10/25 – WILLAMETTE 2, GEORGE FOX 1 (2 OT): Bruins Fall in OT to 6th-Ranked Bearcats for Second Time

SALEM, Ore. – For the second time this season and third time in the last four meetings, the George Fox University Bruins pushed the nationally-ranked Willamette University Bearcats to extra periods, but the Bruins were thwarted in their upset bid once again as the Bearcats escaped with a 2-1 double-overtime win in Northwest Conference women's soccer Saturday afternoon here at Sparks Field.

Conference scoring leader Brooke Erickson put George Fox on top at the 15:34 mark when she fired in a shot from the top of the box with an assist from Kiersten Luginbill. It was Erickson's 14th goal of the season, one short of the GFU single-season record of 15 set by Karli Holub in 1998.

Anne Merten tied the game for the Bearcats with a penalty kick at the 56:32 mark. Despite a large advantage in shots (30-11 for the game, 8-0 in overtime), the Bearcats were turned away constantly by goalie Stacey Ozga, who recorded a career-high 16 saves in the match.

Finally, just over two minutes into the second overtime, Joey Muchlinski hit a long pass from the right side of the field to Nicole Dahl as she streaked to the far post. Dahl chested the ball into the goal at 112:18, enabling the Bearcats to avoid a major upset and stretching their unbeaten home winning streak to 70 in a row.

George Fox dropped to 3-11-1 overall and 1-9 in the conference, while 6th-ranked Willamette improved to 13-1-1 overall and 8-1-1 in the league.

The Bruins visit Linfield College and the Bearcats host Pacific University Sunday morning at 11 a.m., followed by men's games at 1:30 p.m.

COACH ANDY HETHERINGTON (St. John's, England '76) is 4-27-1 (.141) in his 2nd season as a college coach, all at George Fox. He was 123-20-5 in 10 seasons as a high school coach before becoming only the second coach in George Fox women's soccer history, which began in 1991. Against this week's opponents, he is 1-2 vs. Pacific Lutheran (1-1 in Newberg, 0-1 in Tacoma), and 0-3 vs. Puget Sound (0-2 in Newberg, 0-1 in Tacoma).

BRUIN BITS:

 Bearcats Bring Out the Best in Bruins

For all their struggles to win games the last couple of years, the George Fox Bruins have, for the most part, remained competitive with their Northwest Conference rivals – particularly Willamette. The Bearcats, year in and year out a national top 10 team, have played the Bruins four times in the two years that Andy Hetherington has coached the George Fox program – and three of the four have gone into overtime, two of them into double overtime! The Bruins lost to the Bearcats this year by scores of 4-3 in overtime and 2-1 in double overtime.

"The first time we played Willamette last year, we were just very lucky," admits Hetherington. "They out-shot us something like 50 to 3, and had shots going wide, hitting off the posts, everything – they just couldn't finish. This year, we have been much more competitive, and while they are still a superior team that is among the best in the country, we believe we're narrowing the gap, not just with Willamette but with every other team in the conference. That was one of our primary goals this year, to close that gap."

 Erickson Moves within One of Tying Single-Season Goals Record

With a goal in the Bruins' 2-1 double-overtime loss at Willamette on Oct. 25, George Fox forward Brooke Erickson (Sr., Vancouver, Wash. / Skyview HS) has moved within one goal of tying the school record for most goals in a season: 15 by Karli Holub in 1998. Erickson's 14th goal of the year gave the Bruins an early 1-0 lead against the 6th-ranked Bearcats and boosted her into sole possession of the conference lead in goals scored. She will have three more chances to tie or break the record: Nov. 1 at Pacific Lutheran, Nov. 2 at #9 Puget Sound, and Nov. 8 at home vs. Pacific.

 Bruins in NWC Stats (thru Oct. 26): Erickson in Goals, Ozga in Saves Still No. 1

Team:

George Fox is 1st in Saves (139, 8.69), 5th in Goals per game (2.12), 6th in Points (95), Shots (212, 13.25), Goals (34, 2.12), Assists (27, 1.69) and Assists per game (1.69), 8th in Goals Allowed (41, 2.56) ...

Individual:

Forward Brooke Erickson is 1st in Goals (14, 0.88), Shots (65, 4.06), 4th in Points (28), 5th in Points per game (1.75) ...

Goalkeeper Stacey Ozga (Fr., Shelton, Wash. / Shelton HS) is 1st in Saves (138, 8.62) ...

Forward Monique Weaver (Fr., Salem, Ore. / Blanchet Catholic HS) is 10th in Points per game (1.31) and Goals per game (0.54) ...

 Career Lists: Erickson Gains Slightly on 2nd Place in Goals and Points

Brooke Erickson's goal in a 2-1 double-overtime loss at Willamette on Oct. 25 gives her 28 career goals and 63 career points, both 3rd all-time at George Fox. In 2nd in both categories is Gegi Bonera (32 goals, 79 points, 1992-95). No. 1 is Karli Holub (42 goals, 102 points, 1998-2000).

 2003 Honors:

Monique Weaver – Northwest Conference Offensive Player of the Week (Sept. 8-14)

Brooke Erickson - Northwest Conference Offensive Player of the Week (Oct. 6-12)

 Records Set or Tied by 2003 Bruins:

LAST WEEK'S GAMES – 0-2 (Recaps):

10/25 – WILLAMETTE 2, GEORGE FOX 1 (2 OT): Bruins Fall in OT to 6th-Ranked Bearcats for Second Time

SALEM, Ore. – For the second time this season and third time in the last four meetings, the George Fox University Bruins pushed the nationally-ranked Willamette University Bearcats to extra periods, but the Bruins were thwarted in their upset bid once again as the Bearcats escaped with a 2-1 double-overtime win in Northwest Conference women's soccer Saturday afternoon here at Sparks Field.

Conference scoring leader Brooke Erickson put George Fox on top at the 15:34 mark when she fired in a shot from the top of the box with an assist from Kiersten Luginbill (Fr., Caledonia, Ill. / Christian Life HS). It was Erickson's 14th goal of the season, one short of the GFU single-season record of 15 set by Karli Holub in 1998.

Anne Merten tied the game for the Bearcats with a penalty kick at the 56:32 mark. Despite a large advantage in shots (30-11 for the game, 8-0 in overtime), the Bearcats were turned away constantly by goalie Stacey Ozga, who recorded a career-high 16 saves in the match.

Finally, just over two minutes into the second overtime, Joey Muchlinski hit a long pass from the right side of the field to Nicole Dahl as she streaked to the far post. Dahl chested the ball into the goal at 112:18, enabling the Bearcats to avoid a major upset and stretching their unbeaten home winning streak to 70 in a row.

10/26 – LINFIELD 2, GEORGE FOX 0: Wildcats Snap Six-Game Losing Streak with Victory over Bruins

McMINNVILLE, Ore. – Putting an end to its recent funk, the Linfield College Wildcats snapped a six-game losing slide with a 2-0 Northwest Conference women's soccer victory over their Yamhill County rivals, the George Fox University Bruins, here Sunday at the Linfield soccer stadium.

In the 24th minute, Wildcats forward Kathleen Wochnick fired a shot from 25 yards out that found the back of the net. Bruins goalkeeper Stacey Ozga dove to make the block and but missed, and the ball zipped into the right corner. Wochnick's goal, her 14th of the year, equaled the Linfield single-season goals record set last season by Bryn Devlin and tied Bruins forward Brooke Erickson for the goals scored lead in the conference.

In the 70th minute, Wochnick took a pass from Mindy Smith and centered it to Kelly Ping, whose shot from three yards out slipped into the upper right side of the net for Linfield's second goal.

George Fox had 9 shots to Linfield's 18, with 4 on goal to 11 for the Wildcats. Both teams ended the match with 5 corner kicks. Ozga had 9 saves while Goodling totaled 4 stops to collect the shutout.

The Bruins are now 3-12-1 overall and 1-10 in the conference, while the Wildcats improved to 9-7 overall and 4-7 in the league.

11/8 – PACIFIC 2, GEORGE FOX 1: Erickson Ties Bruin Scoring Record but Boxers Win Season Finale

NEWBERG, Ore. – In a “battle of the Brookes”, George Fox University’s Brooke Erickson tied the Bruins’ single-season record with her 15th goal, but Pacific University’s Brooke Hayashi scored twice to lead the Boxers to a 2-1 win in the women’s soccer season finale for both teams Saturday here at Morse Field.

Pacific struck quickly, scoring on its first possession only 1:39 into the game. Karley Peterson drove down the right side, cut toward the middle, and passed to Hayashi, who hammered one straight in from 5 yards out. It was the same Peterson-to-Hayashi combination on a similar play just over 10 minutes later, Hayashi scoring her 3rd goal of the season at 12:07 for a 2-0 Pacific lead that stood well into the second half.

George Fox controlled the action most of the second half, out-shooting the Boxers 13-4 in the final 45 minutes, but could only get one goal home. Erickson countered on a driving shot from 8 yards away at 78:02 off a feed from Kiersten Luginbill, her 15th goal tying (at least momentarily) with Linfield’s Kathleen Wochnick for most goals in the conference. The goal also tied her with Karli Holub in 1998 for most goals in a season by a women’s soccer player at George Fox.

Erickson, the Bruins’ lone senior, finished her career with 29 goals and 65 points, both totals ranking 3rd on the all-time charts at George Fox.

The Bruins ended with 19 shots (12 on goal) to 9 (5 on goal) for the Boxers. Shannon Tillman saved 11 shots for Pacific while Stacey Ozga had 3 for George Fox.

The Bruins end their season with a 3-15-1 overall record and 1-13 in the conference, while the Boxers are through at 11-8-1 overall and 6-7-1 in league play.

10/26 – LINFIELD 2, GEORGE FOX 0: Wildcats Snap Six-Game Losing Streak with Victory over Bruins

McMINNVILLE, Ore. – Putting an end to its recent funk, the Linfield College Wildcats snapped a six-game losing slide with a 2-0 Northwest Conference women's soccer victory over their Yamhill County rivals, the George Fox University Bruins, here Sunday at the Linfield soccer stadium.

In the 24th minute, Wildcats forward Kathleen Wochnick fired a shot from 25 yards out that found the back of the net. Bruins goalkeeper Stacey Ozga dove to make the block and but missed, and the ball zipped into the right corner. Wochnick's goal, her 14th of the year, equaled the Linfield single-season goals record set last season by Bryn Devlin and tied Bruins forward Brooke Erickson for the goals scored lead in the conference.

In the 70th minute, Wochnick took a pass from Mindy Smith and centered it to Kelly Ping, whose shot from three yards out slipped into the upper right side of the net for Linfield's second goal.

George Fox had 9 shots to Linfield's 18, with 4 on goal to 11 for the Wildcats. Both teams ended the match with 5 corner kicks. Ozga had 9 saves while Goodling totaled 4 stops to collect the shutout.

The Bruins are now 3-12-1 overall and 1-10 in the conference, while the Wildcats improved to 9-7 overall and 4-7 in the league.

The Bruins travel to Tacoma next weekend, taking on Pacific Lutheran University Saturday (Nov. 1), while the Wildcats host Whitman College Saturday. Both games start at 11:00 a.m., followed by men's games at 1:30 p.m.

11/2 – PUGET SOUND 2, GEORGE FOX 0: Loggers Close In on NWC Title with Win over Bruins

TACOMA, Wash. – Pushing their unbeaten home winning streak to 40 and moving one step closer to a Northwest Conference title, the 5th-ranked University of Puget Sound Loggers scored a 2-0 win over the visiting George Fox University Bruins in women's soccer action here Sunday.

The loss drops the Bruins to 3-14-1 overall and 1-12 in the conference, while the win moves the Loggers to 15-1-1 overall and 11-1-1 in the conference. Puget Sound led Willamette 31-29 in points in the NWC standings coming into the game, and can nail down the crown next Saturday against Pacific Lutheran University at home.

