2011 COACHES

MARTY HUNTER
Head Coach

Marty Hunter, the 2009 Northwest Conference Co-Coach of the Year, has kept alive the tradition of excellence set by George Fox Sports Hall of Fame coaches Pat Casey and Pat Bailey by leading the nationally-recognized Bruins' baseball program to a 87-41 mark in his first three seasons as head coach.

In Hunter's inaugural season in 2007, the Bruins posted a 28-14 record, went 24-8 in the NWC, finished second to Linfield by a game, and earned an at-large bid to the NCAA Division III West Regional in Abilene, Texas. In 2008, the Bruins went 36-11, their second-most wins in a season ever, and defeated Pacific Lutheran in a one-game playoff after both teams went 27-5 to earn the NWC's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament. In the West Regional in McMinnville, Ore., the Bruins battled back from an opening-round loss to the title game before Chapman eliminated the Bruins. Last year, the Bruins posted their 15th straight winning season with a 23-16 record, finishing third in the conference at 16-8.

Hunter first came to George Fox as an assistant baseball coach in 2003, and was named the Bruins' associate head coach in 2005. In the summer of 2007, he was named to replace Bailey, whose 12-year run with the Bruins included an NCAA Division III national title in 2004 and eight NWC championships, who left for an assistant's position at Oregon State.

Prior to joining the George Fox staff, Hunter led Canby (Ore.) High School to a 132-63 record from 1995-2002, with six state Class 4A playoff appearances, and Pacific-9 Conference titles in 1997, 1998, and 2002. He was the Pac-9 Coach of the Year in '97, '98, '01, and '02. He also coached Bend (Ore.) High School from 1991-94, going 68-40, winning Intermountain Conference titles in 1991 and 1992, and being named Coach of the Year in the league both seasons. In 1990, he served as an assistant coach with the Bend Bucks, a team in the professional Class A Northwest League.

A graduate of Gresham (Ore.) High School, Hunter attended Linfield College, where he received two letters as a football cornerback and three as a second baseman and catcher on the baseball team. He earned both dual business and health degrees from Linfield in 1984, and completed a master of education degree from Linfield in 1991.

Hunter also serves as an instructor in the George Fox department of health and human performance. He and his wife of 24 years, Kim, have two sons: Taylor, 20, an All-Conference performer for the Bruins as a sophomore last year before transferring to Oregon State, and Tucker, 17. The Hunters reside in Canby.
