George Fox College 1994-95 Women's Basketball Outlook

Four returning starters off last year's surprising George Fox College women's basketball squad buoy Lady Bruin hopes for a run at the Cascade Collegiate Conference crown.

"It's anybody's race this year in the conference," says second-year head coach Sherri Murrell, who won conference Coach of the Year honors in her inaugural season. "I think we're one of the ones to watch out for."

George Fox defeated nationally-ranked teams four times last year and came within 10 points of advancing to the conference finals.

Murrell will guide six returning letterwinners, one transfer, three 1993-94 redshirts, and one freshman. Of the 11 players, eight played in a summer basketball league to improve themselves.

"I think we're strong in both the inside and outside game," Murrell says. "We pose a threat in both areas. This team really works well together," she says. "They know each other's strengths and weaknesses."

The starters all played together last season.

The team leader is senior Heidi Rueck, who Murrell considers the top point guard in the conference. Rueck is a four-year starter and is 144 assists away from the school career record. As a sophomore, she established the season assist record at 149.

GFC's other starting guard, senior Kerry Aillaud, gives the Lady Bruins an outside shooting threat. Her 3-point shooting percentage of .414 is the best in George Fox history.

With an injury-plagued sophomore season behind her, 5-9 junior forward Jamie Courtney has moved into the starting lineup. A pure shooter, Courtney also has good defensive instincts.

✓ A two-sport athlete, 5-11 junior forward Liz Stephens is one of the strongest and quickest players in the conference. Stephens, a hurdler who last year qualified for the NAIA national track

-more-

Key losses from last year were freshman guard Mindi Loiodici, senior guard Traci Blair and GFC's leading scorer and rebounder forward/center Kristy Fleming, now an assistant coach.

"We lost some rebounding from Kristy, but Meagan (Williams) and our younger kids like Nancy (Rissemiller) will step up. We have the players that can fill that gap."

Murrell has lined up one of the toughest schedules George Fox has ever played. Seven opponents will be from divisions above the Lady Bruins including NCAA Division I University of Portland.

George Fox is playing its final year in the Cascade Collegiate Conference and will join the Northwest Conference of Independent Colleges next year.

1993-94 Women's Basketball Highlights

First-year women's basketball coach Sherri Murrell got off to a storybook start, earning Cascade Conference Coach of the Year honors while guiding the Lady Bruins to their first playoff berth in three years.

Murrell — the youngest coach in the conference at 26 — didn't lack for confidence at the beginning of the season. She expected her team to return to postseason play.

"That will happen," she said in November.

It did happen as the Lady Bruins — on their way to a 16-12 record and a surprise third-place conference finish — four times upset nationally ranked teams. Falling to GFC were 12th-ranked Lewis & Clark College, 32nd-ranked Pacific University, and 18th- and 22nd-ranked Southern Oregon State College twice. The Lady Bruins edged out Southern Oregon for third and finished behind eventual national runner-up Western Oregon State College and 12th-ranked Northwest Nazarene College.

NNC knocked George Fox from postseason play, 72-63 in Nampa, Idaho.

Three GFC players earned conference kudos. Kristy Fleming and Heidi Rueck made the all-conference team. Fleming, a senior center/forward from Aberdeen, Wash., was the conference's top rebounder all season, ending regular season play with 11.9 per game, including a season-high of 21 against Pacific University. She was also GFC's leading scorer at 11.61.

Rueck, a junior point guard from Hillsboro, Ore. who moved up from honorable mention in 1992-93, finished second in the Cascade Conference in assists, averaging 5.1 per game.

Meagan Williams, a junior forward/center from Forest Grove, Ore., received honorable mention honors. Williams averaged 11.3 points per game during the regular season.

The Lady Bruins lost just two seniors: Fleming and guard Traci Blair, from Salem, Ore.

LADY BRUIN BASKETBALL

Overall: 0-1 Conference: 0-0

WHAT'S BRUIN:

Tuesday, Nov. 22, 5:15 p.m. ... vs. Willamette University ... Newberg, Ore. ... The Bearcats return two starters and eight letterwinners from a 16-10 team that won the Northwest Conference of Independent Colleges championship. ... The Bearcats are led by 5-10 junior forward Margaret Weber and 5-5 senior point guard Carolyn Leary, who, respectively, averaged 12.2 and 8.8 points a game last year.

GFC 69, Pacific 86

Guard/forward Nancy Rissmiller (Fr., Tigard HS, Ore.) came off the George Fox bench to lead the Lady Bruins with 17 points and 11 rebounds in GFC's season opening 86-69 loss at Pacific University, Friday (Nov. 18).

Rissmiller was 6-8 from the field and 5-8 at the line.

Rebounding was the difference as Pacific outboarded the Lady Bruins 51-34. George Fox actually shot better from the field (.450) than the fast-breaking Boxers (.429), but Pacific got away more shots.

Pacific broke away and swept to a 40-29 lead at half and held on for the win.

BRUIN BITS:

 GFC probably has one of the youngest college coaching staffs in the country. Head coach Sherri Murrell is 27 and assistant coaches Scott Rueck and Kristy Fleming are 25 and 23 respectively.

 Assistant coach Kristy Fleming is a member of the Portland Saints women's basketball club team, playing NCAA Division I, II, III and NAIA schools between Arizona and Canada.

 Melody (Groeneveld) McMaster, one of George Fox College's finest women's basketball players, was inducted into the NAIA District 2 Athletic Hall of Fame this year.

McMaster was a standout four-sport athlete for George Fox between 1981 and 1985.

In 1983, she was the NAIA District 2 high jump champion, clearing 5-6.

As a 5-8 forward she was a three-time all-district basketball selection. As a sophomore in 1982-83, she averaged 20.2 points, second in the NAIA and 12.2 rebounds, third in the NAIA. She currently is No. 1 on GFC's career scoring list with 1,629 points and her 37 points in a single game is still a school record.

In 1982, she helped the volleyball team to a National Christian College Athletic Association national title and won individual NCCAA All-American honors. That year, as a sophomore, she was named team MVP and all-district.

Her freshman and sophomore seasons she played softball with the Lady Bruins.

SHERRI SAYS: (Comments from second-year head coach Sherri Murrell, 1993-94 Cascade Collegiate Conference Coach of the Year)

On Pacific: "I think that we had the first game jitters. The key to the game was that they outrebounded us by 17 boards. Their run and gun offense also caused us a few problems."

On Willamette: "I think that (the Lady Bruins) will be much more ready against Willamette than they were against Pacific. Willamette is a good team, with a lot of people back, and defense will be the key against them. When our defense is good, it spurs our offense, and they really step it up."

LADY BRUIN BASKETBALL

Overall: 0-2 Conference: 0-0

WHAT'S BRUIN:

Monday, Nov. 28, 5:15 p.m. ... vs. University of Portland ... Portland, Ore. ... The Lady Bruins will face probably their toughest opponent of the season in the defending West Coast Conference champion Portland Pilots ... The Pilots are led by first-team all-West Coast Conference senior center Amy Claboe, who has averaged 17.0 points and 7.1 rebounds per game in two years at University of Portland.

Tuesday, Nov. 29, 7:30 p.m. ... vs Linfield College ... Newberg, Ore. ... Non-conference cross-county clash ... The Wildcats are led by junior center Jennifer Sampson and sophomore center Colby Cummings. Sampson last year averaged 12.2 points and 8.2 rebounds a game while Cummings scored 9.0 points and grabbed 7.3 rebounds a game.

GFC 62, Willamette 80

Despite an 18 point, 13 rebound effort by forward Liz Stephens (Jr., Newport HS, Bellevue, Wash.), George Fox fell 80-62 to visiting Willamette University Tuesday (Nov. 22) in the Lady Bruins' home opener.

Meagan Williams (Sr., Forest Grove HS, Ore) added 16 points and four rebounds. Stevens was 12 of 17 at the free throw line.

Willamette broke the game open early with a 14-0 run early on in the first half en route to the 18-point victory. The Lady Bruins closed the gap to 56-46 with eight and a half minutes to go in the game, but the Lady Bearcats put in another 10-0 run to put the game out of reach.

BRUIN BITS:

 Center Angela Pettit (So., Sprague HS, Salem, Ore.) was scheduled on Monday (Nov. 28) to have pins removed from the finger she broke in preseason practice.

 GFC probably has one of the youngest college coaching staffs in the country. Head coach Sherri Murrell is 27 and assistant coaches Scott Rueck and Kristy Fleming are 25 and 23, respectively.

SHERRI SAYS: (Comments from second-year head coach Sherri Murrell, 1993-94 Cascade Collegiate Conference Coach of the Year)

On Willamette: "I thought that we played a good second half. Our defense really started clicking and we started dictating what was going to happen in the game. The first half we didn't play very good defense and our shooting was very poor, but we did come back and outscore them in the second half."

On University of Portland: "This game will definitely be a challenge. We are not concerned with the outcome of the game as much, but instead we are going to try and play tough pressure defense and see what we can do. They definitely have the size advantage on us, so we are going to try and pressure inside."

-more-

On Linfield College: "I think that this will be a good challenge for us. Our team is hungry for wins, and Linfield is always up to play George Fox. We are just going to go at them and change up our defense a bit."

Saturday, Dec. 10, 8 pm. ... vs. Simon Fraser University ... First-ever meeting between schools ... SFU was 26-5 last season.

LAST WEEK:

GFC 62, University of Portland 87

NCAA Division I University of Portland used its size to full advantage in a 87-62 win over George Fox in Portland Monday (Nov. 28).

The Lady Pilots outrebounded GFC 45-36 to put away the pesky Lady Bruins, who hung around within 15 points for most of the game.

George Fox's scrappy defense forced several Portland turnovers and the Bruins went on a 15-2 run to close a 26-11 gap to 36-29 with just over a minute to play before halftime.

George Fox's defense almost ran them out of players. The Lady Bruins came within one foul of losing all three of its post players.

GFC 64, Linfield 63

Point guard Heidi Rueck (Sr., Glencoe HS, Hillsboro, Ore) scored 17 points and gave out seven assists, lifting George Fox to its first win of the season — a 64-63 thriller over Linfield College Tuesday (Nov. 29th) in Newberg.

Liz Stephens (Jr., Newport HS, Bellevue, Wash.) added 15 points on 7 of 10 field goal shooting.

Linfield led 38-35 at halftime, but the Lady Bruins stepped up their defense pressure in the second half and allowed just 25 second half points.

GFC 63, Lewis-Clark State College 83

Lewis-Clark State College, an NAIA Division I team, raced to an early lead and held off the Lady Bruins 83-63 in the opening round of the Linfield College Christmas Classic, Friday (Dec. 2).

Stephens led four Lady Bruins in double figures with 13 points. The Warriors shot .485 in the first half on their way to a 37-20 lead that they never relinquished.

Guard/forward Nancy Rissmiller (Fr., Tigard HS, Ore.) corralled a team-high seven rebounds.

The Warriors went on to win the tournament championship 78-54 over Linfield.

GFC 87, Concordia 57

Rueck and Stephens poured in 20 points apiece as the Lady Bruins defeated Concordia. College 87-57 in the consolation game of the Linfield Christmas Classic. Rueck (9-9) and Stephens (4-4) were a combined 13 of 13 from the free throw line.

Angela Pettit (So., Sprague HS, Salem, Ore.) — still in her first week back from injury — scored 11 points on 5 of 6 shooting from the field.. GFC broke the game open early and led by 24 at halftime, thanks to 47 percent shooting (18-36) from the field.

BRUIN BITS:

 One day after having pins removed from her broken finger, center Angela Pettit (So., Sprague HS, Salem, Ore.) returned to action Tuesday (Nov. 29) against Linfield. She played for nine minutes and scored three points and grabbed two rebounds.

 GFC probably has one of the youngest college coaching staffs in the country. Head coach Sherri Murrell is 27 and assistant coaches Scott Rueck and Kristy Fleming are 25 and 23, respectively.

SHERRI SAYS: (Comments from second-year head coach Sherri Murrell, 1993-94 Cascade Collegiate Conference Coach of the Year)

On University of Portland: "I thought that we played well. They are a good team and I think that we gave them a run for their money. Our shooters were struggling a bit, but I think that we gained their respect."

On Linfield College: "We haven't been going out and playing very well in the first half. It was too close of a game for me since we got ourselves into a first-half deficit, but in the end we picked up our defense and we pulled it off."

On the Linfield tournament: "I think that we played well, especially against Concordia. Against them, our defense really played well."

On Willamette: "We've looked at the films of the last game and we realized that the key is the way that we start off. We are going to go out with a different game plan, but we have to use the same defense that we had against Linfield in the second half."

LADY BRUIN BASKETBALL

Overall: 4-5 Conference: 0-0

WHAT'S BRUIN:

Friday, Dec. 16, 7:30 p.m. ... vs. Central Washington University ... Newberg ... NAIA Division I
Central Washington enters the week 2-7 after winning two straight and snapping a 23-game two-season losing streak ... The Wildcats are without their lone returning starter, Shannon Sherril, who was lost for the season with a knee injury ... Last season, the Lady Bruins and the Wildcats split their two meetings.

Saturday, Dec. 17, 7:30 p.m. ... vs. Seattle University ... Newberg ... Coming off a successful 17-10 season that saw them lose in the semifinals of the Pacific Northwest Athletic Conference playoffs, the NAIA Division I Chieftains return three starters ... Seattle and George Fox did not play last year ... SU is led by Stacia Marriott who last year averaged 9.1 ppg, 4.4 rpg, and 4.3 apg.

LAST WEEK:

GFC 73, Willamette 65

Down 20 points at halftime (45-25), George Fox outscored Willamette University by 28 points in what might have been the greatest second half comeback in the history of Lady Bruin basketball.

George Fox made up for a 80-62 loss at home on Nov. 22 with a 73-65 victory in Salem Tuesday (Dec. 6). Heidi Rueck (Sr., Glencoe HS, Hillsboro, Ore.) led the Lady Bruins with 17 points and four assists. She was 7 of 8 from the free throw line.

GFC collected just four first half rebounds, but came on in the second half to tie the rebounding battle at 38 apiece.

Meagan Williams (Sr., Forest Grove HS, Ore.) led all players with 10 rebounds.

GFC 98, Trinity Western 33

The Lady Bruins jumped out to a 42-point halftime lead en route to a 65-point victory against Trinity Western University in the first round of the Simon Fraser Classic Friday (Dec. 9).

Kerry Aillaud (Sr., Port Angeles HS, Wash.) sank five of eight 3-pointers and had 21 points to lead all scorers. Five different GFC players scored in double figures.

Angela Pettit (So., Sprague HS, Salem, Ore.) hit five of her eight field goal attempts and finished with 14 points and seven rebounds. Williams had a team-high nine rebounds.

The Lady Bruins shot 57 percent (24-42) in the first half and led 54-12 at the break.

GFC 48, Simon Fraser 80

One night after administering a blowout, George Fox ended up on the receiving end. NAIA Division I Simon Fraser University rolled past George Fox 80-48 in the championship game of the Simon Fraser Tournament.

The much-taller Simon Fraser players held GFC to 24 percent shooting in the first half and led 43-15 at the break.

Williams and Liz Stephens (Jr., Newport HS, Wash.) both had 12 points to lead the Lady Bruins. George Fox was 12 of 13 from the free throw line, but 17-61 (.279) for the game.

BRUIN BITS:

 GFC probably has one of the youngest college coaching staffs in the country. Head coach Sherri Murrell is 27 and assistant coaches Scott Rueck and Kristy Fleming are 25 and 23, respectively.

 The 98 points scored against Trinity Western was the largest point total by George Fox in almost a year. The Lady Bruins scored 103 against Western Baptist last season in Salem on Jan. 15.

SHERRI SAYS: (Comments from second-year head coach Sherri Murrell, 1993-94 Cascade Collegiate Conference Coach of the Year)

On Willamette: "That's the greatest comeback I've been associated with as a coach or player. Once again we didn't get a good start in the first half. The thing that won the game was defense."

On Trinity Western: "Kerry Aillaud had a great game. It was something she needed. She hasn't been shooting well. Our pressure defense and shooting was better. It was too much for Trinity. It was a night we were on."

On Simon Fraser: "We could have played out of our minds and they still would have won. They're a great team. They just outsized us. That's the best defensive team we've played. Kerry had only three attempts. We couldn't get the ball to her. They started a lineup University of Portland would like."

On Central Washington: "The key to the win is how we respond out of finals week. I'm really pleased with our defense. That's going to help us until we shoot better. We're going to come out strong in the first half I hope."

On Seattle University: "They are a very good team and have a good program."

