3/16 – ALL-REGION: Bruins' Leith Earns Third Team All-West Region Honors

NEWBERG, Ore. – Adding yet another award to her impressive list of honors, George Fox University's Kim Leith has been named to the 2005-06 D3hoops.com NCAA Division III All-West Region Third Team for women's basketball as chosen by the region's sports information directors via the D3hoops.com web site.

Leith, a senior wing from Sherwood, Ore., capped off an outstanding four-year career with another fine season. While leading the team in scoring (13.8 ppg), she ranked 6th in the NWC in that category, as well as being 3rd in three point field goals (2.12) and free throw percentage (.829), 8th in three-point percentage (.344), 9th in steals (1.72), and 14th in assists (2.12). A pre-season Third Team All-America choice by D3hoops.com, she earned All-Tournament honors in the D3 Hoop in Hawaii Classic early in the season. Her play was instrumental in the Bruins' 19-6 season, the 13th straight winning record for the team, and 10-6 league mark that earned them a tie for third place with Whitman College. During the season, the Bruins tied school records for most consecutive wins (11) and most wins at the start of a season (11).

As a junior, Leith was the 2004-05 Northwest Conference Player of the Year in leading the Bruins to a 22-6 record and the "Elite 8" round of the NCAA Division III National Tournament. She received Second Team All-West Region honors and was an honorable mention All-American as chosen by D3hoops.com.

Leith finished her career 4th on the all-time GFU scoring list with 1,348 points and 7th in assists with 235. She is the all-time leader in three-pointers with 205, and edged Christy Brock for the all-time free throw percentage lead, making 210-259 for a .8108 mark to .8105 for Brock.

This is the fifth year for D3hoops.com to select All-Region teams. A total of 599 players were nominated nationwide by the sports information directors at the various schools. The ballot was then made available to SIDs, who voted for 10 players in their region, six frontcourt players and four backcourt players.

"We are thankful to the sports information directors across Division III who took the time to nominate and vote to provide broader recognition to these worthy student-athletes," said D3hoops.com publisher Pat Coleman. "Their continued help and participation is integral to the All-Region team and everything else we do."

The entire list of All-Region players, along with each region's Player of the Year and Coach of the Year, is available online at <http://www.d3hoops.com/all-region/>.

2/23 – ALL-NWC: Trio of Bruin Cagers Garner All-Northwest Conference Recognition

NEWBERG, Ore. – Three members of the George Fox University women's basketball team have received 2005-06 All-Northwest Conference recognition as wing Kim Leith was named to the First Team, wing Robin Taylor to the Second Team, and post Katy Campbell received honorable mention.

The three were instrumental in the Bruins' 19-6 season, the 13th straight winning record for the team, and 10-6 league mark that earned them a tie for third place with Whitman College. During the season, the Bruins tied school records for most consecutive wins (11) and most wins at the start of a season (11).

Leith, a senior from Sherwood, Ore., capped off her outstanding four-year career with another fine season. While leading the team in scoring (13.8 ppg), she ranked 6th in the NWC in that category, as well as being 3rd in three point field goals (2.12) and free throw percentage (.829), 8th in three-point percentage (.344), 9th in steals (1.72), and 15th in assists (2.12). A pre-season Third Team All-America choice by D3hoops.com, she earned All-Tournament honors in the D3 Hoop in Hawaii Classic early in the season.

Leith finished her career 4th on the all-time GFU scoring list with 1,348 points and 7th in assists with 235. She is the all-time leader in three-pointers with 205, and edged Christy Brock for the all-time free throw percentage lead, making 210-259 for a .8108 mark to .8105 for Brock. She was the 2004-05 Northwest Conference Player of the Year in leading the Bruins to a 22-6 record and the "Elite 8" round of the NCAA Division III National Tournament.

Taylor, a junior from Bend, Ore., was 2nd on the team in scoring and 8th in the conference at 13.2 points per game. She was the league leader in field goal percentage (.525) while ranking 4th in three-point field goal percentage (.429), 5th in three-pointers (1.56) and free throw percentage (.784), 7th in assists (2.72), and 11th in steals (1.68). She was named the Most Valuable Player in the D3 Hoops in Hawaii Classic and received Northwest Conference Player of the Week honors for Nov. 21-27.

Campbell, a sophomore from Springfield, Ore., led the Bruins in rebounds per game (6.4) while ranking 7th in the conference. She was also 11th in field goal percentage (.461), 15th in steals (1.48), and 23rd in scoring (8.6). She recorded her first career double-doubles with 13 points and 11 rebounds at Lewis & Clark, and 12 points and 10 rebounds at Whitman.

2/18 – GEORGE FOX 92, WILLAMETTE 48: Hot-Shooting Guards Guide Bruins by Bearcats in Season Finale

NEWBERG, Ore. – Guards Robin Taylor and Tiffany Behary shot 85% from the field and combined for 43 points as the George Fox University Bruins cruised past the Willamette University Bearcats 92-48 in the Northwest Conference women's basketball season finale for both teams Saturday night here at the Wheeler Sports Center's Miller Gym.

The game was never in doubt after Behary broke a 2-2 tie with a three-point basket that ignited a 17-0 run, giving the Bruins a 19-2 lead six minutes into the game. The Bruins took a 31-point lead with 2:01 left in the half on a pair of free throws by Melissa Marek-Farris, who scored 10 in the period, making it 43-12. Shooting 50% in the half (15-30) while holding Willamette to 20% (6-30), George Fox led 44-16 at the break.

The Bruins turned up the heat even more in the second half, blistering the nets at a 67.9% clip (19-28). The final score, a 44-point difference, was the largest margin of the game.

Taylor led all scorers with 23 points, sinking 9-11 from the field, while Behary had 20 points on 8-9 shooting. Marek-Farris added 12 points on 5-5 shooting, and Kim Leith scored 11, finishing her Bruin career with 1,348 points, 4th on the all-time scoring list. Erin Powers, like Leith playing her final game for the Bruins, grabbed a game-high 8 rebounds as the Bruins controlled the boards 40-27. Behary also had 7 assists and 5 steals.

Sara Brooks and Rebekah Wells had 10 points apiece to pace the Bearcats. Kari Woody had 5 rebounds, and Brooks passed out 4 assists.

George Fox finishes with a 19-6 overall record, its 13th straight winning season, and a 10-6 league mark, tying Whitman College for 3rd in the standings. Whitman gets the final NWC Tournament spot, however, by virtue of its 1-1 record against 2nd-place University of Puget Sound. Willamette ends the year 5-19 overall and in 9th place in the conference at 0-16.

COMING UP:

The Bruins control their own fate. Entering the final weekend, the Bruins are 9-5 in the Northwest Conference, half a game ahead of Whitman (9-6) and a game ahead of Lewis & Clark (8-6) for 3rd place and the final NWC Tournament berth. The Bruins are guaranteed 3rd if they sweep at Pacific Lutheran Friday and vs. Willamette at home on Saturday. There are several possible scenarios and tiebreakers in case of a tie for 3rd – but some of them are also contingent on who finishes 1st, where PLU currently has a one-game lead on Puget Sound. Stay tuned.

* Fri., Feb. 17, 6:00 pm – at Pacific Lutheran University Lutes (19-3, 12-2), Tacoma, Wash.

Radio broadcast/webcast on KFOX radio ... NWC doubleheader (men's game at 8 p.m.) ... Series record: GFU trails 13-14 since 1982 (9-5 home, 4-9 road) ... The Lutes won this year's first meeting 85-84 in overtime on Jan. 20 in Newberg when Kezia Long sank a short jumper with 1.2 seconds left ... The Bruins' last win over PLU was 60-59 in Tacoma on Feb. 19 last year ... PLU, 1st in the NWC by a game over Puget Sound, is ranked 16th in the WBCA poll, 18th in the D3hoops.com poll, and 1st in the West Region ... The Lutes are 24th nationally in field goal pct. defense (.331), 26th in field goal pct. (.445), 30th in defense (53.0), 38th in 3-pt field goal pct. (.353), and 39th in scoring margin (+13.09) ... PLU leads the NWC in defense (53.0), field goal pct. defense (.331), and rebounding (42.6) ... The Lutes have three double-figure scorers: Kelly Turner (14.2, 3rd in the NWC), Nikki Johnson (13.4, 5th), and Kezia Long (12.1, 14th) ... Long leads the NWC in rebounding (9.7) and blocked shots (1.68) ... Turner is the NWC leader and is 4th nationally in free throw pct. (.900), and is 18th nationally in 3-pt field goal pct. (.432) ... Mallory Mann leads the NWC and is 3rd nationally in assists (7.0) ... Next game for PLU after the Bruins is Feb. 18 vs. Lewis & Clark at 6 p.m. in Tacoma ...

* Sat., Feb. 18, 6:00 pm – vs. Willamette University Bearcats (5-17, 0-14), Newberg, Ore.

Radio broadcast/webcast on KFOX radio ... NWC doubleheader (men's game at 8 p.m.) ... Final game of the regular season for both teams ... Series record: GFU leads 38-12 since 1982 (22-3 home, 15-9 road, 1-0 neutral) ... The Bruins have won the last 7 meetings, including this year's 76-48 win in Salem on Jan. 21 in which five Bruins scored in double figures ... The Bearcats' last win in the series was 53-51 in Salem on Feb. 9, 2002 ... Willamette is last in the NWC in both scoring (51.6) and defense (68.0) ... Laura Payne is the only Bearcat in double figures in scoring (10.9, 16th in the NWC) ... Brittany Farrer is the top rebounder (5.6, 10th) ... The Bearcats visit Puget Sound Friday before meeting the Bruins ...

COACH SCOTT RUECK:

Scott Rueck (Oregon State '91) is 183-72 (.718) to date in his 10th season as a college head coach, all at George Fox. He was named Northwest Conference Coach of the Year for the third time in 2004-05 after leading the Bruins to the NWC title and the "Elite 8" of the NCAA National Tournament. He was also NWC Coach of the Year in 1999-2000 and Co-Coach of the Year in 2000-01.

GEORGE FOX UNIVERSITY

SPORTS RELEASE: WOMEN'S BASKETBALL – Friday, February 10, 2006

2/10 – GEORGE FOX 77, LEWIS & CLARK 61: Bruins Use Early Hot Hand to Sink Pios and Stay Third in NWC

NEWBERG, Ore. – With third place in the Northwest Conference standings on the line, the George Fox University Bruins connected on 65% of their shots and 77% from three-point range in the first half to build up a big lead en route to a 77-61 win over the Lewis & Clark College Pioneers in a women's basketball contest Friday night here at the Wheeler Sports Center's Miller Gym.

In improving to 18-5 overall and 9-5 in the conference, the Bruins assured themselves of staying a half-step ahead of the other contenders in the league for the third and final spot in the NWC Tournament. Entering the evening, the Bruins were a half-game up on Lewis & Clark, Whitworth College, and Whitman College. Lewis & Clark dropped a game-and-a-half behind George Fox in falling to 11-10 overall and 7-6 in the league.

Allison Farr's jumper gave Lewis & Clark its only lead of the game at 4-2 with 16:26 left in the first period, a lead that lasted only 14 seconds. Katy Campbell's layup knotted the score and Tiffany Behary gave the Bruins the lead for good with a three-pointer with 15:40 left. Tiffany Schmidt's three put the Bruins up by 21 at 39-18 with 3:44 left before they settled for a 43-24 halftime lead.

Campbell was 6-6 from the field in scoring 13 points and Behary had 10 with 7 assists as the Bruins hit 17-26 from the floor and 7-9 from outside the arc in the first half. Crystal Castle and Farr had 10 apiece for the Pioneers.

The Bruins outscored the Pios 14-2 to start the second half, extending their lead to 31 at 57-26 on a Campbell free throw with 14:58 to play. With Schmidt and starting wing Robin Taylor going out around that time with minor injuries after taking tumbles, the Pios took advantage to mount a comeback. A 29-5 charge over the next 11 minutes, capped by a Castle jumper, brought the Pios within seven at 62-55 with 4:01 to play. Taylor, reinserted into the lineup, slowed the run with a layup, fueling a 9-0 George Fox outburst over a two-minute span that gave them a 71-55 lead with 1:40 to go and secured the win.

Campbell finished with 19 points to lead the Bruins, hitting 7-10 from the field, Behary had 13 with 8 assists, and Erin Powers scored 12. Taylor had a team-high 7 rebounds. The Bruins ended the game hitting 55.8% (29-52) from the floor, including 60.0% (9-15) from three-point range.

Castle posted a double-double with game highs of 20 points and 16 rebounds for the Pioneers, while Farr added 15 points. Kimberly Kittell handed out 8 assists. The Pioneers struggled offensively in every category, making only 35.1% (24-70) from the field, 23.1% (6-26) from long range, and 46.7% (7-15) from the free throw line, but did hold a slight 40-39 rebound edge.

The Bruins are off until next Friday when they visit NWC co-leader Pacific Lutheran University for a 6 p.m. game. The Pioneers visit Pacific University Saturday, also at 6 p.m. Both games will be followed by men's NWC games at 8 p.m.

2/7 – GEORGE FOX 54, LINFIELD 53: Bruins Hold Off Upset-Minded Wildcats to Remain in NWC Race

NEWBERG, Ore. – What a difference a month makes.

When last the George Fox University Bruins and Linfield College Wildcats squared off back on Jan. 10 in McMinnville, the visiting Bruins coasted to the largest victory ever between the two, 75-43. Tuesday night here at GFU's Miller Gym in the Wheeler Sports Center, the Bruins won again over their Yamhill County rivals, but had to hang on for dear life in a 54-53 Northwest Conference women's basketball squeaker.

Linfield opened the game with baskets by Porcia Jackson and Jessica Hanato for a 4-0 lead, but the Bruins responded with consecutive three-point goals by Robin Taylor and Tiffany Behary twice for a 9-4 lead. The Bruins never trailed again, but the stubborn Wildcats stayed with them the rest of the way.

With the Bruins holding a slim 25-24 lead late in the half, Tiffany Schmidt nailed three straight treys from the right corner in the space of 47 seconds, then hit two free throws to give the Bruins their largest lead of 12 points at 36-24 with 4:21 to go. A layup by the Wildcats' Mary Findlay cut the gap to 40-33 at the intermission.

Taylor canned a three to open the second half for a 43-33 George Fox lead, but the Bruin offense went cold from that point on, hitting only 21.1% (4-19) in the half and scoring only 14 second-half points. The Wildcats went on a 9-0 run, capped by a jumper and a three by Ashley Covey, narrowing the margin to 43-42 with 15:58 to go, and remained within five points the rest of the way, cutting the Bruin lead to one on three more occasions, but could never take the lead.

