BRUINS AVENGE CASCADE CRUSHING WITH 94-88 UPSET

NEWBERG, Ore. --- Travis Melvin scored 28 points, Jordan Green set three personal records en route to a 24-point game, and the George Fox University Bruins overcame Tyron Manlove's triple-double for a 94-88 upset of the Cascade College Thunderbirds Tuesday night (Dec. 5) here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

Cascade jumped out to an early 7-0 lead, conjuring up visions of the Thunderbirds' 118-79 rout of the Bruins a week ago. But George Fox went on a 17-2 run, including 12 straight to start the streak, to make a game of it. With Cascade holding a 22-21 lead, the Bruins went on another 12-0 run to take a 33-22 lead before the T-Birds battled back. Kenny Macy came off the bench to hit two big 3-pointers near the end of the half, lifting the Bruins to a 49-45 halftime lead.

The second half was a back-and-forth affair, the Bruins going up 70-60 with 12:43 to play on a Melvin basket, but the T-Birds rallied behind Manlove, who had 31 points, 13 rebounds, and 10 assists on the night. Manlove's tip-in with 5:21 to play gave Cascade an 82-77 lead, but the Bruins rallied on a pair of free throws by Bryan Wadlow and Jeff Greene and Melvin's 3-pointer that tied it at 84-84 with 3:41 to play.

A Jordan Green free throw at 3:09 put the Bruins up for good, 85-84, with 3:09 left, and he added six more freebies in the final two minutes as the Thunderbirds were forced to foul trying to catch up. Green finished the game making 13 of 14 free throws, setting new personal records for free throws made and attempted.

Green, who was 6th nationally in steals last year, led the Bruins' defensive effort with 9 swipes, a personal high and two short of the team record. As a team, George Fox had 18 steals as the T-Birds made 26 turnovers to only 14 for the Bruins (Manlove actually had a quadruple-double as he also had 10 turnovers).

Melvin hit 11 of 19 from the field while scoring 28 and added 6 assists and 5 steals. Sean Linder and Wadlow chipped in with career highs as well, scoring 17 and 10 respectively.

In addition to Manlove's 31, Mark Hobson scored 20, all in the first half, and Glenn Baird added 17 for the Thunderbirds. Manlove had 13 rebounds and Baird 11 as Cascade dominated the much-smaller Bruins 43-28.

George Fox is now 2-3 on the season, while Cascade is 4-5. The Bruins return to action Friday and Saturday (Dec. 8-9) in the Concordia University-Portland Tournament, taking on Westminster College-Salt Lake City at 6:00 p.m., followed by host Concordia vs. Multnomah Bible College at 8:00 p.m. Semifinals are Saturday at 4:00 p.m., with the championship at 8:00 p.m. Cascade visits Western Washington University Thursday (Dec. 7).

BRUINS FALTER AGAIN ON THE ROAD IN 118-79 SETBACK AT CASCADE

PORTLAND, Ore. --- With six players scoring in double figures, the Cascade College Thunderbirds thumped the George Fox University Bruins 118-79 in a non-conference men's college basketball game Tuesday night (Nov. 28) here at the Cascade Thunderdome.

The Bruins fell to 1-2 on the season, all on the road, in dropping their second straight, while the Thunderbirds snapped a four-game losing streak and evened their record at 4-4.

Mark Hudson scored 20 to lead the Thunderbirds, followed by Glenn Baird with 17 and a quartet - Mark Fritzler, Tyrone Manlove, Troy Chambers and Ernie Woodfy - with 12 each. Cascade shot .692 in the first half (27-39) to only .265 (9-34) for the Bruins and took a 67-26 halftime lead. The Thunderbirds also out-rebounded the Bruins in the game 58-34.

The Bruins were led by Jordan Green with 15 points, followed by Aaron Milner with 12 and Zach Hollin with a career-high 11. Bryan Wadlow was the Bruins' top rebounder with 6. George Fox was without the services of starting center Andrew Coleman, who has had recurring back problems and is listed as day-to-day as far as availability to the team is concerned.

George Fox begins Northwest Conference play this Friday (Dec. 1), hosting 20th-ranked Lewis & Clark College, the defending conference champion and unanimous pre-season conference favorite, at 8:00 p.m. The Bruin women will also open conference play prior to the men's game with a 6:00 p.m. contest against Pacific Lutheran University. The Border Collies, a trained animal show which appeared in the Wheeler Sports Center last year, will provide a spirited halftime entertainment during both games.

McMINNVILLE, Ore. --- In a game that featured plenty of up-and-down-the-court action, the Linfield College Wildcats outraced the George Fox University Bruins to a 110-82 victory in a Northwest Conference men's basketball game Friday night (Jan. 12) here at Ted Wilson Gym.

The Bruins took a short-lived 10-9 lead four minutes into the game, but the Wildcats responded with a 20-6 run that gave the home team a 29-16 lead with 10:08 left in the half and control of the game. With Grant Ebright and Evan Wilson scoring 13 and 12 respectively in the half, the Wildcats stretched the lead to 25 at the half, 56-31. Eleven different players scored in the first half alone for Linfield.

A 12-4 run midway through the second half, with Jordan Green and Sean Linder contributing four points apiece, enabled the Bruins to cut the Linfield lead to 16 at 82-66 with 8:19 to go, but that was as close as George Fox would come the rest of the game. The Linfield lead eventually bulged to 29 at 108-79 with 1:05 left.

James Macy topped the Bruins with 22 points as he hit 6 of 8 shots, including 3 of 3 from three-point range, Green finished with 17, and Travis Melvin added 15. The Bruins connected on only .377 from the field (23-61), and were out-rebounded 48-33.

For Linfield, Ebright and Wilson had career highs with 26 and 19 points respectively, Travis Jones had 15, and former Bruin Ryan Cruz chipped in with 12. The Wildcats blistered the nets for a .562 percentage (41-73), including .611 (22-36) in the first half.

George Fox fell to 4-8 overall and 1-4 in the conference, while the Wildcats improved to 9-3 overall and 3-1 in the league. The Bruins, who have not played at home since Dec. 5, will host Willamette University Tuesday, Jan. 16, at 8:00 p.m. The game will be broadcast live over KLYC 1260 AM. The Wildcats entertain Pacific University Saturday, Jan. 13, at 8:00 p.m.

01/12/01 8:00 pm at McMinnville, Ore.

BRUINS CRUISE PAST MULTNOMAH 70-54 BEHIND MELVIN'S 21

PORTLAND, Ore. --- Led by Travis Melvin's 21 points, every George Fox University player but one got into the scoring act as the Bruins cruised past the Multnomah Bible College Ambassadors 70-54 in the consolation game of the G.I. Joe's/New Balance Concordia Classic in men's basketball Saturday night (Dec. 9) here at the Concordia University-Portland Gymnasium.

Melvin hit five straight three-pointers at one stretch in the second half en route to a big game that included a team-leading 8 rebounds and 3 assists. Jeff Greene, starting at forward in place of injured Sean Linder who sat out the game with a sprained ankle, added a career-high 15 points. Eight other Bruins scored, and the only one who did not scratch, starting point guard James Macy, was second for the Bruins with 6 rebounds.

Sam Couture led all players with 24 points and 9 rebounds for Multnomah, while Ryan Franklin came off the bench to score 13.

Multnomah took an early 5-3 lead, but the Bruins exploded in front 28-10 and led 41-23 at the half. George Fox stretched the lead to as many as 26 points early in the second half, and the Ambassadors got no closer than 13 the rest of the way.

George Fox improved to 3-4 on the season, while Multnomah dropped its 10th straight and fell to 1-11. It was only the second meeting of the two teams (since 1965, as far back as current George Fox records go), who last met in 1989 with the Bruins taking a 90-66 win.

In the championship game of the tournament, host Concordia University-Portland and Westminster College-Salt Lake City met at 8:00 p.m.

The Bruins return to Northwest Conference play Saturday, Dec. 16, after taking time off for exams this week, visiting Pacific Lutheran University for a 7:00 p.m. contest. The Ambassadors are off until Tuesday, Dec. 19, when they visit Evergreen State College at 7:30 p.m.

BRUINS' COLD SHOOTING RESULTS IN 97-62 DEFEAT AT NORTHWEST

KIRKLAND, Wash. --- A cold shooting night from the floor and a lack of rebounding doomed the George Fox University Bruins to a 97-62 setback at the hands of the Northwest College of the Assembly of God Eagles in a non-conference men's basketball contest Saturday night (Nov. 25) here at the Northwest Pavilion.

The Bruins shot only .296 (8-27) in the first half and trailed at the break 55-27, then improved only slightly to .353 (12-34) in the second half, finishing at .328 (20-61) for the game. The Eagles, meanwhile, clicked on almost half of their shots (31-63), and were even better at .529 (9-17) from three-point range, normally the Bruins' strong suit. George Fox hit only 9-39 (.231) from outside the circle. On the boards, the home-standing Eagles out-rebounded the visiting Bruins 53-28.

Jordan Green scored 17 points and Aaron Milner added 13, hitting 5-7 from the field, to lead the Bruins. James Macy was the top rebounder for George Fox with 5, while Green passed out 5 assists.

For Northwest, five players scored in double figures: Dan Bogrand with 16, Don Barker, Tyronne Ellis, and Damian Klosowski with 15 each, and Shannon Kelley with 14. Ellis grabbed 14 rebounds, while Barker and Justin Prohn had 4 assists apiece.

George Fox, now 1-1 on the season, returns to action Tuesday (Nov. 28) with a 7:30 p.m. game against Cascade College in Portland, while Northwest improved to 3-2 and will visit Seattle University Tuesday at 7:00 p.m.

BOXERS HIT EARLY THREES TO KEY 86-69 WIN OVER BRUINS

FOREST GROVE, Ore. --- Brandon Kilgour and Michael Bloom hit two three-pointers each in a 14-0 run midway through the first half, boosting the Pacific University to an insurmountable lead, and the Boxers went on to an 86-69 win over the George Fox University Bruins in a Northwest Conference men's basketball game Saturday night (Jan. 20) here at the Pacific Athletic Center.

Jordan Green nailed a three-pointer from the left wing to get George Fox off to a 3-0 lead, but that was the only time all night the Bruins would have an edge. Ray Figueroa's three from the left corner and a layup by Pierre Elliott put Pacific ahead for good at 17:53, and the Boxers made it 12-3 before the Bruins scored again. Pacific was up by five after a James Macy free throw cut the Boxer lead to 24-19, but Kilgour and Bloom hit two each from long range to make it 38-19 with 4:33 left in the half.

Pacific led 44-30 at the half and stretched its lead to as many as 22, taking an 82-60 lead with 2:10 to play. The Bruins got no closer than 15 in the second half.

Macy led the Bruins with 19 points, hitting 5 of 7 from the field and 8 of 9 from the line, and Bryan Wadlow scored 16 on 5 of 8 from the floor and 5 of 6 from the line, but the rest of the Bruins were only 12 for 39, a .308 percentage. The Bruins' high-scoring tandem of Jordan Green and Travis Melvin, averaging a collective 36.2 points a game coming in, combined for only 9 points. Aaron Milner gathered in a game-high 7 rebounds, but the Bruins were beaten on the boards 33-32.

Kilgour led all scorers with 24 points, including 9 of 10 from the free throw line, Figueroa and Peter Lunde scored 13 apiece, and Kevin Evers chipped in with 10 for the Boxers. Kilgour was high for Pacific with 6 rebounds and Figueroa had a game-high 5 assists. The Boxers shot .455 for the game (25-55), including 9 for 20 from three-point range (.450), and sank 27 of 33 free throws (.818).

George Fox dropped to 5-10 overall and 2-6 in the conference with the setback, while Pacific raised its record to 6-8 overall and 3-4 in the league. The Bruins return to action Tuesday (Jan. 23) for their final non-conference game of the season, hosting Warner Pacific College at 7:30 p.m. The Boxers host the University of Puget Sound Friday (Jan. 26) at 8:00 p.m.

BRUINS FALL TO LUTES 85-80 DESPITE MACY'S CAREER-HIGH 27

TACOMA, Wash. --- In a long-range gunning game in which over half the shots taken were three-pointers, James Macy scored a career-high 27 points and Jordan Green added 20, but it was not enough as the George Fox University Bruins dropped an 85-80 decision to the Pacific Lutheran University Lutes in a Northwest Conference men's basketball game Saturday night (Dec. 16) here at Olson Auditorium.

After trading leads several times for the first 10 minutes of the game, the Lutes got hot and pulled away to a 50-38 halftime lead, hitting .655 from the field (19-29) in the half. Macy kept the Bruins in the ballgame with 17 in the first half, but picked up three quick fouls early in the second half and had to sit for a while, enabling PLU to maintain a comfortable lead at 73-61 with nine minutes left.

The Bruins rallied late as Green got hot, hitting three threes and a pair of free throws to spark a 17-3 run that gave George Fox a 78-76 lead with 4:11 to play. The Bruins cooled off, however, making only a Macy field goal with 1:12 to go the rest of the way. A pair of Treven Vander Ploeg free throws and a jumper by Parker Barth by PLU back in front for good, and the Lutes sank 4 of 6 free throws in the final minute to seal the win.

Macy finished with a 10-for-14 night from the field, including 4 of 5 from three-point range and 3 of 3 from the line. He and Green were joined in the scoring column by Bryan Wadlow, who hit 6 of 7, including a trey, for a career-high 13 points. Sean Linder led the Bruins on the boards with 8 and Wadlow had 6. Travis Melvin scored 9 while passing out 6 assists, while Green had 5 assists and 4 steals.

Parker Barth sizzled for the Lutes, sinking 8 of 9 from the field en route to 20 points, Eric Dordal sank 5 three-pointers for 15 points, and Michael Kelley and Treven Vander Ploeg scored 14 apiece. Davis had a game-high 10 rebounds and Kelley added 8 as the Lutes controlled the boards 37-31. Barth led the Lutes with 6 assists.

For the game, the Bruins took 34 of their 62 shots from three-point range, while the Lutes took exactly half of their shots - 28 of 56 - from outside the arc.

George Fox fell to 3-5 overall and 0-2 in the conference, while Pacific Lutheran climbed to 3-4 overall with a win in its first conference game. The Bruins are off until Tuesday, Jan. 2, when they visit Pomona-Pitzer Colleges in Claremont, Calif., for a 7:30 p.m. game. The Lutes play Friday-Saturday, Dec. 29-30, in the Lutheran Brotherhood Classic at California Lutheran University in Thousand Oaks, Calif.

BRUINS DROP ONE-POINT HEARTBREAKER TO POMONA-PITZER

CLAREMONT, Calif. --- George Fox University wings Travis Melvin and Jordan Green combined for 56 points, but it was not enough as the Bruins dropped a 75-74 heart-breaker to the Pomona-Pitzer Colleges Sagehens in a non-conference men's basketball game here Tuesday night (Jan. 2).

The Bruins held a 74-70 lead with a minute left to play, but the Sagehens' Jeremiah Martin sank two free throws when a lane violation gave him a second chance after he had missed the front end of a one-and-one, then drained a three-pointer from the top of the key as time expired to pull it out for the home team.

Melvin scored a career and game-high 34 for the Bruins, hitting 13 of 22 from the field, including 6 of 12 from three-point range, while Green sank 6 of 12, 4 of 9 from behind the arc, and 6 of 7 free throws for 22 points. The seven other Bruins who played could muster only 18 points between them as the Bruins dropped to 3-6 on the season. Aaron Milner led all rebounders with a career-high 12 and Melvin also had a career best on the boards with 9, while Green had a game-high 6 assists and Melvin picked up 3 steals.

The Sagehens had only one player in double figures, Martin, who finished with 33 off a 14-for-20 shooting night, but it was enough to lead Pomona-Pitzer to only its 2nd win in nine contests this season. Martin also grabbed a 10 rebounds to lead the Sagehens.

The Bruins continue their road trip this weekend with a visit to Whitman College Friday, Jan. 5, to resume Northwest Conference play. Tip-off is 8:00 p.m. in Walla Walla, Wash. On Saturday, Jan. 6, the Bruins will be in Spokane to take on Whitworth College, also at 8:00 p.m. Both games will be broadcast live by KLYC AM 1260, as will the George Fox women's games with Whitman and Whitworth at 6:00 p.m. both nights.

LATE LEAD SLIPS AWAY FROM BRUINS IN CONCORDIA TOURNAMENT OPENER

PORTLAND, Ore. --- Pounding the offensive boards and hitting their free throws down the stretch, the Westminster College-Salt Lake City Griffins rallied to pin an 83-75 loss on the George Fox University Bruins in the opening game of the G.I. Joe's/New Balance Concordia Classic in men's basketball Friday night (Dec. 8) here at the Concordia University-Portland Gymnasium.

With Jordan Green making a four-point play (he was fouled making a three-pointer and hit the ensuing free throw), George Fox had taken a 64-62 lead with 7:07 left. The Bruins stretched it to 68-64 at 6:14 on a Travis Melvin free throw and a Jeff Greene three after a rebound of Melvin's miss on the second freebie.

The Griffins battled back, however, and regained the lead for good when Matt Sparrow drained a three from the top of the key for a 73-70 lead with 2:52 to play. Green nailed a three with 1:50 to go, cutting the lead to 74-73, but Westminster point guard Cory Carlston sank five of six free throws in the final minute to hold off a final comeback by the Bruins.

George Fox owned the early portion of the game, jumping out to an 11-point lead at 31-20 before the Griffins reeled off 12 unanswered points to take a brief 32-31 lead. The Bruins revived to take a 37-34 edge into the break, and the second half was a nip-and-tuck battle, neither team taking more than a three-point lead until the final six minutes.

Jordan Green finished with 31 points, his season high, to lead the Bruins, Melvin added 17, and Sean Linder scored 10. Jeff Greene led the Bruins on the boards with 7 rebounds, while Melvin passed out a game-high 7 assists.

The Griffins placed five in double figures in points, led by Dave Nielsen's 25. Carlston and Sparrow added 15 each, Mitch Montgomery scored 14, and Brad Willden had 10. Sparrow grabbed 11 rebounds as the Griffins out-rebounded the smaller Bruins 40-29, including 14 on the offensive end. Carlston had 5 assists.

George Fox dropped to 2-4 overall, while Westminster improved to 6-4. Host Concordia and Multnomah Bible College played the second game, with the Bruins to play the loser at 4:00 p.m. Saturday (Dec. 9) and the winner to take on Westminster in the title game at 8:00 p.m.

SLOW START DOOMS BRUINS TO 85-72 LOSS AT WHITMAN

WALLA WALLA, Wash. --- A poor shooting half and 11 first-half turnovers put the George Fox University Bruins in a hole from which they could not recover, resulting in an 85-72 loss to the Whitman College Missionaries in a Northwest Conference men's basketball game Friday night (Jan. 5) here at the Sherwood Center.

The Bruins shot only .273 (9-33) in the first half, including .188 (3-16) from three-point range, nirmally the Bruins' strong suit. In the meantime, the Missionaries' Leonard Harmon hit 3 of 4 from 'way outside en route to 12 first-half points, sparking Whitman to a 41-25 halftime.

Pounding the ball inside against the smaller Bruins early in the second half, the Missionaries stretched their lead to as much as 22 points, led by Mark Bouma, who scord a game-high 23. Jordan Green ignited the Bruins midway through the final half, hitting a pair of treys and two free throws in one streak to bring the Bruins within 10 at 69-59 with 4:40 to go, but that was as close as George Fox would get as the Missionaries cashed in numerous free throw opportunities in the final minutes.

Green finished with 18 for the Bruins and a team-high 7 rebounds with 4 steals, Travis Melvin added 11 points with 8 assists and 4 steals, and Aaron Milner scored 10. The Bruins shot only .320 for the game (24-75) and were 9-34 from three-point range.

