ABOUT GEORGE FOX COLLEGE

George Fox College is the outgrowth of a desire by early Willamette Valley Quaker settlers who established Pacific Academy in 1885 for the Christian education of their children. The college division was organized in 1891 to provide more advanced instruction for students. In 1949, because of the many colleges in the Northwest with Pacific in their name, the College was renamed George Fox in honor of the founder of the Friends (Quaker) Church. The College is governed by a 42-member Board of Trustees elected by Northwest Yearly Meeting of Friends Church, which comprises more than 8,000 members in 58 churches in Oregon, Washington, and Idaho.

The 60-acre rural, tree-shaded campus a half-hour drive from Portland has undergone major expansion in the last few years with 10 new buildings constructed. The $2.25 million M. J. Murdock Learning Resource Center opened last fall and a new residence hall is to be constructed this year.

College enrollment is 945.

Accredited by the Northwest Association of Secondary and Higher Schools, the College offers 28 majors in seven divisions: Education, Fine and Applied Arts, Language Arts, Natural Science, Religion, Social Science, and Physical Education. George Fox is one of 13 members of the national Christian College Consortium. The student-faculty ratio is 16:1.

George Fox students come from 17 states and 9 foreign countries. Nearly 40 religious denominations are represented on campus.

Alumni of George Fox are primarily in service-oriented vocations of Christian ministries, education, social work, and medical fields. The College's most prominent alumnus is the late President Herbert Hoover, who attended Pacific Academy.

GFC ATHLETICS

Intercollegiate athletics is an integral part of the overall education program at George Fox. Men's varsity athletic teams represent the College in baseball, basketball, track, cross country, and soccer. Women students compete in volleyball, basketball, track, softball, and cross country.

George Fox College competes as an independent on the varsity level. Its schedules are coordinated with the Northwest Conference and with other independents in the Northwest. George Fox is a member of the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA), District 2, and in some sports, the National Christian College Athletic Association, Region 8.

For students not participating in the varsity program, GFC has a complete intramural program including flag football, basketball, volleyball, softball, racquetball, and tennis.

Athletic facilities include the Coleman H. Wheeler Center for Sports and Physical Education; Colcord Field, which includes an all-weather rubberized track; tennis courts; and the Curtis and Margaret Morse Athletic Fields complex containing baseball diamond, softball field, soccer field, and archery range. The Morse complex dedication was in February 1989.

Wheeler Center, completed in 1977 in a $2.7 million project, includes the James and Lila Miller Gymnasium with three basketball courts and seating for up to 2,500; multipurpose, class, and weight rooms; faculty and administrative offices; handball courts; dressing and therapy rooms.

THIS IS WHERE THE GAME IS PLAYED

George Fox College is in its twelfth year in the Coleman H. Wheeler Center for Sports and Physical Education. Completed in June 1977, the $2.7 million, 55,000-square-foot complex is the College's largest building. It contains the James and Lila Miller Gymnasium, the Bruin home court.

The sports center was designed by noted architect Pietro Bel-luschi, with a wooded canyon setting chosen as the center's location. The building features wood products and a large win-dow area overlooking the adjacent natural terrain.

Three times larger than Hester Gymnasium, which it replaced, the Wheeler Center features a 116 x 174-foot gym-nasium with three basketball courts and seating for 2,500 spec-tators. The gymnasium ceilings are 32 feet over the hardwood maple floor. The gym provides three volleyball courts and ten badminton courts.

The building is entered on two levels—ground level on the east side through the nine doors for the general public and after crossing a 200-foot bridge; and on the second floor on the west side for campus personnel. There is a two-floor lobby.

Contained on the upper level are athletic administration and faculty offices, staff room, and class, weight, and multipurpose rooms. The lower level contains a concession area and ticket sales area, dressing rooms, team rooms, laundry, equipment-issuing room, and storage space. An east wing of the building houses two handball courts.

The building is named for long-time Oregon lumberman Cole-man H. Wheeler, former chairman of the board of Willamette Industries. The gymnasium is named for board member James Miller and his wife, Lila. He is the former president of Cascadia Lumber Co. The building was dedicated Oct. 17, 1977.

NAIA DISTRICT 2

George Fox College men's athletic teams compete in District 2 of the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA). Fifteen teams make up the district, all but two within Oregon.

