5/13 – NCAA REGIONALS: Bruins Seeded 6th in Midwest Regional in Oshkosh, Wisconsin

NEWBERG, Ore. – The George Fox University Bruins knew they were going to have to travel to play in the NCAA Division III baseball regional tournaments this week, but they were surprised to learn this morning that it won't be in the West Regional as anticipated. Instead, the Bruins will be participating in the Midwest Regional at Tiedemann Field on the campus of the University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh, Thursday-Sunday, May 16-19.

George Fox (26-13) will enter the regional as the #6 seed, taking on the #1 seed, the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point (34-8), in the first game Thursday, May 16, at 10:00 a.m. (8:00 a.m. PDT). The Bruins won the Northwest Conference title and are making their second post-season appearance in their third year of NCAA eligibility; the Bruins went 0-2 as the #1 seed in the West Region in 2000. UW-Stevens Point's Pointers won the Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference and are the 10th-ranked team in the nation.

Game Two on Thursday at 1:00 p.m. will feature the #2 seed, the University of St. Thomas from Minneapolis, Minn. (29-10) vs. the #5 seed, Blackburn College of Carlinville, Ill. (26-10). St. Thomas' Tommies won the Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic Conference, are ranked 24th in the nation, and are the defending NCAA Division III national champions. The Beavers of Blackburn are champions of the St. Louis Intercollegiate Athletic Conference.

Game Three at 4:00 p.m. Thursday pits #3 seed Lakeland College (29-14-1) of Sheboygan, Wisc. against #4 seed Calvin College (28-11) of Grand Rapids, Mich. Lakeland's Muskies won the Lake Michigan Conference, while the Knights of Calvin were the Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic Conference winners.

All NCAA regionals are double elimination. If the Bruins win Thursday, they would play Friday at 1:00 p.m. against the loser of the Lakeland-Calvin game. If they lose Thursday, they play Friday at 10:00 a.m. against the loser of the St. Thomas-Blackburn game.

Winners of the eight regionals will compete in the NCAA Division III National Championship May 24-28 at Fox Cities Stadium in Appleton, Wisc. For complete brackets, dates, sites, and other information on the playoffs, visit the NCAA championships web site at www.ncaachampionships.com. The Midwest Regional may be followed at the University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh's web site at www.uwosh.edu.

GEORGE FOX UNIVERSITY TOURNAMENT NOTES

Bruins vs. 2002 Midwest Regional Opponents:

GFU baseball records are sketchy prior to 1990, but insofar as is known, the Bruins have never played any of the teams they will face in Oshkosh this week.

Previous Playoff Appearances:

The only previous NCAA Division III baseball appearance for the Bruins was in their first year of NCAA eligibility after coming over from the NAIA, in 2000. George Fox was the No. 1 seed with a 31-8 record in the West Regional at Southwestern University in Georgetown, Texas. After taking an early 6-2 lead on home runs by Derek Birley and Kyle Langeliers, the Bruins could not hold on against California Lutheran and dropped into the loser's bracket with an 11-7 loss. Host Southwestern eliminated the Bruins on May 19, handing Third Team All-American Ryan Alvis a 4-3 setback on two unearned runs.

NAIA Playoffs:

George Fox made 5 appearances in NAIA district playoffs and 5 appearances in NAIA regional playoffs before becoming eligible in the NCAA during the 1999-2000 academic year. The Bruins were 15-4 in district games, winning District 2 in 1991, 1992, and 1993, and 0-10 in regional games.

NCAA Record Set by 2002 Bruins:

Most Hit by Pitches, season – 32 by Ryan Dearing (old record was 29 by Luther Headley of Ferrum in 1996)

5/13 – ALL-CONFERENCE: Eight Players and Coach Receive All-Conference Honors

NEWBERG, Ore. – Coach Pat Bailey and eight of his George Fox University Bruins have been honored with All-Northwest Conference recognition for their accomplishments on the baseball field during the 2002 season, according to a release from NWC information director Steve Flegel at Whitworth College.

Bailey was honored as NWC “Coach of the Year” for leading the Bruins to a 26-13 overall record and the conference championship at 16-7, earning the team an automatic bid to the NCAA Division III playoffs. He also received the award in 1997, 1999 (Co-Coach of the Year), and 2000, when the Bruins won other NWC titles. His overall record now stands at 190-95 (.667), and he became the winningest coach in Bruin history with his 172nd win, a 12-6 victory over Vanguard on March 14, surpassing current Oregon State head coach Pat Casey.

Named to the All-NWC First Team were designated hitter Eric Bell (Jr., Spokane, Wash.), second baseman Ryan Dearing (Sr., Vancouver, Wash.), center fielder Travis Maffey (Sr., Boise, Idaho), righthanded pitcher Scott Hyde (Fr., Grants Pass, Ore.), and southpaw Cory Dixon (So., Springfield, Ore.).

Receiving Honorable Mention were first baseman Kyle Langeliers (Sr., Pleasant Hill, Ore.), third baseman Kevin Tucker (Jr., Forest Grove, Ore.), and shortstop Paul Gramenz (Sr., Sequim, Wash.).

Bell repeated as an All-Conference First Team selection, batting a team-high .390 with 12 doubles, nine home runs, 48 RBI, with a conference-leading 34 walks and .5193 on-base percentage (edging Dearing, who was at .5192). He also ranked 2nd in the conference in RBI (48) and total at-bats (181), 3rd in runs (45), 6th in hits (55), doubles, home runs, and total bases (94), 7th in slugging pct. (.667), and 9th in batting. He was a Verizon Academic All-District VIII selection as well.

Dearing also repeated as a First Team All-Conference pick while setting a new NCAA Division III single-season record by getting hit with a pitch 32 times! When he wasn’t getting hit, though, he was battering opposing pitchers for a .362 average while slugging seven home runs and knocking in 44, 4th in the conference. He, too, was named to the Verizon Academic All-District VIII team.

Maffey gained First Team All-Conference honors with a .338 average while ranking 6th in the league in triples (2), 7th in hit-by-pitches (7), 9th in doubles (11), and 10th in stolen bases (7), total at-bats (164), and official at-bats (142).

On the mound, Hyde established himself as the staff ace despite his freshman status, posting a 7-2 record with a 3.39 ERA and 82 strikeouts, the 2nd-highest single-season total in Bruin history. He ranked 2nd in the NWC in wins, strikeouts, and ERA, and was 3rd in starts (12), 6th in innings (77.0), and 8th in lowest opponents’ batting average (.274).

Dixon, who started 10 games and relieved in eight others, led the league in ERA (3.26), while posting a 6-5 record with 43 strikeouts in 77.1 innings. He was 3rd in the NWC in appearances (18), 4th in wins, 5th in innings, and 7th in starts and lowest opponents' average (.273).

Langeliers blossomed in his senior season to hit .379 with eight home runs and 41 RBI, ranking 7th in the league in RBI, 8th in home runs, and 10th in batting. He was also 8th in hits (53) and 10th in total bases (85).

Tucker, playing third regularly for the first time in college, did not let the new position affect him at the plate as he hit .319 and was 6th in the NWC in doubles (12).

Gramenz, a slick-fielding shortstop, batted .233 with four home runs and 21 RBI while ranking 5th in the league in assists (100) and double plays (22).

Other All-NWC First Team members included catchers Jason Searle of Willamette and Brian Savery of Whitworth, first baseman Ryan Joy of Pacific, third baseman Kevin Schjei of Linfield, shortstop Chris Hughbanks of Whitworth, outfielders Kevin Roth and Matt Lengwenus of Pacific and Rob White of Pacific Lutheran, starting pitchers Luke Buchheit of Linfield, Jason Andrew of Pacific Lutheran, and Kurt Reese of Whitworth, reliever Derek Akimoto of Pacific, and utility player David Moore of Linfield. Roth was named NWC "Player of the Year".

5/9 – ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICA: Bruins' Bell, Dearing Earn Verizon Academic All-District VIII

NEWBERG, Ore. – As successful in the classroom as they are on the diamond, Eric Bell and Ryan Dearing of George Fox University have earned places on the Verizon/CoSIDA Academic All-District VIII College Division Baseball Team as selected by district members of the College Sports Information Directors of America.

Bell, a junior designated hitter from Spokane, Wash., has compiled a 3.914 grade point average in Business Marketing. Dearing, a senior second baseman from Vancouver, Wash., has a 3.740 in History, graduated summa cum laude on May 4, and will enter Purdue University's graduate program in the fall.

On the field, Bell and Dearing were major factors in the Bruins' 26-13 record, Northwest Conference championship, and a berth in the NCAA Division III regionals coming up May 16-19.

Bell leads the Bruins in batting (.390), home runs (9), RBI (48), hits (55), runs (45), walks (34), at bats (141), total bases (94), slugging pct. (.667), on-base pct. (.5193), and is tied for the lead in doubles (12). He was NWC "Hitter of the Week" for March 18-24, and leads the conference in walks, on-base pct., and is second in RBI and total at bats (181).

Dearing leads the Bruins in hit-by-pitches (32), establishing a new NCAA Division III single-season record, and ranks eighth in career hit-by-pitches (42) at the D-III level. He is second on the team in RBI (44) and on-base pct. (.5192), and third in batting (.362), home runs (7), total bases (69), and slugging pct. (.595).

District VIII includes non-Division I schools from Oregon, Washington, California, Hawaii, Alaska, Idaho, Montana, Utah, Nevada, and Arizona.

Other members of the Academic All-District VIII College Division Baseball Team are pitchers Spike Einsiedler of Pomona-Pitzer and Ryan Heitmann of Lewis-Clark State, catcher Gregor Connors of Cal Poly-Pomona, infielders Bryce Gardiner of Western Oregon and Matt Rager and Luke Smude of Pomona-Pitzer, and outfielders Matt Benjamin of Willamette and Sam Owre of Western Baptist. All 10 members of the All-District VIII Team are automatically nominated for Academic All-America.

This year marks the 50th year of the Academic All-America programs, as the inaugural team was announced on Dec. 6, 1952. Since that time, more than 12,000 students have been named Academic All-America team members at colleges and universities at all levels for every recognized NCAA sport. The program's popularity resulted in a significant expansion for the current academic year, as 816 student-athletes – a 19 percent increase over the previous high – will be selected to 12 different Academic All-America teams during the 2001-02 season.

BRUIN BITS:

 Bruin NWC "Hitters of the Week" in 2002:

Eric Bell (March 18-24)

Kyle Langeliers (March 25-31)

 Bruin NWC "Pitchers of the Week" in 2002:

Scott Hyde (April 1-7)

 Record-Setting Dearinger Now 8th on All-Time Hit-by-Pitch National List

Ryan Dearinger, who set a new NCAA Division III national record for most times hit by a pitch in one season when he was hit for the 30th time by Whitman's Ryan Nelson in the third inning of the Bruins' 8-7 win over the Missionaries on Friday, April 27, in Walla Walla, Wash., has moved into the all-time top 10 for career hit-by-pitches. He was hit for the 32nd time this season and 42nd in his career Tuesday in a 6-4 loss at California State-ward, placing his 8th on the NCAA Division III chart. The record is 60 by Jason Angel of Rensselaer (N.Y.) in 145 games from 1993-96. Dearinger played for two years at Tacoma (Wash.) Community College before transferring to George Fox last season, when he led the Northwest Conference by getting hit 10 times. Every person ahead of him on the list played needed four seasons to reach their marks!

RECAPS:

5/6 – GEORGE FOX 5, CSU-HAYWARD 4: Dombek's Clutch Clout Gives Bruins Another Late Win

HAYWARD, Calif. – Greg Dombek slugged his second home run of the season in the top of the ninth inning, breaking a tie and giving the George Fox University Bruins their second straight last at-bat win over the California State University-Hayward Pioneers, 5-4, here Monday afternoon (May 6).

Dombek's clutch clout came with one out, pinned the loss on Pioneer reliever Jerame Nelson, 0-1, and made a winner of Bruin reliever Ash Anunsen, 3-2. Anunsen had relieved starter Scott Hyde, who went six innings and allowed only four hits and three runs, all unearned, with seven strikeouts and three walks. Seann Hammon picked up his first save by getting the last two outs after Anunsen surrendered a one-out single to Brandon Benavides in the last of the ninth.

The Bruins pounded out 15 hits in the game, 13 off Cal State starter Nick Burns in only 6.2 innings, but the Bruins also left 14 runners on. Stephen Donohue led the way with a 4-for-5 game and scored two runs. Eric Bell, Kyle Langeliers, Ryan Dearing, Dombek, and David Peterson had two hits each for the Bruins. Dombek added a triple to go along with his home run.

5/7 - CSU-HAYWARD 6, GEORGE FOX 4: Pioneers Turn Tables on Bruins with Comeback Win

HAYWARD, Calif. -After watching the George Fox University Bruins win the first two games of their three-game series with last at-bat rallies, the California State University-Hayward Pioneers turned the tables on the Bruins Tuesday afternoon (May 7) here at Pioneer Field and pulled out a 6-4 win with a three-run 8th inning in the final regular-season game for both teams.

George Fox jumped on top with four runs in the first inning on only one hit. With two out, Eric Bell walked, Ryan Dearing was hit by a pitch, extending his NCAA Division III single-season record to 32, and Josh Sargent walked to load the bases. Greg Dombek delivered two runs with a single, and two more scored on an error by shortstop Geoff Perry on Paul Gramenz' grounder.

Chris Ullery, 3-1, relieved Pioneer starter Josh Evans at that point and shut out the Bruins on three hits through eight innings, picking up the win when his teammates rallied in the bottom of the eighth. Josh Gray worked a one-hit ninth for his third save.

Bruin starter Thomas Chivers went a strong six innings, scattering four hits while striking out six and walking only one, leaving with a 4-2 lead, but the bullpen couldn't hold it. Hayward scored a run off Bryan Manor in the seventh to cut the gap to 4-3, then tied it in the eighth off Nathan Green, 1-1, on a Jason Bumbaca single and a run-scoring double by Perry. Ash Anunsen relieved, and Archie Gilbert slammed his second home run of the series for the 6-4 win.

George Fox finishes the regular season with a 26-13 record, while Cal State-Hayward evens its record at 20-20. The Bruins, Northwest Conference champions, now turn their attention to the NCAA Division III National Tournament. Details about all eight regionals, including the West Regional which the Bruins will be in, are to be announced Monday morning, May 13. Regionals are set for May 16-19, with the nationals on May 24-28 in Appleton, Wisc.

COACH PAT BAILEY (Idaho '78) is 189-94 (.668) in his 7th season as a college head baseball coach, all at George Fox. A 12-6 win over Vanguard on March 14 boosted him past Pat Casey (171-113-1, 1988-94), now the head coach at Oregon State, into the top spot for wins by a Bruin baseball coach. Entering this season, his .667 winning percentage (164-82) ranked 27th among active Division III coaches with at least five years' experience. He won NWC "Coach of the Year" honors 1997, 1999 (shared with Linfield's Scott Carnahan), and 2000 for leading the Bruins to league titles each of those seasons. Against this week's opponent, he is 8-1 vs. California State-Hayward (4-1 in Newberg, 4-0 in Hayward).

5/4 – NWC: Bruins Win Conference Crown and Automatic Bid to NCAA Playoffs

In one of the closest Northwest Conference races in years, the George Fox Bruins clinched the conference crown Saturday (May 4) without swinging a bat or throwing a pitch. The Bruins had secured no worse than a tie for the league title at 16-7 by sweeping a three-game series at Whitman April 27-28, leaving Pacific as the only team that could have tied them. Pacific had to sweep all three of their games with Whitman May 4-5, however, and they couldn't do it, as the Missionaries knocked off the Boxers 13-3 in the first game of a doubleheader Saturday afternoon in Forest Grove, Ore. With rainouts having played a part in the final standings, George Fox (16-7) finished first, a half-game ahead of Whitworth (16-8), one ahead of Pacific (15-8), and one-and-a-half ahead of Linfield (15-9).

George Fox, 25-12 overall after defeating California State-Hayward 6-2 in 10 innings Sunday, has two games remaining, both at CSUH May 6-7, then will play in the NCAA West Regional as the automatic qualifier from the Northwest Conference. The NCAA's eight regionals are set for May 16-19, with the national finals set for May 24-28 in Appleton, Wisc. Regional sites, exact dates, times, and pairings will be announced on Monday, May 13.