Erin Powers' jumper with 4:06 left was the last score for the Bruins, giving them a 54-51 lead. The Wildcats then committed two turnovers and missed three shots in the time remaining, getting a layup from Bayley Coblentz to make it 54-53 with 1:36 left for their only score. The Bruins missed a shot with nine second left as the shot clock was about to expire, giving the Wildcats one last chance for the upset, but Jackson's jumper in the key was short and Taylor grabbed the rebound as time expired.

Schmidt paced the Bruins with 15 points, all in the first half, and 8 rebounds, while Kim Leith chipped in with 13 points. Behary had 6 assists. The Bruins connected on 10-21 from three-point range, with Behary and Schmidt hitting 3 each.

Hanato and Coblentz topped the Wildcats with 12 points apiece, while Jackson grabbed 8 rebounds in leading Linfield to a 40-30 advantage on the boards. Casey Stepan had 5 assists. The Wildcats, who hit 50.0% (13-26) in the first half, were held to 27.6% (8-29) in the second.

George Fox improved to 17-5 overall and 8-5 in the conference, guaranteeing themselves at least a share of third place in the standings in the battle for the third and final NWC playoff spot. The Bruins entered the evening in a four-way tie for third with Whitworth College, Whitman College, and Lewis & Clark College. Linfield fell to 11-11 overall and 5-8 in the league.

The Bruins host Lewis & Clark Friday while the Wildcats host Willamette University Saturday. Both games are at 6 p.m., followed by NWC men's games at 8 p.m.

2/4 – GEORGE FOX 74, PACIFIC 65: Bruins Get Back on the Beam with Homecoming Win over Boxers

NEWBERG, Ore. – Overcoming a 38-point, 18-rebound performance by league-leading scorer DeeDee Arnall, the George Fox University Bruins built up as much as a 26-point lead and snapped a three-game losing streak with a 74-65 win over the Pacific University Boxers in a Northwest Conference women's basketball game Saturday night here at the Wheeler Sports Center's Miller Gym.

Arnall, a post player, hit a three-pointer that gave Pacific an early 8-3 lead, but the Bruins reeled off the next 9 unanswered points to take a 12-8 lead with 16:10 left in the first half and never trailed again. Led by Robin Taylor's 13 first-half points, the Bruins took a 20-point lead into the half, 46-26. Arnall had 12 to pace the Boxers, who were held to a 25.0 shooting percentage (8-32) in the period.

An 8-2 start to the second half raised the George Fox lead to 26 points at 54-28 with 16:21 to play before the Boxers fought back. With Arnall scoring 14 points, the Boxers went on a 20-2 run over the next eight minutes to cut the Bruin lead to 8 points at 56-48. Kim Leith made a three-point play for the Bruins to slow the run, and Taylor canned a three-point basket to get the lead back to 16 at 66-50 with 5:43 left. An 11-2 run by the Boxers narrowed the margin to 7 at 68-61 with 2:50 to play, but Bruin baskets by Katy Campbell and Tiffany Behary and two free throws by Leith kept the visitors from getting any closer.

Taylor finished with 21 points to lead the Bruins and Leith added 10, while Erin Powers and Behary passed out 4 assists each. Campbell and Powers grabbed 12 rebounds apiece, leading the Bruins to a 50-49 edge on the boards. The Bruins shot 35.2% (25-71) from the field, while the defense made 12 steals and forced 20 Pacific turnovers.

Arnall's 38 points moved her past Chris Tarabochia, who had 1,512 points from 1982-86, into second on the all-time Pacific scoring list with 1,548. She was 12-27 from the field and 13-16 from the line. Amy Pederson added 12 points for the Boxers, who shot 29.2% (19-65) from the floor. Shana Rietmann had 3 assists.

George Fox improved to 16-5 overall and 7-5 in the conference, with Pacific dipping to 6-15 overall and 1-11 in the league. The Bruins host Linfield College Tuesday at 6 p.m., while the Boxers play at Willamette University Friday at 6 p.m. Both games will be followed by men's NWC games at 8 p.m.

SPORTS RELEASE: WOMEN'S BASKETBALL – Friday, February 3, 2006

2/3 – PUGET SOUND 59, GEORGE FOX 44: Loggers Defeat Slumping Bruins to Maintain Share of NWC Lead

NEWBERG, Ore. – In a defensive battle in which both teams struggled all night to find their shooting touch, the University of Puget Sound Loggers hung on long enough to down the slumping George Fox University Bruins 59-44 in a Northwest Conference women's basketball game Friday night here at the Wheeler Sports Center's Miller Gym.

Both teams missed their first three shots before Sarah Carnahan's three-pointer put Puget Sound on the scoreboard, and the Loggers maintained a slim lead for most of the half. George Fox went ahead for the first time at 13-12 on a jumper by Tiffany Schmidt with 8:49 to play, and a layup by Kim Leith boosted the margin to 18-15 with 6:46 left. The Loggers regained the lead for good 24-22 on pair of free throws by Karen Chase with 2:43 to go, and the Loggers led 28-24 at the break.

A seven-minute scoreless drought struck the Bruins to open the second half, during which they missed nine shots while the Loggers were building a 36-24 lead. The Bruins finally got on the board in the half on Robin Taylor's two free throws with 12:54 to play, and Katy Campbell's jumper with 10:33 left gave the Bruins their first basket in over 12 minutes, cutting the deficit to 36-28. It was as close as the Bruins would get, however. Despite holding UPS to only 25% shooting (7-28) in the half, the Bruins did exactly the same thing, and could never close the gap.

For the game, George Fox shot 27.8% (15-54), and were even more futile from three-point range, hitting only 14.3% (3-21). Puget Sound was not much better, making 32.7% (18-55) on all their shots and 34.8% (8-23) from beyond the arc.

Leith led the Bruins with 11 points and Kaleigha Ramey came off the bench to score 10. Schmidt just missed a double-double with 9 points and 9 rebounds. Ramey and Schmidt were a combined 8-11 from the field.

Carnahan did manage a double-double for the Loggers with game highs of 14 points and 10 rebounds, and nearly made it a triple-double with 8 assists. Chase and Laua Hirsh chipped in with 12 points each. Kilty Keaton, who had 31 points in the Loggers' 85-61 win over the Bruins in Tacoma earlier in the season, was held to only 7 points this time.

The Bruins dropped their third in a row in falling to 15-5 overall and 6-5 in the conference. The Loggers posted their 9th straight win to improve to 18-3 overall, and maintained at least a share of first place in the league at 10-2.

George Fox hosts Pacific University Saturday at 6 p.m. on Homecoming night, while Puget Sound is off until next Friday when they visit Whitworth College, also at 6 p.m. Both games will be followed by men's NWC contests at 8 p.m.

 National Polls: Bruins Tumble in Rankings after Pair of Setbacks

Back-to-back road losses at Whitworth and Whitman sent George Fox (15-4) tumbling in the national rankings. In the USA Today/ESPN/Women's Basketball Coaches Association poll of Jan. 31, the Bruins fell from 10th to 21st with 44 points. In the D3hoops.com poll, the Bruins dropped from 14th out of the top 25, but picked up 51 points to rank 2nd among "others receiving votes". Southern Maine (18-1) remained No. 1 in both polls. Pacific Lutheran (16-2 before Tuesday's loss to Puget Sound) is the only other Northwest Conference team ranked, 16th in the WBCA poll and 18th by D3hoops. Com. Puget Sound received 16 points, 7th among "others receiving votes" in the D3hoops.com poll.

GEORGE FOX UNIVERSITY

SPORTS RELEASE: WOMEN'S BASKETBALL – Saturday, January 28, 2006

1/28 – WHITMAN 62, GEORGE FOX 58: Missionaries Bump Bruins on Higgins' Four Freebies in Final Seconds

WALLA WALLA, Wash. – Megan Higgins sank four throws in the final 19 seconds, two that broke a tie and two that sealed the game, as the Whitman College Missionaries knocked off the George Fox University Bruins 62-58 in a Northwest Conference women's basketball game Saturday night here at the Sherwood Center.

The game was a nail-biter throughout, as neither team ever had a double-digit lead. Whitman held the advantage for most of the first half, three times going up by as many as seven. Kate Patneau's three-point basket gave the Missionaries a 28-21 lead with 1:15 left in the half, but the Bruins closed with an 8-2 rush, Robin Taylor's three-pointer at the buzzer cutting it to 30-29 Whitman at the break.

After the Missionaries took a 34-31 lead early in the second half on a pair of free throws by Lizzy Washburn, Tiffany Behary started a 9-0 run for the Bruins with a three-pointer and capped it with jumper for a 40-34 George Fox lead with 16:04 to play. They upped the lead to as much as eight on a free throw by Erin Powers for a 50-42 margin with 8:37 left before the Missionaries began a methodical comeback. A free throw by Washburn with 1:54 left produced a 56-56 tie, and after Powers put the Bruins back up with a pair of free throws, Higgins hit a jumper to make it 58-58 with 1:20 remaining.

The Bruins victimized themselves with three turnovers in the final minute that proved fatal. Laura Vertatschitsch gave the Bruins hope by missing two free throws after the first turnover, but the Missionaries capitalized on the other two. Patneau missed a three with 25 seconds left, but Higgins collared the offensive rebound, was fouled, and hit the winning charity tosses with 19 seconds to go. Her final two with 0:03 left iced the win after the third Bruin miscue of the final 65 seconds.

The Bruins were paced by a trio of 12-point scorers in Taylor, Behary, and Katy Campbell, the latter recording the first double-double of her career by hauling down a game-high 10 rebounds. Behary had 4 assists and made 3 steals. The Bruins shot well, connecting on 52.4% (22-42) from the field, including 45.5% (5-11) from three-point range, while holding the Missionaries to only 36.8% (21-57) and 35.3% (6-17) from beyond the arc. George Fox also owned the boards 35-28, but twice as many turnovers (24-12) were costly.

Higgins led the Missionaries with 13 points, Washburn and Patneau had 11, and Sarah Laird scored 10. Washburn had a team-high 8 rebounds and 4 steals, while Vertatschitsch passed out 4 assists.

George Fox, ranked 10th in the latest WBCA poll and 14th in the D3hoops.com poll, dropped its third game in the last four and fell to 15-4 overall and 6-4 in the conference, three game behind first-place Pacific Lutheran University. If the Bruins are to successfully defend their 2005 NWC crown, they will need to have a successful run through their final six games, five of which are at home, while getting help from others in their pursuit of PLU and second-place University of Puget Sound. Whitman is now 9-9 overall and 5-5 in the league.

The Bruins host Puget Sound Friday at 6 p.m. as Homecoming weekend gets under way at the university, while Whitman travels to Lewis & Clark College Friday at 6 p.m. Both will be followed by men's NWC contests at 8 p.m.

SPORTS RELEASE: WOMEN'S BASKETBALL – Friday, January 27, 2006

SPOKANE, Wash. — Pre-season All-American Kim Leith scored 29 points, 21 in the second half as the George Fox University Bruins staged a valiant but futile comeback attempt and dropped a 66-57 decision to the Whitworth College Pirates in a Northwest Conference women's basketball game Friday night here at the Whitworth Fieldhouse.

Emily Hendrickson scored 12 of her team-leading 19 points in the first half to help the Pirates open up a 15-point lead. Whitworth shot 50% (14-28) in the half and never trailed after a Hendrickson jumper gave the Pirates a 10-8 lead. Two Hendrickson free throws gave Whitworth a 37-22 lead with two minutes to play in the half, and the Bucs eventually went to the locker room with a 39-25 edge.

The Bruins made one final push, out-scoring the Pirates 7-2 to get within 60-55 with 30 seconds to play on a basket by Erin Powers. The Pirates' Holly Ridings was 6-6 from the line over the final 30 seconds, however, to secure the victory for Whitworth.

Hendrickson made 7-11 shots en route to her 19 points and grabbed a team-high 9 rebounds to lead Whitworth in both categories. Ridings was the only other double-figure scorer with 11 points.

George Fox continues its road swing through eastern Washington Saturday, taking on Whitman College at 6 p.m. in Walla Walla. Whitworth remains home to take on Linfield College, also at 6 p.m. Both games will be followed by men's NWC contests at 8 p.m.

SPORTS RELEASE: WOMEN'S BASKETBALL – Saturday, January 21, 2006

1/21 – GEORGE FOX 76, WILLAMETTE 48: Bruins Bounce Back to Batter Bearcats Behind Balanced Attack

SALEM, Ore. – Kim Leith led a balanced attack of five players in double figures with 16 points, 11 in a nine-minute span in the second half, as the George Fox University Bruins pulled away from the Willamette University Bearcats for a 76-48 victory in Northwest Conference women's basketball Saturday night here at Cone Field House.

Bouncing back quickly from Friday's gut-wrenching last-second overtime loss to Pacific Lutheran University, the Bruins scored the first six points of the game on baskets by Erin Powers, Robin Taylor, and Leith, and held a wire-to-wire lead for the seventh time this season. They took their first double-digit lead at 14-4 on a layup by Melissa Marek-Farris with 15:14 left in the first half, and stretched it to 15 at 23-8 on a three-pointer by Leith with 9:25 left. The Bearcats went on an 11-0 run at that point, Sara Brooks scoring eight with a pair of threes and Jennifer Bell hitting a trey, to cut the lead to four at 23-19 with 6:05 left, but the Bruins went on an 11-3 run to end the half up 34-22.

Leith's jumper put the Bruins ahead 38-22 early in the second half before the Bearcats made one final 8-0 run, getting within 38-30 on a pair of Brittany Farrer free throws with 16:11 to go. Leith broke the string with two free throws and scored 9 points in a five-minute stretch as the Bruins gradually pulled away. The final score was the Bruins' largest lead of the game as Mandee Spotts sank a fast-break layup at the buzzer.

Joining Leith in the scoring parade for the Bruins were Powers with 14, Katy Campbell and Marek-Farris with 11, and Kaleigha Ramey with 10. Campbell grabbed 9 rebounds as the Bruins controlled the boards 48-38. Marek-Farris blocked 4 shots, and the Bruin defense forced 24 turnovers while holding the Bearcats to a .274 shooting percentage (17-62).

Farrer scored 13 points to pace the Bearcats, including 9-12 from the free throw line, while Brooks added 11 and Bell 10. Brooks and Bell had 6 rebounds apiece.