Puget Sound forward Elizabeth Pitman recorded both goals for the Loggers. Pitman struck just 1:50 into the match, tucking her right-footed strike from 8 yards out just inside the right post to give the Loggers a 1-0 lead. Jenna Dwiggins and Lea John assisted on the play. That lead held until 82:23, when Pitman recovered a Cortney Kjar shot and placed the rebound into an open net to make it a 2-0 final.

The Loggers out-shot the Bruins 15-2 and led in corners 5-0. Erin Williams recorded only one save in 90 minutes in goal for Puget Sound. Stacy Ozga made 4 saves in a losing cause for George Fox.

The Bruins host Pacific University in their season finale Saturday (Nov. 8) while the Loggers entertain PLU, both matches at 11:00 a.m., followed by men's contests at 1:30 p.m.

10/19 – WHITWORTH 3, GEORGE FOX 2: 23rd-Ranked Pirates Pull Out Narrow Victory over Bruins

NEWBERG, Ore. – Katy Jones scored two goals, including a 2-2 tie-breaker with 30 minutes left in the game, and the 23rd-ranked Whitworth College Pirates made it stand up for a 3-2 win over the George Fox University Bruins in a Northwest Conference women's soccer match Sunday afternoon (Oct. 18) here at Morse Field.

Both teams scored early in battling to a 1-1 halftime standoff. Jones scored on a header off a cross from the left by Ashley Fisk after a throw-in by Ashley Troxel just 3:13 into the game, and the Bruins tied it 10 minutes later as Jill Steinfeld leaped high over a crowd to head in a corner kick from Kiersten Luginbill at 13:42.

George Fox took a short-lived lead only 1:17 into the second half when Emily Atkinson drove down the right side, crossed over into the middle, and shot one into the left corner of the net from 15 yards out. The Pirates responded 43 seconds later as Sale took a shot from the right side of the penalty box that was deflected by Bruin keeper Stacey Ozga, but Rachel Leavitt tapped in the rebound to knot it at 2-2.

Whitworth got the winner at 59:30 when Sale picked up her second assist, sending a short pass from the middle to Jones coming in from the left, and she drilled it home into the left side of the goal.

The Pirates controlled play by taking 28 shots (16 on goal) to only 9 (4 on goal) for the Bruins. Ozga kept it close by recording a career-high 13 saves for the third time this season. Jenn Miller had two saves in goal for Whitworth and got the win.

George Fox is now 3-10-1 overall and 1-8 in the conference, while Whitworth improves to 11-3 overall and 6-3 in league play.

The Bruins travel to Salem next Saturday (Oct. 25) to challenge 6th-ranked Willamette University at 12:00 noon (this is a change from the originally-scheduled time of 11:00 a.m.). The Pirates visit Pacific Lutheran University Saturday at 11:00 a.m. Both games will be followed by men's games.

10/18 – WHITMAN 2, GEORGE FOX 1: Missionaries' Win over Bruins a Real "Longshot"

NEWBERG, Ore. – Hillary Chisholm sent a high, arching shot from the left sideline 30 yards away from the goal that sailed over the head of George Fox University keeper Stacey Ozga and into the right corner of the net with 3:50 to play, giving the visiting Whitman College Missionaries an remarkable 'longshot' victory over the Bruins in a Northwest Conference women's soccer match Saturday afternoon (Oct. 18) here at Morse Field.

Defense held sway in the first half as the two teams battled to a 0-0 deadlock. George Fox broke the scoreless duel at 62:37 when Emily Atkinson headed in her 3rd goal of the season off a corner kick from Kiersten Luginbill.

Whitman knotted the game just over two minutes later at 64:51 as Katey Schmitz crossed a ball from deep in the right corner into the middle, where Sammie Arthur's shot was deflected by Ozga, but the keeper could not control the ball and the shot spun into the net. It was Arthur's 9th goal of the season.

The winner came on a throw-in from Emily Marshall to the feet of Chisholm, who was unguarded and looped her pop fly into the net over a backpedaling Ozga for her 1st goal of the year. The Missionaries then ran out the clock to complete a season sweep of the Bruins.

The contest was virtually a draw in almost every aspect, George Fox out-shooting Whitman 13-11, Bruin keeper Ozga making 7 saves to 6 for the Missionaries' Annie Owen, and each team had 3 corner kicks. The Bruins missed golden opportunities to score when headers by Brooke Erickson and Jill Steinfeld hit the upper crossbar, while the Missionaries capitalized in the second half by hitting 2 goals on only 3 shot attempts.

George Fox fell to 3-9-1 overall and 1-7 in the conference with the hard-luck loss, while Whitman improved to 9-4 overall and 5-3 in the league.

The Bruins host Whitworth College and the Missionaries visit Pacific University Sunday (Oct. 19), both games at 12:00 noon, followed by men's games at 2:30 p.m.

10/12 – GEORGE FOX 4, PACIFIC LUTHERAN 1: Erickson's Four Goals Lift Bruins to First NWC Win

NEWBERG, Ore. – Brooke Erickson scored all four goals for her team as the George Fox University Bruins posted their first Northwest Conference win of the 2003 season, a 4-1 victory over the visiting Pacific Lutheran University Lutes, in women's soccer action Sunday afternoon (Oct. 12) here at muddy Morse Field.

Erickson scored her first goal at 32:46 with a shot into the left corner of the net after a crossing pass from the left side of the penalty box by Monique Weaver. The Bruins took a 2-0 lead into the half after Erickson scored again at 42:55, this one a shot to the middle of the net off a cross from the right sideline by Lindsay Jacobs.

Pacific Lutheran cut the margin to one with a second-half goal by Brita Lider, her 5th of the season, off a throw-in from the left by Breann Vanden Bos at 64:41. But with the Lutes playing everyone forward to try to get the tying goal, Erickson scored on breakaways with shots past PLU backup keeper Jenny Ironside at 83:57 and 89:26.

Erickson now has 13 goals on the season, tied for the 3rd-best single season total in the Bruins' 13-year history. Only all-time goals leader Karli Holub has had higher numbers, with 15 in 1998, 14 in 1999, and 13 in 2000.

The Bruins played a highly-efficient offensive game, taking 11 shots, 8 on goal, and scoring on half of them. The Lutes took 25 shots, 14 on goal, but only scored once as Bruin keeper Stacey Ozga tied her career high with 13 saves.

George Fox, snapping a six-game losing streak, is now 3-8-1 overall and 1-6 in the conference, while Pacific Lutheran slips to 6-7 overall and 2-5 in the league.

The Bruins return to action Saturday (Oct. 18), hosting Whitman College at 12:00 noon. The Lutes entertain Willamette University Saturday at 12:00 noon. Both will be followed by men's games at 2:30 p.m.

11/1 – PACIFIC LUTHERAN 3, GEORGE FOX 0: Stingy Lute Defense Denies Bruins Any Hope of Victory

TACOMA, Wash. - Alyssa Burleson scored two goals and the Pacific Lutheran University defense allowed just three shots - none on goal - as the Lutes avenged an earlier loss to the George Fox University Bruins with a 3-0 Northwest Conference women's soccer victory here Saturday on the PLU field.

Burleson scored on a penalty kick at the 27:03 mark of the first half for a 1-0 PLU lead. The penalty kick was awarded after Jill Steinfeld was issued a red card for deliberately deflecting a shot by Maja Pedersen with her right hand.

George Fox, which defeated PLU 4-1 earlier in the season, is now 3-13-1 overall and 1-11 in the conference, while the Lutes evened their record at 9-9 overall and 5-7 in NWC games.

George Fox is at the University of Puget Sound and Pacific Lutheran hosts Pacific University on Sunday in Northwest Conference games. Both contests start at 11:00 a.m., followed by men's games at 1:30 p.m.

10/11 – PUGET SOUND 2, GEORGE FOX 0: Kjar Carries 9th-Ranked Loggers Past Pesky Bruins

NEWBERG, Ore. – Courtney Kjar scored the first goal of the game and assisted on the second, leading the University of Puget Sound Loggers to a 2-0 win over the George Fox University Bruins in a Northwest Conference women's soccer match Saturday afternoon (Sept. 28) here at soggy Morse Field.

Puget Sound, ranked 9th in the latest AVCA/NCAA Division III national poll, got on the board at the 26:20 mark in the first half when Kjar dribbled in from the right side, drew out Bruin goalkeeper Stacey Ozga, and put a shot into the left corner. The Loggers got their second score at 38:38 on Kjar's corner kick from the left into the middle, where Tera Anderson booted it home.

The Loggers controlled the action for the most part, getting 26 shots to 6 for the homestanding Bruins. Ozga kept the score from being worse by making 13 saves, a career high. Amy Quandt had 2 saves to get the win and Erin Williams 4 in the second half for Puget Sound.

The Bruins fell to 2-8-1 overall with their 6th straight loss and 0-6 in the conference, while the Loggers improved to 9-1 overall and 5-1 in league play.

George Fox hosts Pacific Lutheran University and Puget Sound goes to Pacific University Sunday (Oct. 12), both games at 12:00 noon followed by men's games at 2:30 p.m.

BRUIN BITS:

 Erickson NWC Offensive Player of the Week; Ozga Honorable Mention on Defense:

Forward Brooke (Pitner) Erickson (Sr., Vancouver, Wash. / Skyview HS) was named Northwest Conference Offensive Player of the Week for Oct. 6-12 after moving into the conference lead in goals scored. After being closely marked and getting only 2 shots on Saturday in a 2-0 loss to 9th-ranked Puget Sound, she broke loose on Sunday to score all four George Fox goals in the Bruins' 4-1 win over Pacific Lutheran. She had 2 first-half goals off passes to the middle to give the Bruins a 2-0 first-half lead, then iced the contest with 2 breakaway solo goals in the final six minutes. Erickson's 13 goals this season now lead the league by one, and are only two short of the Bruins' single-season best of 15 by Karli Holub in 1998.

Goalkeeper Stacey Ozga (Fr., Shelton, Wash. / Shelton HS) had 26 saves in 2 games to receive Honorable Mention for NWC Defensive Player of the Week Game for the week of Oct. 6-12. She recorded her career high in saves with 13 in each game, a 2-0 loss to 9th-ranked Puget Sound and a 4-1 win over Pacific Lutheran, the Bruins'

first NWC win of the season. NWC Defensive Player of the Week honors went to Jenn Miller of Whitworth, who helped the Pirates to shutouts of over Linfield and Willamette with 6 saves.

 Erickson's 4 Goals One Short of Single-Game Record – Set This Year!:

When Brooke Erickson scored 4 goals in the Bruins' 4-1 win over Pacific Lutheran on Oct. 12, she fell one goal short of tying the George Fox record for most goals in one game set, ironically, this year by teammate Monique Weaver. In an 11-0 win at Cascade on Sept. 9, Erickson played only part of the first half as the Bruins built up a big lead. Weaver entered the game as a substitute for Shannon Miles and proceeded to score 5 goals and pick up an assist, setting records for most goals and most points (11) in a game. Two other Bruins have scored 4 goals and had 8 points, the previous records, in a game: Julie Jensen at Linfield (10/28/91) and Gegi Bonera at Western Baptist (10/13/93).

 Career Lists: Erickson Moves Up to 3rd in Total Points:

Forward Brooke Erickson scored 4 goals in the Bruins' 4-1 win over Pacific Lutheran on Oct. 12, enabling her to move into 3rd place on the Bruins' all-time total points list. She now has 61 points and passed Staci Morris (54, 1994-97). She was already 3rd in career goals, and now has 27. Ahead in both categories is Gegi Bonera (32 goals and 79 points, 1992-95).