In basketball, divisions have been created involving all 15 col-leges, with organization into east and west divisions. Members of the East Division are College of Idaho, Columbia Christian, Concordia College, George Fox College, Northwest Nazarene College, Warner Pacific College, and Western Baptist College. West Division members are Eastern Oregon State, Lewis & Clark, Linfield College, Oregon Institute of Technology, Pacific University, Southern Oregon State College, Western Oregon State College and Willamette University.

This alignment puts Christian colleges and independents in the East Division, and Northwest Conference and state schools in the West.

All teams will have a post-season game to determine the right to represent the district at the national NAIA championships. All teams but the top team in each division compete in a "sub-playoff" system, paired 2-7, 3-6, 4-5. The winners then join the top team in each division in a regular playoff. The teams are cross-seeded with the teams from the other division. Lewis & Clark this year will play the second (lowest) of the two top seeded teams. If the Pioneers win they remain the lowest seeded team throughout the playoffs.

Standings within each division will be based upon the record with other teams in the division. If there is a tie, results of com-petition between those schools involved will be considered. If there still is a tie, then overall NAIA District 2 records will be used to determine ranking, based on a system of awarding points for the strength of each team met.

BRUINS PARTICIPATE IN NAIA

The National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) is a completely autonomous association that administers programs leading to national championships in 11 events for nearly 500 accredited four-year colleges and universities in 32 geographical districts spread over the 50 states and Canada.

Established in 1940 as the National Association of Intercollegiate Basketball the NAIB evolved from the institution of a "National Small College Basketball Tournament" that was inaugurated in 1937. In 1952, the NAIB expanded to include tennis, outdoor track, and golf, and that year the organization was renamed the NAIA.

Since that time the NAIA has further enlarged to encompass football (two divisions were formed in 1970), cross country, baseball, and swimming, which were added to the NAIA championship program in 1956, wrestling (1958), soccer (1959), and indoor track (1966). In August of 1980 the NAIA, after a two-year study, initiated championships for women in the newly organized NAIA Women's Division. Ten championships are offered.

NAIA national headquarters and staff are located in Kansas City, Missouri. The NAIA is governed by two bodies. The Council of Presidents, composed of one president from each district, is responsible for fiscal matters, academic standards, and supervision of the national staff. George Fox College president Edward F. Stevens represents NAIA District 2 and is one of five U.S. college presidents selected to serve on the NAIA Council of Presidents Executive Committee. The 10-person Executive Committee, elected by the membership, is responsible for organizing championship events and overseeing the committees and associations.

Eligibility rules within the NAIA govern all play in all sports recognized by the Association, not just post-season play. All eligibility guidelines must be adhered to by all members, including those holding dual affiliation with other associations.

The NAIA clearly outlines its own responsibilities and those of its members: a sound athletic program, administered and controlled by those responsible for the administration of the college or university. The NAIA's basic premise is that the athletic program is a basic component of the overall general educational process, and not an entity apart.

Member institutions must conduct their intercollegiate athletic programs to the standards of the regulatory Association in which they hold memberships, and the NAIA. They must pay the annual membership dues and be in support of the policies of the Association. Where institutional rules and standards are more strict than those of the regulatory group or the NAIA, those rules and standards of the institution are recognized and supported by the NAIA.

TONIGHT'S GAME

With their best record ever and rated 22nd in the nation, the George Fox College basketball Bruins tonight seek to extend their winning string to nine.

The impressive Bruins—with a 20-3 record—also will be trying to maintain a perfect record in Miller Gym. GFC is 9-0 at home this year, 12-0 going back to last season.

In hosting Columbia Christian, George Fox also puts on the line a 20-game winning string over the Clippers. GFC has not lost to the Portland visitors since NAIA competition between the schools began in 1973. Two of the wins have come this year. At home in the Willcuts-Twenge Classic in December, George Fox turned back the Clippers 104-85. In Portland January 20 the Bruins came away with a 75-59 win.

George Fox enters the game on top of the NAIA District 2 East Division with a 6-0 record. The Bruins are the first team in the district to reach 20 wins this season. Columbia Christian comes tonight with a 5-19 overall record, 0-7 in East Division following a narrow 73-69 loss Thursday night to Concordia.

