Guided Men*

By Gladys H. Cook

IN THE newspapers, and over the air, a great deal has been said in recent weeks about guided missiles. God is seeking guided men. The importance of guided missiles rests in two things: first, they can be set in a certain direction; second, by radio impulses, they can continue to be guided after take-off. The Bible speaks much about guidance for men. The doctrine of the leadership or guidance of the Holy Ghost has long been dear to Friends. Let us examine some Scripture on this subject.

The first one is Acts 8:26, "And the angel of the Lord spake unto Philip, saying, Arise, and go" God was speaking to one man, and he obeyed. Philip is our first illustration of a guided man. After obeying instructions, guidance continued. In verse 29, the further word was given, "Then the Spirit said unto Philip, Go near, and join thyself to this chariot." Philip moved under the guidance of the Lord, and while obeying, received continuing guidance.

Not only is one man directed by the Lord, but groups of men are guided by the Holy Spirit. Acts 15 records the Council at Jerusalem. They sat that day as a mission board, considering the problems of Gentile churches. After much discussion, the conviction fell upon all that the Lord was directing. They recorded it in these words in verse 28, "For it seemed good to the Holy Ghost, and to us" They were guided men in the affairs of the early church.

In the 13th chapter of Acts we see a church that was guided. "Now there were in the church that was at Antioch certain prophets and teachers As they ministered to the Lord and fasted, the Holy Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work whereunto I have called them." We are facing the problem of the selection of missionary candidates. God wants to guide us in this, for He has made His selection. The Lord who directed the church at Antioch is able to direct this Mission Board in Oregon if we will be willing to be guided men.

One last Scripture comes to mind. In Acts 16:6-7, we find a different type of guidance recorded. Paul and Silas were "forbidden of the Holy Ghost to preach . . . in Asia." When they tried to enter Bithynia "the Spirit suffered them not." The Holy Spirit of God guides men by His checks and restraints. In child-rearing, the word "no" is as important in one's vocabulary as the word "yes." So it is in our spiritual lives. The Lord sometimes curbs us and restrains us from a contemplated course of action. These checks must be obeyed if guidance is to result.

When we consider guided missiles, we see a n inanimate object that is guided because it can't help itself. But we receive the guidance of the Holy Spirit only by deliberate choice. It takes a close walk with God to discern His will. But it is the glory of the Christian life that we should be, and we can be, Guided Men.

VETERAN MISSIONARIES

FORCED HOME BY ILL HEALTH

By Walter P. Lee, President Board of Missions

MISSIONARY service on any field is confronted by many health hazards. Besides exposure to disease, the missionary is under the terrific pressure of endless opportunities to be accepted, tasks to be fulfilled, burdens to be borne and Satanic opposition to be faced. To these our Bolivian field adds the hazards of the high altitude of 12,500 feet and above. The shortage of oxygen is tiring, a strain on the nerves, and conducive to hypertension and high blood pressure. It is a marvel that missionaries survive the hazards for so many years.

Regretfully we must announce that Marie Chapman is suffering from hypertension and excessive high blood pressure, which have not responded satisfactorily to treatment. Last October it was reported that she was having difficulty with this condition, but for a time medical treatment and sufficient rest brought relief and improvement. However, this proved to be only temporary, and the unsatisfactory condition has continued in spite of treatment.

Upon advice of the physician and of the missionary staff, it becomes necessary for the Chapman family to leave the field and return home about May 1. It is believed that the removal from the altitude at this time will relieve this condition and prevent permanent damage.

This is a source of disappointment to the Chapmans and concern to all of us. Especially is this true in view of the fact that their term of service, which would have terminated about August 1, is their last on the field, at least for some time. For a number of years Ralph Chapman has felt a growing concern to enter into a printing ministry, with the hope of preparing literature for use on the mission field. The Board of Publication and the Board of Missions have cooperated in arranging for Ralph to become associated with the Yearly Meeting Press. Of course, it was not anticipated that the Chapmans would be returning home so soon.

Ralph and Marie Chapman went to Bolivia for the first time in October, 1944, and the writer of this article was privileged to greet them as they stepped from the plane at the La Paz airport. They arrived at a difficult time in the history of the mission. The Lord had called Helen Cammack to be with Him early in the year, the Pearsons had to come home for health reasons soon after Chapmans arrived, the Tamplins had transferred to the work of the World Gospel Mission to carry on pioneer work, and problems with national personnel required some readjustments. It was not easy for new missionaries to assume the responsibility for the work, but they did it valiantly and under the evident blessing of the Lord.

The Chapmans have been on the field for a greater number of years than any of the present staff. They are nearing the close of their third term of service, and their contribution to the work has been of high quality and of lasting character. The development of the Bible School under Ralph's direction is a tribute to his vision, industry and reliance upon God. Marie has carried a burden for the Aymara women, and leaves the influence of her life in their hearts. The Chapmans will be greatly missed from our work by the nationals, by the missionaries, and by the Board of Missions.

We are thankful to the Lord that He has been preparing for this emergency. David and Florence Thomas have moved to the farm to be nearer the lake work, and the Cavitts have moved out of rental property into the Chester Hadley Memorial headquarters in La Paz. With the return of the Chapmans to the United States, Jack Willcuts will become director of the Bible Training School, and the Thomases will join the staff of the school. This will no doubt curtail somewhat the lake evangelism program for the present, but will enable the Bible School program to continue without interruption.

But we of the Yearly Meeting are at once faced with the definite responsibility of providing transportation for the return of the Chapmans. Fifteen hundred dollars ($1500.00) will be required to bring this family home. A recent report from the treasurer shows the Transportation Fund to be approximately $55.00 in the red. We must bring the Chapmans home for the sake of Marie's health. We are trusting the Lord and the consecration of God's people to meet this financial need. Possibly some of us may need to practice some self-denial to do what we should do, but the Chapmans have lived a life of self-denial for years. Let us follow their example. One hundred and fifty people giving $10 each would meet this need. Pray and respond as God directs you. Send funds for transportation to Roger Minthorne, Rt. 1, Box 389, Lake Grove, Oregon. Immediate response is needed!