 Single-Season Marks Being Challenged:

Brooke Erickson has 13 goals this season, tied for the 3rd-best single-season total in Bruin women's soccer history. Only all-time scoring leader Karli Holub has done better (15 in 1998, 14, in 1999, 13 in 2000). Her 26 total points are tied with Gegi Bonera (26 in 1993) for the 6th-best in a season ... Monique Weaver has 7 goals this season, tied for the 10th-best season number, and her 17 points is tied for 14th-best in a season ... Jill Steinfeld and Lindsay Jacobs have 4 assists apiece, tied for the 10th-best mark in a season ...

 Bruins in NWC Stats (thru Oct. 12)

Team:

George Fox is 1st in Saves (94, 7.83), 4th in Points per game (7.00), Goals per game (2.50), 5th in Points (84), Goals (30, T), 6th in Shots (170, 14.17), Assists (24, 2.00), 8th in Goals Allowed (32, 2.67) ...

Individual:

Forward Brooke Erickson is 1st in Goals (13, 1.08), Shots (51, 4.25), 2nd in Points (26, T), 3rd in Points per game (2.17, T) ...

Goalkeeper Stacey Ozga is 1st in Saves (93, 7.75) ...

Forward Monique Weaver is 5th in Goals per game (0.78, T), 8th in Points per game (1.89), 9th in Goals (7, T) ...

 2003 Honors:

Monique Weaver – Northwest Conference Offensive Player of the Week (Sept. 8-14)

LAST WEEK'S GAMES – 1-1 (Recaps):

10/11 – PUGET SOUND 2, GEORGE FOX 0: Kjar Carries 9th-Ranked Loggers Past Pesky Bruins

NEWBERG, Ore. – Courtney Kjar scored the first goal of the game and assisted on the second, leading the University of Puget Sound Loggers to a 2-0 win over the George Fox University Bruins in a Northwest Conference women's soccer match Saturday afternoon (Sept. 28) here at soggy Morse Field.

Puget Sound, ranked 9th in the latest AVCA/NCAA Division III national poll, got on the board at the 26:20 mark in the first half when Kjar dribbled in from the right side, drew out Bruin goalkeeper Stacey Ozga, and put a shot into the left corner. The Loggers got their second score at 38:38 on Kjar's corner kick from the left into the middle, where Tera Anderson booted it home.

The Loggers controlled the action for the most part, getting 26 shots to 6 for the home-standing Bruins. Ozga kept the score from being worse by making 13 saves, a career high. Amy Quandt had 2 saves to get the win and Erin Williams 4 in the second half for Puget Sound.

The Bruins fell to 2-8-1 overall with their 6th straight loss and 0-6 in the conference, while the Loggers improved to 9-1 overall and 5-1 in league play.

10/12 – GEORGE FOX 4, PACIFIC LUTHERAN 1: Erickson's Four Goals Lift Bruins to First NWC Win

NEWBERG, Ore. – Brooke Erickson scored all four goals for her team as the George Fox University Bruins posted their first Northwest Conference win of the 2003 season, a 4-1 victory over the visiting Pacific Lutheran University Lutes, in women's soccer action Sunday afternoon (Oct. 12) here at muddy Morse Field.

Erickson scored her first goal at 32:46 with a shot into the left corner of the net after a crossing pass from the left side of the penalty box by Monique Weaver. The Bruins took a 2-0 lead into the half after Erickson scored again at 42:55, this one a shot to the middle of the net off a cross from the right sideline by Lindsay Jacobs.

Pacific Lutheran cut the margin to one with a second-half goal by Brita Lider, her 5th of the season, off a throw-in from the left by Breann Vanden Bos at 64:41. But with the Lutes playing everyone forward to try to get the tying goal, Erickson scored on breakaways with shots past PLU backup keeper Jenny Ironside at 83:57 and 89:26.

Erickson now has 13 goals on the season, tied for the 3rd-best single season total in the Bruins' 13-year history. Only all-time goals leader Karli Holub has had higher numbers, with 15 in 1998, 14 in 1999, and 13 in 2000.

The Bruins played a highly-efficient offensive game, taking 11 shots, 8 on goal, and scoring on half of them. The Lutes took 25 shots, 14 on goal, but only scored once as Bruin keeper Stacey Ozga tied her career high with 13 saves.

George Fox, snapping a six-game losing streak, is now 3-8-1 overall and 1-6 in the conference, while Pacific Lutheran slips to 6-7 overall and 2-5 in the league.

BRUIN BITS:

 Erickson NWC Offensive Player of the Week; Ozga Honorable Mention on Defense:

Forward Brooke (Pitner) Erickson (Sr., Vancouver, Wash. / Skyview HS) was named Northwest Conference Offensive Player of the Week for Oct. 6-12 after moving into the conference lead in goals scored. After being closely marked and getting only 2 shots on Saturday in a 2-0 loss to 9th-ranked Puget Sound, she broke loose on Sunday to score all four George Fox goals in the Bruins' 4-1 win over Pacific Lutheran. She had 2 first-half goals off passes to the middle to give the Bruins a 2-0 first-half lead, then iced the contest with 2 breakaway solo goals in the final six minutes. Erickson's 13 goals this season now lead the league by one, and are only two short of the Bruins' single-season best of 15 by Karli Holub in 1998.

Goalkeeper Stacey Ozga (Fr., Shelton, Wash / Shelton HS) had 26 saves in 2 games to receive Honorable Mention for NWC Defensive Player of the Week Game for the week of Oct. 6-12. She recorded her career high in saves with 13 in each game, a 2-0 loss to 9th-ranked Puget Sound and a 4-1 win over Pacific Lutheran, the Bruins'

first NWC win of the season. NWC Defensive Player of the Week honors went to Jenn Miller of Whitworth, who helped the Pirates to shutouts of over Linfield and Willamette with 6 saves.

 Erickson's 4 Goals One Short of Single-Game Record – Set This Year!:

When Brooke Erickson scored 4 goals in the Bruins' 4-1 win over Pacific Lutheran on Oct. 12, she fell one goal short of tying the George Fox record for most goals in one game set, ironically, this year by teammate Monique Weaver. In an 11-0 win at Cascade on Sept. 9, Erickson played only part of the first half as the Bruins built up a big lead. Weaver entered the game as a substitute for Shannon Miles and proceeded to score 5 goals and pick up an assist, setting records for most goals and most points (11) in a game. Two other Bruins have scored 4 goals and had 8 points, the previous records, in a game: Julie Jensen at Linfield (10/28/91) and Gegi Bonera at Western Baptist (10/13/93).

 Career Lists: Erickson Moves Up to 3rd in Total Points:

Forward Brooke Erickson scored 4 goals in the Bruins' 4-1 win over Pacific Lutheran on Oct. 12, enabling her to move into 3rd place on the Bruins' all-time total points list. She now has 61 points and passed Staci Morris (54, 1994-97). She was already 3rd in career goals, and now has 27. Ahead in both categories is Gegi Bonera (32 goals and 79 points, 1992-95).

 Single-Season Marks Being Challenged:

Brooke Erickson has 13 goals this season, tied for the 3rd-best single-season total in Bruin women's soccer history. Only all-time scoring leader Karli Holub has done better (15 in 1998, 14 in 1999, 13 in 2000). Her 26 total points are tied with Gegi Bonera (26 in 1993) for the 6th-best in a season ... Monique Weaver has 7 goals this season, tied for the 10th-best season number, and her 17 points is tied for 14th-best in a season ... Jill Steinfeld and Lindsay Jacobs have 4 assists apiece, tied for the 10th-best mark in a season ...

LAST WEEK'S GAMES – 1-1 (Recaps):

10/11 – PUGET SOUND 2, GEORGE FOX 0: Kjar Carries 9th-Ranked Loggers Past Pesky Bruins

NEWBERG, Ore. – Courtney Kjar scored the first goal of the game and assisted on the second, leading the University of Puget Sound Loggers to a 2-0 win over the George Fox University Bruins in a Northwest Conference women's soccer match Saturday afternoon (Sept. 28) here at soggy Morse Field.

Puget Sound, ranked 9th in the latest AVCA/NCAA Division III national poll, got on the board at the 26:20 mark in the first half when Kjar dribbled in from the right side, drew out Bruin goalkeeper Stacey Ozga, and put a shot into the left corner. The Loggers got their second score at 38:38 on Kjar's corner kick from the left into the middle, where Tera Anderson booted it home.

The Loggers controlled the action for the most part, getting 26 shots to 6 for the home-standing Bruins. Ozga kept the score from being worse by making 13 saves, a career high. Amy Quandt had 2 saves to get the win and Erin Williams 4 in the second half for Puget Sound.

The Bruins fell to 2-8-1 overall with their 6th straight loss and 0-6 in the conference, while the Loggers improved to 9-1 overall and 5-1 in league play.

10/12 – GEORGE FOX 4, PACIFIC LUTHERAN 1: Erickson's Four Goals Lift Bruins to First NWC Win

NEWBERG, Ore. – Brooke Erickson scored all four goals for her team as the George Fox University Bruins posted their first Northwest Conference win of the 2003 season, a 4-1 victory over the visiting Pacific Lutheran University Lutes, in women's soccer action Sunday afternoon (Oct. 12) here at muddy Morse Field.

Erickson scored her first goal at 32:46 with a shot into the left corner of the net after a crossing pass from the left side of the penalty box by Monique Weaver. The Bruins took a 2-0 lead into the half after Erickson scored again at 42:55, this one a shot to the middle of the net off a cross from the right sideline by Lindsay Jacobs.

Pacific Lutheran cut the margin to one with a second-half goal by Brita Lider, her 5th of the season, off a throw-in from the left by Breann Vanden Bos at 64:41. But with the Lutes playing everyone forward to try to get the tying goal, Erickson scored on breakaways with shots past PLU backup keeper Jenny Ironside at 83:57 and 89:26.

Erickson now has 13 goals on the season, tied for the 3rd-best single season total in the Bruins' 13-year history. Only all-time goals leader Karli Holub has had higher numbers, with 15 in 1998, 14 in 1999, and 13 in 2000.

The Bruins played a highly-efficient offensive game, taking 11 shots, 8 on goal, and scoring on half of them. The Lutes took 25 shots, 14 on goal, but only scored once as Bruin keeper Stacey Ozga tied her career high with 13 saves.

George Fox, snapping a six-game losing streak, is now 3-8-1 overall and 1-6 in the conference, while Pacific Lutheran slips to 6-7 overall and 2-5 in the league.

THIS WEEK:

Sat., Oct. 25, 11:00 am – at Willamette University, Salem, Ore. (NWC)

Sun., Oct. 26, 11:00 am – at Linfield College, McMinnville, Ore. (NWC)

SCHEDULE NOTE: After several days of back-and-forth negotiations between George Fox and Willamette, the Northwest Conference has declared that all soccer games on Saturday, Oct. 25, will begin at 11:00 a.m. for the women and 1:30 p.m. for the men, due to the Daylight Savings Time change on Sunday. This was done to avoid the confusion of having different starting times for games on the same weekend. George Fox and Willamette had originally agreed to play on Oct. at 12:00 noon for the women and 2:30 p.m. for the men, which is the normal starting time for games before DST kicks in.

LAST WEEK – 0-2 (Recaps below):

Oct. 18 – Whitman 2, at George Fox 1

Oct. 19 – Whitworth 3, at George Fox 2

COACH ANDY HETHERINGTON (St. John's, England '76) is 4-25-1 (.161) in his 2nd season as a college coach, all at George Fox. He was 123-20-5 in 10 seasons as a high school coach before becoming only the second coach in George Fox women's soccer history, which began in 1991. Against this week's opponents, he is 0-3 vs. Willamette (0-2 in Newberg, 0-1 in Salem), and 0-3 vs. Linfield (0-2 in Newberg, 0-1 in McMinnville).