Other teams which have already secured berths in the West are Southwestern University of Georgetown, Texas, champion of the Southern Collegiate Athletic Conference; Concordia University of Austin, Texas, the American Southwest Conference champion; and Pomona-Pitzer College, winner of the Southern California Intercollegiate Athletic Conference. It is possible the West could have a six-team regional, depending on which teams from the West, if any, receive at-large bids.

 Record-Setting Dearinger Now 8th on All-Time Hit-by-Pitch National List

Ryan Dearinger, who set a new NCAA Division III national record for most times hit by a pitch in one season when he was hit for the 30th time by Whitman's Ryan Nelson in the third inning of the Bruins' 8-7 win over the Missionaries on Friday, April 27, in Walla Walla, Wash., has moved into the all-time top 10 for career hit-by-pitches. He was hit for the 31st time this season and 41st in his career Sunday in a 6-2 win at California State-Hayward, placing his 8th on the NCAA Division III chart. The record is 60 by Jason Angel of Rensselaer (N.Y.) in 145 games from 1993-96. Dearinger played for two years at Tacoma (Wash.) Community College before transferring to George Fox last season, when he led the Northwest Conference by getting hit 10 times. Every person ahead of him on the list played needed four seasons to reach their marks!

RECAPS:

5/5 – GEORGE FOX 6, CSU-HAYWARD 2: Bruins Win First of Non-Conference Series in California

HAYWARD, Calif. – Stepping outside the conference for a three-game series to end the regular season, the newly-crowned Northwest Conference champion George Fox University Bruins got off to a good start with a 6-2, 10-inning win over the California State University-Hayward Pioneers here Sunday afternoon (May 5).

Southpaw Cory Dixon went nine strong innings for the Bruins, scattering three hits and allowing both Pioneer runs, an unearned one in the fifth and a solo home run to Archie Gilbert in the bottom of the ninth that tied the game at 2-2. He picked up the win to run his record to 6-5, however, when the Bruins exploded for four runs in the top of the 10th.

Jake Johnson got the rally going when he was hit by a pitch from losing pitcher Josh Gray, who fell to 2-3. Eric Bell singled him to third, and Kyle Langeliers broke the deadlock with a single to drive in Johnson. Ryan Dearing bunted for a hit, scoring Bell from third, and he and Langeliers both advanced a base on a wild throw by Gray after fielding the bunt. Paul Gramenz was walked intentionally with one out to load the bases, but the move backfired as Mike Halverson singled to score Langeliers, and Josh Randall drew a walk to force in Dearing.

Thomas Chivers came on in the bottom of the ninth for the Bruins and set the Pioneers down in 1-2-3 order. Dearing, who last weekend set a new NCAA Division III record when he was hit by a pitch for the 30th time this season, added to his record by getting nailed for the 31st time in the fourth inning.

George Fox had scored in the fifth to take a 1-0 lead as Travis Maffey scored from third when Stephen Donohue was caught in a rundown between first and second on a steal attempt. After Hayward tied it in the home half, the Bruins went on top again in the ninth as Kevin Tucker and Luke Wolf walked and Josh Sargent delivered Tucker with a pinch single.

George Fox, 25-12, meets Hayward, 19-19, again Monday at 3:00 p.m. and Tuesday at 11:00 a.m. The Bruins then await information about the NCAA Division III West Regional, for which they have qualified as NWC champions. Details about all eight regionals are to be announced Monday morning, May 13, with the regionals to take place May 16-19 and the nationals May 24-28 in Appleton, Wisc.

GEORGE FOX BASEBALL

(Record 24-12: Home 14-5, Road 8-5, Neutral 2-2 / NWC 16-7: Home 9-3, Road 7-4)

HIGHLIGHTS:

- * Dearinger Breaks Division III Hit-by-Pitch Record with 30
- * Bruins Go 4-0 to Take Over First Place in NWC
- * Tucker, Chivers Receive Honorable Mention for NWC Weekly Honors
- * Bruins in NCAA, NWC Stats

THIS WEEK:

Sun., May 5, 3:00 pm – at California State University-Hayward, in Hayward, Calif.

The George Fox Bruins have concluded the Northwest Conference portion of their schedule and have only a three-game non-conference series with California State-Hayward left, Sunday-Tuesday, May 5-7, all games at 3:00 p.m. The Bruins have clinched at least a share of the NWC title, and Pacific is now the only team that can tie them. To do that, the Boxers must sweep a three-game series May 4-5 at home against Whitman; a loss in any of those games gives George Fox the outright title and the NWC's automatic bid to the West Regionals (dates, times, and site to be determined). A decision as to which team would get the automatic bid in case of a tie is still pending.

LAST WEEK (recaps below):

April 23 – at George Fox 14, Lewis & Clark 10 (completion of game suspended on March 18)

April 27 – George Fox 8-5, at Whitman 7-2

April 28 – George Fox 9, at Whitman 7

COACH PAT BAILEY (Idaho '78) is 188-94 (.667) in his 7th season as a college head baseball coach, all at George Fox. A 12-6 win over Vanguard on March 14 boosted him past Pat Casey (171-113-1, 1988-94), now the head coach at Oregon State, into the top spot for wins by a Bruin baseball coach. Entering this season, his .667 winning percentage (164-82) ranked 27th among active Division III coaches with at least five years' experience. He won NWC "Coach of the Year" honors 1997, 1999 (shared with Linfield's Scott Carnahan), and 2000 for leading the Bruins to league titles each of those seasons. Against this week's opponent, he is 7-1 vs. California State-Hayward (4-1 in Newberg, 3-0 in Hayward).

BRUIN BITS:

 Tucker, Chivers Get Honorable Mention for NWC Hitter, Pitcher of the Week:

Kevin Tucker (Jr., 3B, Forest Grove, Oregon) and Thomas Chivers (Fr., RHP, Chimacum, Washington) received Honorable Mention for Northwest Conference Hitter and Pitcher of the Week respectively for their efforts in the Bruins' 4-0 week April 22-28.

Tucker, a lefty-swinging third baseman, had one at bat in Tuesday's completion of a suspended game vs. Lewis & Clark, reaching on catcher's interference and scoring a run in the Bruins' five-run 8th inning that led to a 14-10 win. On Saturday, he went 2-4 in the first game of a twinbill at Whitman, hitting a game-winning three-run homer in the 7th and scoring twice as the Bruins won 8-7. In a 5-2 second-game win, he was 2-4. In Sunday's come-from-behind 9-7 win, he was 4-5 with two doubles, two runs scored, and two RBI. His 9th-inning double tied the game 7-7, and he then scored the winning run on Paul Gramenz' game-winning homer. For the week, Tucker was 8-13 (.615) with two doubles, a home run, five runs scored, and five RBI. He had 13 total bases (1.000 slugging pct.), and reached base eight times in 13 trips (discounting the CI), also a .615 mark.

Chivers picked up a win and two saves during the week. On Tuesday, he entered the game with none out and the bases loaded in the 9th and got a run-scoring ground out and a double play to preserve the Bruins' 14-10 win over Lewis & Clark in the completion of a suspended game. On Saturday, he relieved in the 9th with one on and no one out and retired three of the four hitters he faced for his second save of the week, a 5-2 win over Whitman. On Sunday, he relieved in the 3rd inning with the Bruins trailing 6-1, worked 6 2/3 innings, allowing one run and five hits with five strikeouts and no walks, and picked a win as the Bruins rallied for a 9-7 victory. In three games, he was 1-0 with two saves in 8 2/3 innings, allowing six hits and one run (1.13 ERA) with five strikeouts and no walks.

 Bruin NWC "Hitters of the Week" in 2002:

Eric Bell (March 18-24)

Kyle Langeliers (March 25-31)

 Bruin NWC "Pitchers of the Week" in 2002:

Scott Hyde (April 1-7)

 Dearinger Sets Division III Hit-by-Pitch Record with 30:

Ryan Dearinger (Sr., 2B, Vancouver, Wash.) set a new NCAA Division III national record for most times hit by a pitch in one season when he was nailed in the foot by Whitman's Ryan Nelson in the third inning of the Bruins' 8-7 first-game victory over the Missionaries Friday, April 27, in Walla Walla, Wash. It was the 30th time he has been hit, breaking the previous mark of 29 by Luther Headley of Ferrum in 1996. The Division II record is 41 by Chris Kline of Lincoln Memorial in 1997, and the Division I record is 33 by Andrew Slater of Richmond in 1997. The only player who has ever been hit an average of more than once a game is Steve Dembowski of Fairleigh Dickinson (D-I), who was nailed 32 times in 30 games (1.07 avg.) in 1979. Dearinger, in 34 games played, has an average of 0.88.

RECAPS:

4/23 – GEORGE FOX 14, LEWIS & CLARK 10: Bruins Explode in 8th to Win Suspended Game with Pios

NEWBERG, Ore. – In a game that took 36 days, four hours, and 43 minutes to complete, the George Fox University Bruins exploded for five runs in the bottom of the 8th inning and went on to a 14-10 win over the Lewis & Clark College Pioneers in a Northwest Conference baseball marathon Tuesday afternoon (April 23) here at Morse Field.

On March 18, the Bruins had built up a 7-1 lead after four innings, blew it all and fell behind 9-7 in the top of the 7th, but rallied in the bottom half to forge a 9-9 tie. The game was halted by rain at that point, and when it became apparent that the outcome could have a significant impact on the conference standings, the completion date was set.

Middle reliever Nathan Green took the hill for the Bruins to start the 8th and gave up a hit and a walk, but worked out of the jam with a pair of strikeouts and a forceout. The Pioneers then sent staff ace Bill Allen to the mound, a calculated risk as Allen had thrown 132 pitches in a game against Pacific University on Saturday. The move backfired.

Kyle Langeliers singled sharply to right to start the frame and Grady Shaver ran for him. After Ryan Dearing struck out trying to sacrifice, Kevin Tucker reached on catcher's interference by backstop Chris Webb. Travis Maffey singled to left to score Shaver for a 10-9 Bruin lead. Greg Dombek fanned for the second out, but Paul Gramenz tripled to right on a ball that Andrew Meade reached after a long run but could not hold, making it 12-9. Stephen Donohue singled up the middle to score Gramenz, stole second for his fourth steal of the game, and scored on Jake Johnson's single to right.

The Pioneers threatened in the top of the 9th, thanks to a pair of Bruin errors and a walk to Justin McCloskey. Thomas Chivers relieved Green at that point, got K.J. Fujimori to bounce into a force out that scored Meade, and then got a 6-4-3 double play off the bat of Joe Taylor for his first save. Green picked up the win, his first college decision, while Allen took the loss to fall to 5-6.

The Bruins, playing 43 minutes Tuesday to pick up a win, are now 21-12 overall and 13-7 in the conference, half a game behind front-running Pacific at 12-5. The Pioneers fell to 10-19 overall and 6-14 in league play.

4/27 – GEORGE FOX 8-5, WHITMAN 7-2: Dearing Breaks HBP Record as Bruins Sweep Missionaries

WALLA WALLA, Wash. – Ryan Dearing got hit by a pitch for a record-breaking 30th time in George Fox University's 8-7 first-game win, then slugged a three-run homer to highlight a 5-2 second-game win over the Whitman College Missionaries in Northwest Conference baseball action Saturday afternoon (April 27) here at Borleske Stadium.

The twin wins give George Fox a 23-12 overall record and, more importantly, a 15-7 NWC record, moving them a half-game ahead of Pacific University atop the conference standings. The Boxers split with Linfield College Saturday and are 13-6 in the conference. Whitman dropped to 11-22 overall and 7-11 in the NWC.

Dearing was plunked by Whitman starter Ryan Nelson, 2-6, in the third inning, enabling him to break the NCAA Division III record of 29 hit-by-pitches set by Luther Headley of Ferrum College in 1996.

Scott Hyde, who has taken over as the Bruins' ace although only a freshman, went the distance in the opener, striking out 10 and walking two while scattering seven hits. Two of the runs off him were unearned as he improved his record to 7-2.

Stephen Donohue hit a two-run double to cap a four-run outburst in the second that gave the Bruins a 4-1 lead, but Whitman battled back to go in front 6-5 with a four-spot in the sixth. Kevin Tucker drilled a two-out, three-run homer in the seventh, however, following a double by Eric Bell and a walk to Dearing, for the winning blow.

In the nightcap, southpaw Cory Dixon, 5-5, pitched eight innings of two-run ball, shutting out the Missionaries until David Fee hit a two-run homer, his second of the day, in the eighth. Thomas Chivers got the final three outs in the ninth for his second save. Dixon spaced seven hits, fanned five, and walked one.

The Bruins broke a scoreless deadlock in the sixth as Grady Shaver singled, Travis Maffey beat out a sacrifice attempt for an infield hit and Shaver went to third on a wild throw by pitcher Matt Brewer on the play, and a passed ball by Spencer Fox allowed Shaver to score. After a walk to Bell, Dearing capped the rally with his seventh home run of the season. Maffey singled in Gramenz with the Bruins' final run in the seventh.

4/28 - GEORGE FOX 9, WHITMAN 7: Bruins Clinch Tie for NWC Title by Rallying to Beat Missionaries

WALLA WALLA, Wash. - Trailing by three runs with three outs to go, the George Fox University Bruins rallied for five runs to defeat the Whitman College Missionaries 9-7 and clinch at least a tie for the Northwest Conference baseball championship Sunday afternoon (April 28) here at Borleske Stadium.

The dramatic win gives the Bruins a 24-12 overall record and a 16-7 NWC mark, with no conference games left to play. The only team that possible catch the Bruins is Pacific University, which dropped a 26-15 slugfest at Linfield College Sunday and is now 13-7 in conference play, a game-and-a-half behind the Bruins. The Boxers host Whitman for three next weekend; a sweep would give Pacific the automatic bid to the NCAA playoffs because the Boxers won two out of three from the Bruins, but a loss in any of the three sends George Fox to the playoffs.

Whitman, which fell to 11-23 overall and 7-12 in the conference, appeared to have this one under control after scoring six runs off Bruin starter Mike Beck in the first three innings. But reliever Thomas Chivers, 1-1, worked the final six and two-thirds innings, allowing only five hits and one run with five strikeouts and no walks, picking up the win when the Bruins rebounded.

Kevin Tucker and Paul Gramenz hit back-to-back doubles for the first George Fox run in the second, and Tucker singled home Stephen Donohue in the sixth to make it 6-2 Whitman. The Bruins cut it to 6-4 in the seventh with a two-run rally, ignited by Chivers (the Bruins had to let their pitchers bat because two designated hitters were inadvertently written on the lineup card that was given to the umpires, but it paid off). Chivers led off the inning with a single, Travis Maffey singled, Donohue singled to scored Chivers, and Ryan Dearing singled home Maffey.

After Whitman got an insurance run in the seventh, the Bruins finally went to work in the top of the ninth. Maffey singled to lead off and Donohue singled to knock out reliever Mark Hinshaw in favor of Jeremy Bishop, 1-6. Eric Bell greeted him with an RBI single, and Dearing delivered Donohue with a sacrifice fly to center. Tucker, who was 8-for-13 in the series, doubled to score pinch-runner Jake Johnson with the tying run, and Gramenz then drilled his second home run of the series and fourth of the season to left, giving George Fox a 9-7 lead. Chivers set the Missionaries down in order in the last of the ninth.

COACH PAT BAILEY (Idaho '78) is 184-94-1 (.661) in his 7th season as a college head baseball coach, all at George Fox. A 12-6 win over Vanguard on March 14 boosted him past Pat Casey (171-113-1, 1988-94), now the head coach at Oregon State, into the top spot for wins by a Bruin baseball coach. Entering this season, his .667 winning percentage (164-82) ranked 27th among active Division III coaches with at least five years' experience. He won NWC "Coach of the Year" honors 1997, 1999 (shared with Linfield's Scott Carnahan), and 2000 for leading the Bruins to league titles each of those seasons. Against this week's opponents, he is 11-3-1 vs. Lewis & Clark (5-1-1 in Newberg, 6-2 in Portland), and 17-1 vs. Whitman (13-1 in Newberg, 4-0 in Walla Walla).

BRUIN BITS:

 Bell, Beck Get Honorable Mention for NWC Hitter, Pitcher of the Week:

Eric Bell (Jr., DH, Spokane, Wash.) and Mike Beck (So., RHP, Livermore, Calif.) received Honorable Mention for Northwest Conference "Hitter of the Week" and "Pitcher of the Week" respectively for April 15-21.