Bouma was followed by Harmon with 18, Ben Fuller with 12, and Jacob Pounds with 11. Bouma grabbed 12 rebounds and Peter Rutledge 11 as the Missionaries out-rebounded the Bruins 55-35. Whitman shot .491 (28-57) from the field.

George Fox, dropping its third in a row, fell to 3-7 overall and 0-3 in the conference, while Whitman won its third straight and improved to 4-6 overall and 1-1 in the league.

The Bruins will try to snap their losing streak when they visit Whitworth College Saturday, Jan. 6, for an 8:00 p.m. conference game, which will be broadcast live over KLYC 1260 AM. The Missionaries stay at home to take on Willamette University Saturday at 8:00 p.m.

BRUINS RALLY FROM 23 DOWN TO STUN WHITWORTH 75-73

SPOKANE, Wash. --- Travis Melvin scored 29 points, 24 in the second half, rallying the George Fox University Bruins from a 23-point second-half deficit to a stunning 75-73 victory over the Whitworth College Pirates in a Northwest Conference men's basketball game Saturday night (Jan. 6) here at the Whitworth Fieldhouse.

Melvin's steal and layup with 0:28 left capped the Bruins' comeback from a 49-26 deficit with 17 minutes to play and put George Fox ahead for the first time in the game at 74-73. Aaron Milner took a charge from Kelson Ramey with 11 seconds left, then added another point on a free throw with nine seconds left, and Ramey's desperation three-pointer at the buzzer bounced off the rim. The Bruins, after hitting only .333 (8-24) in the first half, blistered the nets for a .615 mark (16-26) in the second as they out-scored the Pirates 49-24 to end the game.

The Bruins hung tough through the first 10 minutes off the game, trailing only 17-14, with Jordan Green scoring six of those. But the shots that had been falling early began to miss, and the Pirates out-scored the Bruins 22-10 the rest of the half to take a 39-24 lead at the break. Whitworth's 24-11 edge on the boards and 13 points from Bryan Depew also aided the Pirates in building their big margin. Whitworth put together a 10-2 run to start the second half to up their lead to 23 before the Bruins rallied.

Melvin was joined in the scoring column by Green with 12 and Bryan Wadlow with 11 as the Bruins snapped a 15-game road losing streak in the conference. Melvin added 5 assists and 4 steals, and Green had 6 assists. Melvin and Green also led the Bruins with 6 rebounds apiece.

Depew finished with 20 for the Pirates, Chase Williams scored 12, and Ryan Nelson added 11. Depew led all rebounders with 8 as the Pirates ended with a 35-28 edge on the boards. Nelson had 5 assists.

George Fox is now 4-7 overall and 1-3 in the conference, while Whitworth is 6-5 and 2-1. The Bruins return to conference action Friday (Jan. 12), visiting Yamhill County rival Linfield College at 8:00 p.m. The game will be broadcast live over KLYC 1260 AM in McMinnville. Whitworth travels to the University of Puget Sound Friday, also at 8:00 p.m.

BRUINS LET BEARCATS SLIP THROUGH THEIR FINGERS 79-76

SALEM, Ore. --- They never led by more than three points, but they had that lead when it counted -- at the end -- and thus the Willamette University Bearcats escaped with a 79-76 win over the George Fox University Bruins in a Northwest Conference men's basketball game Tuesday night (Feb. 13) here at the Cone Fieldhouse.

After falling behind 6-3 four minutes into the game, the Bruins exploded behind Travis Melvin's 15 first-half points and raced out to an 11-point lead at 39-28 with 3:35 to go in the half. George Fox led at the half, 44-37, but the Bearcats clawed their way back to tie it at 46-46 on a Nik Lubisich three-pointer with 15:03 left in the game.

Over the next 10 minutes, there were six lead changes and three ties, but the Bruins appeared to have taken control when James Macy's layup gave the visitors a 72-67 lead with just under four minute to play. The Bearcats scored 8 unanswered points over the next two minutes, however, with four points apiece by Ryan Hepp and Kip Ioane, for a 75-72 Willamette lead with 1:54 remaining. Sean Linder cut it to one at 75-72 with 1:38 to go, but Lubisich's two free throws made it a three-point game again with 1:30 left.

Jordan Green's spinning layup at the 1:00 mark cut it to one at 77-76, and the Bruins got the ball back with 30 seconds left by rebounding a miss as the shot clock expired. George Fox took a timeout with 7 seconds left and worked the ball to Green, who drove the baseline but put up a shot with 2 seconds left that hit the rim and bounced away. Miles Sandgathe's two free throws with 0.6 seconds left iced it for the Bearcats.

Green finished with 22 points to lead the Bruins and Melvin had his 15 from the first half, but they were the only Bruins in double figures. Green had 7 rebounds, 6 assists, and 2 steals, continuing his streak of at least one steal in every game this season.

Lubisich had 19 for Willamette, 12 in the second half, while Hepp added 18, Ioane 15, and Sandgathe 13. Lubisich had a game-high 8 rebounds, although the Bearcats were out-boarded by the smaller Bruins 36-27, and passed out 7 assists.

Both teams shot well, George Fox connecting on 29 of 56 for a .518 mark, including 13 of 23 from three-point range, while Willamette sank 30 of 60 for .500, but only 6 of 19 on threes. The Bearcats won it at the charity stripe, benefiting from only 8 fouls called against them to 16 against the Bruins, and thus the home team made 13 of 20 to only 5 of 6 from the line. The Bearcats also displayed excellent ball control with only 5 turnovers to 16 for the Bruins.

George Fox saw its slim hopes for a possible NWC Tournament berth dissipate with the loss as the Bruins fell to 8-14 overall and 5-9 in the league. Willamette improved to 10-13 on the season and 7-8 in league play. The Bruins play their final home game of the year Friday (Feb. 16) against Pacific University at 8:00 p.m., while the Bearcats host Pacific Lutheran University Friday, also at 8:00 p.m.

GEORGE FOX MEN'S BASKETBALL

GREEN EARNS ACADEMIC ALL-DISTRICT VIII HONORS

NEWBERG, Ore. --- Jordan Green, the George Fox University Bruins' offensive and defensive sparkplug for the last three years, has demonstrated his skills in the classroom as well, being named to the CoSIDA/Verizon Academic All-District VIII Men's Basketball Team, College Division, as announced recently by District VIII voting coordinator Rich Rosenthal at Southern Oregon University.

Green, a 5-10 senior wing from Cashmere, Wash., was a player whose drive and determination against opponents usually much bigger than him provided Bruin fans with numerous exciting moments throughout his career. He finished the season averaging 18.4 points a game while leading the Northwest Conference in steals (3.38), assists (5.04), and free throw percentage (.879). He ranked 4th in the nation in steals and 12th in free throws. He scored in double figures 20 times this season, and combined with backcourt mate Travis Melvin to form the top-scoring twosome in the NWC. A two-time First Team All-Conference pick, he was a Second Team choice this year -- but only because the league's coaches moved this year from a 10-man First Team to five plus an MVP.

On the all-time statistical charts at George Fox, Green ended his career ranked 3rd in steals (253), 7th in points (1,468), and 10th in assists (373). He set a new team record for steals per game (3.62) as a junior.

Green compiled a 3.46 cumulative grade point average during his first seven semesters at George Fox, majoring in elementary education.

This is the first year for Verizon to serve as a co-sponsor of the Academic All-America Teams along with CoSIDA, the College Sports Information Directors of America. Nominees are voted on by all members of CoSIDA, with the winners from each of CoSIDA's eight geographical districts being submitted for Academic All-America honors. University (Division I) and College (Divisions II and III and NAIA) Teams are selected.

BRUINS AMONG THE NCAA NATIONAL STATISTICAL LEADERS

After canning 41 3-point field goals in 3 games last week, the George Fox Bruins have jumped to 4th in the nation with an average of 9.7 3's per game in the latest NCAA Division III statistics including games through Jan. 28. Last year, the Bruins were 2nd only to Grinnell, which is on top again (18.9). Individually, Travis Melvin (Jr., W, Pleasant Hill, Ore.) is 16th nationally in 3-point field goals per game (3.1). Jordan Green (Sr., W, Cashmere, Wash.), who was 6th in the nation in steals last year, is currently 3rd in the nation with an average of 3.6 steals a game. The leader is Keith Darden of Concordia-Austin (4.3). Green is 13th in the nation in free throw percentage (.892).

PIONEERS POUND BOARDS TO POST 88-69 WIN OVER BRUINS

PORTLAND, Ore. --- Pounding the boards for a 3-1 rebounding advantage in the game, the 20th-ranked Lewis & Clark College Pioneers manhandled the George Fox University Bruins en route to an 88-69 win in Northwest Conference men's basketball action Friday night (Feb. 2) at the Pamplin Sports Center.

Sparked by a jumper and a pair of long three-pointers by Travis Melvin, the visiting Bruins jumped out to a 16-10 lead nine minutes into the game, but then the superior size and strength of the defending conference champion Pioneers began to take its toll on the smaller Bruin team. A 36-15 run over the next nine minutes gave the Pioneers control, and they led at the half, 50-35. The Bruins got no closer than 11 in the second half, at 70-59 with 6:43 to play.

John Meitus scored 19 points, grabbed 24 rebounds, and blocked 3 shots to lead the Pioneers, while Kris Speier also posted a double-double with 10 points and 10 rebounds. Scott Davis led the Pioneers with 26 points, and Colin Oriard turned in a solid performance with 17 points, 8 rebounds, 7 assists, and 4 steals. The Pioneers out-rebounded the Bruins by a huge 60-20 margin.

The Bruins were led by Travis Melvin's 18 points, while Jordan Green scored 16 and snatched 7 boards, and Sean Linder (Jr., W, Azalea, Ore.) added 13 points. Green had 4 assists and 3 steals, continuing his string of having at least one steal in every game this season. He is currently 3rd in the nation in steals per game (3.6).

George Fox slipped to 7-12 overall and 4-7 in the league while watching its modest two-game winning streak come to a halt. Lewis & Clark improved to 15-4 overall and 10-1 in the conference, maintaining its slim one-game lead over Linfield College, which won an overtime game at Pacific Lutheran University.

TRIO OF BRUINS SCORE 20+ TO PACE 94-84 WIN OVER PLU

NEWBERG, Ore. --- With three players scoring 20 or more points in a game for only the third time in the team's 103-year basketball history, the Bruins outgunned the Pacific Lutheran University Lutes 94-84 in a Northwest Conference men's basketball shootout Saturday night (Feb. 3) at the Wheeler Sports Center.

Jordan Green scored 27, Travis Melvin notched 24, and James Macy (Jr., G, Culver, Ore.) added 21 as the Bruins improved to 8-12 on the season and 5-7 in the conference, climbing past the Lutes into 6th place in league standings while equaling last year's win total during an 8-16 campaign. PLU dropped to 8-11 overall and 4-7 in the conference.

Treven Vander Ploeg scored 11 first-half points to lead the Lutes to a 43-42 halftime lead, although the visitors did hold as much as an 8-point lead at 34-26 with 4:52 to go in the half. Melvin with 14 and Green with 13 in the first 20 minutes kept the Bruins close.

The lead changed hands four times in the second half, with neither team holding more than a 5-point lead, until a Melvin layup at with 7:57 to go broke a 68-68 tie and put George Fox ahead for good. The Bruins hit 10 of 10 free throws in the final two-and-a-half minutes to keep the Lutes at bay, with the final score being the largest lead of the game for either team.

PLU had two players in double figures, Erik Dordal with a career-high 25 and Vander Ploeg with 21. Dordal kept his team in the game with an incredible night from three-point land, sinking 8 of 10 from behind the arc, including 5 in a row at one stretch in the second half. Dordal's 8 treys were one short of the PLU record of 9 by Erik Peterson, set Dec. 30, 1995, and were one short of the Wheeler Sports Center record of 9 by Nik Lubisich of Willamette on Jan. 16 this year.

The Bruins were 33 of 66 from the field for an even .500 shooting mark, including 12 of 30 on threes, while the Lutes hit .456 for the game (31 of 68) and made 11 of 24 three-point tries. The Bruins sizzled from the free throw line, sinking 16 of 17 (.941) and their last 14 in a row, while the Lutes struggled on charity tosses, making only 11 of 21 (.524).

PLU easily won the battle of the boards against the smaller Bruins, 46-28, with Josh Davis grabbing a game-high 13 for the Lutes. Green led the Bruins with 9 boards, passed out 8 assists, and had 3 steals, continuing his streak of having at least one steal in every game this year. He also took over sole possession of 7th on the all-time GFU scoring list with 1,394 points.

BRUIN BITS:

 For the week of Jan. 29-Feb. 4, for the second week in a row, Jordan Green received Honorable Mention for Northwest Conference "Player of the Week". Green moved into 7th place in all-time scoring at GFU during the Bruins' 1-1 week. In an 88-69 loss at Lewis & Clark, he scored 16 points, hitting 4-11 from the field (2-6 on 3's), and 6-7 from the line, with a team-leading 7 rebounds, 4 assists, and 3 steals. In a 94-84 win over Pacific Lutheran, he led the team with 27 points, sinking 8-15 from the field (3-9 on 3's) and 8-9 on free throws, with a team-high 9 rebounds, 8 assists, and 3 steals. For the week, he scored 43 points (21.5), hitting 12-26 on field goals (.462), 5-15 on 3's (.333), and 14-16 on free throws (.875), with 16 rebounds (8.0), 12 assists (6.0), and 6 steals (3.0). Green now has 1,394 career points ... NWC "Player of the Week" honors went to Lewis & Clark's Scott Davis, who scored 51 points with six rebounds and five assists to lead the Pioneers to a pair of conference victories ... Green now has, 1,394 points for his career, 7th on the all-time scoring list at George Fox. Up next is Nick Haij (1992-96, 1,714) ... Green has 241 career steals, 3rd on the all-time list. Next is former Portland Trailblazer draft choice Kenny Stone (254, 1983- 87). His 9 steals earlier in the season vs. Cascade are tied for the single-game season high in the nation in D-III, and his 8 vs. Willamette tie for 3rd-best ... Green also has 351 assists in his career, 10th on the all-time list. Next is Dave Adrian (376, 1975-78, 79-80).

 Jordan Green and Travis Melvin combine for 36.8 points per game, the 2nd-highest duo in the Northwest Conference to the 37.7 combined numbers of Lewis & Clark's Scott Davis and Colin Oriard.

 The Bruins equaled last year's total for overall wins (8) in the PLU win and surpassed last year's total for conference wins (5). GFU was 8-16 and 4-12 last year.

 Mike "Biggs" Wirta, the Bruins storied sports historian for 30 years, has now attended 442 straight men's basketball games, has worked 370 in a row at home, and has seen 873 men's games in his career.

BRUINS AMONG THE NCAA NATIONAL STATISTICAL LEADERS

The George Fox Bruins are once again among the nation's leading 3-point shooting teams, their average of 8.9 per game ranking 11th in the latest NCAA Division III statistics including games through Jan. 21. Last year, the Bruins were 2nd only to Grinnell, which is on top again (19.7) and still not winning (6-6). Jordan Green (Sr., W, Cashmere, Wash.), who was 6th in the nation in steals last year, is back among the leaders at No. 8 with an average of 3.3 steals a game. Green was 15th in the nation in free throw percentage (.892).

BRUINS ' "TWO-MINUTE OFFENSE" FALLS JUST SHORT IN LOSS TO KNIGHTS

NEWBERG, Ore. --- Trailing by 12 with just over two minutes to play, the George Fox University Bruins staged a furious desperation rally that fell just short, and the visiting Warner Pacific College Knights hung on for an 86-84 win in a non-conference men's basketball game Tuesday night (Jan. 23) here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

The Knights, who had trailed by 10 at the half, came back to take a seemingly-insurmountable 85-73 lead with 2:18 left on a pair of Jared Valentine free throws. But James Macy (Jr., G, Culver, Ore.) drilled a three and Bryan Wadlow (Fr., P, Albany, Ore.) canned two free throws to cut the gap to 86-78 with 1:49 left. Valentine sank the second of two freebies for the Knights' 86th and final point at 1:28.

Wadlow hit a three-pointer 11 seconds later, Jordan Green hit one of two free throws with 33 seconds left, the Bruins stole the ball and Macy hit two more free throws with 20 seconds to go, and suddenly it was two-point ball game. When the ensuing throw-in was bad and bounced off the foot of one of the Knights, the Bruins had a chance to win or tie. But Green's three-point try with five seconds left was long, and Travis Melvin's (Jr., W, Pleasant Hill, Ore.) desperation shot for two after recovering the rebound was wide as time ran out.

Melvin's 13 points in the first half were instrumental in the Bruins battling back from an early 14-7 deficit to take a 44-34 halftime lead. The Bruins shot .567 (17-30) in the half, but the Knights stayed in the game behind 14 first-half points from bruising center Brian Wilson, who at 6-10 towered over the smaller Bruins.

The Knights held the hot hand in the second half, shooting .643 (18-28) as they came back to take the lead for good on an Adam Decker jumper with 9:05 to play. A 6-0 run, capped off by a thunderous dunk by Matt Segrin, gave Warner Pacific an 83-71 lead with 2:31 to play, just before the Bruins mounted their last-ditch rally.

Melvin finished with 22 points for the Bruins, who dropped their third in a row to fall to 5-11 on the season. Green added 15 and became the 12th player in George Fox history to score over 1,300 points in a career; with 1,304, he moved into 11th in all-time scoring. Macy added 14 and Wadlow 11. Macy and Wadlow had five rebounds apiece, while Green passed out seven assists and had five steals. For the Knights, who improved to 10-11, Wilson led the way with 22 points, hitting all 8 shots he took and all six free throws, and grabbed 11 rebounds as Warner Pacific won the battle of the boards, 35-25. Segrin scored 17 with seven rebounds and five assists, Dan Munson scored 14 and had seven rebounds and five assists, and Jeff Huston scored 11. Valentine handed out 10 assists.

BRUINS BLISTER NETS TO WIN 103-91 SHOOTOUT WITH WHITWORTH

NEWBERG, Ore. --- Blistering the nets for a .638 percentage, including a .720 mark from three-point range, the George Fox University Bruins charged to a big lead in the first half and maintained it to the end for a 103-91 win over the Whitworth College Pirates in a Northwest Conference men's basketball game Friday night (Jan. 26) here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

With Travis Melvin scoring 18 first-half points, Jeff Greene (So., W, Beaverton, Ore.) 11, and Aaron Milner (Jr., P, Seattle, Wash.) 10, the Bruins built up a 27-11 lead midway through the half and hung on to lead at the break, 52-43. The Bruins hit .667 (20-30) in the first half and were 11-16 (.688) on three-pointers. Bryan Depew's 10 points in the half and some hot shooting of their own -- 12-22 (.545) from the field, and 13-16 (.813) from the free throw line to only 1-4 for the home team -- kept the Pirates within striking distance.

James Macy hit a free throw and a trey and Melvin made a steal and a layup to start the second half, upping the George Fox lead to 58-43, and the Pirates never got within single digits the rest of the game. The Bruins continued to scorch the strings in the final 20 minutes, sinking 17-28 (.607) on field goals, 7-9 (.778) from downtown.

George Fox finished the night hitting 37-58 from the field (.638) and 18-25 from beyond the arc (.720), and had 29 assists on their 37 field goals. For the curious who were asking after the game, none were records.

Previous Bruin clubs had shot .714 (40-56) from the floor, .778 (7-9) on threes, made 21 treys, and passed out 41 assists in other games.

Melvin led all scorers with 30, Jordan Green scored 23 to move into 9th place on the team's all-time scoring list with 1,327 points, Macy and Jeff Greene had 14 each, and Milner ended with 10. Milner led the Bruins on the boards with 7 rebounds, while Green passed out 9 assists and had four steals, Melvin added 8 assists, and Macy had five.