Report on Tigard

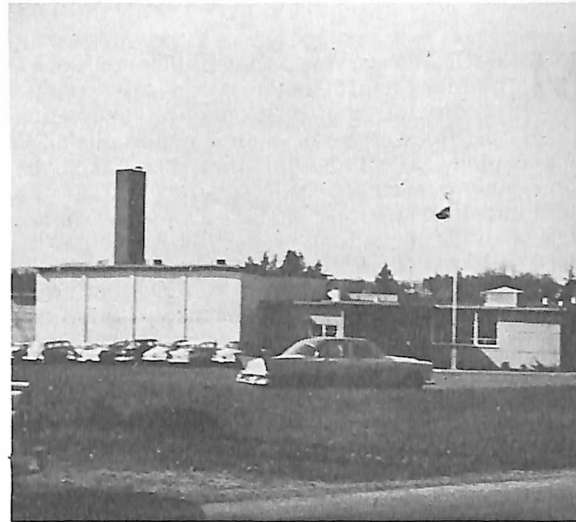

The time has come when the Tigard Outpost must build.

THE REASONS—

1. LOCAL INTEREST: People of the community have expressed their interest in our building program.
2. PRESENT INADEQUATE MEETING PLACE: The school building, though convenient, limits our expansion of Sunday school. Furthermore, it is at one edge of our territory, and not in the center.
3. COMMUNITY GROWTH: A number of complete housing districts are under construction near the church property. About a mile from the site of our church, forty acres have been set aside for industrial development. The Chamber of Commerce has predicted that approximately 1500 employees will move to this area in 1958.
4. SPIRITUAL CONCERN: The Godly concern and support of our parent meeting, Newberg, and the approval of the Yearly Meeting Evangelistic Board, are a mandate to the launching of a building program. There are evidences that more people would attend our services in a church than do in the schoolhouse.

WHAT HAS BEEN DONE—

1. PROPERTY PURCHASED: One acre of ideally located property has been purchased for $3250. More than half of that amount has already been paid.
2. ARCHITECTURE PLANNED: Donald Lindgren is working on the final blueprints.
3. PLANS APPROVED: The local congregation

has unanimously decided to build, and have raised $1000 for the building fund.

WHAT NEEDS TO BE DONE—

1. FIRST UNIT: We need $15,000 to build the first unit as shown in the drawing. $10,000 must be on hand before any construction can start.
2. KINGDOM INVESTORS: We are hoping that three people will lend us $5000 each. We are prepared to make reasonable payments on such loans at a fair rate of interest.

WHY YOU SHOULD PLAN TO RETIRE TO Friendsview Manor

By Charles A. Beals

CAST AWAY THE CARES OF MAINTAINING A HOME

There comes a time in nearly every person's life when you would like to be free of the financial worry and burdensome care of maintaining a home; and yet you enjoy the pleasure of a garden and delightful surroundings more than ever before. Once Friendsview Manor is landscaped you may enjoy a greater expanse of beauty with a greater variety of trees, shrubs, and flowers than most people can have at home. While you are escaping the responsibility of upkeep, taxes, insurance, and utilities, you may enjoy working among flowers and shrubs in your own private garden on the Manor grounds.

KEEP YOUR INDEPENDENCE

Often when a couple can no longer maintain a home, or when one is left alone, the children insist, in all sincerity, that the home be given up and you come to live with them. This often proves unsatisfactory to both parties, because it deprives each family of its independence. In Friendsview Manor you will be able to maintain your own household, and here your children, grandchildren, friends, and relatives will be free to visit you. There will be guest rooms, too, where they may stay overnight or for a few days.

AND HAVE SECURITY AND LOVING CARE

Perhaps one of the greatest of human fears is, "Who will care for me when I am alone?" When you live at Friendsview Manor, this fear will be banished from your mind, for here nurses will be on duty around the clock, and a doctor will be with you in minutes after being called. Residents, too, will be concerned about each other, and will report to the office if a neighbor has not appeared for meals or does not answer the telephone.

WHY NOT INVESTIGATE THE FRIENDSVIEW MANOR RETIREMENT PLAN WITHOUT OBLIGATION TO YOU?

For information write to Charles Beals, 215 S. College Street, Newberg, Oregon.

TEEING OFF FOR BOLIVIA

Everett M. Heacock and his daughter, Mrs. Virginia Helm, valued members of First Friends, Portland, are about to tee off on the biggest nine-hole golf course they have ever covered. They will leave April 2 for a visit to our mission field in Bolivia, and will visit several other points on the South American continent. Everett, whose interest in golf is well known, has written the following itinerary of their trip for the readers of the Northwest Friend:

THE 20,000 MILE NINE-HOLE GOLF COURSE

We tee off at 9:00 a. m. Wednesday, April 2, from the Portland International Airport and arrive in Mexico City 10:15 p. m., the first hole. We tee off April 3 at 6:30 p. m., and arrive in Lima, Peru at 6:45 a. m., April 4, second hole. We tee off 7:30 a. m. April 5 and arrive at La Paz, Bolivia, at 11:00 a. m., the third hole. We pause for two weeks to visit missionaries and mission stations, including, we hope, a tour into the new work across Lake Titicaca. We tee off Sunday, April 20, 12:35 p. m. (Oh too bad, we don't play golf on Sunday!), and arrive in Santiago 4:40 p. m., fourth hole. We tee off at 2:45 p. m., April 22 for Buenos Aires where we arrive at 6:15 p. m., fifth hole. We tee off at 12:15 p. m. April 25 for Rio de Janeiro and arrive at 7:30 p. m., sixth hole. We tee off 9:30 p. m., April 28, arrive at Caracas at 7:15 p. m. April 29, seventh hole. We tee off at 9:15 a. m. for Panama, arrive at 1:20 p. m., eighth hole. We tee off at 2:30 p. m.