George Fox, ranked 4th in both the USA Today/ESPN/WBCA and the D3hoops.com polls, improved to 15-2 overall and 6-2 in the conference, while Willamette tumbled to 5-11 overall and 0-8 in the league. The Bruins head to eastern Washington next weekend, playing at Whitworth College Friday, while the Bearcats remain home to take on Lewis & Clark College Tuesday. Both NWC games tip off at 6 p.m., followed by men's games at 8 p.m.

GEORGE FOX UNIVERSITY

SPORTS RELEASE: WOMEN'S BASKETBALL – Friday, January 20, 2006

1/20 – PACIFIC LUTHERAN 85, GEORGE FOX 84 (OT): Lutes Stun Bruins in Overtime in Clash of Ranked Teams

NEWBERG, Ore. – After battling back from 16 points down with six minutes left to force overtime, Kezia Long's short jumper from the left side of the key with 1.2 seconds left gave the Pacific Lutheran University Lutes a stunning 85-84 win over the George Fox University Bruins in a battle between nationally-ranked Northwest Conference women's basketball teams Friday night here at the Wheeler Sports Center's Miller Gym.

George Fox, ranked 4th in both the USA Today/ESPN/WBCA and the D3hoops.com polls, fell to 14-2 overall and 5-2 in the conference. Pacific Lutheran, 22nd in the WBCA poll and 25th in the D3hoops.com poll, won its 12th straight in improving to 14-1 overall and took a two-game lead in the conference standings over George Fox with its 7-0 league record.

The Lutes had rallied from a 72-56 deficit by sinking four three-pointers in the final three minutes. Kelly Turner, who was a PLU-record 8-14 from behind the arc in the game, sank her 7th with 18 seconds left to forge a 75-75 tie. The Bruins had a chance to win it in regulation when Tiffany Schmidt was fouled with 1.9 seconds left, but she missed both free throws to send it into an extra period.

Tiffany Behary's driving layup put the Bruins ahead to start the overtime before Turner hit her 8th three for a 78-77 PLU lead. Robin Taylor's rebound basket put the Bruins up 79-78, and Katy Campbell's three with 2:23 left gave the Bruins a four-point lead at 84-80. Mallory Mann's length-of-the-court layup and a free throw by Long cut it to one at 84-83 with 38 seconds left, and Long blocked a Campbell turnaround with 11 seconds left, giving the ball back to PLU. Mann again drove into the lane and dished off to Long, who sank the winning shot and left the Bruins with too little time to get off a final shot.

In the first half, PLU used a hot hand from three-point range and strong offensive rebounding to hold the lead for most of the first 10 minutes of the game. With Turner hitting three long-range bombs and Long grabbing four off the offensive glass, the Lutes took five-point leads three times, the last at 14-9 on a trey by Turner with 15:52 left in the half. The Bruins tied the game five times before a Kim Leith three put the home team ahead 30-27 with 8:05 to go. The Bruins out-scored the Lutes 20-6 in the final eight minutes to take a 47-33 halftime lead.

After the Bruins built a 16-point lead at 56-40 on a basket by Melissa Marek-Farris with 16:19 to play in the second half, an 11-0 burst enabled the Lutes to cut the lead to five at 56-51 with 13:45 to go. A jumper by Taylor halted the streak and ignited a 16-5 Bruin spurt that gave the home team a 72-56 lead with 5:51 left, setting up the Lutes' final rally.

Taylor and Schmidt each scored 20 points to lead the Bruins, the latter posting a career high, while Campbell had 15 and Erin Powers 12. Campbell had a team-high 7 rebounds and Behary passed out 7 assists for the Bruins, who had a good shooting night, sinking 53.0% (35-66).

Turner led all scorers with 26 points, Long added 25 on 11-13 from the field, and Nikki Johnson scored 12. Long and Johnson each had double-doubles by grabbing 12 and 10 rebounds respectively. Mann passed off 16 assists, shattering the PLU record and tying for the single-season high in the nation in Division III this year. The Lutes shot 49.3% (33-67) for the game, including 11-26 from three-point range.

Both teams play on the road Saturday, the Bruins going to Salem to play Willamette University while the Lutes visit Lewis & Clark College in Portland. Tipoff for each game is at 6 p.m., followed by men's NWC games at 8 p.m.

1/13 – GEORGE FOX 63, LEWIS & CLARK 46: Bruins Overcome Sluggish Shooting Start to Overpower Pios

PORTLAND, Ore. – A 14-0 run over the last seven minutes of the first half enabled the George Fox University Bruins to break a 14-all tie, and the Bruins rolled through the second half for a 63-46 victory over the Lewis & Clark College Pioneers in a Northwest Conference women's basketball game Friday night here at the Pamplin Sports Center.

Both teams struggled to put the ball in the hole in the first half, the Pios hitting 22.7% (5-22) and the Bruins not much better at 26.5% (9-34), a factor that kept the game close in the early stages. There were five ties in the first 13 minutes, the last at 14-14 when the Pios' Sarah Moon hit a pair of free throws with 7:01 to play. Erin Powers, who led all scorers in the half with 9 points, broke the tie for the Bruins with a pair of charity tosses at 6:09, and the Bruins added three more baskets and six free throws to take a 28-14 halftime lead.

Katy Campbell hit a pair of free throws to start the second half for the Bruins, giving them 16 unanswered points, before Crystal Castle snapped the string with a short jumper, the Pios' first points in over eight minutes. The Bruins maintained a double-digit lead throughout the remainder of the game, however, taking its largest lead of 19 points at 43-24 on a Kim Leith three-pointer with 10:31 to play. The Bruins also hit the 19-point margin twice in the final two minutes. The shooting percentages for both teams improved dramatically in the second half, the Bruins to 48.0% (12-25) and the Pios to 52.0% (13-25).

Campbell led the Bruins by posting her first career double-double with 13 points and 11 rebounds, and also passed out 5 assists. Powers added 13 points and Leith 10. The Bruin defense picked up 14 steals and forced 26 turnovers.

Allison Farr led all scorers with 16 points, 12 in the second half, and paced the Pios to a 38-35 advantage on the boards with 7 rebounds. Moon added 10 points and handed out 4 assists. The Pioneers were 0-11 from three-point range.

George Fox, ranked 5th in the USA Today/ESPN/WBCA Division III coaches' poll and 6th in the D3hoops.com poll, won its third straight and defeated the Pioneers for the 23rd straight time while improving to 14-1 overall and 5-1 in the conference. Lewis & Clark fell to 6-7 overall and 2-3 in the league.

The Bruins are off for a week, hosting Pacific Lutheran University next Friday at 6 p.m. in a game that could be for first place in the conference. The Pioneers host Pacific University Saturday at 6 p.m. Both games will be followed by NWC men's games at 8 p.m.

BRUIN BITS:

- * Taylor HM for NWC Player of the Week for Jan. 2-8

Junior wing Robin Taylor had a red-hot shooting week for the Bruins, receiving honorable mention for Northwest Conference Player of the Week for Jan. 2-8. In a 74-73 win at Biola, she had 16 points on 6-11 from the field (3-6 on threes) and 1-2 from the line, with 6 rebounds, 6 assists and a steal. In an 85-61 setback at Puget Sound, she had 15 points on 6-8 from the field (2-3 on threes) and 1-1 from the line, with 2 rebounds. In a 69-50 win at Pacific, she tallied 14 points on 5-10 shooting (0-2 on threes) and 4-4 from the line, with 3 rebounds, 3 assists, and 3 steals. For the week, she totaled 45 points (15.0 ppg) on 17-29 (.586) from the field, including 5-11 (.455) from three-point range, and 6-7 (.857) from the line, with 11 rebounds, 9 assists, and 4 steals. She was NWC Player of the Week for Nov. 21-27 after being named MVP of the D3 in Hawaii Hoops Classic tournament.

- * 2005-06 Honors:

--- Kim Leith - D3hoops.com NCAA Division III Pre-Season Third Team All-America; D3 in Hawaii Hoops Classic All-Tournament Team

--- Robin Taylor - D3 in Hawaii Hoops Classic MVP; Northwest Conference Player of the Week (Nov. 21-27)

- * Double-Doubles

Tiffany Schmidt: Season 1, career 1 – Dec. 17 (11 pts/10 reb)

- * National Polls: Bruins Drop but Not Very Far

A sizzling night from the field by Puget Sound (59.6%) ended the Bruins' 11-game winning streak on Jan. 6 and possibly prevented them from moving into the top spot in the WBCA poll after Washington (Mo.) had lost earlier in the week, but the Bruins bounced back with decisive victories over Pacific and Linfield, preventing George Fox from falling very far in the national rankings.

In the USA Today/ESPN/Women's Basketball Coaches Association poll of Jan. 10, George Fox received 167 points and slipped from 2nd to 5th. Washington University of Missouri (11-1) fell out of the top spot to 3rd and was replaced by the University of Southern Maine (12-1).

In the D3hoops.com poll of Jan. 10, the Bruins fell from 4th to 6th with 456 points. Southern Maine stayed No. 1 with 601 points.

Complete polls: USA Today/ESPN/WBCA Poll / D3hoops.com Poll / NCAA Division III Regional Rankings

 Bruins Tie Record with 11 Straight Wins

George Fox's bid for a school-record 12th straight win was trumped by Puget Sound in Tacoma on Jan. 6 as the Loggers scorched the nets for a 59.6 shooting percentage in an 85-61 win. The Bruins thus ended up with the third 11-game winning streak in their history, this one running from Nov. 18-Jan. 2. The 2000-01 team won 11 in a row from Jan. 5-Feb. 10, and the 2001-02 team opened the season with 11 straight wins from Nov. 17-Jan. 2.

 Leith and Schmidt Post Record-Threatening Numbers at Linfield

Kim Leith and Tiffany Schmidt nearly put themselves in the record books with their performances in the Bruins' 75-43 win at Linfield on Jan. 10. Leith had 6 three-point field goals in 7 attempts while scoring her game-high 26 points, one goal short of the single-game record of 7 by Christy Brock vs. Whitman (Jan. 8, 1999). Schmidt posted 6 blocked shots, a number exceeded only four other times in Bruin history, three times by Shawna Chandler, who holds the record with 10 vs. Western Oregon (Jan. 11, 1983). Chandler also had 8 blocks vs. Concordia (Jan. 13, 1984) and 7 vs. Western Oregon (Dec. 12, 1984), and Tammy Lewis had 8 vs. Pacific (Feb. 23, 1989).

 Record-Setting Margins in Bruins' Games vs. Puget Sound and Linfield

The Bruins' 32-point margin of victory in their 75-43 win at Linfield on Jan. 10 was the most lop-sided score in the 55 games played between the Yamhill County rivals. The previous mark was 31 points in a 75-44 win by the Bruins in Newberg on Feb. 17, 1996 ... "Turnabout is fair play" could have been the story of the Bruins' 85-61 loss to Puget Sound in Tacoma on Jan. 6. Last year, the Bruins pinned the Loggers with a 22-point setback, 67-45 in Tacoma on Feb. 18, the widest margin of victory in any game played between the two. The Loggers eclipsed that this time around with their 24-point win in their 22nd meeting.

 Career Lists: Leith Climbs to 6th in All-Time Points

Kim Leith scored 61 points in the Bruins' last three games, giving her 1,219 for her career and moving her past Liz Stephens (1,197, 1992-96) into 6th on the all-time scoring list. In 5th is Susie Davis (1,274, 1983-87) ... She was 11-19 on 3-pointers and ranks 5th in career 3-point pct. (.363, 189-520) ... She was 10-12 on free throws and is 2nd in career free throw pct. (.804, 181-225) to Christy Brock (.811, 77-95, 1998-99) ... She had 5 assists and now has 213, 9th all-time. Ahead are Liz Clark (218, 2001-05) and Melinda Day (220, 1981-85) ...

GEORGE FOX UNIVERSITY

SPORTS RELEASE: WOMEN'S BASKETBALL – Tuesday, January 10, 2006

1/10 – GEORGE FOX 75, LINFIELD 43: Leith Pours in 26 Points as Bruins Decisively Down Wildcats

McMINNVILLE, Ore. – Kim Leith sank six three-point field goals, one short of the school record, and poured in 26 points, leading the George Fox University Bruins to a decisive 75-43 win over the Linfield College Wildcats and into sole possession of second place in the Northwest Conference women's basketball race Tuesday night here at Ted Wilson Gym.

A three by Robin Taylor, a steal and layup by Taylor, and Leith's first trey of the game got the Bruins off to an 8-0 lead, and the Bruins led all the way for the sixth time this season. Leith made a rare four-point play, getting fouled while making a three and hitting the follow-up free throw, for a 21-10 lead that gave the Bruins a double-digit lead that they maintained the remainder of the game. Leith scored 16 first-half points, hitting 5-6 from the field and 5-5 from long range, and Taylor added 11 as the Bruins took a 43-21 lead into the half.

The Bruins were even stingier in the second half, opening the period with a 10-2 run and holding the Wildcats to only four points for almost 13 minutes. Leith made her sixth three to make it 59-27 with 12:36 left, then hit a short jumper in the lane and a layup after a steal for a 64-27 lead with 10 minutes left before coming out. Jordan Wilde's free throw gave the Bruins their largest lead of 38 points at 65-27 with 7:55 to go before the Wildcats made a belated 18-10 run to end the game.

In addition to Leith's big game, Taylor finished with 20 points and Katy Campbell had 12, while Tiffany Behary passed out 9 assists, a career high. Tiffany Schmidt and Wilde had 8 rebounds apiece, and Schmidt blocked 6 shots. The Bruins wound up shooting 50.0% from the field (25-50), including a sizzling 62.3% (12-19) from three-point range.

The Wildcats had no one in double figures, Porcia Jackson leading the team with 8 points. She also had 7 rebounds as the Wildcats held a 45-43 edge on the boards, including 25 offensive rebounds. The home team couldn't put their extra shots in the hole, however, shooting 26.6% (17-64) for the game.

Ball control was a sore spot for both teams as the Bruins made 29 turnovers and Linfield coughed it up 33 times. Both also had their troubles at the line, George Fox hitting 50.0% (13-26) but Linfield really struggling at 33.3% (6-18).

George Fox, ranked 5th in the latest USA Today/ESPN/WBCA Division III coaches' poll and 6th in the D3hoops.com poll, improved to 13-1 overall and 4-1 in the conference, trailing only 4-0 Pacific Lutheran University. Linfield dropped to 9-5 overall and 3-2 in the league.

The Bruins visit Lewis & Clark College Friday while the Wildcats go to Willamette University Saturday for their next conference matchups. Both games are at 6 p.m., followed by NWC men's games at 8 p.m.