Bell hit .400 on the week (6-15) with 3 home runs and 11 RBI as the Bruins went 2-2 (he did not bat in the two innings the Bruins played to complete a suspended game against Concordia). In the regulation game at Concordia on Thursday, he was 3-5 with 2 home runs, including a grand slam, drove in 7 and scored 3. In an 8-6 loss to Linfield on Saturday, he was 1-4 with a home run and 3 RBI, and was 1-3 with an RBI and a run scored in a 7-2 2nd-game win. In the Bruins' 5-2 loss to the Wildcats on Sunday, he was 1-3. For the week, he had 15 total bases (1.000 slugging pct.), and with 4 walks throw in, had an on-base pct. of .526.

Beck defeated Linfield 7-2 Saturday with a complete 9-inning game, scattering 10 hits, with 5 strikeouts and 2 walks. He stranded 11 Wildcat baserunners, including 2 each in the 7th and 8th innings and 3 in the 9th, to boost his record to 6-1.

 Dearinger Ties Hit-by-Pitch Record; Media Takes Notice:

Ryan Dearinger (Sr., 2B, Vancouver, Wash.) tied the NCAA Division III national record for most times hit by a pitch in one season when he was nailed in the leg with the bases loaded by Linfield reliever Ike Ellis in the 5th inning of the Bruins' 8-6 loss to the Wildcats in the first game of doubleheader on April 20 in Newberg. He has now been hit 29 times this season, and if he gets hit one more time, he will break the record set by Luther Headley of Ferrum in 1996. The Division II record is 41 by Chris Kline of Lincoln Memorial in 1997, and the Division I record is 33 by Andrew Slater of Richmond in 1997. The only player who has ever been hit an average of more than once a game is Steve Dembowski of Fairleigh Dickinson (D-I), who was nailed 32 times in 30 games (1.07 avg.) in 1979. Dearinger, in 31 games played, has an average of 0.94.

Dearinger's pursuit of this bizarre record brought the George Fox program the best media coverage it has ever had for baseball. Both John Nolen of The Oregonian and Matt LaPlante of the News-Register in McMinnville have written feature stories on Dearinger. He and roommate Luke Wolf were interviewed live on "The Colin Cowherd Show" on KFXR radio, "The Fan", Portland's all-sports talk station, the morning of April 10. When the Bruins played at Concordia on April 18, KATU TV 2 and KPDX Fox 49 both sent reporters to film features on Dearinger and the record. Wolf and Bruin coach Pat Bailey were also interviewed by the TV stations. When asked when the last time was that George Fox baseball had received this much media attention, Bailey laughed and asked rhetorically, "What do you mean, 'the last time'? This is the first time!"

 Langeliers Day-to-Day with Strained Muscle in Back:

Bruin slugger Kyle Langeliers (Sr., 1B, Pleasant Hill, Ore.), who was hitting over .400 and leading the Northwest Conference in RBI, is on a day-to-day status with the team after straining a muscle in his back on a hard batting practice swing early last week. He sat out the Concordia games on April 18, then tried to play against Linfield on April 20, but left after two at bats because of the pain. He was 0-for-2, dropping his average to .393, and lost the RBI lead to teammate Eric Bell while he has been out.

RECAPS:

4/18 – CONCORDIA 10-3, GEORGE FOX 6-18: Bruins Lose Suspended Game but Hammer Cavs in 2nd Game

PORTLAND, Ore. – Four 11th-inning runs gave the Concordia University-Portland Cavaliers an 10-6 win in the completion of a suspended game, but the George Fox University Bruins rode the seven-RBI game of Eric Bell and strong pitching by some infrequently-used pitchers to pound the Cavs 18-3 in the regularly-scheduled baseball contest Thursday afternoon (April 18) here at Cavalier Field.

On March 27, the Bruins had scored four runs with two out in the bottom of the ninth inning to forge a 6-6 tie with the Cavaliers, but darkness forced the game to be halted at that point. After two tries to complete the contest were rained out last week, the teams finally managed to find a dry day Friday. As the suspended game had been played in Newberg, the Bruins continued as the home team.

Both teams went down 1-2-3 in the 10th, but the Cavs touched Thomas Chivers, 0-1, for a walk and two infield singles to load the bases with nobody out in the top of the 11th. Cory Dixon relieved and surrendered a bases-clearing double to right by Chris Reinertson, who later scored on a Mark Weisenmiller sacrifice fly. Seth Mathews picked up the win with two perfect innings for Concordia.

Mathews and Dixon both started the regularly-scheduled game, with Mathews surrendering a two-run home run to left by Bell in the first inning. Dixon gave up one run in the first before giving way to Jimmie Baynes, making only his second appearance of the season, in the second inning.

Baynes allowed a run in the second that tied the game 2-2 only because he wild pitched on a strikeout of Reinertson to open the inning, and Reinertson eventually came around to score on a ground out. But Baynes settled down to throw three shutout innings thereafter and pick up his first college win. Nathan Green followed with two shutout innings, and Brad Aeschliman and Ash Anunsen finished up, Aeschliman giving up an unearned run in the ninth before Anunsen got the final out on a strikeout.

Meanwhile, the Bruin bats went to work, pounding out 14 hits in the game and also benefiting from 12 walks by Cavalier pitchers. Travis Maffey tripled in Jake Johnson and then scored on a Ryan Dearing single for a 4-2 lead in the third off reliever and loser Mark Robertson, and then the Bruins exploded in the fourth inning with eight runs. Dearing and Luke Wolf had two-run singles in the inning, Bell singled in a run, and Josh Sargent capped the outburst with a long three-run homer to left-center, his first of the season.

Johnson doubled in a pair of runs to ignite a six-run rally in the eighth, and Bell put a lid on the scoring with a towering grand slam to right, his eighth round-tripper of the season. Bell was 3-for-5, while Maffey was 4-for-5 with a double and the triple thrown in.

4/20 – LINFIELD 8-2, GEORGE FOX 6-7: Beck Hurls Bruins to Split; Dearinger Ties HBP Record

NEWBERG, Ore. – Mike Beck gave the George Fox University Bruins just what they needed – a complete game – in a 7-2 second-game victory over the Linfield College Wildcats after the Wildcats had battered the Bruin bullpen for an 8-6 victory in the opener of a Northwest Conference baseball twinbill Saturday afternoon (April 20) here at Morse Field.

Beck, 6-1, scattered 10 hits, striking out five and constantly wiggling off the Linfield hooks. Beck stranded two runners each in the seventh and eighth innings and left the bases loaded after the Wildcats had scored one run in the ninth. Beck got the Wildcats' leading hitter, Kevin Schjei, to pop up with the bases full in the ninth for the second out, then ended the game by getting Greg Roberts to bounce out.

The Bruins got on the board in the third against Eric Anderson, 3-5. Jake Johnson walked, Travis Maffey singled off Schjei's glove at third, and after Grady Shaver sacrificed them into scoring position, Eric Bell delivered one run with a ground out and Ryan Dearinger singled in another.

Josh Sargent slugged a two-run homer in the sixth, then in the seventh, the Bruins iced the game with a solo shot by Johnson and a two-run blast by Dearinger.

In the opener, Bruin starter Scott Hyde scattered 10 hits while fanning seven and left with a 6-3 lead after walking Grant Rogers and going 2-0 on Adam Dale to start the eighth. Seann Hammon came on to complete the walk to Dale, gave up an infield single to Darren Heath, and then Schjei grounded a single to right to make it 6-5.

Still down a run in the ninth, Kaleo Saiki tripled to center to lead off. Ash Anunsen replaced Hammon on the mound, and Jake Roberts drove his first pitch over the left field fence for a 7-6 Wildcat lead. Rogers later singled and came around to score an insurance run on Mike Cooney's squeeze bunt.

Luke Buchheit set the Bruins down in order in the ninth for his third save, preserving the win for reliever Ike Ellis, 4-2. Anunsen fell to 2-2 for the Bruins.

Linfield had taken a 2-0 lead with an unearned run in the first and a barely-earned run in the fourth. In the first, Cooney scored when Schjei broke for second on a steal attempt and catcher Greg Dombek bounced a throw into center field. In the fourth, Roberts walk to lead off, stole second when Dombek had trouble getting a grip on the ball, went to third on a passed ball, and scored on a balk (Saiki's fly to left that followed made it earned).

Bell drilled a two-run homer in the home half of the fourth to tie it, and the Bruins went in front with three in the fifth. Josh Sargent singled to start the rally, Paul Gramenz walked, and Stephen Donohue walked to load the bases with two out. Ellis replaced starter Todd Rubin at that point, walked Bell to force in a run, gave up an RBI infield single to Shaver for another run, then hit Dearinger to force in a third run. It was the 29th time Dearinger has been hit this season, tying the NCAA Division III national record set by Luther Headley of Ferrum College in 1996.

Mike Halverson homered in the sixth to give George Fox a 6-2 lead, but the Bruins couldn't hold it.

4/21 – LINFIELD 5, GEORGE FOX 2: Wildcats Deal Bruins a Serious Setback in Bid for Conference Crown

McMINNVILLE, Ore. – Jake Roberts hit a two-run single in the sixth inning to put the Linfield College Wildcats ahead 3-2, then sealed a 5-2 win over the George Fox University Bruins with a two-run home run in the eighth in a critical Northwest Conference baseball game Sunday afternoon (April 21) here at Roy Helser Field.

Both Linfield and George Fox, who were picked 1-2 in the pre-season NWC coaches' poll, find themselves, along with Whitworth College, chasing front-running Pacific University with time running out. George Fox fell to 20-12-1 overall and 12-7-1 in the conference, while Linfield improved to 18-15 overall and 10-8 in league play. Pacific has only five losses thus far, while Whitworth has seven.

After Linfield scored an unearned run in the first off Bruin southpaw Cory Dixon (4-5), the Bruins went ahead 2-1 in the fifth on an RBI single by Jake Johnson and a run-scoring double by Grady Shaver. Wildcat starter Luke Buchheit (3-0) settled down after that, however, and blanked the Bruins the rest of the way, striking out four and walking two while scattering seven hits in nine innings.

In the Linfield sixth, Darren Heath doubled down the left field line to start the inning, then Kevin Schjei reached base on an error by Bruin center fielder Travis Maffey. With one out, Roberts delivered a line drive hit to left-center that brought Schjei and Heath home with the go-ahead scores. Roberts' eighth home run of the season gave Buchheit some breathing room.

Kevin Tucker went 2-for-4 for George Fox, but he was the only Bruin with multiple hits. Dixon gave up nine hits in seven innings of work, striking out two, and only three of the runs he allowed were earned.

COACH PAT BAILEY (Idaho '78) is 182-91-2 (.665) in his 7th season as a college head baseball coach, all at George Fox. A 12-6 win over Vanguard on March 14 boosted him past Pat Casey (171-113-1, 1988-94), now the head coach at Oregon State, into the top spot for wins by a Bruin baseball coach. Entering this season, his .667 winning percentage (164-82) ranked 27th among active Division III coaches with at least five years' experience. He won conference "Coach of the Year" honors 1997, 1999 (shared with Linfield's Scott Carnahan), and 2000 for leading the Bruins to league titles each of those seasons. Against this week's opponents, he is 5-1-1 vs. Concordia (4-0-1 in Newberg, 1-1 in Portland), and 12-6 vs. Linfield (8-1 in Newberg, 4-5 in McMinnville).

BRUIN BITS:

 Bell Honorable Mention for NWC "Hitter of the Week":

Eric Bell received Honorable Mention for Northwest Conference "Hitter of the Week" for April 8-14 with his efforts in the Bruins' 1-1 weekend split at Pacific Lutheran. He boosted his season average up to .400 by going 4-7 (.571). In a 6-5 loss on Saturday, he was 1-4 with a run scored and an RBI. In a 12-9, 6-inning win on Sunday, he was 3-3 with a double, 3 runs scored, 5 RBI, and 2 walks. His slugging pct. was .714 and his on-base pct. was .667.

NWC "Hitter of the Week" honors went to Aaron Keller of Whitworth, who hit .615 (8-13) with 6 RBI and 6 runs scored as the Pirates went 2-1 against Linfield.

 Bruin NWC "Hitter of the Week" in 2002:

Eric Bell (March 18-24)

Kyle Langeliers (March 25-31)

 Bruin NWC "Pitcher of the Week" in 2002:

Scott Hyde (April 1-7) – see related story below

 Dearinger Close to NCAA Hit-by-Pitch Record:

Ryan Dearinger was not hit by a pitch during the Pacific Lutheran series over the weekend, and remains one short of the NCAA Division III record for most times hit by a pitch in a season. The Northwest Conference leader last year when he was hit 10 times, he has been hit 28 times in the Bruins' first 29 games. That pace that would give him 39 hit-by-pitches this spring, shattering the single-season record of 29 by Luther Headley of Ferrum in 1996. The Division II record is 41 by Chris Kline of Lincoln Memorial in 1997, and the Division I record is 33 by Andrew Slater of Richmond in 1997. The only player who has ever been hit an average of more than once a game is Steve Dembowski of Fairleigh Dickinson (D-I), who was nailed 32 times in 30 games (1.07 avg.) in 1979. Dearinger, in 27 games played, has an average of 1.04.

4/9 – NORTHWEST CONFERENCE: Hyde Earns Belated Co-Pitcher of the Week Honors

NEWBERG, Ore. – In an unusual situation brought about by a display of true sportsmanship and honesty by Pacific Lutheran University sports information director Nick Dawson, George Fox University pitcher Scott Hyde has been named Northwest Conference “Co-Pitcher of the Week” for April 1-7.

Hyde, a freshman righthander from Grants Pass, Ore., originally received honorable mention for the second week in a row for “Pitcher of the Week” for his fine performance against Whitworth College on April 6. The rookie raised his record to an impressive 6-1 with seven strong innings in a 14-3 win, scattering six hits and allowing three runs, two earned, with six strikeouts and three walks. He left with the Bruins holding a 10-3 lead.

Jason Andrew of PLU was named “Pitcher of the Week” for a four-hitter in a win over Linfield College, but Dawson had forgotten a makeup game earlier in the week in which the University of Puget Sound had roughed up Andrew. Once he remembered that game, Dawson called NWC information director Steve Flegel at Whitworth and requested that the award be given to a more deserving candidate.

Hyde thus was elevated from honorable mention to “Co-Pitcher of the Week”, along with Pacific University’s Kyle Ishimitsu, who was 2-0 with six strikeouts, six hits allowed, and two runs in nine innings.

RECAPS:

4/13 – PACIFIC LUTHERAN 6, GEORGE FOX 5: PLU’s Andrew Sets Records as Bruins’ Rally Falls Short

TACOMA, Wash. – Pacific Lutheran University ace Jason Andrew broke the team’s all-time career record for strikeouts and tied the record for wins as the Lutes stymied a late comeback effort by the George Fox University Bruins to take a narrow 6-5 victory in a rain-drenched Northwest Conference baseball battle here Saturday afternoon (April 13).

The game was delayed two hours, 45 minutes by rain, and the second game of the scheduled doubleheader was postponed until Sunday.

Andrew, 5-5, struck out Bruin second baseman Ryan Dearing for the second out in the second inning to break Brian Farman’s strikeout record, and finished with six strikeouts for 298 for his career. The complete-game victory tied Farman’s win record of 24.

Chris Ullom led PLU’s offensive attack with two RBIs. A second-inning double scored catcher Adam Epperson, while a lined single to left field in the sixth scored first baseman Nolan Soete.

Two George Fox rallies in the eighth and ninth innings put a scare in the Lutes as the lead was cut to 6-5. Ninth-inning errors by second baseman Ullom, shortstop Jason Anglin and third baseman Tyler Stevenson, and a single by Bruin right fielder Grady Shaver allowed the Bruins to get the tying and go-ahead runs on base with two outs, but Ullom made a diving catch on Stephen Donahue’s pop-up to end the game.

Travis Maffey, Kyle Langeliers, and Dearing all had two hits apiece for the Bruins, with Maffey scoring twice and Langeliers driving in two. Scott Hyde, 6-2, suffered the setback.

George Fox fell to 17-9-2 overall and 10-5-1 in the NWC, dropping a half-game behind Pacific University for first place in the standings. Pacific and the University of Puget Sound were rained out. PLU improved to 12-14, 6-6 in the NWC.

4/14 – GEORGE FOX 12, PACIFIC LUTHERAN 9: Bruins Win Rain-Shortened Slugfest to Tie for First

TACOMA, Wash. – In a contest frequently delayed by rain and even hail and eventually shortened to only six innings, the George Fox University Bruins outslugged the Pacific Lutheran University Lutes 12-9 in a critical Northwest Conference baseball game here Sunday afternoon (April 14).

