PAT BAILEY

In just four short years, Pat Bailey, the 1999 Northwest Conference Co-Coach of the Year, has established himself as one of the brightest new stars in college coaching ranks.

With four straight winning records of 25-16, 29-14, 25-13, and last year's 32-8, Bailey has a career record of 111-51, a .685 winning percentage, the best of anyone ever to coach the Bruins. His teams were Northwest Conference runner-ups in 1996 and 1998, conference champions in 1997, and last season tied for the league championship with Linfield. In 1997, Bailey was named Northwest Conference Coach of the Year after guiding the Bruins to their eighth conference or district title in a 10-year span. Several of his players have received all-conference and all-district honors, and last year, first baseman Nate Barnett became his first NAIA First Team All-American.

Bailey took over the Bruin program immediately after guiding West Linn High School into the Oregon Class 4A state championship game. At West Linn, his teams advanced to the Class 4A state playoffs seven times and in his final season were edged 2-1 in the 1995 state championship game. Four times Bailey was named Three Rivers League Coach of the Year. He was at West Linn for 10 years as head baseball coach and assistant football coach. His baseball teams won five league titles and reached the Oregon semifinals in 1989, 1991 and 1995. From 1989 to 1995, his combined record as a high school and American Legion baseball coach was 315-105 (.750). Prior to West Linn, Bailey taught and coached at Willamette High School in Eugene, Ore., for three years. He has worked at various baseball camps, and served as a pitching coach at the University of Portland in 1992. "George Fox really matches up with me personality-wise and philosophically," says Bailey. "As a coach, I want to make sure every kid is making the most of his God-given talent. I want them to be a class act in the classroom and the community. I want the kids to match the school and my personality. I stress to my team that we're a family. Family members are more important than themselves. If you're going to be a leader, you must be a servant first."

Bailey is a 1974 graduate of Moscow High School in Idaho, where he played football, basketball and was the baseball team's MVP. He earned two letters in baseball at North Idaho College in Couer d'Alene, Idaho, then two more as a starting outfielder and team captain during his senior season at the University of Idaho. He continued playing semiprofessionally until age 28.

In 1978, Bailey completed his business education degree, and earned a master of education degree in educational administration from the University of Oregon in 1983.

At West Linn, Bailey was also a business instructor, and in 1994 was named to Who's Who Among America's Outstanding High School Teachers. In 1995, he was one of 30 outstanding educators honored with a 1995 Education Excellence Award, given by Associated Oregon Industries. At George Fox, Bailey is also associate director of athletics and a teacher in the department of health and human services.

Bailey and his wife, Susan, live in Newberg with their children, Alex, 16, and Ann, 13.