GEORGE FOX UNIVERSITY

SPORTS RELEASE: WOMEN'S BASKETBALL – Saturday, January 7, 2006

1/7 – GEORGE FOX 69, PACIFIC 50: Bruins Overcome Boxers with Second-Half Shooting Surge

FOREST GROVE, Ore. – More than doubling their shooting percentage in the second half after a horrendous first half, the George Fox University Bruins surged past the Pacific University Boxers for a 69-50 victory in a Northwest Conference women's basketball game Saturday night here at the Pacific Athletic Center.

One night after their 11-game winning streak was snapped at the University of Puget Sound, the Bruins got back into the win column, but not without an early struggle. The Bruins missed 10 of their first 11 shots from the field and managed only a meager 25.7% (9-35) for the half. Led by 12 first-half points from center DeeDee Arnall, the Boxers took a 28-20 lead with two minutes left in the period. The George Fox defense, which picked up 11 steals in the half, then asserted itself as the Bruins scored the last 9 points of the period, taking a slim 29-28 lead into the break after Tiffany Behary nailed a three-pointer with 7 seconds left.

With Kim Leith, who was held scoreless in the first half, scoring the Bruins' first six points of the second half on a free throw, a short jumper, and a three, the Bruins began to take control. Ashley Emerick's three from the top of the key extended the Bruins' lead to 14 points at 53-39 with 11:18 to play, and the Bruins maintained a double-digit lead most of the rest of the game. The Bruins' second-half shooting improved dramatically to 59.3% (16-27).

Leith finished with 14 points, all in the second half, and Robin Taylor also had 14 to lead with Bruins, while Behary chipped in with 11, including 3-3 from three-point range. Taylor had 3 assists, and Tiffany Schmidt pulled down 7 boards. Led by Erin Powers with 5 steals, the Bruins picked up 16 steals and forced the Boxers into 25 turnovers.

Arnall collected 21 points before fouling out, the only Boxer in double figures, and also had a game-high 8 rebounds as the Boxers controlled the backboards 43-36. Sara Harsin passed out 4 assists. Pacific was held to a 32.1% (18-56) from the field for the game, 25.0% (8-32) in the second half.

George Fox, ranked 2nd in the USA Today/ESPN/WBCA Division III coaches' poll and 4th in the D3hoops.com poll, improved to 12-1 overall and 3-1 in the conference. Pacific dropped to 4-9 overall and 0-3 in the league.

The Bruins visit Linfield College Tuesday and the Boxers host Willamette University Friday in the next conference action for each team. Tipoff for both games is 6 p.m., followed by men's NWC games at 8 p.m.

SPORTS RELEASE: WOMEN'S BASKETBALL – Friday, January 6, 2006

1/6 – PUGET SOUND 85, GEORGE FOX 61: Red-Hot Loggers Ruin Bruins' Hopes for Record Winning Streak

TACOMA, Wash. – Scorching the nets for a 59.6 shooting percentage, including 68 percent in the first half, the University of Puget Sound Loggers ended George Fox University's hopes for a record-setting 12th straight win with a resounding 85-61 victory over the Bruins in a Northwest Conference women's basketball game Friday night here at Memorial Fieldhouse.

George Fox, ranked 2nd in the USA Today/ESPN/WBCA Division III coaches' poll and 4th in the D3hoops.com poll, saw its winning streak come to an end after equaling the 11-game streaks of the 2000-01 and 2001-02 teams. The Bruins are 11-1 overall and 2-1 in the conference, while the Loggers improved to 10-3 overall and 2-2 in the NWC.

With Robin Taylor hitting a pair of baskets and Kim Leith a three-pointer, the Bruins jumped out to a 7-2 lead three minutes into the game. Coincident to GFU point guard Tiffany Behary picking up two quick fouls and exiting the game, however, the Loggers went on a 12-0 run to take a 14-7 lead with 12 minutes left in the half. Hitting 17-25 from the field in the period, the Loggers stretched their lead to 42-28 at the break. Laura Hirsh, making her first start for UPS, and Shelby Ramirez scored 9 in the period, while the Bruins got 11 from Leith and 9 from Taylor, who shot a combined 8-15, but the Bruin posts were only 3-14.

The Loggers came out just as hot in the second half, hitting four of their first six shots and a pair of free throws by Kilty Keaton to up the lead to 53-30 with 16:12 lead. The Bruins made a mild run at the Loggers with 9-0 streak that cut the lead to 13 at 55-42 with 13 minutes left, and the Bruins eventually got it down to 12 on a Leith three with 8:46 left, 62-50. Brie Adderly halted the Bruins' comeback attempt at that point by hitting three consecutive baskets inside, and then Keaton went to work from the outside, nailing three three-pointers as the Loggers raced back out to as much as a 25-point lead. Keaton's bomb from the right corner made it 83-58 with a minute to play.

Leith finished with 21 points and Taylor had 15 as the only double-figure scorers for the Bruins. Katy Campbell had 5 rebounds and Behary passed out 4 assists. The Bruins' shooting improved to 47.8% in the second half after shooting 34.4% in the first half, but it was not enough to overcome the Loggers' sizzling night.

Keaton scored a career-high 31, 23 in the second half, to lead the Loggers, including 7 threes, while Sarah Carnahan added 12 points and Hirsh and Ramirez had 11 each. Hirsh and Keaton had 5 rebounds apiece as the Loggers owned the boards 33-22. Carnahan handed out 6 assists. The Loggers hit 53.1% (17-32) in the second half and ended up 34-57 from the field.

The Bruins visit Pacific University in Forest Grove, Ore., Saturday at 6 p.m., followed by the men's game at 8 p.m. The Loggers are off until next Friday when they will host Whitworth College at 6 p.m., with a men's game to follow at 8 p.m.

Pacific – 17-1 (9-0 home, 8-1 road)

BRUIN BITS:

- * Taylor HM for NWC Player of the Week for Dec. 24-Jan. 1

Junior wing Robin Taylor was the Bruins' leading scorer in their only game last week, an 82-69 win at Hope International in Fullerton, Calif., on Dec. 30, receiving honorable mention for Northwest Conference Player of the Week for Dec. 24-Jan. 1 for her efforts. She scored 17 points on 5-9 field goals (2-4 on threes) and 5-6 free throws, and also had 4 rebounds, 2 assists, and a steal. She has already received one Player of the Week award this year, for Nov. 21-27 after being named MVP of the D3 in Hawaii Hoops Classic tournament.

* 2005-06 Honors:

--- Kim Leith - D3hoops.com NCAA Division III Pre-Season Third Team All-America; D3 in Hawaii Hoops Classic All-Tournament Team

--- Robin Taylor - D3 in Hawaii Hoops Classic MVP; Northwest Conference Player of the Week (Nov. 21-27)

 Double-Doubles

Tiffany Schmidt: Season 1, career 1 – Dec. 17 (11 pts/10 reb)

 National Polls: Bruins Get Every Vote for 2nd in WBCA Poll

In the USA Today/ESPN/Women's Basketball Coaches Association poll of Jan. 3, George Fox (11-0) received all 8 votes for second place, remaining in that spot for the second straight week, while Washington University of Missouri (10-0) received every vote for first place. Washington had 200 points in the balloting to 192 for the Bruins. In 2001, when the Bruins spent two weeks as the No. 1-ranked team (in the d3hoops.com poll), it was Washington, which had spent three straight years in the top spot, that George Fox supplanted. And speaking of the latest D3hoops.com poll of Jan. 3, everything is still scrambled. The Bruins, who went 2-0 since the last poll, earned four votes for first and 554 points, one point more than the week before – but actually dropped a spot from third to fourth! Washington (10-0) leapfrogged the Bruins into third, but got more first-place votes (9) than either of the top two teams. The University of Southern Maine (10-1) stayed No. 1 with six firsts and 579 points, and Brandeis University (6-0) remained second with five firsts and 573 votes.

 Bruins Aim for New Record after Winning 11 Straight

Road victories over a pair of NAIA teams in California, 82-69 at Hope International and 74-73 at Biola, enabled the Bruins to tie the team record for most wins in a row with 11. The 2000-01 team won 11 in a row from Jan. 5-Feb. 10, and the 2001-02 team opened the season with 11 straight wins from Nov. 17-Jan. 2. The Bruins will try for their 12th in a row when they visit the University of Puget Sound Friday, Jan. 6, for a 6:00 p.m. Northwest Conference game.

The Bruins' one-point win over Biola ended a string of 10 consecutive victories for the Bruins decided by 10 or more points. In the Bruins' previous 11-game winning streaks, the most wins in a row by 10 or more points was 7 by the 2001-02 team.

 Bruin Cage Teams Off to Best Combined Start Ever

With a combined record of 19-2, the George Fox women's and men's basketball teams are off to the best composite start in the history of the two programs. The Bruin women are 11-0, equaling 2001-02's best start ever, while the men are 8-2, a record exceeded only twice, in 102 years of basketball, by an 11-1 start in 1976-77 and a 14-1 start in 1990-91. The previous best combined record of both teams after 21 games was 16-5 in 1989-90 (the men were 8-2, the women 8-3) ...

 Career Lists: Leith Moves Up to 7th in All-Time Points

Kim Leith scored 30 points in the Bruins' two games in California, giving her 1,158 for her career and moving her past Nicole Prazneau (1,133, 1998-2002) into 7th on the GFU all-time scoring list. Ahead is Liz Stephens (1,197, 1992-96) ... She was 3-11 on 3-pointers and ranks 6th in career 3-point pct. (.355, 178-501) ... She was 7-8 on free throws and is 2nd in career free throw pct. (.803, 171-213) to Christy Brock (.811, 77-95, 1998-99) ... She had 6 assists and now has 208, 9th all-time. Ahead are Liz Clark (218, 2001-05) and Melinda Day (220, 1981-85) ...

1/2 – GEORGE FOX 74, BIOLA 73: Bruins Edge Eagles to Tie Team Record with 11th Straight Win

LA MIRADA, Calif. – Katy Campbell's free throw with 0:09 remaining broke a 73-73 tie and lifted the George Fox University Bruins to their 11th straight win, tying the school record, for a 74-73 victory over the Biola University Eagles in a non-conference women's basketball game Tuesday afternoon here at Biola's Chase Gym.

The game featured several spurts by both teams. The visiting Bruins jumped out to an early 5-0 lead and stretched it to 15-9 on a three-pointer by Kim Leith seven minutes into the game. The Eagles rallied with a 20-6 run over the next seven minutes, however, to go up 29-21 on a jumper by Lindsey Richelli. The Bruins then out-scored the home team 20-9 to end the period, taking a 40-37 lead into the locker room when Campbell made a steal and fed Tiffany Behary for a layup with eight seconds left.

After Behary hit a three to open the second half, the Eagles' 6-6 Nigerian center, Linda Ogugua, scored 10 of her game-high 20 points to spark a 22-6 run that put Biola up by 10 at 59-49 with 13 minutes left. Two free shots and a layup by Leith slowed the Eagles and started a 16-5 burst, capped by a layup and a pair of free throws by Behary, that enabled the Bruins to forge back on top 65-64 with 7:54 to play.

Robin Taylor's three gave George Fox a 73-68 lead with 3:15 left, but Biola tied it for the 10th time on a trey by Rachel Dulin and a jumper by Crystal Duncan with 36 seconds to go. Leith missed a go-ahead jumper with 12 seconds left, but Campbell collared the offensive rebound and was fouled by Jessica Velazquez, then hit the front end of a one-and-one to break the deadlock. Ogugua rebounded the miss on the second shot, but the Bruin defense kept the Eagles from getting off a shot in the final nine seconds.

Behary led the Bruins with a career-high 18 points, Leith and Taylor added 16 apiece, and Tiffany Schmidt scored 11 off the bench. Campbell's 11 rebounds paced the Bruins to a 40-29 advantage on the boards over the taller Eagles. Behary and Taylor had 6 assists each, and Behary made 4 steals.

Ogugua posted a double-double for the Eagles with 20 points and 11 rebounds, Dulin added 18 points, and Duncan and Megann Alberts scored 10 each. Dulin passed out 7 assists and Duncan had 6.

The Bruins shot only 38.5% (25-65) in the game to 54.4% (31-57) for the Eagles, but made up the difference by hitting 10-12 (83.3%) from the line and making 14 three-pointers to 6 for the Eagles. Six different players nailed threes for the Bruins in their first game this season decided by less than 10 points.

In winning 11 in a row, George Fox (11-0), ranked 2nd in the USA Today/ESPN/WBCA Division III coaches' poll and 3rd in the D3hoops.com poll, equaled a mark set in the middle of the 2000-01 season and tied at the start of the 2001-02 season. The Bruins will try to establish a new record for consecutive wins when they visit the University of Puget Sound for a Northwest Conference clash Friday at 6:00 p.m., followed by the men's game at 8:00 p.m.

Biola (4-6), an NAIA team, returns to action Thursday at 5:30 p.m., hosting The Master's College in a Golden State Athletic Conference contest.

SPORTS RELEASE: WOMEN'S BASKETBALL – Friday, December 30, 2005

12/30 – GEORGE FOX 82, HOPE INTERNATIONAL 69: Bruins Stretch Winning Streak to 10 by Downing Royals

FULLERTON, Calif. – Leading wire-to-wire for the fifth time this season, the George Fox University Bruins stretched their season-opening winning streak to 10 in a row with an 82-69 victory over the Hope International University Royals in a non-conference women's basketball game Friday night here at HIU's Darling Pavilion.

With Kim Leith hitting four of her first five shots, the Bruins jumped out to a 12-4 lead four minutes into the game. Leith picked up two quick fouls, however, which limited her to only five minutes in the half, but Tiffany Schmidt picked up the slack, scoring 9 points off the bench as the Bruins stretched the margin to 48-34 at the half. George Fox connected on a red-hot 60.6% (20-33) in the first half to a 35.5% (11-31) for the Royals, who got 12 points from Jasmine Nault in the period.

Schmidt's jumper with 14:11 left in the game gave the Bruins their largest lead of 22 at 64-42, but the home team rallied behind Carly Andrews' 15 second-half points. An 18-4 run brought the Royals back within single digits at 68-60 with 6:38 to play, but a free throw by Katy Campbell, two charity tosses by Robin Taylor, and a bucket by Campbell got the lead back up to 13, and the Bruins were not seriously threatened again.

Taylor poured in 17 points to lead George Fox, who also got 14 points from Leith in only 15 minutes, 11 from Schmidt on 5-5 shooting, and 11 points and 6 assists from Tiffany Behary. Campbell led all rebounders in the game with 8, and also picked up 4 steals.