LADY BRUIN BASKETBALL

Overall: 5-6 Conference: 0-0

WHAT'S BRUIN:

Wednesday, Dec. 28, 7:30 p.m. ... Portland Saints (exhibition) ... Newberg ... The Saints are a club team of former NCAA and NAIA college players ... GFC coaches Sherri Murrell and Kristy Fleming have both played for the Saints.

LAST WEEK:

George Fox 79, Central Washington University 64

After completing finals week, the Lady Bruins finished off visiting NAIA Division 1 Central Washington 79-64, Friday (Dec. 16).

The Wildcats (2-7) came in on a two-game winning streak, after losing 23 in a row over two seasons.

George Fox took 15 more shots and controlled the boards 30-26, grabbing five more offense rebounds.

Heidi Rueck (Sr., Glencoe HS, Hillsboro, Ore.) led George Fox with 19 points, hitting 2-2 from the 3-point line. Liz Stephens (Jr., Newport HS, Bellevue, Wash.) shot 6-10 from the field and 6-6 from the free throw line to end the game with 18 points. Angela Pettit (So. Sprague HS, Salem, Ore.) led the Lady Bruins with eight rebounds and added eight points to the total.

While Central Washington shot 53 percent from the field, they couldn't overcome their 27 turnovers. Amanda Johnson of CWU led both teams with 20 points.

George Fox 62, Seattle University 69

Hitting some key 3-pointers in the final minutes, visiting Seattle University Saturday handed GFC just its second loss in the last six games, 69-62.

Both teams shot blanks heading into halftime, neither team able to hit more than 33 percent of its field goals. Seattle took a 25-24 lead into the break.

Center Meagan Williams (Sr., Forest Grove HS, Ore.) led GFC with 16 points and brought down seven rebounds. Rueck scored 14 points — going 6-8 from the free throw line — and led both teams with five assists. Keelie Keown (So. Oakridge HS, Ore.) came off the bench to almost record a double-double. Keown ended the game with nine points and 10 rebounds in 23 minutes.

Amy Kuchan had game highs of 19 points and 12 rebounds to lead Seattle.

BRUIN BITS:

 It's been a rough year for Lady Bruins taller than 5-10. Of the four on GFC's roster, two have missed games with similar injuries. First center Angela Pettit (So., Sprague HS, Salem, Ore.) broke her little finger in preseason practice and missed the first three games. Now forward Nancy Rissmiller (Fr., Tigard HS, Ore.) broke the same finger in the game with Simon Fraser University. She'll miss at least the rest of December.

 Point guard Heidi Rueck (Sr., Glencoe HS, Hillsboro, Ore.) is making a run at the George Fox career assist record. She needs 89 more to surpass 1991 graduate Linda Funderhide's record of 538. Rueck set the GFC season assist record as a sophomore with 148.

 GFC probably has one of the youngest college coaching staffs in the country. Head coach Sherri Murrell is 27 and assistant coaches Scott Rueck and Kristy Fleming are 25 and 23, respectively.

SHERRI SAYS: (Comments from second-year head coach Sherri Murrell, 1993-94 Cascade Collegiate Conference Coach of the Year)

On Central Washington: "It was a good game for us. We shot really well and I was pleased with our fast break. I was also happy with our overall scoring. We spread the points around very well."

On Seattle University: "It was tight through the whole game. They hit some big three pointers at the end to put it out of reach. We beat them on the boards, but we just need more outside shooting right now. Keelie (Keown) had a great game for us when we needed it."

On Portland Saints: "They are great players. I'm not looking at a win or a loss for us, we just needed something to keep us in shape over the break."

LADY BRUIN BASKETBALL

Overall: 5-7 Conference: 0-0

WHAT'S BRUIN:

Friday, Jan. 6, 5:30 p.m. ... Northwest Nazarene College ... Nampa, Idaho ... George Fox opens its Cascade Collegiate Conference campaign against the Crusaders ... The Crusaders are ranked fifth in the NAIA Division II poll and carry a 10-2 record ... NNC swept George Fox in four games last year, eliminating GFC in the first round of the conference playoffs 66-52.

Saturday, Jan. 7, 7:30 p.m. ... Eastern Oregon State College ... La Grande, Ore. ... Conference counter ... EOSC enters the week 1-11 ... GFC won both games last season 75-74 in La Grande and 82-69 in Newberg.

LAST WEEK:

George Fox 55, St. Martins 75

NAIA Division I St. Martin's College spoiled the Lady Bruins' new year with a 75-55 GFC loss in Newberg, Tuesday (Jan. 3).

George Fox hung with the taller Saints until a 17-2 run midway through the first half put St. Martin's up 35-16. The Lady Bruins committed seven turnovers in a five-minute span. GFC trailed 39-28 at half, but could pull no closer than 11 points the rest of the way.

GFC center Meagan Williams (Sr., Forest Grove HS, Ore.) lead the Lady Bruins with 12 points on 6-7 shooting. Williams also brought down five rebounds. Senior guard Heidi Rueck (Sr., Glencoe HS, Hillsboro, Ore.) added 11 points, six rebounds, and five assists.

Liz Stephens (Jr., Newport HS, Bellevue, Wash.) put in 10 points and seven rebounds for the Lady Bruins. George Fox outrebounded the Lady Saints squad 40-30.

St. Martin's Olivia Carrillo — a member of the Mexican national team — led all scorers with 17 points.

BRUIN BITS:

 GFC assistant coach Scott Rueck was missing from GFC'S Monday (Jan. 2) practice. He had permission — as well as tickets to the Rose Bowl. Rueck was back with the Lady Bruins for Tuesday's game.

 It's been a rough year for Lady Bruins taller than 5-10. Of the four on GFC's roster, two have missed games with similar injuries. First center Angela Pettit (So., Sprague HS, Salem, Ore.) broke her little finger in preseason practice and missed the first three games. Then, forward Nancy Rissmiller (Fr., Tigard HS, Ore.) broke the same finger on her hand against Simon Fraser University. She missed the month of December, but returned to play against St. Martin's.

 Point guard Heidi Rueck (Sr., Glencoe HS, Hillsboro, Ore.) is making a run at the George Fox career assist record. She needs 84 more to surpass 1991 graduate Linda Funderhide's record of 538. Rueck owns the GFC season assist record, setting it as a sophomore with 148.

 GFC probably has one of the youngest college coaching staffs in the country. Head coach Sherri Murrell is 27 and assistant coaches Scott Rueck and Kristy Fleming are 25 and 23, respectively.

-more-

 Over the Christmas break, GFC lost an exhibition match with the Portland Saints club team 82-52 on Dec. 28. Both GFC coaches Kristy Fleming and Sherri Murrell have played for the Saints — a team made up of former NCAA and NAIA players.

SHERRI SAYS: (Comments from second-year head coach Sherri Murrell, 1993-94 Cascade Collegiate Conference Coach of the Year)

On St. Martin's: "We played well with them. They are strong team. We didn't step up to their level of play in the second half. We rebounded the ball very well during the game."

On Northwest Nazarene: "We've had great practices all Christmas break. We will be getting Nancy Rissmiller back this weekend. NNC is a top-ranked team. We match up well with them. They have a deep bench so we need stamina to compete."

On Eastern Oregon: "They always play tough at their home gym. We'll see how we bounce back after the NNC game."

LADY BRUIN BASKETBALL

Overall: 7-7 Conference: 2-0

GFC WOMEN EARN FIRST-EVER MENTION IN NAIA NATIONAL POLL

The George Fox women's basketball team picked up eight votes — ranking 39th — in the Jan. 9 NAIA Division II poll. The ranking is the first ever for the Lady Bruins. Also ranked from the Cascade Conference are No. 6 Southern Oregon and No. 5 NNC, which GFC downed last weekend in Nampa, Idaho. Western Oregon received 31 votes.

WHAT'S BRUIN:

Tuesday, Jan. 10, 7:30 p.m. ... Pacific University ... Newberg ... Non-conference contest ... Pacific defeated the Lady Bruins 86-69 in Forest Grove in GFC's season opener ... The Boxers are 5-8 overall and 2-0 in the Northwest Conference of Independent Colleges ... The Boxers are led by Connie Freitag, averaging 17.0 points and 7.2 rebounds a game.

Friday, Jan. 13, 5:15 p.m. ... Southern Oregon State College ... Newberg ... A battle of the two early season conference front runners ... SOSC (14-5 overall and 2-0 in conference) is the No. 4 ranked team in the Jan 2 NAIA Division II poll ... SOSC knocked off Western Oregon 81-78 and Concordia 84-49 last week ... GFC trails the NAIA series 10-9 ... The Raiders are led by the conference's leading scorer, Melissa Bogh, a 5-8 forward averaging 20.2 points and 6.6 rebounds a game.

Saturday, Jan. 14, 7:00 p.m. ... at Northwest College ... Kirkland, Wash ... GFC won two games versus Northwest last year, 74-40 and 88-56 — the only times the schools have met ... The Lady Eagles return three starters, including Janea Powell and Dawn Reid, who averaged 19.5 and 11.6 points per game, respectively.

LAST WEEK:

George Fox 73, Northwest Nazarene College 69

Leading by as many as 17 points in the second half, George Fox hung on to stun No. 5 ranked Northwest Nazarene College 73-69 in Nampa, Idaho on Friday (Jan. 6).

The win is believed to be GFC's first ever in Nampa. George Fox's first conference win also will be the Lady Bruins last. GFC leaves the Cascade Conference next year to join the Northwest Conference of Independent Colleges.

Guard Kerry Aillaud (Sr., Port Angeles HS, Wash.) led GFC in its conference opener with 25 points. Aillaud hit 9-of-14 from the field, including four 3-pointers.

GFC pushed out to a 25-12 lead and led 52-35 at half.

The Lady Bruins widened the margin to 17 at 12:48, before NNC began its comeback.

A pair of free throws by forward Liz Stephens (Jr., Newport HS, Bellevue, Wash.) put GFC up 66-52 with 5:05 remaining. The Lady Crusaders scored 10 straight and twice pulled within two, but GFC held them off by hitting five of seven free throws in the final minute.

George Fox 82, Eastern Oregon 59

The Lady Bruins improved their conference record to 2-0 with a 82-59 win over Eastern Oregon State College in La Grande Saturday (Jan. 7).

-more-

Poor road conditions forced George Fox to arrive shortly before the start of the 7:30 game and the Lady Bruins — shooting 26 percent from the field and 1-of-5 from the free throw line — trailed 33-28 at the break. GFC warmed considerably in the second half, hit 51 percent of its shots and outscored EOSC by 28 points.

Point guard Heidi Rueck (Sr., Glencoe HS, Hillsboro, Ore.) scored a team-high 15 points — seven at the free throw line — to lead GFC. She also handed out a team-high three assists.

Center Meagan Williams (Sr., Forest Grove HS, Ore.) had a solid game, collecting 13 points and 13 rebounds. She missed just two shots in the game.

Guard Kerry Aillaud (Sr., Port Angeles HS, Wash.) continued her hot shooting, hitting 4-of-6 3-pointers and finishing with 12 points.

BRUIN BITS:

 Point guard Heidi Rueck (Sr., Glencoe HS, Hillsboro, Ore.) is making a run at the George Fox career assist record. She needs 69 more to surpass 1991 graduate Linda Funderhide's record of 538. Rueck owns the GFC season assist record, setting it as a sophomore with 148. Her 5.1 assist average is fourth in the conference.

 Rueck currently is the second most accurate free throw shooter in the Cascade Conference. She has hit 67-of-85, 78.8 percent.

 It's been a rough year for Lady Bruins taller than 5-10. Of the four on GFC's roster, two have missed games with similar injuries. First center Angela Pettit (So., Sprague HS, Salem, Ore.) broke her little finger in preseason practice and missed the first three games. Then, forward Nancy Rissmiller (Fr., Tigard HS, Ore.) broke the same finger against Simon Fraser University. She missed the month of December, but returned to play against St. Martin's.

 GFC probably has one of the youngest college coaching staffs in the country. Head coach Sherri Murrell is 27 and assistant coaches Scott Rueck and Kristy Fleming are 25 and 23, respectively.

SHERRI SAYS: (Comments from second-year head coach Sherri Murrell, 1993-94 Cascade Collegiate Conference Coach of the Year)

On Northwest Nazarene: "I think that our girls played very well. We studied them a lot through game films and our girls really came out to play. We executed well and did what we wanted. I thought Kerry Aillaud played really well. They were really packing the inside, so we were able to get it to her to take the shots."

On Eastern Oregon "We got off to a slow start, because we had to just get off the bus and play, but we had a really good comeback. We weren't about to lose that one after what we had done the night before, coming off the emotional victory against Northwest Nazarene."

On Pacific "I'm really expecting to have a better game than we had the first game of the season."

On Southern Oregon "This is a very important game for us, and we really are keyed up for it. I just hope that the momentum will keep up and carry us through."

On Northwest College "We don't play them very much. I enjoy playing against Northwest, because I'm friends with the coach and both my brother and sister went to school there. I'm looking forward to going down there to play."

LADY BRUIN BASKETBALL

Overall: 10-7 Conference: 3-0

GFC LEAPS TO CONFERENCE LEAD/INCHES UP IN NATIONAL POLL

After knocking off its second nationally-ranked conference opponent, George Fox earned 19 votes in the Jan. 16 NAIA Division II poll. The Lady Bruins ranked 32nd, up from last week's 39th. Ranked above GFC are two conference opponents recently defeated by George Fox. Northwest Nazarene — which GFC downed 73-69 in Nampa Jan. 6 — ranks seventh and Southern Oregon — a 77-69 GFC victim in overtime in Newberg last weekend — is eighth.

WHAT'S BRUIN:

Tuesday, Jan. 17, 7:00 p.m. ... at Lewis & Clark College ... Portland ... Non-conference game ... First of two meetings this season ... The Pioneers are under the leadership of first-year head coach Judy McMullen ... GFC split with the Pioneers last season, winning 79-73 in Newberg and falling 87-61 in Portland ... Lewis & Clark (7-8 overall) this weekend defeated Pacific Lutheran 72-64.

Friday, Jan. 20, 5:15 p.m. ... Eastern Oregon State College ... Newberg ... Conference contest ... Earlier this season, GFC prevailed 82-59 in La Grande after trailing by five points at half ... Eastern Oregon enters the week 2-14 and 1-2 in conference ... The Mountaineers are coming off an 85-56 win over Concordia College.

Saturday, Jan. 21, 5:30 p.m. ... at Concordia College ... Portland ... Conference contest ... Concordia enters the week 3-16 and 0-3 in conference ... Concordia is coming off a 85-56 loss to Eastern Oregon and a 65-57 loss to Pacific Lutheran ... Concordia's senior forward Tara Gunderson is averaging 15.5 points per game.

LAST WEEK:

George Fox 89, Pacific 82

The Lady Bruins jumped out to a 12-point halftime lead and held on for a 89-82 non-conference win over visiting Pacific University Tuesday (Jan. 10).

Five GFC players scored in double figures.

Guard Heidi Rueck (Sr., Glencoe HS, Hillsboro, Ore.) led the Lady Bruins with 21 points and five assists.

Guard/Forward Nancy Rissmiller (Fr., Tigard HS, Ore.) led all rebounders with 12. She added 11 points.

Before fouling out, center Meagan Williams (Sr., Forest Grove HS, Ore.) collected nine rebounds and 13 points.

George Fox 77, Southern Oregon 69 OT

In a battle between the Cascade Conference front runners, George Fox grabbed sole possession of first place with a 77-69 overtime win over visiting Southern Oregon Friday (Jan. 13).

The pressing defense of the Lady Bruins helped force SOSC into 34 turnovers — more than 10 over the Raiders' average — and didn't allow Southern Oregon its first shot until three minutes had run off the clock.

GFC also struggled to score early and despite holding Southern Oregon to four first half field goals, led just 27-23 at the break. The Raiders hit 15-of-18 first half free throws.

Southern Oregon rallied in the second half and led 64-60 with 1:10 left. Putbacks by Rissmiller and forward/center Liz Stephens (Jr., Newport HS, Bellevue, Wash.) and a steal by guard Kerry Aillaud (Sr., Port Angeles HS, Wash.) gave the Lady Bruins a 64-64 tie and the opportunity to win with a final shot. The ball ended up in Stephen's hands with one second left, but her shot was blocked out of bounds.

Aillaud came up big in the final two minutes of the overtime period. With GFC holding a slim 69-67 lead with 1:55 remaining, she sank a 3-pointer, then a minute later pulled up on a drive to sink an eight footer that gave GFC a 74-69 lead.

George Fox 77, Northwest 63

Coming off an emotional win the night before, GFC struggled before putting away non-conference opponent Northwest College 77-63 Saturday (Jan. 14) in Kirkland, Wash.

