27 PAT BAILEY - Head Coach

Pat Bailey, Pat Bailey, an eight-time winner of the Northwest Conference Coach of the Year award, including 2006, and the 2004 NCAA Division III National Coach of the Year after leading George Fox to the NCAA national championship, enters his 12th season at the helm of a Bruin baseball program that has become established as one of the finest at the conference, regional, and national levels.

Bailey received NWC Coach of the Year honors for the fifth year in a row after leading the 2006 Bruins to a 29-15 overall record and an 18-6 conference mark that secured a fifth straight league title. The Bruins captured the championship by three games over second-place Linfield College, their largest margin ever. He notched his 300th win last season when the Bruins defeated Linfield 15-10 on March 5. Making their fifth appearance in the NCAA Division III playoffs in the last seven years, the Bruins went 2-2, with wins over top-seeded Redlands and Trinity (Texas), and finished third in the West Regional at Orange, Calif. George Fox was ranked 23rd nationally and fourth in the West Region the final American Baseball Coaches Association Division III polls.

Bailey also received NWC Coach of the Year accolades in 1997, 2000, 2002, and 2003, and Co-Coach of the Year in 1999, 2004, and 2005. In 2004, he was honored as NCAA Division III West Region and National Coach of the Year by the American Baseball Coaches Association after leading the Bruins to the Division III World Series championship. In 2005, the Greater Portland chapter of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes named him its Area Coach of the Year.

Success on the scoreboard has become synonymous with the George Fox program under Bailey, with 11 straight winning seasons since he took the reins in 1995. His career record to date is 323-147, the most wins of any George Fox baseball coach, and his .687 winning percentage ranks among the top 20 for active Division III coaches. The Bruins are ranked among the top 20 in Division III for the most wins in the years 2000-06 with a 185-83 mark. In home games under Bailey, the Bruins have posted a record of 157-37 (.809). The 2005 team set a team record for the most wins during the regular season while going 32-12, won a record 15 straight games in mid-season, and established a new NCAA Division III national record with a collective fielding average of .979.

George Fox teams have won or shared eight NWC championships in Bailey's 11 seasons, winning outright titles in 1997, 2000, 2002, 2003, and 2006, and co-titles in 1999, 2004, and 2005. In 2000, their first year of NCAA eligibility, the Bruins advanced to the West Regional, where they were the No. 1 seed. In 2002, the Bruins went 1-2 in the Midwest Regional, earning their first NCAA post-season victory over Blackburn. In 2003, the Bruins were 2-2 in the West Regional, losing in the finals to eventual national champion Chapman.

Bailey's ninth season in 2004 culminated in the pinnacle of success as the Bruins became the first George Fox team to capture a national championship as a member of the NCAA. The Bruins posted a 40-10 overall record, setting a new single-season record for wins and tying the record for best won-lost percentage (.800). After tying Linfield for the conference title, both at 20-4, the Bruins received an at-large bid to the NCAA playoffs and went 4-0 in the West Regional in Orange, Calif., and 5-1 in the World Series in Appleton, Wis., defeating Eastern Connecticut State 6-3 in the championship game. All nine of the Bruins' post-season wins came against nationally-ranked teams, and four of their five wins in the World Series were against pitchers who were First or Second Team All-Americans. George Fox was a unanimous pick as the No. 1 team in the nation in the final ABCA/NCAA Division III national poll.

Many of Bailey's players have earned all-conference, all-district, all-region, and/or all-America recognition. In 1999, first baseman Nate Barnett became his first NAIA First Team All-American, and in 2000, staff ace Ryan Alvis was named to the NCAA Division III All-America Third Team. In 2003, first baseman Eric Bell was an All-America First Team selection and pitcher Scott Hyde was All-America Second Team. Bell was a First Team Academic All-American and designated hitter Joshua Sargent was Second Team that same year. In 2004, Hyde and shortstop David Peterson were All-America First Team selections, while Hyde was National Co-Pitcher of the Year and Most Outstanding Player at the D-III World Series. In 2005, designated hitter-pitcher Derrick Jones was chosen as the utility player on the All-America First Team. Shortstop Bo Thunell was named to the All-America Third Team as a freshman in 2006. Six Bruins have signed professional contracts after playing for Bailey.

A long-time active member of the ABCA, Bailey has served as a rater on the NCAA Division III National Baseball Committee, the group which makes selections for the national tournament each year.

Bailey took over the Bruin program immediately after guiding West Linn High School into the Oregon Class 4A state championship game in 1995. At West Linn, his teams advanced to the Class 4A state playoffs 7 times, and in his final season were edged 2-1 in the 1995 state championship game. Four times Bailey was named Three Rivers League Coach of the Year while at West Linn, where he served for 10 years as head baseball coach and assistant football coach. His baseball teams won 5 league titles and reached the Oregon semifinals in 1989, 1991, and 1995. Prior to West Linn, Bailey taught and coached at Willamette High School in Eugene, Ore., for 3 years.

Bailey spent one season as pitching coach at the University of Portland in 1992, and has also coached a number of youth summer programs. From 1981-83, he led the State Junior Baseball program in Eugene to an 84-40 record, and from 1989-95, he produced a 187-64 record as an American Legion coach. Combined with his 223-134 high school record and George Fox totals, he has an overall mark in 24 years of coaching of 815-383 (.680).

At West Linn, Bailey was also a business instructor, and in 1994 was named to Who's Who Among America's Outstanding High School Teachers. In 1995, he was one of 30 outstanding educators honored with a 1995 Education Excellence Award, given by Associated Oregon Industries.

Bailey is a 1974 graduate of Moscow High School in Idaho, where he played football, basketball, and was the baseball team's MVP. He earned two letters in baseball at North Idaho College in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, then two more as a starting outfielder and team captain during his senior season at the University of Idaho. He continued playing semiprofessionally until age 28. In 1978, he completed his business education degree, and earned a master of education degree in educational administration at the University of Oregon in 1983.

Additional duties for Bailey at George Fox include associate director of athletics, director of the Bruin Athletic Association for athletic support, chair of the school's Sports Hall of Fame Committee, and a teacher in the Department of Business and Economics.

Bailey and his wife, Susan, live in Newberg and have two children: son Alex, 22, who played baseball for the Bruins in 2003, and daughter Ann, 19, a sophomore at George Fox.