May 1 and arrive home May 2, ninth hole. This is the largest course we have played, but we believe it will be the nicest one. We are looking forward to seeing all the missionaries and familiarize ourselves with the various projects being carried on, and no doubt we both will receive a new concern and vision for missionary work. We will be taking sightseeing tours in each of the various cities we visit, and hope to see many interesting sights such as Sugar Loaf Mountain in Rio de Janeiro, and also the summit of Corcovado Mountain, where is located the gigantic image of Christ. We hope also to get a glimpse of the Christ of the Andes as we fly from Santiago to Buenos Aires. We would like to be remembered in your prayers as we take this long trip.

Radio for Our Mission

By Ludlow Corbin

ABOUT six years ago it became apparent to me that radio was becoming indispensable equipment for the spread of the gospel by modern missions, as in the broadcasting of the message to the unevangelized, the intercommunications between missionaries located at isolated stations, and the direct radio contact to the home base. Shortly after this realization came to me I talked to Ralph Chapman, then on furlough, about such applications of radio to the Bolivian Friends Mission. Ralph stated that radio would be very helpful in shortening distances and reaching more Aymaras in Bolivia. At that time nothing definite could be done about Bolivian radios, but when Ralph left he promised to start negotiations as soon as he arrived on the field to see what could be done. I promised him that I would do all I could here as soon as word came from him to proceed.

Last June 7th, after several months of waiting, a letter came from Ralph telling of delays and difficulties confronting them in obtaining a government permit to use radio in the mission work. But he said it looked very hopeful that arrangements could be made to hook up with World Gospel Mission on their frequency. He suggested that if this arrangement materialized that there ought to be at least three fixed stations to start with—La Paz, Copajira, and the Yungas—also a mobile unit for use on the lake boat and in the jeep.

He told me to make contact with the Yearly Meeting Mission Board, Frank Robbins of World Gospel Mission (then on furlough in the U.S.), and Oscar Brown who had recently been on the field. After receiving favorable letters from each of these men, I again wrote to the field to see if there had been any changes. Marshal Cavit replied that all looked very favorable, and advised to proceed at once with the equipment.

My concern was shared with Roy Hiebert, a radio technician from Piedmont Friends church, who eagerly volunteered his help on the project, generously furnishing both know-how and many parts. For receivers we bought eight command sets from a surplus company in Los Angeles and remodeled them to the mission specifications. For the transmitters we ordered three DX35 kits from the Heath Company in Benton Harbor, Michigan.

By burning midnight oil for several weeks we were able to assemble the transmitters and convert the receivers so that they could be included in Frank Robbins' shipment in October. Frank was so interested in the project that he gave two days out of his busy schedule to assist us, especially with the mobile unit transmitter. Because of the rush for time we were unable to finish the mobile unit for the Robbins shipment, but by the last of November it was ready to include in the Clarkson's shipment.

The First Friends Sunday School furnished some greatly appreciated material help by giving their Thanksgiving offering of $130 toward the expenses of the mobile unit.

We feel that this is just the beginning of radio on our field. We are looking forward to more efficient, more reliable and more powerful service for the spread of the gospel message on our Bolivian mission field.

"MY BIBLE AND I"

We, here at Oregon Yearly Meeting Press, have just finished printing a book by Gervas A. Carey, former clerk of Oregon Yearly Meeting and president of George Fox College. The book is entitled, "My Bible and I." I have read it now twice—and both times with much interest and profit. As the title suggests, the book tells of the influence the Bible has had on the author's life, his adventures in exploring its pages, and the methods pursued in its study.

In the Foreword he explains, "The book, MY BIBLE AND I, consists of personal experiences, recollections, and interpretations of the Bible as compiled from church and classroom activities of the past fifty odd years."

The book has 171 pages, with 11 interesting chapters. The chapter titles are: My First Bible; The Unity of the Bible; Genesis I; God is Love in Genesis; Key to the Bible; Divine Guidance; Old Testament Commission; Prayer; The Eternal Christ; Person and Work of the Holy Spirit; and The Full Number of the Gentiles.

The book is well worth having, and should be

PUBLICATION BOARD

For the purpose of keeping members of the Friends Church informed of progress being made in publishing evangelical Friends Sunday school literature, the following report is shared with you. You will notice that one of our board members, Owen Glassburn, and Paul Langden, members of Ohio Yearly Meeting, were present at the following mentioned meeting. The George Fox Publication Board is considering the proposals made in this report toward offering more efficient literature. Please read the report and express your opinion to your Yearly Meeting representative on the George Fox Board, Earl and Adelaide Barker.

Committees were appointed to suggest possible procedures in a cooperative publishing venture in the light of needs in the areas of story papers, graded quarterlies, teacher training, book by book Bible study, books and vacation Bible school. Observations made include: pooled publishing reduces costs due to increased quantities, 500 minimum imprint for church name; cooperation to include only church owned publishing houses producing the Wesleyan holiness position, over-all purpose is to help each other provide a wider distribution of items each publishes, and yet carry the denominational imprint, and all like groups to be surveyed for interest.

Regarding differences of interpretation, an attempt will be made to agree on a common expression. If differences arise, a paragraph or sentence may be deleted and another inserted. This plan assumes that all denominations concerned will have opportunity to edit material to be used by another publishing house before denominational imprints are made.

The group is to reconvene at the close of the National Holiness Association in Chicago, April 11, 1958. The name of the group is "Holiness Church-Owned Publication Association."

GOLDEN JUBILEE AT ENTIAT

We are celebrating 50 years of service to this area on May 10 and 11, in connection with the 11th session of Inland Quarterly Meeting.

We were set up as a monthly meeting by Puget Sound Quarterly Meeting of Indiana Yearly Meeting on May 20, 1908. We have had continuous services since then. Various ministers served with us in those early days, among them Jacob Replogle, Catherine Osburn and William E. Jones.

We started on the flat north of Entiat, but our services have been held in town since 1917, with our present location being in use since 1919.