The Lady Bruins pounded the Eagles on the boards, outrebounding Northwest 54-36, and capitalized on a 27-15 turnover margin.

Williams led GFC with 17 points on 6-of-9 field goal shooting. She and Aillaud were the only two Lady Bruins to hit better than 50 percent of their shots. Aillaud sank 6-of-8 and finished with 14 points.

Rueck collected 15 points and six assists.

BRUIN BITS:

 George Fox is 2-0 versus teams ranked in the Jan. 9 NAIA Division II top 25 poll. The Lady Bruins defeated No. 5 Northwest Nazarene 73-69 in Nampa, Idaho and No. 6 Southern Oregon 77-63 in overtime in Newberg.

 Point guard Heidi Rueck (Sr., Glencoe HS, Hillsboro, Ore.) is making a run at the George Fox career assist record. She needs 55 more to surpass 1991 graduate Linda Funderhide's record of 538. Rueck owns the GFC season assist record, setting it as a sophomore with 148. Her 5.2 assist average is fourth in the conference.

 In addition to being an assist leader, Rueck currently is the sixth-highest scorer (14.3 ppg), fourth most accurate 3-point shooter (.400) and second most accurate free throw shooter (.778) in the Cascade Conference.

 In the conference, center Meagan Williams (Sr., Forest Grove HS, Ore.) is the 10th highest scorer (12.5 ppg), sixth most accurate field goal shooter (.469) and is tied at seventh (7.2 rpg) with teammate Nancy Rissmiller (Fr., Tigard HS, Ore.) in rebounding.

 Forward/center Liz Stephens (Newport HS, Bellevue, Wash.) is 17th in scoring (10.8 ppg) and sixth in free throw percentage (.735).

 GFC probably has one of the youngest college coaching staffs in the country. Head coach Sherri Murrell is 27 and assistant coaches Scott Rueck and Kristy Fleming are 25 and 23, respectively.

SHERRI SAYS: (Comments from second-year head coach Sherri Murrell, 1993-94 Cascade Collegiate Conference Coach of the Year)

On Pacific: "I thought that we played really well. We needed to keep up our momentum after such an emotional win (at Northwest Nazarene) the week before. We really needed to win it and we did."

On Southern Oregon: "This was a huge game for us that we needed to win. It made us 3-0 in conference and put us on top. We played really well."

On Northwest College: "I think that we struggled a bit coming off such an emotional and physical victory the night before, but we played well enough to win."

On Lewis & Clark: "I think they are a very good team, and I have a lot of respect for them. I haven't seen much of them, but I know they have a good point guard in Michelle Gray."

On Eastern Oregon and Concordia: "In this conference, anybody can spoil the dance. We have beaten both teams already, but we can't afford to look past anyone. Anybody can sneak up on anybody and win. We're going to look at the tapes of the games, and we're going to make sure we don't let our guard down."

LADY BRUIN BASKETBALL

Overall: 13-7 Conference: 5-0

CONFERENCE-LEADING GFC WINS EIGHTH STRAIGHT/ STILL MISSING FROM POLL

The George Fox women's basketball team may lead the Cascade Conference heading into Tuesday's (Jan. 24) showdown with Western Oregon, but the Lady Bruins are still behind two of their conference opponents in the NAIA Division II poll. GFC drew 30 votes in the Jan. 23 poll, ranking 33rd. Northwest Nazarene (13-4, 3-2) — which fell 73-69 at home to GFC — is ranked No. 7 and Southern Oregon (14-8, 2-3) — a 77-68 overtime loser in Newberg — is No. 10. Western Oregon is receiving seven votes.

WHAT'S BRUIN:

Tuesday, Jan. 24, 5:45 p.m. ... at Western Oregon State College ... Monmouth, Ore. ... A clash between Cascade Conference leaders ... WOSC is 8-7 overall and 4-1 in conference ... First of two meetings ... Junior center Sandie Graves leads the conference in scoring with 19.5 points a game ... Last season, the Lady Bruins lost 64-50 in Monmouth and 76-46 in Newberg ... The Wolves lead the series 24-4.

Friday, Jan. 27, 7:00 p.m. ... at Western Baptist College ... Salem, Ore. ... Conference counter ... Western Baptist is 11-8 overall and 2-1 in conference including a home win over nationally-ranked Southern Oregon ... First year head coach Terry Williams guides four returning starters ... GFC leads the NAIA series 17-0 including 97-35 and 103-58 victories last year.

LAST WEEK:

George Fox 61, Lewis & Clark 58

George Fox plucked a 61-58 non-conference win at Lewis & Clark College Tuesday (Jan. 17).

Center/forward Meagan Williams (Sr., Forest Grove HS, Ore.) gave a 19-point, 12-rebound, four-block performance to help GFC to the win.

GFC led 33-29 at half and held off a second half Pioneer rally.

The Lady Bruins shot 39 percent for the game to Lewis & Clark's 42 percent, but committed six fewer turnovers.

George Fox 87, Eastern Oregon 64

Williams hit 11-of-12 shots from the field and George Fox rolled to an 87-64 home conference win over Eastern Oregon, Friday (Jan. 20).

The Lady Bruins jumped out to an early 20-point lead and brought in the bench. The Mountaineers — with just eight players on the roster — cut the margin back to 13, but trailed 44-20 at the break.

Every GFC player saw action and Williams led all scorers with 25 points.

Also scoring in double figures were Liz Stephens (Jr., Newport HS, Bellevue, Wash.) and Keelie Keown (Fr., Oakridge HS, Ore.) with 17 and 11 points respectively.

Heidi Rueck (Sr., Glencoe HS, Hillsboro, Ore.) added nine assists in just 23 minutes of play.

-more-

George Fox 78, Concordia 48

The Lady Bruins won their eighth-straight with a 78-48 conference win at Concordia College, Saturday (Jan. 21).

GFC spread out the playing time in the 30-point win. With Williams in foul trouble, Stephens led all scorers with 20 points on 9-of-14 shooting. Rissmiller was 6-of-9 from the field and finished with 16 points and nine rebounds.

Center Angela Pettit (So., Sprague HS, Salem, Ore.) pulled down 10 rebounds and scored 15 points.

BRUIN BITS:

 Four of George Fox's starters have proved themselves standouts in the classroom as well. Heidi Rueck (Sr., Glencoe HS, Hillsboro, Ore.), Meagan Williams (Sr., Forest Grove HS, Ore.), Nancy Rissmiller (Fr., Tigard HS, Ore.) and Kerry Aillaud (Sr., Port Angeles HS, Wash.) all were listed on the 1994-95 fall semester honor roll with grade point averages at or above 3.5 on a 4.0 scale. Katie Anderson (Jr., West Linn HS, Ore.) also made the honors listing.

 Rueck is making a run at the George Fox career assist record. She needs 37 more to surpass 1991 graduate Linda Funderhide's record of 538. Rueck owns the GFC season assist record, setting it as a sophomore with 148. Her 5.4 assist average is fourth in the conference.

 In the conference, Rueck is ninth in scoring (13.5 ppg), fourth in 3-point accuracy (.381), third in free throw accuracy (.784) and 10th in steals (2.0).

 Williams, Rissmiller and Liz Stephens (Jr., Newport HS, Bellevue, Wash.) also have multiple listings in the conference statistics. Williams is 10th in scoring (13.1 ppg), seventh in rebounding (7.3), fourth in field goal percentage (.500), and 12th in free throw accuracy (.714). Rissmiller is fifth in rebounding (7.4) and eighth in field goal percentage (.475). Stephens is 14th in scoring (11.7 ppg) and 10th in free throw percentage (.732).

 GFC probably has one of the youngest college coaching staffs in the country. Head coach Sherri Murrell is 27 and assistant coaches Scott Rueck and Kristy Fleming are 25 and 23, respectively.

SHERRI SAYS: (Comments from second-year head coach Sherri Murrell, 1993-94 Cascade Collegiate Conference Coach of the Year)

On Lewis & Clark: "I thought overall it was a pretty good game. We shot horribly from the free throw line, but we squeaked by with a win. They had a run at the end, but we held on and got the win."

On Eastern Oregon: "Meagan (Williams) had a great game. In the first half, they had trouble defending the posts, so we just kept hammering it in there. They made some changes at half and played very well in the second half, but we had a big enough lead to win."

On Concordia: "This was a good win for us. I thought we played them very well. They are much improved and made a good run, but things were happening for us, and we got the win. Meagan (Williams) was in foul trouble for much of the night, and Liz (Stephens) did a great job of stepping up and doing what needed to be done."

On Western Oregon: "Western Oregon is a very big game for us. They are definitely in contention, and they are always good. I feel good going into it. Before, we've gone into the games with them scared, but this year I think we're confident."

On Western Baptist: "This game will be a good one. They are playing good basketball. They definitely are not the same team that we played last year. I think it would be a big win for us."

LAST WEEK:

George Fox 60, Western Oregon 81

Poor outside shooting doomed the Lady Bruins to a 81-60 conference loss at Western Oregon State College on Tuesday (Jan. 24).

George Fox missed all eight of its 3-point attempts and could get just 25 percent of its first half attempts to fall. The result was a deficit that increased from three (19-16) with 8:59 remaining to 17 (43-26) at halftime.

The teams played evenly in the second half with the lead fluctuating between 16 and 23.

Center Meagan Williams (Sr., Forest Grove HS, Ore.) collected 15 points and 15 rebounds.

Forward Liz Stephens (Jr., Newport HS, Bellevue, Wash.) put in 15 points and guard/forward Nancy Rissmiller (Fr., Tigard HS, Ore.) had 11 rebounds.

George Fox 78, Western Baptist 64

Led by Meagan Williams (Sr., Forest Grove HS, Ore.), George Fox held off a second half Western Baptist charge and scored a 78-64 conference win in Salem.

GFC pushed out to a 35-24 halftime lead, but saw its advantage disappear in the second 20 minute period.

Both teams had similar shooting nights. Both hit a shade under 38 percent of their first half shots and heated up to hit more than half their second half attempts.

The Warriors rallied and took a one-point lead with just over 12 minutes left before the Lady Bruins repelled the comeback attempt.

Three Lady Bruins finished with more than 15 points each, behind the 24 point effort of Williams. Kerry Aillaud (Sr., Port Angeles HS, Wash.) totalled 17 points and Liz Stephens (Jr., Newport HS, Bellevue, Wash.) contributed 16 points to go with her 8 rebounds.

The Lady Bruins won the rebounding battle inside by a large 37-20 edge.

BRUIN BITS:

 Four of George Fox's starters have proved themselves standouts in the classroom as well. Heidi Rueck (Sr., Glencoe HS, Hillsboro, Ore.), Meagan Williams (Sr., Forest Grove HS, Ore.), Nancy Rissmiller (Fr., Tigard HS, Ore.) and Kerry Aillaud (Sr., Port Angeles HS, Wash.) all were listed on the 1994-95 fall semester honor roll with grade point averages at or above 3.5 on a 4.0 scale. Katie Anderson (Jr., West Linn HS, Ore.) and Keelie Keown (Oakridge HS, Ore.) also made the honors listing.

 Rueck is making a run at the George Fox career assist record. She needs 21 more to surpass 1991 graduate Linda Funderhide's record of 538. Rueck owns the GFC season assist record, setting it as a sophomore with 148. Her 5.6 assist average is fourth in the conference and 14th-highest nationally.

 In the conference, Rueck is 10th in scoring (12.8 ppg), seventh in 3-point accuracy (.348), third in free throw accuracy (.787) and 12th in steals (1.8).

 Williams, Rissmiller and Liz Stephens (Jr., Newport HS, Bellevue, Wash.) also have multiple listings in the conference statistics. Williams is 9th in scoring (13.6 ppg), seventh in rebounding (7.3), fifth in field goal percentage (.497), and 12th in free throw accuracy (.708). Rissmiller is fifth in rebounding (7.4) and 10th in field goal percentage (.468). Stephens is 13th in scoring (12.0 ppg) and 11th in free throw percentage (.730).

 GFC probably has one of the youngest college coaching staffs in the country. Head coach Sherri Murrell is 27 and assistant coaches Scott Rueck and Kristy Fleming are 25 and 23, respectively.

SHERRI SAYS: (Comments from second-year head coach Sherri Murrell, 1993-94 Cascade Collegiate Conference Coach of the Year)

On Western Oregon "We played a good team, and that's definitely not the time you want to have a bad game, like we did. That's why we lost how we did. We really couldn't have shot into the ocean that night, and it hurt us. In the first half we were a bit tentative, whereas they came out with a lot of confidence. That was probably a big part of the game."

On Western Baptist "I really felt like we had control in the game even though with 12 minutes left, they went up by one. Then we kicked it in. It was a game that we couldn't take lightly, and we didn't. I think our second string is full of good players, but they struggled a bit, which let Western Baptist back into it."

On Concordia "I think this game should end up about like our other two with them. If it doesn't, we will have let down."

On Northwest Nazarene "I think that they (Northwest Nazarene) are going to be ready to kill us after what we did to them at their place. We play them with a lot of confidence. We know them very well, and I think we match up with them very well. It was a big win last time, which gave us a lot of momentum."

In their first meeting on Jan 17, the Lady Bruins edged the Pioneers 61-58 in Portland. In that game, Meagan Williams led GFC with a 19-point, 12-rebound, four-block performance ... GFC leads the NAIA series 22-7.

Friday, Feb. 10, 5:45 p.m. ... at Southern Oregon State College ... Ashland, Ore. ... Key conference matchup ... No. 18-ranked Southern Oregon is 16-9, 4-4 in conference ... GFC won the first meeting of the year, 77-69 in overtime in Newberg ... The NAIA series is tied 10-10.

LAST WEEK:

George Fox 75, Western Baptist 57

With the Lady Bruin's starting forwards having a field day, George Fox rolled to a 75-57 home conference win over Western Baptist Tuesday (Jan. 31).

Forward Liz Stephens (Jr., Newport HS, Bellevue, Wash.) almost couldn't miss — hitting 7-of-8 from the field. She finished with 15 points and six rebounds. Nancy Rissmiller (Fr., Tigard HS, Ore) led all scorers with 21 points

The Lady Bruins led by just six at halftime, then outscored the Warriors 41-29 in the second half.

Point guard Heidi Rueck (Sr., Glencoe HS, Hillsboro, Ore.) collected five steals.

George Fox 94, Concordia 49

George Fox put together its highest-scoring game of the season, downing Concordia College 94-49 Friday (Feb. 3) in Newberg.

The Lady Bruins led by just 10 at the break 38-28, but blew the game open with a 56-point half. No GFC starter played more than 22 minutes.

Forward Nancy Rissmiller (Fr., Tigard HS, Ore) and point guard Heidi Rueck (Sr., Glencoe HS, Hillsboro, Ore.) led the Lady Bruins. Rissmiller paced GFC with 26 points. She had a perfect 10-of-10 performance from the field. Rueck dished out 11 assists to go with her 12 points and four steals.

Liz Stephens (Jr., Newport HS, Bellevue, Wash.) was 6-of-7 from the field, totalling 13 points.

George Fox 68, Northwest Nazarene 72

No. 7-ranked Northwest Nazarene College spoiled George Fox's homecoming game Saturday (Feb. 4) with a 72-68 conference win in Newberg.

Nancy Rissmiller (Fr., Tigard HS, Ore.) sparked the Lady Bruins to a 35-34 lead in the first half with 13 points and finished 8-for-10 from the field. She played all but one minute of the game, finishing with 18 points and five rebounds.

-more-

In the second half, it was point guard Heidi Rueck (Sr., Glencoe HS, Hillsboro, Ore.) making the big plays. She kept the Bruins close with 14 points in the second half. She finished with a game-high 19.

In the second half, NNC held off a late Lady Bruin charge, hitting 10-straight at the free throw line. The Crusaders only miss of the half came with six seconds remaining.

BRUIN BITS:

 Nancy Rissmiller (Fr., Tigard HS, Ore) has been on a tear as of late. She had 65 points in three games last week, hitting 10-of-10 and 8-of-10 from the field against Concordia and Northwest Nazarene.

 Rueck likely will own the George Fox career assist record by the end of this week. She has 537 and needs one more to tie 1991 graduate Linda Funderhide's record of 538. Rueck owns the GFC season assist record, setting it as a sophomore with 148. Her 5.7 assist average is fourth in the conference and last week was 14th-highest nationally.

 In the conference, Rueck is ninth in scoring (12.9 ppg), 10th in 3-point accuracy (.320), second in free throw accuracy (.786), and 10th in steals (2.0).