The two teams were trying to play a doubleheader because of a postponement from the day before, but several delays due to bad weather led to the shortened game and cancellation of the second game of the day and third of the series. It will not be made up.

Both teams hammered out 14 hits, but the Bruins made them count more as they jumped out to a 7-0 lead after two innings. The Lutes cut the margin to one at 8-7 with three in the third and four in the fourth, but George Fox responded with a four-spot of its own in the fifth for a 12-7 lead. The Lutes got two runs in the fifth with no one out before Seann Hammon, 1-0, came on to thwart the PLU comeback attempt, and the rains finished them off.

Eric Bell led the George Fox attack by going 3-for-3 with a pair of walks, a double, three runs scored and five RBI. Travis Maffey was 3-for-4 and scored three runs, as did Stephen Donohue. Ryan Dearing, Grady Shaver, and Donohue had two hits apiece for the Bruins.

George Fox Baseball ... April 15, 2002 ... page 5

Jason Anglin, Dave Janney, and Jared Moody had three hits each for the Lutes, with Janney collecting a double and three RBI. Matt Serr, 1-2, the first of four PLU pitchers, took the loss.

George Fox climbed back into a mathematical tie for first place in the conference with an 11-5-1 record; Pacific University, rained out again at the University of Puget Sound, is 9-3 and also six games over .500 in NWC play. The Bruins are 18-9-2 overall. PLU slipped to 12-15 overall, 6-7 in the NWC.

COACH PAT BAILEY (Idaho '78) is 181-90-2 (.667) in his 7th season as a college head baseball coach, all at George Fox. A 12-6 win over Vanguard on March 14 boosted him past Pat Casey (171-113-1, 1988-94), now the head coach at Oregon State, into the top spot for wins by a Bruin baseball coach. Entering this season, his .667 winning percentage (164-82) ranked 27th among active Division III coaches with at least five years' experience. He won conference "Coach of the Year" honors 1997, 1999 (shared with Linfield's Scott Carnahan), and 2000 for leading the Bruins to league titles each of those seasons. Against this week's opponents, he is 5-1-1 vs. Concordia-Portland (4-0-1 in Newberg, 1-1 in Portland), and 13-4 vs. Pacific Lutheran (8-0 in Newberg, 5-4 in Tacoma).

BRUIN BITS:

 Langeliers, Hyde Honorable Mention for NWC Weekly Honors

Kyle Langeliers (Sr., 1B, Pleasant Hill, Ore.), the Northwest Conference "Hitter of the Week" for March 24-30, was Honorable Mention for the award April 1-7. He had a monster doubleheader against Whitworth on Saturday, although he went 0-for-5 in the Bruins' loss to the Pirates on Sunday. In the series opener, he was 3-for-4 with a double, home run, 4 RBI and 3 runs scored. In the nightcap, he was 4-for-6 with 3 RBI and a run scored. For the week, he was 7-for-15 (.467) with a double, home run, 6 RBI, 4 runs scored, 11 total bases, and a .733 slugging pct. Eric Bell (Jr., DH, Spokane, Wash.) also earned "Hitter of the Week" for March 17-23.

Scott Hyde (Fr., RHP, Grants Pass, Ore.) received Honorable Mention for the second week in a row for Northwest Conference "Pitcher of the Week" April 1-7. The rookie raised his record to an impressive 6-1 with 7 strong innings in a 14-3 win over Whitworth on Saturday. He scattered 6 hits, allowing 3 runs, 2 earned, with 6 strikeouts and 3 walks. He left with the Bruins holding a 10-3 lead. Hyde leads the NWC in wins and strikeouts.

 Dearinger Closes in on NCAA Hit-by-Pitch Record:

Ryan Dearinger (Sr., 2B, Vancouver, Wash.) climbed within two of the NCAA Division III record for most times hit by a pitch in a season when he was nailed five times in the double-header with Whitworth on April 6. The Northwest Conference leader last year when he was hit 10 times, he has now been hit 28 times in the Bruins' first 27 games. That pace that would give him 41 hit-by-pitches this spring, shattering the single-season record of 29 by Luther Headley of Ferrum in 1996. The Division II record is 41 by Chris Kline of Lincoln Memorial in 1997, and the Division I record is 33 by Andrew Slater of Richmond in 1997. The only player who has ever been hit an average of more than once a game is Steve Dembowski of Fairleigh Dickinson (D-I), who was nailed 32 times in 30 games (1.07 avg.) in 1979. Dearinger, in 25 games played, has an average of 1.12.

4/6 - GEORGE FOX 14-10, WHITWORTH 3-9: Bruins Sweep Pirates to Take Over Top Spot in NWC

NEWBERG, Ore. - When Saturday began, four teams were bunched within half a game of first place in the Northwest Conference baseball race. When the day's action ended, it was the George Fox University Bruins who stood atop the heap after taking a doubleheader from the Whitworth College Pirates, 14-3 and 10-9 in 10 innings, here at Morse Field.

With Linfield College stunned in a double defeat by Pacific Lutheran University at home, and Pacific University taking a pair of non-conferences game from California State-Hayward, the league standings now have the Bruins in first at 10-3-1, followed by Pacific at 9-3, and Linfield and Whitworth both 7-4.

The Bruins coasted in the opener, pounding out 14 hits and using a seven-run sixth inning to sprint away from a 3-3 tie. Greg Dombek started the outburst with a walk from Pirate ace Kurt Reese, 3-2. With the Whitworth infield breaking to cover for a bunt, Paul Gramenz crossed everyone up by squaring around, then slapping a single up the middle to send Dombek to third. Travis Maffey doubled to score Dombek with the go-ahead run, and Stephen Donohue knocked out Reese with a two-run single. Jason Myers later surrendered a three-run homer to Kyle Langeliers, his eighth of the season, and Dombek capped the rally with a sacrifice fly that scored Ryan Dearing.

Langeliers was 3-for-4 with four RBI, Eric Bell was 3-for-5 with two doubles and two runs scored, Dombek had five RBI with his sacrifice fly and a pair of two-run doubles, and Dearing knocked in two and scored three. Scott Hyde improved to 6-1 with seven strong innings, scattering six hits with six strikeouts and allowing only two earned runs out of three.

It appeared as if the Bruins would have another romp in the nightcap, scoring three in the first and four in the fourth for a 7-1 lead. But the Pirates battled back to score three in the sixth, another in the seventh, and finally took the lead at 9-8 with four in the eighth.

Kevin Tucker, whose throwing error in the eighth had allowed the Pirates' two go-ahead runs to score, atoned for it by starting the Bruins' tying rally with a one-out single in the eighth. A wild pitch sent him to second, and Bell was intentionally walked. The move backfired, however, when Langeliers rapped a hit to left to score Tucker and knot it at 9-9.

Southpaw Cory Dixon, 4-3, blanked the Pirates in the ninth and 10th innings, striking out Josh Rodland with two out and runners and first and third in the 10th. In the home half, Tucker walked off Nick Newberry, 3-1, advanced to third on Langeliers' single up the middle, his seventh hit of the twinbill, and came in when Newberry hit Dearing and Dombek back-to-back with pitches.

Langeliers was 4-for-6 in the game with three RBI, Tucker and Travis Maffey had two hits apiece, and Mike Halverson drove in three with a grounder and a two-run single. Brian Savery and Hughbanks had three hits each, Savery with two doubles, and Keller had a single and a double for the Pirates.

Bruin batters were nailed by pitches 10 times on the day, with Dearing being hit five times himself, four in the back. The scrappy second sacker has now been drilled an incredible 28 times this season, and with 14 games left, needs only two more hit-by-pitches to break the Division III record of 29 by Luther Headley of Ferrum in 1996.

4/7 - WHITWORTH 9, GEORGE FOX 4: Pirates Salvage Series Finale and End Bruins' Win Streak

NEWBERG, Ore. - Marquis Molett drilled a bases-clearing double down the left field line to break up a scoreless duel in the sixth inning, and the Whitworth College Pirates went on to a 9-4 win over the George Fox University Bruins in a Northwest Conference baseball game Sunday afternoon (April 7) here at Morse Field.

The win enabled the Pirates, 12-13 overall and 8-4 in the NWC, to salvage the final game of the three-game set, and ended the Bruins' winning streak (discounting a tie with Concordia that will be decided on Tuesday) at nine in a row. The George Fox loss dropped the Bruins to 17-8-2 overall and 10-4-1 in the NWC, tied for first in games-over-.500 with Pacific University, though the Boxers hold the league lead by percentage points, .750 to .700.

Whitworth broke the deadlock in the sixth against Cory Dixon, 4-4, as Jake Krummel singled, Brian Savery bunted for a hit, and Kurt Reese was intentionally walked after a ground out advanced the runners. The move backfired when Molett lined one just over the bag into the left field corner for a 3-0 lead, and he later scored on a single up the middle by Brian Moser. The Pirates scored in each of the remaining innings, with one in the seventh and eighth and two in the ninth, to thwart the Bruins' comeback efforts.

Pirate lefty Dan Lundeberg, 2-3, stymied the Bruins on two hits over six innings with an assortment of breaking balls and off-speed pitches, but the home team caught up with him in the seventh. With two out, Greg Dombek and Paul Gramenz slugged back-to-back home runs, Dombek's first and Gramenz's second. Grady Shaver was hit by a pitch, Stephen Donohue walked, and Travis Maffey singled to make it a 6-3 game. After a walk to Eric Bell loaded the bases, Nick Newberry relieved and got the Bruins' hottest hitter, Kyle Langeliers, who had seven hits in Saturday's doubleheader, to fly out to deep right-center. Newberry finished up for his first save.

The Pirates collected 14 hits off five Bruin pitchers, with two each by Daniel Gebbers, Krummel, Savery, Scott Biglin, Molett, and Moser. Gramenz, with a 2-for-3 game, was the only Bruin with more than one safety.

COACH PAT BAILEY (Idaho '78) is 179-89-2 (.667) in his 7th season as a college head baseball coach, all at George Fox. A 12-6 win over Vanguard on March 14 boosted him past Pat Casey (171-113-1, 1988-94), now the head coach at Oregon State, into the top spot for wins by a Bruin baseball coach. Entering this season, his .667 winning percentage (164-82) ranked 27th among active Division III coaches with at least five years' experience. He won conference "Coach of the Year" honors 1997, 1999 (shared with Linfield's Scott Carnahan), and 2000 for leading the Bruins to league titles each of those seasons. Against this week's opponent, he is 11-6 vs. Whitworth (5-0 in Newberg, 5-6 in Spokane, 1-0 at neutral sites).

BRUIN BITS:

 Langeliers Wins NWC "Hitter of the Week" Award; Hyde HM for "Pitcher"

Kyle Langeliers (Sr., 1B, Pleasant Hill, Ore.) had multiple hits in all four of the Bruins' games, leading the team to a 3-0-1 record and earning Northwest Conference "Hitter of the Week" honors for March 25-31. In a 6-6 tie vs. Concordia on Wednesday, he was 3-5 with 2 runs and 1 RBI. In a 14-1 win vs. Puget Sound on Friday, he was 3-6 with his 7th home run of the season, 2 runs and 2 RBI. In a 12-4 1st-game win vs. UPS on Saturday, he was 2-4 with 1 run and 2 RBI. In a 17-4 2nd-game win, he was 3-6 with 3 RBI. For the week, he hit .524 (11-21) with a home run, 14 total bases (.667 slg pct), 5 runs scored, 8 RBI, and with 2 walks, had an on-base pct of .565 (13-23).

Langeliers joins Eric Bell (Jr., DH, Spokane, Wash.) as Bruins who have won NWC "Hitter of the Week" awards (Bell was cited for March 18-24).

Scott Hyde (Fr., RHP, Grants Pass, Ore.) received Honorable Mention for Northwest Conference "Pitcher of the Week" with an impressive performance in a 14-1 win over Puget Sound on Friday. He raised his record to 5-1 with 7 strong innings, scattering 7 hits, allowing only 1 run in the 2nd inning, struck out 8 and walked 2. He was removed with the Bruins holding a 9-1 lead. NWC "Pitcher of the Week" went to Kurt Reese of Whitworth, who allowed 4 hits and no runs in 6 innings with 6 K's in the Pirates' 16-5 win over Lewis & Clark.

 Bell Ties Record for Doubles in a Game:

Eric Bell tied the George Fox record for most doubles in one game when he plastered three of them in a 14-1 win over Puget Sound on Mar. 29 in Newberg. The two other Bruins to do it were Ryan LeBreton vs. Western Oregon on Mar. 24, 1998, and Matt Saltmarsh four days later vs. Whitman on Mar. 28, 1998. Bell had an RBI single in the 1st, an RBI double to left in the 4th, an RBI double to center in the 6th, and another double to center in the 7th. He was due up again in the 8th, but Josh Sargent pinch-hit for him. Bell led the Northwest Conference with 20 doubles in 2000, one short of the Bruin record of 21 by Mark Tyler in 1999.

 Dearinger Inches Closer to NCAA Hit-by-Pitch Record:

Ryan Dearinger (Sr., 2B, Vancouver, Wash.) continues his inexorable climb toward the NCAA Division III record for most times hit by a pitch in a season as he was nailed twice in the three-game series with Puget Sound Mar. 29-30. The Northwest Conference leader last year when he was hit 10 times, he has now been hit 23 times in the Bruins' first 24 games. That pace that would give him 38 hit-by-pitches this spring, shattering the single-season record of 29 by Luther Headley of Ferrum in 1996. Just for the books, the Division II record is 41 by Chris Kline of Lincoln Memorial in 1997, and the Division I record is 33 by Andrew Slater of Richmond in 1997. The only player who has ever been hit an average of more than once a game is Steve Dembowski of Fairleigh Dickinson (D-I), who was nailed 32 times in 30 games (1.07 avg.) in 1979. Dearinger, in 22 games, has an average of 1.04.

 Langeliers Hits Three Out in One Game – But It's Not a Team Record!

When Kyle Langeliers hit three home runs in one game in the second game of a doubleheader at Willamette on Mar. 23, it was an impressive performance – but it did not even tie the school record! Both Nate Barnett and Derek Birley hit four in one game for the Bruins. Barnett turned the trick at Puget Sound on April 26, 1997, while Birley did it against Whitworth on May 12, 2000. George Fox and Wooster are the only D-III teams to have two players with four home runs in a game – and Wooster's players, Dave Kessler and Mike O'Brien, did it in the same game against Kenyon on March 29, 1986!

3/27 – GEORGE FOX 6, CONCORDIA 6: Four-Run 9th by Bruins Forges Tie with Cavaliers

NEWBERG, Ore. – A four-run ninth-inning rally enabled the George Fox University Bruins to forge a 6-6 tie with the Concordia University-Portland Cavaliers in a non-conference baseball game suspended by darkness at the end of nine Wednesday afternoon (Mar. 27) here at Morse Field.

The game will be resumed at the start of the 10th inning when the teams meet again on Tuesday, April 9, at Concordia. The regularly-scheduled game is to begin at 3:00 p.m. A definite start time for the suspended game is still to be decided. The Bruins have one other suspended game on their record this season, a 9-9 seven-inning tie with Lewis & Clark College that is expected to be completed later in the season, as it is a Northwest Conference game that could have a significant impact on the pennant race.

Concordia jumped in front with a run in the second inning as Jarrett Skreen walked, was wild pitched to second, and scored on a single by Josh Gardner. The Cavs added two more in the third on doubles by Jesse Harrington, Justin Krueger, and Michael Devaney.

George Fox got one back in the home third on a triple by Travis Maffey and a single by Kevin Tucker, and made it 3-2 in the sixth on a Kyle Langeliers single, walks to Greg Dombek and Jake Johnson, and an RBI hit by Paul Gramenz.

Concordia scored a pair of unearned runs in the eighth as Chris Reinertson and Beau Johnson walked, then came all the way around as third baseman Tucker made a wild throw to first on Gardner's sacrifice bunt. A walk to Krueger, a wild pitch, and Reinertson's single made it 6-2 Concordia heading into the last of the ninth.