Andrews with 17 points and Nault with 16 topped the Royals before both fouled out, and Malerie Rodrigues added 14. Sara Lycans-Roy was HIU's leader on the boards with 6, while Stephanie Wenke passed out 4 assists.

George Fox (10-0), ranked 2nd in the USA Today/ESPN/WBCA Division III coaches' poll and 3rd in the D3hoops.com poll, is one win away from equaling the team's record for most consecutive wins of 11, accomplished in both the 2000-01 and 2001-02 seasons. The Bruins will try to tie the mark Monday when they visit Biola University in La Mirada, Calif., for a 2:00 afternoon game.

Hope International (7-3), an NAIA team, returns to action Tuesday, traveling to California Baptist University in Riverside, Calif., for a Golden State Athletic Conference game at 5:30 p.m.

BRUIN BITS:

 Schmidt HM for NWC Player of the Week for Dec. 12-23

Junior post Tiffany Schmidt sparked the Bruins to a win in their only game last week and received honorable mention for Northwest Conference Player of the Week for Dec. 12-23 for her efforts. In a 47-34 win at Western Oregon on Dec. 17, she scored a team-high 11 points on 4-7 field goals and 3-4 free throws, with a game highs of 10 rebounds and 3 blocked shots. It was the first double-double of her Bruin career from the transfer from Eastern Washington University and graduate of Glencoe High in Hillsboro, Ore., the same school GFU coach Scott Rueck attended.

 2005-06 Honors:

--- Kim Leith - D3hoops.com NCAA Division III Pre-Season Third Team All-America; D3 in Hawaii Hoops

Classic All-Tournament Team

--- Robin Taylor - D3 in Hawaii Hoops Classic MVP; Northwest Conference Player of the Week (Nov. 21-27)

* Double-Doubles

Tiffany Schmidt: Season 1, career 1 – Dec. 17 (11 pts/10 reb)

* National Polls: Bruins Up to 2nd and 3rd in National Rankings

After defeating Division II Western Oregon University for the second time this season in their only game of the week on Dec. 17, the George Fox University Bruins have advanced to second and third in this week's two NCAA Division III national women's basketball polls.

In the USA Today/ESPN/Women's Basketball Coaches Association poll, the Bruins (9-0) climbed one spot to second, garnering 165 points to 173 for top-ranked Washington University of Missouri (10-0). Washington received five votes for first in advancing from second, while last week's leader, the University of Southern Maine (8-1), fell two spots to third, with two votes for first, after losing at Salem State College. George Fox was second despite no votes for first.

In the D3hoops.com poll, the Bruins leaped three spots into third place with 553 points and four votes for the top. Southern Maine, despite its setback, remained in first with 562 points, but its first-place votes fell from 24 to six. Brandeis University (6-0) was ranked second with 558 votes and six firsts. Washington was fourth with 544 points and seven firsts, and Bowdoin College (7-1) was fifth with 542, the 20-point difference between the first and fifth-place teams making it the closest top-five vote in the seven-year history of the D3hoops poll.

The last time the Bruins were ranked second was Jan. 23 and 30, 2001, when they trailed Washington for two weeks in a row in the D3hoops.com poll. In the next poll on Feb. 6, the Bruins climbed into first when Washington lost to New York University while the Bruins were defeating Lewis & Clark College and Pacific Lutheran University and improving to 20-1. The Bruins remained on top for two weeks before ending the regular season ranked fourth, and were ranked 10th in the final poll with a 23-3 record after post-season play.

Last year's George Fox team, which went 22-6 and reached the "Elite 8" of the NCAA Division III National Tournament, was ranked 12th in the final D3hoops.com poll and 10th in the WBCA poll. The Bruins began the 2005-06 pre-season 10th in the D3hoops poll and eight in the WBCA poll, and have climbed steadily ever since.

Complete polls: USA Today/ESPN/WBCA Poll / D3hoops.com Poll / NCAA Division III Regional Rankings

 Bruins Equal Second-Best Start Ever, Aim for Record

The Bruins' 9-0 start this year equals the second-best season-opening mark in team history, also achieved by the 2000-01 team. The 2001-02 team holds the record with an 11-0 start, and this year's team could tie that if they play well in their next two games, non-conference contests on Dec. 30 at Hope International University in Fullerton, Calif., and on Jan. 2 at Biola University in La Mirada, Calif.

 Career Lists: Leith Tied for 9th in All-Time Assists

Kim Leith scored 7 points in the Bruins' last game, giving her 1,128 for her career, 8th in all-time scoring at George Fox. In 7th is Nicole Prazneau (1,133, 1998-2002) ... She was 1-6 on 3-pointers and ranks 6th in career 3-point pct. (.357, 175-490) ... She had no free throws and remains 2nd in career free throw pct. (.800, 164-205) ... She had 3 assists and now has 202, tied for 9th all-time with Jennifer Childress (202, 1989-91). Ahead are Liz Clark (218, 2001-05) and Melinda Day (220), 1981-85) ...

12/20 – NCAA POLLS: George Fox Up to 2nd in WBCA Women's Basketball Poll, 3rd in D3hoops.com

NEWBERG, Ore. – After defeating Division II Western Oregon University for the second time this season in their only game of the week on Dec. 17, the George Fox University Bruins have advanced to second and third in this week's two NCAA Division III national women's basketball polls.

In the USA Today/ESPN/Women's Basketball Coaches Association poll, the Bruins (9-0) climbed one spot to second, garnering 165 points to 173 for top-ranked Washington University of Missouri (10-0). Washington received five votes for first in advancing from second, while last week's leader, the University of Southern Maine (8-1), fell two spots to third, with two votes for first, after losing at Salem State College. George Fox was second despite no votes for first.

In the D3hoops.com poll, the Bruins leaped three spots into third place with 553 points and four votes for the top. Southern Maine, despite its setback, remained in first with 562 points, but its first-place votes fell from 24 to six. Brandeis University (6-0) was ranked second with 558 votes and six firsts. Washington was fourth with 544 points and seven firsts, and Bowdoin College (7-1) was fifth with 542, the 20-point difference between the first and fifth-place teams making it the closest top-five vote in the seven-year history of the D3hoops poll.

The last time the Bruins were ranked second was Jan. 23 and 30, 2001, when they trailed Washington for two weeks in a row in the D3hoops.com poll. In the next poll on Feb. 6, the Bruins climbed into first when Washington lost to New York University while the Bruins were defeating Lewis & Clark College and Pacific Lutheran University and improving to 20-1. The Bruins remained on top for two weeks before ending the regular season ranked fourth, and were ranked 10th in the final poll with a 23-3 record after post-season play.

Last year's George Fox team, which went 22-6 and reached the "Elite 8" of the NCAA Division III National Tournament, was ranked 12th in the final D3hoops.com poll and 10th in the WBCA poll. The Bruins began the 2005-06 pre-season 10th in the D3hoops poll and eight in the WBCA poll, and have climbed steadily ever since.

The Bruins' 9-0 start this year equals the second-best season-opening mark in team history, also achieved by the 2000-01 team. The 2001-02 team holds the record with an 11-0 start, and this year's team could tie that if they play well in their next two games, non-conference contests on Dec. 30 at Hope International University in Fullerton, Calif., and on Jan. 2 at Biola University in La Mirada, Calif.

Complete polls are available on line, the USA Today/ESPN/WBCA poll at <http://www.wbca.org/DIIICoachesPoll.asp>, and the D3hoops.com poll at <http://www.d3hoops.com/top25/>.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

STERLING, Va. -- Six teams received No. 1 votes, including one as low as 12th place overall, but it was Southern Maine which held on to the No. 1 spot in the D3hoops.com women's basketball Top 25 by just four points.

The Huskies, which fell on the road at 8-1 Salem State on Saturday, fell 61 points and lost 18 of their previous 24 first-place votes, but edged out Brandeis by four points. Brandeis also had six first-place votes, while George Fox had four, Washington U. seven, Messiah one and Mary Washington one.

With five teams within 20 points of the top spot, it's the closest D3hoops.com Top 25 in the seven-year history of the poll.

12/17 – GEORGE FOX 47, WESTERN OREGON 34: Schmidt Leads Bruins by Wolves for 9th Straight Win

MONMOUTH, Ore. – Tiffany Schmidt posted her first double-double of the season with 11 points and 10 rebounds and added 3 blocked shots on defense, leading the cold-shooting George Fox University Bruins to a 47-34 win over the even-colder Western Oregon University Wolves in a non-conference women's basketball game Saturday night here at WOU's New Physical Education Building.

When the two teams met eight days ago in Newberg, both turned in their highest offensive point totals of the season in the Bruins' 100-72 win. This time around, each turned in their lowest. Both teams struggled to warm up as the Bruins hit only 32.7% (17-52) from the field while the Wolves managed only 24.5% (13-53), percentages which seemed only a bit lower than the unusually-cold temperature in the gym.

The Wolves led only once in the game, taking a 6-5 lead with 16:31 left in the first half on a three-pointer by Chelsea Pahl, but the Bruins regained the lead for good on a jumper by Kim Leith for a 7-6 edge with 16:14 to go. Schmidt hit a layup with 1:04 left to give the Bruins a 27-16 halftime advantage.

In the second half, the Wolves twice got within six points before the Bruins responded with baskets by Robin Taylor and Melissa Marek-Farris. Two free throws by Schmidt with 8:54 left put the Bruins up by double figures for good at 37-27, and they took their largest lead of 16 points at 47-31 on a pair of freebies by Ashley Emerick with 55 second remaining.

Schmidt was the only Bruin in double figures, although Leith and Erin Powers chipped in with 7 each, and Powers added 7 rebounds. Taylor passed out 4 assists, and Tiffany Behary picked up 5 steals.

Ali Crumb led all scorers with 16 points for the Wolves, 12 of them on three-pointers. WOU's leading scorer, Leada Berkey, was held to only 4 points but did have a team-high 8 rebounds. Pahl and Crumb had 3 assists apiece, and Jenni Brozovich had 3 steals.

George Fox, ranked 3rd in the USA Today/ESPNWBCA Division III coaches' poll and 6th in the D3hoops.com poll, equaled its second-best start to a season in improving to 9-0, while Division II Western Oregon fell to 0-7. The Bruins return to action Friday, Dec. 30, at Hope International University in Fullerton, Calif., at 7:00 p.m. as the first half of a two-game trip to southern California. The Wolves next play 11th-ranked (D-II) Chico State University on Tuesday in Lacey, Wash., at the GNAC-CCAA Challenge.

 National Polls: Bruins, 3rd and 6th in Polls, Get a First from D3hoops.com

Getting the only first-place vote that didn't go to Southern Maine, the George Fox Bruins received that nod for the top spot and 499 total points, climbing one spot to 6th, in the third D3hoops.com regular season poll released Tuesday. The Bruins had 484 points last week. Defending national champion Millikin lost to Illinois College last week and fell out of the top spot to 7th, allowing Southern Maine to jump into first with 24 of 25 first-place votes and 623 points.

In the USA Today/ESPN/Women's Basketball Coaches of America poll, the Bruins advanced two places to 3rd, garnering 174 points from the panel of eight coaches who do the voting. Southern Maine remained first with 198 points and Washongton (Mo.) was second with 192.

 Bruins Tie Record with 16 Threes in Western Oregon Game

With 16 three-point field goals in their 100-72 win over Western Oregon on Dec. 9, the Bruins tied their team record for most threes made in a game, which was first set on Feb. 8, 2000, at Lewis & Clark. Kim Leith made 6 of them, one short of the individual mark of 7 by Christy Brock vs. Whitman on Jan. 8, 1999 ... The Bruins also threatened two other records in that game. Their 100 points fell 5 shy of the record set by the Bruins against Western Baptist (now Corban) in a 105-39 win on Nov. 20, 1992, while their 25 assists were 2 short of the record 27 vs. Northwest Nazarene on Feb. 8, 1991, and vs. Columbia Christian on Jan. 30, 1993 ...

 Bruins Can Equal Second-Best Start with Win on Saturday

The Bruins can equal their second-best start to a season with a win on Dec. 17 over Western Oregon. The Bruins, currently 8-0, could match the 9-0 start of the 2000-01 team, which fell at defending NAIA national champion Northwestern of Iowa in its 10th game, then reeled off 11 more wins to earn a D-III No. 1 national ranking at 20-1. The 2001-02 team equaled that record of 11 straight wins to start the season before Pacific Lutheran ended the run in Tacoma.

12/8 – GEORGE FOX 86, CASCADE 55: Balanced Bruins Bury Thunderbirds in a Cascade of Points

NEWBERG, Ore. – Kim Leith led a quintet of double-digit scorers with a game-high 17 points, 11 of them in a three-and-a-half minute span early in the second half, as the George Fox University Bruins cruised past the Cascade College Thunderbirds 86-55 in a non-conference women's basketball game Thursday night here at the Wheeler Sports Center's Miller Gym.

The victory enabled the Bruins, ranked No. 5 in the NCAA Division III WBCA poll and No. 7 in the D3hoops.com poll, to stretch their season-opening win streak to seven in a row, the third-best start in team history. The T'Birds, meanwhile, remained winless at 0-8.

Cascade held a lead three times in the early stages of the contest, the last at 9-8 on a jumper by Jamie Martinez with 13:24 left in the half. Mande Spotts nailed a bucket to put the Bruins back in front 10-9 with 12:12 left, giving the home team a lead they would not relinquish and sparking an 11-0 run. The Bruins led by as many as 20 in the half before settling for a 40-22 margin at halftime.

Leith's hot hand in the second half, including a pair of three-pointers, three free throws after being fouled on a long-range attempt, and a short two-point jumper, pushed the gap to 31 points at 60-29 with 14:43 remaining. The largest lead of the game was 42 points on a three-pointer by Kaleigha Ramey with 8:26 left, giving the Bruins a 77-35 advantage.

In addition to Leith 17 points, Melissa Marek-Farris scored a career-high 14, Robin Taylor had 13, Katy Campbell 12, and Ramey a career-best 10. Taylor handed out 5 assists. Campbell and Tiffany Schmidt grabbed 8 rebounds apiece to pace the Bruins to a 51-34 advantage on the boards. Leith and Erin Powers led the defense with 4 steals each, and the Bruins collectively blocked 8 shots.

Kristin Woller led the Thunderbirds with 16 points, Martinez added 13, and Jenny Pippa scored 10 to go along with 6 assists and 5 steals. Jubilee Cristel pulled down a game-high 11 rebounds.