 Williams, Rissmiller and Liz Stephens (Jr., Newport HS, Bellevue, Wash.) also have multiple listings in the conference statistics. Williams is 10th in scoring (12.8 ppg), seventh in rebounding (7.1), and sixth in field goal percentage (.487). Rissmiller is fourth in rebounding (7.5) and fourth in field goal percentage (.511). Stephens is 12th in scoring (12.1 ppg) and seventh in free throw percentage (.752).

 George Fox probably has one of the youngest college coaching staffs in the country. Head coach Sherri Murrell is 27 and assistant coaches Scott-Rueck and Kristy Fleming are 25 and 23, respectively.

 George Fox's Friday win over Concordia made a short stop for modern culture late in the second half. A young boy running in front of the bleachers lost his grip on his collection of "Pogs": circular trading disks currently popular among youngsters. The objects spilled onto the court and rolled in circles, delaying the game.

 George Fox's home court had a temporary name change at a recent Lady Bruin game. Personal fans of guard Tonya Miller (Fr., West Linn HS, Ore.) decided to tack a cut-out gold painted cardboard sign of her first name above the gymnasium doors. With the new addition the entrance read, Tonya Miller Gymnasium. James and Lila Miller Gymnasium actually is named after the former president of Cascadia Lumber Co.

SHERRI SAYS: (Comments from second-year head coach Sherri Murrell, 1993-94 Cascade Collegiate Conference Coach of the Year)

On Western Baptist: "I thought that it was a great game overall. Everybody put forth a good effort, and we got a lot of good help off the bench."

On Concordia: "It was another good game for us. A lot of people got minutes, and Nancy (Rissmiller) for example did very well. Our transition game was going really well, so that really made the game for us."

On Northwest Nazarene: "We really had a great matchup in that game. It was a great one that could have gone either way. It all came down to four free throws at the end. I thought that we fought really hard, and that both teams played really well."

On Lewis & Clark: "The Lewis & Clark game is an important one for us. It would be good for our overall record and our confidence too, heading into the Southern Oregon game."

On Southern Oregon "I think that this is a must-win game for us. Southern Oregon is a good team, but they have had some trouble in conference play. A win would help us to secure second place in the conference and homecourt advantage in the playoffs."

RUECK BREAKS GEORGE FOX CAREER AND SEASON ASSIST RECORDS

Heidi Rueck (Sr., Glencoe HS, Hillsboro, Ore) established new George Fox career and season assist records last week.

The 5-5 point guard broke the school career assist record during a home game against Lewis & Clark College last Tuesday night (Feb, 7). The record-breaking assist came with 17:22 left in the second half as Rueck drove the lane and dished the ball left to forward Liz Stephens to set up a short jumper.

Linda Funderhide, a 1991 graduate, held the previous record of 538. Rueck, an interdisciplinary major in human performance and education, now has 548.

Three days later against Southern Oregon State College, she broke her own 1992-93 GFC season record of 148. Her current total is 154, 5.7 a game.

WHAT'S BRUIN:

Tuesday, Feb 14, 7:00 p.m. ...at Linfield College ... Newberg, Ore. ...Non-conference game ... In their last meeting GFC pulled out a 64-63 victory in Newberg. In that game Heidi Rueck and Liz Stephens led the Lady Bruins with 17 and 15 points respectively ... GFC leads the series 18-13.

Friday, Feb. 16, 7:30 p.m. ...vs. Western Oregon State College ... Newberg, Ore. ... The conference-leading Wolves won their last meeting Jan. 24 in Monmouth 81-60. Sandy Graves of WOSC scored 22 points, and George Fox's Liz Stephens and Meagan Williams totalled 15 apiece ... Graves leads the Wolves, averaging 20.0 ppg, and 7.3 rpg ... WOSC leads the series 25-4.

Saturday, Feb. 17, 7:30. ...vs. Northwest College ... Newberg, Ore. ... Just the fourth meeting ever between the two schools ... George Fox has won all three previous meetings, including a 77-63 victory in Kirkland on Jan. 14. In that game, Meagan Williams had 17 points and 11 rebound for the Lady Bruins ... Northwest is a school of 835 in Kirkland, Wash,

LAST WEEK:

George Fox 67, Lewis & Clark 65

Point guard Heidi Rueck (Sr., Glencoe HS, Hillsboro, Ore.) grabbed the Lady Bruin career assist record and George Fox held onto a 67-65 nonconference win over visiting Lewis & Clark College.

The Lady Bruins led by six at halftime and moved the margin to comfortable double digits midway through the second half. But the Pioneers made a late rush while GFC's bench was mopping up, forcing GFC to reinsert its starters.

Heidi Rueck (Sr., Glencoe HS, Hillsboro, Ore.) scored 17 points and Liz Stephens (Jr., Newport HS, Bellevue, Wash.) added 18.

GFC shot 45 percent for the game, but was outrebounded by 10.

George Fox 59, Southern Oregon 69

Southern Oregon State College evened the season series with GFC, defeated the Lady Bruins 69-59 in Ashland.

A late spurt pushed SOSOC to a 10-point first half lead and the Raiders made it stick.

Center Angela Pettit (So., Sprague HS, Salem, Ore.) was the lone Lady Bruin in double figures, scoring 14 points.

Meaghan Williams (Sr., Forest Grove HS, Ore.) and Nancy Rissmiller (Fr., Tigard HS, Ore.) each collected a team-high seven rebounds.

Heidi Rueck (Sr., Glencoe HS, Hillsboro, Ore.) passed out seven assists, moving her season total past her own 1992-93 GFC season record.

BRUIN BITS:

 In the conference, Heidi Rueck (Sr., Glencoe HS, Hillsboro, Ore.) is ninth in scoring (12.9 ppg), fourth in assists (5.7), 12th in 3-point accuracy (.320), third in free throw accuracy (.779), and 10th in steals (2.0).

 Meaghan Williams (Forest Grove HS, Ore.), Nancy Rissmiller (Fr., Tigard HS, Ore.) and Liz Stephens (Jr., Newport HS, Bellevue, Wash.) also have multiple listings in the conference statistics. Williams is 10th in scoring (12.6 ppg), sixth in rebounding (7.1), 12th in steals (1.9), and eighth in field goal percentage (.481). Rissmiller is fourth in rebounding (7.4) and fourth in field goal percentage (.505). Stephens is 13th in scoring (12.2 ppg) and 10th in free throw percentage (.725).

 George Fox probably has one of the youngest college coaching staffs in the country. Head coach Sherri Murrell is 27 and assistant coaches Scott Rueck and Kristy Fleming are 25 and 23, respectively.

SHERRI SAYS: (Comments from second-year head coach Sherri Murrell, 1993-94 Cascade Collegiate Conference Coach of the Year)

On Lewis & Clark: "I felt like we hadn't clicked all night and then we relaxed. That's when Lewis & Clark came back. The positive note on that night was Heidi (Rueck) getting that record. I was glad to be there to witness it. She definitely has had a great career here at George Fox."

On Southern Oregon: "It was a great game, but with about nine minutes left in first half Southern Oregon took off. I felt like we did what we wanted to do. We held Melissa Bogh in check, but Kim Soldan hit five threes. We got beat by 10 offensive boards at the half. Southern played really well and their outside threat hurt us. Liz Stephens was on her way to a great game, but got in foul trouble."

On Linfield: "It's going to be a good matchup like always. We have a little different plan than before. We need a good win going into Friday's game."

On Western Oregon: "It's a key game, We need a win to put ourselves in a place where we can host. I felt like we had our worst game of year against them the first time. We just didn't handle their pressure. If we can stop Sandie Graves and have better a offense, we can win."

On Northwest: "I'm looking forward to it. It's our last regular season game. We didn't play well against them up there and they are a much improved team. It will definitely be a challenge."

AILLAUD NAMED CASCADE CONFERENCE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Kerry Aillaud (Sr., Port Angeles HS, Wash.) was named Cascade Conference Player of the Week February 19. She helped the Lady Bruins to three wins last week including an upset over 18th-ranked Western Oregon State College in which she scored 19 points. For the week she had 42 points, 12 rebounds, and six assists.

LADY BRUINS BACK IN PLAYOFFS

For the second-straight year under second-year head coach Sherri Murrell, the Lady Bruins are bound for postseason play. On Saturday (Feb. 25) — for the second-straight year — they are headed for Nampa, Idaho, for the conference semifinals. GFC tied Northwest Nazarene College for second in the Cascade Conference with a 9-3 conference record, but lost a tiebreaker and received the No. 3 seed. No. 1 seed Western Oregon State College hosts No. 4 seed Southern Oregon State College. Winners will meet at the site of the highest remaining seed on Tuesday (Feb. 28).

WHAT'S BRUIN:

Saturday, Feb. 25, 5 p.m. MT ... at Northwest Nazarene College ... First round Cascade Collegiate Conference playoffs ... The two teams each won on the other's home court this year. George Fox won its first-ever game in Nampa 73-69 on Jan. 6 before Northwest Nazarene won 68-72 on Feb. 4 in Newberg ... The Crusaders are 19-5 overall and 9-3 in conference ... NNC is ranked No. 8 in the Feb. 20 NAIA Division II poll ... GFC ended last season with a 72-63 playoff loss at NNC last year ... NNC is led by forward Donna Knight (14.0 ppg, 6.0 rpg).

LAST WEEK:

George Fox 69, Linfield 64

Liz Stephens (Jr., Newport HS, Bellevue, Wash.) was 10-of-13 from the field and had 23 points as the Lady Bruins beat Linfield College 69-64 Tuesday (Feb 14) in McMinnville.

GFC held a six-point lead at half and held on for the victory.

Adding to her GFC career assist record, Heidi Rueck (Sr., Glencoe HS, Hillsboro, Ore.) dished out 10 to go with her 11 points.

The Lady Bruins outrebounded the Wildcats 40-32 and shot a sizzling 47 percent for the game. Linfield shot 44 percent.

George Fox 70, Western Oregon 60

In George Fox's first win over Western Oregon State College since 1987, Kerry Aillaud (Sr., Port Angeles HS, Wash.) shot the Lady Bruins to a 70-60 win over the No. 18-ranked Wolves.

Aillaud scored a team-high 19 points, hitting 5-of-10 from 3-point range and 7-of-13 from the field.

GFC held Western Oregon scoreless in the final 3:40 of the game, outscoring the Wolves 8-0.

-more-

The Lady Bruins dominated the boards 43-32, getting 15 (12 in the first half) from guard/forward Nancy Rissmiller (Fr., Tigard HS, Ore.) and 10 from center Meagan Williams (Sr., Forest Grove HS, Ore.) Rissmiller scored 14 points and Williams finished with 15 points.

George Fox led by as many as 10 in the first half, before a WOSC run cut the halftime lead to 34-27.

George Fox 74, Northwest 46

In their regular season finale, George Fox ran by Northwest College 74-46 Saturday (Feb. 18) in Newberg.

The victory moved GFC to the 20-win plateau for the first time since 1987-88 when the Lady Bruins were 20-9.

Forward Liz Stephens (Jr., Newport HS, Bellevue, Wash.) led all scorers for George Fox with 15 points and guard Kerry Aillaud (Sr., Port Angeles HS, Wash.) scored 14.

GFC led by 12 at the break and all 11 players on George Fox saw time and took a shot. The Lady Bruins shot 56 percent (14-25) from the field in the second half.

BRUIN BITS:

 Despite boasting the most wins in the conference and at least one victory over every conference opponent, George Fox did not make it into the NAIA Division II national top-25 poll this year. The Lady Bruins received 28 votes and ranked 30th in the final ranking on Feb. 20. Ahead of GFC are No. 8 Northwest Nazarene, No. 15 Western Oregon, and No. 24 Southern Oregon. The Lady Bruins have never been ranked.

 In the conference, Heidi Rueck (Sr., Glencoe HS, Hillsboro, Ore.) is ninth in scoring (12.5 ppg), fourth in assists (6.0), 9th in 3-point accuracy (.323), and fourth in free throw accuracy (.779). Nationally, she is 12th in assists. She added 26 more assists in three games this week to her GFC career record. She has 574 career assists and 180 assists for the season.

 Meagan Williams (Sr., Forest Grove HS, Ore.), Nancy Rissmiller (Fr., Tigard HS, Ore.) and Liz Stephens (Jr., Newport HS, Bellevue, Wash.) also have multiple listings in the conference statistics. Williams is 10th in scoring (12.5 ppg), fifth in rebounding (7.3), and eighth in field goal percentage (.481), Rissmiller is fourth in rebounding (7.6), 19th in individual scoring (10.3 ppg), and fourth in field goal percentage (.500). Stephens is 11th in scoring (12.5 ppg) and ninth in free throw percentage (.723).

 George Fox probably has one of the youngest college coaching staffs in the country. Head coach Sherri Murrell is 27 and assistant coaches Scott Rueck and Kristy Fleming are 25 and 23, respectively.

LADY BRUIN BASKETBALL

Overall: 21-10 Conference Regular Season Record: 9-3

GEORGE FOX IN FIRST-EVER CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

By knocking off No. 8-ranked Northwest Nazarene College Saturday in Nampa, Idaho, the Lady Bruins advance to their first-ever Cascade Conference championship game Tuesday (Feb. 28) at No. 15 Western Oregon State College. No. 1 seed Western Oregon State College hosted and defeated No. 4 seed Southern Oregon State College 71-59 on Saturday.

WHAT'S BRUIN:

Tuesday, Feb. 28, TBA ... at Western Oregon State College ... Monmouth, Ore. ... Cascade Collegiate Conference Championship game ... WOSC and GFC split the season series, each winning at home ... The Lady Bruins won their first game against Western Oregon since 1987 70-60 on Feb. 17 ... WOSC ended a GFC eight-game winning streak Jan. 27 with a 81-60 victory in Monmouth ... Western Oregon hosts the 32-team NAIA Division II national tournament March 8-14 ... With a win, GFC would advance to its first-ever national tournament ... With a loss, the Lady Bruins have an outside chance of receiving an at-large berth ... WOSC is assured a national invitation as the host institution.

LAST WEEK:

George Fox 73, Northwest Nazarene 67

The Lady Bruins erased a nine-point second-half deficit and advanced to the Cascade Conference championship with a 73-67 win at No. 8-ranked Northwest Nazarene College.

George Fox hit 55 percent of its second half shots, 12-of-13 from the free throw line and all four of its 3-point attempts.

The Lady Bruins hung close throughout the first 20 minutes, led by a eight-point, six-rebound effort by guard/forward Nancy Rissmiller (Fr., Tigard HS, Ore.).

In the second half, it was the upperclassmen who carried the scoring burden. Center Meagan Williams (Sr., Forest Grove HS, Ore.) scored 14 in the half and 18 in the game. Liz Stephens (Jr., Newport HS, Bellevue, Wash.) put in six before the break and 13 in the second half.

With 13:30 remaining, NNC held a 45-36 lead. Williams scored seven straight for the Lady Bruins, guard Kerry Aillaud (Sr., Port Angeles HS, Wash.) hit a jumper and a trey and GFC pulled within five. NNC committed three straight turnovers and GFC took the lead 54-53 with seven minutes remaining. The margin would grow to seven with two and a half minutes left. Guard Heidi Rueck (Sr., Glencoe HS, Hillsboro, Ore.) hit a pair of key free throws at 1:37 and GFC held on for the just its second-ever win in Nampa, Idaho. The first came earlier this season.

BRUIN BITS:

 Despite boasting the most wins in the conference and at least one victory over every conference opponent, George Fox did not make it into the NAIA Division II national top-25 poll this year. The Lady Bruins received 28 votes and ranked 30th in the final ranking on Feb. 20. Conference opponents ranked ahead of GFC are No. 8 Northwest Nazarene, No. 15 Western Oregon, and No. 24 Southern Oregon. The Lady Bruins have never been ranked.

 In the conference regular season statistics, Heidi Rueck (Sr., Glencoe HS, Hillsboro, Ore.) was ninth in scoring (12.5 ppg), fourth in assists (6.0), 9th in 3-point accuracy (.323), and fourth in free throw accuracy (.779). Nationally, she finished 12th in assists.

 Meagan Williams (Sr., Forest Grove HS, Ore.), Nancy Rissmiller (Fr., Tigard HS, Ore.) and Liz Stephens (Jr., Newport HS, Bellevue, Wash.) also have multiple listings in last week's conference statistics. Williams is 10th in scoring (12.5 ppg), fifth in rebounding (7.3), and eighth in field goal percentage (.481), Rissmiller is fourth in rebounding (7.6), 19th in individual scoring (10.3 ppg), and fourth in field goal percentage (.500). Stephens is 11th in scoring (12.5 ppg) and ninth in free throw percentage (.723)

 George Fox probably has one of the youngest college coaching staffs in the country. Head coach Sherri Murrell is 27 and assistant coaches Scott Rueck and Kristy Fleming are 25 and 23, respectively.