Some of the families associated with our early church were those of Samuel L. Packwood, John Lundquist, Ed Churchill, Nels Pearson, Nathan Osborn, A. H. Barker, Clinton Replogle, Jeremiah Osburn, Elias Hadley, Will Jones, Jesse Simmons, Emerson Ball, and William Sturgis. Among the pastors who have served us are Calvin Choate, William Murphy, Dillon Mills, Carey Jessup and Ralph Chapman.

We are looking forward to many happy reunions at that time. Come if you can.

GREENLEAF ACADEMY

The annual academy gymnasium benefit sale, which was held Thursday, February 27, is considered one of the best. Total receipts of the sale reached well over the $4000 mark.

Sale day activities began with the serving of a bountiful noon meal in Friendship Hall followed by the auction. Items which were auctioned consisted of livestock, hay, seed and other farm products and implements. Women's fancy work, with a quilt bringing over $50.00, and dozens of miscellaneous articles from near-by merchants helped to boost the total income.

"Paint the Town Pink" is the title of the junior class play which will be presented in the academy gymnasium April 11.

From the Board of CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

MAN WANTED!

"WE NEED HELP," was the urgent appeal that came to the Board of Christian Education. This appeal simply meant that in different quarters of the Yearly Meeting there is a need for a man to help in the area of Christian Education.

For some time the board has felt a concern for a more intensified ministry in the area of Sunday School work. Various meetings have welcomed the thought of someone trained in the work of Sunday School coming to their meeting and offering counsel and help to them. The board has likewise felt a need to have some one person who would be able to give time and attention to development and perfection of our Sunday School program. But the need alone was not great enough to warrant securing a full-time man.

The "straw that broke the camel's back" came at our last board meeting. The young people of the Yearly Meeting, represented by Quentin Nordyke, the Y.M. C.E. president, came to us with a strong appeal for leadership and help. So much had to be done by so few who lacked both time and experience in the work of administering a Yearly Meeting C.E. program, that the young people were frantic. Something had to be done.

The overall picture of the C.E. work indicated a need for a man who could give both time and experience to the work. Material had to be written and recommended, conventions and conferences had to be planned. The Yearly Meeting C.E. program with the multitude of details had to be effectively presented to the local C.E.'s. All this and more added up to an amount of work that no one person (or persons) was in a position to accomplish. The result was frustration and a feeling of futility.

Besides this, the young people of the Yearly Meeting indicated a willingness to help financially if a man could be found who would help them. The amount, while it is beside the point, is more than the amount the Yearly Meeting would be asked to give through the United Budget to the young people's work. Their very definite and concrete offer of financial help in exchange for personnel help put some fire beneath the Board of Christian Education.

The whole matter was presented frankly to the Yearly Meeting Executive Committee. The feeling was unanimous that the time has come when these many cries for help can go unheeded no longer. Something has to be done, and done this coming year.

Therefore, the Board of Christian Education, through its Sunday School committee, is prayerfully looking for a man who can give full time to the work of directing the total Christian Education program of the Yearly Meeting. This will include the Sunday School, the Christian Endeavor, the Daily Vacation Bible School; camps and clubs

It is impossible to give a detailed outline of the many activities and the work expected in these areas. This much should be said however, he will represent the Yearly Meeting Christian Education program in a direct and personal way to our young people, our Sunday Schools, and other Christian Education activities of our local churches.

NOTICE

Because of the health of our daughter, and other circumstances, we have had to cancel our meetings and give up full-time evangelism.

We want to be in the center of our Lord's will for us. We plan to go into pastoral work again next fall, wherever He may lead.

AROUND GEORGE FOX COLLEGE

ANNUAL FACULTY LECTURE

Mackey Hill, associate professor of History and Political Science, will give the annual Faculty Lecture, Thursday evening, April 24, 8:00 o'clock, in Wood-Mar auditorium on the subject, "Some Aspect of the Timber Industry in Canadian-American Relations."

This is a limited study of some features of the economic and diplomatic relationships between these countries. It is concerned more particularly with the development in recent modern times of certain policies in Canadian-American relations that have governed the production and distribution of certain timber products.

The study has been a part of Mr. Hill's work for his doctorate at the University of Oregon.

GRANT TO THE COLLEGE

The Elbridge Stuart Foundation, a subsidiary of Carnation Company, recently sent to the college the second grant for the academic year. The Foundation provides annually a $500 grant each semester, which is used in the college student assistantship program.

Beginning in 1939 the Stuart Foundation, during the presidency of Dr. Levi T. Pennington, turned to the college $25,000 for endowment purposes. Since that date the Carnation Company has provided the $500 amount each semester. Because of the college's non-accredited status, publicity by name was not permitted until March 20 when a letter from the Foundation's attorney, H. W. Ruddick, Los Angeles, Calif., released the college from all restrictions as to use of the funds and publicity.

We are gratefully thankful to the Lord for this, because on several occasions President Ross has tried to arrange for less restrictive measures, without success. We believe our good progress toward accreditation has been a factor in attaining this release.

PLANS FOR MAY DAY

Sally Meyer, junior, from Denver, Colo., was elected Queen of May Day, set for May 3, on the college campus. Dick Mott, senior from Paonia, Colo., was chosen Prince Consort.

Chairman of Festivities Gerald Pierce, junior, from Everett, Wash., reports that the various student committees are organized and underway with plans for the best May Day program yet.

The Senior class is in charge of the Friday evening program on May 2, scheduled for 8:00 p.m., in Wood-Mar auditorium.

Special invitations will go out to all high school seniors on our mailing list to attend the festivities. A special welcoming committee will be on hand to get them acquainted with the college. All alumni and other friends of the college are welcome to return to the campus for this colorful annual event.

DEBT LIQUIDATION

The Debt Liquidation drive, though slowed somewhat during the last few months, has climbed steadily to the total in cash and pledges of $98,416.64 as of March 25.