Kyle Jensen came off the bench to pace the Pirates with 18 points, hitting 7-8 from the field, Depew finished with 13, and Travis Meserve and Scott Bierlink added 11 apiece. Bierlink led all rebounders with 8 as the Pirates won the board battle 31-26. Meserve handed out 7 assists. The Pirates, ranked 12th in the nation in field goal percentage, did not hurt themselves in the rankings, hitting 30-58 (.517).

George Fox improved to 6-11 overall and 3-6 in the conference, snapping a three-game losing streak. Whitworth slipped to 7-9 overall and 3-5 in the league.

GREEN-MELVIN TANDEM RESCUE BRUINS FROM MISSIONARIES 79-72

NEWBERG, Ore. --- Jordan Green and Travis Melvin, George Fox University's "dynamic duo", struck again late Saturday night (Jan. 27), rescuing the Bruins from the edge of extinction for a 79-72 win over the Whitman College Missionaries in a Northwest Conference men's basketball game here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

The Bruins trailed most of the first half as the Missionaries constantly shoved the ball inside to post players Rob Bell and Peter Rutledge, who pounded the smaller Bruins for 12 points apiece in leading Whitman to a 36-28 halftime advantage. The Missionaries led at one point by 14, at 30-16 with 4:21 to go in the half, but James Macy's 11 points in the half kept the home team within range.

Whitman took its largest lead of the second half at 48-36 on a Bell layup with 14:30 to play, and then Green and Melvin went to work. From that point on, Green scored 16 points and Melvin tallied 14 as the Bruins outscored the Missionaries 43-24 to pull off the win. Green's three-pointer at the 5:49 mark put George Fox on top for good at 64-61, and Green hit 8 straight free throws in the final 2:33 to keep the Missionaries at bay.

Green ended up with a game-high 24, 18 in the second half, including 10-10 from the free throw line, and led a Bruin defense that forced 25 Whitman turnovers with 6 steals. Melvin scored 20, 18 in the second half, and led the team with four assists. Macy finished with 11 points, and Aaron Milner had 9 points and led the Bruins with seven rebounds.

The Missionaries had three players -- Bell, Rutledge, and Leonard Harmon -- with 18 points apiece. Rutledge led all rebounders with 10 as the Missionaries won the battle on the boards, 42-31. Bryan Erlebach had four assists and Ben Fuller picked up four steals for Whitman.

The Missionaries made 29 field goals to 23 for the Bruins, but George Fox had 9 three-pointers to 5 for Whitman and outscored the visitors from the line, sinking 24-29 to 9-16 for Whitman.

Winning back-to-back games for the first time this season, the Bruins improved to 7-11 overall and 4-6 in the conference, while the Missionaries dropped to 4-14 overall and 1-9 in the league.

BRUIN BITS:

 Jordan Green received Honorable Mention for Northwest Conference "Player of the Week" for Jan. 22-28. In a 86-84 loss to Warner Pacific, he scored 15, hitting 6-11 from the field (1-6 on 3's) and 2-4 from the line, with 7 assists, 5 steals, and 1 rebound. In a 103-91 win over Whitworth, he scored 23, hitting 8-12 from the field (3-5 on 3's) and 4-4 from the line, with 9 assists, 4 steals, and 3 rebounds. In a 79-72 comeback win over Whitman, he scored 24, 18 in the 2nd half, hitting 5-13 from the field (4-11 in 3's) and 10-10 from the line, 8-8 in the last 2 1/2 minutes, with 6 steals, 3 assists, and 2 rebounds. For the week, he scored 62 points (20.7), hitting 19-36 on field goals (.528), 8-22 on 3's (.364), and 16-18 on free throws (.889), with 19 assists (6.3), 15 steals (5.0), and 6 rebounds (2.0) ... NWC "Player of the Week" honors went to Willamette's Nik Lubisich, who scored 72 points (24.0) with 13 steals and 8 assists in the Bearcats' 2-1 week.

 Jordan Green now has, 1,351 points for his career, 7th on the all-time scoring list at George Fox. Up next are Mike Royer (1978-82, 1,367) and Nick Haij (1992-96, 1,714) ... Green has 235 career steals, 3rd on the all-time list. Next is former Portland Trailblazer draft choice Kenny Stone (254, 1983- 87). His 9 steals earlier in the season vs. Cascade are the single-game season high in the nation in D-III, and his 8 vs. Willamette tie for 3rd-best.

 Jordan Green and Travis Melvin combine for 36.2 points per game, the 2nd-highest duo in the Northwest Conference to the 37.4 combined numbers of Lewis & Clark's Scott Davis and Colin Oriard.

 Travis Melvin could just as easily have been the Bruin's nominee for conference "Player of the Week" as well. In a 86-84 loss to Warner Pacific, he scored 22, hitting 7-12 from the field (5-8 on 3's) and 3-7 from the line, with 4 assists, 1 steal, and 1 rebound. In a 103-91 win over Whitworth, he scored 30, hitting 11-17 from the field (6-8 on 3's) and 2-4 from the line, with 8 assists, 3 steals, and 2 rebounds. In a 79-72 comeback win over Whitman, he scored 20, 18 in the 2nd half, hitting 7-16 from the field (3-8 in 3's) and 3-4 from the line, with 4 rebounds, 4 assists, and 2 steals. For the week, he scored 72 points (24.0), hitting 25-44 on field goals (.568), 14-24 on 3's (.583), and 8-15 on free throws (.533), with 16 assists (5.3), 7 rebounds (2.3), and 6 steals (2.0).

 The Bruins' hot shooting in Friday's game vs. Whitworth came just short of two team records. George Fox shot .720 (18-25) from the 3-point line. The record for best 3-pt pct. stands at .788 (7-9) vs. St. Martin's (1/6/87) and vs. Northwest Christian (1/20/89). The record for most 3-pointers made is 21 set vs. Cascade (11/21/98).

 Mike "Biggs" Wirta, the Bruins storied sports historian for 30 years, has now attended 441 straight men's basketball games, has worked 370 in a row at home, and has seen 871 men's games in his career.

GREEN-MELVIN TANDEM RESCUE BRUINS FROM MISSIONARIES 79-72

NEWBERG, Ore. --- Jordan Green and Travis Melvin, George Fox University's "dynamic duo", struck again late Saturday night (Jan. 27), rescuing the Bruins from the edge of extinction for a 79-72 win over the Whitman College Missionaries in a Northwest Conference men's basketball game here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

The Bruins trailed most of the first half as the Missionaries constantly shoved the ball inside to post players Rob Bell and Peter Rutledge, who pounded the smaller Bruins for 12 points apiece in leading Whitman to a 36-28 halftime advantage. The Missionaries led at one point by 14, at 30-16 with 4:21 to go in the half, but James Macy's 11 points in the half kept the home team within range.

Whitman took its largest lead of the second half at 48-36 on a Bell layup with 14:30 to play, and then Green and Melvin went to work. From that point on, Green scored 16 points and Melvin tallied 14 as the Bruins outscored the Missionaries 43-24 to pull off the win. Green's three-pointer at the 5:49 mark put George Fox on top for good at 64-61, and Green hit 8 straight free throws in the final 2:33 to keep the Missionaries at bay.

Green ended up with a game-high 24, 18 in the second half, including 10-10 from the free throw line, and led a Bruin defense that forced 25 Whitman turnovers with 6 steals. Melvin scored 20, 18 in the second half, and led the team with 4 assists. Macy finished with 11 points, and Aaron Milner led the Bruins with 7 rebounds.

The Missionaries had three players -- Bell, Rutledge, and Leonard Harmon -- with 18 points apiece. Rutledge led all rebounders with 10 as the Missionaries won the battle on the boards, 42-31. Bryan Erlebach had 4 assists and Ben Fuller picked up 4 steals for Whitman.

The Missionaries made 29 field goals to 23 for the Bruins, but George Fox had 9 three-pointers to 5 for Whitman and outscored the visitors from the line, sinking 24-29 to 9-16 for Whitman.

Winning back-to-back games for the first time this season, the Bruins improved to 7-11 overall and 4-6 in the conference, while the Missionaries dropped to 4-14 overall and 1-9 in the league. George Fox visits league leader Lewis & Clark College Friday (Feb. 2) for an 8:00 p.m. contest, while Whitman hosts Whitworth College Wednesday (Jan. 31), also at 8:00 p.m.

BRUINS AMONG THE NCAA NATIONAL STATISTICAL LEADERS

The George Fox Bruins are once again among the nation's leading 3-point shooting teams, their average of 8.9 per game ranking 11th in the latest NCAA Division III statistics including games through Jan. 21. Last year, the Bruins were 2nd only to Grinnell, which is on

The Knights, who had trailed by 10 at the half, came back to take a seemingly-insurmountable 85-73 lead with 2:18 left on a pair of Jared Valentine free throws. But James Macy drilled a three and Bryan Wadlow canned two free throws to cut the gap to 86-78 with 1:49 left. Valentine sank the second of two freebies for the Knights' 86th and final point at 1:28.

Wadlow hit a three-pointer 11 seconds later, Jordan Green hit one of two free throws with 33 seconds left, the Bruins stole the ball and Macy hit two more free throws with 20 seconds to go, and suddenly it was two-point ball game. When the ensuing throw-in was bad and bounced off the foot of one of the Knights, the Bruins had a chance to win or tie. But Green's three-point try with five seconds left was long, and Travis Melvin's desperation shot for two after recovering the rebound was wide as time ran out.

Melvin's 13 points in the first half were instrumental in the Bruins battling back from an early 14-7 deficit to take a 44-34 halftime lead. The Bruins shot .567 (17-30) in the half, but the Knights stayed in the game behind 14 first-half points from bruising center Brian Wilson, who at 6-10 towered over the smaller Bruins.

The Knights held the hot hand in the second half, shooting .643 (18-28) as they came back to take the lead for good on an Adam Decker jumper with 9:05 to play. A 6-0 run, capped off by a thunderous dunk by Matt Segrin, gave Warner Pacific an 83-71 lead with 2:31 to play, just before the Bruins mounted their last-ditch rally.

Melvin finished with 22 points for the Bruins, who dropped their third in a row to fall to 5-11 on the season. Green added 15 and became the 12th player in George Fox history to score over 1,300 points in a career; he now has 1,304, 11th-best all-time. Macy added 14 and Wadlow 11. Macy and Wadlow had 5 rebounds apiece, while Green passed out 7 assists and had 5 steals.

For the Knights, who improved to 10-11, Wilson led the way with 22 points, hitting all 8 shots he took and all 6 free throws, and grabbed 11 rebounds as Warner Pacific won the battle of the boards, 35-25. Segrin scored 17 with 7 rebounds and 5 assists, Dan Munson scored 14 and had 7 rebounds and 5 assists, and Jeff Huston scored 11. Valentine handed out 10 assists.

BRUIN BITS:

 While others around him were turning a spectacular game or two, Bryan Wadlow quietly put together a consistent week that marks him as one of the up-and-coming players in the league. As a result, he received Honorable Mention for Northwest Conference "Player of the Week" for Jan.15-21. In the Bruins' 106-104 double-overtime win over Willamette, he scored a career-high 18 points, hitting 6-7 from the field, including a three, and 5-5 from the line, and pulled down a team-high 6 rebounds. In an 81-70 loss to Puget Sound, he hit 4-5 from the field and scored 9 points with 3 rebounds. In an 86-69 loss at Pacific, he scored 16 points on 5-8 from the field and 5-6 from the line, with 3 rebounds, an assist and a steal. For the week, he was 15-20 on field goals (.750), 2-3 from three-point range (.667), and 11-14 from the line (.786) for 43 points (14.3), with 12 rebounds (4.0), 1 assist and 1 steal ... NWC "Player of the Week" honors went to Kristopher Speier of Lewis & Clark College, who had 56 points and 28 rebounds, including one game of 31 points and 12 rebounds at Whitworth, as the Pioneers went 3-0.

 Jordan Green now has, 1,304 points for his career, 11th on the all-time scoring list at George Fox. Up next are Dave Adrian (1,307, 1975-78, 79-80) and Jared Gallop (1,323, 1994-96, 97-98) ... Green has 225 career steals, 3rd on the all-time list. Next is former Portland Trailblazer draft choice Kenny Stone (254, 1983-87). He ranked 21st in the nation in steals (3.0) thru games of Jan. 14. His 9 steals earlier in the season vs. Cascade are the single-game season high in the nation in D-III, and his 8 vs. Willamette tie for 3rd-best ... Green's 48 minutes played vs. Willamette was a new career high ... Green set a career high in rebounds (11) and tied his all-time high in free throw attempts (14) in the Puget Sound game ... Green was 12-12 from the line vs. Willamette, tying for the 5th-best pct. in the nation this season (two players each were 15-15 and 13-13) ... When Green missed his first shot from the stripe vs. Puget Sound, it snapped a string of 33 straight free throws made.

 Travis Melvin's 38 points vs. Willamette tied him for the 4th-best single-game performance in GFU history (since 1965, latest GFU records). The only games better were Jeff Hoffman with 50 vs. Columbia Christian in 1991, Hille van der Koy with 42 vs. Eastern Oregon in 1980, and Jared Gallop with 39 vs. Concordia in 1995. His total is the highest in the NWC this season ... In addition to his career high in points, Melvin also set new marks for field goals (15), fg attempts (27), 3-pt field goals (6, tied), and minutes played (47) vs. Willamette.

THE BRUINS ON RADIO

KLYC Radio (1260 AM) in McMinnville will carry selected George Fox men's and women's games and all post-season games throughout the year as a part of the Northwest Conference's broadcast agreement with Pioneer Radio & Sports of Bellevue, Wash. Brian Erickson of KLYC's "The Morning Show" will handle play-by-play duties for the Bruins, with the pre-game show beginning 15 minutes before tip-off.

Schedule of remaining broadcasts (subject to change):

- Jan. 26 - Whitworth (W, 6 pm / M, 8 pm)
- Jan. 27 - Whitman (W, 6 pm / M, 8 pm)
- Feb. 2 - at Lewis & Clark (W, 6 pm / M, 8 pm)
- Feb. 3 - Pacific Lutheran (M, 8 pm)
- Feb. 10 - Linfield (W, 6 pm / M, 8 pm)

FOR YOUR HALFTIME ENTERTAINMENT ...

Several special activities have been scheduled for the halftimes of selected George Fox home men's and women's basketball games this season. The traditional "Coffee Cottage Hoop Shoot" will be held at most games, in which three contestants who have game programs signed by a selected Bruin player shoot baskets for 30 seconds to win discounts at the Coffee Cottage in Newberg. The new "Gym Golf" game, sponsored by Bon Appetit, will also make an occasional appearance, with anyone in the crowd who wishes to participate putting golf balls across the gym floor through a slot in a board at the other side of the gym for discounts at the Bruin Den.

Upcoming Halftime Events:

- Jan. 26 - Valley Professional Dance Center
- Jan. 27 - George Fox Dance Team (W) / Sports Hall of Fame (M)
- Feb. 3 - Hangtime Gorillas
- Feb. 10 - Homecoming / Sports Hall of Fame presentation
- Feb. 16 - Valley Professional Dance Center

GEORGE FOX TO INDUCT HALL OF FAME CLASS OF 2001 ON JAN. 27

NEWBERG, Ore. --- Six individuals and one team make up the Class of 2001 for the George Fox University Sports Hall of Fame and will be inducted into the Hall in ceremonies at the school on Saturday, Jan. 27.

Making up the newest class of honorees are athletes Harold Ankeny, Gregg Griffin, Cindy (Warner) Holmes, Dan LaVeine, and Brian Martin; Frank Colcord in the category of Meritorious Service; and the 1991 women's cross country team.

Induction ceremonies will take place in the Klages Dining Room of the school cafeteria, beginning with appetizers at 3:30 p.m., dinner and the inductions from 4:00-6:00 p.m., and a reception with coffee and dessert from 6:00-7:00 p.m. The inductees will then be honored at halftime of the men's basketball game against Whitman College in the Wheeler Sports Center, which starts at 8:00 p.m.

Tickets to the Sports Hall of Fame ceremonies are $15 for adults, $10 for children 10 and under, and may be obtained by calling the George Fox athletic department at 503-554-2910.

BRUINS AMONG THE NCAA NATIONAL STATISTICAL LEADERS

The George Fox Bruins are once again among the nation's leading 3-point shooting teams, their average of 9.6 per game ranking 5th in the latest NCAA Division III statistics including games through Jan. 14. Last year, the Bruins were 2nd only to Grinnell, which is on top again (19.4) and still not winning (4-6). Jordan Green (Sr., W, Cashmere, Wash.), who was 6th in the nation in steals last year, is back among the leaders at No. 21 with an average of 3.0 steals a game. Green was also tied for 15th in the nation in free throw percentage (.892).

BRUINS PULL OUT DOUBLE-O.T. THRILLER 106-104 OVER WILLAMETTE

NEWBERG, Ore. --- It started a half hour later than planned and went 10 minutes longer than expected, but when all was said and done, the George Fox University Bruins had squeezed out a 106-104 double-overtime victory over the Willamette University Bearcats in a Northwest Conference men's basketball thriller Tuesday night (Jan. 16) here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

Due to a power outage on campus that kept the gym lights off for two hours in the late afternoon, the women's game preceding the men's game was 30 minutes late getting started, so the men did not get under way until 8:30 p.m. When the game finally got going, the Bruins' Travis Melvin (Jr., W, Pleasant Hill, Ore.) and the Bearcats' Nik Lubisich became one-man highlight films for their teams. Melvin exploded for 16 points as the Bruins raced out to a 25-14 lead with 9:10 to play in the half in their first home action since Dec. 5. But deadly long-range shooting by Lubisich, who nailed three three-pointers in a row, sparked a Bearcat rally that brought Willamette back for a 41-40 lead at the half. Melvin had 18 at the break and Lubisich had 15 on five threes.

Lubisich hit two more threes and B.J. Dobrkovsky scored 13 points as the Bearcats scored the first 11 points of the second half while upping their lead to 63-48 with 11:40 to go. But the Bruins, who 10 days earlier had scored the greatest road comeback in team history by overcoming a 23-point second-half deficit to win at Whitworth, would not give in this time either. With Melvin getting hot again and scoring 16 points, the Bruins fought back and finally knotted the game at 83-83 on a Melvin three-pointer with 0:22 left, sending it into overtime.

In the first overtime, George Fox took a 95-90 lead with 2:17 to go, only to have Willamette score 7 unanswered points for a 97-95 edge with 0:24 left. Jordan Green's two free throws with 7 second left sent the game into a second overtime at 97-97.

Green's jumper 12 seconds into the second extra period gave the Bruins a lead they would not lose, but the Bearcats hung close, Lubisich making a four-point play on a trey and a free throw to cut the George Fox lead to 103-102 with 2:48 to play. Bryan Wadlow (Fr., P, Albany, Ore.) hit a layup for the Bruins at 2:15, Kip Ioane sank two free throws for the Bearcats at 1:01, and the Bruins turned the ball over with 8 seconds left, giving Willamette a last shot for the win. But as Ryan Hepp drove into the lane for a potential winning shot, the Bruins' Jeff Greene (So., G, Beaverton, Ore.) stole the ball and made the second of two free throws with 2.2 left on the clock for a two-point Bruin lead. Jordan Green then stole the Bearcats' long downcourt pass to secure the win.

Melvin led all scorers with a career-high 38, falling two points shy of becoming only the 4th Bruin (since 1965) to score 40 or more. Jordan Green finished with 22, including 12-for-12 from the free throw line, and had game highs of 7 assists and 8 steals. Wadlow scored a career-high 18 and James Macy (Jr., PG, Culver, Ore.) chipped in with 13. Wadlow and Jeff Greene led the Bruins with 6 rebounds each.

Lubisich tallied 32 for the Bearcats and set a new Wheeler Sports Center record by canning 9 three-pointers in 15 tries, Dobrkovsky scored 16, Ioane 14, Hepp 13, and Brian Newton 12. Ioane was the top rebounder in the game with 9 as the Bearcats won on the boards 42-31. Hepp had 6 assists.