LADY BRUIN BASKETBALL

Overall: 21-11 Conference Regular Season Record: 9-3

MURRELL COACH OF THE YEAR, AGAIN

Second-year George Fox head coach Sherri Murrell is again Cascade Collegiate Conference Coach of the Year. Murrell guided an unranked Lady Bruin squad to a 21-11 season — tying a school record for wins — and took GFC to its first-ever conference championship game. Her two-year record as head coach is 37-23 (.617)

RUECK SELECTED TO CONFERENCE FIRST TEAM

Point guard Heidi Rueck (Sr., Glencoe HS, Hillsboro, Ore.) has repeated on the five-member Cascade Conference first team. She finishes a four-year career at George Fox with three school assist records: game (13), season (190 in 1994-95) and career (584). She averaged 5.9 assists and 12.4 points a game this season.

Forward/center Meagan Williams (Sr., Forest Grove HS, Ore.) won honorable mention for the second straight year. Williams averaged 12.4 points and 7.3 rebounds a game.

Forward Liz Stephens (Jr., Newport HS, Bellevue, Wash.) also picked up honorable mention from the conference coaches. Stephens scored 12.5 points and averaged 4.8 rebounds a game.

WHAT'S NOT BRUIN:

Despite boasting the most wins in the conference; despite beating every conference opponent at least once; and despite coming within eight points of the conference championship on the road, George Fox will stay at home while two conference opponents advance to the 32-team NAIA Division II national tournament.

National raters have ignored GFC all season and it cost the Lady Bruins when the national tournament at-large berths were passed out.

No. 15-ranked Western Oregon State College advances to the national tournament for two reasons. WOSC already had a reservation as the host institution, but justified it by winning the conference title Tuesday (Feb. 28) with a 46-38 win over GFC.

No. 8 Northwest Nazarene (which GFC beat twice in three meetings this season) received an at-large berth.

The Lady Bruins received 28 votes and ranked 30th in the final poll on Feb. 20. The Lady Bruins have never been ranked in the top 25.

LAST WEEK:

GFC 38, Western Oregon 46

George Fox scored 19 points a half, shot 20 percent from the field and, amazingly, still had an opportunity to win its first Cascade Conference championship.

Both the Lady Bruins and No. 15-ranked Western Oregon State College struggled through an icy shooting night Tuesday (Feb. 28) in Monmouth before WOSC pulled out the 46-38 victory.

The point totals were the lowest of the season for both teams.

Before a crowd announced at 650 — roughly half GFC fans — the Lady Bruins came out of an ugly first half with a 19-17 lead. Neither team could break into the basket until the fourth minute began. Point guard Heidi Rueck (Sr., Glencoe HS, Hillsboro, Ore.) was the majority of the Lady Bruin offense, scoring or assisting every first-half GFC field goal. She finished the game with a team-high 10 points and six assists.

WOSC — which took its fifth-straight district or conference title — appeared to break the game open when it ran off 15 straight and took a 41-24 lead. But the Lady Bruins rallied to within five with 1:17 remaining, hitting back-to-back 3-pointers. After a defensive stop, Rueck nearly shrunk the lead to three with one of her patented spinning drives to the basket, but the ball rattled off the rim and GFC was forced to foul. The Wolves hit four free throws in the final 40 seconds to seal the win.

WOSC salvaged a 32 percent shooting night, by improving from 16 percent in the first half to 50 in the second 20 minutes. GFC hit 10 of 51 shots from the field with percentages hovering near 20 in each half.

Western Oregon hosts the NAIA Division II national tournament March 8-14.

BRUIN BITS:

 George Fox finishes 21-11 overall, tying a school NAIA record for most wins in a season. The 1981-82 team achieved the same record.

 Since joining the NAIA in the early 1980s, George Fox has never had a worse shooting night than the one the Lady Bruins suffered through in Tuesday's championship game. GFC hit 10-of-51 field goal attempts (.196). The old record was set Dec. 30, 1989, versus Southern Oregon when GFC was 17-of-79 (.215). Oddly, the 1994-95 GFC team came into the game shooting .429, not too far below the 1985-86 school season record of .444.

 In the conference regular season statistics, Heidi Rueck (Sr., Glencoe HS, Hillsboro, Ore.) was ninth in scoring (12.5 ppg), fourth in assists (6.0), ninth in 3-point accuracy (.323), and fourth in free throw accuracy (.779). Nationally, she finished 12th in assists.

 Meagan Williams (Sr., Forest Grove HS, Ore.), Nancy Rissmiller (Fr., Tigard HS, Ore.) and Liz Stephens (Jr., Newport HS, Bellevue, Wash.) also have multiple listings in the regular season conference statistics. Williams was 10th in scoring (12.5 ppg), fifth in rebounding (7.3), and eighth in field goal percentage (.481). Rissmiller was fourth in rebounding (7.6), 19th in individual scoring (10.3 ppg), and fourth in field goal percentage (.500). Stephens was 11th in scoring (12.5 ppg) and ninth in free throw percentage (.723).

 The Lady Bruins might be done for the season, but basketball isn't over for one of GFC's alumni. 1977 George Fox grad Brad Smith, coach of the Oregon City High School girls basketball team, is shooting for his third Oregon 4A state title in four years. USA Today has ranked the Pioneers the No. 1 team in the nation.

 George Fox probably has one of the youngest college coaching staffs in the country. Head coach Sherri Murrell is 27 and assistant coaches Scott Rueck and Kristy Fleming are 25 and 23, respectively.

SHERRI SAYS:

On Western Oregon: "I thought it was two great defensive efforts by both teams. Shooting for both teams was horrible. We had plenty of opportunities, but couldn't score. All night we had a hard time getting open and then when we got open we had a hard time hitting the shots. I still liked the way we ended. (Cutting a second half 17-point deficit to five). Unfortunately we played the clock at the end. If there had been a few more minutes, who knows what could have happened."

On Northwest Nazarene: "We played great at NNC. We wanted to do better than we did last year (GFC lost in first round of playoffs). I thought it was a great win over there."

On Season: "We had a rocky first part of season. We played great competition and I think it prepared us for conference. I wish we could have won one more conference game. We lost some key players last year, but we had some people step up to fill the gap. All three of our seniors had great years. To finish with 20 wins is a great feeling. The girls are hard workers, that's what it comes down to."

RUECK BECOMES GFC'S FIRST WOMEN'S BASKETBALL ALL-AMERICAN

Point guard Heidi Rueck (Sr., Glencoe HS, Hillsboro, Ore.) is George Fox College's first women's basketball All-American. The 1991 Glencoe High graduate was announced March 14 as an NAIA Division II honorable mention All-American.

Rueck is a two-time Cascade Conference first team selection. She finished her four-year career at George Fox with three school assist records: game (13), season (190 in 1994-95) and career (584). She averaged 5.9 assists and 12.4 points a game this season.

In the conference regular season statistics, Rueck was ninth in scoring (12.5 ppg), fourth in assists (6.0), ninth in 3-point accuracy (.323), and fourth in free throw accuracy (.779). Nationally, she finished 12th in assists.

Rueck led George Fox to a school-record-tying 21-11 season in the toughest NAIA Division II conference in the nation. The Lady Bruins were the last team to beat both 1994-95 NAIA Division II national champion (Western Oregon State College) and national runner-up (Northwest Nazarene College). GFC tied for second in the conference regular season and won its first-round conference playoff game at Northwest Nazarene, before falling 46-38 at Western Oregon in the conference championship game. The unranked Lady Bruins did not receive an at-large berth.

Since 1965, George Fox athletes have won NAIA All-American awards in nine of the college's 11 sports.

Lady Bruin hoopsters look to set the tone with defense

■ Injuries and the loss of its No. 1 scorer and rebounder from last year are things GFC must overcome

By ROB FELTON
FOR THE GRAPHIC

Four returning starters off last year's surprising George Fox College women's basketball squad bouy Lady Bruin hopes for a run at the Cascade Collegiate Conference crown.

"It's anybody's race this year in the conference," says second-year head coach Sherri Murrell, who won conference Coach of the Year honors in her inaugural season. "I think we're one of the ones to watch out for."

George Fox defeated nationally-ranked teams four times last year and came within 10 points of advancing to the conference finals.

Murrell will guide six returning letterwinners, one transfer, three 1993-94 redshirts and one freshman. Of the 11 players, eight played in a summer basketball league to improve themselves.

"I think we're strong in both the inside and outside game," Murrell says. "We pose a threat in both areas. This team really works well together," she says. "They know each other's strengths and weaknesses."

The starters all played together last season.

The team leader is Heidi Rueck, who Murrell considers the top point guard in the conference. Rueck is a four-year starter and is 144 assists away from the school career record. As a sophomore, she established the season assist record at 149.

GFC's other starting guard, senior Kerry Aillaud, gives the Lady Bruins an outside shooting threat. Her 3-point shooting percentage of .414 is the best in George Fox history.

With an injury-plagued sophomore season behind her, 5-9 junior forward Jamie Courtney has moved into the starting lineup. A pure shooter, Courtney also has good defensive instincts.

A two-sport athlete, 5-11 junior forward Liz Stephens is one of the strongest and quickest players in the conference. Stephens, a hurdler who last year qualified for the NAIA national track meet, should improve upon her 9.7 scoring and 5.8 rebounding averages. "Liz is twice the player she was last year," says Murrell.

A player with a history of dramatic off-season improvement is 6-0 senior forward/center Megan Williams. She has more than doubled her scoring average each season at George Fox. Last year she was second on the team with 11.4 points per game and her 5.8 rebounding average tied Stephens for second on the squad.

"We lost some rebounding from Kristy, but Megan and our younger kids like Nancy will step up. We have the players that can fill that gap."

"We have good quality players," says Murrell. "But the key to our success is how our bench contributes, whether they step up."

5-10 freshman guard/forward Nancy Rissmiller should make an immediate impact in two GFC sports. Rissmiller averaged 10.0 points and 9.4 rebounds last year while helping Tigard High School to a fourth place finish in the state 4A tournament. In track she has All-American potential. Rissmiller cleared 5-8 1/4 in the high jump, the best Oregon 4A mark in at least six years.

George Fox's tallest player, 6-1 sophomore center Angela Pettit, continues to adapt to the physical college inside game. She runs the floor well and is a good shooter, second on the team in free throw percentage. A broken finger will keep her out early in the season.

Junior guard Cori Gardea comes to GFC from Lower Columbia Community as part of a package deal. Her husband, Rick, plays for the men's team. Murrell says she has good shooting range.

Another two-sport athlete is 5-8 junior guard Katie Anderson who plays on the Lady Bruin soccer team. After an injury-shortened freshman year, another knee injury forced her to miss last year.

Two other Lady Bruins are coming off redshirt seasons: Keelie Keown, a 5-9 freshman guard/forward from Oakridge, Ore., and Tonya Miller, a quick 5-4 freshman guard who earned Three Rivers League honorable mention at West Linn High School.

The Lady Bruins will pressure more on defense than last year and hope to get out and fast break. A lack of depth may be limiting. Injuries have cut preseason workouts to nine players.

"We need to stay healthy," says Murrell. "It's the guard position I'm worried about. I'm looking for help there. We can't play Heidi (Rueck) and Kerry (Aillaud) 40 minutes for 31 games."

Key losses from last year were freshman guard Mindi Loidice, senior guard Traci Blair and GFC's leading scorer and rebounder forward/center Kristy Fleming, now an assistant coach.

"We lost some rebounding from Kristy, but Megan (Williams) and our younger kids like Nancy (Rissmiller) will step up. We have the players that can fill that gap."

Murrell has lined up one of the toughest schedules George Fox has ever played. Seven opponents will be from divisions above the Lady Bruins including NCAA Division I University of Portland.

George Fox is playing its final year in the Cascade Collegiate Conference and will join the Northwest Conference of Independent Colleges next year.

George Fox women drop opener to Pacific

■ The battle of the boards proves to be the difference as the Lady Bruins get out rebounded 51-34

Nancy Rissmiller poured in 17 points and 11 rebounds in George Fox College's season opening game against Pacific University on Friday. Rissmiller's contributions weren't quite enough, however, as Pacific went on to post an 86-69 win over the Lady Bruins.

The freshman guard/forward Rissmiller led her team with 6-8 shooting from the field and 5-8 shooting at the foul line. Megan Williams added 14 points on 7-9 shooting while Heidi Rueck scored 11 points and Kerry Aillaud chipped in 10 to lead the Lady Bruins.

The difference in the game was on the boards, where Pacific out-rebounded GFC 51-34. Tara Taylor hauled down 14 rebounds to lead the Boxers. She also scored 22 points on 9-18 shooting to lead Pacific in scoring.

George Fox head coach Sherri Murrell said she wasn't surprised by the end result of the game, particularly when her two starting forwards pulled down just seven rebounds between them. "Pacific is a good team," Murrell said. "The whole thing comes down to rebounds."

The Lady Bruins actually shot better from the field than Pacific, hitting at a .450 clip, but the Boxers got 17 more shots off.

"I expect better things from this team than what we saw in the game against Pacific," Murrell said. "I think that we had first game jitters."

Murrell added Pacific tends to take teams out of their games with its style of play and solid defense. On Friday night, Pacific was able to slow down the Lady Bruins' fast break, limiting point production. Murrell said she expects Pacific to be one of the top teams the Lady Bruins face, along with Willamette, whom the Lady Bruins squared off against Tuesday night.

College recruits 3-sport athlete

Freshman Nancy Rissmiller has already surpassed GFC high jump record with her high school performance last year

—by Ryan Chaney—

One of Oregon's finest prep athletes for four years at Tigard High School, GFC freshman Nancy Rissmiller shyly admits, "I like surprising people." And what Nancy likes she does well, for veiled beneath the seemingly ordinary, casual exterior of Nancy Rissmiller lies one of the best all-around athletes the Bruin athletic program has ever lured in.

At first glance, nothing about Rissmiller would make the casual passerby take a second look. Appearing to be simply a quiet college freshman, her slender, 5-foot-10-inch frame gives only the slightest hint of the aggressive, high-powered creature that lies concealed within.

"Nancy is perhaps the most highly gifted athlete I've been involved in recruiting here," said her new track coach, Wes Cook. "She is a special young lady with a very, very bright future."

Cook's sentiments were echoed by Rissmiller's other new coach, Sherri Murrell of the Lady Bruin basketball program. "Nancy is both an outstanding athlete and person," Murrell said of her multi-talented recruit. "I can't say enough!"

In track and field, her mark of 5-foot-8 1/4-inches is not only the best Oregon high schools have produced in six years, but also surpasses the existing school record at GFC. On the track, her time of 2:13.5 in the 800 meters is only a split second off of George Fox's school record.

On the court, Rissmiller dominates as well. Before landing her spot on GFC's varsity roster, the aggressive Rissmiller helped lead Tigard to a fourth place finish at state her senior year, averaging 10 points and 9.4 rebounds per game. "She will definitely be an impact on the basketball court this year," said Murrell.

Rissmiller, however, does not see herself as a big star. In fact, she equated her college experience to starting high school over again. "I don't want to be cocky," said Rissmiller, content to be "unknown" for now. "That's the last thing I would ever want to be."

In fact, Rissmiller even says one of her favorite things to do in sports is to beat "cocky people" herself.

Taking things as they come, her goals are simple: to do her best and improve upon her high school performances. Nothing flashy, no big claims—despite the fact that, according to Cook, she is definite All-American material in track and field.

"I guess I'd live with it if I got it," she chuckled when presented with the prospect of such honors.

Rissmiller strives to keep her priorities straight, despite the spotlight she sometimes lives under (for example, 26 articles in The Oregonian her senior year). Graduating high school with a 3.8 GPA, she is receiving an academic award at George Fox.

She also makes time for a close knit relationship with her family, including younger sister and fellow sports star Sharon.

"I'm always trying to prove to myself that I can be a good student, and I can be a good athlete at the same time," she said.

"I want to be the best. If people don't think I can do something, I like to prove them wrong."

Letting her actions speak much louder than her words, Rissmiller has done just that. Bring on the competition.

Bruins drop home opener

Women fall to Willamette 80-62 at home following tough loss to Pacific only a week earlier

—by Cortland Reger—

The George Fox College Lady Bruin basketball team fell to the Willamette University Bearcats 80-62 in the 1994-95 season home opener at Miller Gymnasium Tuesday night.

George Fox (0-2), looking to bounce back from last week's tough loss to Pacific University, faced-off against the young, yet experienced Bearcat squad, one which returned 10 varsity players, including two starters, from its Northwest Conference of Independent Colleges championship team of a year ago.

