considered a vital part of the GFC "experience." Because it is very important that a student not jeopardize his academic achievement by becoming too heavily involved in other activities, an eligibility standard is adhered to as follows:

1. Co-curricular activities as defined include all organized activities not directly connected with the requirements of a specific course of study. This includes inter-collegiate athletics, student government and club offices, acting in plays, inter-collegiate debate (for those not enrolled in a debate course), deputation work (except for that involving a single Sunday activity, e.g., teaching a Sunday School class), intra-murals, and other organized activities that may be formed.
2. A student must be enrolled in a minimum of 12 term hours to be eligible for participation in co-curricular activities.
3. Students who enter college provisionally may participate in co-curricular activities.
4. Regular students who drop below the performance level in any particular term (1.75 for lower classmen, 2.00 for upper classmen), will have their programs reviewed by the Academic Committee which is empowered to require curtailment of curricular, co-curricular or work activities, which, in consultation with the students, appears suitable in each case.

Library Procedures

1. The Librarians are here to assist you. Please do not hesitate to consult with them at any time. An awareness of the library hours will enable you to schedule your time more effectively. Please note these hours are posted in the library.
2. "Cross my palm with silver" if you happen to bring a Reserve Book in late, plan on bringing twenty-five cents for each hour overdue. If you are returning a two-weeks book, please bring five cents for each day overdue.
3. Reference Books (call number is preceded with "R") and early Quaker Books, and a few other books published before 1850 do not circulate.
4. Typing is permitted in the typing room on the second floor.
5. Periodicals do not circulate. They may be read in the library only.

6. Pamphlets may circulate for two weeks.
7. Records may not be taken home. They are played in the library or in the classroom (assignments vary). Any resulting damage will be charged to the student whose name appears on the book card.
8. All traffic flows past the main desk. Side and rear exits are for emergency use only.
9. You may sit any place to study in the library that is comfortable for you. When it is necessary for you to leave, please take your books along, or leave them in the shelves above the coat rack. One only at each carrel, (single study desk), please.
10. Art prints may be checked out for four weeks. Filmstrips do not circulate.
11. Telephone calls are not received for students, except in emergencies, a message can be left at the main desk.
12. A shelf is available at the entrance for personal books and belongings.
13. A music listening room is provided for records and radio, but class assignments take precedence.
14. A photocopier is available in the library. The cost is ten cents per page.

campus controls— a shared responsibility

Certain living standards are expected of you at college. These are given to you that you may know what others expect of you. Here you must assume responsibility for your adjustment to new living conditions. Because college situations differ from those at home in many instances, regulations are established and must be observed if you and those around you are to gain the most from their college life. Some basic principles guide all decisions made in relation to our manner of living on a Christian college campus. Every decision shall be based upon those principles which enhance our testimonies as consistent Christians. Parts of our system of Campus Controls are being developed and refined as needed, and officially announced whenever such changes are made.

Basic Principles

Students shall govern their activities in matters of residence hall living, adherence to established college regulations, obedience to those in authority, relations with those of the opposite sex in peer groups, choices of amusements and entertainment in accordance with college authorities' interpretation of Christian standards as they relate to our social setting.

The pledge each student signs stating that he will abide by college regulations shall be given as a serious commitment to a policy of willingness to relegate personal feelings and rights to a standard of submission to college regulations which will benefit the entire college community.

Observance to all college regulations shall be given in a spirit of Christian cooperation.

Expressions of complaint or concern about any general campus regulations shall be presented to the Campus Relations Committee as constructive criticism. Residence hall problems should be presented to the Hall Councils or the Interhall Council. This shall be the proper procedure for action on matters about which there is disagreement or concern for changes which are being made.

At all times students shall strive to maintain attitudes and standards of conduct which will be consistent with highest ideals of Christian living.

Campus Relations Committee

College students feel a desire for the responsibility for making decisions, and yet realize the need for careful guidance in governing themselves. In order to help meet these needs the Campus Relations Committee has been organized. This committee is responsible for its actions to the college administration through the Dean of Students, Dean of Women and various head residents. The committee shall be composed of students chosen as follows: three students from the senior class, two from the junior class, two from the sophomore class, and one from the freshman class. At least one of the senior students chosen must be an off-campus resident to represent the commuting students. Faculty representation on the committee shall consist of the Dean of Students, Dean of Women, Dean of Men, and a faculty representative.

