Needed Power

EDITORIAL

"BUT ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you" (Acts 1:8).

The greatest need of man's fallen human nature is power. Man is weak. Physically he is weak. He is weaker than any other creature. The young of other animals are pretty much able to take care for themselves after a few weeks, but a human being spends about one-third of an ordinary human life before he reaches maturity. Then, as long as he lives he is the prey of the elements around him.

Morally, man is weaker still. In his heart there are seeds of evil that drag him down, and around him are a thousand influences that lead him astray. There is unspeakable pathos in the cry of a poor, sinning woman, languishing in a hospital, who said, in reply to the plea of an earnest Christian friend, "I am not strong enough to be good." In those words she expressed what every man and woman has felt, and what the history of every life has revealed. Man is not strong enough to be good. But what comfort there is in the blessed assurance of God's Word, which says, "When we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly" (Romans 5:6).

The gospel is a message of strength. "It is the power of God unto salvation" (Romans 1:16), and it is the special ministry of the Holy Spirit to give power from on high. How much is signified in the wonderful promise of Acts 1:8! Have we come short of this? Just how far may we claim its fulfillment? We cannot find a better answer to that than in the book of Acts. Read the book again and see how the disciples themselves were transformed and became a power in God's hands, with the promise completely fulfilled in their lives.

But let us emphasize one very important truth—that this power is the power of a person. Acts 1:8 reads, literally, "Ye shall receive the power of the Holy Ghost coming upon you." And the Holy Ghost is a person. It is not our power; it is His power. It is not an abstract power under our control. It is a person, whose presence is necessary if power is to be manifested through us. It is not a power He gives to us. It is Himself He gives to us, and He has the power.

Up until recently here in Portland we have had electric trolley buses operating on our streets. They were not run by a storage battery within themselves. Their power came from wires overhead. The power was not stored up in the bus, it was in the wire, and the bus drew it from above by constant contact. The moment it let go its touch, the power was gone. The power was not in the bus—it was in the wire.

So the power of the Holy Spirit is from above. It is not our power, but His, and it is received from Him moment by moment as we keep in touch with Him.

The power of the Holy Spirit is not primarily for service. The Holy Spirit is given that we may have power to be, rather than to do and to say. Primarily it has to do with character. Our service and testimony will be the outcome of our inner life and experience. Our words and works must spring from our hearts, or there will be little power in them.

The change produced by the baptism of the Holy Spirit upon the first disciples was more remarkable in their characters than in their service and testimony. Look at Peter. Before Pentecost he was boastful, self-confident, always running ahead of his Master, and under test was lacking in moral courage. But when he experienced the fullness of the Holy Spirit he became a transformed man—an entirely different Peter. If he lacked moral courage before, he certainly did not afterward, for we see him stand before the murderers of his Lord, and charged them to their face with the crime. Instead of being boastful and self-confident, after Pentecost he had a lowly spirit and a humble heart, going forth to walk in his Master's steps.

Much has been said and written about the power of the Holy Spirit enabling us to witness and to win souls for the Master. This is very important. But since it has been stressed many times, because of limitations of space here, we will pass over that and call attention to another truth which is oft times overlooked. It is this:

The baptism of the Holy Spirit gives us power to suffer—the power to suffer wrong at the hands of others, and yet to keep sweet through it all.

Those Remarkable Lydians

By Jack L. Willcuts

GRANDMOTHERS are fine. No church should be without them. And Portland First Friends would hardly be able to function without the lively, faithful Lydian Bible Class. The entire Yearly Meeting and the mission field would also stagger without their regular prayer support. More than prayer—at least $300 has reached the Bolivian field during the last 10 years from this class for missionary Christmases alone!

"Youth is a wonderful thing, it is too bad to waste it on the children," G. B. Shaw observed. The Lydians at Sunnyside are not wasting time being church elders! Their vigor and vision launched from the vantage point of spiritual maturity proves a blessing behind the scenes of most Friends ventures from youth conferences to revivals.

They are more than just the oldest class in the Sunday school. The Lydian Bible Class is an institution. Class minutes date back to 1918 when a group of active ladies organized the "Burden Bearers." They never missed a Sunday of Bible study and prayer for 24 years. Then, in November, 1943, the group reorganized and chose the name, "Lydians." Two reasons: (1) for "Lydia . . . which worshipped God; whose heart the Lord opened" (Acts 16:24); (2) for Lydia C. Gardner who at that time was 83 years old and the only living charter member of the church (since 1893).