The early portion of the contest was marred by sloppy play, turnovers and missed shots by both the Bearcats and the Lady Bruins. It was only a matter of time before one team took control. Unfortunately, that team was Willamette (2-0). Leading by two points at 8-6, the Bearcats capped a 12-2 run with 11:00 left in the first half to take a commanding, 20-8, lead. A combination of Willamette's high-pressure defense, physical interior play and the Lady Bruins' inability to hit shots, contributed to the 46-24 advantage that the Bearcats took into halftime.

In the second half, GFC picked up the defensive intensity by forcing the Bearcats into numerous turnovers and poor shots. With 7:30 left in the second frame, GFC pulled to within eight points at 56-48. However, an eight consecutive pointscoring outburst by Bearcat sophomore, Traci Shepard, steadied wavering Willamette as it outscored the Lady Bruins 20-10 down the stretch, placing the game out of reach.

Shepard led all scorers with 27 points on 11-17 shooting. Junior Liz Stephens and senior Meagan Williams led the Bruins with 18 and 16 points respectively. Stephens also added 13 rebounds.

George Fox now looks toward a challenging schedule in the upcoming week, facing NCAA Division I University of Portland Pilots on Monday and the Linfield College Wildcats on Tuesday. When asked what her squad needs to do to improve their game, head coach Sherri Murrel remained confident. "We need to carry over what is learned in practice to the games, especially taking care of the ball and playing high-pressure defense from start to finish," she said.

has what it takes to become a great team. Once they work season schedule, the women will be poised to contend for the Cascade Conference title.

George Fox women top Linfield 64-63

■ Monday night's game against Portland provides the spark GFC needs to record its first season win

It was a loss, but Monday night's game against Division I University of Portland may prove to be a turning point in the George Fox women's hoop season. Tuesday night at home, a last-second shot by Heidi Rueck gave GFC a 64-63 lead which they would hold on to for the next four seconds to record their first win of the young season.

“ This was a good win for us, we needed it.

Head coach Sherri Murrell

Unlike earlier games, the Lady Bruins kept the game close in the first half, going into the locker room trailing by only 5 at 35-30. Down the stretch, GFC pulled within a basket and then tied the game late before Linfield answered with 20 seconds left. George Fox called a timeout and head coach Sherri Murrell called a play designed to go against the zone defense Linfield had been in.

As the two teams came out of their huddles, the Wildcats showed a zone defense instead, so GFC called another timeout to adjust the play. Even though Linfield switched again to a out of zone defense, Rueck was able to come off a high screen and drill the shot.

“This was a good win for us, we needed it,” said Murrell. “Overall I was really pleased.”

George Fox, who must have been a little tired during the second of back-to-back games, did a good job stopping Linfield's post-up players and also managed to shoot about 46 percent for the game.

Ex-Tigers Gardea Couple on George Fox Teams

Two former Tiger basketball stars are now a husband-wife duo in the George Fox College athletic department, playing on the men's and women's basketball teams.

Rick Gardea, who won Cowapa All-League honorable mention in 1989, will be the captain of the men's team, while Cori Holmes Gardea, who was on the Cowapa All-League first team in 1991, is on the women's team.

Rick, a 6-1 senior point guard, was termed "an excellent ball handler under pressure" by Mark Vernon, head coach of the men's team. He sat out a season after averaging 5.1 assists and 13.5 points in 1992-93. He played two years for Lower Columbia College in Longview after finishing CHS.

Cori, a 5-6 junior guard who also played for Lower Columbia College, is in her first year at George Fox. She has good shooting range, said Sherri Murrell, head coach of the women's team.

The son of Manny Gardea of Anchorage, Alaska, and Randy and Janice Lund of Clatskanie, Rick led the Tigers in scoring his senior year with an average of 13 points per game. He also led in assists and steals.

The daughter of Mike Holmes and Susie Ragsdale, both of Clatskanie, Cori was the Booster Club most valuable player her senior year and led in scoring, assists, and steals.

The NAIA Division II preseason poll called the 1994-95 basketball

Bruins the 28th-ranked men's team in the nation.

Last year the Lady Bruins defeated nationally-ranked teams four times and came within 10 points of advancing to the conference finals

C. C women take second at Simon Fraser tourney

■ After thumping Trinity Western 98-33. The Lady Bruins lose to Simon Fraser in the Championship game

One night after administering a blowout, the George Fox women's basketball team wound up on the receiving end. NAIA Division I Simon Fraser University rolled past the Lady Bruins 80-48 in the championship game of the Simon Fraser Classic.

The much taller Simon Fraser players held GFC to 24 percent shooting in the first half and led 43-15 at the break.

"They just outsized us," said GFC head coach Sherri Murrell. "They started a lineup University of Portland would like."

Megan Williams and Liz Stephens both had 12 points to lead George Fox. The Bruins were 12 of 13 from the free throw line, but 17-61 from the field in the game.

The Simon Fraser game was a far cry from the night before, when George Fox laid a 98-33 licking on Trinity Western University. The Lady Bruins jumped out to a 42-point half-time lead en route to the 65-point victory.

Kerry Aillaud sank 5 of 8 three-pointers and had 21 points to lead all scorers. Five different George Fox players scored in double figures.

"Kerry Aillaud had a great game," said Murrell. "It was something she needed. She hasn't been shooting well." Angela Pettit hit 5 of her 8 field goal attempts and finished with 14 points while grabbing 7 rebounds. Williams had a team-high 9 boards.

The Lady Bruins shot 57 percent from the field on 24 of 42 shooting in the first half and led 54-12 at the break.

"Our pressure defense and shooting were better," said Murrell. "It was too much for Trinity. It was a night we won."

LADY BRUIN NOTES: George Fox hosts Central Washington University Friday night. NAIA Division I Central Washington enters the week 2-7 after winning two straight and snapping a 23-game losing streak that spanned two seasons. The Wildcats are without their lone returning starter, Shannon Sleurrill, who is out for the season with a knee injury.

The 98 points scored against Trinity Western was the largest point total by George Fox in almost a year. The Lady Bruins scored 103 against Western Baptist last season in Salem on Jan. 15.

GFC ladies take third in Linfield Classic

McMINNVILLE — Lewis-Clark State College, an NAIA Division I team, raced to an early lead and managed to hold off the Lady Bruins 83-63 in the opening round of the Linfield College Christmas Classic Friday.

Liz Stephens led four GFC players in double figures with 13 points. The Warriors shot .485 in the first half on their way to a 37-20 lead that they never relinquished.

Guard/forward Nancy Rissmiller corralled a team-high 7 rebounds.

The Warriors went on to win the tournament championship with a 78-54 win over Linfield.

Heidi Rueck and Stephens poured in 20 points apiece as the Lady Bruins, who are 2-4 on the season, defeated Concordia College 87-57 in the third-place game at the tournament.

Rueck (9-9) and Stephens (4-4) were a combined 13 of 13 from the free throw line.

Angela Pettit - still in her first week back from injury - scored 11 points on 5 of 6 shooting from the field.

GFC broke the game open early and led by 24 at half-time, thanks to 47 percent shooting (18-36) from the field.

"I think that we played well, especially against Concordia," George Fox head coach Sherri Murrell said about the tournament. "Against them, our defense played really well."

The Lady Bruins' center, Pettit, returned to action last Tuesday, one day after having pins removed from her broken finger.

She played for nine minutes and scored 3 points while pulling down two rebounds.

A tale of two games for Bruin women

■ George Fox rebounds from a 20-point first half deficit to post a 73-65 win over Willamette

SALEM — George Fox got two games for the price of one Tuesday night against Willamette, playing an abysmal first half but storming back in the second to take a 73-65 win over the Bearcats.

The Lady Bruins found themselves down by 20 at half-time, thanks to a combination of 36 percent shooting from the field for GFC and Willamette's torrid 74 percent mark. Even the second half looked like a continuation of the blowout when the Bearcats scored four quick points to boost their lead to 24.

But then something happened to the Lady Bruins. They started playing defense and hitting their shots. They upped their shooting percentage to .415 in the final 20 minutes while holding Willamette to just 7 of 30 shots. The result was a 28-point swing and GFC's third win of the season.

"It's the greatest comeback I've ever coached or been around," said Bruin head coach Sherri Murrell. "It was an amazing game."

Heidi Rueck and Megan Williams fueled the second half comeback and finished with 17 and 15 points respectively. Williams was also unstoppable on the boards, gathering a game-high 10 of George Fox's 38 rebounds. The Bruins trailed the rebound battle 19-4 at half-time, but ended the game tied with Willamette.

Murrell said there were no great plays in the second half that triggered the run, just a realization at half-time by the GFC players that they were better than they were showing. First half fouls frustrated some of the players and assistant coach Scott Rueck, who picked up a technical foul. In the second half, Murrell said most of that aggression toward the officiating was directed back into the game and it paid off.

The defensive intensity of George Fox caused a bundle of second half turnovers by Willamette, which fueled the Lady Bruin fast break for easy baskets. George Fox finished the game with 19 turnovers of its own, compared to 30 for the Bearcats.

"I'm not pleased with the 39 percent we wound up shooting for the game," said Murrell, "but our defense caused so many turnovers and that's where our points came from."

Part of the problem in the shooting department, Murrell pointed out, is that many of the Lady Bruin players are thinking "pass" before they think "shoot." Consequently, in the first half of the Willamette game, GFC would pass keep on passing with nobody willing to take the shot.

"In the second half, they drove to the basket and it made a difference," explained Murrell. "They have to start thinking score first."

Freshman Nancy Rissmiller continued her strong post play, contributing 9 points, 4 rebounds and 3 assists. Kerry Aillaud and Liz Stephens both scored 7 points while Tonya Miller chipped in 5. Rueck led the team in assists with 4 and also had 4 steals to compliment Stephens' 4.

Traci Shepard led the scoring for Willamette with 19 points. Carolyn Leary added 10 and 5 rebounds. Willamette was 0 for 9 from three-point range as compared to George Fox's 3-9 pace.

The Lady Bruins moved to 3-4 on the season while the Bearcats dropped to 5-2. George Fox travels to the Simon Fraser Tournament this weekend.

Seattle 3-pointers sink GFC women

■ The Lady Bruins lose for just the second time in six games

Seattle University handed the Lady Bruins just their second loss in last six games last Saturday, knocking some key 3-pointers down the stretch to take a 69-62 win.

Both teams shot blanks heading to half-time, with neither team able to make better than 33 percent of its shots. Seattle took a low-scoring 25-24 lead into the locker room at the half.

George Fox center Megan Williams led the Lady Bruins with 16 points and brought down 7 rebounds. Point guard Heidi Rueck scored 14 points, including 6 of 8 attempts from the free throw line, and led both teams with 5 assists. Keelie Brown came off the bench to almost record a double-double, scoring 9 points and snagging 10 rebounds in 21 minutes.

Jimmy Kuchan led Seattle with 19 points and 12 rebounds.

"It was tight through the whole game," said GFC coach Sherri Miller. "We beat them on the boards but we just need more outside shooting right now."

The night before, GFC had improved its record to 5-5 with a 79-64 win over Central Washington. The Wildcats (2-7) came into Newberg on a two-game winning streak after losing 23 in a row over the previous two seasons.

Rueck led the Lady Bruins with 19 points, hitting 2 of 2 from beyond the 3-point arc. Liz Stephens shot 60 percent on the field and was a perfect 6 of 6 from the foul line and finished with 18 points. Angels Petit led GFC with 8 rebounds and added 19 points as well.

While Central Washington shot 53 percent from the field, they couldn't overcome their 27 turnovers. Amanda Johnson of CWU was the game's top scorer with 20 points.

■ George Fox re-tunes the basketball machine after the Christmas break

By CHRIS CLAIR
GRAPHIC SPORTS EDITOR

The George Fox women's basketball team worked off some of that holiday turkey by taking on the AAU Portland Saints at home Wednesday night. Although the result was an 82-32 loss, head coach Sherri Murrell said her team got what she wanted out of the game.

"I wanted the girls to get their legs going again after Christmas," Murrell said. "It was good to see them run up and down the court and work off the turkey."

Murrell said she has an agreement with the Saints' head coach to play them each year after the Christmas break to get her Lady Bruins back in shape.

The Saints are composed of former collegiate basketball players, including some from Oregon and Oregon State and a couple of NAIA Division I schools.

All that experience showed early, as George Fox found itself trailing by 22 at the half, 42-20. The Lady Bruins got just 28 shots off in the first 20 minutes against stingy Saints defense and only managed to make 9 of those. Portland, on the other hand, made 16 of 33 shots, including 2 of 3 from beyond the three-point arc.

"We didn't get a lot of scoring in the first half," Murrell commented. "The Saints' defense was really good."

In the second half, GFC picked up both its scoring and defense. While the Saints' field goal percentage dropped to .485, George Fox improved its shooting to 13 of 28. Unfortunately, free throws were the difference in the second half, and the Lady Bruins were still outscored by eight.

To make matters worse against Portland, GFC is still struggling with a few injuries. Center Angela Pettit, who recently returned from a broken finger, now has pain in her foot. Freshman sensation Nancy Rissmiller has been out with a broken pinky finger, but is expected to return for the start of conference play Jan. 6 against Northwest Nazarene.

Between now and then, however, GFC must face NAIA Division I St. Martins Jan. 3.

Bruin women stun No. 5 NNC

NAMPA, Idaho — Leading by as many as 17 points in the second half, George Fox College's women hung on to stun No. 5-ranked Northwest Nazarene College 73-69 on Friday.

The win is believed to be GFC's first-ever in Nampa. Guard Kerry Aillaud led the Bruin women in their conference opener with 25 points, hitting 9 of 14 from the field, including four 3-pointers.

GFC pushed out to a 25-12 lead early and held a 52-35 edge at half-time. They widened that margin to 17 points with 12:48 left in the game before Northwest Nazarene College began its comeback.

A pair of free throws by forward Liz Stephens put GFC up 66-52 with 5:05 remaining, but the Lady Crusaders scored 10 straight and twice pulled within two.

The Bruin women hit 5 of 7 free throws in the final minute to seal the game.

"We executed well and did what we wanted," said GFC coach Sherri Murrell. "We studied them a lot through game films and our girls really came out to play."

Saturday, GFC improved its conference record to 2-0 with an 82-59 win over Eastern Oregon State College in La Grande.

Point guard Heidi Rueck scored a team-high 15 points — seven at the free throw line. Center Megan Williams collected a double-double with 13 points and 13 rebounds.

The Bruin women play Southern Oregon State College at 5:15 p.m. on Friday in a battle of two early-season conference front-runners.

■ With all its players finally healthy, the Bruin women are now 3-0 after an 89-82 win over Pacific

Basketball is a much easier game to coach when the whole team is healthy — just ask George Fox women's coach Sherri Murrell. With a full compliment of players available Tuesday night against Pacific, George Fox posted an 89-82 win over the Boxers.

The victory moved GFC to 8-7 on the season and 3-0 in Cascade Collegiate Conference play after the Bruin women came away from last weekend's eastern road trip with upset wins over Northwest Nazarene and Eastern Oregon.

Heidi Rueck led George Fox Tuesday night with 21 points on 8 of 13 shooting and also handed out a team-leading 5 assists. Nancy Rissmiller, who just returned to action last weekend after a finger injury, connected on 5 of 10 shots from the floor for 11 points and pulled down a game-high 13 rebounds. In addition to Rueck and Rissmiller, three other George Fox players scored in double figures: Megan Williams had 11, Liz Stephens scored 12 and center Angela Pettit dropped in 10.

"We're playing really well right now," said Murrell. "We're shooting well and we have patience on offense."

Bruin women down Raiders 77-69 in OT

■ Improved second half shooting turns a sleeper into a thrilling overtime win for George Fox

What started out as a slow, ugly game turned into a barn-burner Friday as George Fox (10-7, 3-0) outlasted Southern Oregon State College 77-69 in overtime, giving the Bruin women sole possession of first place in the Cascade Collegiate Conference.

The first half featured 40 turnovers by the two teams — 25 by the Raider women. SOSC could manage only 25 percent shooting from the floor, making just 4 of 16 shots, but the Raider women stayed in the game by making 14 of 18 first half free throws.

George Fox, on the other hand, made just 3 of 8 from the charity stripe but connected on 12 of 30 field goals, giving them a 27-23 lead at the half.

"In the first half, neither team had any offense," said GFC head coach Sherri Murrell. "We played great defense, but couldn't capitalize."

In the second half, George Fox's goal was to keep the same defensive intensity but kick a little more on offense. The primary target was Southern Oregon State's 5-8 forward

Melissa Bogh.

"We tried to isolate Bogh because she's smaller," said GFC guard Heidi Rueck. "We wanted to take our post at her."

The strategy worked, as Megan Williams was on fire in the second half, making 5 of 12 shots over Bogh on her way to a team-high 20 points.