With one out, pinch hitter Luke Wolf started the Bruins' comeback with a single off Cavalier relief ace Ron Landolt. Josh Randall pinch-ran and moved to second as Josh Sargent grounded out to the pitcher. J.D. Russell collected his first hit of the season, a ringing double to center to score Randall. Eric Bell was hit by a pitch, and Langeliers singled sharply to center, scoring Russell to make it 6-4. Ryan Dearing then lined a double into the left field corner as pinch-runner Don Jenkins and Langeliers wheeled around to tie it 6-6. Landolt retired Dombek on a fly to center to send the game into extra innings at the later date.

The Bruins used seven pitchers in the game, the most ever used in a game by coach Pat Bailey and believed to be a new George Fox record.

Concordia was 9-18 entering the game, George Fox 12-7-1.

3/29 – GEORGE FOX 14, PUGET SOUND 1: Season-High 18 Hits Enables Bruins to Hammer Loggers

NEWBERG, Ore. – Scoring in every inning but the second and fourth, the George Fox University Bruins erupted for a season-high 18 hits and coasted to a 14-1 victory over the University of Puget Sound Loggers in the opener of a three-game Northwest Conference baseball series Friday afternoon (Mar. 29) here at Morse Field.

Stephen Donohue opened the Bruins' half of the first inning with a double and scored on Eric Bell's one-out single for a 1-0 George Fox lead, and Bell scored when Kevin Tucker was hit by a pitch with the bases loaded. That early 2-0 lead was all Scott Hyde would need to run his mound record to 5-1, as he scattered seven hits over seven innings with eight strikeouts and two walks. Seann Hammon and Ash Anunsen worked perfect eighth and ninth innings to finish up.

Meanwhile, the Bruins were piling up the hits. Bell went 4-for-5 with three doubles, tying the Bruin record for doubles in a game, with three RBI and three runs scored. Three other Bruins collected three hits apiece: Donohue going 3-for-5 with three runs scored, Kyle Langeliers 3-for-6 with a home run, two RBI and two runs, and Tucker 3-for-3 with a double and three RBI. Ryan Dearing was 2-for-3 with a home run, three RBI, three runs scored, and got hit by a pitch for the 22nd time this season, closing in on the Division III record of 29.

Sam Bunnnett was 2-for-4 for the Loggers and had their only RBI, singling to drive in Kyle Hoover in the Puget Sound second. Matt Sorenson, the first of three UPS pitchers, took the loss, falling 1-3.

George Fox is now 13-7-2 overall and 6-3-2 in the conference, while Puget Sound drops to 2-13 overall and 1-4 in league play.

3/30 – GEORGE FOX 12-17, PUGET SOUND 4-4: Bruins Pound Out 33 Hits in Twinbill Sweep of Loggers

NEWBERG, Ore. – Pounding out 33 hits on the day and scoring 29 runs, the George Fox University Bruins swept the University of Puget Sound Loggers 12-4 and 17-4 in a Northwest Conference baseball doubleheader Saturday afternoon (Mar. 30) here at Morse Field, keeping the Bruins in the thick of the conference race.

In the opener, the Bruins had 15 hits, 14 of them singles, drew nine walks, got hit three times, and could have scored even more had they not left 15 runners on base. Stephen Donohue, Eric Bell, and Ryan Dearingier had three hits apiece, with Donohue scoring four runs, Bell scoring three, and Dearingier knocking in five while also getting hit for the 23rd time this season. Kyle Langeliers and Kevin Tucker each went 2-for-4 with a couple of RBI, Tucker also collecting a double for the Bruins' only extra-base hit.

Mike Beck picked up the win for the Bruins to go to 5-1, working seven innings while scattering nine hits, allowing three runs (only one earned), striking out four and walking two. Logger starter Tyler Williams surrendered 12 hits and nine runs to the Bruins in the his five innings of work and took the loss, falling to 1-2. Aaron Saxe, Matt Sorenson, Olin Wick and Andy Carlson had two hits apiece for the Loggers, with Wick picking up two RBI.

In the nightcap, the Bruins tied their season highs with 17 runs and 18 hits, including a grand slam home run and five RBI by Paul Gramenz in a six-run second-inning explosion, and a four-hit game by Tucker that included two more doubles and three runs scored. Bell also knocked in four runs with two singles and a ground out, while Langeliers had his fourth straight multiple-hit game with three singles and three RBI. Travis Maffey scored three runs, and Stephen Donohue stole a pair of bases to increase his league-leading total to 15.

Bruin southpaw Cory Dixon evened his record at 3-3 with a solid eight innings, allowing a pair of runs on six hits with six strikeouts and only one walk. The Loggers' Forrest Hartford fell to 0-3 by giving up 10 of the George Fox hits and nine run in five innings.

Pete Doumit and Kyle Hoover had two hits each for the Loggers, with Hoover picking up both a double and a triple.

George Fox is now 15-7-2 overall and 8-3-1 in the conference, while Puget Sound is 2-15 overall and 1-6 in the league.

COACH PAT BAILEY (Idaho '78) is 176-89-1 (.664) in his 7th season as a college head baseball coach, all at George Fox. A 12-6 win over Vanguard on March 14 boosted him past Pat Casey (171-113-1, 1988-94), now the head coach at Oregon State, in the top spot for wins by a Bruin baseball coach. Entering this season, his .667 winning percentage (164-82) ranked 27th among active Division III coaches with at least five years' experience. He won conference "Coach of the Year" honors 1997, 1999 (shared with Linfield's Scott Carnahan), and 2000 for leading the Bruins to league titles each of those seasons

Against this week's opponents, he is 5-1 vs. Concordia-Portland (4-0 in Newberg, 1-1 in Portland), and 12-4 vs. Puget Sound (5-1 in Newberg, 6-3 in Tacoma).

BRUIN BITS:

 Bell Wins NWC "Hitter of the Week" Award; Dixon Honorable Mention for "Pitcher"

Eric Bell (Jr., DH, Spokane, Wash.) led the Bruins to a 4-0 week by homering in every game, earning Northwest Conference "Hitter of the Week" honors for March 18-24. In an 8-4 win over Lewis & Clark on Wednesday, he was 2-3 with 2 home runs, putting the Bruins ahead twice, and knocked in 4. In a 10-4 first-game win at Willamette on Saturday, he was 1-3 with a 3-run homer to put the Bruins ahead for good and scored 2 runs. In the 2nd game, he was 1-3 with a 2-run homer to start the Bruins on their way to a 10-6 victory. In a 9-5 win over Willamette on Sunday, he was 2-4 with a solo home run, a run-scoring double, and 2 runs scored. On the week, he hit .462 (6-13) with a double and 5 home runs, 22 total bases (1.692 slg. pct.), drove in 11, scored 8, drew 5 walks, and had an on-base pct. of .611 (11-18).

Cory Dixon (So., LHP, Springfield, Ore.) received Honorable Mention for Northwest Conference "Pitcher of the Week" by going 2-0 in three relief appearances, helping the Bruins to a 4-0 week. He picked up his first win with 3 inning of shutout relief to close the game vs. Lewis & Clark on Wednesday, allowing 2 hits with 1 walk in an 8-4 win. He pitched a 1-2-3 inning to end the Bruins' 10-4 first-game win at Willamette on Saturday, with 1 strikeout. In Sunday's 9-5 win over Willamette, he relieved with two out in the 1st with the Bruins behind 2-0 and picked up the win with 7 innings of strong pitching, shutting out the Bearcats for 6 innings before tiring in the 8th and allowing 3 runs. In 7 innings in the game, he scattered 10 hits, fanned 4 and walked one. In 3 games and 11 innings in the whole week, he allowed 12 hits, 3 runs, all earned, for a 2.45 ERA, struck out 5 and walked 2.

NWC Pitcher of the Week went to Jason Andrew of Pacific Lutheran, who threw a four-hitter with 8 K's in 6 innings to beat St. Martin's 8-1.

 Dearinger Still Having Trouble Avoiding Pitches:

Ryan Dearinger (Sr., 2B, Vancouver, Wash.) continues on a dizzying pace toward the NCAA Division III record for most times hit by a pitch in a season as he was plunked four times this past week. The Northwest Conference leader last year when he was hit 10 times, he has now been hit 21 times in the Bruins' first 20 games. That pace that would give him 42 hit-by-pitches this spring, shattering the single-season record of 29 by Luther Headley of Ferrum in 1996. Just for the books, the Division II record is 41 by Chris Kline of Lincoln Memorial in 1997, and the Division I record is 33 by Andrew Slater of Richmond in 1997. The only player who has ever been hit an average of more than once a game is Steve Dembowski of Fairleigh Dickinson (D-I), who was nailed 32 times in 30 games (1.07 avg.) in 1979. Dearinger's average is now at 1.05.

 Langeliers Hits Three Out in One Game – But It's Not a Team Record!

When Kyle Langeliers (Sr., 1B, Pleasant Hill, Ore.) hit three home runs in one game in the second game of a doubleheader at Willamette on Mar. 23, it was an impressive performance – but it did not even tie the school record! Both Nate Barnett and Derek Birley hit four in one game for the Bruins. Barnett turned the trick at Puget Sound on April 26, 1997, while Birley did it against Whitworth on May 12, 2000. George Fox and Wooster are the only D-III teams to have two players with four home runs in a game – and Wooster's players, Dave Kessler and Mike O'Brien, did it in the same game against Kenyon on March 29, 1986!

3/18 – GEORGE FOX 9, LEWIS & CLARK 9: Suspended Game with Pios Declared a Tie – For Now

NEWBERG, Ore. – Monday's (Mar. 18) Northwest Conference baseball game here at Morse Field between George Fox University and Lewis & Clark College, which was suspended by rain after seven innings in a 9-9 tie, has been declared a tie – for the time being.

In the game played in cold weather and a steadily-increasing drizzle from the 5th inning on, the home-standing George Fox Bruins took a 7-1 lead, blew all of it, and fell behind 9-7 before tying the game with two out in the last of the 7th.

Bruin starter Mike Beck took a no-hitter into the 5th inning, although he did allow a 1st-inning run on walks to K.J. Fujimori and Jon Ball, a sacrifice by Chris Webb, and a run-scoring grounder by Bill Allen. The Bruins got him five runs in the 3rd and two more in the 4th. The big blow in the five-run frame was a two-run single by Kevin Tucker, while in the 4th, Jake Johnson stroked a two-run single.

Lewis & Clark got to Beck in the 5th, starting with their first hit, a leadoff double by Andrew Meade. Before the frame was over, the Pioneers had batted around, knocked Beck out, and scored five times, capped by a two-run single by Dan Barth off reliever Cory Dixon.

The Pios tied it 7-7 in the 6th on a Webb grounder to third that scored Corey Johnson, then went ahead in the 7th on a pair of unearned runs. Meade reached when Dixon threw wide on his tapper back to the mound with two out, and after a walk to Johnson, Justin McCloskey lofted a high fly to right-center which was dropped by right fielder Johnson, allowing both runners to score.

Johnson redeemed himself in the bottom of the 7th, however. Travis Maffey walked, Mike Halverson singled, Stephen Donohue walked to load the bases, and Johnson dumped a single down the line in left with two out to drive in Maffey and Halverson for the tie. The game was called at that point.

3/20 – GEORGE FOX 8, LEWIS & CLARK 4: Bell Blasts Bruins Past Pios with Two Home Runs

NEWBERG, Ore. – Slugging a pair of home runs, each of which put the George Fox University Bruins ahead, Eric Bell knocked in four runs to carry the Bruins past the Lewis & Clark College Pioneers 8-4 in a Northwest Conference baseball game Wednesday afternoon (Mar. 20) here at Morse Field.

Bell's first home run sailed over the center field fence in the home half of the 5th and gave the Bruins a 5-4 lead. After the Pioneers tied it with a run in the 7th, Jayson Echternach's sacrifice fly scoring K.J. Fujimori, Bell drilled a three-run homer, his third of the season, to left in the bottom of the 7th, putting the Bruins ahead for good. Greg Dombek singled in Kyle Langeliers later in the inning for the final 8-4 score.

George Fox took the early lead in the game with a solo home run to right-center by Jake Johnson, his third, in the 1st inning, but Lewis & Clark scored single runs in the 2nd and 3rd to take a 2-1 lead. Justin McCloskey singled in Bill Allen for the first run, and the Pios' second run was unearned as Fujimori scratched out an infield second, went to second on a wild pickoff by Bruin starter Kyle Koontz, and scored on Chris Webb's single to right.

The Bruins went up 3-2 in the 3rd as Langeliers hit a sacrifice fly to score Travis Maffey and Ryan Dearing. Dearing singled to score Stephen Donohue. The Pios knotted it 3-3 in the 5th when Jon Ball doubled home Joe Taylor.

Cory Dixon, 1-3, took over for Bruin reliever Nathan Green with one on and none out in the 7th and worked the final three innings, allowing only two hits, for his first win.

Taylor, 1-3, took the loss when Maffey singled to start the winning rally in the 7th and later scored on Bell's game-winning shot, which was surrendered by reliever Corey Johnson.

With Monday's 9-9 suspended game between the Bruins and Pios being declared a tie for the time being, George Fox is now 9-7-1 overall, 2-3-1 in the conference. Lewis & Clark is 5-7-1 overall, 3-3-1 in league play.

3/23 – GEORGE FOX 10-10, WILAMETTE 4-6: Bruins Bash Eight Home Runs to Crush 'Cats Twice

SALEM, Ore. – Using the long ball late in the first game and early in the second, the George Fox University Bruins slugged eight home runs in defeating the Willamette University Bearcats 10-4 and 10-6 in a Northwest Conference baseball doubleheader Saturday afternoon (Mar. 23) here at Spce Keene Stadium.

In the opener, the Bruins got three home runs in the final three innings to rally from four runs down, while in the nightcap, the Bruins hit four of their five round-trippers in the first two innings to jump out to an insurmountable 8-0 lead.

George Fox starter Scott Hyde, 4-1, surrendered three runs in the 3rd inning of the first game and another in the 4th, but settled down to shut out the Bearcats over the next four innings while his teammates rallied. Hyde finished with only six hits allowed and struck out 10, while Cory Dixon worked a 1-2-3 9th.

The Bruins began their comeback with a pair of runs in the 5th. Kevin Tucker doubled and scored on a single by Travis Maffey, and Maffey later scored on a safety by Josh Randall. In the 7th, Stephen Donohue singled, Randall doubled, and Eric Bell homered to put George Fox in front 5-4. Ryan Dearing followed with a solo home run, and the Bruins added two insurance runs in both the 8th and 9th, one of them a solo shot by David Peterson.

In the second game, Kyle Langeliers led the Bruins' long-ball assault with three home runs, one short of the team record of four in a game by Nate Barnett and Derek Birley. After Bell got the Bruins going with a two-run blast in the 1st, Langeliers hit a solo shot in the same inning. With two out in the 2nd, Randall doubled, Bell walked, and Langeliers lined a second shot just inside the left field foul pole. Dearing then singled and Mike Halverson homered to right. Langeliers hit his third dinger in the 8th to finish with 5 RBI and 4 runs scored.

The home run explosion enabled Mike Beck, 4-1, to coast until the 7th when he began to tire. The Bearcats, down 9-1, scored twice in the 7th and 8th to throw a scare into the Bruins, but Ash Anunsen nailed it down in the 9th, although he did allow one unearned run.

George Fox climbed back into the NWC race with the twin wins and is now 11-7-1 overall, 4-3-1 in the conference. Willamette slipped to 5-10 overall and 4-7 in league play.

3/24 – GEORGE FOX 9, WILLAMETTE 5: Bell's Bat, Dixon's Relief Enable Bruins to Complete Series Sweep

NEWBERG, Ore. – Eric Bell slugged his fifth home run in the last four games and Cory Dixon threw six shutout innings of relief before tiring, leading the George Fox University Bruins past the Willamette University Bearcats 9-5 in Northwest Conference baseball Sunday afternoon (Mar. 24) here at Morse Field, completing a three-game series sweep.

Bruin starter Kyle Koontz struggled from the start, allowing a single to Luke Atwood, a double to Danny Aguilar, and a run-scoring single to Drew Ecklund to start the game. Ecklund was caught stealing, but Jason Searle hit a sacrifice fly, and Ryan Hughes and Andrew Bartels singled to knock Koontz out. Dixon, a crafty southpaw, came on and blanked the Bearcats over the next six innings while his teammates rallied for him.

In the home half of the 1st, Stephen Donohue led off with a double, Bell walked with one out, and Kyle Langeliers doubled to right center to score both runners and tie the game. Ryan Dearing, who has been hit 21 times this season and is just eight short of the Division III record, was hit again, only to have the home plate umpire say he had not tried to get out of the way and made him remain at the plate. Dearing promptly lined the next pitch off the center field fence for a double to score Langeliers for a 3-2 Bruin lead.