BRUIN BITS:

 Atkinson Gets Honorable Mention for NWC Offensive Player of the Week:

Midfielder Emily Atkinson (Fr., Fircrest, Wash. / Henry Foss HS) received Honorable Mention for Northwest Conference Offensive Player of the Week for Oct. 13-19 after scoring two big goals for the Bruins. Her header off a corner kick gave the Bruins a 1-0 lead with 28 minutes to play in an eventual 2-1 loss to Whitman on Friday. Her unassisted goal on Saturday just 1:17 into the second half gave the Bruins a short-lived 2-1 lead over #23 Whitworth, before the Pirates came back for a 3-2 win.

NWC Offensive Player of the Week went to Jamie MacLauchlan of Pacific, who had game-winning goals in each game as the Boxers went 2-0.

 Bruins' Win over PLU was No. 100 in Team's History:

The George Fox Bruins reached a significant milestone in their women's soccer team history when they defeated Pacific Lutheran 4-1 on Oct. 12. It was the 100th win for the Bruins since instituting an intercollegiate program for the 1991 season. In their 13th season, the Bruins have an all-time record to date of 100-112-12 (.473). Win #50 was on Sept. 24, 1997, a 4-2 win at Linfield.

 Career Lists: Erickson Up to 3rd in Total Points:

Forward Brooke Erickson (Sr., Vancouver, Wash. / Skyview HS) stands 3rd on the all-time lists at George Fox with 61 career points and 27 career goals. Ahead in both categories are Gegi Bonera (32 goals and 79 points, 1992-95) and Karli Holub (42 goals and 102 points, 1998-2000).

 Single-Season Marks Being Challenged:

Brooke Erickson has 13 goals this season, tied for the 3rd-best single-season total in Bruin women's soccer history. Only all-time scoring leader Karli Holub has done better (15 in 1998, 14, in 1999, 13 in 2000). Her 26 total points are tied with Gegi Bonera (26 in 1993) for the 6th-best in a season ... Monique Weaver (Fr., Salem, Ore. / Blanchet Catholic HS) has 7 goals this season, tied for the 10th-best season number, and her 17 points is tied for 14th-best in a season ... Jill Steinfeld (So., Portland, Ore. / Sunset HS) and Lindsay Jacobs (Fr., Bend, Ore. / Mountain View HS) have 4 assists apiece, tied for the 10th-best mark in a season ...

 Bruins in NWC Stats (thru Oct. 19)

Team:

George Fox is 1st in Saves (114, 8.14), 3rd in Gaols (33, 2.36, T), 5th in Points per game (6.57), 6th in Points (92), Shots (192, 13.71), Assists (26, 1.86), 8th in Goals Allowed (37, 2.64) ...

LAST WEEK'S GAMES – 1-1 (Recaps):

10/18 – WHITMAN 2, GEORGE FOX 1: Missionaries' Win over Bruins a Real "Longshot"

NEWBERG, Ore. – Hillary Chisholm sent a high, arching shot from the left sideline 30 yards away from the goal that sailed over the head of George Fox University keeper Stacey Ozga and into the right corner of the net with 3:50 to play, giving the visiting Whitman College Missionaries an remarkable 'longshot' victory over the Bruins in a Northwest Conference women's soccer match Saturday afternoon (Oct. 18) here at Morse Field.

Defense held sway in the first half as the two teams battled to a 0-0 deadlock. George Fox broke the scoreless duel at 62:37 when Emily Atkinson headed in her 3rd goal of the season off a corner kick from Kiersten Luginbill (Fr., Caledonia, Ill. / Christian Life HS).

Whitman knotted the game just over two minutes later at 64:51 as Katey Schmitz crossed a ball from deep in the right corner into the middle, where Sammie Arthur's shot was deflected by Ozga, but the keeper could not control the ball and the shot spun into the net. It was Arthur's 9th goal of the season.

The winner came on a throw-in from Emily Marshall to the feet of Chisholm, who was unguarded and looped her pop fly into the net over a backpedaling Ozga for her 1st goal of the year. The Missionaries then ran out the clock to complete a season sweep of the Bruins.

The contest was virtually a draw in almost every aspect, George Fox out-shooting Whitman 13-11, Bruin keeper Ozga making 7 saves to 6 for the Missionaries' Annie Owen, and each team had 3 corner kicks. The Bruins missed golden opportunities to score when headers by Brooke Erickson and Jill Steinfeld hit the upper crossbar, while the Missionaries capitalized in the second half by hitting 2 goals on only 3 shot attempts.

George Fox fell to 3-9-1 overall and 1-7 in the conference with the hard-luck loss, while Whitman improved to 9-4 overall and 5-3 in the league.

10/19 – WHITWORTH 3, GEORGE FOX 2: 23rd-Ranked Pirates Pull Out Narrow Victory over Bruins

NEWBERG, Ore. – Katy Jones scored two goals, including a 2-2 tie-breaker with 30 minutes left in the game, and the 23rd-ranked Whitworth College Pirates made it stand up for a 3-2 win over the George Fox University Bruins in a Northwest Conference women's soccer match Sunday afternoon (Oct. 18) here at Morse Field.

Both teams scored early in battling to a 1-1 halftime standoff. Jones scored on a header off a cross from the left by Heather Sale just 3:13 into the game, and the Bruins tied it 10 minutes later as Jill Steinfeld leaped high over a crowd to head in a corner kick from Kiersten Luginbill at 13:42.

George Fox took a short-lived lead only 1:17 into the second half when Emily Atkinson drove down the right side, crossed over into the middle, and shot one into the left corner of the net from 15 yards out. The Pirates responded 43 second later as Sale took a shot from the right side of the penalty box that was deflected by Bruin keeper Stacey Ozga, but Rachel Leavitt tapped in the rebound to knot it at 2-2.

Whitworth got the winner at 59:30 when Sale picked up her third assist, sending a short pass from the middle to Jones coming in from the left, and she drilled it home into the left side of the goal.

The Pirates controlled play by taking 28 shots (16 on goal) to only 9 (4 on goal) for the Bruins. Ozga kept it close by recording a career-high 13 saves for the third time this season. Jenn Miller had two saves in goal for Whitworth and got the win.

George Fox is now 3-10-1 overall and 1-8 in the conference, while Whitworth improves to 11-3 overall and 6-3 in league play.

10/5 – WHITMAN 4, GEORGE FOX 1: First-Half Goals Give Missionaries Insurmountable Lead vs. Bruins

WALLA WALLA, Wash. – Building up a big first-half lead with three goals, then adding another late in the second half, the Whitman College Missionaries had more than enough firepower to offset the George Fox University Bruins' lone late score for a 4-1 Northwest Conference women's soccer win here Sunday afternoon (Oct. 5).

Sammie Arthur, Emily Marshall, and Kaitlin Varady all scored in a 17-minute span in the second half of the first period to build an insurmountable lead for the Missionaries. McKenzie Hoffman added a final goal with 10 minutes left in the game, just two minutes before Brooke Erickson tallied the only goal for the Bruins. It was the only shot on goal allowed by the Whitman defense all day.

Whitman took 19 shots, 10 on goal, to 5 shots for George Fox. Bruin keeper Stacey Ozga recorded 6 saves.

The Bruins dropped their fifth in a row and are now 2-7-1 overall and 0-5 in the conference, while the Missionaries improved to 7-3 overall and 3-2 in league play.

Both teams take on nationally-ranked opponents next Saturday (Oct. 11) at 12:00 noon, George Fox hosting 3rd-ranked University of Puget Sound and Whitman hosting 9th-ranked Willamette University. Men's games will follow at 2:30 p.m.

9/27 – LINFIELD 4, GEORGE FOX 2: Bruins Battle Back but Come Up Just Short in Loss to Linfield

NEWBERG, Ore. – Down 3-0 early in the second half, the George Fox University Bruins battled back within a goal with just over 20 minutes left, but could not come with the equalizer and finally dropped a 4-2 decision to the Linfield College Wildcats in a Northwest Conference women's soccer match Saturday afternoon (Sept. 27) here at Morse Field.

Erica Crossman put the Wildcats ahead 1-0 when she rebounded her own blocked shot and drilled it home 7:24 into the game. Kathleen Wochnick made it 2-0 at 22:14 with her 10th goal of the season when she made a long run toward the goal, had the ball momentarily taken away by Bruin defender Jenn Tyhurst, but recovered the ball and left-hooked a shot into the upper reaches of the net.

Sara Williams made it 3-0 just 21 seconds into the second half when she drove past Bruin keeper Stacey Ozga for the score after a pass from Lauren Milhollin, but the Bruins would not give up. After being held to only two shots in the first half, the home team came out firing with 15 second-half shots, and it was senior Brooke Erickson who brought the Bruins back, scoring her 6th and 7th goals at 62:18 and 68:42 to make it a one-goal game. Alli Franz on the first goal and Jill Steinfeld on the second assisted on the Erickson scores.

Crossman connected again at the 76:19 mark from 20 yards out after quick passes from Chelsey Stoltz and Sara Williams to provide the Wildcats with a little breathing room at the end.

George Fox fell to 2-4-1 overall and 0-2 in the conference, while Linfield is now 6-1 overall and 1-1 in the conference.

The Bruins host 8th-ranked Willamette University while the Wildcats go to Pacific University Saturday (Sept. 28), both games set for 12:00 noon followed by men's games at 2:30 p.m.

9/28 – WILLAMETTE 4, GEORGE FOX 3 (OT): 8th-Ranked Bearcats Escape Bruins with Desperation Rally

NEWBERG, Ore. – For the second year in a row, the heavy underdog George Fox University Bruins pushed the nationally-ranked Willamette University Bearcats to the edge of a major upset, only to see the Bearcats pull out a 4-3 overtime victory with a last-ditch rally in a Northwest Conference women's soccer thriller Sunday afternoon (Sept. 28) here at Morse Field.

Willamette, ranked 8th in the latest AVCA/NCAA Division III national poll, got on the board quickly at 2:20 into the game with a score by Laura Ulmansiek after one-touch passes from Susan Butler and Nicole Dahl. George Fox equaled it three minutes later on a perfectly-executed corner kick from Kiersten Luginbill to Jill Steinfeld for the tying header.

The homestanding Bruins took the lead at 25:35 when Brooke Erickson took a cross from Lindsay Jacobs and lofted a shot that squeezed into the net just below the crossbar and above a leaping Kari Woody in goal for the Bearcats. It was Erickson's team-leading 8th goal of the season.

In the second half, the Bruins got what appeared to be the clincher when Lacey Holman picked up a loose ball after a scrum in front of the goal and kicked it past Woody for a 3-1 George Fox lead at 78:15. The Bearcats rallied in the late going, however, with a pair of textbook-style goals.

Butler headed in a corner kick from Ulmansiek at 83:01 to cut the Bruins' lead to 3-2, and Brenna Hindman tied it at 88:15 with another header after a cross into the middle from Michelle Gregoire. The Bearcats then scored the winner 29 seconds into overtime as Butler shot from the right side, George Fox keeper Stacey Ozga blocked the ball but could not control it, and Hindman tapped the rebound into the left corner for her 8th goal of the year.

George Fox fell to 2-5-1 overall and 0-3 in the conference with the heart-breaking defeat, while Willamette, breathing a sigh of relief after another hard-fought game with the Bruins in Newberg, remained unbeaten at 8-0 overall and 3-0 in the conference. Willamette had edged George Fox 3-2 in overtime in Newberg last year as well.

The Bruins visit Whitworth College while the Bearcats host the University of Puget Sound Friday (Oct. 4), both games at 12:00 noon, followed by men's contests at 2:30 p.m.