At the same time, in Salem, George Fox was facing Western Baptist, edging the Warriors 82-80 for the GFC's 14th win in its last 15 games. It was close. With the score tied at 80, George Fox got the ball with 31 seconds left. Bruin Coach Mark Vernon called a time out. The instructions? Wait till the final few seconds to take a shot. The Bruins paid attention and with two seconds left, junior guard Brian Martin let fly with a 17-footer from the left of the key. It was perfect and GFC preserved its win string and collected its second win of the season over the Warriors. The victory pushed GFC's mark on the road to 11-3 this season. The 20-win season is just the fifth time it's been accomplished at George Fox, with Vernon coaching four of those seasons.

The winning is being led by the district's top player, sophomore center Dave Wilson, and by the assists of Brian Martin, whose 8.3 average this week is eighth best in the nation. Wilson is averaging 20.9 points and 7.9 rebounds a game and is the district's best field goal shooter with a .628 average. He now has 123 blocked shots, believed best in the nation, averaging 5.56 a game. On his next slam, Wilson will set GFC's unofficial record for dunks. He enters the game with 42, tied with former GFC All-American Kenny Stone, who did it in 33 games three years ago. "A monster in the middle," is the way this week's Oregonian newspaper described Wilson and his achievements.

THE BRUIN NICKNAME

George Fox College is represented by the nickname and mascot "Bruin." But it's not always been so, even though it should have been.

The nickname comes from a real bear captured in 1887 just two years after Pacific Academy (the College's predecessor) was established. The small cub was captured in the coast range foothills west of Carlton when its mother was shot. The young cub was brought to campus by a student and later lived with a faculty member. When it grew to adulthood it was kept in a pit in what is now known as Hess Creek Canyon south of the campus. It escaped one too many times and was turned into steak for the dining table and the hide preserved on a frame and displayed in an early campus museum. When it deteriorated several years later, it was taken to a campus furnace room to be destroyed, but the framework proved a problem in dismantling, so it was left sitting in a corner. Students found the old Bruin skin later and began skirmishes over ownership, a tradition that continues 102 years later. "Bruin Junior," a replica, under a set of guidelines passed down for years, is fought over periodically in class competition, with the class able to physically drag the Bruin replica off campus declared the rightful owner until next "flashed."

Even with the Bruin tradition, somewhere along the line, the "Quaker" tag to athletic teams came into popularity with sportswriters because of the College's church affiliation, and that nickname was used, along with a mascot "Foxy George," a little fox with a Quaker hat. Both gained acceptance for a period in the 1950s and 1960s until a vote of faculty, students, and administration in 1970 reinstated the Bruin nickname to its rightful place.

A LOOK AT THE PAST

The game of basketball was invented by Dr. James Naismith in 1891, and it took just seven years for it to be brought to George Fox College (then called Pacific College).

College board member and community leader T. W. Hester and others first saw the game played at the Portland YMCA. They were captivated by the new game and secured a ball, which they brought back to the College. The first exhibition game was played shortly thereafter, in the winter of 1898, and the first site was the third floor of the old Commercial Hotel on North Main Street because the College had no adequate space for the new sport.

The first gymnasium on the campus was the upper part of one wing of an old academy building (Hoover Hall), built in 1885 and torn down in the mid-1950s. A one-room wood gymnasium building was constructed in 1916 and served until 1946, when the College opened Hester Gymnasium, a concrete block structure built partly by student/faculty labor at a cost of $40,000. The building, with a single hemlock playing floor and seating for 1,100, served through the 1976-77 season with opening of Wheeler Center.

College athletic affiliation in men's basketball over those years has gone from independent status to membership in the old Willamette Christian College Conference, the Metropolitan Conference, the Oregon Collegiate Conference, and back again to the present status as a major small college independent member of NAIA District 2 (joined in 1965). In 1973 George Fox was the district champion and has been in the district playoffs 14 of the last 18 years.

THE BRUIN CLUB

Teamwork! That's what it takes for a winning sports program. And that's the reason for the formation of the George Fox College Bruin Club.

The goals of this GFC "team" are several and the benefits are many—to student athletes, to the College, and you! This team supports athletic excellence by an investment in the lives of talented young people who represent GFC with sports excellence.

Members include former GFC athletes, alumni, parents, relatives, friends, and community residents. Here's your opportunity to join with them and become a GFC Bruin. For membership information contact any GFC coach or the George Fox College Development Office.
