PLU, Whitman are Upset Victims;

Friday night volleyball round-up

Pacific Lutheran – Whitworth

Whitworth put a serious crimp in the Northwest Conference volleyball championship plans of Pacific Lutheran, beating the host Lutes, 15-8, 16-18, 17-15, 7-15, 15-11 on Friday night at Olson Auditorium.

Whitworth improved to 7-7 in the NWC and 10-13 overall, while PLU fell to 10-3, 16-5. The Lutes are now one full game back of conference-leading Willamette with three NWC counters left to play. PLU hosts Whitman Saturday, while Whitworth travels to Puget Sound.

The visiting Pirates jumped all over the Lutes in the first game, recording 17 kills and a .444 hitting percentage. Five different Whitworth players had three kills in the game. The Lutes rallied for a hard-fought win in game two, then raced out to a 6-0 lead in the third game and later led 14-11. Whitworth battled back to knot the score at 15-15 on a kill by Krista Henning and eventually won the game on a kill by Jill Vaughn.

Pacific Lutheran seemed to regain the crucial momentum, dominating the Pirates with a 15-7 victory in the fourth game. That set the stage for rally scoring in the fifth game, where a point is scored for every kill or side out. Whitworth surged ahead 10-7 and looked ready to take a 13-10 lead on a kill by Kristen Turner, except that her vicious hit bounced off the foot of PLU's Mandy Flores, and the Lutes eventually won the point. No matter to the Pirates, who got the ball right back on a kill by Abby Jo Hornstein. The Pirates eventually won when Suzanne Beauchene's kill attempt went long for PLU.

Puget Sound – Whitman:

The Loggers of the University of Puget Sound pulled off the upset Friday night in Northwest Conference volleyball action handing the Missionaries of Whitman College just their fourth loss in NWC play. The Loggers earned the four-game victory 11-15, 15-13, 15-10, 15-2.

The Missionaries were on a roll coming into tonight's play with four wins in a row and victories in six of their last seven matches. The Loggers snapped a three-match losing streak with the win after a slow start in game one losing 15-11. However, Puget Sound rallied after a slow start in game two to win 15-13. In game three the Loggers powered to a 13-1 advantage but the Missionaries fought back to 13-10 before Puget Sound put the final two points on the board. In game four the Loggers jumped all over Whitman with a 15-2 win as Karen Thomas scored five straight points on service and Anna Marsh finished things off with three straight aces.

Eileen Gamache led the Logger hitting attack with 17 kills but three other players were also in double digits in kills. The Missionaries Valerie Hamm was outstanding with 17 kills in 44 attempts and just 5 errors.

George Fox – Linfield:

George Fox University's "twin terrors" from Salem struck again.

Outside hitter Sharon Barnett hit .500 with 12 kills and middle blocker Beth Davis hit .429 with 11 kills, leading the Bruins to a 15-6, 15-2, 15-8 win over the Linfield College Wildcats in Northwest Conference women's volleyball action Friday night here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

After taking the first game, the Bruins fell behind 2-0 in the second and then reeled off 15 unanswered points to win the game. The Bruins added four more points in the early stages of the third game before the Wildcats finally snapped the 19-point skein.

As a team, the Bruins hit .384, with 47 kills and only nine errors in 99 attacks, completely reversing their performance in a four-set loss to Linfield earlier in the season in McMinnville in which they had more errors than kills.

The win improved the Bruins to 17-6 overall and 10-3 in the NWC, moving them within one game of first-place Willamette University, which stands at 11-2 in the league and was idle Friday.