The chairman of the committee shall be a student chosen by the members of the committee. The committee shall meet twice monthly.

The functions of the committee shall consist of hearing suggestions, complaints, recommendations; making recommendations to the administration, faculty or student government; establishing campus regulation in those matters which fall within its jurisdiction, and serving as a hearing committee for students who wish to appeal the action of the dorm court.

Student Affairs Committee

The purpose of this faculty committee is:

1. To plan the co-curricular activities in harmony with the college objectives.
2. To plan the co-curricular calendar.
3. To plan and edit the student handbook.
4. To plan the special events.
5. To consider student-faculty relations.
6. To consider matters affecting student life in the college community.
7. To be assisted by the following sub-committees: a. Campus relations; b. Deputation; c. Dining services; d. Financial Aids; e. Health services; f. Residential staff.
8. To represent the administration in working with student organizations.
9. To serve as a hearing committee for students who wish to appeal the disciplinary actions of the head residents or deans.

Residence Hall Councils

In each residence hall there shall be a council to aid in the administration of each of the residence halls. Each council shall consist of the head resident, assistants, and elected representatives from each living area within the hall. The representative shall be elected by the students in the residence hall and shall outnumber by at least two the number of assistants and head residents on the council. Each council shall aid in establishing residence hall regulations for their own hall in accordance with general regulations. Each council shall recommend disciplinary actions, consider suggestions and complaints, and make recommendations to the proper authorities.

Inter-Hall Council

The President and one other elected representative from each hall council and the Head Resident of each hall shall make up the Inter-Hall Council. This Council works to coordinate the activities and help find solutions for problems of the total resident campus. They shall meet monthly or on call by the chairman, a student member of the group elected by the group at its first meeting.

Dorm Courts

Dorm Courts are elected each year by students in Pennington and Edwards Halls to deal with violations of dorm hours and dorm disorders. Two representatives are to be selected from each floor. The Court then selects its own moderator to direct its actions. The students who participate in this responsible capacity must seek to fairly enforce the rules of the college without partiality and in a manner that insures due process. The Dorm Courts work under the guidance of the Dean of Students and in cooperation with the residential programs of the dormitories.

student honor and regulation at george fox college

Essential to any system of student honor and regulation is a statement of philosophy and direction. This preamble will outline our objectives, the assumptions we make regarding our students and our philosophy of discipline. The sections following this preamble are the practical expressions of our philosophy in campus guidelines, procedures for enforcement and due process.

A Statement of Philosophy

At George Fox College, we are committed to a Christo-centric approach to student honor and regulation. The dimensions of this program are distinctive in Christian higher education. Built into the very fabric of the universe are moral laws through which men are either built or broken, depending upon the quality of their behavior. The knowledge of this law was revealed to the Jews. However, this knowledge in itself was not sufficient to produce righteousness. The Jews in their futile attempts to fulfill the law greatly expanded it by adding restrictions for every conceivable occasion. Jesus Christ invaded this system of cramped legalism to show man the way to find true righteousness. He declared that man was not made righteous by high fences without, but by God's grace working within. Consistent with Christ's teaching, the restrictions we impose at George Fox College are not intended to make our students righteous, but only to enable them to live together in a Christian college. Our main objective is not merely student conformity to a minimum set of standards, but student maturity, resulting in the most responsible and constructive Christian behavior. We are convinced that this type of maturity is only realized by the grace of God working in our lives through the Holy Spirit. This confidence in God's grace and his work in the lives of men is foundational to our entire system of student honor and regulation. We have found that those who have experienced this grace by faith in Christ, and have allowed it to blossom into maturity not only "fulfill the law," but go beyond it in demonstrating His righteousness.

This system of honor and regulation at George Fox College is a unique blend of structure and freedom. As our president, Dr. Milo Ross has said, "We make a distinction between God's laws and man's laws in our structure of regulation at George Fox College. We treat with far greater seriousness those laws of God that are clearly expressed in the scriptures." These are supplemented with minimum essential rules to enable the students to live together in a Christian community with maximum personal freedom. We believe that an atmosphere of freedom is essential for young people to mature and learn to assume the responsibilities of adulthood. This freedom is an opportunity to evaluate, to choose and determine the direction of one's life. Without this type of freedom the achievement of maturity is impossible. With increased freedom comes increased personal responsibility. Students who prove incapable of handling this level of freedom will have their freedom reduced.