But Southern Oregon rallied in the second half and led 64-60 with 1:10 left. Rebound baskets by Nancy Rissmiller and Liz Stephens, along with a steal by guard Kerry Aillaud allowed the Bruin women to tie the game at 64-64 and even gave them the opportunity to win with the final shot. The ball ended up in Stephens' hands with one second left, but her shot was blocked out of bounds.

Aillaud came up big in the final two minutes of the five-minute overtime period. With GFC holding a slim 69-67 lead with 1:35 remaining, she drained a 3-pointer and then a minute later pulled up on a drive to sink an 8-footer that gave GFC a 74-69 lead.

Saturday, George Fox struggled to put away Northwest College 77-63 in Kirkland, Wash. Williams led GFC with 17 points. Rueck collected 15 points and 6 assists.

Tough preseason schedule is paying off for George Fox

By JUSTIN HAGEY

of The Oregonian staff

When it comes to scheduling in college basketball, there are two lines of thinking:

Make the preseason schedule a living nightmare, abandoning all hope of a glossy record, or play teams with unrecognizable names and build confidence.

George Fox women's coach Sherri Murrell takes the first approach.

Her Bruins are laden with talent and expected to contend for the Cascade Conference title. So instead of panicking when her team struggled to a 6-7 non-conference record, Murrell was rubbing her hands together like a mad scientist anticipating success.

"I really loaded this year's schedule with some tough teams," she said. "Teams like Simon Fraser, and the University of Portland. My philosophy is to play really good teams. The outcome may not be what you want, but it prepares us for our conference."

It's finally starting to pay off.

The Bruins (9-7, 3-0) are receiving votes in the NAIA Division II national poll for the first time. They picked up eight votes in the Jan. 9 poll.

What likely impressed voters was George Fox's 73-69 win over No. 5 Northwest Nazarene College last week at Nampa, Idaho.

"It was a big win on the road,"

■ FRIDAY: Eastern Oregon women at George Fox, 5:15 p.m.; Eastern Oregon men at George Fox, 7:30 p.m.

Murrell said. "It was the first win ever for George Fox over there."

George Fox upset fourth-ranked Southern Oregon State 77-69 Friday night at Newberg to take over first place in the conference.

The Bruins surprised teams last season. In Murrell's first year as coach, George Fox finished 16-12 and third in the conference.

"Last year, no one expected anything," she said. "Now there's more pressure."

With top scorer and rebounder Kristy Fleming graduated, George Fox has relied on senior point guard Heidi Rueck and freshman Nancy Rissmiller of Tigard. Rueck leads the team in scoring with 13 points per game, and Rissmiller is the top rebounder at just over seven a game.

Murrell said Rueck is the team's undisputed leader, but she has been impressed by Rissmiller's play.

"She has really stepped up and played for us," she said. "She always is in on the play and has a knack for the ball. This kid was not scared of college ball. It didn't even faze her."

The top four teams are invited to the Cascade Conference tournament, with the semifinals on Feb. 25 and the finals on Feb. 28.

The national tournament will be in Monmouth March 8-14. Tournament host Western Oregon is automatically invited.

■ BOGH HONORED: Melissa Bogh was named NAIA Division II national women's basketball player of the week after leading sixth-ranked Southern Oregon to wins over Pacific, Concordia and Western Oregon last week.

Bogh, a sophomore from McMinnville, scored 66 points and grabbed 25 rebounds in the three games. She had 32 points and 12 rebounds in an 81-77 win over then 24th-ranked Western Oregon on Saturday.

■ WHITWORTH NAMES COACH: Whitworth named John Tully head football coach, replacing Blaine "Shorty" Bennett and interim coach Daryl Squires.

Tully coached Eureka College of Illinois for the last five years, taking his team to the playoffs in 1991 and 1994.

Bennett resigned last September, on the eve of the Pirates' opener, to work at East Valley High School. Squires came out of retirement and coached the team to a 3-6 record.

Lady Bruins win six in a row

—by David Wood—

Following two consecutive losses to the Portland Saints exhibition team and St. Martin's University, the Lady Bruin basketball team finally hit their stride and has won six consecutive games to open their conference schedule, posting a 3-0 conference mark and claiming sole possession of first place.

Beginning this run was an impressive win on the road over then nationally ranked #5 Northwest Nazarene by a final score of 73-69. Lead by the hot shooting of guard Kerry Aillaud's 25 points and four, three-pointers, the Lady Bruins held a 17-point half-time lead, but a tough NNC team pulled within two in the last minute. Free throws were the difference as the Lady Bruins made five of their last seven to seal the victory.

Despite bad weather conditions and a late arrival the next day, the Lady Bruins made short work of Eastern Oregon, winning 82-59, despite shooting only 26 percent from the field in the first half. Heidi Rueck led the scoring for GFC with 15 points, while forward Meagan Williams added 13 points and pulled down 13 rebounds. For the second game in a row, Kerry Aillaud knocked down four three-pointers, finishing

In the first game after Christmas break, the Lady Bruins defeated the Pacific University Boxers in another thrilling last-minute game. After GFC built an 18-point lead in the second half, the Boxers pulled to within three with a minute to play, but an Aillaud three-pointer put Pacific away. Heidi Rueck led the team in scoring with 21 points, while freshman phenom Nancy Rissmiller added 11 points and grabbed 12 rebounds.

In the game that gave the Lady Bruins sole possession of first place in the conference, GFC forced sixth-ranked Southern Oregon into 34 turnovers and combined the last minute heroics of Rissmiller, Aillaud and forward Liz Stevens to come away with a 77-69 overtime victory. With two minutes to play in OT, Aillaud hit a three and a two-point jumper on back-to-back possessions to put GFC up for good.

For their fifth consecutive win, the Lady Bruins rolled over non-conference opponent Northwest College 77-63, again capitalizing on 27 forced turnovers and out-rebounding Northwest 54-36. Meagan Williams led the way with 17 points and Heidi Rueck added 15.

GFC women hold on for conference win

ALEM — Led by Megan Williams, George Fox held off a second half Western Baptist Charge scored a 78-64 conference win in Salem Friday night.

GFC pushed out to a 35-24 half-time lead, but saw its advantage disappear in the second 20-minute pe-

"I think our second string is full of good players," said GFC coach Sherri Murrell, "but they struggled a bit which let Western Baptist back to it."

Both teams had similar shooting percentages — hitting a shade under 38 percent of their first half shots. Both teams heated up to hit more than 50 percent of their second half attempts.

The Warriors rallied and took a 10-point lead with just over 12 minutes left before the Lady Bruins repelled the comeback attempt.

Three GFC players finished with more than 15 points each, behind the 24-point effort of Williams. Kerry Aillaud totaled 17 points and Liz Stephens contributed 16 points to go with her 8 rebounds.

The Lady Bruins won the rebounding battle inside by a large 37-20 edge.

"I really felt like we had control in the game even though, with 12 minutes left, they went up by one," Murrell said. "Then we kicked it in. It was a game that we couldn't take lightly, and we didn't."

George Fox next faces Concordia and Northwest Nazarene at home this weekend. Friday's game against Concordia is set for 5:15 p.m. to be followed by the men's game. Saturday's contest against Northwest Nazarene will tip off at 3 p.m.

Megan Williams hit 11 of 12 shots from the field, helping George Fox roll to an 87-64 home conference win over Eastern Oregon Friday.

The Lady Bruins jumped out to an early 20-point lead and promptly brought in their bench players. The Mountaineers — with just eight players on the roster — cut the margin back to 13 but trailed 44-20 at the break.

Every GFC player saw action and Williams led all scorers with 25 points.

"Megan had a great game," said GFC coach Sherri Murrell. "In the first half, they had trouble defending the posts, so we just kept hammering it in there."

Also scoring in double figures were Liz Stephens and Keelie

Keown who had 11 and 17 points respectively. Heidi Rueck added 9 assists in just 23 minutes of play.

Women's win streak ends at 8

-by David Wood —

The GFC women's basketball team continued their winning ways this past week with convincing victories over conference opponents Eastern Oregon and Concordia College, increasing their winning streak to eight before falling at Western Oregon on Tuesday, bringing their conference record to 5-1, in a tie for first place.

However, these wins haven't translated into national rankings.

The Lady Bruins are still ranked just 33rd, actually having dropped a position since last week.

Conference rivals Northwest Nazarene and Southern Oregon are still ranked in the top ten, both having already lost to GFC.

Last Friday, the Lady Bruins took a commanding 20-point lead in the first half and never looked back as they rolled to an 87-64 victory over a short-handed Eastern Oregon team. Every GFC player saw action while Center/forward Meagan Williams lead all scorers with 25 points on 11 of 12 shooting. Liz Stephens and Keelie Keown dropped in 17 and 11 points respectively, while Heidi Rueck continued on her record-setting pace, handing out 9 assists. Rueck needs

Lady Bruin homecoming spoiled by NNC 72-68

Number 7-ranked Northwest Nazarene College spoiled the George Fox women's homecoming game Saturday with a 72-68 conference win in Newberg.

Nancy Rissmiller sparked the Lady Bruins (16-9, 8-2) to a 35-34 lead in the first half with 13 points and finished 8 for 10 from the field and scored 18 points on the night.

In the second half, it was point guard Heidi Rueck making the big plays. She kept the Bruins close with 14 points in the second half and finished with a game-high 19.

In the second half, NNC held off a late Lady Bruin charge, hitting 10-straight at the free throw line.

Friday night, however, it was a different story. GFC put together its highest-scoring game of the season, downing Concordia College 94-49 at home. George Fox led by just 10 at the break 38-28, but blew the game open with a 56-point second half. No Lady Bruin starter played more than 22 minutes. Rissmiller and Rueck led the Lady Bruins once more, with Rissmiller pacing GFC with 26 points and a perfect 10 for 10 performance from the field. Rueck dished out 11 assists to go with her 12 points and four steals.

Liz Stephens was 6 of 7 from the field, totaling 13 points.

LADY BRUIN NOTES: Rissmiller has been on a tear as of late. She had 65 points in three games last week, hitting 10 of 10 and 8 of 10 from the field against Concordia and Northwest Nazarene.

The league leading Lady Bruins had a busy weekend as they won big against Concordia 94-49 Friday night. Nancy Rissmiller led the team in scoring with 26 points and rebounding with 10 boards. This victory helped the Bruins to stay on top of the league.

The momentum from Friday night's big win over Concordia carried over into Saturday's homecoming game against Northwest Nazarene. 400 fans saw a dogfight throughout Saturday's game.

At the half, GFC led 35-34. Heidi Rueck led the team in scoring with 19 points and five of the team's 10 assists. Nancy Rissmiller was eight of 10 from the floor as she contributed 18 points. Liz Stephens led the Bruins in rebounding with six of the teams 32 boards, and she also added 10 points. The Bruin Ladies made two of nine from the three-point line.

NNC came out on top 72-68.

Tuesday night in Newberg, the Lady Bruins posted a non-conference win over Lewis & Clark, 67-65. Liz Stephens led GFC with 18 points.

The highlight of the evening focused on the career effort of point guard Heidi Rueck, who dished out four assists to set the new GFC career assist record with 541, passing Linda Funderhide's 1991 mark of 538. Rueck is averaging 5.7 assists per game, and needs only five more assists to break her own single season assist record of 148, set her sophomore year.

The Lady Bruins play at Southern Oregon tonight and at Linfield on Tuesday.

GFC falls at SOSC 69-59

ASHLAND — Southern Oregon State College evened the season series with George Fox, defeating the Lady Bruins 69-59 in Ashland on Saturday.

A late spurt pushed SOSC to a 10-point first-half lead and the Raiders made it stick. GFC center Angela Pettit was the lone Lady Bruin in double figures, scoring 14 points.

Meagan Williams and Nancy Rissmiller each collected a team-high 7 rebounds and Heidi Rueck passed out 7 assists, moving her season total past her own 1992-93 GFC single-season record.

Rueck established a new George Fox career assist record last week. The 5-5 senior point guard broke the school assist record during a home game against Lewis & Clark College last Tuesday night when she drove the lane and dished the ball left to forward Liz Stephens to set up a short jump shot.

In that game, the Lady Bruins led by 6 at half-time and moved the margin to comfortable double-digits midway through the second half. But the Pioneers made a late rush while GFC's bench was mopping up, forcing the Lady Bruins to reinsert the starters, who hung on to win by 2 points, 67-65.

GFC couple share hoop dreams

By CHRIS CLAIR

GRAPHIC SPORTS EDITOR

Take a look at any box score from a George Fox men's game and you'll see the name "Gardea" included among the starters. Now glance over to the women's box score. There it is again. Your first thought might be a brother/sister combination — but you'd be wrong.

The Gardeas are, in fact, George Fox's (and possibly the nation's) first husband/wife basketball combination. Rick, a senior, is a starting point guard for the Bruins while Cori, also a senior but with one more year of athletic eligibility, comes off the bench for the Lady Bruins at shooting guard.

"We're definitely not a normal married couple," said Rick. That much is evident simply when talking to them, and it's not just because of their unique situation on the court. In fact, the two say they rarely practice together and don't really even discuss what's going on with their respective teams.

"It's hard for me to spend time with her and talk about her team because I've got to concentrate on what I'm doing," Rick explained. "If we start, it just frustrates both of us."

With their busy schedules during the basketball season, Cori and Rick may see each other just three or four hours a day. Notes and messages on the answering machine become important forms of communication for the couple, who have been married about a year-and-a-half.

"Sometimes when we get a chance, we'll take an evening and just do nothing," Cori said. "That can be really nice."

Cori and Rick met in a class when he was a junior and she was a freshman at Clatskanie High School seven years ago. Rick was already a star on the boy's basketball team and Cori was eager to prove herself on the court as well.

"I knew she played basketball," Rick said. "She was always in the upstairs gym playing ball with the boys."

Cori said their friends gave the relationship two weeks, but once it lasted beyond that, "Pretty much everyone knew we'd get married," she said.

Rick enrolled at Lower Columbia Community College after graduation and two years later was joined by Cori, who had looked into attending George Fox as a freshman but decided against it. When Rick was recruited to play basketball at GFC, however, Cori followed him a year later. Now both are attracting attention both for their basketball skills on the court and their strong marriage off it.

The GFC women's basketball team split a pair of road games last week, losing at Southern Oregon on Friday 69-59 and defeating Linfield 69-64 Tuesday night.

In the loss at Southern Oregon, Heidi Rueck dished out seven assists and passed her own single season assist record of 148 set her sophomore year. Her current tally stands at 164. Angela Pettit was the only Lady Bruin to score in double digits, finishing with 14 points.

Said coach Sherri Murrell, "It was a great game, but with about nine minutes left in the first half Southern Oregon took off. Southern played really well and their outside threat hurt us."

Tuesday night in McMinnville, the Lady Bruins defeated non-conference opponent Linfield behind the game high 23 points of Liz Stephens.

Nancy Rissmiller added 12 points and Meagan Williams had 11.

Rissmiller and Williams finished with 8 rebounds apiece, helping GFC out-rebound Linfield 40-32. Heidi Rueck added to her growing assist records with 10 assists.

McMINNVILLE — A second-half Linfield run wasn't enough to push the Wildcats over George Fox Tuesday night, as the Lady Bruins swept the season series with a 69-64 win on the road.

Liz Stephens had a big game for GFC (18-10, 9-3), scoring 23 points in 27 minutes of play, making 10 of 13 field goals. She was one of four Lady Bruins in double figures: Nancy Rissmiller added 12 points while Heidi Rueck and Meagan Williams both scored 11.

"Liz is playing right at the top of her game right now," said GFC coach Sherri Murrell. "Every time she got the ball she put it in."

George Fox took control of the game early, cruising to a 35-29 halftime lead behind 44 percent field goal shooting and 75 percent free throw shooting. Linfield made a move in the second half, though, when their posts began scoring over the Lady Bruin frontcourt players from 10-15 feet out. Christy Beer led the Wildcats with 20 points on 9 of 13 shooting. Sarah McKee came off the bench to provide a spark for Linfield by dropping in 16 points.

Both teams became a little more foul prone in the second half as the referees tightened the game a little.

"It was a pretty physical game, but it was loosely called in the first half," Murrell said.

Linfield had a couple of chances to tie the game or go for the win near the end of the game, but Murrell said the Lady Bruins' defense rattled the Wildcat players, forcing them into turnovers or bad shots.

GFC comes home for its last two games this weekend, facing Western Oregon Friday and Northwest on Saturday. Both games are 7:30 p.m. affairs.

GFC wins two over the weekend

In their regular season finale, George Fox ran by Northwest College 74-46 Saturday in Newberg. The win moved GFC to the 20-win plateau for the first time since 1987-88 when the Lady Bruins were 20-9.