George Fox improved to 5-8 overall and 2-4 in the conference, while Willamette slipped to 5-9 overall and 2-4 in the league.

LOGGERS HIT LATE FREE THROWS TO HOLD OFF BRUINS 81-70

NEWBERG, Ore. --- Ryan Boyle's layup and back-to-back three-pointers by Craig Henneberry and Jeff Carlson lifted the University of Puget Sound from a 62-61 deficit to a 69-61 lead, and the Loggers hit 12 of 16 free throws in the final four minutes to hold off the George Fox University Bruins 81-70 in a Northwest Conference men's basketball game Friday night (Jan. 19) here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

The first half was a toss-up with 12 lead changes, 6 ties, and neither team leading by more than 5 points. Aaron Milner's (Jr., P, Seattle, Wash.) tip-in at the buzzer sent the Bruins into the locker room with a 34-33 lead.

Two layups and a three by Boyle sparked a 13-3 run at the start of the second half to give the Loggers a 46-37 lead, and a three-point play by Tom Lynch upped the margin to 10 at 49-39 with 14:52 to play. Still down 10 at 57-47 with just over 10 minutes left, the Bruins went on 15-4 run, keyed by Jordan Green's two three-point plays and capped by Travis Melvin's three-pointer, to take a short-lived 62-61 lead at the 6:59 mark. At that point, the Loggers made their charge to take command and secure the win.

Green had game highs of 18 points, a career-high 11 rebounds, 7 assists and 5 steals for the Bruins, while Melvin finished with 13 points and James Macy scored 10. The Bruins connected on 23 of 55 from the floor (.418) and 18 of 24 from the line (.750).

Balance was the order of the day for the Loggers, who got 16 from Lynch, 15 from Boyle, and 14 by both Henneberry and Carlson. Henneberry had 8 rebounds, 5 assists and 4 steals for UPS, and Brason Alexander also had 5 assists. The Loggers hit 27 of 60 shots (.450) and 20 of 26 from the line (.769).

George Fox dropped to 5-9 overall and 2-5 in the conference, while Puget Sound climbed to 11-4 overall and 5-2 in the league.

BOXERS HIT EARLY THREES TO KEY 86-69 WIN OVER BRUINS

FOREST GROVE, Ore. --- Brandon Kilgour and Michael Bloom hit two three-pointers each in a 14-0 run midway through the first half, boosting the Pacific University to an insurmountable lead, and the Boxers went on to an 86-69 win over the George Fox University Bruins in a Northwest Conference men's basketball game Saturday night (Jan. 20) here at the Pacific Athletic Center.

Jordan Green nailed a three-pointer from the left wing to get George Fox off to a 3-0 lead, but that was the only time all night the Bruins would have an edge. Ray Figueroa's three from the left corner and a layup by Pierre Elliott put Pacific ahead for good at 17:53, and the Boxers made it 12-3 before the Bruins scored again. Pacific was up by five after a James Macy free throw cut the Boxer lead to 24-19, but Kilgour and Bloom hit two each from long range to make it 38-19 with 4:33 left in the half.

Pacific led 44-30 at the half and stretched its lead to as many as 22, taking an 82-60 lead with 2:10 to play. The Bruins got no closer than 15 in the second half.

Macy led the Bruins with 19 points, hitting 5 of 7 from the field and 8 of 9 from the line, and Bryan Wadlow scored 16 on 5 of 8 from the floor and 5 of 6 from the line, but the rest of the Bruins were only 12 for 39, a .308 percentage. The Bruins' high-scoring tandem of Jordan Green and Travis Melvin, averaging a collective 36.2 points a game coming in, combined for only 9 points. Aaron Milner gathered in a game-high 7 rebounds, but the Bruins were beaten on the boards 33-32.

Kilgour led all scorers with 24 points, including 9 of 10 from the free throw line, Figueroa and Peter Lunde scored 13 apiece, and Kevin Evers chipped in with 10 for the Boxers. Kilgour was high for Pacific with 6 rebounds and Figueroa had a game-high 5 assists. The Boxers shot .455 for the game (25-55), including 9 for 20 from three-point range (.450), and sank 27 of 33 free throws (.818).

George Fox dropped to 5-10 overall and 2-6 in the conference with the setback, while Pacific raised its record to 6-8 overall and 3-4 in the league.

BRUIN BITS:

 While others around him were turning a spectacular game or two, Bryan Wadlow quietly put together a consistent week that marks him as one of the up-and-coming players in the league. As a result, he received Honorable Mention for Northwest Conference "Player of the Week" for Jan.15-21. In the Bruins' 106-104 double-overtime win over Willamette, he scored a career-high 18 points, hitting 6-7 from the field, including a three, and 5-5 from the line, and pulled down a team-high 6 rebounds. In an 81-70 loss to Puget Sound, he hit 4-5 from the field and scored 9 points with 3 rebounds. In an 86-69 loss at Pacific, he scored 16 points on 5-8 from the field and 5-6 from the line, with 3 rebounds, an assist and a steal. For the week, he was 15-20 on field goals (.750), 2-3 from three-point range (.667), and 11-14 from the line (.786) for 43 points (14.3), with 12 rebounds (4.0), 1 assist and 1 steal ... NWC "Player of the Week" honors went to Kristopher Speier of Lewis & Clark College, who had 56 points and 28 rebounds, including one game of 31 points and 12 rebounds at Whitworth, as the Pioneers went 3-0.

 Jordan Green's 47 points on the week give him 1,289 for his career, 12th on the all-time scoring list at George Fox. Up next are Gordy Loewen (1,300, 1968-72) and Dave Adrian (1,307, 1975-78, 79-80) ... Green has 217 career steals, 3rd on the all-time list. Next is former Portland Trailblazer draft choice Kenny Stone (254, 1983-87). He ranked 21st in the nation in steals (3.0) thru games of Jan. 14. His 9 steals earlier in the season vs. Cascade are the single-game season high in the nation in D-III, and his 8 vs. Willamette tie for 3rd-best ... Green's 48 minutes played vs. Willamette was a new career high ... Green set a career high in rebounds (11) and tied his all-time high in free throw attempts (14) in the Puget Sound game ... Green was 12-12 from the line vs. Willamette, tying for the 5th-best pct. in the nation this season (two players each were 15-15 and 13-13) ... When Green missed his first shot from the stripe vs. Puget Sound, it snapped a string of 33 straight free throws made.

 Travis Melvin's 38 points vs. Willamette tied him for the 4th-best single-game performance in GFU history (since 1965, latest GFU records). The only games better were Jeff Hoffman with 50 vs. Columbia Christian in 1991, Hille van der Koy with 42 vs. Eastern Oregon in 1980, and Jared Gallop with 39 vs. Concordia in 1995. His total is the highest in the NWC this season ... In addition to his career high in points, Melvin also set new marks for field goals (15), fg attempts (27), 3-pt field goals (6, tied), and minutes played (47) vs. Willamette.

 Jordan Green and Travis Melvin combine for 34.4 points per game, the 2nd-highest duo in the Northwest Conference to the 36.5 combined numbers of Lewis & Clark's Scott Davis and Colin Oriard.

 James Macy set a new personal record for minutes played (44) in the Willamette game ... Macy's 8 free throws made (in 9 attempts) at Pacific were a new career high.

 Sean Linder (Jr., W, Azalea, Ore.) tied his career high in minutes played (32) in the win over Willamette.

 Bryan Wadlow's 18 points, 5 free throws, and 1.000 ft pct. (5-5) vs. Willamette were new personal bests, while he tied his highs for field goals (6) and fg pct. (.857, 6-7) ... By going 1-2 from 3-pt range and 5-6 from the line at Pacific, Wadlow tied career highs in all four categories (3-pointers and attempts, free throws and attempts).

 Tuesday's 106-104 double-overtime win over Willamette was the 8th game in Bruin history of 2 or more over times (since 1965, latest GFU records). The first two, in 1972, were in back-to-back games. The entire list:

12/02/72	Willamette 77, George Fox 74 (2 ot)
12/08/72	Pacific 84, George Fox 74 (2 ot)
12/30/75	George Fox 123, Linfield 116 (4 ot)

BRUINS AMONG THE NCAA NATIONAL STATISTICAL LEADERS

The George Fox Bruins are once again among the nation's leading 3-point shooting teams, their average of 9.6 per game ranking 5th in the latest NCAA Division III statistics including games through Jan. 14. Last year, the Bruins were 2nd only to Grinnell, which is on top again (19.4) and still not winning (4-6). Jordan Green (Sr., W, Cashmere, Wash.), who was 6th in the nation in steals last year, is back among the leaders at No. 21 with an average of 3.0 steals a game. Green was also tied for 15th in the nation in free throw percentage (.892).

BRUINS PULL OUT DOUBLE-O.T. THRILLER 106-104 OVER WILLAMETTE

NEWBERG, Ore. --- It started a half hour later than planned and went 10 minutes longer than expected, but when all was said and done, the George Fox University Bruins had squeezed out a 106-104 double-overtime victory over the Willamette University Bearcats in a Northwest Conference men's basketball thriller Tuesday night (Jan. 16) here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

BRUIN BITS:

 Jordan Green's 18 points vs. Puget Sound give him 1,282 for his career, moving him into 12th on the all-time scoring list at George Fox. Up next are Gordy Loewen (1,300, 1968-72) and Dave Adrian (1,307, 1975-78, 79-80) ... Green has 217 career steals, 3rd on the all-time list. Next is former Portland Trailblazer draft choice Kenny Stone (254, 1983-87). He ranked 21st in the nation in steals (3.0) thru games of Jan. 14. His 9 steals earlier in the season vs. Cascade are the single-game season high in the nation in D-III ... Green's 48 minutes played vs. Willamette was a new career high ... Green set a career high in rebounds (11) and tied his all-time high in free throw attempts (14) in the Puget Sound game.

 Travis Melvin's 38 points vs. Willamette tied him for the 4th-best single-game performance in GFU history (since 1965, latest GFU records). The only games better were Jeff Hoffman with 50 vs. Columbia Christian in 1991, Hille van der Koy with 42 vs. Eastern Oregon in 1980, and Jared Gallop with 39 vs. Concordia in 1995. Melvin's 38 is the highest in the NWC this season ... Melvin set career highs in points (38), field goals (15), field goal attempts (27), 3-pt field goals (6, tied), and minutes played (47) in the Willamette game.

 James Macy set a new personal record for minutes played (44) and Sean Linder tied his high (32) in the double-overtime win over Willamette.

 Bryan Wadlow's 18 points, 5 free throws, and 1.000 ft pct. (5-5) vs. Willamette were new personal bests, while he tied his highs for field goals (6) and fg pct. (.857, 6-7).

 Tuesday's 106-104 double-overtime win over Willamette was the 8th game in Bruin history of 2 or more over times (since 1965, latest GFU records). The first two, in 1972, were in back-to-back games. The entire list:

12/02/72	Willamette 77, George Fox 74 (2 ot)
12/08/72	Pacific 84, George Fox 74 (2 ot)
12/30/75	George Fox 123, Linfield 116 (4 ot)
12/03/76	Lewis & Clark 86, George Fox 75 (2 ot)
12/13/80	Seattle Pacific 86, George Fox 76 (2 ot)
01/15/82	College of Idaho (Albertson) 82, George Fox 76 (2 ot)
12/30/92	George Fox 102, Western Baptist 98 (2 ot)
01/16/01	George Fox 106, Willamette 104 (2 ot)

 Nik Lubisich of Willamette set a Wheeler Sports Center record with 9 3-pt field goals in Tuesday's game, which is also a season high for 3's in Division III this year.

 Mike "Biggs" Wirta, the Bruins storied sports historian for 30 years, has now attended 436 straight men's basketball games, has worked 366 in a row at home, and has seen 866 men's games in his career.

Bruins Win Wild Double-Overtime Game vs. Willamette

COMING UP:

Fri., Jan. 19, 8:00 p.m. -- vs. University of Puget Sound, in Newberg, Ore.

Northwest Conference game ... The Loggers lead the series with the Bruins 10-7 (since 1965, latest GFU records) ... The teams split last year, George Fox winning 85-75 in Newberg and UPS 88-7 in Tacoma ... The Loggers are led in scoring by Jeff Carlson, who is 7th in the league (15.2), while Ryan Boyle is the NWC leader in rebounding (8.8) and Tom Lynch leads in blocked shots (1.38).

Sat., Jan. 20, 8:00 p.m. -- at Pacific University, in Forest Grove, Ore.

Northwest Conference game ... The Bruins lead the series with the Boxers 31-30 (since 1965, latest GFU records) ... The Boxers took both games last year, 77-66 in Forest Grove and 77-58 in Newberg ... The win in Newberg was the 100th win for Pacific coach Ken Schumann, a George Fox graduate ... Pacific leads the NWC in free throw pct. (.734) ... The Boxers are led in scoring by Ray Figueroa, who is 20th in the league (10.8).

NOTE: While the Bruins' radio station in McMinnville, KLYC 1260 AM, will not be carrying this game, the broadcast may be heard over the Pacific network at KUIK 1360 AM, or via KUIK's Internet website.

LAST WEEK:

Jan. 12 -- at Linfield 110, George Fox 82

Jan. 16 -- at George Fox 106, Willamette 104 (2 OT)

BRUINS AMONG THE NCAA NATIONAL STATISTICAL LEADERS

The George Fox Bruins are once again among the nation's leading 3-point shooting teams, their average of 9.6 per game ranking 5th in the latest NCAA Division III statistics including games through Jan. 14. Last year, the Bruins were 2nd only to Grinnell, which is on top again (19.4) and still not winning (4-6). Jordan Green (Sr., W, Cashmere, Wash.), who was 6th in the nation in steals last year, is back among the leaders at No. 21 with an average of 3.0 steals a game. Green was also tied for 15th in the nation in free throw percentage (.892).

 Bryan Wadlow's 18 points, 5 free throws, and 1.000 ft pct. (5-5) vs. Willamette were new personal best, while he tied his highs for field goals (6) and fg pct. (.857, 6-7).

 Tuesday's 106-104 double-overtime win over Willamette was the 8th game in Bruin history of 2 or more over times (since 1965, latest GFU records). The first two, in 1972, were in back-to-back games. The entire list:

12/02/72	Willamette 77, George Fox 74 (2 ot)
12/08/72	Pacific 84, George Fox 74 (2 ot)
12/30/75	George Fox 123, Linfield 116 (4 ot)

BRUINS PULL OUT DOUBLE-O.T. THRILLER 106-104 OVER WILLAMETTE

NEWBERG, Ore. --- It started a half hour later than planned and went 10 minutes longer than expected, but when all was said and done, the George Fox University Bruins had squeezed out a 106-104 double-overtime victory over the Willamette University Bearcats in a Northwest Conference men's basketball thriller Tuesday night (Jan. 16) here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

Due to a power outage on campus that kept the gym lights off for two hours in the late afternoon, the women's game preceding the men's game was 30 minutes late getting started, so the men did not get under way until 8:30 p.m. When the game finally got going, the Bruins' Travis Melvin and the Bearcats' Nik Lubisich became one-man highlight films for their teams. Melvin exploded for 16 points as the Bruins raced out to a 25-14 lead with 9:10 to play in the half in their first home action since Dec. 5. But deadly long-range shooting by Lubisich, who nailed three three-pointers in a row, sparked a Bearcat rally that brought Willamette back for a 41-40 lead at the half. Melvin had 18 at the break and Lubisich had 15 on five threes.

Lubisich hit two more threes and B.J. Dobrkovsky scored 13 points as the Bearcats scored the first 11 points of the second half while upping their lead to 63-48 with 11:40 to go. But the Bruins, who 10 days earlier had scored the greatest road comeback in team history by overcoming a 23-point second-half deficit to win at Whitworth, would not give in this time either. With Melvin getting hot again and scoring 16 points, the Bruins fought back and finally knotted the game at 83-83 on a Melvin three-pointer with 0:22 left, sending it into overtime.

In the first overtime, George Fox took a 95-90 lead with 2:17 to go, only to have Willamette score 7 unanswered points for a 97-95 edge with 0:24 left. Jordan Green's two free throws with 7 second left sent the game into a second overtime at 97-97.

Green's jumper 12 seconds into the second extra period gave the Bruins a lead they would not lose, but the Bearcats hung close, Lubisich making a four-point play on a trey and a free throw to cut the George Fox lead to 103-102 with 2:48 to play. Bryan Wadlow hit a layup for the Bruins at 2:15, Kip Ioane sank two free throws for the Bearcats at 1:01, and the Bruins turned the ball over with 8 seconds left, giving Willamette a last shot for the win. But as Ryan Hepp drove into the lane for a potential winning shot, the Bruins' Jeff Greene stole the ball and made the second of two free throws with 2.2 left on the clock for a two-point Bruin lead. Jordan Green then stole the Bearcats' long downcourt pass to secure the win.

Melvin led all scorers with a career-high 38, falling two points shy of becoming only the 4th Bruin in history to score 40 or more. Jordan Green finished with 22, including 12-for-12 from the free throw line, and had game highs of 7 assists and 8 steals. Wadlow scored a career-high 18 and James Macy chipped in with 13. Wadlow and Jeff Greene led the Bruins with 6 rebounds each.

Lubisich tallied 32 for the Bearcats and set a new Wheeler Sports Center record by canning 9 three-pointers in 15 tries, Dobrkovsky scored 16, Ioane 14, Hepp 13, and Brian Newton 12. Ioane was the top rebounder in the game with 9 as the Bearcats won on the boards 42-31. Hepp had 6 assists.

George Fox improved to 5-8 overall and 2-4 in the conference, while Willamette slipped to 5-9 overall and 2-4 in the league. The Bruins host the University of Puget Sound Friday (Jan. 19) at 8:00 p.m., while the Bearcats visit Pacific Lutheran University Saturday (Jan. 20), also at 8:00 p.m.

BRUINS AMONG THE NCAA NATIONAL STATISTICAL LEADERS

The George Fox Bruins are once again among the nation's leading 3-point shooting teams, their average of 9.5 per game ranking 6th in the latest NCAA Division III statistics including games through Jan. 7. Last year, the Bruins were 2nd only to Grinnell, which is on top again (19.8) and still not winning (4-4). Jordan Green (Sr., W, Cashmere, Wash.), who was 6th in the nation in steals last year, is back among the leaders, tied for 19th with 3.0 steals a game.

 Where the Bruins rank in the NWC individually (thru Jan. 7):

- Jordan Green is 1st in steals (2.83 spg), 1st in free throw pct. (.892), 2nd (tie) in scoring (18.0 ppg), 4th in 3-pt field goals per game (2.83), 7th in assists (4.08 apg), 11th in assist/turnover ratio (1.32:1), 15th in 3-pt field goal pct. (.382), and 20th in rebounding (4.6 rpg) -- he also leads the NWC in total free throws made (66)
- Travis Melvin is 3rd in steals (2.17 spg), 5th in 3-pt field goals per game (2.75), 5th in assists (4.25 apg), 6th in scoring (16.7 ppg), and 7th in assist/turnover ratio (1.70:1)
- James Macy is 28th in scoring (9.8)
- Jeff Greene is 9th in 3-pt field goal pct. (.412)

COACH MARK SUNDQUIST (Seattle Pacific '89) is 4-8 in his 1st season as the men's basketball coach at George Fox. He was the men's head coach at Newberg (Ore.) High School last year, and at Woodburn (Ore.) High School for the two seasons prior to that.

THE BRUINS ON RADIO

KLYC Radio (1260 AM) in McMinnville will carry selected George Fox men's and women's games and all post-season games throughout the year as a part of the Northwest Conference's broadcast agreement with Pioneer Radio & Sports of Bellevue, Wash. Brian Erickson of KLYC's "The Morning Show" will handle play-by-play duties for the Bruins, with the pre-game show beginning 15 minutes before tip-off.