This entire program relies heavily on the guidance of head residents, assistants, deans, faculty members and local pastors. As these individuals succeed in the dorms, classrooms, chapel and churches in enabling students to reach this level of personal maturity in Christ our job is half done. Even in dealing with violators, there is opportunity for counseling regarding the subject of Christian responsibility. Counseling does not replace discipline, but it does prevent many students from going astray and thus requiring it.

Since George Fox College allows greater individual freedom than many Christian colleges, we are more selective in the students we accept and we expect more of them.

1. First we are convinced that students who are admitted to George Fox College are young men and women of integrity, young people whose word can be trusted. If we find that our confidence has been misplaced in that an individual has violated the rules he pledged to uphold, he will be given an opportunity to correct his behavior. If he fails to respond to this opportunity, steps will be taken to remove him from the college community, for the heart of any honor system is trust. When this confidence is compromised the system is jeopardized.

2. We believe that the students at GFC are mature young adults and we seek to grant them as much freedom and responsibility as possible within the traditions of the college. If, however, a student consistently demonstrates immature behaviour, he is communicating to us that he is not ready to handle this freedom, and he will be treated accordingly.

3. Since we assume that our students are mature we expect them to act like it when the rules they have pledged to follow are violated. We expect them to be honest enough to report their violation to the appropriate staff member. Special consideration will be given to students who demonstrate this level of maturity.

4. Our students are asked to join us in the important but difficult task of raising the level of personal and social responsibility on campus. When a student becomes aware of another student's violation of a regulation, we ask that he use his influence to discourage any further violation. If this doesn't work, we ask that the violator's name be referred to the Dean of Students. In areas of major violation, we ask that referral be made immediately to the Dean of Students. We solicit your cooperation at this level because it is not fair to the group when one member is permitted by his peers to live outside of the rules.

5. Essential to any community is a respect for the traditions of that community, and those in positions of authority who are responsible for these traditions. Students who attend George Fox College may not agree with all its traditions. We do insist, however, that they respect these traditions and the persons authorized to uphold them.

a philosophy of discipline

Purpose

1. The first reason we require discipline for all violations of rules at GFC is to prepare our students for the structured society they will soon be entering. These are the final formative years before they enter the adult community. It is, therefore, extremely important that they learn to accept the full consequences of their behavior. Society is not tolerant of procedures that are ignored or rules that are violated. We would, then, be less than fair to our students if we didn't insist on discipline for every violation of rules to prepare them to live responsibly in today's society.

2. A second and more obvious reason for insisting on discipline is deterrence. We believe that discipline for every violation will serve to deter both the individual and the group.

3. Finally, discipline will be administered in a way to compliment rather than disrupt the academic process.

Administration

1. Discipline is intended to deter not demean. All discipline will be administered in such a way as to not undermine a student's self respect. Fundamental to a Christian approach to correction is the realization that we are all "violators" before God. Therefore, we will be firm without being judgemental.

2. Discipline will be administered as outlined on the enclosed chart, in an attempt to maintain the highest possible level of consistency. Discipline will be given for every violation, with the possible exception of occasional "horseplay" in which there is no bodily injury or property damage.

3. Discipline will be administered with the utmost confidentiality. Only those directly involved will be informed of the violation or the discipline.

4. Discipline will be administered with as much objectivity as possible. We will seek to act in each case without regard to our personal feelings either positive or negative.

5. Since we are eager to encourage the development of personal responsibility, we encourage students to participate as fully as possible in putting back together a situation they have disrupted.

george fox college guidelines

The college expects its students to conduct themselves in a manner befitting young adults and in accordance with the finest traditions of a Christian school. In order that there be no misunderstanding of standards of personal and group behavior expected of our students, the system of control is fully discussed in the following paragraphs.