George Fox returns to action Friday, closing out a four-game home stand with Western Oregon University at 6:00 p.m. The Bruin men follow that with an 8:00 p.m. game against Claremont-Mudd-Scripps Colleges. Cascade is back home Saturday for a 7:00 p.m. game vs. Linfield College.

12/3 – GEORGE FOX 81, WHITMAN 68: Bruins Pull Away from Missionaries Late for 2nd NWC Win

NEWBERG, Ore. – Chris Parker came off the bench for a game-high 20 points and the George Fox University Bruins pulled away from the Whitman College Missionaries by hitting 11 of 14 free throws down the stretch for an 81-68 win in Northwest Conference men's basketball Saturday evening here at the Wheeler Sports Center's Miller Gym.

After spotting the Missionaries an early 10-4 lead, the Bruins bounced back with a 15-7 run and took a 19-17 lead on a three-pointer by Nate Mansfield with 11:06 left in the half. The home team would not trail again in the period and took a 42-38 lead into halftime, in large part due to the efforts of Parker, who replaced foul-plagued Scott Szalay. The Bruins' center, who had posted double-doubles in points and rebounds in each of the team's first four games, picked up two quick fouls and eventually finished with only 5 points and 5 boards in 17 minutes. Parker's 11 first-half points on 5-6 from the field plus a free throw more than picked up the slack.

The lead might have been larger had not the Missionaries' Ian Warner launched a shot from just across mid-court that banked into the net as the clock expired. With that momentum-shifter in mind, the Missionaries opened the second half with a 16-8 run, capped by a Chris Faidley jumper, that put them on top 54-50 with 13:55 left in the game. The Bruins battled back to tie and then take a 61-58 lead at 10:51 on a pair of threes by Phil Heu-Weller.

The game was knotted for the last time at 64-64 when Parker broke the tie for good with a layup with 7:10 to play. Two free throws by Parker and a driving layup by Brady Strutz made it 70-64 George Fox with 5:18 left, and the Missionaries resorted to fouling in the final five minutes. The Bruins foiled the strategy by making 11 of 14 while holding the Missionaries to 1-for-5 shooting and only two points on a pair of Faidley free throws in that span.

Parker's 20 points came on a 7-8 game from the field and 6-7 from the line, tying his career high. Heu-Weller and Ben Melvin added 13 apiece, while Aaron Schmick and Brent Satern each had 11. Satern handed out 9 assists. Schmick and Strutz grabbed 7 rebounds apiece.

Faidley also scored 20 points to pace the Missionaries, while Erik Kofler added 15 and a game-high 8 rebounds, and Matt Kelly scored 14. Warner and Greg Ricker had 3 assists each.

George Fox improved to 4-1 overall and 2-0 in the conference, while Whitman slipped to 3-2 overall and 1-1 in the league. The Bruins have a rematch Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. at home with Corban College, which handed them their only loss of the season 108-100 on Nov. 22. The Missionaries visit Warner Pacific College in Portland next Saturday at 7:30 p.m.

BRUIN BITS:

 Taylor Named NWC Player of the Week for Nov. 21-27

Junior wing Robin Taylor was named Most Valuable Player of the D3 in Hawaii Hoops Classic in Honolulu, Hawaii, earning Northwest Conference Player of the Week honors for Nov. 21-27. In an 87-54 win over La Verne on Friday, she scored a game and career-high 21 points in only 16 minutes on 7-9 from the field (4-5 on 3's) and 3-4 from the line, with 5 rebounds, 3 assists, and 2 steals. In a 65-54 win over California Lutheran on Saturday, she had 10 points on 4-11 from the field (1-7 on 3's) and 1-2 from the line, with 3 rebounds, 4 assists, and a steal. For the week's 2 games, she had 31 points (15.5 ppg) on 11-20 from the field (.550), 5-12 on 3's (.417), and 4-6 from the line (.667), with 8 rebounds (4.0 rpg), 7 assists (3.5 apg), and 3 steals (1.5 spg).

Senior wing Kim Leith also earned All-Tournament honors in Hawaii, scoring 21 points with 13 rebounds, 4 assists, 2 steals, and a blocked shot in 2 games. She was especially effective in the Cal Lutheran game, scoring 14 of her points in the first half to spark the Bruins to a comfortable lead.

 2005-06 Honors:

--- Kim Leith - D3hoops.com NCAA Division III Pre-Season Third Team All-America; D3 in Hawaii Hoops Classic All-Tournament Team

--- Robin Taylor - D3 in Hawaii Hoops Classic MVP; Northwest Conference Player of the Week (Nov. 21-27)

 National Polls: Bruins Climb to 6th in D3hoops.com Poll

A 4-0 start has enabled George Fox to climb from 10th in the D3hoops.com pre-season poll to 6th in the first poll of the regular season. The Bruins garnered 434 points after getting 293 in the pre-season predictions. They are the only Northwest Conference team in the top 25, although Linfield did pick up 3 votes. Defending national champion Millikin remains atop the poll.

In the ESPN/USA Today/Women's Basketball Coaches of America pre-season poll, the Bruins garnered 129 points and were ranked 8th, but their first poll of the regular season has not been released, nor have regional rankings started.

 Bruins Lead Wire-to-Wire in Three Straight Games

It is doubtful that records of this kind are kept, but the Bruins put together one of the game's more unusual streaks when they went three games in a row leading wire-to-wire. In a 67-57 win at Oregon Tech on Nov. 19, the Bruins scored the first 8 points of the game and the Owls got no closer than 2 the rest of the way. In an 87-54 win over La Verne in the D3 in Hawaii Hoops Classic on Nov. 25, a 12-0 run ignited the Bruins to victory, with the Leopards getting no closer than 7 points after that. The next day, the Bruins jumped out to a 5-0 lead over California Lutheran, and the Regals cut that to 5-4 but could never tie or take the lead. The Bruins face a tough challenge in keeping the streak going, however, with Whitworth and Whitman, two teams expected to make a run at the Northwest Conference title, coming to Newberg this weekend.

 Career Lists: Leith Within One Assist of Top 10

Kim Leith scored 21 points in two games last week, giving her 1,055 for her career, 8th in all-time scoring at George Fox. In 7th is Nicole Prazeau (1,133, 1998-2002) ... She was 5-12 on 3-pointers during the week and remains 6th in career 3-point pct. (.355, 161-453) ... She was 2-3 from the free throw line and remains 2nd in career free throw pct. (.795, 155-195) ... She had 4 assists and now has 192, needing 1 more to tie Heather Gurney (193, 1987-91) for 10th ...

 Halftime Promotions for Bruin Basketball Games

A number of special promotions are scheduled for the halftimes of George Fox men's and women's basketball games throughout the 2005-06 season, including:

"Halftime Hoop Shoot/Half-Court Shoot" - Co-sponsored by the Coffee Cottage in Newberg and Country Insurance & Financial Services, this promotion takes place at the halftime of every home game, unless a long halftime entertainment performance requires most of the 15-minute break. Tickets for $1 are sold in the gym lobby until just before halftime, and one lucky ticketholder is selected to shoot. Five dollars' worth of coupons to the Coffee Cottage is awarded for each one of three shots (free throw, three-pointer, and half-court shot) that is made.

A made half-court shot also earns the shooter the Country Financial "pot" for the evening, which increases by $50 at each game if no shot is made (the pot begins at $50 at the start of each team's season). All proceeds from the ticket sales go to the GFU basketball programs as a donation.

"Shootout at Coyote Joe's Corral" - New this year is the "Shootout at Coyote Joe's Corral", sponsored by Coyote Joe's expresso shop on Highway 99 North in Newberg. Four game programs at each game are signed by a Bruin player, and whoever has one of the autographed programs may enter the race. The contestants sit in chairs at mid-court, two chairs facing each goal, and must race toward the basketball goal at one end to make any shot of their choosing, then race back. One contestant on each side is eliminated, and the two survivors then do the same thing to determine an overall winner. The winner receives a coupon good for purchases at Coyote Joe's.

Other special promotions, mainly during the second semester, will be announced as plans for each are finalized.

11/26 – GEORGE FOX 65, CALIFORNIA LUTHERAN 54: Bruins Lead Wire-to-Wire Again in Win over Regals

HONOLULU, Hawaii – For the third straight game, the George Fox University women's basketball team led wire-to-wire as the Bruins posted a 65-54 win over the California Lutheran University Regals to capture the D3 in Hawaii Hoops Classic Saturday afternoon here at Kamehameha High School.

Pre-season Third Team All-American Kim Leith sparked the Bruins in the first half as she hit a trio of three-point field goals and a short-range jumper for 11 points that gave her team a 16-7 lead with 11:37 left in the half. She finished with 14 in the period as the Bruins forced a 30-23 halftime advantage.

The Regals twice got within four points in the second half, the latter at 37-33 on a jumper by Caroline Beddow with 16:30 to play. The Bruins then pushed the lead back up to double digits with a 9-2 run, capped by a Katy Campbell layup, for a 46-35 advantage with 11:05 left, and they maintained a safe margin the rest of the way. Their largest lead was 13 points at 65-52 on another layup by Campbell with 34 second remaining.

Leith totaled 16 points to lead the Bruins, Campbell scored 12, and Robin Taylor and Erin Powers added 10 each. Powers recorded her first career double-double by pulling down 11 rebounds as well. Campbell passed out 6 assists and led the defense with 3 steals. The Bruins shot .464 from the field (26-56) while holding the Regals to only .279 for the game (19-68), and made 12 steals in forcing 22 CLU turnovers.

Lauren Stroot also had a double-double for the Regals with game highs of 20 points and 14 rebounds. Marie Ayala was the only other Cal Lutheran double-figure scorer with 10. Alex Mallen had 4 assists, and Mary Placido made 4 steals.

In the tournament's first game of the day, Marian College of Wisconsin knocked off the University of La Verne 65-58. George Fox finished 2-0 in the Classic, Marian and Cal Lutheran 1-1, and La Verne 0-2.

Taylor, who scored 21 points in the Bruins' 87-54 win over La Verne the day before, was named the tournament MVP, while Leith was also named to the All-Tournament Team. Joining them as All-Tournament selections were Stroot of Cal Lutheran, Lindsey Shiomi of La Verne, and Chelsea Borgrud of Marian.

George Fox, ranked 8th in the WBCA pre-season poll and 10th in the D3hoops.com poll, is now 4-0, while Cal Lutheran fell to 1-1. The Bruins are back home Friday to open Northwest Conference play against Whitworth College, game time at 6:00 p.m., followed by the men's game at 8:00 p.m.

11/25 – GEORGE FOX 87, LA VERNE 54: Bruins Use 12-0 Start to Hunt Down Leopards in Hawaii

HONOLULU, Hawaii – Racing out to a comfortable lead by scoring the first 12 points of the game in two-and-a-half minutes, including the first 8 by Katy Campbell, the George Fox University Bruins posted an 87-54 win over the University of La Verne Leopards on the first day of the D3 in Hawaii Hoops Classic Friday afternoon here at Kamehameha High School.

Campbell hit a pair of free throws, a layup, a rebound basket, and another layup, and Tiffany Behary made two layups on fast breaks after steals before the Leopards finally dented the scoreboard on a putback by Nicole Gerber. La Verne twice got back within seven in the first half, the last at 25-18 with 6:17 left on a free throw by Marissa Raya, but George Fox went on a 17-4 tear to end the half with a 42-22 lead. The Bruins led by as many as 38 in the second half, going ahead 85-47 with 2:30 left on a basket by Mande Spotts.

Defense was again the strong suit for the Bruins as they made 14 steals while forcing 20 turnovers, held the Leopards to a .309 shooting percentage (21-68), and blocked 10 shots, two short of the school record. Behary had 4 steals and Tiffany Schmidt blocked 3 shots to lead the Bruins.

On offense, Robin Taylor continued her torrid pace from the wing. Already hitting .650 entering the game, she scored a career-high 21 points by sinking 7-9 from the field, including 4-5 from three-point range, and 3-4 from the line. Campbell was the only other Bruin in double figures with 12 as 13 of the 14 Bruins who played scored. Kim Leith handed out 4 assists and pulled down 6 rebounds, as did Erin Powers, leading the Bruins to a 54-37 advantage on the boards.

Lindsey Shiomi led the Leopards with 18 points and 6 assists and Stephanie Foster added 12 points. Gerber grabbed 9 rebounds.

George Fox, ranked 8th in the WBCA pre-season poll and 10th in the D3hoops.com poll, improved to 3-0, while La Verne fell to 0-3. The Bruins take on California Lutheran University, a 97-93 double-overtime winner over Marian College of Wisconsin in the other first-round game, Saturday at 3:00 p.m. PDT. The Leopards and Marian meet at 1:00 p.m.

ON THE AIR! KFOX to Broadcast/Webcast 40 Bruin Games This Season

Announcing an expanded schedule, George Fox University campus radio station KFOX plans to broadcast and webcast 40 Bruin basketball games during the 2005-06 seasons, according to station sports director Courtney Ngai.

The schedule includes 22 of the men's 25 regularly-season contests and 18 of the 25 women's games. In addition to selected non-conference games and all 16 Northwest Conference games, home and away, for each team, any games the Bruins play in the Northwest Conference Tournament will be aired. Should either or both Bruin teams advance to the NCAA National Tournament, plans will be announced at that time.

Various staff members of KFOX, coordinated by advisor Josh Nauman of the university's Communications department, will handle the play-by-play and color commentary duties.

Because of the limited range of the non-profit station, fans outside the George Fox campus may have trouble picking up the KFOX radio broadcasts, but the webcast is easily accessible through the internet at www.foxradio.net. Listeners will need a high-speed connection and QuickTime 6.0 or higher, and a download for QuickTime is provided on the KFOX web site.

COACH SCOTT RUECK:

Scott Rueck (Oregon State '91) is 167-67 (.714) to date in his 10th season as a college head coach, all at George Fox. He was named Northwest Conference Coach of the Year for the third time in 2004-05 after leading the Bruins to the NWC title and the "Elite 8" of the NCAA National Tournament. He was also NWC Coach of the Year in 1999-2000 and Co-Coach of the Year in 2000-01. Click here for the complete bio on Coach Rueck.

