2007-08 BASKETBALL

THE FANS' CODE OF CONDUCT

The NCAA, the Northwest Conference, and George Fox University promote good sportsmanship by student-athletes, coaches, and spectators. We request your cooperation by supporting the participants and officials in a positive manner. Please refrain from all use of profanity, racial or sexist comments, or other intimidating actions directed at officials, student-athletes, coaches, or team representatives. Public intoxication, the consumption or possession of alcoholic beverages, and the use of tobacco products in this venue are grounds for removal from the site of competition and possible other disciplinary actions.

SCOTT RUECK Head Coach

Scott Rueck, who received his fourth Northwest Conference Coach of the Year award in 2007-08, has established the George Fox University women's basketball program as one of the finest in the nation at the small-college level. In 11 years, he has guided the Bruins to a 203-80 record (.717), six post-season playoff appearances, and regular recognition in national top 25 polls.

Last year's 19-7 record was the Bruins' 14th straight winning season, 11 under Rueck. The team tied for the conference crown with a 13-3 league record, defeated co-champion Puget Sound in the NWC Tournament title game, and went 1-1 in the NCAA Division III National Tournament, defeating Gustavus Adolphus before falling to Puget Sound for the only time in four meetings during the season. George Fox was ranked #25 in both the WBCA and D3hoops.com final national polls.

In 2004-05, the Bruins went further in the NCAA National Tournament than any previous women's hoops team. After winning the NWC crown with a 14-2 league mark, the Bruins defeated Chapman and St. Benedict to reach the NCAA "Elite Eight". The season ended with a loss to eventual national runner-up Randolph-Macon on the Yellow Jackets' home court. GFU finished with a 22-6 overall mark and was ranked in the final polls of the WBCA (#10) and D3hoops.com (#12). Rueck was named NWC Coach of the Year.

Rueck's first conference coaching honor came in 1999-2000 when he led the Bruins to a 23-5 record, an NWC co-championship (the team's first), two NCAA playoff wins, and a #19 national ranking. In 2000-01, he was named NWC Co-Coach of the Year as the Bruins went 15-1 in the conference to win their first outright league title and 23-3 overall, tying the single-season high in wins and establishing a record winning percentage (.885). With a 20-1 record at one point, the Bruins were voted the #1 team in the nation, a spot they held for two weeks. The season ended with a second-round setback in the NCAA Tournament, and the Bruins were voted #11 in the final D3hoops.com poll.

As a member of the WBCA, Rueck served as the West Region rater for the coaches' poll for two seasons. In addition to his coaching duties, he teaches courses in the department of health and human performance at George Fox, and is in his 14th year as director of Victory Hoop Camp for Portland youth.

Rueck, 38, has 18 years of coaching experience. While still a student at Oregon State University, he began his coaching career as an assistant boys' basketball coach at Santiam Christian High School in Corvallis, working there from 1989-93. From 1993-95, he served as a women's basketball assistant under George Fox head coach Sherri Murrell. In 1995-96, he coached the Bruin women's tennis team. During his tenure as head coach, the Bruins have earned four NAIA All-America, two NCAA All-America, and 26 All-Northwest Conference awards.

A graduate of Glencoe High School in Hillsboro, Ore., Rueck earned his bachelor's degree in exercise and sports science in 1991 and a master of arts degree in physical education teaching in 1992, both from Oregon State. He and his wife, the former Kerry Aillaud, who played basketball for George Fox from 1993-95 and served as the Bruins' assistant coach from 1998-2006, reside in Newberg. The Ruecks have one son, Cole Michael, age 4, and one daughter, Kate Makenna, age 1.

MARK SUNDQUIST Head Coach

After four years of cultivating a revival of George Fox men's basketball, the results of Mark Sundquist's hard work and patience have come to full fruition over the past three seasons as the Bruins have gone 46-29 in that span, the most wins by any NCAA Division III team in the state.

The 2004-05 season was the Bruins' best in 14 years as they posted an 18-7 record, their first winning season in six years, won the most games since the 1991-92 team went 24-11, and posted the best winning percentage (.720) since an .800 mark (24-6) in 1990-91. They were second in the Northwest Conference at 13-3, their highest finish since joining the NWC in 1995, equaled their record for NWC wins, and had the best winning percentage (.813). George Fox led the league in attendance, averaging 1,145 per home game, and set a single-game crowd record with 2,400 for a Homecoming win over Whitworth on Feb. 5. Sundquist was named NWC Coach of the Year for the Bruins' incredible turnaround.

The success continued in 2005-06 as the Bruins went 16-9 record and finished fourth in the conference with at 9-7. Led by Second Team All-West Region guard Aaron Schmick, George Fox ranked third nationally in free throw percentage (.782), 15th in three-point field goal percentage (.407), 37th in scoring (81.1 ppg), and 38th in field goal percentage (.484). They led the NWC in three-point and free throw shooting and blocked shots per game (3.24).

Despite two losses at the end of the season that left them with a 12-13 record, the Bruins posted some outstanding victories in 2006-07, including a win over NAIA power Holy Names, a sweep of archrival Linfield, and a stunning upset of #13 Puget Sound in which the Bruins out-scored the Loggers 34-5 over the last 13 minutes of the game.

Sundquist was named to the George Fox post in 2001, after a national search that ended ironically in the Bruins' backyard! During the 1999-2000 season, he had served as the boys' coach at Newberg High School. Prior to that, he had spent two seasons as the boys' coach at Woodburn (Ore.) High School.

Sundquist grew up in Hillsboro, Ore., and went to Glencoe High School. He attended Seattle Pacific University, earning four letters from 1984-88 as a shooting guard alongside point guard Ritchie McKay, ex-Oregon State coach and now the head coach at Liberty. He led SPU in free throw percentage as a junior (.818) and a senior (.817), with his career mark of .819 ranking 7th all-time. He was team captain and MVP as a senior, averaging 14.1 points a game while shooting a team-best .514 from the field and .482 from three-point range, then a school record. In an 83-78 overtime loss at Division I Stanford, he scored a career-high 33 points while setting new records, since broken, for three-pointers made (7) and attempted (12) in a game. He was All-Great Northwest Conference and All-NCAA Division II District VIII as a senior.

Sundquist graduated in 1989 with a bachelor's degree in social sciences/secondary education. During his last year at SPU, he served as assistant women's basketball coach. After three years coaching in the junior high ranks, he spent the 1992-97 seasons as an assistant for the boys' program at Glencoe before taking the Woodburn job. He is married to the former Sara Thompson of Bellevue, Wash., and they have one son, Jake, age 10, and a daughter, Kaitlyn, age 7. The Sundquists attend Countryside Community Church in Sherwood.