Bell, who hit two home runs against Lewis & Clark Wednesday and one in each game at Willamette Saturday, slugged his 6th of the season to right-center in the 5th to make it 4-2, then added an RBI double to cap a four-run 6th inning rally. Travis Maffey, who was 3-for-4, had a run-scoring single to start the outburst, and Donohue cracked a two-run single before Bell's double.

The Bruins added a final run in the 7th on a double by Greg Dombek and a single by Paul Gramenz that finally knocked out Bearcat starter Zach Allen, 0-2.

Dixon, 2-3, struck out four and walked only one before the Bearcats got to him in the 8th. Aguilar, who was 4-for-4, led off with a single, and after an Ecklund forceout, Jason Searle homered to left-center. One out later, Bartels singled and Matt Benjamin doubled him home, kayoing Dixon in favor of Bryan Manor. The southpaw got out of the inning on one pitch, but gave up a pair of hits in the 9th, bringing on Ash Anunsen, who got the save by retiring Ecklund on a fly to center to end the game.

George Fox has now won four straight and is 12-7-1 overall, 5-3-1 in the conference, while Willamette falls to 5-11 overall and 4-8 in the conference.

 Pacific Finale Rescheduled for Tuesday, Mar. 12

Rain has forced postponement of the finale of the three-game Northwest Conference-opening series between the George Fox Bruins and Pacific Boxers to Tuesday, Mar. 12, at 2:30 p.m. at Morse Field in Newberg, Ore. The two teams were going to try to give it a go Monday, but rain forced a second straight postponement. "We'll keep trying each afternoon until we get it in!" says Bruin coach Pat Bailey, knowing the game is crucial for two of the teams expected to be in the conference title hunt all season long.

LAST WEEK (recaps below):

March 9 – George Fox 3-11, at Pacific 11-1
March 10 – Pacific at George Fox, rescheduled due to weather

COACH PAT BAILEY (Idaho '78) is 171-87 (.663) in his 7th season as a college head baseball coach, all at George Fox. He will try to get the one more win he needs to pass Pat Casey (171-113-1, 1988-94), now the head coach at Oregon State, as the winningest coach in Bruin history as the George Fox plays four home games out of five this week. Entering this season, his .667 winning percentage (164-82) ranked 27th among active Division III coaches with at least five years' experience. He won conference "Coach of the Year" honors 1997, 1999 (shared with Linfield's Scott Carnahan), and 2000 for leading the Bruins to league titles each of those seasons.

Against this week's opponents, he is 15-4 vs. Pacific (6-1 in Newberg, 8-3 in Forest Grove, and 1-0 at neutral sites); 0-1 vs. Vanguard (0-1 in Costa Mesa); and 10-2 vs. Lewis & Clark (4-1 in Newberg, 6-1 in Portland).

BRUIN BITS:

 Bell, Hyde Receive Honorable Mention for NWC Hitter, Pitcher of the Week Honors:

Eric Bell (Jr., DH-1B, Spokane, Wash.) and Scott Hyde (Fr., RHP, Grants Pass, Ore.) received Honorable Mention for the first 2002 Northwest Conference Hitter and Pitcher of the Week honors respectively for games of Mar. 4-10.

In two games at Pacific Saturday, Bell went 6-8 (.750) with 2 doubles, 3 runs scored, and 3 RBI as the Bruins and Boxers split an NWC pair. In an 11-3 loss in the opener, he was 3-4 with a double and 2 RBI, while in the nightcap, he was 3-4 with a double, 3 runs, 1 RBI, and drew 2 walks. His slugging pct. was 1.000 and his on-base pct. was .800.

Boosting his record to 3-0, Hyde threw a 6-hit complete-game win over Pacific, 11-1, in the 2nd game of the twinbill. He fanned 9, walked only 2, and did not allow a run until there were 2 out in the 9th.

NWC Hitter of the Week went to Matt Sorenson of Puget Sound, who was 7-8 with 5 runs scored and 3 RBI in a split at Lewis & Clark. NWC Pitcher of the Week went to Justin Brown of Willamette, who threw a complete-game 2-hitter with 6 strikeouts to shut out Pacific Lutheran 2-0.

 Ouch! Is This Record Really Worth It?:

In their first 12 games, the George Fox Bruins have been hit by pitches 24 times, an average of 2.0 per game. That is slightly behind of the pace of 2.17 hit batters per game by the Division III record-holding team, Allegheny College (Meadville, Mass.), whose hitters were plunked 104 times in 48 games in 1997. In the season opener against Pittsburgh-Bradford in the D-III Arizona Tournament on Feb. 14, the Bruins got drilled 8 times, two short of the record of 10 by Neumann College (Aston, Pa.), vs. Wesley College (Dover, Del.), on April 21, 1998.

Ryan Dearing (Sr., 2B, Vancouver, Wash.), who led the Northwest Conference WC by getting hit 10 times last season, has already been hit 13 times in the first 12 games, a pace that would give him 43 hit-by-pitches this spring and shatter the single-season record of 29 by Luther Headley of Ferrum College (Ferrum, Va.) in 1996.

 They Shall Not Pass:

Through their first 93.2 innings, George Fox's nine pitchers have struck out 77 while walking only 22, an average of 2.11 walks per nine innings and a ratio of 3.50-to-1 of strikeouts-to-walks. The team record for fewest walks per nine is 1.96 and for strikeouts-to-walks is 3.60-to-1, both set by the 2000 mound staff which was composed mostly of seniors – but this year's staff is entirely underclassmen!

3/9 – PACIFIC 11-1, GEORGE FOX 3-11: Bruins Gain Split with Boxers in NWC-Opening Doubleheader

FOREST GROVE, Ore. – In a pair of games that were almost mirror images of each other, the George Fox University Bruins and the Pacific University Boxers split their Northwest Conference-opening baseball games, Pacific taking the opener 11-3 before the Bruins bounced back 11-1 in the nightcap, Saturday afternoon (Mar. 9) here at Bond Field.

Pacific (5-3, 1-1 NWC) used two home runs from Matt Lengwenus and single dingers from Jim Zachor and Kevin Roth to beat the Bruins in the first game, while George Fox (7-5, 1-1 NWC) used the same strategy on the Boxers in the second game, with a home run by Kyle Langeliers (Sr., 1B, Pleasant Hill, Ore.) and a first-inning grand slam Ryan Dearing (Sr., 2B, Vancouver, Wash.) helping ring up the win.

The team that produced in the first inning won each game. In the first game, with Luke Voorhies on base, Lengwenus launched a pitch over the 360-foot mark in center field for a 2-0 Pacific lead. After an error by Bruin shortstop Paul Gramenz (Sr., SS, Sequim, Wash.) kept the inning alive with two out, Zachor used his first Pacific home at-bat to hit a three-run homer to the same spot in center.

Roth made it 6-1 Boxers in the fourth when he took the first pitch he saw deep for a lead-off home run. Pacific scored another run in the sixth and then two in the seventh on two-run single by David Barney. Lengwenus added the final two runs in the eighth on his second homer of the game, a shot to right center field. Lengwenus went 3 for 5 in the game.

Pacific pitcher Damian Muñoz improved to 2-1 on the season, allowing only three runs in 7.2 innings and struck out four. Mike Beck (So., RHP, Livermore, Calif.), 3-1, took the loss for George Fox.

The Bruins turned the tables in the second game, taking a 4-0 lead in the first on a grand slam by Dearing. The Bruins added single runs in the third and fourth while having their way with Boxer leftie Scott Braun, 1-1, who took the loss in four innings of work, allowing nine hits and six runs.

George Fox added two runs in the sixth off a dropped ball by Lengwenus and then two more on Langeliers' home run. Pacific's only run came in the bottom of the ninth on a Zachor fielder's choice that scored Muñoz.

Bruin freshman pitcher Scott Hyde (Fr., RHP, Grants Pass, Ore.) went the distance to go to 3-0 on the season. He held the Boxers to five hits in the shutout and struck out nine, which included striking out the side in eighth.

COACH PAT BAILEY (Idaho '78) is 170-86 (.664) in his 7th season as a college head baseball coach, all at George Fox. He will try to get the two more wins he needs to pass Pat Casey (171-113-1, 1988-94), now the head coach at Oregon State, as the winningest coach in Bruin history this weekend as the Bruins take on Pacific in a three-game Northwest Conference series. Entering this season, his .667 winning percentage (164-82) ranked 27th among active Division III coaches at least five years' experience. He won conference "Coach of the Year" honors 1997, 1999 (shared with Linfield's Scott Carnahan), and 2000 for leading the Bruins to league titles each of those seasons.

BRUIN BITS:

 Ouch! Is This Record Really Worth It?:

In their first 10 games, the George Fox Bruins have been hit by pitches 22 times, an average of 2.20 per game. That is slightly ahead of the pace of 2.17 hit batters per game by the Division III record-holding team, Allegheny College (Meadville, Mass.), whose hitters were plunked 104 times in 48 games in 1997. In the season opener against Pittsburgh-Bradford in the D-III Arizona Tournament on Feb. 14, the Bruins got drilled 8 times, two short of the record of 10 by Neumann College (Aston, Pa.), vs. Wesley College (Dover, Del.), on April 21, 1998. Ryan Dearing (Sr., 2B, Vancouver, Wash.), who led the Northwest Conference WC by getting hit 10 times last season, has already been hit 11 times in 10 games, a pace that would give him 40 hit-by-pitches this spring and shatter the single-season record of 29 by Luther Headley of Ferrum College (Ferrum, Va.) in 1996.

 "Officially", They Never Batted!

When the George Fox Bruins scored 7 runs in the 6th inning of their 8-3 first-game win over the Eastern Oregon Mountaineers on Mar. 2, it had to be one of the strangest rallies in college baseball history. The Bruins got only one hit in the inning, and the first eight hitters all had unofficial at-bats!

Ryan Dearing led off the bizarre frame with a hit-by-pitch. Jake Johnson laid down a sacrifice bunt that first baseman Noah Scott fielded and threw late to second for a fielder's choice. Travis Maffey also sacrificed, and Dearing scored the go-ahead run when pitcher Kelly Hood threw Maffey's bunt late and wildly to third. Rick Sutton relieved Hood, walked Greg Dombek intentionally to load the bases, then walked Kevin Tucker, Stephen Donohue, and Paul Gramenz unintentionally to force in three runs. Michael Windle came on to pitch and gave up a sacrifice fly to Eric Bell, followed by the only hit of the inning, a two-run single by Kyle Langeliers.

 They Shall Not Pass:

Through their first 77.2 innings, George Fox's nine pitchers have struck out 65 while walking only 19, an average of 2.23 walks per nine innings and a ratio of 3.42-to-1 of strikeouts-to-walks. The team record for fewest walks per nine is 1.96 and for strikeouts-to-walks is 3.60-to-1, both set by the 2000 mound staff which was composed mostly of seniors – but this year's staff is entirely underclassmen!

JUGS BASEBALL SPRING CLASSIC, Friday-Sunday, March 1-3, 2002

– sponsored by Jugs Inc. of Tualatin, Ore., pitching machine specialists

3-1 – George Fox 8, Whitman 3

NEWBERG, Ore. - Jake Johnson (Jr., OF, Newberg, Ore.) hit a go-ahead three-run home run in the 4th inning and Stephen Donohue (So., OF, Gresham, Ore.) went 3-for-4 with three runs scored, sparking the Bruins to a come-from-behind 8-3 win over the visiting Missionaries at Morse Field.

Whitman jumped out to an early 2-0 in the 1st on an RBI double by Blake Fisher and a sacrifice fly by Bobby Jones. Kyle Langelier's (Sr., 1B, Pleasant Hill, Ore.) RBI single scored Donohue in the home half, but Kyle Carothers made it 3-1 Missionaries with a 425-foot blast to center in the top of the 3rd. George Fox righthander Mike Beck (So., RHP, Livermore, Calif.), 3-0, settled down after that shot, however, retiring the next 13 hitters in a row while his teammates mounted a comeback.

In the bottom of the 4th, the first six Bruins to at reached base against the Missionaries' David Fee, 0-1. Johnson's opposite-field shot to left put George Fox on top 4-3, and the Bruins added three more in the frame, with Donohue tripling in one run and scoring another on a wild pitch.

Beck struck out six in seven innings of work, while Bryan Manor (Jr., LHP, Williams, Calif.) and Thomas Chivers (Fr., RHP, Chimacum, Wash.) threw one scoreless inning each to finish up as the Bruins climbed to 4-3 on the season. Every starter in the Bruin lineup collected at least one hit as George Fox had 13 hits in all. Carothers went 3-for-4 for the Missionaries, who dropped to 2-5.

3/2 – George Fox 8, Eastern Oregon 3 / George Fox 8, Eastern Oregon 1

NEWBERG, Ore. – Making use of one big inning in each game, stellar defense, and outstanding pitching, the George Fox University Bruins swept the Eastern Oregon University Mountaineers 8-3 and 8-1 at Morse Field.

In the opener, Kelly Hood scored on a first-inning balk by George Fox southpaw Cory Dixon (So., LHP, Springfield, Ore.) to give Eastern Oregon a 1-0 lead, and Mountaineer lefty Hood made it stand up until the fifth when the Bruins tied the score. David Peterson (Fr., SS, Aloha, Ore.) drew a one-out walk, went to third on a bunt single by Stephen Donohue which Hood threw away, and scored on Eric Bell's (Jr., DH Spokane, Wash.) bases-loaded bouncer to first.

The Bruins then broke the game open in the sixth, scoring seven runs in an inning in which they got only one hit and the first eight hitters all had unofficial at-bats! Ryan Dearing led off with a hit-by-pitch, Jake Johnson and Travis Maffey (Sr., OF, Boise, Idaho) laid down fielder's choice sacrifice bunts, and Dearing scored the go-ahead run when Hood threw Maffey's bunt late and wildly to third. Rick Sutton relieved Hood, walked Greg Dombek (So., C, Vaughn, Wash.) intentionally to load the bases, then walked Kevin Tucker (Jr., 2B, Forest Grove, Ore.), Donohue, and Paul Gramenz (Sr., SS, Sequim, Wash.) unintentionally to force in three runs. Michael Windle then came in and gave up a sacrifice fly to Bell and the only hit of the inning, a two-run single by Kyle Langeliers.

Ash Anunsen (Jr., Jefferson, Ore.), 1-1, who relieved Dixon in the fifth with the Bruins behind 1-0, went the rest of the way and picked up the win. George Fox won despite getting only five hits.

Hood, although taking the loss, went 3-for-4 at the plate, as did Noah Scott.

In the nightcap, the Bruins exploded for six runs in the third after taking a 1-0 lead in the second on an RBI single by Dombek, making things easy for Scott Hyde (Fr., RHP, Grants Pass, Ore.), 2-0, and reliever Nathan Green (So., RHP, Portland, Ore.). Hyde fanned seven and walked only one before leaving in the seventh when he was hit in the pitching hand by a line-drive single off the bat of Brian Stock, which knocked in the Mountaineers' only run. Green finished up and fanned four in 2 2/3 innings.

The Bruins' big rally, which pinned the loss on EOU starter Doug Scott, began with a lead-off home run by Donohue, and featured a two-run single by Dombek, who had three RBI in the game. The Bruins added an unearned run in the seventh off reliever Bryan Myers, who allowed only three hits over 5 1/3 innings.

3/3 – Concordia-Portland 4, George Fox 3 (11)

PORTLAND, Ore. – George Fox University, in the driver's seat as the only unbeaten team in the Jugs Baseball Spring Classic entering Sunday's final round, couldn't drive home the final nail, dropping a 4-3, 11-inning decision at Concordia University-Portland and falling into a three-way tie for the title. Linfield College and Western Baptist College posted wins that pulled them even with George Fox for first place in the tournament, which was sponsored by the Jugs Inc. pitching machine company of Tualatin, Ore.

Concordia took advantage of two untimely George Fox errors to tie and eventually win a tight pitching duel, with Bruin freshman Kyle Koontz (Fr., RHP, Albany, Ore.), making his first career appearance, going toe-to-toe with Concordia ace Michael Devaney. Koontz worked into the 9th inning, allowing until six hits and one earned run with five strikeouts and two walks, while Devaney was overpowering at times, allowing only three hits, two of the scratch variety, with 10 K's and four walks in 9+ innings.

