NAIA runners enjoy beautiful day at Parkside

By Jim Casper
Sports Writer

Those who say some things never change should have attended the NAIA national cross country meet Saturday at UW-Parkside.

Lubbock Christian University (Texas) stunned Adams State (Colo.) and won the men's title with 33 points. Adams State took second with 57 and Simon Fraser of British Columbia third with 96. Malone (Ohio) was fourth with 141, followed by George Fox (Ore.) 279.

Adams State had won seven consecutive NAIA titles, including a co-championship with Western State (Colo.) in 1986.

Adams State's string of three consecutive women's titles was snapped by Western State, which won with 58 points. Adams State took second with 70 and Pacific Lutheran (Wash.) third at 100. Hillsdale (Mich.) was fourth with 138.

Parkside, led by Paula Stokman's 28th place, took fifth with 180.

Adams State remains a cross country power. It simply ran into two outstanding teams in a meet that featured 358 men and 327 women finishers. There were 42 men's and 40 women's teams.

James Bungei of Lubbock Christian won the men's 8,000-meter race with a time of 24 minutes, seven seconds. Teammate David Kogo was second in 24:28. Lubbock also had the Nos. 6 and 8 finishers in Mbarak Hussein, 24:29; and Derek Kite, 25:13.

Adams State had the Nos 3, 7 and 11 finishers in Dan Maas, 24:40; Jason Mohr, 25:07; and Nate Butler, 25:18.

It took runners from Kenya to overcome powerful Adams State's dynasty.

Bungei (pronounced Boon-gay) is a soft-spoken freshman from Kenya.

"Conditions at Parkside were a lot like home," Bungei said. "The temperature was good but I didn't run as fast as I expected to. I'm still real happy to win."

Bungei's coach, Darrell Price, was elated with his team's performance. Last year Lubbock finished 11th and two years ago 16th.

"We put two runners in front of Maas and that's not an easy thing to do," Price said.

Maas of Adams State finished second in last year's race.

"We get our Kenyan runners by word of mouth," Price said. "They are real disciplined people, are easy to coach and are serious about getting an education."

Adams State coach Joe Vigil knew what he was up against and didn't seem too stunned to see his championship string end.

"Both teams (Lubbock and Adams State) ran a great race. We had five people in the top 20, but you can't take it away from Lubbock," Vigil said. "They did a great job but we did a great job, too."

Parkside men's coach Lucian Rosa was happy to finish 20th, considering what happened to ace runner Derek Brown.

Plagued by a hip and hamstring problem, Brown made it to the second mile and had to drop out.

Pat Kochanski led the Rangers by finishing 68th in 26:22. Other Parkside finishers were Kirt Miller, 75th, 26:26; Tim Reeves, 126th, 26:59; Steve Rocha, 174th, 27:22; Chris Henkes, 215th, 27:42; and Dave Doherty, 220th, 27:46.

"Our other people picked up the pace and ran well to get us into the top 20," Rosa said.

Sarah Howell of Simon Fraser (British Columbia) dominated the women's 5,000-meter race with a time of 17:44. Heather Lucas of Pacific Lutheran was a distance second in 17:58. Terry Villarreal of Adams State took third in 18:04, edging Sylvia Sanchez of the University of North Florida, who was also clocked in 18:04.

Howell was alone in the race and alone teamwise. She was the only Simon Fraser entrant.

"It was a great day. The weather was awesome," a happy Howell said. "I love this course. There's a flat part that's great for me because my strength is fast, flat running. Once you get over the first big hill the rest of the course is pretty fast."

Neither the men or women were able to challenge the course's or meet's record times, despite ideal temperatures and no wind factor.

"The course was kind of slippery in spots and some dirt would stick to your shoes," Howell said.

Parkside also ran into misfortune on the women's side when Jenny Clark went down and couldn't complete the race. Clark had a sore muscle in her rib cage and Parkside women's coach Mike Witt said you can't run when that happens.

"It's happened to me and I know how it feels," DeWitt said.

Stokman had a personal-best time of 18:40 on the Parkside course.

"I was in about 15th place at the two-mile mark, but didn't have a great kick at the end," Stokman said. "I was happy with having a personal best, but I wanted to finish in the top 25 for All-America."

Parkside's other finishers were Tricia Breau, 34th, 18:53; Lorri De Blicke, 38th, 18:54; Ann Stokman, 57th, 19:16; Tara Roy, 58th, 19:17; and Veronica Chamlee, 126th, 20:04.

Older runners should draw inspiration from Sherri Hall of Southern California College. The 39-year-old Hall finished ninth with a time of 18:19.

"Sherri is a nurse who came back to school three years ago to get a degree in psychology," said Ron Prettyman, Southern California College's athletic director. "She has a son in high school and a daughter in fifth grade."