Rueck vs. upcoming opponents:

La Verne - 0-0

California Lutheran - 1-0 (home 1-0)

BRUIN BITS:

 Taylor Honorable Mention for First NWC "Player of the Week"

Junior wing Robin Taylor led the Bruins in scoring in both games against NAIA opponents in the Harvest

Ford / Harvest Auto Credit Classic in Klamath Falls, Ore., earning honorable mention for Northwest Conference Player of the Week for Nov. 14-20. In a 69-48 win over Southern Oregon on Nov. 18, she had 15 points on 6-11 from the field and 3-3 from the line, with 4 rebounds, 2 assists, and 3 steals. In a 67-57 win over host Oregon Tech on Nov. 19, she tied her career high with 20 points on 7-9 from the field, including 5-7 from 3-point range, and 1-1 from the line, with 5 rebounds and a steal. For two games during the week, she scored 35 points 17.5 ppg) on 13-20 shooting (.650), including 5-9 (.556) on 3's, and 4-4 (1.000) from the line, with 9 rebounds (4.5 rpg), 2 assists, and 4 steals.

 2005-06 Honors:

Kim Leith - D3hoops.com NCAA Division III Pre-Season Third Team All-America

 GFU in National Polls: 8th in Pre-Season WBCA, 10th in D3hoops.com

Coming off a 22-6 record, an "Elite 8" appearance in the NCAA National Tournament, and with three starters returning, including Northwest Conference "Player of the Year" Kim Leith, the George Fox Bruins were ranked in the top 10 in two NCAA Division III pre-season polls. In the ESPN/USA Today/Women's Basketball Coaches of America poll, the Bruins garnered 129 points and were ranked 8th, while in the D3hoops.com poll, they had 293 points and were listed 10th. George Fox was ranked 10th in the WBCA final poll of 2004-05 and 12th in the final D3hoops.com poll. The highest ranking ever for a George Fox team was at No. 1, a position the Bruins held for two weeks in February 2001 after starting the season 20-1. They replaced Washington University of Missouri at that time, which had until then been atop the D-III polls for three years!

 Career Lists: Leith Continues Climb Toward Top of Scoring Chart

Kim Leith entered the season 8th in all-time scoring at George Fox with 1,004 career points, and now has 1,034 after scoring 30 in the Bruins' first two games. In 7th is Nicole Prazneau (1,133, 1998-2002) ... With 4-19 shooting on 3-pointers thus far, she slipped one spot to 6th in career 3-point pct. (.354, 156-441) ... After going 6-9 from the line in the first two games, her career free throw pct. is at .797 (153-192), good for 2nd all-time ... With 188 assists, she needs 5 more to tie Heather Gurney (193, 1987-91) for 10th ...

 Halftime Promotions for Bruin Basketball Games

A number of special promotions are scheduled for the halftimes of George Fox men's and women's basketball games throughout the 2005-06 season, including:

"Halftime Hoop Shoot/Half-Court Shoot" - Co-sponsored by the Coffee Cottage in Newberg and Country Insurance & Financial Services, this promotion takes place at the halftime of every home game, unless a long halftime entertainment performance requires most of the 15-minute break. Tickets for $1 are sold in the gym lobby until just before halftime, and one lucky ticketholder is selected to shoot. Five dollars' worth of coupons to the Coffee Cottage is awarded for each one of three shots (free throw, three-pointer, and half-court shot) that is made.

A made half-court shot also earns the shooter the Country Financial "pot" for the evening, which increases by $50 at each game if no shot is made (the pot begins at $50 at the start of each team's season). All proceeds from the ticket sales go to the GFU basketball programs as a donation.

"Coyote Joe's Race" - New this year is the "Coyote Joe's Race", sponsored Coyote Joe's expresso shop on Highway 99 North in Newberg. Four game programs at each game are signed by a Bruin player, and whoever has one of the autographed programs may enter the race. The contestants sit in chairs at mid-court, two chairs facing each goal, and have to race toward the basketball goal at one end to make any shot of their choosing, then race back. One contestant on each side is eliminated, and the two survivors then do the same thing to determine an overall winner.

Other special promotions, mainly during the second semester, will be announced as plans for each are finalized.

11/19 – GEORGE FOX 67, OREGON TECH 57: Bruins' Taylor and Leith Spotted Gunning Down Owls

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore. – Robin Taylor tied her career high with a game-leading 20 points while her running mate at wing, Kim Leith, added 19 points, leading the George Fox University Bruins to a 67-57 win over the host Oregon Institute of Technology Lady Owls in the Harvest Ford / Harvest Auto Credit Women's Basketball Classic Saturday evening here at OIT's Danny Miles Court.

It was the second straight day for the Bruins, who are ranked 8th in the NCAA Division III by the WBCA and 10th in the D3hoops.com poll, to knock off a highly-regarded NAIA program. George Fox is now 2-0 on the young season while Oregon Tech slipped to 3-2.

George Fox led the entire game, scoring the first eight points on a jumper by Erin Powers, an old-fashioned three-point play of a layup and a foul shot by Taylor, and a modern three by Karissa Boyd. The Lady Owls twice got back within two points, the last at 13-11 with 12:13 to play in the half, before the Bruins went on a 13-4 run, capped by a jumper by Leith, for their largest lead of the period at 26-15. Powers' two free throws with 9 seconds left gave the visitors a 10-point lead, 31-21, at the half.

Leith hit a long-range three to give George Fox its largest lead of the game at 60-41 with 7:03 left in the game, but Tech scored the next 11 points in just over a four-minute span, closing to 60-52 on a jumper by Ashley DuBrey. Leith slowed the Lady Owls' comeback by hitting a layup, and the Bruins sank 5 of 6 free throws in the final 45 seconds to secure the win.

Taylor, who hit 7 of 9 from the field and 5 of 7 from three-point range, and Leith were the only Bruins in double figures. Powers had a team-leading 8 rebounds, while Leith and Powers handed out 4 assists apiece.

Amanda Doherty paced the Lady Owls with 13 points, DuBrey had her second double-double in as many games with 10 points and a game-high 13 rebounds, and Samantha Gilbert chipped in 11 points. Laura Ivancie had 6 assists.

George Fox will spend Thanksgiving in Hawaii, playing the University of La Verne Friday and California Lutheran University Saturday at 3:00 p.m. (Pacific time) in the D3 in Hawaii Hoops Classic at Honolulu's Kamehameha High School. Oregon Tech is off until opening Cascade Collegiate Conference play on Dec. 1 at Concordia University-Portland.

11/17 – PREVIEW: Bruins Aim to Keep Success of '05 Going in 2005-06 Cage Season

NEWBERG, Ore. – Even the George Fox University Bruins were surprised by their immediate success during the 2004-05 women's basketball season – but almost no one will be stunned if that success continues in 2005-06.

With a roster that was two-thirds freshmen, the Bruins were ticketed for the middle of the pack in the Northwest Conference, but responded with a 14-2 record that earned them their third league championship in the last six years. After a first-round bye in the NCAA Division III National Tournament, the Bruins won two playoff games before the season ended in the "Elite 8" round with a loss to eventual national runner-up Randolph-Macon on the Yellowjackets' home floor. George Fox finished with a 22-6 overall record and national rankings of 10th in the WBCA poll and 12th in the D3hoops.com poll.

"Last year's team learned how to win quickly," observed head coach Scott Rueck, who earned his third NWC Coach of the Year award for guiding the Bruins to their outstanding season. "The few veterans we had gave us great leadership, they were mentally and physically tough, and they seemed to always rise to the occasion. Can this year's team do it? I think we have the talent to get back, but we'll find out how tough this team is as we go and as they create their identity."

The Bruins return 11 letter-winners, including three starters, and welcome four newcomers, three of whom are 6-1 or better. Gone from last year's team are shooting guard Kellie Thomas, who averaged 10.3 points per game, and forward Liz Clark, now an assistant coach, who posted 10.8 points and 8.4 rebounds a game while earning First Team All-Conference and Third Team All-West Region honors.

Returning Starters

Setting the pace for the Bruins once again will be wing Kim Leith (5-7, Sr., Sherwood, Ore. / Sherwood HS), the Northwest Conference Player of the Year, Second Team All-West Region selection, and honorable mention All-American. Her numbers included a school-record 485 points on the season, an 18.0 scoring average that was 35th nationally, 2.89 three-pointers per game that was 8th in the nation, and a .400 three-point field goal percentage that was 28th in the country.

"Kim is doing an outstanding job of leading this team by being the best player on the floor every day," says Rueck of his pre-season Third Team All-American. "She sets the tone for us with her consistency and provides us with offense from anywhere – in the post, on the perimeter, and off the dribble. Kim has the playmaking ability to create opportunities for others."

The team's only other senior is starting post Erin Powers (5-11, Jr., Salem, Ore. / South Salem HS), although she is a junior in eligibility. The Bruins are looking for her to increase her numbers of 3.3 points and 3.8 rebounds per game.

"Erin is playing the best basketball of her career," notes Rueck, "and has shown the aggressiveness on offense we need from her. She is playing with increased confidence, is quick on defense, and will be big for us in the middle."

Tiffany Behary (5-6, So., Lake Oswego, Ore. / Lake Oswego HS) made an immediate impact by stepping in as a starter at the point guard position and is back to run the offense. She averaged 6.4 points and 2.4 assists a game as a freshman.

"Tiffany may be the best athlete on the team and sets the tone for our defensive attack," says Rueck. "Her speed in transition allows us to push the ball in transition and take advantage of our speed."

Returning Letterwinners

Robin Taylor (5-7, Jr., Bend, Ore. / Mountain View HS) is the heir apparent to Thomas's spot at the wing after scoring at a 7.6 clip as the team's "sixth man" off the bench. Says Rueck, "Robin is well-versed in our system and has certainly earned her shot at a starting position. We believe she can be that No. 2 or No. 3 scorer we need after Kim."

The prime candidate to replace Clark is Katy Campbell (6-1, So., Springfield, Ore. / Thurston HS), who averaged 5.8 points and 4.5 rebounds a game after a strong finish that included a career-high 18 points in the Bruins' playoff win over Chapman. "Katy is a versatile player who can score in the post or shoot the three, and is a very intelligent player who makes her teammates better," says Rueck.

Another post player who has shown tremendous progress is Melissa Marek-Farris (6-1, So., Glide, Ore. / Glide HS), a gifted athlete who is an up-and-coming high jumper for the George Fox track team. She averaged 1.9 points and 2.5 rebounds in 10 minutes of action a game last year. "Melissa may be our quickest post defender and has added to her offensive game this year," notes Rueck. "She can play three spots easily, maybe four. The sky's the limit for her."

With Jordan Wilde (5-11, So., Snohomish, Ore. / Snohomish HS), who had 0.9 points and 0.6 rebounds a game in limited action, also available inside, Rueck believes he has the deepest group of post players ever, commenting, "Jordan is a physical player who can score, rebound, and is a great passer. We can use her at either the 4 or 5 positions."

Rueck has three returning wings whom he can call on when needed: Mandee Spotts (6-1, So., Hillsboro, Ore. / Century HS), Jaime Hubka (5-7, So., Bellingham, Wash. / Sehome HS), and Kaleigha Ramey (5-8, So., Spokane, Wash. / Northwest Christian HS). Spotts averaged 1.7 points a game, and Hubka and Ramey 1.5 points each, in their rookie seasons.

"Mandee had a great off-season and has grown in her scoring ability," comments Rueck. "Jaime is one of our best three-point shooters and a strong defender with good lateral quickness. Kali may be our fastest player, with an explosive first step, and is also a great defender."

Backing up Behary at point guard is Karissa Boyd (5-5, So., Oregon City, Ore. / Oregon City HS) – but Rueck doesn't think of her in those terms. "With Karissa, it's as if we have two starters at the point," says the coach. "She is outstanding playing the passing lanes, getting tips and steals. She sees the floor as well as any player I've coached and leads the break very well."

Newcomers

Tiffany Schmidt (6-1, Jr., Hillsboro, Ore. / Glencoe HS), a transfer from Division I Eastern Washington, will make an immediate impact. Says Rueck, "Tiffany knows what it takes to be successful. I've been impressed by her work ethic and her desire to win. She is extremely mobile for a post player, and can score inside or step outside to shoot the three."

Two other new post players are in their first year of college competition: Bethany Wetmore (6-1, Fr., Sherwood, Ore. / Sherwood HS) and Kristen Shielee (6-3, Fr., Gresham, Ore. / Gresham HS). "Bethany gives us athletic size and is a shot-blocking presence," notes Rueck. "She has a great face-up game from 12-15 feet, handles the ball like a guard, and enables us to go with a bigger lineup when we want to. Kristen, at 6-3, is the tallest player we've ever had. She's got long arms and is another shot-blocker, but she has been slowed by a stress fracture and is just now battling back from that."

The Bruins' fourth newcomer is Ashley Emerick (5-10, Fr., Hermiston, Ore. / Pendleton HS), a versatile player who can handle either the point or wing. "Ashley has the ability to run the point or play the wing, gives us size on the perimeter, and is a threat from the three-point line," Rueck comments.

Summary

The Bruins' potential has earned them the role of a strong pre-season favorite in the conference and rankings of No. 8 in the ESPN/USA Today/WBCA pre-season poll and No. 10 in the D3hoops.com poll. George Fox won't sneak up on anyone this year.

"It's always nice to see your name on that list," says Rueck, "but pre-season ratings are made off your success the year before. There is a target on us this year and we know teams will be up for us night in and night out, but I like having that incentive. That's when you learn what you're made of. I really like the talent and make-up of this team and we have great, quality people throughout the entire roster. I'm really looking forward to the challenge of seeing how good we can become."

Schedule

The season tips off for the Bruins this weekend against a pair of NAIA powers in the Harvest Ford / Harvest Auto Credit Classic at the Oregon Institute of Technology in Klamath Falls, Ore. On Friday, the Bruins take on Southern Oregon University, which is off to a 5-0 start, at 1:30 p.m. In Saturday, they'll face host Oregon Tech, coming off a 22-9 season and 2-1 in the early going, at 5:30 p.m.

The Bruins will travel to Honolulu, Hawaii, during the Thanksgiving holidays for the D3 in Hawaii Hoops Classic before returning for their home opener on Dec. 2, a Northwest Conference clash with Whitworth College. Two NWC games are scheduled before the holidays this year because the league has returned to a conference tournament featuring the top three finishers. The tournament winner, rather than the regular-season champion, will receive the NWC's automatic bid to the NCAA Division III National Tournament. Playoff berths have been expanded to 63 teams this year, however, and chances for a second team from the conference getting an at-large bid are greatly improved.

11/15 – KFOX Radio to Broadcast/Webcast 40 Bruin Basketball Games in 2005-06

NEWBERG, Ore. – Announcing an expanded schedule, George Fox University campus radio station KFOX plans to broadcast and webcast 40 Bruin basketball games during the 2005-06 seasons, according to station sports director Courtney Ngai.