Schedule of remaining broadcasts (subject to change):

- Jan. 16 - Willamette (W, 6 pm / M, 8 pm)
- Jan. 26 - Whitworth (W, 6 pm / M, 8 pm)
- Jan. 27 - Whitman (W, 6 pm / M, 8 pm)
- Feb. 2 - at Lewis & Clark (W, 6 pm / M, 8 pm)
- Feb. 3 - Pacific Lutheran (M, 8 pm)
- Feb. 10 - Linfield (W, 6 pm / M, 8 pm)

FOR YOUR HALFTIME ENTERTAINMENT ...

Several special activities have been scheduled for the halftimes of selected George Fox home men's and women's basketball games this season. The traditional "Coffee Cottage Hoop Shoot" will be held at most games, in which three contestants who have game programs signed by a selected Bruin player shoot baskets for 30 seconds to win discounts at the Coffee Cottage in Newberg. The new "Gym Golf" game, sponsored by Bon Appetit, will also make an occasional appearance, with anyone in the crowd who wishes to participate putting golf balls across the gym floor through a slot in a board at the other side of the gym for discounts at the Bruin Den.

Upcoming Halftime Events:

- Jan. 16 - George Fox Dance Team
- Jan. 19 - Hangtime Gorillas
- Jan. 23 - TBA
- Jan. 26 - Valley Professional Dance Center

BRUINS AMONG THE NCAA NATIONAL STATISTICAL LEADERS

The George Fox Bruins are once again among the nation's leading 3-point shooting teams, their average of 9.5 per game ranking 6th in the latest NCAA Division III statistics including games through Jan. 7. Last year, the Bruins were 2nd only to Grinnell, which is on top again (19.8) and still not winning (4-4). Jordan Green (Sr., W, Cashmere, Wash.), who was 6th in the nation in steals last year, is back among the leaders, tied for 19th with 3.0 steals a game.

WILDCATS OUTPACE BRUINS FOR FAST-PACED 110-82 WIN

McMINNVILLE, Ore. --- In a game that featured plenty of up-and-down-the-court action, the Linfield College Wildcats outraced the George Fox University Bruins to a 110-82 victory in a Northwest Conference men's basketball game Friday night (Jan. 12) here at Ted Wilson Gym.

The Bruins took a short-lived 10-9 lead four minutes into the game, but the Wildcats responded with a 20-6 run that gave the home team a 29-16 lead with 10:08 left in the half and control of the game. With Grant Ebright and Evan Wilson scoring 13 and 12 respectively in the half, the Wildcats stretched the lead to 25 at the half, 56-31. Eleven different players scored in the first half alone for Linfield.

A 12-4 run midway through the second half, with Jordan Green and Sean Linder (Jr., W, Azalea, Ore.) contributing four points apiece, enabled the Bruins to cut the Linfield lead to 16 at 82-66 with 8:19 to go, but that was as close as George Fox would come the rest of the game. The Linfield lead eventually bulged to 29 at 108-79 with 1:05 left.

James Macy (Jr., PG, Culver, Ore.) topped the Bruins with 22 points as he hit 6 of 8 shots, including 3 of 3 from three-point range, Green finished with 17, and Travis Melvin (Jr., W, Pleasant Hill, Ore.) added 15. The Bruins connected on only .377 from the field (23-61), and were out-rebounded 48-33.

For Linfield, Ebright and Wilson had career highs with 26 and 19 points respectively, Travis Jones had 15, and former Bruin Ryan Cruz chipped in with 12. The Wildcats blistered the nets for a .562 percentage (41-73), including .611 (22-36) in the first half.

George Fox fell to 4-8 overall and 1-4 in the conference, while the Wildcats improved to 9-3 overall and 3-1 in the league.

BRUIN BITS:

 James Macy received Honorable Mention for Northwest Conference "Player of the Week" for Jan. 8-14 for his fine game in the Bruins' loss at Linfield. He sank 6-8 from the field, including 3-3 from 3-point range, and 7-11 from the line for 22 points, while adding 5 rebounds, 1 assist, and 1 steal. He set new personal single-game marks for 3-pt field goal pct. (1.000), free throws (7), and free throw attempts (11). NWC "Player of the Week" honors went to forward Grant Ebright of Linfield, who led the Wildcats to three wins and a share of the conference lead by averaging 17.3 points and 6.7 rebounds per game.

 Jordan Green's 17 points at Linfield give him 1,242 for his career, ranking 13th on the all-time scoring list at George Fox. Next up is Jeff Hoffman (1,264, 1990-92) ... Green has 34 steals on the season and 204 for his career, good for 4th on the career steals list. Next on the list is Brent Peterson (214).

 The Bruins' 110-82 loss at Linfield marked the 5th straight game between the two Yamhill County rivals that one team or the other has broken the 100-point barrier.

 According to George Fox's storied sports historian, Mike "Biggs" Wirta, the Bruins' rally from 23 down in the second half to a 75-73 win at Whitworth was the biggest comeback on the road in team history. "We were 27 down in the second half one year against Western Oregon and came back and won, but that was at home," recalls Wirta. "Biggs", who is in his 30th year of keeping stats at George Fox, has now attended 434 straight men's basketball games, has worked 364 in a row at home, and has seen 864 men's games in his career.

GEORGE FOX TO INDUCT HALL OF FAME CLASS OF 2001 ON JAN. 27

NEWBERG, Ore. --- Six individuals and one team make up the Class of 2001 for the George Fox University Sports Hall of Fame and will be inducted into the Hall in ceremonies at the school on Saturday, Jan. 27.

Making up the newest class of honorees are athletes Harold Ankeny, Gregg Griffin, Cindy (Warner) Holmes, Dan LaVeine, and Brian Martin; Frank Colcord in the category of Meritorious Service; and the 1991 women's cross country team.

Induction ceremonies will take place in the Klages Dining Room of the school cafeteria, beginning with appetizers at 3:30 p.m., dinner and the inductions from 4:00-6:00 p.m., and a reception with coffee and dessert from 6:00-7:00 p.m. The inductees will then be honored at halftime of the men's basketball game against Whitman College in the Wheeler Sports Center, which starts at 8:00 p.m.

Tickets to the Sports Hall of Fame ceremonies are $15 for adults, $10 for children 10 and under, and may be obtained by calling the George Fox athletic department at 503-554-2910.

Ankeny, Griffin, Martin and Colcord all played basketball at George Fox, though only Martin truly made his reputation as a Bruin on the hardwood. In only two seasons, he completely re-wrote the record book on point guards. He is the all-time Bruin record holder in assists with 614, over 100 more than the next closest player. Other records he holds include highest assists-per-game average for a career (9.59), highest assists-per-game average for a season (11.33 in 1991), most assists in a season (340 in 1991), and most assists in a game (20 against Warner Pacific in 1991). He was second all-time in NAIA District 2 in career assists and in single-season assists, and tied the district record for assists in a game. He directed the Bruins to a 53-11 record in his two seasons and to the NAIA District 2 championship and a spot in the NAIA National Tournament in 1990. He averaged 11.3 points and 4.6 rebounds a game as well, and graduated magna cum laude in 1991.

BRUINS DROP ONE-POINT HEARTBREAKER TO POMONA-PITZER

CLAREMONT, Calif. --- George Fox University wings Travis Melvin (Jr., Pleasant Hill, Ore.) and Jordan Green (Sr., Cashmere, Wash.) combined for 56 points, but it was not enough as the Bruins dropped a 75-74 heart-breaker to the Pomona-Pitzer Colleges Sagehens in a non-conference men's basketball game here Tuesday night (Jan. 2).

The Bruins held a 74-70 lead with a minute left to play, but the Sagehens' Jeremiah Martin sank two free throws when a lane violation gave him a second chance after he had missed the front end of a one-and-one, then drained a three-pointer from the top of the key as time expired to pull it out for the home team.

Melvin scored a career and game-high 34 for the Bruins, hitting 13 of 22 from the field, including 6 of 12 from three-point range, while Green sank 6 of 12, 4 of 9 from behind the arc, and 6 of 7 free throws for 22 points. The seven other Bruins who played could muster only 18 points between them as the Bruins dropped to 3-6 on the season. Aaron Milner (Jr., P, Seattle, Wash.) led all rebounders with a career-high 12 and Melvin also had a career best on the boards with 9, while Green had a game-high 6 assists and Melvin picked up 3 steals.

 Jordan Green's 52 points in 3 games this past week give him 1,225 for his career, moving him past Gary Chenault, Gary Blackmar, and Mike Faber into 13th on the all-time scoring list at George Fox. Next up is Jeff Hoffman (1,264, 1990-92) ... Green has 33 steals on the season and 203 for his career, good for 4th on the career steals list. Next on the list is Brent Peterson (214).

 Bryan Wadlow, who has started the last 10 games at center in place of injured Andrew Coleman, had 9 of his 11 points at Whitworth in the second half, a key component of the Bruins' comeback from a 23-point deficit to a 75-73 win.

 Aaron Milner had a career-high 12 rebounds, double his previous best, at Pomona-Pitzer ... Milner took a key charge from Whitworth's Kelson Ramey with 11 seconds left and George Fox ahead by only one, then sank a free throw with 9 seconds left for the final point in the Bruins' come-from-behind 75-73 win.

 Andrew Coleman (P, Sr., Richland, Wash.), the Bruins' starting center in the season opener, has missed the last 10 games with a herniated disc, and his status remains day-to-day as he rests it in hopes of avoiding surgery and returning before the end of the season.

 According to George Fox's storied sports historian, Mike "Biggs" Wirta, the Bruins' rally from 23 down in the second half to a 75-73 win at Whitworth was the biggest comeback on the road in team history. "We were 27 down in the second half one year against Western Oregon and came back and won, but that was at home," recalls Wirta. "Biggs", who is in his 30th year of keeping stats at George Fox, has now attended 433 straight men's basketball games, has worked 364 in a row at home, and has seen 863 men's games in his career.

BRUINS DROP ONE-POINT HEARTBREAKER TO POMONA-PITZER

CLAREMONT, Calif. --- George Fox University wings Travis Melvin (Jr., Pleasant Hill, Ore.) and Jordan Green (Sr., Cashmere, Wash.) combined for 56 points, but it was not enough as the Bruins dropped a 75-74 heart-breaker to the Pomona-Pitzer Colleges Sagehens in a non-conference men's basketball game here Tuesday night (Jan. 2).

The Bruins held a 74-70 lead with a minute left to play, but the Sagehens' Jeremiah Martin sank two free throws when a lane violation gave him a second chance after he had missed the front end of a one-and-one, then drained a three-pointer from the top of the key as time expired to pull it out for the home team.

Melvin scored a career and game-high 34 for the Bruins, hitting 13 of 22 from the field, including 6 of 12 from three-point range, while Green sank 6 of 12, 4 of 9 from behind the arc, and 6 of 7 free throws for 22 points. The seven other Bruins who played could muster only 18 points between them as the Bruins dropped to 3-6 on the season. Aaron Milner (Jr., P, Seattle, Wash.) led all rebounders with a career-high 12 and Melvin also had a career best on the boards with 9, while Green had a game-high 6 assists and Melvin picked up 3 steals.

SLOW START DOOMS BRUINS TO 85-72 LOSS AT WHITMAN

WALLA WALLA, Wash. --- A poor shooting half and 11 first-half turnovers put the George Fox University Bruins in a hole from which they could not recover, resulting in an 85-72 loss to the Whitman College Missionaries in a Northwest Conference men's basketball game Friday night (Jan. 5) here at the Sherwood Center.

The Bruins shot only .273 (9-33) in the first half, including .188 (3-16) from three-point range, nirmally the Bruins' strong suit. In the meantime, the Missionaries' Leonard Harmon hit 3 of 4 from 'way outside en route to 12 first-half points, sparking Whitman to a 41-25 halftime.

Pounding the ball inside against the smaller Bruins early in the second half, the Missionaries stretched their lead to as much as 22 points, led by Mark Bouma, who scord a game-high 23. Jordan Green ignited the Bruins midway through the final half, hitting a pair of treys and two free throws in one streak to bring the Bruins within 10 at 69-59 with 4:40 to go, but that was as close as George Fox would get as the Missionaries cashed in numerous free throw opportunities in the final minutes.

Green finished with 18 for the Bruins and a team-high 7 rebounds with 4 steals, Travis Melvin added 11 points with 8 assists and 4 steals, and Aaron Milner scored 10. The Bruins shot only .320 for the game (24-75) and were 9-34 from three-point range.

Bouma was followed by Harmon with 18, Ben Fuller with 12, and Jacob Pounds with 11. Bouma grabbed 12 rebounds and Peter Rutledge 11 as the Missionaries out-rebounded the Bruins 55-35. Whitman shot .491 (28-57) from the field.

George Fox, dropping its third in a row, fell to 3-7 overall and 0-3 in the conference, while Whitman won its third straight and improved to 4-6 overall and 1-1 in the league.

BRUINS RALLY FROM 23 DOWN TO STUN WHITWORTH 75-73

SPOKANE, Wash. --- Travis Melvin scored 29 points, 24 in the second half, rallying the George Fox University Bruins from a 23-point second-half deficit to a stunning 75-73 victory over the Whitworth College Pirates in a Northwest Conference men's basketball game Saturday night (Jan. 6) here at the Whitworth Fieldhouse.

Melvin's steal and layup with 0:28 left capped the Bruins' comeback from a 49-26 deficit with 17 minutes to play and put George Fox ahead for the first time in the game at 74-73. Aaron Milner took a charge from Kelson Ramey with 11 seconds left, then added another point on a free throw with nine seconds left, and Ramey's desperation three-pointer at the buzzer bounced off the rim. The Bruins, after hitting only .333 (8-24) in the first half, blistered the nets for a .615 mark (16-26) in the second as they out-scored the Pirates 49-24 to end the game.

The Bruins hung tough through the first 10 minutes off the game, trailing only 17-14, with Jordan Green scoring six of those. But the shots that had been falling early began to miss, and the Pirates out-scored the Bruins 22-10 the rest of the half to take a 39-24 lead at the break. Whitworth's 24-11 edge on the boards and 13 points from Bryan Depew also aided the Pirates in building their big margin. Whitworth put together a 10-2 run to start the second half to up their lead to 23 before the Bruins rallied.

Melvin was joined in the scoring column by Green with 12 and Bryan Wadlow (Fr., P, Albany, Ore.) with 11 as the Bruins snapped a 15-game road losing streak in the conference. Melvin added 5 assists and 4 steals, and Green had 6 assists. Melvin and Green also led the Bruins with 6 rebounds apiece.

Depew finished with 20 for the Pirates, Chase Williams scored 12, and Ryan Nelson added 11. Depew led all rebounders with 8 as the Pirates ended with a 35-28 edge on the boards. Nelson had 5 assists.

BRUIN BITS:

 Travis Melvin received Honorable Mention for Northwest Conference "Player of the Week" for Dec. 27-Jan. 7 while setting 7 new personal bests during the Bruins' 1-2 week. At Pomona-Pitzer, he set new personal records for points with 34, three-pointers with 6, rebounds with 9, and tied his best for field goals, hitting 13-22, with 4 assists and 3 steals. At Whitman, he scored only 11, but had a game and career-high 8 assists and 4 steals. In a 75-73 win at Whitworth, he scored 29, 24 in the second half as the Bruins overcame a 23-point deficit, with 6 rebounds, 5 assists, and 4 steals. In 3 games, he scored 74 points (24.7 ppg), hitting 26-57 on field goals (.456), including 11-28 on threes (.393), and 11-16 from the line (.688), with 17 rebounds (5.7 rpg), with 17 assists (5.7) and 11 steals (3.7). NWC "Player of the Week" honors went to Neil Mendez of Pacific Lutheran, who led the Lutes to the championship of the Lutheran Brotherhood Classic at California Lutheran with 54 points, 18 rebounds, 5 assists and 5 steals.

 Jordan Green's 52 points in 3 games this past week give 1,225 for his career, moving him past Gary Chenault, Gary Blackmar, and Mike Faber into 13th on the all-time scoring list at George Fox. Next up is Jeff Hoffman (1,264, 1990-92) ... Green has 33 steals on the season and 203 for his career, good for 4th on the career steals list. Next on the list is Brent Peterson (214).

 Bryan Wadlow, who has started the last 10 games at center in place of injured Andrew Coleman, had 9 of his 11 points at Whitworth in the second half, a key component of the Bruins' comeback from a 23-point deficit to a 75-73 win.

 Aaron Milner had a career-high 12 rebounds, double his previous best, at Pomona-Pitzer ... Milner took a key charge from Whitworth's Kelson Ramey with 11 seconds left and George Fox ahead by only one, then sank a free throw with 9 seconds left for the final point in the Bruins' come-from-behind 75-73 win.

 Andrew Coleman (P, Sr., Richland, Wash.), the Bruins' starting center in the season opener, has missed the last 10 games with a herniated disc, and his status remains day-to-day as he rests it in hopes of avoiding surgery and returning before the end of the season.

 According to George Fox's storied sports historian, Mike "Biggs" Wirta, the Bruins' rally from 23 down in the second half to a 75-73 win at Whitworth was the biggest comeback on the road in team history. "We were 27 down in the second half one year against Western Oregon and came back and won, but that was at home," recalls Wirta. "Biggs", who is in his 30th year of keeping stats at George Fox, has now attended 433 straight men's basketball games, has worked 364 in a row at home, and has seen 863 men's games in his career.

GEORGE FOX TO INDUCT HALL OF FAME CLASS OF 2001 ON JAN. 27

NEWBERG, Ore. --- Six individuals and one team make up the Class of 2001 for the George Fox University Sports Hall of Fame and will be inducted into the Hall in ceremonies at the school on Saturday, Jan. 27.

Making up the newest class of honorees are athletes Harold Ankeny, Gregg Griffin, Cindy (Warner) Holmes, Dan LaVeine, and Brian Martin; Frank Colcord in the category of Meritorious Service; and the 1991 women's cross country team.

Induction ceremonies will take place in the Klages Dining Room of the school cafeteria, beginning with appetizers at 3:30 p.m., dinner and the inductions from 4:00-6:00 p.m., and a reception with coffee and dessert from 6:00-7:00 p.m. The inductees will then be honored at halftime of the men's basketball game against Whitman College in the Wheeler Sports Center, which starts at 8:00 p.m.

Tickets to the Sports Hall of Fame ceremonies are $15 for adults, $10 for children 10 and under, and may be obtained by calling the George Fox athletic department at 503-554-2910.

Ankeny, Griffin, Martin and Colcord all played basketball at George Fox, though only Martin truly made his reputation as a Bruin on the hardwood. In only two seasons, he completely re-wrote the record book on point guards. He is the all-time Bruin record holder in assists with 614, over 100 more than the next closest player. Other records he holds include highest assists-per-game average for a career (9.59), highest assists-per-game average for a season (11.33 in 1991), most assists in a season (340 in 1991), and most assists in a game (20 against Warner Pacific in 1991). He was second all-time in NAIA District 2 in career assists and in single-season assists, and tied the district record for assists in a game. He directed the Bruins to a 53-11 record in his two seasons and to the NAIA District 2 championship and a spot in the NAIA National Tournament in 1990. He averaged 11.3 points and 4.6 rebounds a game as well, and graduated magna cum laude in 1991.

BRUINS RALLY FROM 23 DOWN TO STUN WHITWORTH 75-73

SPOKANE, Wash. --- Travis Melvin scored 29 points, 24 in the second half, rallying the George Fox University Bruins from a 23-point second-half deficit to a stunning 75-73 victory over the Whitworth College Pirates in a Northwest Conference men's basketball game Saturday night (Jan. 6) here at the Whitworth Fieldhouse.