Lydia C. Gardner was 90 when I first met her in Portland's Madison Rest Home. Her mind was not so keen as formerly, except when the Bible was read or a hymn sung in a pastoral visit. Her eyes came to life, she gripped my hand in both of hers, "Young man, so you are a preacher! Well, preach the Word, preach the Word, PREACH THE WORD! I've walked with the Lord for 90 years and I tell you it pays to serve Jesus!"

The life of this godly woman and her family upon Quakerdom is somewhat like Abraham's influence on Israel. Lydia C. Gardner is a matriarch of Friends, and the Lydian Bible Class is a fitting tribute to her.

The more than 40 members of this class wield a tremendous influence for good. Several are relatively unknown over the Yearly Meeting. But one faithful member is a real grandmother to me—Maude Keach. As a college student at Newberg with a call to preach, the general superintendent sent me to Rockaway, Oregon, just two miles from Twin Rocks to "fill in" for the Community Church requesting help. Arriving at Twin Rocks on a bus, in the dark, in the rain late Saturday night without a friend in the region (and without a well prepared sermon for the Sunday morning ordeal), I staggered to the caretaker's home to see about a dorm bed for the night. There is nothing quite so lonely as an empty summer conference grounds in the winter!

My plight and mission explained, Mrs. Keach took me in tow, gave me hot biscuits for supper (two inches high), a lively, sensible pep talk as only she can give. We had prayer and I went upstairs in the caretaker's house to bed a different boy. "Now don't you be afraid of those folks down at the Community Church. I'm going right along with you, and things will be just fine." She did, and they did. And she kept right on going every Sunday she could during my 20 months of student pastorate. Our long talks beside the ocean, or washing dishes together, and deep Christian friendship has been a source of spiritual strength many times on the mission field. My real grandmothers both died before I was born, but "mother" Keach has taken the place of both for me I think.

Perhaps this Lydian's great concern for missions stems partly from Inez Roger's leadership as class teacher during the years following her retirement as missionary from India. The present teacher, Gertrude Cook, is carrying on the tradition well.

"Despise not thy youth," is good advice, but the admonition might be extended to every church, "despise not thy grandparents." Their letters put new life into the missionaries. Their prayers support the pastors. Their mature counsel strengthens the church. Their Naomi-like exemplary lives are a guiding light to younger people.

The world now has satellites, but the church still needs saints. There has never been a time when they were more needed. We need today those Spirit-filled women who will lead in teaching old-fashioned morality, old-fashioned decency, old-fashioned purity and sweetness. Modern church ladies know a great deal about diets, health, calories, vitamins, sterilization. We read about every kind of women—beautiful women, smart women, sophisticated women, career women, talented women, divorced women, but so seldom do we hear of a godly woman. Is it possible that certain stirring and poignant memories like those of the Lydians across the years, that warm and soften the heart, are memories a future generation may not have in many of our churches?

Christian, godly mothers of the church form the foundation of the future of Friends. The Lydian Bible class of First Friends can provide a challenging example for any church of the Yearly Meeting which has those "mothers in Israel" who could organize.

Silverton Dedication

By Frederick B. Baker

Dedication of the new Silverton Friends church, Silverton, Ore., took place on Sunday afternoon, May 4, 1958, with 201 people in attendance—the climax of ten dramatic months of effort. Ground breaking services for the new edifice were held on July 7, 1957.

Under the leadership of Charlotte Macy and Dorothy Barratt and a congregation of 23 people, including four children, this work has gone ahead in remarkable manner.

The two-unit building was designed by Donald Lindgren, Quaker architect, from Vancouver, Wash. Don himself is the product of church extension work, having been won to Christ a number of years ago in Camas, Wash.

One of the surprises of the dedication was an announcement that the Silverton church plan had been printed in the American Friend as an example of contemporary architecture in pleasing design. This design was reproduced from the American Friend in "The Wayfarer," an English Quaker paper. A letter from England, read at the dedication, conveyed to the local congregation that they were now known in England.

The dedication program was as follows: Opening prayer by Evert Tuning, Quarterly Meeting superintendent from Salem. Congregational song led by Gene Mulkey. A special number in song, "Worship the Lord in the Beauty of Holiness," was sung by a mixed ensemble of the Silverton church. A poem, "Design for a Church," was read by Edith Magee, clerk of the Scotts Mills Friends church, located only seven miles away.

Offertory remarks and prayer were given by Frederick B. Baker, promotional secretary for the Board of Evangelism. Report indicated that $206.00 was received in the dedicatory offering.