The Bruins got on the board first with an unearned run in the third. Travis Maffey reached on an error by third baseman Justin Krueger, moved up on a walk to Stephen Donohue and a sacrifice by Paul Gramenz, and scored on Eric Bell's ground out to second. In the fifth, David Peterson tripled to right-center and scored on sacrifice fly to right by Donohue to make it 2-0.

Concordia got one run back in the home half of the fifth as Beau Johnson grounded a double down the left-field line, moved to third on a sacrifice by Tyler Young, and scored on a balk by Koontz, who dropped the ball as he went into his motion to the plate.

George Fox added what looked like a huge insurance run in the 9th as Greg Dombek walked, pinch-runner Josh Randall (Jr., Bellingham, Wash.) stole second, and Donohue grounded a single just under the glove of second baseman J.P. Candelaria for a 3-1 lead.

But the Cavs came back with two unearned runs in the home half. With one out, Chris Baird walked and Krueger singled. Matt Bailey then grounded to Peterson at third for what might have been a game-ending double play, only to have the ball bounce off his chest to keep the inning alive. Bryan Manor relieved Koontz at that point and walked Johnson to force in one run, and the tying run scored on Young's force out grounder to short.

Concordia reliever Ron Landolt worked two shutout innings and got the win when the Cavs got another unearned run in the 11th. Peterson threw wide to first on Krueger's one-out grounder, Chris Reinertson singled, Johnson walked, and Tyler Young drove a game-winning sacrifice fly to right to pin the loss on Manor, 0-1.

George Fox is now 6-4 overall, while Concordia improves to 5-11.

COACH PAT BAILEY (Idaho '78) is 167-85 (.663) in his 7th season as a college head baseball coach, all at George Fox. He needs only 5 more wins to pass Pat Casey (171-113-1, 1988-94), now the head coach at Oregon State, as the winningest coach in Bruin history. Entering this season, his .667 winning percentage (164-82) ranked 27th among active Division III coaches at least five years' experience.

BRUIN BITS:

 Ouch! Bruins on a Record Pace for Getting Hit by Pitches:

In their first 6 games, the George Fox Bruins have been hit by pitches 13 times, an average of 2.17 per game. That is the same pace as the Division III record-holding team, Allegheny College (Meadville, Mass.), whose batters were plunked 104 times in 48 games in 1997. In the season opener against Pittsburgh-Bradford in the Arizona Tournament, the Bruins got drilled 8 times, two short of the record of 10 by Neumann College (Astoria, Pa.), vs. Wesley College (Dover, Del.), on April 21, 1998. Ryan Dearing (Sr., 2B, Vancouver, Wash.) has already been hit 6 times in 5 games, a pace that would shatter the single-season record of 29 by Luther Headley of Ferrum College (Ferrum, Va.) in 1996.

 Maybe He Ought to Hit Leadoff:

Ryan Dearing has batted 13 times in the Bruins' first 6 games – and reached base safely 11 times, an on-base percentage of .846! He has 4 hits, a walk, and been hit 6 times, only making outs twice.

 The Man Who Could Not Single:

Scott Hyde (Fr., 3B-P, Grants Pass, Ore.), a part-time starter at third base in the early going, has 3 hits on the season – all for extra bases! He has a double, triple, and hit his first home run in the home opener against Western Baptist, but has yet to get a single.

 Beck Blows Away the Baptists:

Mike Beck (So., RHP, Livermore, Calif.) threw a 3-hitter in a 5-1 win over Western Baptist in the Bruins' first home game on Feb. 16, the lowest-hit complete-victory by a George Fox hurler since Ryan Alvis threw a 3-hitter to defeat Whitworth 5-1 on May 12, 2000. He was in command the whole way, striking out 8 with only 2 walks (although he did hit 3 batters). The red-shirt sophomore did not allow a hit until there were two out in the 4th, and the Warriors' first hit was a tainted double as miscommunication between outfielders allowed a catchable ball to drop untouched in deep right-center.

 They Shall Not Pass:

Through their first 41 innings, George Fox pitchers have struck out 37 while walking only 9, an average of 1.98 walks per nine innings and a ratio of 4.1-to-1 of strikeouts-to-walks. The team record for fewest walks per nine is 1.96 and for strikeouts-to-walks is 3.60-to-1, both set by the 2000 mound staff.

2/23 - GEORGE FOX 5-5, WESTERN BAPTIST 1-7: Bruins Split with Warriors in Home-Opening Twinbill

NEWBERG, Ore. - Mike Beck fired a three-hitter to give the George Fox University Bruins a 5-1 first-game win, but K.C. Rumrey slugged two home runs and drove in five in the nightcap as the Western Baptist College Warriors salvaged a split with a 7-5 win in the Bruins' home-opening baseball twinbill Saturday afternoon (Feb. 23) here at Morse Field.

Beck was in complete control throughout the opener, not allowing a hitting until there were two out in the 4th. The only bump in the road he hit was in the 6th when Beau Batsell led off with a double, went to third on a single to center by Rumrey, and scored on Micah Mills' force out. The sophomore righthander fanned 8 and walked 2 in raising his record to 2-0.

Ryan Dearing doubled and Jake Johnson (Jr., OF, Newberg, Ore.) hit the Bruins' first home run of the season to right-center in the 2nd to give Beck all the runs he would need. The Bruins added three more in the 5th on a solo shot by Scott Hyde, an RBI single by Stephen Donohue (So., OF, Gresham, Ore.) to score David Peterson (Fr., SS, Aloha, Ore.), and a fielder's choice grounder by Eric Bell (Jr., DH-1B, Spokane, Wash.) that plated Travis Maffey (Sr., OF, Boise, Idaho). Southpaw Rich White, 0-1, took the loss.

Both teams had their hitting shoes on in the early going of the second game, scoring four runs apiece by the end of the 3rd. Rumrey doubled in Batsell in the first, then hit a three-run shot in the 3rd for all the Warriors' runs to that point. George Fox scored three unearned runs in the 2nd, Kevin Tucker (Jr., 2B, Forest Grove, Ore.) capping the rally with an RBI double, and Kyle Langeliers (Sr., 1B, Pleasant Hill, Ore.) homered to right-center to tie it in the bottom of the 3rd.

John Zumwalt replaced starter Nate Mayben for the Warriors to start the bottom of the 4th and surrendered a solo home run to Bell for a 5-4 George Fox lead, but settled down after that and picked up the win to go to 1-0 when Western Baptist rallied in the 8th.

George Fox southpaw Cory Dixon (So., LHP, Springfield, Ore.) relieved starter Scott Hyde with two on in the top of the 4th and set down seven in a row before giving up a double to Rusty Johnston in the 6th. In the 8th, Rumrey led off with his second home run of the game to tie it 5-5, and Mills doubled to knock Dixon, the eventual loser and 0-2, out of the game.

Ash Anunsen (Jr., RHP, Jefferson, Ore.) came in to face Sam Owre, who reached when Tucker booted his grounder to second. Jason Brownell doubled to right to score Mills with the tie-breaking run, and Dustin Purnell safety-squeezed in Owre for an unearned insurance run.

Travis Lange and Jeff Tollison worked the final two scoreless innings for the Warriors, with Tollison nailing down his first save with a 1-2-3 9th.

George Fox is now 3-3 on the season, while Western Baptist is 3-1.

2/14 – GEORGE FOX 17, PITT-BRADFORD 5; GEORGE FOX 9, WHITWORTH 5:

Bruins Pound Out 25 Hits in Two-Game Sweep on Opening Day

CHANDLER, Ariz. – Collecting 25 hits in two games, the George Fox University Bruins opened their 2002 baseball season with a 17-5 win over the University of Pittsburgh-Bradford and a 9-5 decision over Northwest Conference foe Whitworth College in the D-III Arizona Tournament Thursday (Feb. 14) here at the Snedigar Sportsplex.

In the morning opener, the Bruins pounded out 12 hits, including five extra-base hits, and took advantage of the wildness of Pitt-Bradford hurlers in coasting to victory. Kyle Langeliers doubled twice in a 3-for-4 game and drove in four, Eric Bell and Josh Sargent also doubled, Scott Hyde had a triple, and Ryan Dearing knocked in three. The Bruins were also hit by a pitch eight times, two short of the NCAA Division III record of 10.

George Fox jumped out early with an 8-run second inning and also had a 6-spot in the 6th inning. The game was called after six innings by the 10-run rule. Mike Beck, the Bruins' most experienced returning pitcher who was 2-1 last year in 23 innings, picked up the win.

In the afternoon game, freshman hurler Scott Hyde spotted Whitworth a 2-run first inning, then blanked the Pirates until the 7th when they scored three unearned runs. By then, the Bruins had pounded out 13 hits and run up a 9-2 lead. The Bruins' big inning was the 3rd, when they scored four times to turn a 2-1 deficit into a 5-2 lead. Seann Hammon and Mike Halverson led the Bruins with 2 RBI apiece.

2/15 – HASTINGS 6, GEORGE FOX 2: Unearned Runs in 6th Send Bruins to First Defeat

CHANDLER, Ariz. – Holding a slim 2-1 lead heading into the bottom of the 6th inning, the George Fox University Bruins surrendered five runs, four of them unearned because of their only error of the game, and dropped a 6-2 decision to the Hastings College Broncos in the D-III Arizona Tournament Friday morning (Feb. 15) here at the Snedigar Sportsplex.

A day after collecting 25 hits in two games, George Fox could manage only three hits against the Broncos of the NAIA, but it was enough to stake southpaw Cory Dixon to a 2-1 lead. Dixon (0-1) scattered six hits over 5 1/3 innings, striking out two and walking one, before the Broncos knocked him out in the 6th. Erik Aden's two-out, three-run double was the big blow of the inning for Hastings.

The loss was the first of the season for the Bruins, who are now 2-1.

2/17 - CLAREMONT-MUDD-SCRIPPS 6, GEORGE FOX 0: Bruins Fall to .500 with Whitewash Job

CHANDLER, Ariz. – The Bruins collected only five hits and were shut out. No other details were available at the time of this press release.

COACH PAT BAILEY (Idaho '78) is 166-84 (.664) in his 7th season as a college head baseball coach, all at George Fox. He needs only 6 more wins to pass Pat Casey (171-113-1, 1988-94), now the head coach at Oregon State, as the winningest coach in Bruin history.

Bailey on the Arizona Tournament: "Certainly starting out 2-2 is better than last year's 0-6! We didn't hit as well the third and fourth games as we did on opening day, but for a couple of reasons. Both Hastings and Claremont already had several games under their belts, and we've had very little time outdoors. Let's face it, hitting in a confined space like a cage or in the gym is just not the same as being outside in game conditions. And we ran into a couple of pretty tough pitchers who located their pitches well; we got very few good balls to hit. Our hitting is going to come around as we get the kinks out.

"What really pleased me was our pitching and defense, and that's what wins games. We only made four errors in four games, and had two errorless games. Our pitchers threw strikes and had good location for the most part. Scott Hyde is going to be a good one for us before he's through."

George Fox University 2002 Pre-Season Baseball Outlook ---

BAILEY ON BRUIN BASEBALL IN 2001: “WE’RE NOT REBUILDING -- WE’RE RELOADING!”

By all accounts, the 2000 George Fox University baseball season was a rousing success: a 31-10 overall record, second-best in team history; a Northwest Conference championship at 18-6 in league play; a first-time trip to the NCAA Division III West Region playoffs, where the team was seeded No. 1; a No. 19 final national ranking; and the No. 6 staff earned run average in the country.

But six players from that team who earned All-Conference honors of one kind or another are gone, so the question has to be asked – Can the Bruins come anywhere close to those numbers again while trying to replace so many quality players?

“We had the same question at the start of last year, when we lost so much offense from our record-setting 1999 team,” recalls Pat Bailey, the 2000 NWC Coach of the Year who enters his sixth season as the Bruins’ coach with a 142-61 record. “Now we’ve lost two key pitchers, most of our strength up the middle, plus the leading base-stealer in the conference. There’s no doubt we have major holes to fill.

“But I watch our pitching staff in practice, and they’ve really bought into the concept of throwing strikes and giving up very few walks. We’ve been playing good defense. And this is our best recruiting class ever as far as a combination of junior college and freshman prospects goes, although no one individual has the superior talent some of our best players from the past have had.

“Others might want to call this a ‘rebuilding’ year – but I say we’re ‘reloading’!”

Pitching

The 2000 staff, whose 2.96 ERA was sixth-best in the nation, was anchored by Third Team All-American Ryan Alvis, who was 11-3 with a league-leading 1.87 ERA and 93 strikeouts. Kess Romano, another First Team All-Conference hurler, was 9-1 with a 2.49 ERA and won a school-record 25 games in his career. Both are gone, but ready to take over is southpaw Paul Andrewjeski (Sr., Vancouver, Wash.), who was 6-1 with a 2.51 ERA and 67 strikeouts, and could have been a No. 1 starter on almost any other team in the conference.

“Paul got serious in the off-season about increasing his strength,” says Bailey. “He hit the weight room and has put on about 15 pounds, all muscle, so he’s added at least three miles an hour to his fast ball. I wouldn’t be afraid to send him out there against anybody.”

After Andrewjeski, the rotation is a question mark – but only because there are so many choices! Says Bailey with a smile, “We go eight deep; there are eight guys I believe can go out there and give us a chance to win. There’s no Alvis who can blow the ball by people, but we’ll have a hard time deciding on our top four.”

Among the returning hurlers vying for spots in the rotation are righthanders Matt Sievers (Jr., Albany, Ore.), who was 0-0, 4.19 in 19+ innings, and Brody Wilson (Jr., Eugene, Ore.), who was 2-2, 5.88 with a record-tying 4 saves, along with lefty Damon Lorenz (Sr., Gaston, Ore.), who was 0-0, 6.23 in 8+ innings.

“Sievers is a three-pitch guy who has thrown well in the fall,” says Bailey. “Lorenz could give us two lefties in the rotation. Wilson, who ought to be in our top four with his good slider, only needs consistency.”

Mike Beck (Fr., Livermore, Calif.), a medical redshirt after injuring his arm early last season, and Mitch Sheppler (So., Portland, Ore.), who made only one mound appearance in '00, are righthanders who could also help, as could newcomers Glenn Boss (Jr., Beaverton, Ore.), a righty, and southpaw Cory Dixon (Fr., Springfield, Ore.).

“Boss comes from a strong tradition at Beaverton High, where he was a Second Team All-Stater, and Dixon has impressed me with his outstanding maturity for a freshman,” says Bailey.

Rounding out the staff and proving occasional bullpen help will be returnee Jake Johnson (So., Newberg, Ore.) and newcomers Seann Hammon (Fr., Port Orchard, Wash.), Logan Evjen (Jr., Aurora, Ore.), and Luke Wolf (So., Boise, Idaho). Johnson is the only lefty in the group.

Catching

Derek Birley, a First Team All-Conference backstop who tied a team and NCAA Division III record when he became the 10th player in D-III history to hit four home runs in a game against Whitworth on May 12, is back – but only as an assistant coach. There are three candidates bidding to replace the slugger: returnee Michael Halverson (So., Redmond, Wash.), who had two hits in three at-bats, redshirt Bryce Anderson (So., Makawao, Hawaii), and newcomer Greg Dombek (Fr., Vaughn, Wash.).

“Until someone takes charge, we’ll probably use a two-man rotation,” predicts Bailey. “Each has his own strength, although they all throw well. Defensively, I like Dombek best, Halverson hits well and gives us a lefty bat, and Bryce probably throws the best and has the most power potential.”

Infield

The Bruins led the Northwest Conference with a .957 fielding average last year, a stellar defensive infield being a large part of that. Three-fourths of that infield is back, with only second baseman David Farrell, a career .362 hitter and Honorable Mention All-NWC last year, not returning.

The left side of the diamond is in the excellent hands of Aaron Bliss (Sr., Hillsboro, Ore.) at third and Paul Gramenz (Jr., Sequim, Wash.) at shortstop. Bliss batted .285 with 24 RBI while Gramenz was a .269 hitter with 20 RBI. “Both bring us leadership and mental toughness,” says Bailey. “They are consistent on offense, are good clutch hitters, and are outstanding defensively. Bliss is one of the best I’ve seen at throwing on the run.”

Over at first, Kyle Langeliers (Jr., Pleasant Hill, Ore.) led the NWC in putouts and is exceptional on throws in the dirt. A .280 hitter with 24 RBI, he should provide even more offense this year as he develops consistency and cuts down on his strikeouts. Eric Bell (So., Spokane, Wash.), a transfer from Spokane Falls Community College, will back up Langeliers with a left-handed bat, while Joshua Sargent (Fr., Oak Harbor, Wash.) will also get a shot.