Forward Liz Stephens led all scorers for George Fox with 15 points and guard Kerry Aillaud scored 14. GFC led by 12 at the break and all 11 players saw time and took at least one shot. The Lady Bruins shot 36 percent on 14 of 25 from the floor in the second half.

That win followed George Fox's first win over Western Oregon State College since 1987 Friday night at home. Aillaud helped shoot the Lady Bruins to a 70-60 win over the No. 18-ranked Wolves with a team-high 19 points. She hit 5 of 10 from 3-point range and 7 of 13 from the field overall.

GFC held Western Oregon scoreless in the final 3:40 of the game, outscoring the Wolves 8-0 during that stretch. The Lady Bruins dominated the boards, as well, holding a 42-32 advantage and getting 15 from guard/forward Nancy Rissmiller and 10 from center Meagan Williams. Rissmiller also scored 14 points while Williams added 15.

George Fox led by as many as 10 in the first half before a WOSC run cut the half-time lead to 34-27.

Men, women advance to playoffs

— by David Wood —

For the second straight year, the GFC women's basketball team is headed to the Cascade Conference playoffs. The Lady Bruins finished in a tie for second place with Northwest Nazarene but lost a tie breaker and must travel to Nampa for their first round matchup this Saturday, 2/25.

Knowing they needed a win to remain in contention for a home playoff game, the Lady Bruins pulled off an upset of league champion, #18 Western Oregon last Friday (2/17) behind the hot shooting of Cascade Conference Player of the Week Kerry Aillaud. The 70-60 victory was their first over WOSC since 1987.

Aillaud finished with 19 points, hitting 5 of 10 from three-point range and 7 of 13 from the field. Nancy Rissmiller added 14 points and 15 rebounds, while Meagan Williams chipped in 15 points and 10 boards as GFC dominated the boards 43-32.

For the week, Aillaud tallied 42 points, 12 rebounds and six assists in three GFC wins.

In their final regular season game, the Lady Bruins ran past Northwest College 74-46 last Saturday (2/18) in Newberg. The win moved the Lady Bruins to the 20-win mark for the first time since 1987-88. Liz Stephens led GFC with 15 points. All 11 Lady Bruins saw action.

NNC women want to win to get in

■ By René Ferrán
Idaho Press-Tribune

NAMPA — For once, the Northwest Nazarene College women's basketball team's fate doesn't rest entirely on the Cascade Conference tournament.

The eighth-ranked Crusaders know they don't have to win the conference title to reach the NAIA Division II national tournament two weeks down the road in Monmouth, Ore. — an expanded 32-team field ensures that.

No matter. Even with nine at-large berths available, NNC will take no chances.

"We definitely would like to win our way in," Crusaders coach Roger Schmidt said as his team prepares for Saturday's 5 p.m. semifinal against George Fox at Montgomery Field-house.

Thinking any other way "would probably be a negative motivation for us," he continued. "Our goal is to win the conference, and I think that's real feasible."

The Crusaders enter on a roll. The No. 2 seeds have won their last three games and eight of nine to finish 19-5.

NNC's last loss came to top seed Western Oregon. The Wolves host No. 4 seed Southern Oregon on Saturday. To meet Western Oregon, NNC must get past the third-seeded Bruins, no small task.

George Fox has caused NNC fits all year. The third-seeded Bruins spoiled the Crusaders' conference home opener 73-69 on Jan. 6, with NNC winning on George Fox's home court 72-68 a month later.

"I don't think one team comes in with any real advantage," Schmidt said. "I see it as being a very physical, up-tempo game. It should be one of those games where neither one will pull away."

For the Crusaders to win, they'll need to contain the senior guard tandem of Heidi Rueck and Kerry Aillaud.

Aillaud buried NNC in their first meeting, hitting four 3-pointers and scoring a game-high 25 points, while Rueck scored 19 points in the rematch.

The Bruins have done much of their damage on the perimeter against the Crusaders.

Rueck and Aillaud, along with freshman wing Nancy Rissmiller, scored almost 65 percent of George Fox's points in the two games — a fact Schmidt hammered upon at practice Wednesday.

"If you can get those two out of synch, I think it forces them to make some adjustments in their game.

"Others will score for them, but in crunch time, Rueck and Aillaud are the ones who'll either make it happen or won't make it happen."

The Crusaders also must exploit their height advantage. NNC has outrebounded its opponents by an average of six per game, but the smaller Bruins more than held their own in the two meetings. George Fox outrebounded NNC by 11 in Nampa.

The big three of Ellen Duncan, Kari Smith and Donna Knight all nearly matched their season averages against the Bruins and combined for 47 points on 18-of-31 shooting in NNC's win.

"We've got to control the boards, have good shot selection and have a strong defensive effort," Schmidt said.

"It's what we've done all year, and you don't go away from what's made you a successful team to this point. You just clean it up some."

Lady Bruins advance to conference finals

■ George Fox rallies from a nine point second-half deficit to defeat Northwest Nazarene on the road 73-67

NAMPA, Idaho — George Fox erased a 9-point second-half deficit and advanced to the Cascade Conference championship with a 73-67 win at No. 8-ranked Northwest Nazarene College Saturday.

The Lady Bruins hit 55 percent of their second-half shots, 12 of 13 from the free throw line and all four 3-point attempts.

George Fox hung close throughout the first 20 minutes, led by an 8-point, 6-rebound effort by forward

Nancy Rissmiller.

In the second half, it was the upperclassmen who carried the scoring burden. Center Meagan Williams scored 14 of her 18 points in the second half and Liz Stephens put in six before the break and 13 in the second half.

After taking a one-point lead into the locker room at the half, George Fox found itself down by nine with nine minutes left to play in the second half. That's when, according to GFC coach Sherri Murrell, the Lady Bruins changed their offensive strategy a little.

With NNC double teaming George Fox post players every time they touched the ball, the Lady Bruins began kicking the ball outside to shooters who knocked down wide open shots. That, in-turn, opened up the inside game for Stephens and Williams.

With NNC up 45-36, Williams proceeded to score 7 straight points for GFC. Kerry Aillaud hit a jumper and a 3-pointer and the Lady Bruins were suddenly within five. Thanks to three straight Northwest Nazarene turnovers, George Fox took a 54-53 lead with seven minutes remaining. The margin would grow to 7 points with just over two minutes left in the game.

Heidi Rueck hit a pair of free throws at the 1:37 mark to help GFC hold on for just its second-ever win at Nampa — the first came earlier this season.

By knocking off the Crusaders, the Lady Bruins advance to their first-ever conference championship game Tuesday at No. 15 Western Oregon State College. No. 1 seed Western Oregon hosted and defeated No. 4 seed Southern Oregon

State College 71-59 on Saturday.

“We feel good facing Western Oregon, especially since the last game was a lot better than the first,” Murrell said. “We know there's nothing magical about beating them and we know we can win.”

The first time the two teams met during the regular season, Western Oregon won by 21, 81-60.

On Feb. 17, George Fox used 11 points by Aillaud and 9 rebounds from Williams to post a 70-60 win at home.

Western Oregon will host the NAIA national tournament this year, so they receive an automatic berth. George Fox must win the conference championship to advance to the tournament.

GFC finds Wolves' house made of bricks

■ George Fox shoots just 20 percent for the game, dropping the conference championship 48-36

By CHRIS CLAIR
GRAPHIC SPORTS EDITOR

MONMOUTH — Western Oregon State College shot just 32 percent from the floor Tuesday night — 16 percent in the first half — but the George Fox women couldn't capitalize and wound up dropping its first-ever conference championship game 48-36 at Western Oregon State.

The Wolves improved their field goal shooting in the second half, hitting 11-of-22, to outscore the Bruin women 29-19 and advance to the NAIA national tournament as the Cascade Conference champions. Western Oregon, ranked No. 15 in the country, would have gone to the tournament anyway as the hosts, but the win over George Fox served to legitimize the team's presence in its own building.

A crowd of only about 500, half of those from George Fox, turned out to see Sandie Graves of WOSC score 11 second-half points to lead her team back from a 19-17 half-time deficit. She finished with a game-high 17 points and added 9 rebounds. Heidi Rueck led the Bruin women with 10 points and was a perfect 2-2 from the free throw line. Liz Stephens hauled down a game-high 10 rebounds, including 3 at the offensive end.

There were plenty of rebounds to go around, too, particularly in the first half. While most teams would have been thrilled to hold their opponents to 4-of-25 shooting, George Fox couldn't take advantage, connecting on just 6-of-30 themselves.

Neither team could score in the early going and it wasn't until three-and-a-half minutes had gone by that Graves finally managed to put WOSC on the scoreboard with a 3-pointer. Rueck immediately answered with a baseline drive but Western bottled off the next 5 points on 2 free throws by Joan Coleman and a three-point play by Graves.

With just under 7 minutes to play, George Fox found itself down by 6 at 13-7. The Bruin women then went on a 12-4 run to end the quarter up by one, 19-17. Ailaud hit a 3-pointer and with 4:37 to play, GFC took a 16-15 lead on Liz Stephens' jump fake and hucklet.

Neither team could score in the last minute-and-a-half, with WOSC and GFC combining for 6 turnovers down the stretch.

The second half was all Western Oregon for the first five minutes. The Wolves went on a 6-0 run to open the half and eventually moved out to a 40-24 lead before the George Fox shooters finally got tepid.

The Bruin women then went on a 14-3 run over the span of a minute, but Western free throws and a rebound basket by Heather Bailey sealed the win for Western.

Western Oregon's Sandie Graves burned George Fox for 17 points Tuesday night in the Wolves' 46-38 win to clinch the Cascade Conference championship.

Championship escapes women

—by David Wood—

After advancing to the Cascade Conference Championship game, the GFC Lady Bruins fell to 15th-ranked Western Oregon in a sloppy game, 46-38, missing their best opportunity to make the national tournament. GFC can still make the Monmouth tourney by receiving an at-large berth.

In a game in which neither team reached double figures in scoring until nine minutes left in the first half, the Lady Bruins posted a slim 19-17 halftime advantage. After halftime, however, GFC couldn't find the basket, scoring only five points in 15 minutes of play, allowing WOSC to build a 41-24 lead. The Lady Bruins made just 10 of 51 shots from the floor, 19.6 percent for the game. Free throws kept GFC in the game, making 15 of 18.

The Lady Bruins finally caught fire behind the three-point shooting of Kerry Aillaud, going on a 14-2 run and cutting the deficit to only 43-38. But they would get no closer after three WOSC free throws and an offensive rebound, for a final score of 46-38.

The Lady Bruins were led by the 10 points and six assists of guard Heidi Rueck, a Cascade Conference first team selection. Liz Stephens added 10 rebounds and seven points.

In the first-round playoff game last Saturday, the Lady Bruins defeated 8th-ranked Northwest Nazarene 73-67 in Nampa, Idaho. After hanging close through the first half, the Lady Bruins erased a nine-point deficit in the second half and built as much as a seven-point lead. The victory was only the second ever for GFC in Nampa, both coming this year.

GFC hit 55 percent of its second-half shots, made 12 of 13 free throws, and 4 of 4 from three-point land. The Lady Bruins were led by the 19 and 18 points of forwards Liz Stephens and Meagan Williams. Nancy Rissmiller pulled down 9 boards and Kerry Aillaud dished out six assists.

Congratulations to the individual Lady Bruins who were honored as all-Cascade Conference team selections. Heidi Rueck was named to the first team, and Meagan Williams and Liz Stephens were Honorable Mention selections. Coach Sherri Murrell was named Coach of the Year.

MONMOUTH — Shelly Potter of Dayton scored 17 points Tuesday night to help Western Oregon State College capture the NAIA Division II women's basketball title with a 75-67 win over Northwest Nazarene. The 5-foot-4 junior was a perfect 4 of 4 on three-pointers and scored 13 of her points in the second half. Tournament Most Valuable Player Sandi Graves scored 27 points on 11 of 22 shooting and also hauled down 10 rebounds.

The title is the school's very first team championship in any sport.

Western Oregon, which hosted this year's tournament, won the Cascade Conference championship by defeating George Fox 46-38 on Feb. 28. In that game, the 6-foot-1-inch Graves led the Wolves with 17 points.

GFC WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

George Fox point guard Heidi Rueck is the Lady Bruins' first women's basketball All-American. The 1991 Glencoe High graduate was announced March 14 as an NAIA Division II honorable mention All-American.

Rueck is a two-time Cascade Conference first team selection. She finished her four-year career at George Fox with three school assist records: game (13), season (190 in 1994-95) and career (584). She averaged 5.9 assists and 12.4 points a game this season. Nationally, she finished 12th in assists.

Rueck led the Lady Bruins to a school-record tying 21-11 season in the toughest NAIA Division II conference in the nation. The Lady Bruins were the last team to beat both the 1994-95 NAIA Division II national champion Western Oregon State College and runner-up Northwest Nazarene.

Lady Bruins' Williams earns All-American honors

■ Meagan Williams' determination and persistence pays-off with an All-American Scholar-Athlete award

By ROB FELTON
FOR THE GRAPHIC

Meagan Williams didn't look much like an All-American women's basketball player four years ago when she averaged 1.5 points per game. Her rebounding average was 1.2 a game, not very impressive for a post player.

"I wanted to quit," she said. "But I couldn't quit. Something inside wouldn't let me."

On Friday, the six-foot-tall Williams, a senior at George Fox College, reaped the benefits of persistence when she was named an NAIA Division II All-American Scholar-Athlete. She is one of just two players selected from the Northwest and the first from the GFC women's program.

In addition to her improvement on the basketball court, Williams is breaking new ground in the classroom as well. This spring she will become the first female to complete George Fox's seven-year-old engineering program sequence. She will transfer to Oregon State University with a 3.76 grade point average to finish her degree in either mechanical or civil engineering.

"She emerged as kind of a leader," said her major professor, Bob Harder. "She's proved herself over the long run."

Early on, her slow start on the basketball court mirrored her struggles in the classroom. "Her first term she got two B-pluses in my classes," said Harder. "She called me up and asked why. Ever since then she's earned all A's from me."

Harder is not the only one at George Fox to notice Williams' overall improvement. "In my coaching career I've never seen a more dramatic improvement from freshman to senior year than I saw with Meagan," said her former coach, Craig Taylor, now George Fox's athletic director. "Meagan came into college basketball needing to improve a lot of things. She wasn't particularly strong or particularly quick. Physically she was still trying to adjust to her height."

But Taylor added Williams had one thing in her favor. "Meagan really wanted to be a good college basketball player," he said. "I can't take any credit for her improvement. She is self-made."

Achieving her goal meant hard work in the form of summer league basketball, weight training, conditioning and extra time after practice.

"Playing in the summer league was not a very comfortable thing for her to do," said Taylor. "There were a lot of NCAA Division I players there and she got a real education. But she just went in to get better."

When her coaches gave instructions, she took note — literally. "I noticed the coaches would say things to me and later they'd repeat it," Williams said. "It sounds corny, but when they told me things, I'd write it down in a notebook. I wrote pages and pages. It stopped them having to say it every time. I'd journal after every game about things I needed to learn. Then I'd read it before each new game."

Williams: Persistence pays off

She encouraged her teammates to be students of the game as well, giving out notebooks as gifts during the season.

According to Williams' coach for the past two seasons, GFC women's head coach Sherri Murrell, nobody on the team worked harder than Williams. "Meagan was a workhorse," she said. "She worked on what she needed to do to improve. She's not a kid with a lot of athleticism, but she worked each fundamental skill to perfection. We got every ounce out of her that we could have."

After shooting 27.9 percent from the field her first year, Williams began to hone her offensive game. Four years later, her career 44.4 percent field goal percentage is sixth-best in George Fox history. Her scoring average more than doubled in each of her first three seasons, leaping from 1.5 as a freshman to 5.0 to 11.4 points per game her sophomore year. This season she upped her average yet again to finish at 12.5 points per game.

Williams attributes most of her improvement to increased confidence, the strength she gained by weight training and the work she did on her post moves with assistant coach Scott Rueck.

"He helped me so much to know what to do and where to go," Williams said.

This past year, Williams played a major role on a team that was one of George Fox's best ever. The Lady Bruins compiled a record-tying 21-11 season and were the last team to win a game against the NAIA Division II national champion Western Oregon State College, as well as the national runner-up, Northwest Nazarene. Williams ranked near the top of the Cascade Conference regular season statistics in three categories: she finished 10th in scoring (12.5), fifth in rebounding (7.3) and eighth in field goal percentage (48.1). During the season, she led her team in scoring nine times and in rebounding 11 times. On Jan. 23, she was honored as the Cascade Conference Player of the Week.
