MICHAEL MEEK - Head Coach

Michael Meek, who coached Southridge High School (Beaverton, Ore.) to five Oregon large-school state titles in a six-year span between 2005 and 2010, begins his first season as head coach of the George Fox women's basketball program in 2010-11, replacing 14-year veteran Scott Rueck, who took over the program at his alma mater, Oregon State University.

Meek began his coaching career at La Grande (Ore.) High School, where he went 51-29 in three years (1997-2000). In 10 seasons at Southridge (2000-10), he was 213-58, winning state titles in the 4A classification in 2005 and 2006, and the new 6A level in 2007, 2008, and 2010. He was named the 2006 MaxPreps Girls' Basketball Coach of the Year, the Oregon Athletic Coaches Association Coach of the Year four times ('05, '06, '07, and '10), and State Coach of the Year by The Oregonian newspaper twice ('05 and '10). He was league Coach of the Year six times ('00, '04, '05, '06, '09, and '10).

A native of Puyallup, Wash., Meek played basketball at Tacoma Community College and Eastern Oregon University, earning a bachelor of science degree in physical education and health in 1999. He earned his master of arts in teaching from Grand Canyon University in 2004. He and his wife Lisa reside in Beaverton with their daughters McKelle and Audrey, and attend Beaverton Foursquare Church.

MARK SUNDQUIST - Head Coach

Mark Sundquist, the second-longest tenured coach in George Fox men's basketball history, enters his 11th season after re-establishing the Bruins as one of the most competitive teams in the Northwest Conference.

Sundquist replaced 18-year veteran Mark Vernon, the winningest coach in school history, in 2000 after a national search that ended ironically in the Bruins' backyard! During the 1999-2000 season, he had served as the boys' basketball coach at nearby Newberg High School. Prior to that, he had spent two seasons as the boys' basketball coach at Woodburn (Ore.) High School.

Sundquist's rebuilding efforts were rewarded in 2004-05 as the Bruins posted their best season in 14 years. With an 18-7 record, they won the most games since 1991-92 and posted the best winning percentage (.720) since 1990-91. Their second-place finish in the conference at 13-3 was their highest since joining the NWC in 1995, equaled their record for NWC wins, and was the best winning percentage (.813). He was named NWC Coach of the Year.

In 2005-06, the Bruins went 16-9 record and finished fourth in the NWC at 9-7. George Fox ranked third nationally in free throw percentage (.782), 15th in three-point field goal percentage (.407), 37th in scoring (81.1 ppg), and 38th in field goal percentage (.484). They led the NWC in three-point and free throw shooting and blocked shots per game (3.24).

Over the past four seasons, the Bruins have remained a team that cannot be counted out of any game. This past year, the Bruins went 13-14 and tied for third in the NWC at 9-7. Making only their second appearance in the NWC Tournament since joining the league for the 1995-96 season, the Bruins scored a thrilling win at Linfield in the semifinals before being eliminated just one win away from their first NCAA National Tournament berth by the 5th-ranked Whitworth Pirates on the road.

Sundquist takes a 10-year record at George Fox of 103-148 (.410) into the 2009-10 season. He is the second-winningest coach in Bruins history, trailing only Vernon's 318-218 record (1982-2000).

Sundquist attended Glencoe High School in Hillsboro, Ore., then earned four letters in basketball at Seattle Pacific University (1984-88). He was named All-Great Northwest Conference and All-NCAA Division II District VIII as a senior.

Sundquist graduated in 1989 with a bachelor's degree in social sciences/secondary education. The 45-year-old coach is married to the former Sara Thompson of Bellevue, Wash., and they have one son, Jake, age 13 1/2, and a daughter, Kaitlyn, age 10. The Sundquists attend Countryside Community Church in Sherwood.