During the spring months the drive is expected to be given added impetus, especially on the local level, due to the fact that the Newberg Chamber of Commerce has accepted, as their number one project for the year, cooperation with the college to inform Newberg and surrounding area citizens as to the importance of the college and its need of support both financially and from the standpoint of more students. The main goal being regional accreditation for the college.

During March the Chamber sponsored a Speakers' Bureau Clinic on one evening in which President Ross briefed some forty leading citizens of the community and college faculty and staff members regarding the resources and aims of the college. These people will serve as speakers upon invitation from local organizations, and will be a resource group to tell the story of George Fox College.

Word was received March 25 from Dean Thomas S. Kerr, executive coordinator of the Higher Commission of the Northwest Association of Secondary and Higher Schools, that he will make his initial visit to the college on April 23 for the purpose of setting up the process of a year's study in preparation for accreditation prior to the commission's visitation committee evaluation during April 1959.

The spring revival, sponsored by the Student Christian Union with John Retherford, pastor of Vancouver First Friends church, evangelist, March 24 to 28, was a great help spiritually to all.

LYNWOOD KICK-OFF DINNER

The kick-off dinner for launching the Broadway Bond plan for financing the first unit of our building program was held March 28th in the social room of First Friends church in Portland. A good crowd attended with interested Friends from each of the meetings of Portland Quarter present. A good representation from our Yearly Meeting Board of Evangelism was also on hand.

George Palmer presided. Invocation was by Gerald Dillon. Dean Gregory gave a brief and interesting resume of Oregon Yearly Meeting history. He spoke most encouragingly of the prospects of a successful Lynwood church. George and Jeanette Stevens sang, "Only Believe." Allen Hadley showed colored slides of the Lynwood area at S.E. 162 and Taylor, with typical Allensque commentary. George Palmer explained the Broadway Bond plan.

More than half of the $15,000 worth of bonds is already sold, the remainder is expected to sell before the required time. Architect's plans are being drawn and a contractor is being considered. Plans are forming for a ground breaking ceremony date in April, with building to follow. Russel Stands pronounced the benediction.

AMONG THE CHURCHES

PUGET SOUND QUARTERLY MEETING

HOLLY PARK
Dillon W. Mills, pastor

Holly Park is moving ahead! Work on the church is progressing every week.

A three-Sunday contest in the young people and adult SS department helped accomplish its purpose by getting people there on time! If you were on time all three Sundays, you got to eat turkey. If you were late, you ate beans! The class with the highest attendance, on a percentage basis, of course, got to eat ice cream. Everyone else was to eat canned fruit.

Several men gathered in the early morning on a Saturday for the annual Brotherhood breakfast, after which the men worked on the church. Walter Gatterman presided as cook at the affair.

WMU met at the home of Gwen West. Fern Mills and Mattie Stephens brought the devotions and program.

Men from Holly Park filled a car to attend the Yearly Meeting Brotherhood banquet in Portland.

Puget Sound WMU held an all-day meeting in conjunction with the World Day of Prayer. The ladies met at Holly Park. The morning session was spent in prayer for home missions. After a sack lunch, the ladies met again to pray for the mission field in Bolivia.

WMU sponsored a recent Sunday evening service, featuring the film, "Triumph of the Prisoner," the story of Sara Perkins in a Red prison.

EVERETT
Leroy Neifert, pastor

We are encouraged by a continuing growth in our SS attendance. Various classes have had charge of the opening exercises, and we have had a skit, a flannelgraph, and memory work presented, besides our regular presentation of missions.

Rev. Haslam, of the Bible Meditation League, showed pictures and told of their work of supplying Gospels and tracts for missionary work around the world, at one of our prayer meetings.

On Mar. 9 a baby dedication service was held, at which time Mr. and Mrs. Allen Ricketts presented their daughter, Jennifer Eileen, to the Lord. After the dedication the junior choir sang "Precious Jewels."

The Gospel Strings, a local musical group, presented a service of hymns and scripture for us for our evening worship on Mar. 2.

Birthdays honored at our fellowship dinner this month were: Thirza Burris, Georgetta Ricketts, Joe Cook, and Charlie Gustafson.

Nine young people from Everett attended the Quarterly Meeting CE party at Holly Park. They reported a very enjoyable evening.

AGNEW
Peter Fertello, pastor

SS council meeting was held March 13 at the Axel Petroff home.

Mark, Paul and Laurie Anne Fertello are recovering from the chicken pox. Lowell and Carolyn Wade have just recovered from the mumps.

We are looking forward to the visit from the choir of George Fox College.

The January WMU was held at the Mary Petroff home, February at Mary Clay's, and our March meeting will be with the president, Irene Gallaway. Our vice president, Mrs. Woodward, and several ladies from Seattle will be with us.

McKINLEY AVENUE
William Murphy, pastor

Mr. and Mrs. James Simpson left Mar. 5 for Ventura, Calif., for an extended visit with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jess King.

We have again started our Thursday night visitation program. There is a blessing in store for those who can participate in this program and become better acquainted with the families in the SS and church neighborhood.

Our building improvement program is showing good signs of development in the annex and church kitchen. It is a long, tedious job, but certainly a goal worth while.

SALEM QUARTERLY MEETING

HIGHLAND AVENUE
Nathan B. Pierson, pastor

Our SS council meetings continue each month, this last time reviewing the book, "Building a Standard Sunday School."

A day of visitation was held on Mar. 18th. A speaker from the Oregon Temperance League spoke to the SS recently.

The afternoon of Feb. 23rd, the choir had a singspiration. The men's chorus sang as the special feature that evening.

A bridal shower was given in honor of Verna Jean McPhetridge. Her husband is with the air force, now stationed in Wyoming.

The Paul Cammacks were with us on Mar. 9th, each one taking part during the SS hour, with Paul bringing the morning message, and Phyllis a special number in song.

On Mar. 14th, Kenneth Antone and John Kearns, representing the American Indian Crusade, spoke at a special Q. M. rally.