The schedule includes 22 of the men's 25 regularly-season contests and 18 of the 25 women's games. In addition to selected non-conference games and all 16 Northwest Conference games, home and away, for each team, any games the Bruins play in the Northwest Conference Tournament will be aired. Should either or both Bruin teams advance to the NCAA National Tournament, plans will be announced at that time.

Various staff members of KFOX, coordinated by advisor Josh Nauman of the university's Communications department, will handle the play-by-play and color commentary duties.

Because of the limited range of the non-profit station, fans outside the George Fox campus may have trouble picking up the KFOX radio broadcasts, but the webcast is easily accessible through the internet at www.kfoxradio.net. Listeners will need a high-speed connection and QuickTime 6.0 or higher, and a download for QuickTime is provided on the KFOX web site.

The schedule of broadcasts/webcasts for George Fox basketball on KFOX in 2005-06:

11/7 – NWC POLL: Bruins Rated a Strong Favorite by NWC Coaches to Repeat as Champs

NEWBERG, Ore. – Unlike last fall, there is not much confusion about which team the Northwest Conference coaches think will win the 2005-06 women's basketball title – the George Fox University Bruins, who are heavy favorites after receiving seven of nine possible first-place votes and 86 points in the NWC pre-season poll.

Last year, four different schools picked up first-place votes in a tightly packed pre-season poll. George Fox was not one of them, having been tabbed for fifth, but stunned everyone behind Northwest Conference Player of the Year and Honorable Mention All-American wing Kim Leith, who will undoubtedly be the Bruins' "go-to" player again in her senior season. Last year, she was fourth in the conference and 35th nationally in scoring with an average of 18.0 points a game, and led the league while ranking eighth in the nation in three-point field goals per game (2.89).

Other returning starters for the Bruins include point guard Tiffany Behary, who averaged 6.4 points and 2.4 assists a game, and post Erin Powers, who had numbers of 3.3 points and 3.8 rebounds per outing. The Bruins will need to find replacements for First Team All-NWC forward Liz Clark (10.8 ppg, 8.4 rpg) and wing Kellie Thomas (10.3 ppg), however.

The Bruins finished 22-6 overall and first in the NWC at 14-2, earning their third post-season appearance in the last six years. After receiving a first-round bye, the Bruins defeated Chapman University and the College of St. Benedict to reach the "Elite 8" before losing to eventual national runner-up Randolph-Macon College in the West/South sub-regional finals. George Fox had 10 freshmen among its 15 players, and with a year's experience under their belts, the Bruins indeed appear poised for another fine year. George Fox was also picked 10th nationally in the D3hoops.com women's basketball pre-season poll.

George Fox head coach Scott Rueck enters his 10th season with the Bruins with nine winning seasons in a row and a record of 165-67 (.711). He was the 2005-06 NWC Coach of the Year for leading the Bruins to the conference crown and final national rankings of 12th in the D3hoops.com poll and 10th in the Women's Basketball Coaches of America poll.

Whitman College, a co-champion in 2003-04, finished second in the poll with one first-place vote and 66 points in the poll. The Missionaries return all five starters, including seniors Lizzy Washburn, Laura Vertatschitsch, and Megan Higgins. Whitman dropped to a fourth-place tie last season after dealing with numerous injuries.

Pacific Lutheran University is third in the poll with the final first-place vote and 60 points. Senior wing Kelly Turner will lead the Lutes, who must overcome the graduation of All-NWC guard Aundi Kustura. The University of Puget Sound followed in fourth place with 52 points. The Loggers will attempt to overcome the graduation of All-NWC post players Lindsay May and Angie Straw.

No team must overcome more than Whitworth College. The Pirates, picked fifth in the poll with 41 points, must replace all five starters from last season, including multiple-time All-NWC honorees Tiffany Speer and Sarah Shogren. Linfield College is sixth in the poll with 37 points. The Wildcats, who were also picked sixth last season, must replace point guard Heidi Jurgens, who graduated.

Pacific University (27 points), Willamette University (23), and Lewis & Clark College (22 points) rounded out the poll in seventh through ninth places respectively. Pacific returns All-NWC forward DeeDee Arnall, while Willamette welcomes back All-NWC post Vanessa Wyffels. The pair finished first and second in scoring in the NWC last winter.

This season the Northwest Conference returns to a conference tournament to decide the automatic (Pool A) bid to the NCAA tournament. At the conclusion of the regular season, the second-place team in the final standings will host the third-place team in a playoff. The winner will then play at the regular-season champion for the NCAA bid.

2005-06 Women's Basketball Coaches Pre-Season Poll:

11/5 – ALL-AMERICA: Bruins' Leith Named a Pre-Season Third Team All-American by D3hoops

NEWBERG, Ore. – Kim Leith, who led the George Fox University Bruins to the "Elite 8" in last year's NCAA Division III National Women's Basketball Tournament, has been named to the 2005-06 pre-season All-America Third Team as chosen by D3hoops.com, a web site considered perhaps the most complete source of news about D-III basketball in the country.

Leith, a 5-7 senior wing from Sherwood, Ore., turned in one of the finest seasons in George Fox history in 2004-05 while sparking the Bruins to a 22-6 record, a Northwest Conference record of 14-2 that resulted in a league championship, and two wins in the NCAA Tournament before a quarterfinal loss to eventual national runner-up Randolph-Macon College. She averaged 18.0 points a game, ranking 5th in the NWC and 35th nationally, her average of 2.89 three-point field goals per game led the league and was 8th nationally, and her three-point percentage of .400 was 28th in the nation. She also averaged 4.0 rebounds, 1.9 assists, and 1.9 steals per game, with a .434 field goal percentage and a .847 mark from the free-throw line.

During the season, Leith set two new Bruin records, scoring 30 points in a half against Neumann College on Dec. 31, and scoring 485 points to establish a new single-season record. She also moved into 8th place on the all-time scoring list at George Fox with 1,004 career points. She earned NWC Player of the Week three times, was voted the NWC Player of the Year, was named to the D3hoops.com All-West Region Second Team, and received All-America Honorable Mention.

With Leith and two other starters returning, George Fox is optimistic about challenging for the conference championship and a post-season playoff in 2005-06. The Bruins will be led once again by Scott Rueck, last year's NWC Coach of the Year, who takes a 165-67 record into his 10th season at the helm of the George Fox women's basketball program.

The complete pre-season All-America teams, including First, Second, Third, Fourth, and Honorable Mention, as chosen by D3hoops.com are available on line at <http://www.d3hoops.com/tow/wompreallam06.htm>.

10/31 – D3HOOPS POLL: Bruins Ranked No. 10 in Pre-Season Cage Poll by D3hoops.com

NEWBERG, Ore. – With 11 letterwinners and three starters returning from last year's "Elite 8" team, including Northwest Conference Player of the Year and Honorable Mention All-American Kim Leith, the George Fox University Bruins have been picked 10th in the 2005-06 D3hoops.com NCAA Division III national women's basketball pre-season poll.

The Bruins are coming off a 22-6 campaign that saw them win the NWC with a 14-2 league mark, earning their third post-season appearance in the last six years. After receiving a first-round bye, the Bruins defeated Chapman University and the College of St. Benedict before losing to eventual national runner-up Randolph-Macon College in the West/South sub-regional finals. The George Fox team had 10 freshmen among its 15 players, and with a year's experience under their belts, the Bruins appear poised for another fine year in 2005-06.

Leith, a senior wing from nearby Sherwood, Ore., will undoubtedly be the Bruins' "go-to" player again. Last year, she was 4th in the conference and 35th nationally in scoring with an average of 18.0 points a game, and led the league while ranking 8th in the nation in three-point field goals per game (2.89). Returning starters for the Bruins also include point guard Tiffany Behary (So., Lake Oswego, Ore.), who averaged 6.4 points and 2.4 assists a game, and post Erin Powers (Jr., Salem, Ore.), who had numbers of 3.3 points and 3.8 rebounds per outing.

George Fox head coach Scott Rueck enters his 10th season with the Bruins with nine winning seasons in a row and a record of 165-67 (.711). He was the 2005-06 NWC Coach of the Year for leading the Bruins to the conference crown and final national rankings of 12th in the D3hoops.com poll and 10th in the Women's Basketball Coaches of America poll.

Defending national champion Millikin University is a heavy favorite to repeat its title, with Randolph-Macon a distant second. The entire D3hoops.com pre-season poll is available at <http://d3hoops.com/top25/>.

GEORGE FOX UNIVERSITY "BRUINS" 2005-06 WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

SCOTT RUECK

Head Women's Basketball Coach

In nine years, Scott Rueck has established the George Fox University women's basketball program as one of the finest in the nation at the small-college level. In that time, he has guided the Bruins to a 165-67 record for a winning percentage of .711, five post-season playoff appearances, and regular recognition in national top 25 polls.

The 2004-05 season brought increased recognition to the program as the Bruins went further in the NCAA National Tournament than any previous women's hoops team. After winning the Northwest Conference crown with a 14-2 league mark and an automatic bid to the tournament, the Bruins received a first-round bye before defeating Chapman University at home and the College of St. Benedict on a neutral floor to reach the NCAA "Elite Eight". The Bruins' season ended with a loss to eventual national runner-up Randolph-Macon University on the Yellow Jackets' home court. George Fox finished with a 22-6 overall mark and was nationally ranked in the final polls of the Women's Basketball Coaches of America (#10) and D3hoops.com (#12).

For those achievements, Rueck was named NWC "Coach of the Year", the third time he has been so honored. The first came in 1999-2000 when he led the Bruins to a 23-5 record, an NWC co-championship (the team's first), two NCAA playoff wins, and a No. 19 national ranking. In 2000-01, he was named NWC Co-Coach of the Year as the Bruins went 15-1 in the conference to win their first outright league title and 23-3 overall, tying the single-season high in wins and establishing a record winning percentage (.885). With a 20-1 record at one point, the Bruins were voted the #1 team in all of Division III, a spot they held for two weeks. The season ended with a second-round setback in the NCAA Tournament, and the Bruins were voted #11 in the final D3hoops.com poll.

A member of the Women's Basketball Coaches of America, Rueck has served as the West Region rater for the coaches' poll for the past two seasons. In addition to his coaching duties, he also teaches courses in the department of health and human performance at George Fox, and is in his 12th year as director of Victory Hoop Camp for Portland youth.

Rueck, 36, has 16 years of coaching experience. While still a student at Oregon State University, he began his coaching career as an assistant boys' basketball coach at Santiam Christian High School in Corvallis, working there from 1989-93. From 1993-95, he served as a women's basketball assistant under George Fox head coach Sherri Murrell, now the head coach at Washington State, during which the Bruins went 37-23 and made two NAIA post-season appearances. In 1995-96, he coached the Bruin women's tennis team.

When Murrell left after the 1995-96 season, Rueck was named interim head coach for a year, then was made permanent head coach after a national search that yielded four finalists. The Bruins have posted winning records in each of his nine years as head coach, and his players have earned four NAIA All-America, two NCAA All-America, and 20 All-Northwest Conference awards.

A graduate of Glencoe High School in Hillsboro, Ore., Rueck comes from a basketball family. His sister, 1995 George Fox graduate Heidi Rueck, set the school's career, season, and single-game assist records as an NAIA All-American point guard and was voted into the GFU Sport Hall of Fame in 2005. His father, Marv Rueck, was a long-time member of the basketball coaching staffs at Hillsboro Union and Glencoe High Schools, including a season as head coach when Glencoe opened in 1980.

Rueck earned his bachelor's degree in exercise and sports science in 1991 and a master of arts degree in physical education teaching in 1992, both from Oregon State. He and his wife, the former Kerry Aillaud, who played basketball for George Fox from 1993-95, reside in Newberg. The Ruecks have one son, Cole Michael, who will celebrate his second birthday on Oct. 21 this year.

GEORGE FOX UNIVERSITY "BRUINS" 2005-06 WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

KERRY RUECK

Assistant Women's Basketball Coach

Kerry Rueck, who married head coach Scott Rueck in 1996, is in her 8th season as an assistant coach for the George Fox University women's basketball team.

Rueck first came to George Fox as a transfer from Skagit Valley Community College, and played as Kerry Aillaud on the nationally-ranked 1993-94 and 1994-95 teams. One of the best outside shooters in team history, she ranks second in career three-point field goals (119), career three-point field goal percentage (.388, 119-307), and single-season three-point percentage (.414, 58-140 in 1993-94), and third in single-season three-pointers (61 in 1994-95).

Rueck earned her bachelor of arts degree in elementary education in 1995 from George Fox, and currently teaches fifth grade in the Newberg School District. The Ruecks reside in Newberg with their son Cole, age 2.

ERICA EWART

Assistant Women's Basketball Coach

Erica Ewart, a former Whitworth College standout and 2001-02 Northwest Conference "Player of the Year", brings a thorough knowledge of the game to the George Fox women's basketball program in her third year as an assistant coach.

A native of Connell, Wash., and a graduate of Connell High, she played one year of women's basketball at Lewis-Clark State College in Lewiston, Idaho, before transferring to Whitworth. She finished her three-year career there as the Pirates' all-time leader in three-point field goals, capping it off with her NWC "Player of the Year" award while leading the team to the NCAA Tournament.

Ewart graduated from Whitworth in 2002 with a bachelor of arts degree in psychology. She spent a year working with the Big Brothers / Big Sisters program in Spokane, Wash., under the auspices of the AmeriCorp program, and coached the junior varsity program at her alma mater. She is pursuing a master's degree in counseling at George Fox, with no future plans firmly fixed, although she admits to a love of coaching. She is single and lives in Tualatin, Ore.

LIZ CLARK

Assistant Women's Basketball Coach

Liz Clark, an All-Northwest Conference First Team selection and a key leader on last year's Bruin team that reached the "Elite 8" of the NCAA Division III National Tournament, begins her coaching career this year as an assistant women's basketball coach at her alma mater.

A native of Elbe, Wash., Clark came to the Bruins after setting the career scoring record at nearby Eatonville High School and having her jersey retired. She earned honorable mention All-NWC status as a sophomore, but was hampered by an ankle injury early in her junior season. She bounced back strong as a senior, averaging 10.8 points, 8.4 rebounds, and leading the league in steals with 2.8 a game. She grabbed 20 rebounds in the Bruins' playoff victory over Chapman, tying for the 4th-best one-game total in Bruin history. Known for her tenacious defense and rebounding, Clark finished her GFU career 6th in all-time rebounds with 743, 7th in steals with 175, and 8th in assists with 218. She also scored 828 points.

An adventurous sort, Clark enjoys jet skiing and insists that she would like to live in Hawaii or New York and backpack Europe. She graduated from George Fox in 2005 with a degree in fitness management and nutrition.