10/4 – WHITWORTH 3, GEORGE FOX 0: Hagerott Contributes on All Counts as Pirates Blank Bruins

SPOKANE, Wash. – Forward Jael Hagerott scored two goals and assisted on a third to spark the Whitworth College Pirates to a 3-0 win over the visiting George Fox University Bruins in a Northwest Conference women's soccer match here Saturday afternoon (Oct. 4).

Whitworth won its second straight match to improve to 7-2 overall and 2-2 in the NWC, while George Fox fell to 2-6-1 overall and 0-4 in the NWC with its fourth straight loss.

Hagerott scored both of her goals three minutes apart in the first half. Her first goal was a header off a crossing pass from Marissa Williams at 14:27. Her second came when a long shot by Piper Moore hit the cross bar, falling straight down in front of the goal, and she was there to put the goal past Bruin keeper Stacey Ozga at 17:15.

Hagerott set up the final goal when she drew the defense on a breakaway down the left side and crossed to Heather Carlson, who scored at 73:26.

Whitworth out-shot George Fox 20-6 and had a 10-3 advantage in shots on goal. Ozga made six saves for the Bruins. Jenn Miller made three stops for the Pirates to pick up her fifth shutout of the season.

George Fox travels to Walla Walla to play Whitman College while Whitworth will host Pacific University on Sunday (Oct. 5), both games at 12:00 noon, followed by men's games at 2:30 p.m.

9/9 – GEORGE FOX 11, CASCADE 0: Weaver and Bruins Rewrite Record Books in Rout of Thunderbirds

PORTLAND, Ore. – Monique Weaver set new George Fox University single-game records with 5 goals and 11 total points, and the Bruins tied another record for most total team points in a game with 33, highlighting the Bruins' first win of the season, an 11-0 romp over the Cascade College Thunderbirds Tuesday afternoon (Sept. 9) here at the Cascade campus field.

Weaver achieved her records despite not starting the game. Brooke Erickson got the Bruins going with a direct free kick goal 10:44 into the game, and Weaver made it 2-0 with her first goal at 12:40 shortly after entering the game as a replacement for Shannon Miles, who suffered an asthma attack and had to come off the field. Erickson added another goal at 27:07, and Weaver chalked up two more scores before the half was over for a 5-0 George Fox lead at the break.

The Bruins added six more goals in the second half, with scores by Karli Saathoff, Emily Atkinson, Kiersten Luginbill, Alice Long (assisted by Weaver), and two more by Weaver within a minute of each other around the 70-minute mark. The Bruins played conservatively the rest of the way and took no more shots, out-shooting the over-matched T-Birds 36-4 for the game.

Weaver's marks broke the previous records of 4 goals and 8 points in a game, done twice before by Julie Jensen at Linfield on Oct. 28, 1991, and Gegi Bonera at Western Baptist on Oct. 13, 1993. Four players also had 2 assists apiece – Luginbill, Saathoff, Lindsay Jacobs, and Alli Franz – tying a single-game mark done 10 other times.

Team-wise, the Bruins had 11 goals and 11 assists against Cascade, tying the record of 33 points set in the 14-0 Western Baptist game in which they had 14 goals and 5 assists. The 11 assists more than doubled the previous best of 5 assists in the Western Baptist game and at Albertson on Oct. 22, 1994.

George Fox is now 1-2-1 on the season, while Cascade falls to 0-2. The Bruins are off for a week before hosting Warner Pacific College on Wednesday, Sept. 17, at 4:00 p.m.

9/17 – GEORGE FOX 3, WARNER PACIFIC 2: Three First-Half Goals Enough as Bruins Hold Off Knights

NEWBERG, Ore. – Three first-half goals proved to be just enough for the George Fox University Bruins to post their second straight win, a 3-2 decision over the Warner Pacific College Knights, in a non-conference women's soccer match Wednesday afternoon (Sept. 17) here at Morse Athletic Field.

Coming off an 11-0 win last week at Cascade College, the Bruins put together their first modest winning streak in over two years by holding on against the Knights. At 2-2-1, George Fox has already doubled last year's number of wins when the Bruins struggled through a 1-15 season. The Bruins also have 18 goals thus far, 50% more than last year's total of 12. Warner Pacific, meanwhile, fell to 0-5 against a tough early schedule, but did score its first two goals of the season.

Brooke Erickson put the Bruins in front at 12:52 with a 5-yard punch into the net after a short pass in the middle from Monique Weaver. At 26:58, Weaver, last week's Northwest Conference Offensive Player of the Week with a five-goal performance at Cascade, rebounded a hard shot by Annie New off Warner goalkeeper Danielle Bernhardt and nudged it home past a sprawling Bernhardt. Danielle Bowie made it 3-0 at 38:32 when she hooked a difficult angle shot from the left side into the upper right corner of the net after a feed from Jill Steinfeld.

The Knights got one goal back before the half ended when Tara Tinner rammed home an uncontested shot from 15 yards away after a nice pass from the middle by Holly Tillet at 40:33. Bruin keeper Stacey Ozga had come out to challenge Tinner, but collided with teammate New and was knocked to the ground, allowing the easy goal.

Tillet cut the Bruins' margin to one with a much tougher goal at 71:01 in the second half, drilling a shot to the right of Ozga from 10 yards in front of the line after a pass from Trina Hodo. The Bruin defense tightened up, however, and allowed only two more shots by the Knights the rest of the way, neither on goal.

Bernhardt wound up with 10 saves against the Bruins' 21 shots, while Ozga saved 7 of the Knights' 15 attempts.

George Fox, the non-conference portion of its schedule complete, visits Pacific University next Wednesday (Sept. 24) for its 2:30 p.m. NWC opener, followed by the men's game at 5:00 p.m. Warner Pacific goes to Western Baptist College Saturday (Sept. 20) for a 1:00 p.m. Cascade Collegiate Conference contest.

9/24 – PACIFIC 5, GEORGE FOX 2: Boxers Boot Bruins in NWC Opener as Lau Scores 2nd Hat Trick

FOREST GROVE, Ore. - Moani Lau scored her second hat trick of the season, leading the Pacific University Boxers past the visiting George Fox University Bruins 5-2 in the women's soccer Northwest Conference opener for both teams Wednesday afternoon (Sept. 24) here at Tom Reynolds Field.

Lau, the first player in Pacific history to score two hat tricks in one season, led an effort that saw the Boxers outshoot the Bruins 23-8. Laura Hill and Stacy Amano had one goal apiece for the Boxers, and Hill also had two assists to run her season total to seven.

Lau needed only 48 seconds to put Pacific on the board, taking a one-touch pass from Amano five yards out for an early lead. She hit her second in the 11th minute when she buried Hill's left side cross for an early 2-0 lead. Her third strike came in the 84th minute when Lau found another long cross from Hill right in front of the net, rolling the ball past the right side of Bruins' keeper Stacey Ozga.

Emily Atkinson put the Bruins on the board in the 60th minute with her first career goal, sinking Jill Steinfeld's corner kick into the right corner of the net. Monique Weaver added a second goal in the 89th minute, unassisted, giving her seven on the year.

Stephanie Kawamura earned her third victory in goal in as many games, allowing two goals and making three saves. Ozga made seven saves in the loss.

George Fox fell to 2-3-1 overall and 0-1 in the conference, while Pacific, with its fourth straight win, is 6-1 overall and 1-0 in the NWC.

The Bruins will try to get their first conference win Saturday (Sept. 27) when they host Linfield College at 12:00 noon, followed by the men's game at 2:30 p.m. The Boxers remain home this weekend, hosting 8th-ranked Willamette University Saturday at 12:00 noon.

11/20 - ALL-NWC: Erickson First Team, Atkinson Honorable Mention All-NWC in Women's Soccer

NEWBERG, Ore. - Record-tying Brooke Erickson and talented newcomer Emily Atkinson of George Fox University have received All-Northwest Conference recognition for their fine 2003 women's soccer seasons, Erickson making First Team and Atkinson garnering Honorable Mention.

Erickson, a senior forward from Vancouver, Wash., and Skyview High, scored 15 goals this season, tying for the conference lead with Kathleen Wochnick of Linfield and equaling the George Fox single-season record for goals set by Karli Holub in 1998. She was also 4th in the league in total points with 30 and 5th in shots with 69. She was named NWC Offensive Player of the Week for Oct. 6-12 for her 4-goal game in a 4-1 win over Pacific Lutheran. A Second Team All-Conference selection in both her freshman and junior years, she finished her Bruin career with 28 goals, 7 assists, and 63 total points, ranking 3rd all-time at GFU in both goals and points.

Atkinson, a freshman midfielder from Fircrest, Wash., and Henry Foss High, played and started all 19 games, providing the Bruins with quality play both on offense and on defense. She scored 4 goals and had 1 assist for 9 total points, and was one of 11 freshmen on the Bruins who have given the team a brighter future despite a 3-15-1 record this past season.

The conference's top honors went to Jael Hagerott of Whitworth as Offensive Player of the Year, Bridget Stolee of league champion Puget Sound as Defensive Player of the Year, and Randy Hanson of Puget Sound as Coach of the Year.

COACH ANDY HETHERINGTON (St. John's, England '76) is 4-30-1 (.129) after two seasons as a college coach, all at George Fox. He was 123-20-5 in 10 seasons as a high school coach before becoming only the second coach in George Fox women's soccer history, which began in 1991.

BRUIN BITS:

 Erickson Ties School Record for Goals in a Season:

Forward Brooke Erickson (Sr., Vancouver, Wash. / Skyview HS) tied George Fox's single-season record for goals when she scored the single goal in Saturday's 2-1 loss to Pacific, her 15th of the season. She tied the record of 15 set by Karli Holub in 1998. Erickson ends her career this year as George Fox's No. 3 all-time leader in goals with 29 goals and total points with 65 points in her four years playing for the Bruins.

 Bruins in NCAA Stats (thru Oct. 26):

Forward Monique Weaver's (Fr., Salem, Ore. / Blanchet Catholic HS) 5 goals in the Bruins' 11-0 win at Cascade on Sept. 9 are tied for the 6th-highest single-game total in the NCAA Division III this season, and her 11 points in that game are tied for 7th-best. Erin Goettl of Simpson had 7 goals vs. Upper Iowa for the season's high, and Goettl, Carine Carvalheiro of New Jersey City vs. CCNY, and Michelle Prather of Benedictine (Ill.) vs. MacMurray had 15 total points in a game.

LAST WEEK'S GAMES – 0-1 (Recap):

11/8 - PACIFIC 2, GEORGE FOX 1: Erickson Ties Bruin Scoring Record but Boxers Win Season Finale

NEWBERG, Ore. - In a "battle of the Brookes", George Fox University's Brooke Erickson tied the Bruins' single-season record with her 15th goal, but Pacific University's Brooke Hayashi scored twice to lead the Boxers to a 2-1 win in the women's soccer season finale for both teams Saturday here at Morse Field.

Pacific struck quickly, scoring on its first possession only 1:39 into the game. Karley Peterson drove down the right side, cut toward the middle, and passed to Hayashi, who hammered one straight in from 5 yards out. It was the same Peterson-to-Hayashi combination on a similar play just over 10 minutes later, Hayashi scoring her 3rd goal of the season at 12:07 for a 2-0 Pacific lead that stood well into the second half.

George Fox controlled the action most of the second half, out-shooting the Boxers 13-4 in the final 45 minutes, but could only get one goal home. Erickson countered on a driving shot from 8 yards away at 78:02 off a feed from Kiersten Luginbill, her 15th goal tying (at least momentarily) with Linfield's Kathleen Wochnick for most goals in the conference. The goal also tied her with Karli Holub in 1998 for most goals in a season by a women's soccer player at George Fox.

Erickson, the Bruins' lone senior, finished her career with 29 goals and 65 points, both totals ranking 3rd on the all-time charts at George Fox.