Different SS classes have been honored during the morning services.

Work day at the Missionary House continues. Bess Shinn, Martha Finster and Josephine George are among the most faithful workers. Bess Shinn has made over 60 shirts for the Indian babies, among the many sewing projects.

Junior church, under the direction of Sara Smith, has been organized for grades 1 through 6.

The women of the Philadelphian and Ambassador (young adult) SS class have organized and plan to have a day-time meeting once a month.

MARION
Charles Morgan, pastor

Our pastor is now attending Western Evangelical Seminary. We surely miss him while he is away, but so glad he is able to further his education at this time. Although his schedule is full, Charles continues to keep up his work here, and especially his interest with the young people.

Feb. 8 the CE enjoyed a tobogganing party at Hoodoo Bowl. Feb. 1 the younger CE's enjoyed a party. Feb. 23 the high school class sponsored the film, "Prior Claim." March 14 a roller skating party was enjoyed by the SS.

The junior girls painted their room and put up a new curtain recently. The incentive for this was the "new look" in the sanctuary. Under the able guidance of Kenneth Loretz the interior was newly painted, after some alterations were made.

There is now a comfortable "cry room" in the church and a nursery at the parsonage. Some very nice shrubbery and bulbs were given by the Tomlinson and Sherwood families.

Mar. 9 the Paul Cammack family was with us. Edwin Cammack showed pictures Mar. 16.

Mr. Buhler, a Navigator, was with us Mar. 2.

We were pleasantly surprised last week by a visit from the Hal May family.

We have received so many blessings, and we are praising the Lord.

SOUTH SALEM
John Fankhauser, pastor

Prayer meeting was dismissed for two weeks so we could support the meetings at Rosedale with Oscar Brown.

The young people of the church will be meeting together on Wednesday evenings for their own prayer meetings and Bible study. Elizabeth Aebischer is sponsoring the group.

Wilmer Brown, of the NAE, was in charge of the service

Sunday Mar. 16th. A potluck dinner was enjoyed after the service in the church basement. Quentin Nurdyke brought the evening message.

Maranatha WMU met Feb. 25 at the home of Evelyn Joslin. The women of Rebekah Union are going to Silverton for their March meeting.

Eilene Nurdyke underwent surgery in Portland Mar. 19.

SPRAGUE RIVER
Gerald and Elaine Cronk, pastors

An increasing SS attendance in recent months has been an encouragement to the work and workers here. Average attendance last fall was about 25. The average in January was 32 1/2, with an increase during February to an average of 37 for that month.

In January efforts were made to get a new SS class started for young married couples. Thus far the effort has not succeeded, but we have been encouraged by some worthwhile results from the effort. We are still praying that this class will become a reality. In the meantime force of circumstances led to the starting of two other new SS classes on Mar. 16, making it necessary for one SS class to meet at the parsonage.

Rev. Kenneth Antone and Rev. John Kearns were welcomed to Sprague River by a good attendance for the two services they had here Mar. 10 and 11. Their presentation at the two services seemed to be well received by the local group as well as by people from surrounding communities.

At present we are looking forward to a missionary service on Friday evening, Mar. 21, with the Paul Cammack family.

Ross McIntyre brought a good message during the Mar. 16 church service.

Charlotte Macy and Dorothy Barratt, pastors

Our faith has been strengthened again and again as we have noted the marvelous answers to prayer on behalf of our church these last few weeks. For a time it looked dark and it seemed that we could not possibly finish our building, but the Lord undertook and the work is progressing nicely.

We are planning to be in our sanctuary by Easter and the dedication date has been set for May 4th at 3:00 p.m.

Several groups in the Yearly Meeting have held meetings in the Silverton church during the past few months. The WMU of First Friends church in Portland held an all-day meeting at the church on Feb. 26. They toured the building and had a period of question and answers concerning the building.

The Yearly Meeting CE executive group is to meet at the church Saturday, Mar. 29th for an all-day meeting.

Four of our group were on the program of the Salem area George Fox College Alumni banquet Mar. 8th at China City in Salem.

Charlotte Macy spoke at the Portland Quarterly Meeting WMU rally held at First Friends church in Portland Mar. 13.

We appreciated the help of Kenneth Williams and Walter Cook in the finishing of our hardwood floor in the sanctuary Mar. 21.

EUGENE
Evert Tuning, pastor

Our attendance record was broken twice this month, going from 112 to 117 and then to 119. Our class rooms are all bulging, and the need for more space is a pressing problem as we are getting more children of the community in the SS. The pastor and others have been putting in many hours in working on finishing the hall and class rooms.

Charles Beals was our speaker for our week-end Bible conference this year. His messages on the scriptural basis for our Friends doctrine were truly inspirational and instructive.

The ladies enjoyed a unique WMU meeting this month. Norma Beebe had the program on Mexico and we met early for a Mexican dinner before our program. Norma's enchiladas were delicious, and the Mexican articles on display, and the interesting program, were appreciated by those in attendance. Esther and Margaret Fowler were the hostesses.

Kenneth Antone and John Kearns of the American Indian Crusade were with us for a meeting Mar. 13.

We are glad to have two young men, who are doing graduate work at the university, meet with us this year. Melvin Kerns, of Vancouver Friends, has enriched our services with his singing. Hideo Kaneko, of Japan, and a GFC graduate, spoke to our SS on mission Sunday.

S.W. WASHINGTON QUARTERLY MEETING

ROSEMERE

J. Alden and Esther White, pastors

Mr. Gepford, from Washington Temperance Association, gave a lecture at our church family night, Friday, Jan. 31.

Earl Crosse, of Cherry Grove church, gave an interesting talk on stewardship Feb. 23. Earl is the chairman of the S.W. Washington Stewardship Committee.

Several have been helped by Dr. C.W. Butler's meetings in the city.

We appreciate the faithful attendance of our young people at prayer meeting.

We held our WMU meeting Feb. 27 with 13 ladies attending. We tied one quilt for the missionaries and took care of important business, also had potluck lunch.