Melvin's steal and layup with 0:28 left capped the Bruins' comeback from a 49-26 deficit with 17 minutes to play and put George Fox ahead for the first time in the game at 74-73. Aaron Milner took a charge from Kelson Ramey with 11 seconds left, then added another point on a free throw with nine seconds left, and Ramey's desperation three-pointer at the buzzer bounced off the rim. The Bruins, after hitting only .333 (8-24) in the first half, blistered the nets for a .615 mark (16-26) in the second as they out-scored the Pirates 49-24 to end the game.

The Bruins hung tough through the first 10 minutes off the game, trailing only 17-14, with Jordan Green scoring six of those. But the shots that had been falling early began to miss, and the Pirates out-scored the Bruins 22-10 the rest of the half to take a 39-24 lead at the break. Whitworth's 24-11 edge on the boards and 13 points from Bryan Depew also aided the Pirates in building their big margin. Whitworth put together a 10-2 run to start the second half to up their lead to 23 before the Bruins rallied.

Melvin was joined in the scoring column by Green with 12 and Bryan Wadlow with 11 as the Bruins snapped a 15-game road losing streak in the conference. Melvin added 5 assists and 4 steals, and Green had 6 assists. Melvin and Green also led the Bruins with 6 rebounds apiece.

Depew finished with 20 for the Pirates, Chase Williams scored 12, and Ryan Nelson added 11. Depew led all rebounders with 8 as the Pirates ended with a 35-28 edge on the boards. Nelson had 5 assists.

George Fox is now 4-7 overall and 1-3 in the conference, while Whitworth is 6-5 and 2-1. The Bruins return to conference action Friday (Jan. 12), visiting Yamhill County rival Linfield College at 8:00 p.m. The game will be broadcast live over KLYC 1260 AM in McMinnville. Whitworth travels to the University of Puget Sound Friday, also at 8:00 p.m.

Bruin Comeback Shocks Pirate Men 75-73

Spokane, WA – In what has become an all-too familiar scenario for Whitworth College, Travis Melvin scored 24 of his 29 points in the second half to lead visiting George Fox University back from a 23-point second half deficit to a 75-73 win over the Pirates in a Northwest Conference men's basketball game on Saturday night.

Whitworth, which has now lost three games after leading by double digits at halftime, fell to 6-5 overall and 2-1 in the NWC.

George Fox won its first NWC road game since the 1998-99 season and improved to 4-7, 1-3.

Melvin's baseline lay-in with :28 to play gave George Fox its first lead of the game (74-73). Whitworth's Kelson Ramey was called for an offensive foul on a drive to the basket with :11 on the clock. Aaron Milner was fouled with :09 to play and made one of two free throws. Ramey's last second off-balance three point attempt was no good and the Bruins had the comeback win.

Whitworth led by as many as 23 points twice early in the second half. The second came when Chase Williams drained a three-pointer to make the score 52-29 with 16:57 to play.

But George Fox immediately went on a 16-2 run, capped by a Melvin three-pointer, that cut the Whitworth lead to 54-45 with 12:25 to go in the game.

Whitworth seemed to regain control when the Pirates extended the lead back to 60-45. Pat Luce scored four points during the 6-0 run.

But George Fox outscored the Pirates 30-13 the rest of the way, led by Melvin. The junior guard scored 20 of the Bruins' final 30 points, including the game winning basket with :28 left to play.

Jordan Green added 12 points and Bryan Wadlow chipped in with 11 for the Bruins. Nine of Wadlow's points came after halftime.

Whitworth was led by freshman forward Bryan Depew, who finished with 20 points and a game-high eight rebounds.

On December 8th and 9th the Pirates lost back-to-back home games to Carroll College and Lewis-Clark State College after leading by double digits at halftime. Whitworth also lost an exhibition game to the NBC Thunder on November 18th in the same manner.

George Fox's last NWC road win was 88-87 in overtime at Lewis & Clark in January of 1999. The Bruin's win was also their first in Spokane since they joined the NWC in 1995. They had lost in their previous five attempts.

SLOW START DOOMS BRUINS TO 85-72 LOSS AT WHITMAN

WALLA WALLA, Wash. --- A poor shooting half and 11 first-half turnovers put the George Fox University Bruins in a hole from which they could not recover, resulting in an 85-72 loss to the Whitman College Missionaries in a Northwest Conference men's basketball game Friday night (Jan. 5) here at the Sherwood Center.

The Bruins shot only .273 (9-33) in the first half, including .188 (3-16) from three-point range, nirmally the Bruins' strong suit. In the meantime, the Missionaries' Leonard Harmon hit 3 of 4 from 'way outside en route to 12 first-half points, sparking Whitman to a 41-25 halftime.

Pounding the ball inside against the smaller Bruins early in the second half, the Missionaries stretched their lead to as much as 22 points, led by Mark Bouma, who scord a game-high 23. Jordan Green ignited the Bruins midway through the final half, hitting a pair of treys and two free throws in one streak to bring the Bruins within 10 at 69-59 with 4:40 to go, but that was as close as George Fox would get as the Missionaries cashed in numerous free throw opportunities in the final minutes.

Green finished with 18 for the Bruins and a team-high 7 rebounds with 4 steals, Travis Melvin added 11 points with 8 assists and 4 steals, and Aaron Milner scored 10. The Bruins shot only .320 for the game (24-75) and were 9-34 from three-point range.

Bouma was followed by Harmon with 18, Ben Fuller with 12, and Jacob Pounds with 11. Bouma grabbed 12 rebounds and Peter Rutledge 11 as the Missionaries out-rebounded the Bruins 55-35. Whitman shot .491 (28-57) from the field.

George Fox, dropping its third in a row, fell to 3-7 overall and 0-3 in the conference, while Whitman won its third straight and improved to 4-6 overall and 1-1 in the league.

The Bruins will try to snap their losing streak when they visit Whitworth College Saturday, Jan. 6, for an 8:00 p.m. conference game, which will be broadcast live over KLYC 1260 AM. The Missionaries stay at home to take on Willamette University Saturday at 8:00 p.m.

BRUINS DROP ONE-POINT HEARTBREAKER TO POMONA-PITZER

CLAREMONT, Calif. --- George Fox University wings Travis Melvin and Jordan Green combined for 56 points, but it was not enough as the Bruins dropped a 75-74 heart-breaker to the Pomona-Pitzer Colleges Sagehens in a non-conference men's basketball game here Tuesday night (Jan. 2).

The Bruins held a 74-70 lead with a minute left to play, but the Sagehens' Jeremiah Martin sank two free throws when a lane violation gave him a second chance after he had missed the front end of a one-and-one, then drained a three-pointer from the top of the key as time expired to pull it out for the home team.

Melvin scored a career and game-high 34 for the Bruins, hitting 13 of 22 from the field, including 6 of 12 from three-point range, while Green sank 6 of 12, 4 of 9 from behind the arc, and 6 of 7 free throws for 22 points. The seven other Bruins who played could muster only 18 points between them as the Bruins dropped to 3-6 on the season. Aaron Milner led all rebounders with a career-high 12 and Melvin also had a career best on the boards with 9, while Green had a game-high 6 assists and Melvin picked up 3 steals.

The Sagehens had only one player in double figures, Martin, who finished with 33 off a 14-for-20 shooting night, but it was enough to lead Pomona-Pitzer to only its 2nd win in nine contests this season. Martin also grabbed a 10 rebounds to lead the Sagehens.

GEORGE FOX TO INDUCT HALL OF FAME CLASS OF 2001 ON JAN. 27

NEWBERG, Ore. --- Six individuals and one team make up the Class of 2001 for the George Fox University Sports Hall of Fame and will be inducted into the Hall in ceremonies at the school on Saturday, Jan. 27.

Making up the newest class of honorees are athletes Harold Ankeny, Gregg Griffin, Cindy (Warner) Holmes, Dan LaVeine, and Brian Martin; Frank Colcord in the category of Meritorious Service; and the 1991 women's cross country team.

Induction ceremonies will take place in the Klages Dining Room of the school cafeteria, beginning with appetizers at 3:30 p.m., dinner and the inductions from 4:00-6:00 p.m., and a reception with coffee and dessert from 6:00-7:00 p.m. The inductees will then be honored at halftime of the men's basketball game against Whitman College in the Wheeler Sports Center, which starts at 8:00 p.m.

Tickets to the Sports Hall of Fame ceremonies are $15 for adults, $10 for children 10 and under, and may be obtained by calling the George Fox athletic department at 503-554-2910.

Ankeny, Griffin, Martin and Colcord all played basketball at George Fox, though only Martin truly made his reputation as a Bruin on the hardwood. In only two seasons, he completely re-wrote the record book on point guards. He is the all-time Bruin record holder in assists with 614, over 100 more than the next closest player. Other records he holds include highest assists-per-game average for a career (9.59), highest assists-per-game average for a season (11.33 in 1991), most assists in a season (340 in 1991), and most assists in a game (20 against Warner Pacific in 1991). He was second all-time in NAIA District 2 in career assists and in single-season assists, and tied the district record for assists in a game. He directed the Bruins to a 53-11 record in his two seasons and to the NAIA District 2 championship and a spot in the NAIA National Tournament in 1990. He averaged 11.3 points and 4.6 rebounds a game as well, and graduated magna cum laude in 1991.

BRUINS DROP ONE-POINT HEARTBREAKER TO POMONA-PITZER

CLAREMONT, Calif. --- George Fox University wings Travis Melvin and Jordan Green combined for 56 points, but it was not enough as the Bruins dropped a 75-74 heart-breaker to the Pomona-Pitzer Colleges Sagehens in a non-conference men's basketball game here Tuesday night (Jan. 2).

The Bruins held a 74-70 lead with a minute left to play, but the Sagehens' Jeremiah Martin sank two free throws when a lane violation gave him a second chance after he had missed the front end of a one-and-one, then drained a three-pointer from the top of the key as time expired to pull it out for the home team.

Melvin scored a career and game-high 34 for the Bruins, hitting 13 of 22 from the field, including 6 of 12 from three-point range, while Green sank 6 of 12, 4 of 9 from behind the arc, and 6 of 7 free throws for 22 points. The seven other Bruins who played could muster only 18 points between them as the Bruins dropped to 3-6 on the season. Aaron Milner led all rebounders with a career-high 12 and Melvin also had a career best on the boards with 9, while Green had a game-high 6 assists and Melvin picked up 3 steals.

The Sagehens had only one player in double figures, Martin, who finished with 33 off a 14-for-20 shooting night, but it was enough to lead Pomona-Pitzer to only its 2nd win in nine contests this season. Martin also grabbed a 10 rebounds to lead the Sagehens.

The Bruins continue their road trip this weekend with a visit to Whitman College Friday, Jan. 5, to resume Northwest Conference play. Tip-off is 8:00 p.m. in Walla Walla, Wash. On Saturday, Jan. 6, the Bruins will be in Spokane to take on Whitworth College, also at 8:00 p.m. Both games will be broadcast live by KLYC AM 1260, as will the George Fox women's games with Whitman and Whitworth at 6:00 p.m. both nights.

BRUINS FALL TO LUTES 85-80 DESPITE MACY'S CAREER-HIGH 27

TACOMA, Wash. --- In a long-range gunning game in which over half the shots taken were three-pointers, James Macy (Jr., PG, Culver, Ore.) scored a career-high 27 points and Jordan Green (Sr., W, Cashmere, Wash.) added 20, but it was not enough as the George Fox University Bruins dropped an 85-80 decision to the Pacific Lutheran University Lutes in a Northwest Conference men's basketball game Saturday night (Dec. 16) here at Olson Auditorium.

After trading leads several times for the first 10 minutes of the game, the Lutes got hot and pulled away to a 50-38 halftime lead, hitting .655 from the field (19-29) in the half. Macy kept the Bruins in the ballgame with 17 in the first half, but picked up three quick fouls early in the second half and had to sit for a while, enabling PLU to maintain a comfortable lead at 73-61 with nine minutes left.

The Bruins rallied late as Green got hot, hitting three threes and a pair of free throws to spark a 17-3 run that gave George Fox a 78-76 lead with 4:11 to play. The Bruins cooled off, however, making only a Macy field goal with 1:12 to go the rest of the way. A pair of Treven Vander Ploeg free throws and a jumper by Parker Barth put PLU back in front for good, and the Lutes sank 4 of 6 free throws in the final minute to seal the win.

Macy finished with a 10-for-14 night from the field, including 4 of 5 from three-point range and 3 of 3 from the line. He and Green were joined in the scoring column by Bryan Wadlow (Fr., P, Albany, Ore.), who hit 6 of 7, including a trey, for a career-high 13 points. Sean Linder (Jr., W, Azalea, Ore.) led the Bruins on the boards with 8 and Wadlow had 6. Travis Melvin (Jr., W, Pleasant Hill, Ore.) scored 9 while passing out 6 assists, while Green had 5 assists and 4 steals.

Parker Barth sizzled for the Lutes, sinking 8 of 9 from the field en route to 20 points, Eric Dordal sank 5 three-pointers for 15 points, and Michael Kelley and Treven Vander Ploeg scored 14 apiece. Davis had a game-high 10 rebounds and Kelley added 8 as the Lutes controlled the boards 37-31. Barth led the Lutes with 6 assists.

For the game, the Bruins took 34 of their 62 shots from three-point range, while the Lutes took exactly half of their shots - 28 of 56 - from outside the arc.

George Fox fell to 3-5 overall and 0-2 in the conference, while Pacific Lutheran climbed to 3-4 overall with a win in its first conference game.

BRUIN BITS:

 Point guard James Macy received Honorable Mention for Northwest Conference "Player of the Week" for Dec. 11-17 with an outstanding performance in the Bruins' only game of the week, an 85-80 loss at Pacific Lutheran. He scored a career-high 27 points on 10-14 from the field, including 4-5 from 3-point range, and 3-3 from the charity stripe. He had 17 in the first half to keep the Bruins close. He chipped in 2 rebounds, 2 assists, and a steal as well. NWC "Player of the Week" honors went to Parker Barth of Pacific Lutheran, who had 20 points, hitting 8-9 from the field, with 6 assists vs. George Fox.

 Jordan Green's 20 points at Pacific Lutheran give him 1,173 for his career, moving him past Hille Van Der Kooy (1,170) into 16th on the all-time scoring list at George Fox. Next up are Gary Chenault (1,187) and Gary Blackmar (1,215) ... Green has 27 steals on the season and 197 for his career, good for 4th on the career steals list. Next on the list is Brent Peterson (214).

 Bryan Wadlow, who has started the last seven games at center in place of injured Andrew Coleman, scored a career-high 13 points at Pacific Lutheran, hitting 6-7 from the field with a 3-pointer, and also contributed 6 rebounds.

 Sean Linder returned to the starting lineup at PLU after missing the Multnomah Bible game with a sprained ankle and led the team with a career-high 8 boards.

 Aaron Milner (Jr., P, Seattle, Wash.) came off the bench at PLU after missing the last four games with a sprained ankle and went 1-4 from the field for 2 points. Milner was averaging 13.3 points and ranked 3rd in the NWC in field goal pct. (.654) went he went out after three games.

 Andrew Coleman (P, Sr., Richland, Wash.), the Bruins' starting center in the season opener, has missed the last seven games with a herniated disc, and his status remains day-to-day as he rests it in hopes of avoiding surgery and returning before the end of the season.

BRUINS FALL TO LUTES 85-80 DESPITE MACY'S CAREER-HIGH 27

TACOMA, Wash. --- In a long-range gunning game in which over half the shots taken were three-pointers, James Macy scored a career-high 27 points and Jordan Green added 20, but it was not enough as the George Fox University Bruins dropped an 85-80 decision to the Pacific Lutheran University Lutes in a Northwest Conference men's basketball game Saturday night (Dec. 16) here at Olson Auditorium.

After trading leads several times for the first 10 minutes of the game, the Lutes got hot and pulled away to a 50-38 halftime lead, hitting .655 from the field (19-29) in the half. Macy kept the Bruins in the ballgame with 17 in the first half, but picked up three quick fouls early in the second half and had to sit for a while, enabling PLU to maintain a comfortable lead at 73-61 with nine minutes left.

The Bruins rallied late as Green got hot, hitting three threes and a pair of free throws to spark a 17-3 run that gave George Fox a 78-76 lead with 4:11 to play. The Bruins cooled off, however, making only a Macy field goal with 1:12 to go the rest of the way. A pair of Treven Vander Ploeg free throws and a jumper by Parker Barth by PLU back in front for good, and the Lutes sank 4 of 6 free throws in the final minute to seal the win.

Macy finished with a 10-for-14 night from the field, including 4 of 5 from three-point range and 3 of 3 from the line. He and Green were joined in the scoring column by Bryan Wadlow, who hit 6 of 7, including a trey, for a career-high 13 points. Sean Linder led the Bruins on the boards with 8 and Wadlow had 6. Travis Melvin scored 9 while passing out 6 assists, while Green had 5 assists and 4 steals.

Parker Barth sizzled for the Lutes, sinking 8 of 9 from the field en route to 20 points, Eric Dordal sank 5 three-pointers for 15 points, and Michael Kelley and Treven Vander Ploeg scored 14 apiece. Davis had a game-high 10 rebounds and Kelley added 8 as the Lutes controlled the boards 37-31. Barth led the Lutes with 6 assists.

For the game, the Bruins took 34 of their 62 shots from three-point range, while the Lutes took exactly half of their shots - 28 of 56 - from outside the arc.

George Fox fell to 3-5 overall and 0-2 in the conference, while Pacific Lutheran climbed to 3-4 overall with a win in its first conference game. The Bruins are off until Tuesday, Jan. 2, when they visit Pomona-Pitzer Colleges in Claremont, Calif., for a 7:30 p.m. game. The Lutes play Friday-Saturday, Dec. 29-30, in the Lutheran Brotherhood Classic at California Lutheran University in Thousand Oaks, Calif.

PLU HOLDS OFF GEORGE FOX IN NWC MEN'S BASKETBALL

TACOMA, WA -- Parker Barth scored 20 points to lead four players in double figures as Pacific Lutheran opened its Northwest Conference men's basketball schedule with an 85-80 victory over the visiting George Fox Bruins on Saturday night in Olson Auditorium.

With the win, the Lutes improve to 3-4 overall and 1-0 in the conference. The Bruins fall to 3-5 overall and 0-2 in the conference.

Pacific Lutheran shot 66 percent from the field in building up a 50-38 halftime lead, increased the margin to 13, and still held a comfortable 73-61 lead with nine minutes left in the game when senior guard Jordan Green led a furious George Fox charge. Green, the Bruins' leading scorer, knocked home a trio of three-point shots and added a pair of free throws as the Bruins went on a 17-3 run to take a 78-76 lead with 4:11 to play. Despite having several good scoring chances after that, however, the Bruins scored only two more points, those coming on James Macy's field goal with 1:12 remaining.

In the meantime, the Lutes got a pair of free throws from Treven Vander Ploeg, a jumper from Barth and a free throw from Josh Davis to take an 81-78 lead. Macy, who scored a career-high of 27 points to lead all scorers, pulled the Bruins to within a point, but the Lutes hit 4-of-6 charity tosses to wrap up the victory. In fact, PLU could have put a wrap on the win even earlier but struggled at the foul line in the second half, hitting only 8-of-17 attempts.

Both teams found the three-point shot to their liking in the fast-paced game. Of the 62 shots they attempted, the Bruins took 34 from beyond the arc. Macy had the hot hand, hitting 4-of-5, while Green warmed up after a slow start to finish with 4-of-11 accuracy on the way to 20 points. George Fox center Brian Wadlow hit 6-of-7 from the field on the way to a career-high of 13 points. Erik Dordal was 5-of-8 from beyond the arc for the Lutes for all of his 15 points. Vander Ploeg and Michael Kelley both scored 14 for PLU.

Pacific Lutheran's Davis led all rebounders in the game with 10.

