TONIGHT'S GAME

Tonight's contest with Northwest Nazarene is the last home game of the year for the Bruins who own a 10 of 11 record in Hester Gym. With a 17-5 record, the best in NAIA District 2, George Fox takes on the Crusaders who are 12-10 on the season. George Fox in its last game Saturday drubbed Lewis-Clark State 97-69, while NNC stopped Warner Pacific 81-77. Over the last eight years of competition, the Crusaders hold a 10-5 advantage over the Bruins.

With their best season ever, the Bruins are outscoring opponents by 9.2 points, averaging 84.1 points to 74.9 of those they've played, are shooting at a .480 percent pace from the floor to lead the district, and are outrebounding opponents 43.3 to 42.5. Paul Cozens, the district's top rebounder, is averaging 10 rebounds a game and leading the team in shooting with a 19.3 average, the highest ever for a Bruin. He's followed in point production by Tim Hardie at 13.0 and Dave Adrian at 12.6. Tom Hewitt continues to produce assists at a record pace of 5.23 a game.