The Pathfinders (young people of our church) are putting on a musical program at our church Friday, Mar. 21.

Missionary rally of S.W. Washington Quarterly Meeting was held Mar. 6. The attendance was good. Program was very good, especially the afternoon. Our speaker was Phyllis Cammack. She explained about the work, also told of the new field that will be opened in Peru. There were 10 ladies from Rosemere Friends church missionary group attending this rally, and all enjoyed the rally very much.

OAK PARK

J. Earl Geil, pastor

Our WMU met with the Forest Home ladies in their church for the February meeting. A very nice crowd was in attendance. Potluck lunch was served at noon, which was enjoyed by everyone. Phyllis Cammack was the guest speaker.

The special meetings held here in our church, starting Feb. 14, ending Feb. 23, were very good. The guest speaker was Dr. Lowell Roberts, from Friends University, Wichita, Kan.

Dwight and Perry Kimberley's grandfather, from Hamilton, Mont., has been visiting them at the Charles Hanson home.

The Camas-Washougal Gospel Crusade, which is being held here in the Legion Hall at Camas, is having some good meetings, in which 11 churches are actively participating. Dr. Dewey Whitwell is bringing the messages.

Mrs. Darling is spending a week at the Dr. Dyck home while they are away for a few days.

We were all glad to have Mrs. Gladys Cadd back in our SS class again, as she has been absent for some time on account of illness.

VANCOUVER FIRST FRIENDS
John M. Retherford, pastor

We are anticipating a weekend crusade, with emphasis on the "Christian Home," March 26th-30th, with Milo Ross. Special music will be furnished by students of George Fox College. This will be a real effort to reach the parents of our children who come to SS alone. Please pray for us!

Two of our ladies, Dorothy Anderson and Angie Bolton, are enjoying a sightseeing tour of Europe. We will miss them while they are gone, and pray for their safe return.

We were glad to have Mel and Margaret Lamm, Carrie and Ronnie, from Seattle with us in our morning services recently. Mel favored us with a solo during the worship hour.

The music committee has planned an Easter musical which will be presented Easter Sunday morning, April 6th. An adult choir has been organized under the leadership of Julia Retherford, and are busy practicing.

Miss Helen Trachsel, daughter of Jack and Laura Trachsel, missionaries to Formosa, was the speaker at our February WMU. She presented an insight of the work there, through letters from her parents and colored slides, which was a real blessing to each of the ladies attending.

BOISE VALLEY QUARTERLY MEETING

STAR
Dorwin Smith, pastor

The senior CE took charge of the evening service on Sunday Feb. 23. Their program of the evening was greatly appreciated.

The February meeting of the ministers of Boise Valley and Greenleaf Quarterly Meetings was held at the Star parsonage, Feb. 24th.

The film, "The Miracle of Manhattan," was shown on Wednesday evening. Members of the Star Christian church and the community in general participated in the project.

Mrs. Dora Nichols underwent major surgery at St. Lukes hospital last week. She is recovering nicely but will be shut in for some time to come.

Our pastor, Dorwin Smith, is away holding revival services in the Ontario Friends church, March 2-16. Marlin Witt has been supplying in his absence.

The March WMU meeting was held Thursday afternoon March 6th at the home of Hilma Haworth.

Elsie Ireland, who has been ill for the past two weeks, is greatly missed.

Nettie Shelton, another absent member because of illness, is missed.

A teacher training class was started on Sunday morning March 9th for assistant teachers and anyone else that is interested. Another class for regular SS teachers, who are with their classes on Sunday mornings, is being held each Wednesday night following prayer meeting. Lois Couzens is the teacher of both classes.

WHITNEY
Walter P. Lee, pastor

The Lord has been blessing Whitney church in its community canvass. So far 60 blocks have been covered, in which a number were found to be hungry to know the Lord. This was held in conjunction with the revival meetings which were conducted for 10 days, March 12-23 with Ernest and Temple Lee as evangelists. We feel that much good was accomplished.

On March 9 we had as guest speaker, Kenneth Antone, American Indian evangelist, dressed in full native costume, including feather headdress, from Canada. John Kearns, pioneer missionary, accompanied him and gave a short talk.

The basement of our new church annex has been undergoing some changes of late as our people have worked faithfully on it the past few weeks. They finished putting the celotex on the ceiling and hung sheetrock on the rest of the walls that were not completed, then painted the benches and tables.

Willard and Ethelyn Shattuck from Gresham, Ore., attended services at Whitney Sunday morning, March 16. Other visitors the same day were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Willcuts, students from George Fox College, and Mrs. Louise (Siebe) McDowell and daughter Tammy from San Diego, Calif.

Although there is still considerable illness in our midst, the SS attendance is improving.

CAMBRIDGE
Quincy Fodge, pastor

The WMU met at the Elmer Cutler home with 12 ladies present. Mrs. Alvin Campbell led the devotions. Mrs. H. C. Ward had the lesson. The meeting was concluded with a shower for the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Lindsey.

The village of Cambridge and our church cooperated in putting tile in the rather unsightly ditch in front of our property. The Morrison-Knudson Co. was looking for a place to dump unwanted gravel, so the ditch is well filled.

A Friends family from Nampa donated a baby bed and rocking chair for the nursery room of our church.

The Clare Howard family from Caldwell Friends church was with us for both services March 16th. In the evening they gave a concert of sacred music. This group consists of Clare and Marie Howard and children—Charles, Joan and Marjorie. Their well-balanced voices coupled with their good Christian experiences make their concerts very desirable for our church.

At the close of the Sabbath evening program an offering amounting to $19.05 was taken for David and Janet Steiger of the Missionary Aviation Fellowship, who are located in Dutch New Guinea. Mrs. Steiger and Mrs. Howard are sisters.

BOISE
Waldo Hicks, pastor

The WMU met at the parsonage Thursday evening March 6th. It was designated "Guest Night." Each lady was to bring a guest.