MELVIN NAMED NORTHWEST CONFERENCE "PLAYER OF THE WEEK"

Travis Melvin (W, Jr., Pleasant Hill, Ore.) earned Northwest Conference "Player of the Week" honors after sparking the Bruins to two wins in three games during the week of Dec. 4-10. In a 94-88 upset of Cascade, which had beaten the Bruins by 39 a week earlier, he led the team with 28 points, hitting 11-19 from the field (4-9 on 3's) and 2-4 from the line, with 6 assists, 5 steals, and 2 rebounds. In an 83-75 loss to Westminster-Salt Lake City in the opening round of the Concordia Classic, he scored 17 on 6-15 from the floor (2-8 on 3's) and 3-4 at the line, adding 7 assists and 3 rebounds. In a 70-54 consolation win over Multnomah Bible in the Concordia Classic, he tallied 21 points in only 23 minutes, making 7-14 from the field (5-10 on 3's, all 5 in a row) and 2-4 at the line, with a team and career-high 8 rebounds, 3 assists, and 1 steal. For the week, he scored 66 points (22.0 ppg), hitting 24-48 from the field (.500), 11-27 from 3-pt range (.407), 7-12 on free throws (.571), with 13 rebounds (4.3 rpg), 16 assists (5.3 apg), and 6 steals (2.0 spg).

BRUINS AVENGE CASCADE CRUSHING WITH 94-88 UPSET

NEWBERG, Ore. --- Travis Melvin scored 28 points, Jordan Green (W, Sr., Cashmere, Wash.) set three personal records en route to a 24-point game, and the George Fox University Bruins overcame Tyron Manlove's triple-double for a 94-88 upset of the Cascade College Thunderbirds Tuesday night (Dec. 5) here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

Cascade jumped out to an early 7-0 lead, conjuring up visions of the Thunderbirds' 118-79 rout of the Bruins a week ago. But George Fox went on a 17-2 run, including 12 straight to start the streak, to make a game of it. With Cascade holding a 22-21 lead, the Bruins went on another 12-0 run to take a 33-22 lead before the T-Birds battled back. Kenny Macy (G, So., Culver, Ore.) came off the bench to hit two big 3-pointers near the end of the half, lifting the Bruins to a 49-45 halftime lead.

The second half was a back-and-forth affair, the Bruins going up 70-60 with 12:43 to play on a Melvin basket, but the T-Birds rallied behind Manlove, who had 31 points, 13 rebounds, and 10 assists on the night. Manlove's tip-in with 5:21 to play gave Cascade an 82-77 lead, but the Bruins rallied on a pair of free throws by Bryan Wadlow (P, Fr., Albany, Ore.) and Jeff Greene (W, So., Beaverton, Ore.) and Melvin's 3-pointer that tied it at 84-84 with 3:41 to play.

A Jordan Green free throw at 3:09 put the Bruins up for good, 85-84, with 3:09 left, and he added six more freebies in the final two minutes as the Thunderbirds were forced to foul trying to catch up. Green finished the game making 13 of 14 free throws, setting new personal records for free throws made and attempted.

Green, who was 6th nationally in steals last year, led the Bruins' defensive effort with 9 swipes, a personal high and two short of the team record. As a team, George Fox had 18 steals as the T-Birds made 26 turnovers to only 14 for the Bruins (Manlove actually had a quadruple-double as he also had 10 turnovers).

Melvin hit 11 of 19 from the field while scoring 28 and added 6 assists and 5 steals. Sean Linder (W, Jr., Azalea, Ore.) and Wadlow chipped in with career highs as well, scoring 17 and 10 respectively.

In addition to Manlove's 31, Mark Hobson scored 20, all in the first half, and Glenn Baird added 17 for the Thunderbirds. Manlove had 13 rebounds and Baird 11 as Cascade dominated the much-smaller Bruins 43-28.

LATE LEAD SLIPS AWAY FROM BRUINS IN CONCORDIA TOURNAMENT OPENER

PORTLAND, Ore. --- Pounding the offensive boards and hitting their free throws down the stretch, the Westminster College-Salt Lake City Griffins rallied to pin an 83-75 loss on the George Fox University Bruins in the opening game of the G.I. Joe's/New Balance Concordia Classic in men's basketball Friday night (Dec. 8) here at the Concordia University-Portland Gymnasium.

With Jordan Green making a four-point play (he was fouled making a three-pointer and hit the ensuing free throw), George Fox had taken a 64-62 lead with 7:07 left. The Bruins stretched it to 68-64 at 6:14 on a Travis Melvin free throw and a Jeff Greene three after a rebound of Melvin's miss on the second freebie.

The Griffins battled back, however, and regained the lead for good when Matt Sparrow drained a three from the top of the key for a 73-70 lead with 2:52 to play. Green nailed a three with 1:50 to go, cutting the lead to 74-73, but Westminster point guard Cory Carlston sank five of six free throws in the final minute to hold off a final comeback by the Bruins.

George Fox owned the early portion of the game, jumping out to an 11-point lead at 31-20 before the Griffins reeled off 12 unanswered points to take a brief 32-31 lead. The Bruins revived to take a 37-34 edge into the break, and the second half was a nip-and-tuck battle, neither team taking more than a three-point lead until the final six minutes.

Jordan Green finished with 31 points, his season high, to lead the Bruins, Melvin added 17, and Sean Linder scored 10. Jeff Greene led the Bruins on the boards with 7 rebounds, while Melvin passed out a game-high 7 assists.

The Griffins placed five in double figures in points, led by Dave Nielsen's 25. Carlston and Sparrow added 15 each, Mitch Montgomery scored 14, and Brad Willden had 10. Sparrow grabbed 11 rebounds as the Griffins out-rebounded the smaller Bruins 40-29, including 14 on the offensive end. Carlston had 5 assists.

BRUINS CRUISE PAST MULTNOMAH 70-54 BEHIND MELVIN'S 21

PORTLAND, Ore. --- Led by Travis Melvin's 21 points, every George Fox University player but one got into the scoring act as the Bruins cruised past the Multnomah Bible College Ambassadors 70-54 in the consolation game of the G.I. Joe's/New Balance Concordia Classic in men's basketball Saturday night (Dec. 9) here at the Concordia University-Portland Gymnasium.

Melvin hit five straight three-pointers at one stretch in the second half en route to a big game that included a team-leading 8 rebounds and 3 assists. Jeff Greene, starting at forward in place of injured Sean Linder who sat out the game with a sprained ankle, added a career-high 15 points. Eight other Bruins scored, and the only one who did not scratch, starting point guard James Macy (PG, Jr., Culver, Ore.), was second for the Bruins with 6 rebounds.

Sam Couture led all players with 24 points and 9 rebounds for Multnomah, while Ryan Franklin came off the bench to score 13.

Multnomah took an early 5-3 lead, but the Bruins exploded in front 28-10 and led 41-23 at the half. George Fox stretched the lead to as many as 26 points early in the second half, and the Ambassadors got no closer than 13 the rest of the way.

George Fox improved to 3-4 on the season, while Multnomah dropped its 10th straight and fell to 1-11. It was only the second meeting of the two teams (since 1965, as far back as current George Fox records go), who last met in 1989 with the Bruins taking a 90-66 win.

BRUIN BITS:

 Jordan Green's 127 points this season give him 1,153 for his career, moving) into 17th on the all-time points list. Up next are Hille Van Der Kooy (1979-81) with 1170, Gary Chenault (1976-79) with 1187 and Gary Blackmar (1964-68) with 1215. His 18.1 points per game rank him 3rd in the conference. ... Green has 23 steals on the season and 194 for his career, moving him into 4th on the career steals list. Next on the list is Brent Peterson (214, 1985-89). He is currently 1st in the NWC with 3.29 steals per game... Green, who led the NWC in steals and was 6th nationally last year, swiped a career-high 9 in the win over Cascade, 2 short of the school record.

 Sean Linder scored a career-high 17 points in the Cascade win, hitting a perfect 6-6 from the field, including a 3-pointer, and 4-5 from the free throw line. He sank 4-7 from the floor in the next game against Westminster and has taken over the Northwest Conference lead in field goal pct. (.679).

 Jeff Greene stepped into the starting lineup for the first time against Multnomah and responded with a career high of his own, hitting 6-9 from the field with 3 3-pointers for 15 points. In the previous game against Westminster, he came off the bench to lead the team with a career-high 7 rebounds.

 Ryan Melvin, Travis Melvin's twin brother who is playing basketball this season after two years on the varsity soccer team, came off the bench against Multnomah to pass out a team-leading and career-high 6 assists.

 The Bruins continue to have injury problems, particularly to anyone on a rather small team who has any size at all. Andrew Coleman (P, Sr., Richland, Wash.), the Bruins' starting center, has missed the last six games with a herniated disc. His status is day-to-day. Starting post Aaron Milner (P, Jr., Seattle, Wash.) has also missed the last four games with a sprained ankle, but is expected back for the PLU game Saturday. Sean Linder, who scored 27 points vs. Cascade and Westminster, sat out the Multnomah game with a sprained ankle, but is also hopeful of returning in time to play at PLU.

BRUINS CRUISE PAST MULTNOMAH 70-54 BEHIND MELVIN'S 21

PORTLAND, Ore. --- Led by Travis Melvin's 21 points, every George Fox University player but one got into the scoring act as the Bruins cruised past the Multnomah Bible College Ambassadors 70-54 in the consolation game of the G.I. Joe's/New Balance Concordia Classic in men's basketball Saturday night (Dec. 9) here at the Concordia University-Portland Gymnasium.

Melvin hit five straight three-pointers at one stretch in the second half en route to a big game that included a team-leading 8 rebounds and 3 assists. Jeff Greene, starting at forward in place of injured Sean Linder who sat out the game with a sprained ankle, added a career-high 15 points. Eight other Bruins scored, and the only one who did not scratch, starting point guard James Macy, was second for the Bruins with 6 rebounds.

Sam Couture led all players with 24 points and 9 rebounds for Multnomah, while Ryan Franklin came off the bench to score 13.

Multnomah took an early 5-3 lead, but the Bruins exploded in front 28-10 and led 41-23 at the half. George Fox stretched the lead to as many as 26 points early in the second half, and the Ambassadors got no closer than 13 the rest of the way.

George Fox improved to 3-4 on the season, while Multnomah dropped its 10th straight and fell to 1-11. It was only the second meeting of the two teams (since 1965, as far back as current George Fox records go), who last met in 1989 with the Bruins taking a 90-66 win.

In the championship game of the tournament, host Concordia University-Portland and Westminster College-Salt Lake City met at 8:00 p.m.

The Bruins return to Northwest Conference play Saturday, Dec. 16, after taking time off for exams this week, visiting Pacific Lutheran University for a 7:00 p.m. contest. The Ambassadors are off until Tuesday, Dec. 19, when they visit Evergreen State College at 7:30 p.m.

LATE LEAD SLIPS AWAY FROM BRUINS IN CONCORDIA TOURNAMENT OPENER

PORTLAND, Ore. --- Pounding the offensive boards and hitting their free throws down the stretch, the Westminster College-Salt Lake City Griffins rallied to pin an 83-75 loss on the George Fox University Bruins in the opening game of the G.I. Joe's/New Balance Concordia Classic in men's basketball Friday night (Dec. 8) here at the Concordia University-Portland Gymnasium.

With Jordan Green making a four-point play (he was fouled making a three-pointer and hit the ensuing free throw), George Fox had taken a 64-62 lead with 7:07 left. The Bruins stretched it to 68-64 at 6:14 on a Travis Melvin free throw and a Jeff Greene three after a rebound of Melvin's miss on the second freebie.

The Griffins battled back, however, and regained the lead for good when Matt Sparrow drained a three from the top of the key for a 73-70 lead with 2:52 to play. Green nailed a three with 1:50 to go, cutting the lead to 74-73, but Westminster point guard Cory Carlston sank five of six free throws in the final minute to hold off a final comeback by the Bruins.

George Fox owned the early portion of the game, jumping out to an 11-point lead at 31-20 before the Griffins reeled off 12 unanswered points to take a brief 32-31 lead. The Bruins revived to take a 37-34 edge into the break, and the second half was a nip-and-tuck battle, neither team taking more than a three-point lead until the final six minutes.

Jordan Green finished with 31 points, his season high, to lead the Bruins, Melvin added 17, and Sean Linder scored 10. Jeff Greene led the Bruins on the boards with 7 rebounds, while Melvin passed out a game-high 7 assists.

The Griffins placed five in double figures in points, led by Dave Nielsen's 25. Carlston and Sparrow added 15 each, Mitch Montgomery scored 14, and Brad Willden had 10. Sparrow grabbed 11 rebounds as the Griffins out-rebounded the smaller Bruins 40-29, including 14 on the offensive end. Carlston had 5 assists.

George Fox dropped to 2-4 overall, while Westminster improved to 6-4. Host Concordia and Multnomah Bible College played the second game, with the Bruins to play the loser at 4:00 p.m. Saturday (Dec. 9) and the winner to take on Westminster in the title game at 8:00 p.m.

BRUINS FALTER AGAIN ON THE ROAD IN 118-79 SETBACK AT CASCADE

PORTLAND, Ore. --- With six players scoring in double figures, the Cascade College Thunderbirds thumped the George Fox University Bruins 118-79 in a non-conference men's college basketball game Tuesday night (Nov. 28) here at the Cascade Thunderdome.

The Bruins fell to 1-2 on the season, all on the road, in dropping their second straight, while the Thunderbirds snapped a four-game losing streak and evened their record at 4-4.

Mark Hudson scored 20 to lead the Thunderbirds, followed by Glenn Baird with 17 and a quartet - Mark Fritzler, Tyrone Manlove, Troy Chambers and Ernie Woodfy - with 12 each. Cascade shot .692 in the first half (27-39) to only .265 (9-34) for the Bruins and took a 67-26 halftime lead. The Thunderbirds also out-rebounded the Bruins in the game 58-34.

The Bruins were led by Jordan Green (W, Sr., Cashmere, Wash.) with 15 points, followed by Aaron Milner (P, Jr., Seattle, Wash.) with 12 and Zach Hollin (P, So., Salem, Ore.) with a career-high 11. Bryan Wadlow (P, Fr., Albany, Ore.) was the Bruins' top rebounder with 6. George Fox was without the services of starting center Andrew Coleman (P, Sr., Richland, Wash.), who has had recurring back problems and is listed as day-to-day as far as availability to the team is concerned.

INJURY-DEPLETED BRUINS PUSH PIONEERS BEFORE FALLING 71-63

NEWBERG, Ore. --- Playing without their two starting post players, the injury-depleted George Fox University Bruins pushed pre-season Northwest Conference favorite Lewis & Clark College hard before finally succumbing 71-63 in a men's college basketball game Friday night (Dec. 1) here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

The Bruins were without center Andrew Coleman, one of the conference's best shot blockers, and forward Aaron Milner, a double-figure scorer whose field goal percentage is second in the league. Despite an obvious size disadvantage, however, the Bruins used good outside shooting and the hot hand of point guard James Macy (PG, Jr., Culver, Ore.), who had 19 first-half points, to trail only 35-33 at the half against the 20th-ranked Pioneers. Colin Oriard's 14 first-half points en route to a 25-point night were the key to the Lewis & Clark lead.

Macy hit the opening bucket of the second half to knot the game at 35-35, but the Pioneers gradually pulled away as NWC Player of the Year Scott Davis got untracked to score 12 of his 14 points and took a 66-52 lead with only 2:34 to play. The Bruins cut the lead in half to 66-59 with seven unanswered points in a span off just over a minute, but the Pioneers sank 5 of 8 free throws in the last 1:13 to seal the win.

Macy finished with 23 points and Jordan Green added 17, 14 of them in the second half, for the Bruins in their home opener. Bryan Wadlow, starting at center for Coleman, and Macy grabbed 8 rebounds apiece as the Bruins hung with the bigger Pioneers on the boards, being out-rebounded only 36-33. Travis Melvin (W, Jr., Pleasant Hill, Ore.) led George Fox with 5 assists. Turnovers, however, were the Bruins' undoing as they made 23 to only 10 for Lewis & Clark.

John Mietus chipped in with 11 points to join Oriard's 25 and Davis' 14 for the Pioneers. Mietus had a game-high 10 rebounds, while Josh Ulmer passed out 7 assists.

BRUIN BITS:

 Jordan Green's 68 points this season give him 1,094 for his career, moving him past Dan Newman (1,092, 1986-88) into 21st on the all-time points list. Up next are Sammy Ibarra (1970-73) and Phil Barnhart (1977-81) with 1,112, Eric Swanson (1986-88) with 1,132, and Ron Willcuts (1958-65) with 1,145. His 17 points per game tie him for 3rd in the conference. ... Green has 7 steals on the season and 178 for his career, tied with Les Harrison (1984-86) for 4th on the career steals list. Next on the list is Brent Peterson (214, 1985-89). He is currently tied for 14th in the NWC with 1.75 steals per game ... Green received Honorable Mention for NWC "Player of the Week" for Nov. 27-Dec. 3. In a 118-79 loss at Cascade, he hit 7-14 shots, including a 3-pointer, for 15 points, with 3 rebounds, 4 assists, and 2 steals. In a 71-63 loss to Lewis & Clark, he was 6-13 from the field with 2 3's and 3-4 from the line for 17 points, with 4 rebounds, 2 assists, and a steal. For the week, he was 13-27 from the field (.481) with 3 3's, 3-4 from the line (.750), scored 32 points (16.0), with 7 rebounds (3.5), 6 assists (3.0), and 3 steals (1.5). Tom Lynch of Puget Sound was NWC "Player of the Week" after earning MVP honors in the PLU Parkland Chevrolet Classic.

 Andrew Coleman, the Bruins' starting center, missed the last three games with a recurring back problem, diagnosed this week as a herniated disc. His status is day-to-day. Starting post Aaron Milner missed the Lewis & Clark game with a sprained ankle, but is hopeful of returning for the Concordia Tournament this weekend.

 Point guard James Macy grabbed a career-high 8 rebound vs. Lewis & Clark and, with 23 points, came up a point short of his career high of 24 as a freshman against Whitworth ... Zach Hollin and Kenny Macy (PG, So., Culver, Ore.) each had career highs in the game at Cascade, Hollin scoring 11 and Macy 5 ... Bryan Wadlow, starting at center in place of Coleman, had a career-high and team-leading 8 rebounds vs. Lewis & Clark.

COACH MARK SUNDQUIST (Seattle Pacific '89) is 1-3 in his 1st season as the men's basketball coach at George Fox. He was the men's head coach at Newberg (Ore.) High School last year, and at Woodburn (Ore.) High School for the two seasons prior to that.

THE BRUINS ON RADIO

KLYC Radio (1260 AM) in McMinnville will carry selected George Fox men's and women's games and all post-season games throughout the year as a part of the Northwest Conference's broadcast agreement with Pioneer Radio & Sports of Bellevue, Wash. Brian Erickson of KLYC's "The Morning Show" will handle play-by-play duties for the Bruins, with the pre-game show beginning 15 minutes before tip-off.

BRUINS FALTER AGAIN ON THE ROAD IN 118-79 SETBACK AT CASCADE

PORTLAND, Ore. --- With six players scoring in double figures, the Cascade College Thunderbirds thumped the George Fox University Bruins 118-79 in a non-conference men's college basketball game Tuesday night (Nov. 28) here at the Cascade Thunderdome.

The Bruins fell to 1-2 on the season, all on the road, in dropping their second straight, while the Thunderbirds snapped a four-game losing streak and evened their record at 4-4.

Mark Hudson scored 20 to lead the Thunderbirds, followed by Glenn Baird with 17 and a quartet - Mark Fritzler, Tyrone Manlove, Troy Chambers and Ernie Woodfy - with 12 each. Cascade shot .692 in the first half (27-39) to only .265 (9-34) for the Bruins and took a 67-26 halftime lead. The Thunderbirds also out-rebounded the Bruins in the game 58-34.