The Bruins ended with 19 shots (12 on goal) to 9 (5 on goal) for the Boxers. Shannon Tillman saved 11 shots for Pacific while Stacey Ozga had 3 for George Fox.

The Bruins end their season with a 3-15-1 overall record and 1-13 in the conference, while the Boxers are through at 11-8-1 overall and 6-7-1 in league play.

Against this week's opponent, he is 0-3 vs. Pacific (0-1 in Newberg, 0-2 in Forest Grove).

BRUIN BITS:

 Bruins to Honor Lone Senior Erickson before Final Home Game

Forward Brooke Erickson (Vancouver, Wash. / Skyview HS), the George Fox Bruins' lone senior, will be honored for her outstanding career before the final home game of the season against Pacific on Saturday, Nov. 8, at 11:00 a.m. Erickson has been a two-time All-Conference honoree and seems certain to make the All-NWC team again while ranking among the league leaders in goals and points. She stands 3rd all-time at George Fox in goals (28) and points (63) entering the final game of the season, and her 14 goals this year are one short of the single-season record set by Karli Holub in 1998.

 Bruins Lose Steinfeld for a Game Due to Hand Infraction

George Fox defender Jill Steinfeld (Jr., Portland, Ore. / Sunset HS) was hit with a red-card for intentionally deflecting a shot with her hand during a 3-0 loss at Pacific Lutheran on Saturday. The result of such a foul is automatic ejection of the player and a suspension for the next game, and the Bruins were forced to play the rest of the game with only 10 players on the field. Steinfeld sat out the Puget Sound contest on Sunday. The Lutes were also awarded a penalty kick for the infraction, which resulted in a goal by Alyssa Burleson and a 2-0 PLU lead.

A card for intentional deflection is rare enough – but in a most peculiar coincidence, George Fox men's soccer player Andrew Paine was whistled for the exact same infraction the next day at Puget Sound!

 Bruins in NWC Stats (thru Oct. 27): Erickson in Goals, Ozga in Saves Still No. 1

Team:

George Fox is 1st in Saves (139, 8.69), 5th in Goals per game (2.12), 6th in Points (95), Shots (212, 13.25), Goals (34, 2.12), Assists (27, 1.69) and Assists per game (1.69), 8th in Goals Allowed (41, 2.56) ...

Individual:

Forward Brooke Erickson is 1st in Goals (14, 0.88), Shots (65, 4.06), 4th in Points (28), 5th in Points per game (1.75) ...

Goalkeeper Stacey Ozga (Fr., Shelton, Wash. / Shelton HS) is 1st in Saves (138, 8.62) ...

Forward Monique Weaver (Fr., Salem, Ore. / Blanchet Catholic HS) is 10th in Points per game (1.31) and Goals per game (0.54) ...

 Career Lists: Erickson Remains 3rd in Goals and Points

Brooke Erickson, as did the rest of the Bruins, went scoreless on the recent road trip to Tacoma, remaining in 3rd place on the all-time George Fox career lists for goals (28) and total points (63). In 2nd in both categories is Gegi Bonera (32 goals, 79 points, 1992-95). No. 1 is Karli Holub (42 goals, 102 points, 1998-2000).

 2003 Honors:

Monique Weaver – Northwest Conference Offensive Player of the Week (Sept. 8-14)

Brooke Erickson - Northwest Conference Offensive Player of the Week (Oct. 6-12)

 Records Set or Tied by 2003 Bruins:

LAST WEEK'S GAMES – 0-2 (Recaps):

11/1 – PACIFIC LUTHERAN 3, GEORGE FOX 0: Stingy Lute Defense Denies Bruins Any Hope of Victory

TACOMA, Wash. - Alyssa Burleson scored two goals and the Pacific Lutheran University defense allowed just three shots - none on goal – as the Lutes avenged an earlier loss to the George Fox University Bruins with a 3-0 Northwest Conference women's soccer victory here Saturday on the PLU field.

Burleson scored on a penalty kick at the 27:03 mark of the first half for a 1-0 PLU lead. The penalty kick was awarded after Jill Steinfeld was issued a red card for deliberately deflecting a shot by Maja Pedersen with her right hand.

Burleson's second goal at 74:51 ended the scoring. The ball hit the left upright and crossed the end line for the goal.

11/2 – PUGET SOUND 2, GEORGE FOX 0: Loggers Close In on NWC Title with Win over Bruins

TACOMA, Wash. – Pushing their unbeaten home winning streak to 40 and moving one step closer to a Northwest Conference title, the 5th-ranked University of Puget Sound Loggers scored a 2-0 win over the visiting George Fox University Bruins in women's soccer action here Sunday.

The loss drops the Bruins to 3-14-1 overall and 1-12 in the conference, while the win moves the Loggers to 15-1-1 overall and 11-1-1 in the conference. Puget Sound led Willamette 31-29 in points in the NWC standings coming into the game, and can nail down the crown next Saturday against Pacific Lutheran University at home.

Puget Sound forward Elizabeth Pitman recorded both goals for the Loggers. Pitman struck just 1:50 into the match, tucking her right-footed strike from 8 yards out just inside the right post to give the Loggers a 1-0 lead. Jenna Dwiggin and Lea John assisted on the play. That lead held until 82:23, when Pitman recovered a Cortney Kjar shot and placed the rebound into an open net to make it a 2-0 final.

The Loggers out-shot the Bruins 15-2 and led in corners 5-0. Erin Williams recorded only one save in 90 minutes in goal for Puget Sound. Stacy Ozga made 4 saves in a losing cause for George Fox.

LAST WEEK'S GAMES – 0-2 (Recaps):

10/4 – WHITWORTH 3, GEORGE FOX 0: Hagerott Contributes on All Counts as Pirates Blank Bruins

SPOKANE, Wash. – Forward Jael Hagerott scored two goals and assisted on a third to spark the Whitworth College Pirates to a 3-0 win over the visiting George Fox University Bruins in a Northwest Conference women's soccer match here Saturday afternoon (Oct. 4).

Whitworth won its second straight match to improve to 7-2 overall and 2-2 in the NWC, while George Fox fell to 2-6-1 overall and 0-4 in the NWC with its fourth straight loss.

Hagerott scored both of her goals three minutes apart in the first half. Her first goal was a header off a crossing pass from Marissa Williams at 14:27. Her second came when a long shot by Piper Moore hit the cross bar, falling straight down in front of the goal, and she was there to put the goal past Bruin keeper Stacey Ozga at 17:15.

Hagerott set up the final goal when she drew the defense on a breakaway down the left side and crossed to Heather Carlson, who scored at 73:26.

Whitworth out-shot George Fox 20-6 and had a 10-3 advantage in shots on goal. Ozga made six saves for the Bruins. Jenn Miller made three stops for the Pirates to pick up her fifth shutout of the season.

10/5 – WHITMAN 4, GEORGE FOX 1: First-Half Goals Give Missionaries Insurmountable Lead vs. Bruins

WALLA WALLA, Wash. – Building up a big first-half lead with three goals, then adding another late in the second half, the Whitman College Missionaries had more than enough firepower to offset the George Fox University Bruins' lone late score for a 4-1 Northwest Conference women's soccer win here Sunday afternoon (Oct. 5).

Sammie Arthur, Emily Marshall, and Kaitlin Varady all scored in a 17-minute span in the second half of the first period to build an insurmountable lead for the Missionaries. McKenzie Hoffman added a final goal with 10 minutes left in the game, just two minutes before Brooke Erickson tallied the only goal for the Bruins. It was the only shot on goal allowed by the Whitman defense all day.

Whitman took 19 shots, 10 on goal, to 5 shots for George Fox. Bruin keeper Stacey Ozga recorded 6 saves.

The Bruins dropped their fifth in a row and are now 2-7-1 overall and 0-5 in the conference, while the Missionaries improved to 7-3 overall and 3-2 in league play.

BRUIN BITS:

 Erickson Honorable Mention for NWC "Offensive Player of the Week":

Brooke Erickson (Sr., F, Vancouver, Wash. / Skyview HS), with 3 goals in 3 games, received Honorable Mention for the Northwest Conference "Women's Offensive Player of the Week" for the week of Sept. 22-28. She scored 2 goals in the second half against Linfield on Saturday, bringing the Bruins within a goal at 3-2 before they eventually lost 4-2. On Sunday, she scored the goal that put the Bruins ahead 2-1 against 8th-ranked Willamette, only to have the Bruins fall 4-3 in overtime. Erickson ranks among the NWC leaders in shots, goals, and points, and stands in the top 10 all-time at George Fox in goals and points.

NWC Offensive Player of the Week honors went to Brenna Hindman of Willamette, who had 3 goals and 2 assists in 3 Bearcat wins during the week.

 Bruins in NWC Stats (thru Sept. 28):

Team: George Fox is 1st in Saves (55, 6.88), 3rd in Goals per game (3.12), 4th in Goals (25), Assists (22, 2.75), Points (72, 9.00), Shots (142, 17.75), 8th in Goals Allowed (22, 2.75) ...

LAST WEEK'S GAMES – 0-3 (Recaps):

9/24 – PACIFIC 5, GEORGE FOX 2: Boxers Boot Bruins in NWC Opener as Lau Scores 2nd Hat Trick

FOREST GROVE, Ore. - Moani Lau scored her second hat trick of the season, leading the Pacific University Boxers past the visiting George Fox University Bruins 5-2 in the women's soccer Northwest Conference opener for both teams Wednesday afternoon (Sept. 24) here at Tom Reynolds Field.

Lau, the first player in Pacific history to score two hat tricks in one season, led an effort that saw the Boxers outshoot the Bruins 23-8. Laura Hill and Stacy Amano had one goal apiece for the Boxers, and Hill also had two assists to run her season total to seven.

Lau needed only 48 seconds to put Pacific on the board, taking a one-touch pass from Amano five yards out for an early lead. She hit her second in the 11th minute when she buried Hill's left side cross for an early 2-0 lead. Her third strike came in the 84th minute when Lau found another long cross from Hill right in front of the net, rolling the ball past the right side of Bruins' keeper Stacey Ozga.

Emily Atkinson (Fr., Fircrest, Wash. / Henry Foss HS) put the Bruins on the board in the 60th minute with her first career goal, sinking Jill Steinfeld's corner kick into the right corner of the net. Monique Weaver added a second goal in the 89th minute, unassisted, giving her seven on the year.

Stephanie Kawamura earned her third victory in goal in as many games, allowing two goals and making three saves. Ozga made seven saves in the loss.

George Fox fell to 2-3-1 overall and 0-1 in the conference, while Pacific, with its fourth straight win, is 6-1 overall and 1-0 in the NWC.

9/27 – LINFIELD 4, GEORGE FOX 2: Bruins Battle Back but Come Up Just Short in Loss to Linfield

NEWBERG, Ore. – Down 3-0 early in the second half, the George Fox University Bruins battled back within a goal with just over 20 minutes left, but could not come with the equalizer and finally dropped a 4-2 decision to the Linfield College Wildcats in a Northwest Conference women's soccer match Saturday afternoon (Sept. 27) here at Morse Field.

Erica Crosman put the Wildcats ahead 1-0 when she rebounded her own blocked shot and drilled it home 7:24 into the game. Kathleen Wochnick made it 2-0 at 22:14 with her 10th goal of the season when she made a long run toward the goal, had the ball momentarily taken away by Bruin defender Jenn Tyhurst (Jr., Oregon City, Ore. / Canby HS), but recovered the ball and left-hooked a shot into the upper reaches of the net.