I. College Regulations

When a student enrolls at George Fox College he agrees in writing to comply fully with the regulations of the institution. These are designed to allow the individual the fullest liberty within the traditions of the college. Since its beginning, those who have carried the responsibility of George Fox College have agreed that its purpose could not be fulfilled, nor the best interests of its students served without placing a ban on the following:

- Use or possession of alcoholic beverages or hallucinatory drugs
- Immoral sexual behavior
- Use or possession of tobacco
- Possession of obscene literature
- Profane or obscene language
- Gambling
- Visiting the restricted areas of dormitories of the opposite sex without permission
- Dancing

II. Student Relations to Others

The college expects its students and student organizations to: (1) set and observe proper standards of conduct and good taste; (2) obey national, state and local laws; (3) respect the rights and privileges of other people and conduct themselves in a manner that reflects credit upon the college community.

GFC encourages collegians to reflect the highest Christian principles in their relations with the opposite sex.

Inappropriate display of affection in public is discouraged.

Any coed visitation in an off-campus dwelling, such as visitation to the apartment of a member of the opposite sex, is prohibited unless written parental authorization for both students is sent to the Dean of Women or Dean of Men prior to the visitation. Each visitation must be cleared with the deans in advance. The deans will meet with off-campus students each term to review regulations. Students are asked not to marry during a term, including vacations, without the consent of the administration. The administration believes that marriage during a unit of study is a hindrance to the best work of the students, and advises that such plans be postponed until the unit of study is completed. Students who do not follow this procedure will be asked to withdraw for the balance of the current term.

All relationships to others should reflect the principles of the golden rule. In view of this the following practices are strictly prohibited:

- Theft of other's property
- Hazing or personal injury of other students.

III. Campus Guidelines

Chapel Guidelines—Chapel attendance is required of all students enrolled in twelve or more credit hours. Chapels are held each Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, with Monday of each week being used for club meetings. It is the responsibility of the staff and students to make chapels as informative, inspiring and worthwhile as possible. Chapel seating is assigned and an attendance roll is maintained. Students needing permanent excuses on certain days for work or other reasons should petition through the dean of student's office.

If a freshman should miss 4; sophomore 6; junior 8; senior 10 chapels in one term without excuse he will be counseled by the Dean of Students and placed on probationary status for three weeks or until the end of the term, whichever occurs first. If under 21, his parents will also be notified of his probationary status. A student may be reinstated to eligibility status provided he has maintained perfect chapel attendance from the time he was declared probational until the end of the above stated period of time. If a student should miss chapel without excuse during or following the probationary period he will be called to appear before the Administrative Committee. They may recommend that at the close of the current term the student be asked to withdraw from college for one term. Such action will be entered on his official college transcript.

Motor Vehicle Guidelines—The operation of a car by a college student should be a carefully guarded privilege. Each student bringing a car to the campus must register it and must secure a permit for using it. This permit can be secured at the dean of student's office during registration. Every student enrolled in the college must:

1. Have a valid driver's license in his possession,
2. Oregon state minimum liability insurance must be in force,
3. The car must be in acceptable running condition, and
4. Payment of the campus operating permit fee of $5.00.

Faculty, seniors and visitors are the only ones permitted to drive cars through the crescent drive to Wood-Mar Hall. (1) The parking area by Wood-Mar is reserved for staff and visitors. (2) Student parking is provided in the Pennington Hall parking lot and streets adjacent to the campus. Students are requested to park on the college's side of these streets. (3) All parking along the drive between Edwards and Heacock Commons is reserved, except for loading and unloading. (4) All parking in the area north of Fine Arts II is reserved for juniors, seniors, staff and visitors. (5) The area south of the gym is reserved for maintenance staff and coaches. (6) No parking is permitted in the loading area behind the library. (7) Parking for Edwards Hall students is available across from Weesner and in the east end of the Pennington parking lot. (8) Parking for Weesner students is available immediately in front of the apartments. (9) Parking for Minthorn is available adjacent to the dorm. Students parking in the prohibited areas will be fined $1.00 by way of tickets. These fines are to be paid in the dean of student's office. No extensive repair work will be done by students on cars on campus without permission from the dean of students. All minor repair work and washing-waxing of cars must be done at the east end of the Pennington parking lot, except as otherwise designated.