On Sunday morning, March 9th, Kenneth Antone, an Indian evangelist, spoke during the SS hour. He recently conducted evangelistic meetings at Sprague River, Ore. This was a very interesting hour, and particularly for the children, as Mr. Antone wore full-time Indian apparel.

Since the completion of the new parsonage, we have been using the old parsonage for SS class rooms. Rather than continuing to refer to this building as the "old parsonage," it has been decided to call it "Emerson annex." This name was chosen in memory of Effie and Emma Emerson, and in honor of Hiram Emerson.

The Boise Valley Q.M. Brotherhood meeting was held in our church Monday evening, March 10th. Rev. Donald Smith, assistant pastor of the First Christian church, was the guest speaker.

The annual youth banquet was held in the church basement, Saturday evening, March 15th. Harold Ankeny, faculty member of the Greenleaf Academy, was the speaker for the evening. A quartet from the academy furnished the music, and Al Fisher acted as toastmaster. Sixty-five people were served, and all agreed that the banquet was a huge success.

MELBA
Merle Green, pastor

This pre-Easter season finds the Melba SS busy with plans to worship our Lord with special numbers and services. Every week finds the members of the cantata meeting for rehearsal. Plans also are under way for an Easter sunrise service to be held at the high school grounds in conjunction with the other churches in Melba. The primary department under the leadership of Francis Engle is planning an Easter egg hunt.

The teacher training classes continue their fine attendance, with the fifth class to be held Mar. 21st.

The eighth grade boys enjoyed a fishing party with their teacher, Raymond Newkirk, at C. J. Strike.

The WMU met at the home of Lena Engle. The women of this group have been busy painting and finishing some of the classroom walls in the educational unit.

One prayer meeting evening we all received a special blessing from the messages and pictures of Ernest and Beatrice Fritschle.

Everyone enjoyed having Rev. Herbert E. Vaughn, chalk artist, with us as he presented illustrated messages one evening for the children's club, and again on Sunday during the opening exercises.

We are all enjoying having Fred Newkirk with us as he visits with his aunt and uncle, Raymond and Dedah Newkirk.

NAMPA
Clare Willcuts, pastor

At this writing the Nampa SS is in the midst of a contest. The SS membership was divided into two teams, the Tortoise, captained by Macy Williams, and the Hares, captained by Harvey Campbell. Attendance so far in the month of March has been 201, 223, 227. Our goal is 258 in 1958.

Our pastor has been conducting revival meetings at Medford. Filling the pulpit in his absence were Ken Antone and

GREENLEAF QUARTERLY MEETING

ONTARIO
Lloyd A. Melhorn, pastor

February was SS contest month. The average attendance was 52, a gain of 8 over the recent six-months' average. Sickness is again putting us back some this month of March.

The pastor has begun "Release Time" classes. Three age groups—5-6 grades, junior high and senior high—from the local schools are released once a week for one hour classes. Total attendance is 14 pupils.

The WMU met Feb. 20 at the home of Wilma Williams for the February meeting.

An altar rail and pulpit have been finished and are now in the sanctuary. Many thanks to those who contributed from outside our own group.

Dorwin Smith was our evangelist Mar. 2-16. Decisions were recorded and the Spirit of the Lord was felt in our presence. The church feels these meetings greatly helped to strengthen us for our task and lengthen our horizons.

RIVERSIDE
Robert Morse, pastor

Muriel (Hoover) Ostrin and small daughter, from Seattle, were in our morning service recently. They are visiting at the Lee Hoover home.

Our WMU met at the home of Kathryn Birch. As a result, two comforters are now ready for our missionaries.

Ernest and Temple Lee were with us in revival services from Feb. 26 to March 9. These services were all blessed times, and the morning meetings of teaching and prayer were rich with the blessing of God. Our services show some of the results, with an increased attendance at prayer meeting and more response among the members of the church in testimony and prayer.

An aged man was converted one afternoon when the Lees and our pastor called at his home. Many had been praying for this man. Victories were also won among the children and one young man found the Lord for the first time. We feel God is still working in the hearts of some who have not as yet yielded. We thank God because the Lees came this way.

CALDWELL
Richard Cossel, pastors

We are sorry to lose the Burtons who have moved to Melba. Measles, mumps, and flu have been the cause for the decrease in our attendance.

Work is progressing very nicely on our new church. The CE's of the church have given a banquet for all the CE's of the valley. The proceeds of this to be applied to the building fund.

Olive Miller has gone for a month or two to Kansas to visit her daughter and other relatives.

We were happy to have the Robertsons with us from Burley, Idaho.

Clare Howard's family has been helping with the revival at Riverside. We miss them in our services.

Our revival starts Mar. 26th with Ernest and Temple Lee as evangelists.

Quincy is leading in our SS contest. The first Sunday we had a 4% gain, and the second Sunday a 31% gain. We are praying for a 50% gain on our third Sunday.

The members of the junior girls' class in our SS are doing their part for the contest. They made 23 calls last week. There was an addition of six new ones in the adult class, which was real encouraging.

We have been having special prayer meetings every morning for our SS and for a revival.

Our church services have been blessed with the presence of the Lord. Harley has been bringing some Spirit-filled messages, and several people have expressed their desire to be saved. We ask an interest in your prayers.

On Missionary Sunday, Mar. 9, Jenny Adams of our church had the morning service and gave a very inspirational account of her calling to be a missionary and the definite way in which God has led and opened doors. As her plans are now she will be gone to California by the time this account appears. Her plans are to leave the Rinehart Clinic at Wheeler April 1 and go on to preparatory school on her road to reach her goal. Our very best wishes for this lovely young woman whom we have learned to love and admire.

March 16 SS consisted of a Bible knowledge contest between the juniors and high school classes. This memory work had been a part of these young people's home work for over a month. It consisted of the books of the Bible, 10 Commandments, 23rd Psalm, the Lord's Prayer, the Beatitudes and John 14:1-14. The high school class won, but the juniors gave them a contest.