Sara Williams made it 3-0 just 21 seconds into the second half when she drove past Bruin keeper Stacey Ozga for the score after a pass from Lauren Milhollin, but the Bruins would not give up. After being held to only two shots in the first half, the home team came out firing with 15 second-half shots, and it was senior Brooke Erickson who brought the Bruins back, scoring her 6th and 7th goals at 62:18 and 68:42 to make it a one-goal game. Alli Franz (Fr., Granite Bay, Calif. / Granite Bay HS) on the first goal and Jill Steinfeld on the second assisted on the Erickson scores.

Crossman connected again at the 76:19 mark from 20 yards out after quick passes from Chelsey Stoltz and Sara Williams to provide the Wildcats with a little breathing room at the end.

George Fox fell to 2-4-1 overall and 0-2 in the conference, while Linfield is now 6-1 overall and 1-1 in the conference.

9/28 – WILLAMETTE 4, GEORGE FOX 3 (OT): 8th-Ranked Bearcats Escape Bruins with Desperation Rally

NEWBERG, Ore. – For the second year in a row, the heavy underdog George Fox University Bruins pushed the nationally-ranked Willamette University Bearcats to the edge of a major upset, only to see the Bearcats pull out a 4-3 overtime victory with a last-ditch rally in a Northwest Conference women's soccer thriller Sunday afternoon (Sept. 28) here at Morse Field.

Willamette, ranked 8th in the latest AVCA/NCAA Division III national poll, got on the board quickly at 2:20 into the game with a score by Laura Ulmansiek after one-touch passes from Susan Butler and Nicole Dahl. George Fox equaled it three minutes later on a perfectly executed corner kick from Kiersten Luginbill (Fr., Caledonia, Ill. / Christian Life HS) to Jill Steinfeld for the tying header.

The homestanding Bruins took the lead at 25:35 when Brooke Erickson took a cross from Lindsay Jacobs (Fr., Bend, Ore. / Mountain View HS) and lofted a shot that squeezed into the net just below the crossbar and above a leaping Kari Woody in goal for the Bearcats. It was Erickson's team-leading 8th goal of the season.

In the second half, the Bruins got what appeared to be the clincher when Lacey Holman (Fr., Yakima, Wash. / Naches Valley HS) picked up a loose ball after a scrum in front of the goal and kicked it past Woody for a 3-1 George Fox lead at 78:15. The Bearcats rallied in the late going, however, with a pair of textbook-style goals.

Butler headed in a corner kick from Ulmansiek at 83:01 to cut the Bruins' lead to 3-2, and Brenna Hindman tied it at 88:15 with another header after a cross into the middle from Michelle Gregoire. The Bearcats then scored the winner 29 seconds into overtime as Butler shot from the right side, George Fox keeper Stacey Ozga blocked the ball but could not control it, and Hindman tapped the rebound into the left corner for her 8th goal of the year.

George Fox fell to 2-5-1 overall and 0-3 in the conference with the heart-breaking defeat, while Willamette, breathing a sigh of relief after another hard-fought game with the Bruins in Newberg, remained unbeaten at 8-0 overall and 3-0 in the conference. Willamette had edged George Fox 3-2 in overtime in Newberg last year as well.

COACH ANDY HETHERINGTON (St. John's, England '76) is 3-17-1 (.167) in his 2nd season as a college coach, all at George Fox. He was 123-20-5 in 10 seasons as a high school coach before becoming only the second coach in George Fox women's soccer history, which began in 1991. Against this week's opponents, he is 0-2 vs. Pacific (0-1 in Newberg, 0-1 in Forest Grove), 0-2 vs. Linfield (0-1 in Newberg, 0-1 in McMinnville), and 0-2 vs. Willamette (0-1 in Newberg, 0-1 in Salem).

BRUIN BITS:

 Weaver Honorable Mention for NWC "Offensive Player of the Week":

Monique Weaver (Fr., F, Salem, Ore. / Blanchet Catholic HS), last week's Northwest Conference "Women's Offensive Player of the Week", received Honorable Mention for the award for the week of Sept. 15-21 with another good game on Sept. 17. In the Bruins' 3-2 home win over Warner Pacific, she assisted on Brooke Pitner's goal that gave the Bruins a 1-0 lead, then scored the second goal as the Bruins built a 3-0 first-half lead and hung on for the victory. Weaver set George Fox records the week before with 5 goals and 11 points in an 11-0 win at Cascade.

NWC Offensive Player of the Week honors went to Moani Lau of Pacific, who had 3 goals in 3 Boxer wins during the week.

 Bruins Forge First Winning Streak in Two Years:

All right, so it's a rather modest streak of two wins in a row, but for the George Fox women's soccer team, even that has been a long time coming!

After winning 11-0 at Cascade on Sept. 9, the Bruins put together their first modest winning streak in over two years by holding on at home against Warner Pacific for a 3-2 win on Sept. 17. The last time the Bruins had strung together consecutive wins was a four-game stretch from the last game of the 2000 season on Oct. 28 through the first three games of the 2001 season on Sept. 8.

At 2-2-1, George Fox has already doubled last year's number of wins when the Bruins struggled through a 1-15 season. The Bruins also have 18 goals thus far, 50% more than last year's total of 12.

 Bruins Playing in One Tough Conference!:

If early-season success means anything, the Northwest Conference is going to be making waves in the NCAA Division III this season. George Fox has shown tremendous improvement over its first five games this year with a 2-2-1 record – and that is the worst record among all eight conference schools! The NWC collectively is 32-5-1 against outside competition, and of the eight teams listed in the latest West Region poll, seven are from the NWC! Only George Fox is not among the West's "elite eight" – and the Bruins are primed and ready to spring a few upsets in the league this year.

 Erickson Continue Climb on All-Time Scoring Lists:

Brooke (Pitner) Erickson (Sr., F, Vancouver, Wash. / Skyview HS) scored the George Fox Bruins' first goal in a 3-2 win over Warner Pacific on Sept. 17 in Newberg, giving her 19 goals and 45 total points in her career. The goal broke a tie for 5th in career goals with Julie Jensen (18, 1991-94), while she remained in 6th all-time in points. Ahead in goals are Staci Morris (1994-97) and Katrina Crabb (1995-97), who are tied for 3rd with 21 apiece, while Jensen is 5th in total points with 46.

 Records Set or Tied by 2003 Bruins:

When the George Fox Bruins defeated Cascade 11-0 on Sept. 9 in Portland, several individual and team records were set or tied, including:

- Most Assists, Team, Game: 11
- Most Points, Team, Game: 33 (11 goals, 11 assists); tied record
- Most Goals, Player, Game: 5 by Monique Weaver
- Most Points, Player, Game: 11 by Monique Weaver (5 goals, 1 assist)
- Most Assists, Player, Game: 2 by Kiersten Luginbill, Karli Saathoff, Lindsay Jacobs, Alli Franz; tied record

LAST WEEK'S GAMES – 1-0 (Recaps):

9/17 – GEORGE FOX 3, WARNER PACIFIC 2: Three First-Half Goals Enough as Bruins Hold Off Knights

NEWBERG, Ore. – Three first-half goals proved to be just enough for the George Fox University Bruins to post their second straight win, a 3-2 decision over the Warner Pacific College Knights, in a non-conference women's soccer match Wednesday afternoon (Sept. 17) here at Morse Athletic Field.

Coming off an 11-0 win last week at Cascade College, the Bruins put together their first modest winning streak in over two years by holding on against the Knights. At 2-2-1, George Fox has already doubled last year's number of wins when the Bruins struggled through a 1-15 season. The Bruins also have 18 goals thus far, 50% more than last year's total of 12. Warner Pacific, meanwhile, fell to 0-5 against a tough early schedule, but did score its first two goals of the season.

Brooke Erickson put the Bruins in front at 12:52 with a 5-yard punch into the net after a short pass in the middle from Monique Weaver. At 26:58, Weaver, last week's Northwest Conference Offensive Player of the Week with a five-goal performance at Cascade, rebounded a hard shot by Annie New (Fr., Portland, Ore. / Wilson HS) off Warner goalkeeper Danielle Bernhardt and nudged it home past a sprawling Bernhardt. Danielle Bowie (So., Spokane, Wash. / Shadle Park HS) made it 3-0 at 38:32 when she hooked a difficult angle shot from the left side into the upper right corner of the net after a feed from Jill Steinfeld (So., Portland, Ore. / Sunset HS).

The Knights got one goal back before the half ended when Tara Tinner rammed home an uncontested shot from 15 yards away after a nice pass from the middle by Holly Tillet at 40:33. Bruin keeper Stacey Ozga (Fr., Shelton, Wash. / Shelton HS) had come out to challenge Tinner, but collided with teammate New and was knocked to the ground, allowing the easy goal.

Tillett cut the Bruins' margin to one with a much tougher goal at 71:01 in the second half, drilling a shot to the right of Ozga from 10 yards in front of the line after a pass from Trina Hodo. The Bruin defense tightened up, however, and allowed only two more shots by the Knights the rest of the way, neither on goal.

Bernhardt wound up with 10 saves against the Bruins' 21 shots, while Ozga saved 7 of the Knights' 15 attempts.

Against this week's opponent, he is 0-0 vs. Warner Pacific.

BRUIN BITS:

 Record-Setting Weaver Named NWC "Offensive Player of the Week":

Monique Weaver (Fr., F, Salem, Ore. / Blanchet Catholic HS) set two records as George Fox defeated Cascade 11-0 Tuesday in the Bruins' only game of the week, earning Northwest Conference Women's Offensive Player of the Week for Sept. 8-14. She scored 5 goals and assisted on another, setting GFU records for most goals in a game and most total points in a game (11). Weaver's marks broke the previous records of 4 goals and 8 points in a game, done twice before by Julie Jensen at Linfield on Oct. 28, 1991, and Gegi Bonera at Western Baptist on Oct. 13, 1993. Amazingly, she did not even start the game, but came in about 12 minutes into the contest when starting forward Shannon Miles was forced to the sidelines after an asthma attack.

 Other Records Set or Tied in Romp over Cascade:

Four George Fox players tied the school record for assists in a game with 2 each in the Bruins' 11-0 win at Cascade on Tuesday: Kiersten Luginbill (Fr., M, Caledonia, Ill. / Christian Life HS), Karli Saathoff (So., F/M, Ridgefield, Wash. / Ridgefield HS), Lindsay Jacobs (Fr., M, Bend, Ore. / Mountain View HS), and Alli Franz (Fr., D, Granite Bay, Calif. / Granite Bay HS) ...

Team-wise, the Bruins had 11 goals and 11 assists against Cascade, tying the record of 33 points set in a 14-0 win at Western Baptist on Oct. 13, 1993, in which they had 14 goals and 5 assists. That 14-0 win was the only other time the Bruins have scored double-figure goals in a game ...

The 11 assists more than doubled the previous best of 5 assists in the Western Baptist game and at Albertson on Oct. 22, 1994 ...

 Erickson Continue Climb on All-Time Scoring Lists:

Brooke (Pitner) Erickson (Sr., F, Vancouver, Wash. / Skyview HS) scored the George Fox Bruins' first and third goals of the 11-0 win at Cascade on Tuesday, giving her 18 goals and 43 total points in her career. She is now tied for 5th in career goals with Julie Jensen (1991-94), and is 6th all-time in points. Ahead in goals are Staci Morris (1994-97) and Katrina Crabb (1995-97), who are tied for 3rd with 21 apiece, while Jensen is 5th in total points with 46.

LAST WEEK'S GAMES – 1-0 (Recaps):

9/9 – GEORGE FOX 11, CASCADE 0: Weaver and Bruins Rewrite Record Books in Rout of Thunderbirds

PORTLAND, Ore. – Monique Weaver set new George Fox University single-game records with 5 goals and 11 total points, and the Bruins tied another record for most total team points in a game with 33, highlighting the Bruins' first win of the season, an 11-0 romp over the Cascade College Thunderbirds Tuesday afternoon (Sept. 9) here at the Cascade campus field.