IV. Clothing Guidelines

Students are expected to cooperate in maintaining the highest standards of propriety and modesty in attire worn for all occasions. The deans and/or head residents shall advise as to the propriety of all clothes and shall have jurisdiction to govern the decisions as to the suitability of clothes to be worn under any circumstances. The following information is guidelines for your use.

Definitions:

A. Grubbies—denoted as such apparel as cut-offs, levis (for girls), sweatshirts, T-shirts, dark blue denims. They may be worn only on Fridays from 1 p.m. through Saturday and during special times. They may not be worn in classes, laboratories, administration buildings, library, athletic games or downtown.

B. Dress sports clothes—denotes long dress slacks, capri trousers, neat tailored Bermuda shorts with good looking blouses or sweaters. May be worn: (1) When not in classes; (2) Evening meals; (3) In the library. They are not to be worn in the Administration Building.

V. Residence Guidelines

We sincerely welcome you to your George Fox College home. We hope that you will be comfortable and happy here. As young adults living together in a college community, we expect you to be considerate of those you live with and respectful to those in charge. The dormitories are designed for your enjoyment, and it is your responsibility to help us maintain the appearance of your residence hall.

Laundry areas and recreation rooms are provided for your convenience. The laundry room is not to be used after 11 p.m. in the evening or on Sunday.

The college nurse will be on duty daily in the Infirmary of Pennington Hall. Students desiring to visit another student in room isolation must secure the permission of the head resident.

It is the responsibility of the head residents and their assistants to give you a clear understanding of your opportunities for growth and the procedures of operation within residence hall. This will be done during freshman orientation week.

Permission to entertain guests overnight should be obtained before 9:30 p.m. on the evening the guests are expected.

Except for cases involving an approved group activity, such as choir tour, any student planning to stay away from the dormitory overnight must notify the head resident before departure. As indicated earlier, all coed overnight visitations must be approved in advance by the dean of women or dean of men.

Residence halls will be closed to student occupancy at the official beginning of any school vacation. On return from vacation, residence halls will be opened from 5 p.m. to closing the evening preceding the morning classes begin. Students will not be permitted to remain on campus during any vacation without the express permission of the administration. Only in cases in which such permission is granted, will the college assume responsibility for students during vacation periods.

Students leaving the Newberg area for any reason must sign out and indicate their destination. Your cooperation in this matter is essential. If your parents or others try to contact you, it is important that we can tell them where you can be located.

The hours from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m., Monday through Thursday are reserved for study with the exception of Wednesday night student prayer meeting. There is to be no noise on the floors during this time. From 9:30 to 10:30 the floors are to remain reasonably quiet, but students may visit in the halls. From 11 p.m.-7 a.m., Monday through Thursday, doors are to be shut and the halls are to be completely quiet.

Excessive disorders such as water fights are not permitted in the dormitories at any time. Women students must be in their respective halls after closing hours, 11:00 p.m. Monday through Thursday, 1:00 a.m. Friday, and 12:00 p.m. Saturday and Sunday.

Freshmen men must be in their respective halls by 12:00 p.m. Monday through Sunday, except 1:00 Friday night. There are no dorm hours for Sophomore, Junior or Senior men. Freshmen have three late leaves per term; sophomores and juniors are allowed six and seniors are unlimited. A late leave is permission to stay out one hour past closing hours. Permission must be obtained from the head residents in advance.

Students are prohibited from keeping pets in the dorms. There are to be no firearms in the dorms. They are to be kept in the storage rooms.

Guidelines for Honor Halls

George Fox College has two honor dorms: Edwards 3rd floor and Weesner Apartments for women. It is a privilege to live in these halls and this privilege is reserved only for the most mature students. The following is the criteria for applying to live in these facilities:

- A. The student must be an upper classman.
- B. He must be doing passing work academically. (If a resident of these halls is placed on provisional status academically, he may remain in the honor dorm one additional term. If he fails to get off provisional status the second term, he will be asked to return to the regular dorms.)
- C. The applicant must have demonstrated maturity as a student in George Fox College.

No men are permitted in the lounges of the Weesner Apartments except when cleared in advance with the dean of women. All other rules and procedures apply to students in honor dorms.

