ABOUT THE TEAM

After finishing in the middle of the pack the last four seasons, George Fox's volleyball squad is eager to move up the ranks.

As players see it, this season is all about consistency and effort — something senior middle hitter, Tiffany Burk, and the team have made two of their top priorities.

On a team of 16 players, seven are newcomers. Coach Steve Grant's three returning seniors give George Fox a significant bump when it comes to being competitive. Burk, along with fellow seniors Erin Campbell (outside hitter) and Kylee Adderson (middle hitter), add an element of experience that will be invaluable on a team with so many new faces. Burk led the squad in total blocks last year with 85, while Campbell topped the Bruins in kills at 288. Junior setter Payton Shrum led in assists with 795.