Weaver achieved her records despite not starting the game. Brooke Erickson got the Bruins going with a direct free kick goal 10:44 into the game, and Weaver made it 2-0 with her first goal at 12:40 shortly after entering the game as a replacement for Shannon Miles, who suffered an asthma attack and had to come off the field. Erickson added another goal at 27:07, and Weaver chalked up two more scores before the half was over for a 5-0 George Fox lead at the break.

The Bruins added six more goals in the second half, with scores by Karli Saathoff, Emily Atkinson, Kiersten Luginbill, Alice Long (assisted by Weaver), and two more by Weaver within a minute of each other around the 70-minute mark. The Bruins played conservatively the rest of the way and took no more shots, out-shooting the over-matched T-Birds 36-4 for the game.

Weaver's marks broke the previous records of 4 goals and 8 points in a game, done twice before by Julie Jensen at Linfield on Oct. 28, 1991, and Gegi Bonera at Western Baptist on Oct. 13, 1993. Four players also had 2 assists apiece – Luginbill, Saathoff, Lindsay Jacobs, and Alli Franz – tying a single-game mark done 10 other times.

Team-wise, the Bruins had 11 goals and 11 assists against Cascade, tying the record of 33 points set in the 14-0 Western Baptist game in which they had 14 goals and 5 assists. The 11 assists more than doubled the previous best of 5 assists in the Western Baptist game and at Albertson on Oct. 22, 1994.

COACH ANDY HETHERINGTON (St. John's, England '76) is 1-17 (.056) in his 2nd season as a college coach, all at George Fox. He was 123-20-5 in 10 seasons as a high school coach before becoming only the second coach in the history of women's soccer at George Fox, which began in 1991. Against this week's opponents, he is 0-1 vs. Cal State-Hayward (0-1 road).

--- George Fox Women's Soccer 2003 Preview ---

“NO EXPECTATIONS, JUST BETTER PLAY” SAYS HETHERINGTON OF 2003 BRUINS

With his first season of college coaching under his belt and a ton of new recruits, George Fox University women's soccer coach Andy Hetherington is making very few predictions about his 2003 Bruins.

“I have no expectations this year,” says Hetherington, “at least not in terms of our won-lost record. What I AM looking for is how competitive we can be in terms of possession time, parity of shots, narrowing the gap statistically. We'll be looking to play much tighter defense, not concede as many shots, and score more goals. If we can cut our negative stats by half and improve our positive stats by 100%, we'll be competitive.”

Hetherington joined the George Fox program late in the summer of 2002, with no time to recruit, after posting a 123-20-5 record in 10 years of high school coaching, and the Bruins' 1-15 record (1-13 and 8th in the Northwest Conference) was his first experience on the negative side of the ledger. With 11 new players this year as a part of his first recruiting class, he admits that “we're very young and inexperienced and have had little time together, so I will be deliriously happy with a 5th or 6th-place finish in the conference.”

Returning Players Led by Erickson

The Bruins have six returning letterwinners, including four starters, led by Second Team All-Conference selection Brooke (Pitner) Erickson (Sr., Vancouver, Wash.), the team's lone senior. Erickson led the team in goals (4) and points (9), and will be shifted from midfield to forward this year to take advantage of the scoring prowess she has with her size and speed.

Also back are starting midfielders Danielle Bowie (So., Spokane, Wash.) and Sarah Stark (Jr., Ontario, Ore.) and defender Jenn Tyhurst (Jr., Oregon City, Ore.). Karli Saathoff (So., Ridgefield, Wash.), a part-time starter at both forward and midfield, and Carice Fell (Jr., Astoria, Ore.), who can play defender or goalkeeper, also return and will bid for plenty of playing time.

Shannon Miles (Fr., Salem, Ore.), who played in only one game last season due to an injury and received a medical red-shirt year, is expected to bring speed and agility to the starting lineup at a forward position opposite Erickson. Also back after sitting out a year is defender Jill Steinfeld (So., Portland, Ore.), who should help strengthen the defense immediately.

Newcomers Will be Called on Quickly

Replacing First Team All-Conference goalkeeper Cori Wulf, who led the NWC in saves (186), will be a tough chore, but Stacey Ozga (Fr., Shelton, Wash.) has shown plenty of promise. Says Hetherington, "She has a lot to learn, obviously, but technically she is very good, works hard, and has good positional sense. I've been very pleased with her play in the net."

Wulf, incidentally, returns to her alma mater as an assistant coach this season, albeit with a new name as Cori Clausen (she was married to former George Fox baseball player Richie Clausen in August).

Hetherington also considers his two center midfielders to be "pivotal" if the team is to improve, and has targeted Emily Atkinson (Fr. Fircrest, Wash.) and Kiersten Luginbill (Fr., Caledonia, Ill.) for those positions.

"Watch out for Emily; she's an all-around player and one of my top recruit," Hetherington advises. "She can penetrate on the dribble, and passes like a dream. Kiersten is a smart player, a great passer and good distributor."

With Bowie at left mid, the right mid could go to Lindsay Jacobs (Fr., Bend, Ore.). Top candidates to join Steinfeld and Tyhurst on defense are Lacey Holman (Fr., Yakima, Wash.) and Melissa Noyd (Fr., Salem, Ore.).

Providing depth for this year's squad will be forwards Alice Long (So., Walla Walla, Wash.) and Monique Weaver (Fr., Salem, Ore.), midfielder/defenders Annie New (Fr., Portland, Ore.) and Julie Kleese (Fr., Stevensville, Mont.), and defender Alli Franz (Fr., Granite Bay, Calif.).

Summary

"While we do have a lot of new faces, we have some talented newcomers who have contributed to an improved outlook and a renewed excitement for the whole team," notes Hetherington. "We have good all-around speed that should help us bridge the distance between us and our opponents, but it will be a 'character' thing: Will our young players discover that they can play with the best?"

"Even though we had some close games last year, the disparity between skill levels was readily apparent. We'd get something like four shots a game while the other team would get 26 or more, and the only reason the games were close was because they couldn't finish. If we can narrow that margin significantly, get up around 15-18 shots a game while holding our opponents around that number, we'll have a much better chance to win some of those."

--- Northwest Conference Pre-Season Poll ---

GEORGE FOX TABBED FOR 8TH, WILLAMETTE FAVORED IN 2003 NORTHWEST CONFERENCE WOMEN'S SOCCER POLL

SPOKANE, Wash. – Coming off a 1-15 record and with only four starters returning, it was perhaps not surprising that the George Fox University Bruins were picked to finish 8th in the Northwest Conference 2003 women's soccer standings in a pre-season poll of the league's eight coaches. Nevertheless, second-year coach Andy Hetherington likes his newcomers and hopes spring a few upsets as his young Bruins start back on the road to the upper levels of the conference.

The Bruins lost All-Conference goalkeeper Cori Wulf to graduation, although she is back at her alma mater as an assistant coach. Leading the returning Bruins is Brooke (Pitner) Erickson, the team leader in goals (4) and points (90) who will be moving from midfielder to forward for her senior season.

Willamette University, which has won or shared nine of the last ten Northwest Conference women's soccer championships, is a strong favorite to return to the title in 2003. Willamette, which picked up seven of eight first place votes and 70 total poll points, will be led by two-time first team All-NWC forward Anne Merten. Merten was second in the NWC in points scored last season. The Bearcats were left out of last season's NCAA tournament despite a record of 16-2-1 and a top-ten national ranking.

Defending co-champion Puget Sound finished second in the poll with one first place vote and 55 poll points. The Loggers finished 17-2-1 and advanced to the NCAA quarterfinals in 2002. UPS will again be led by 2002 NWC Player of the Year Bridget Stolee, a junior.

Whitworth College and Linfield College were closely behind in third and fourth place, respectively, in the poll. The Pirates totaled 47 points and return All-NWC forward Heather Sale. The Wildcats had 44 points and are looking to replace 2002 NWC points leader Brynn Devlin.

Whitman College (27 points), Pacific University (24 points), and Pacific Lutheran University (21 points) were closely bunched in the fifth through seventh spots in the poll. All-NWC defender Meghan Bowen will lead Whitman, while Pacific will look to All-NWC defender Jamie MacLauchlan. PLU returns All-NWC midfielder Andrea Gabler.

LAST WEEK'S GAMES – 0-2:

8/29 – WESTERN BAPTIST 2, GEORGE FOX 1: Bruins Drop Opener to Warriors in Zoske Tournament

OLYMPIA, Wash. – After taking a 1-0 lead in the first half, the George Fox University Bruins could not make it last as the Western Baptist College Warriors scored a pair of second-half goals for a 2-1 win in the women's soccer opener for both teams in the Arno Zoske Tournament Friday afternoon (Aug. 29) here at Evergreen State College.

Sarah Stark got the Bruins off to a good start, scoring an unassisted goal with 26:50 left in the opening half on a long crossing kick from the left side into the right corner of the net. However, the Warriors bounced back with a pair of scores within seven minutes of each other. The first, by KeriAnn Rumrey, came with 25:10 left, an unassisted shot into the left corner of the net for a 1-1 tie. The second, by Danae Crain, came at the 18:28 mark, also into the left corner, after a cross from Rumrey.

The match was evenly played, Western Baptist coming up with 20 shots and George Fox with 18. Bruin keeper Stacey Ozga made 8 saves, while Kim Mendenhall stopped 9 shots on goal for the Warriors.

8/30 – PACIFIC LUTHERAN 3, GEORGE FOX 1: Fox Falls to PLU as NWC Rivals Meet in Zoske Tournament

OLYMPIA, Wash. – A pair of Northwest Conference women's soccer rivals squared off in the second round of the Arno Zoske Tournament Saturday afternoon (Aug. 30) here at Evergreen State College, with the Pacific Lutheran University Lutes escaping with a 3-1 win over the George Fox University Bruins.

Alyssa Bursleson boosted the Lutes to a 2-0 lead with unassisted goals at 34:37 and 41:14 in the first half, but the Bruins cut that margin in half before the break as Brooke Erickson scored at 43:41 with an assist from Danielle Bowie. Erickson, the Bruins' top scorer last year, had missed the start of the game to attend a wedding.

Nicole Roeder gave PLU a little breathing room early in the second half, scoring at the 52:00 mark off a feed from Brita Lider. The PLU defense held the Bruins to only 8 total shots and just 4 on goal, with Liz Chaze making 3 saves. George Fox keeper Stacey Ozga made 7 saves as the Lutes took 16 shots.

8/30 – PACIFIC LUTHERAN 3, GEORGE FOX 1: Fox Falls to PLU as NWC Rivals Meet in Zoske Tournament

OLYMPIA, Wash. – A pair of Northwest Conference women's soccer rivals squared off in the second round of the Arno Zoske Tournament Saturday afternoon (Aug. 30) here at Evergreen State College, with the Pacific Lutheran University Lutes escaping with a 3-1 win over the George Fox University Bruins.

Alyssa Burleson boosted the Lutes to a 2-0 lead with unassisted goals at 34:37 and 41:14 in the first half, but the Bruins cut that margin in half before the break as Shannon Miles scored her first career goal at 43:41 with an assist from Danielle Bowie. Miles, expected to be a starter last year as a freshman, missed all but one game in 2002 with an injury and was given a red-shirt year.

Nicole Roeder gave PLU a little breathing room early in the second half, scoring at the 52:00 mark off a feed from Brita Lider. The PLU defense held the Bruins to only 8 total shots and just 4 on goal, with Liz Chaze making 3 saves. George Fox keeper Stacey Ozga made 7 saves as the Lutes took 16 shots.

George Fox fell to 0-2 in the season, while it was the season opener for Pacific Lutheran. The Bruins return to action next Sunday (Sept. 7), hosting California State University-Hayward at Morse Field in Newberg at 12:00 noon.