The Bruins were led by Jordan Green with 15 points, followed by Aaron Milner with 12 and Zach Hollin with a career-high 11. Bryan Wadlow was the Bruins' top rebounder with 6. George Fox was without the services of starting center Andrew Coleman, who has had recurring back problems and is listed as day-to-day as far as availability to the team is concerned.

George Fox begins Northwest Conference play this Friday (Dec. 1), hosting 20th-ranked Lewis & Clark College, the defending conference champion and unanimous pre-season conference favorite, at 8:00 p.m. The Bruin women will also open conference play prior to the men's game with a 6:00 p.m. contest against Pacific Lutheran University. The Border Collies, a trained animal show which appeared in the Wheeler Sports Center last year, will provide a spirited halftime entertainment during both games.

BRUINS' COLD SHOOTING RESULTS IN 97-62 DEFEAT AT NORTHWEST

KIRKLAND, Wash. --- A cold shooting night from the floor and a lack of rebounding doomed the George Fox University Bruins to a 97-62 setback at the hands of the Northwest College of the Assembly of God Eagles in a non-conference men's basketball contest Saturday night (Nov. 25) here at the Northwest Pavilion.

The Bruins shot only .296 (8-27) in the first half and trailed at the break 55-27, then improved only slightly to .353 (12-34) in the second half, finishing at .328 (20-61) for the game. The Eagles, meanwhile, clicked on almost half of their shots (31-63), and were even better at .529 (9-17) from three-point range, normally the Bruins' strong suit. George Fox hit only 9-39 (.231) from outside the circle. On the boards, the home-standing Eagles out-rebounded the visiting Bruins 53-28.

Jordan Green (W, Sr., Cashmere, Wash.) scored 17 points and Aaron Milner (P, Jr., Seattle, Wash.) added 13, hitting 5-7 from the field, to lead the Bruins. James Macy (PG, Jr., Culver, Ore.) was the top rebounder for George Fox with 5, while Green passed out 5 assists.

For Northwest, five players scored in double figures: Dan Bogrand with 16, Don Barker, Tyronne Ellis, and Damian Klosowski with 15 each, and Shannon Kelley with 14. Ellis grabbed 14 rebounds, while Barker and Justin Prohn had 4 assists apiece.

BRUIN BITS:

* Watch out, Grinnell! The Bruins were the No. 2 team in the nation last year in 3-pt field goals per game (11.17), second only to Grinnell College of Iowa, which made over 17 per game, and are averaging 10 a game so far. The Bruins made 11 in the season opener at Warner Pacific and 9 in their last game at Northwest.

* Jordan Green's 17 points at Northwest gave him 1,062 for his career, moving him past Dave Alteneder (1,049, 1965-69) into 23rd on the all-time scoring list. Ahead are Howard Crow (1,090, 1957-61), and Dan Newman (1,092, 1986-88). Green had two steals in that game and now has 174 for his career, 5th all-time. Up next on the steals list is Les Harrison (178, 1984-86).

* Aaron Milner set a new personal record for single-game field goal pct. in the game at Northwest, hitting 5-7 for a .714 mark.

* Andrew Coleman (P, Sr., Richland, Wash.), the Bruins' starting center, sat out the Northwest game with a recurring back problem and is scheduled to be examined by a team doctor some time this week. His status is day-to-day.

COACH MARK SUNDQUIST (Seattle Pacific '89) is 1-1 in his 1st season as the men's basketball coach at George Fox. He was the men's head coach at Newberg (Ore.) High School last year, and at Woodburn (Ore.) High School for the two seasons prior to that.

BRUINS' COLD SHOOTING RESULTS IN 97-62 DEFEAT AT NORTHWEST

KIRKLAND, Wash. --- A cold shooting night from the floor and a lack of rebounding doomed the George Fox University Bruins to a 97-62 setback at the hands of the Northwest College of the Assembly of God Eagles in a non-conference men's basketball contest Saturday night (Nov. 25) here at the Northwest Pavilion.

The Bruins shot only .296 (8-27) in the first half and trailed at the break 55-27, then improved only slightly to .353 (12-34) in the second half, finishing at .328 (20-61) for the game. The Eagles, meanwhile, clicked on almost half of their shots (31-63), and were even better at .529 (9-17) from three-point range, normally the Bruins' strong suit. George Fox hit only 9-39 (.231) from outside the circle. On the boards, the home-standing Eagles out-rebounded the visiting Bruins 53-28.

Jordan Green scored 17 points and Aaron Milner added 13, hitting 5-7 from the field, to lead the Bruins. James Macy was the top rebounder for George Fox with 5, while Green passed out 5 assists.

For Northwest, five players scored in double figures: Dan Bogrand with 16, Don Barker, Tyronne Ellis, and Damian Klosowski with 15 each, and Shannon Kelley with 14. Ellis grabbed 14 rebounds, while Barker and Justin Prohn had 4 assists apiece.

George Fox, now 1-1 on the season, returns to action Tuesday (Nov. 28) with a 7:30 p.m. game against Cascade College in Portland, while Northwest improved to 3-2 and will visit Seattle University Tuesday at 7:00 p.m.

SUNDQUIST GETS FIRST WIN AS BRUINS RALLY PAST KNIGHTS 86-76

PORTLAND, Ore. --- New George Fox University men's basketball coach Mark Sundquist picked up a win in his first college game as the visiting Bruins rallied behind Aaron Milner (Jr., P, Seattle, Wash.) and Jordan Green (Sr., W, Cashmere, Wash.) for an 86-76 victory over the Warner Pacific College Knights Saturday night (Nov. 18) here at the C.C. Perry Gymnasium.

Sundquist, who coached at Newberg (Ore.) High School last year and spent two years coaching Woodburn (Ore.) High before that, admitted that this one was particularly nice because "it's the first season-opening win I've ever had!"

For a good portion of the game, it did not appear as if a win in his first college contest would be forthcoming. The Knights, behind the torrid shooting of Adam Decker and Matt Segrin, jumped out to a 12-2 lead and, though the Bruins did come back to take a brief three-point lead, held a 41-38 halftime margin. Decker had 16 at the break and Segrin 11, but Milner's 13 first-half points kept the Bruins in the game.

In the second half, Green, last year's team-leading scorer at 18.6 ppg, caught fire after a scoreless first half caused by two early fouls that forced him to the bench. After the Bruins fell behind 67-61 with just under eight minutes to play, Green scored 10 of his 19 second-half points in the remaining time as George Fox outscored Warner Pacific 25-9 the rest of the way.

The most critical play of the Bruins' closing rush came with 4:57 to play as George Fox scored an unusual five-point play. With the Bruins holding a slim 73-72 lead, Jeff Greene (So., W, Beaverton, Ore.) nailed a three-pointer from the right corner while Jordan Green was being fouled under the basket, and Green sank the ensuing two free throws to put the Bruins ahead 78-72. The Bruins then hung on, with James Macy's (Jr., PG, Culver, Ore.) two free throws with nine seconds left giving George Fox its biggest lead and final score of 86-76.

Green (Jordan) finished with 19, Milner 15, Travis Melvin (Jr., W, Pleasant Hill, Ore.) 13, and Greene (Jeff) 11 for the Bruins. Decker scored 29, Segrin 20, and Brian Wilson 10 for the Knights, who had their Homecoming spoiled in falling to 0-2.

BRUIN BITS:

* George Fox's 86-76 win at Warner Pacific made it three years in a row that the Bruins have won their season opener.

* Watch out, Grinnell! The Bruins were the No. 2 team in the nation last year in 3-pt field goals per game (11.17), second only to Grinnell College of Iowa, which made over 17 per game. The Bruins have started off hot from long-range again this season, sinking 11-20 at Warner Pacific, including a perfect 3-3 from newcomer Jeff Greene. The Bruins sank five straight 3's at one stretch late in the second half to overcome a six-point deficit to defeat the Knights.

* When was the last time you saw a 4-point play? How about a 5-point play! With 4:57 left in the second half and George Fox clinging to a 73-72 lead at Warner Pacific, the Bruins' Jeff Greene sank a 3-pointer from the right corner. While the shot was in the air, the Bruins' Jordan Green was fouled under the basket, and he sank the two ensuing free throws to complete an unusual 5-point play and give the Bruins an insurmountable 78-72 lead.

* Jordan Green's 19 points in the season opener gives him 1,045 for his career, moving him past Larry Jury (1,027 points, 1983-85) into 24th on the all-time Bruin scoring list. Ahead are Dave Alteneder (1,049, 1965-69), Howard Crow (1,090, 1957-61), and Dan Newman (1,092, 1986-88). Green had two steals in that game and now has 172 for his career, 5th all-time. Up next on the list is Les Harrison (178, 1984-86).

* Aaron Milner tied his career high with 15 points in the Bruins' win over Warner Pacific, and he set a new personal mark for single-game field goal pct., hitting 6-9 for a .667 mark.

SUNDQUIST GETS FIRST WIN AS BUIINS RALLY PAST KNIGHTS 86-76

PORTLAND, Ore. --- New George Fox University men's basketball coach Mark Sundquist picked up a win in his first college game as the visiting Bruins rallied behind Aaron Milner and Jordan Green for an 86-76 victory over the Warner Pacific College Knights Saturday night (Nov. 18) here at the C.C. Perry Gymnasium.

Sundquist, who coached at Newberg (Ore.) High School last year and spent two years coaching Woodburn (Ore.) High before that, admitted that this one was particularly nice because "it's the first season-opening win I've ever had!"

For a good portion of the game, it did not appear as if a win in his first college contest would be forthcoming. The Knights, behind the torrid shooting of Adam Decker and Matt Segrin, jumped out to a 12-2 lead and, though the Bruins did come back to take a brief three-point lead, held a 41-38 halftime margin. Decker had 16 at the break and Segrin 11, but Milner's 13 first-half points kept the Bruins in the game.

In the second half, Green, last year's team-leading scorer at 18.6 ppg, caught fire after a scoreless first half caused by two early fouls that forced him to the bench. After the Bruins fell behind 67-61 with just under eight minutes to play, Green scored 10 of his 19 second-half points in the remaining time as George Fox outscored Warner Pacific 25-9 the rest of the way.

The most critical play of the Bruins' closing rush came with 4:57 to play as George Fox scored an unusual five-point play. With the Bruins holding a slim 73-72 lead, Jeff Greene nailed a three-pointer from the right corner while Jordan Green was being fouled under the basket, and Green sank the ensuing two free throws to put the Bruins ahead 78-72. The Bruins then hung on, with James Macy's two free throws with nine seconds left giving George Fox its biggest lead and final score of 86-76.

Green (Jordan) finished with 19, Milner 15, Travis Melvin 13, and Greene (Jeff) 11 for the Bruins. Decker scored 29, Segrin 20, and Brian Wilson 10 for the Knights, who had their Homecoming spoiled in falling to 0-2.

George Fox returns to action next Saturday (Nov. 25) with a 7:00 p.m. game against Northwest College of the Assembly of God in Kirkland, Wash., while Warner Pacific visits Pacific University Tuesday (Nov. 21) for a 7:30 p.m. contest.

GEORGE FOX MEN'S BASKETBALL

BRUINS TABBED TO FINISH LAST IN PRE-SEASON NWC POLL

NEWBERG, Ore. --- As the old saying goes, "There's nowhere to go but up" for George Fox University during the 2000-01 Northwest Conference men's basketball season after the Bruins were picked to finish 9th and last in the upcoming campaign by a pre-season vote of the league's coaches.

The Bruins were 8-16 overall and 4-12 in the conference last year, finishing in 8th, one game ahead of last-place Whitman College. Long-time coach Mark Vernon resigned at the end of the spring and new coach Mark Sundquist, who coached last year at Newberg High School, took over in August, too late to do much recruiting. As a result, while the Bruins have almost all their lettermen returning, the squad will still be rather short on height and inside strength.

"You play with the hand you're dealt," said Sundquist, "and everyone knows we're not going to be very big. But that doesn't mean we aren't going to surprise some people. We should still be a good outside-shooting team (the Bruins were second in the nation in three-pointers per game last year), we'll be aggressive on defense, and we'll be in good shape and out-hustle some teams."

The top returning player for the Bruins will be wing man Jordan Green (5-10, Sr., Cashmere, Wash.), a First Team All-Conference pick who was second in the NWC in scoring (18.6 ppg) for the second year in a row and who set a new team record for steals per game (3.62 spg). The other four starters also return: wing Travis Melvin (5-10, Jr., Pleasant Hill, Ore.), who averaged 12.4 ppg; point guard James Macy (6-0, Jr., Culver, Ore.), who scored at a 10.6 clip and passed out 3.9 assists per game; post Aaron Milner (6-5, So., Seattle, Wash.), who averaged 4.8 ppg and 3.2 rebounds; and post Andrew Coleman (6-7, Sr., Richland, Wash.), who averaged 4.3 ppg and was among the NWC leaders in blocked shots (1.5 bpg) and rebounding (6.9 rpg).

Lewis and Clark College (21-6, 15-1), led by returning NWC "Player of the Year" Scott Davis, was a unanimous pick to repeat as league champion after winning the title by four games, garnering 90 points. Linfield College (16-10, 10-6) received every vote for second, picking up 72 points. Whitworth College (12-12, 7-9) edged Willamette University (15-10, 9-7) for the third spot, 59 points to 53.

The University of Puget Sound (8-15, 6-10) was slated for the fifth spot with 44 points, followed by Pacific Lutheran University (12-12, 7-9) in sixth with 34, last year's conference runner-up Pacific University (16-9, 11-5) in seventh with 26, Whitman College (4-20, 3-13) in eighth with 22, and then George Fox with 14.

For the first time, the Northwest Conference champion is eligible for an automatic bid to the NCAA Division III National Tournament, though both Lewis & Clark and Pacific received at-large bids last year. The NWC's representative will be determined by a conference tournament at the end of the season that will have the No. 3 team visit the No. 2 team on Feb. 22, then that winner will go to the No. 1 team on Feb. 24, with that winner to get the bid. Regardless of the tournament's outcome, the regular-season winner will be crowned the conference champion.

The Bruins open their season on Saturday, Nov. 18, at Warner Pacific College in Portland at 7:30 p.m. Their first home game is set for Friday, Dec. 1, a conference game against pre-season favorite Lewis & Clark at 8:00 p.m.

GEORGE FOX MEN'S BASKETBALL

George Fox 2000-01 Men's Basketball Pre-Season Outlook ---

BRUINS HOPE TO FOIL PROGNOSTICATORS IN YEAR OF TRANSITION TO NEW COACH

It will be a year of transition for the George Fox University men's basketball team in 2000-01. After 18 years under the direction of Mark Vernon, the winningest coach in GFU history, Mark Sundquist takes over as head coach of the Bruins.

Sundquist, in his first year of college coaching, is optimistic about the upcoming season. "We have a solid nucleus of players to improve upon," says the 34-year-old coach. "We hope to turn around the attitude of George Fox basketball and get back to what it was a few years ago."

The Bruins, coming off an 8-16 record and a 4-12 Northwest Conference mark that put them in 8th place, were picked to finish 9th and last in this year's pre-season poll, but Sundquist has some reason to be optimistic that his team will surpass that prediction. Ten players, including the five players who started most often last year, are returning for the Bruins. The most significant loss was Ryan Cruz, a part-time starter at wing and one of the team's best long-range shooters, who transferred to Linfield for his senior year.

Because of so many returning players, scoring should not be a problem for the Bruins, who finished fourth in the NWC in points per game (76.8). They led the league in 3-point field goals made with 11.17 per game, a mark good enough for second nationally.

"Shooting will continue to be our strength this year, but I'd like us to be more aggressive," says Sundquist. "I would like the players to go attack the basket and draw fouls."

Bruins Return All Five Starters

One player who has shown the ability to do that is wing Jordan Green (5-10, Sr., Cashmere, Wash.), a First Team All-Conference pick who led the NWC in scoring (19.5) two years ago, was second in '99-00 (18.6), and who led the league while setting a new team record for steals per game (3.62 spg). Green, who ranks 25th in career points (1,026) at George Fox, led the team in scoring, assists, steals, free throw percentage, and minutes played, and was second in rebounding last year.

"Jordan's the type of player who makes those around him better," says Sundquist. "Teams will key in on him, and that should give an opportunity for Travis Melvin (5-11, Jr., Pleasant Hill, Ore.) to step up. "

The Bruins expect continued scoring from Melvin, a wing, who was second on the team with 12.4 points a game. "Travis has had some big scoring nights," Sundquist notes. "The biggest thing we need from him is consistency."

Running the show for George Fox is point guard James Macy (6-0, Jr., Culver, Ore.), who scored 10.6 points a game and handed out 3.9 assists per game.

Though talented on the perimeter, it is the inside that Sundquist stresses. The Bruins' top returning post is Andrew Coleman (6-7, Sr., Richland, Wash.), who was second in the NWC last season in blocked shots (1.5 bspg) and seventh in rebounding (6.9 rpg) while averaging 4.3 points a game. Says Sundquist, "Andrew's inside presence is very important to us. We'll try to play him inside more. His experience is vital to our success."

Fellow post Aaron Milner (6-5, Jr., Seattle, Wash.), who averaged 4.8 ppg and 3.2 rebounds while starting 15 games, will be a contributor both inside and outside.

Providing a spark off the bench will be wing Sean Linder (6-2, Jr., Azalea, Ore.), whose defense will earn him minutes, and wing/post Zach Hollin (6-5, So., Salem, Ore.), from whom Sundquist expects increased production. "Zach has put weight on in the offseason and is stronger," says the new coach. "He is able to play both on the inside and the outside, and that versatility will help the team."

Wings Joe Nichols (6-2, Jr., Brookings, Ore.), Joe Gonzales (5-11, So., Roseburg, Ore.) and Kenny Macy (6-2, So., Culver, Ore.) are other lettermen who will all fight for minutes off the bench.

Newcomers Could Make Immediate Impact

New to the Bruins backcourt is Jeff Greene (6-1, So., Beaverton, Ore.), who has a shot at a starting role at the point. One newcomer at wing who should also make an impact on the team is Bryan Wadlow (6-4, Fr., West Albany, Ore.), whom Sundquist touts as "a very athletic, smart player who could see significant playing time. He is the same type of player as James Macy; statistics mean nothing to him, he just wants to win. Like a lot of the players we have, he'll do anything for the team."

Ryan Melvin (5-10, Jr., Pleasant Hill, Ore.), Travis' twin brother, joins the team at wing after two years on the Bruins' soccer team, while Brett Yeager (6-3, Fr., Oakridge, Ore.) can play wing or post but needs experience.

New Coach Expects Team to Pull Some Upsets

"We'll be a fun team to watch," promises Sundquist. "We'll press and get after people. Some teams will overlook us and we should be able to surprise them."

"Our number one strength is our unselfish play. Second, our players have done a lot of maturing through all the adversity they've been through with the coaching change. And finally, the team has worked extremely hard to earn their spots; no one, and I mean no one, has taken their spot for granted."

Also new to the team this year is former Bruin basketball player Mitch Ratzlaff, who starts his coaching career as a new assistant coach. Justin Sherwood, an assistant for three years under Vernon, has remained aboard, helping ease the transition to the Sundquist era in George Fox basketball.

Season Tips Off This Weekend

The new season gets under way for the Bruins this weekend as the team visits Warner Pacific College Saturday, Nov. 18, for a 7:30 p.m. contest. The Knight, who reinstituted basketball last year after a seven-year hiatus, are coached by former George Fox assistant Bart Valentine, and are led by point guard Jared Valentine, who played one year for the Bruins. The Bruins hold a 42-18 edge in the series (since 1965, the latest George Fox records go back) after splitting a pair of games last year.

The Bruins have road trips to Northwest College on Nov. 25 and Cascade College on Nov. 28 before opening the home schedule against Northwest Conference foe Pacific Lutheran University on Dec. 1.