Guidelines for Off-Campus Living

Since George Fox is a residential college, all single students are encouraged to live on campus. For those who find it necessary to apply to live off-campus, the following procedure must be followed:

- A. Students over twenty-one wishing to live off-campus must apply to the dean of students prior to moving.
- B. Students who are not twenty-one must petition to the dean of students in writing prior to moving. Generally, students under twenty-one will not be allowed to move off campus unless they are mature and have proven need. The only causes usually recognized are extreme financial need, or disabilities requiring special care. These petitions will be acted on by the administrative committee. Off-campus students must promise in writing to subscribe to the same traditions and regulations followed by the students on campus. Any failure to comply authorizes the college to have the student move back on campus. It is the responsibility of the student to keep the college informed of his current address. It is especially important that off-campus students protect their freedom by clearing in advance any co-ed visitation in their apartment (following the procedure outlined earlier) and by asking that any guests refrain from any practices in their apartment not in keeping with the college traditions.

VI. Guidelines Regarding Campus Property

Students will be responsible for any damage to campus property. In the residence hall students are not to make any structural changes, or remove or redecorate the furniture. Tacks, nails or scotch tape are not to be used on doors or walls. Students are not allowed on the roofs or ledges of the dorms. The residence halls will be checked at the end of every term for property damage. The occupants of any room where property damage is found (other than caused by general wear and tear) will forfeit the appropriate amount of their breakage deposit to repair the damage.

If there is damage to a specific floor and those responsible fail to come forward, the entire floor will forfeit the required amount to repair the damage.

VII. Guidelines Regarding Fire Protection

The college is concerned that we comply with local fire ordinances, fire insurance regulations and provide for the safety of the entire college community. In view of this, the following regulations will be enforced:

- There is to be no tampering with any of the fire protection equipment from fire alarms to fire extinguishers. Any violation, will result in an automatic $25.00 fine.
- Fireworks or explosives are not to be used. Any violation will result in a $5.00 fine.
- The following appliances may not be used in the dorm rooms: cooking devices of any kind, extension cords, electric shocking devices, irons, installed gas or electric appliances. Any violation will result in a $5.00 fine.

due process at gfc

1. This process will be followed to insure the rights of every student. At the point a violation is reported or discovered an incident report form is filled out in four copies and given to the disciplinary agent listed on the chart. The student will then be called in for a hearing.
2. If the student's statements differ from the original report, his statement will be added to all four copies of the incident report form. Information will be collected as fully as possible from all sources in order to shed as much light as possible on the situation. To obtain information the college reserves the right to search dorm rooms when it is authorized in writing by the administration. Students involved will be informed in advance of the search.
3. The burden of proof rests on the administration in each case.
4. The student is to be considered innocent until proven guilty.
5. The student is entitled to obtain counsel, produce witnesses and testify in his own behalf if he chooses.
6. Sufficient evidence must be produced to prove guilt beyond reasonable doubt.
7. Records should be kept on all hearings and major hearings should be taped.
8. The decision of the disciplinary agent is final, subject only to a student's right to appeal. The student will receive one copy of the incident report form confirming the disciplinary action. If this discipline is not completed by the date stipulated on the form, the remaining amount will automatically be doubled.
9. Appeals will be handled by one of two hearing committees:
 - A. The Student Affairs Committee will hear all appeals regarding discipline ordered by the head residents or the deans.
 - B. The Campus Relations Committee will hear all appeals regarding discipline ordered by the dorm courts. The primary concern of these committees is to insure that students are treated equitably within the structure of our written regulations even if this means overruling an earlier judgment. The student's final recourse is direct appeal to the president of the college.

10. Students will be informed of their rights at GFC and their cases will be handled speedily.

Our food service is contracted to SAGA, a well-known firm on college campuses. All meals are cafeteria style, with the exception of Wednesday evening and Sunday noon which will be served family style.

We take our meals at the hours posted in the dining hall. Form the ON TIME habit, for tardiness is not permitted except for emergencies. If it is necessary to be excused early from a meal served family style, please make advance arrangements with the dining hall hostess. If it is necessary to eat early at any time, permission must be secured from the Dean of Students or head resident. Constructive criticisms and suggestions should be made to the Student Host, the Host or Hostess or to a member of the Dining Services Advisory Committee.