A huge battle to fill Farrell's shoes at second is taking place between returnees Kevin Tucker (So., Forest Grove, Ore.) and Matt Petersen (Jr., Eagle, Idaho) and newcomer Ryan Dearing (Jr., Vancouver, Wash.). Tucker hit .207 and Petersen .250 in limited action last year.

Says Bailey, “Tucker is a former First Team All-Stater who gives us a lefty bat. Dearing is hitting the best of the three, but the other two are better defensively. Petersen is our top utility man; he can help out anywhere on the infield if he doesn't earn the starting spot. We have tremendous versatility there and could wind up platooning like we do at catcher.”

Hammon, Wolf, Jeff Otis (Fr., Redmond, Wash.), and J.D. Russell (Fr., Mountlake Terrace, Wash.) are others whom Bailey can call on for infield duty in a pinch.

Outfield

Fans won't be able to recognize the Bruin outfield without a scorecard. Gone are right fielder Garrett Bates, a .324 hitter who led the team with 4 triples and was second with 33 RBI, center fielder Jason Schilperoort, who batted .349 with a team-leading 12 doubles and 30 RBI, and left fielder Russell Johnston, who batted .326 and led the NWC with 19 stolen bases as a freshman. Bates and Schilperoort, who were Honorable Mention All-Conference selections, have graduated, while Johnston enrolled in junior college.

"I hated to lose Russell; he would have stolen at least 30 bases for us," says Bailey ruefully. "It was a matter of economics for him this year, but I'm hopeful we can get him back."

Expected to take over in center is Travis Maffey (Jr., Boise, Idaho), a transfer from Blue Mountain Community College, an outstanding defensive flychaser and excellent runner who is improving as a hitter. The outfield corners are up for grabs, with the top candidates being returnee Sheppler, a .167 hitter in part-time duty, and rookies Grady Shaver (Fr., The Dalles, Ore.) and P.J. Pardee (Fr., Central Point, Ore.).

"Sheppler is playing well defensively, while Shaver and Pardee could give us two starting freshmen in the outfield," says Bailey. "Right now, we're just trying to figure out who goes best where!"

Johnson and Stephen Donohue (So., Gresham, Ore.) are letterwinners who can play outfield, while Ryan Brown (Fr., Kingston, Wash.) is a newcomer who provides outfield depth.

Summary

"I like offense – everyone does – but pitching and defense win games, and those will be our strong points this season," Bailey summarizes. "Offensively, we don't have a lot of power -- but we didn't last year, either. We will be more of a 'contact' team, bunting, hit-and-run, that sort of thing. One of our slogans is 'the little things make a big difference', and we will be a fundamentally-sound team."

"Each year, our senior captains lead the team in an exercise to come up with a motto for the season, and this time they've chosen FIGHT:

"F is for Focus - every pitch, every at-bat, every play will have purpose;

"I is for Intensity - we will play hard and bear down on every play;

"G if for Glory - we will play for the glory of our team and our school, not ourselves;

"H is for Honor - we will honor God in our conduct on and off the field;

"T is for Tradition - we want to continue the tradition of baseball excellence that George Fox is known for."

BRUINS PICKED 3RD, WILLAMETTE TOP CHOICE IN NWC BASEBALL POLL

SPOKANE, Wash. --- Defending Northwest Conference champion George Fox University is expected to be a serious contender for the league title again this year, but Willamette University is the narrow favorite in 2001, according to the pre-season NWC coaches' poll released Tuesday by conference SID Steve Flegel at Whitworth College.

The Bruins, who have finished first or second in the NWC in each of coach Pat Bailey's five seasons in Newberg, were 31-10 last year, won the NWC with an 18-6 mark, were seeded No. 1 in the West Regionals in Georgetown, Texas, and were ranked 26th in the final NCAA Division III poll.

Willamette, Linfield College, and George Fox all earned multiple first place votes. The Bearcats (24-17, 15-9), who return 2000 "Player of the Year" Nik Lubisich (7-3, 1.93 on the mound, .377 at the plate), were picked first on four ballots and received 75 points.

Linfield (24-16, 17-7), last season's runner-up to the Bruins in a close pennant race, was selected first on a pair of ballots and had 72 total points. Kevin Schjei, who was named All-NWC last season as a designated hitter after batting .405, will lead the Wildcats.

The Bruins, who must replace All-NWC pitchers Kess Romano and Ryan Alvis and All-NWC catcher Derek Birley, picked up two first place votes and 68 total points.

Pacific Lutheran University, the University of Puget Sound and Whitman College were tightly packed in the middle of the conference poll. PLU (19-18-1, 13-11) was selected in fourth place with 50 points and will be led by All-NWC pitcher Jason Andrew. Whitman (14-25, 8-16), picked to finish fifth, was the other school to receive a first place vote. The Missionaries have All-NWC catcher Adam Zaitz back to lead the attack. Puget Sound (17-24, 11-13), with 42 points, is sixth in the poll. The Loggers finished fourth in 2000.

Pacific University, Lewis & Clark College, and Whitworth College rounded out the poll. Pacific's Boxers (12-26, 9-15) were seventh with 23 points, while the Pioneers of L&C (16-22, 9-15) and Whitworth's Pirates (13-27, 8-16) tied for eighth with 18 points.

George Fox University 2002 Baseball Outlook ---

BRUINS TO RELY ON PROVEN LINEUP, UNTESTED PITCHERS IN 2002

NEWBERG, Ore. -- With eight regulars returning in the batting order, the George Fox University Bruins anticipate scoring plenty of runs during the 2002 baseball season. It will be up to an untested pitching staff, however, to make sure the opposition doesn't do the same if the Bruins are to challenge again for the Northwest Conference crown.

After starting the 2001 season 0-6, the Bruins bounced back and closed with a rush, going 12-3 in their final 15 games to finish 22-21, the sixth winning record in as many years at George Fox for head coach Pat Bailey. The Bruins tied for third in the Northwest Conference with a 15-9 league mark.

As a team, the Bruins hit .302, and only third baseman Aaron Bliss is gone from that lineup that now has an additional year of experience under its collective belt. However, the pitching staff was decimated by the loss of seven hurlers, four of whom received All-Northwest Conference honors of one kind or another.

"The biggest strength for this year's team, no doubt, is the maturity of the lineup," says Bailey. "That, and depth -- we've got a good freshman class that will help immediately and we can go two deep at virtually every position. We lost a lot in the pitching department, to be sure, but from what I've seen in pre-season workouts, we have some talented freshman and a couple of juco transfers who can help, and we could well go 10 deep in the pitching staff."

Infield

Bliss (.304-4-23) is gone at third, but the rest of the infield is a senior-laden, experienced group, with Kyle Langeliers (Sr., Pleasant Hill, Ore.) covering first, Ryan Dearing (Sr., Vancouver, Wash.) at second, and Paul Gramenz (Sr., Sequim, Wash.) at shortstop.

Langeliers (.296-2-32) is a defensive whiz who was second on the team in RBI. He skipped soccer in the fall to concentrate on baseball and is poised for an outstanding senior season. His back-up will be Eric Bell (Jr., Spokane, Wash.), who spent most of last year as the designated hitter and will do that again with occasional spells at first. Bell earned First Team All-NWC and First Team All-West Region honors with a .410 average, nine home runs, 41 RBI, and a league-leading 20 doubles. Switch-hitting Joshua Sargent (So., Oak Harbor, Wash.) hit .296 in 27 at bats and is budding talent who "will start somewhere down the road," says Bailey.

Dearing (.343-0-12) earned First Team All-Conference honors while platooning with lefty-swinging Kevin Tucker (Jr., Forest Grove, Ore.), who posted numbers of .278-1-13. Both should continue to command plenty of playing time while supplying timely hitting and sound defense on the right side of the infield. Tucker might get a look at the wide-open third base position as well.

Gramenz (.274-2-17) is a sure-handed glove at short who will be counted on for increased offensive production, but he could be pushed by talented newcomer David Peterson (Fr., Aloha, Ore.), who can also play second.

The third base job is up for grabs among three candidates. Seann Hammon (So., Port Orchard, Wash.) is the only one with experience, having hit .321 in 28 at bats as a sub last year. J.D. Russell (Fr., Mountlake Terrace, Wash.), a red-shirt last year, and Scott Hyde (Fr., Grants Pass, Ore.) are also in the running. Russell and Hyde are versatile and can play other infield positions as well.

Outfield

Travis Maffey (Sr., Boise, Idaho) had an outstanding season in center, going .393-3-11 with 32 runs scored and seven stolen bases in eight attempts to earn Third Team All-West Region honors (yet surprisingly was left off the All-Conference team). Bailey expects even better things from his lead-off man this season, noting that "he has improved so much even from last year, and he's awesome defensively."

The flanks around Maffey will be rotated among three top flychasers: returnees Grady Shaver (So., The Dalles, Ore.) and Jake Johnson (Jr., Newberg, Ore.) and Yakima Valley Community College transfer Josh Randall (Jr., Bellingham, Wash.), all left-handed hitters. Shaver went .279-0-9 and will get the nod in right because of his strong arm, while Johnson was .244-3-19 with 11 stolen bases in as many attempts and will handle left. Randall is capable of playing all three positions.

Outfield depth will be provided by red-shirt Stephen Donohue (So., Gresham, Ore.) and rookie Don Jenkins (Fr., Ruch, Ore.)

Catchers

In Mike Halverson (Jr., Redmond, Wash.) and Greg Dombek (So., Vaughn, Wash.), the Bruins have a pair that Bailey calls "the best defensive unit I've ever had behind the plate. No one is going to take an extra base on these guys very often."

Halverson (.307-1-12), a left-handed hitter, and Dombek (.297-1-21), a righty, not only provided solid offense, but combined to throw out 43% (26-61) of the baserunners who tried to steal on the Bruins last year.

Providing depth at backstop is Luke Wolf (Jr., Boise, Idaho), who got into only five games last season, but is a team leader who has improved through hard work and extra effort.

Pitchers

Staff ace Paul Andrewjeski (6-5, 3.61, 69 K's) was a First Team All-Conference pick, while starters Damon Lorenz 6-3, 3.71) and Brody Wilson (1-6, 4.37) and closer Glenn Boss (2-1, 4.47, a Bruin-record six saves) all received honorable mention for All-Conference honors in 2001 – but all are gone.

Expected to take over the top two spots in the rotation are righthander Mike Beck (So., Livermore, Calif.), who was 2-1 with a 5.09 ERA with 22 strikeouts in 23 innings, and southpaw Cory Dixon (So., Springfield, Ore.), who was 1-3, 7.65 in 20 innings. "They are our only experienced pitchers, so we're placing a big load on them to lead our staff," admits Bailey, "but they've thrown well in the fall and early spring."

When he is not playing third, Scott Hyde could get a chance to show his stuff on the mound. "Scott was a double-figure winner in high school and will be a good one for us before long," predicts Bailey. "He has a great curveball and a good fastball, and he might wind up as our closer."

Another top candidate for a starting spot is Mt. Hood Community College transfer Ash Anunsen (Jr., Jefferson, Ore.), who played as a freshman at Stetson University, a strong Division I program in DeLand, Fla., before deciding to play closer to home. Bailey calls him "a strike machine – he'll throw 70-80% strikes, he has four pitches, his ball cuts or runs, and he has a very good understanding of the art of pitching."

In the bullpen, Bailey can choose from among Hammon, who pitched in high school; Nathan Green (So., Portland, Ore.), who red-shirted two years ago while also playing basketball at George Fox but attended Warner Pacific College last year; Bryan Manor (Jr., Williams, Calif.), a southpaw transfer from a good Division III program at Louisiana College; and Brad Aeschliman (Fr., Woodinville, Wash.). All could see action in middle relief.

Hyde, Anunsen, and Hammon may all get a chance to show what they can do as the staff closer. Hammon, who did not pitch at all last year, can mix in a split-finger and slider with an 81-85 mph fastball.

Thomas Chivers (Fr., Chimacum, Wash.), Kyle Koontz (Fr., Albany, Ore.), and southpaw Jimmie Baynes (Fr., Joseph, Ore.) round out the staff but are projected as future contributors rather than immediate prospects. Koontz can also play the infield if needed.

Summary

"Offense and depth will be our obvious strengths this year," says Bailey. "We have experience at every position except third, and we have depth at every position, in many cases with a lefty-righty platoon. If we have to face a particularly tough righty, for example, we have the flexibility to insert six or seven left-handed hitters into the lineup.

"Defensively, we were not settled in early last year, but improved greatly as the year went on. We're still improving with a tremendous combination behind the plate, our outfield will chase down everything and won't allow runners to take the extra base, and our infield is shaping up nicely.

"We lost a lot of pitchers, but so did most of the conference. I like the arms we have, and believe we'll be able to go 8 to 10 deep in the staff. We don't have a lot of innings returning, but our pitchers will only get better as they add the innings to their experience.

"All in all, we're expecting to be right in the thick of the conference race again," says Bailey, who is 164-82 (.667) in his six seasons at George Fox and has guided the team to three NWC firsts, two seconds and one third in his tenure. He needs only eight more wins to pass Pat Casey (171-113-1, 1988-94), now the coach at Oregon State, as the all-time winningest coach in Bruin history.

2/6 – NORTHWEST CONFERENCE: Bruins Picked to Finish Second in Pre-Season Coaches' Poll

NEWBERG, Ore. – With eight regulars in the lineup returning, the George Fox University Bruins are expected to have enough firepower for a second-place finish in the 2002 Northwest Conference baseball chase, according to pre-season predictions of the conference's nine coaches.

George Fox (22-21, 15-9), which tied for third with Linfield College last season, received two first-place votes and 71 points in balloting by the NWC coaches. The Bruins hope to return to the NWC title, which they won in 2000, behind the hitting of junior designated hitter Eric Bell, who batted .410 with 9 home runs and 41 RBI, earning First Team All-NWC and All-West Region honors. Also back are senior Third Team All-West Region center fielder Travis Maffey, who hit .393 with 7 stolen bases and 32 runs scored, and senior First Team All-NWC second baseman Ryan Dearing, a .343 hitter. The Bruin pitching staff underwent a major overhaul, however, with only two hurlers returning and nine newcomers.

Linfield (28-12, 15-9), which won five straight NWC titles from 1992-96 and last shared a conference title in 1999 with George Fox, is a strong favorite to retake the conference pennant in 2002 with six first-place votes and 82 points. The Wildcats return six key position players and four key pitchers from 2001, including outfielder Chuck Banta, who hit .368 with 37 RBI, and three-sport letterman Luke Buchheit, who led the team in appearances and posted a 3.77 ERA.

Defending champion Willamette University (29-16, 18-6) had the final first-place vote and totaled 63 points. The Bearcats will be without the services of two-time NWC Player of the Year Nik Lubisich, who went 10-3 and batted .337 with a team-high 7 home runs. However, Willamette does have Jason Searle back at catcher after he hit .312 with 38 RBI.

Whitman College (10-24, 9-14) and Whitworth College (20-20, 15-7) finished fourth in the poll with 43 points each. Whitman will try to improve on last season's sixth-place finish behind the efforts of pitcher Ryan Toivola (5-4, 4.48 ERA). Whitworth, which finished second last season, must replace its top two pitchers and All-NWC outfielder Josh Taylor, who left school for financial reasons.

Pacific University (18-21, 12-12) was right behind in sixth with 42 points. The Boxers will look to All-NWC reliever Damian Munoz (17 appearances, 2.13 ERA) to move into a starting spot. Pacific Lutheran University (15-22, 9-15) followed with 33 points. Senior pitcher Jason Andrew (6-6, 4.95 ERA) will lead the Lutes. The University of Puget Sound (13-26, 9-15) and Lewis & Clark (8-25, 4-18) rounded out the poll with 20 and 17 points respectively.

The season gets underway February 14-17 when seven of the nine teams travel to Chandler, Arizona, for the Division III Arizona Tournament. The only two NWC teams not playing in Chandler are Linfield and Willamette. George Fox opens up Thursday, Feb. 14, with two games, facing the University of Pittsburgh-Bradford at 11:00 a.m. and NWC rival Whitworth at 4:30 p.m.

NWC Baseball Coaches Pre-Season Poll (2001 records):

School	(1st)	Pts.	All	NWC