The message of dedication was given by Clare Willcuts, Nampa, Idaho, president of the Board of Evangelism, who spoke on the theme, "Dedication is an Experience." The closing dedicatory prayer was given by Dean Gregory, general superintendent of Northwest Quakers.

The two-unit building contains 3112 square feet of floor space. The sanctuary normally seats approximately 100 adults—150 to 140 with overflow space. There is room for 12 possible Sunday school classrooms. The laminated beams for both units, the window casings, and light fixtures for the sanctuary, were all made by members of the congregation. The ceiling decking in the sanctuary is 2"x4' hemlock on edge. The roof is split-cedar shakes. The Christian Education unit is finished with eight-inch natural cedar. The sanctuary is faced with eight-inch brick in heather color, mortared with double strength brown mortar.

Although the Silverton church is actually only a year old, yet the complete "Silverton Story" goes clear back to 1949, and the opening scene takes place in a little one-roomed school house, hid away in Oregon's Silverton hills, at which time several families gave their hearts to the Lord Jesus Christ. This little school house was known as the Silver Cliff school. Here Friends conducted an "outpost Sunday school." When consolidated education forced the sale of the little building, the "new creatures in Christ" started commuting 15 miles away to the Scotts Mills meeting of Friends, and joined in membership there.

This past year the concern for establishing a Friends church in Silverton came with deep, pungent conviction and unity to this faithful nucleus, representative of only 11 family groups totalling 19 adults in all.

The church is located on one and a third acres on the outskirts of Silverton in a new residential area on the west side of the city. Since dedication of the new units a church tower has been erected, kitchen cabinets have been built and installed and the kitchen is completed.

Total cost of the two units, valued at $30,000, stands at $15,000. The cost of the land and furniture increases value of the new church to around $35,000.

The building was erected under the direction of Edwin C. Bennett, foreman from Salem, Ore., who demonstrated an outstanding job of Christian service to Friends in this new church venture.

Commendation, too, should go to the building committee, composed of Fred Jarvill, chairman, Ralph and Gene Mulkey, James Curnutt and Charlotte Macy.

Promotion day was noted, too, in the dedication of the fact that James Curnutt, 75, who had put in hundreds and hundreds of volunteer labor on the new church had lost his life in an automobile accident, just one week before dedication of the new building.

Aside from the work of the foreman, the brick layers, and professional help with the cement, the construction of the church was accomplished by volunteer labor.

Silverton church is a lasting tribute to what the grace of God can do through dedicated people who want a church of their own in which to worship God.

Board of Evangelism Challenge

LET'S BUILD A NEW FRIENDS CHURCH

By Frederick B. Baker, Field Secretary

WHO will start that new Friends Church in "Suburbia?" Where is "Suburbia?" It is anywhere over America where new population areas are springing up in phenomenal style. It could be within 50 to 100 miles from where you live, and it could be right next door.

Evangelical Christians over America are united in the conviction that a great number of new churches must be established in the next two decades, if the Lord tarries.

Christianity Today, in the March 31, 1958, issue, states that a representative survey was recently made which shows us that three out of every four Protestant ministers classify themselves as "conservative" or "fundamentalist," while the fourth says he is "liberal" or "neo-orthodox."

Dr. Jared Gerig stated at the sixteenth annual National Association of Evangelicals convention, April 14-18, 1958, at Hotel Sherman, Chicago, that the United States alone will see 100,000 new churches established in the next 20 years. Based on the above survey, at least 75% of these new churches should be started by those with the evangelical concept in mind. A number of these, of course, will be started by evangelical Quakers over American "Suburbia."

The Christian Century, mouthpiece for American liberalism, in its March 5, 1958, issue views the three grave dangers facing them today which they state as being: (1) the danger of emotional mass evangelism, (2) the danger of "literalism and ignorance which would destroy the proper influence of the Bible of Christian thought and action," and (3) the danger that "sectarianism" will destroy the united witness of the church.

Dr. James DeForest Murch, editor of United Evangelical Action, voice of Evangelical Christianity in America, states these three fears in the vernacular of evangelicals: (1) the fear of the tremendous acceptance of the great union evangelistic crusades; (2) the fear for the new respect for the Bible as the revealed, inspired, infallible and authoritative Word of God, which the masses may interpret for themselves under the guidance of the Holy Spirit; and (3) the fear of the new emphasis on the fundamental doctrines of the Christian faith as essential to Christian fellowship.

What the "liberal" and "neo-orthodox" camps view with consternation and fear, evangelicals view with thanksgiving and challenge, for the climate is right today for gospel promulgation. New churches must be built.

The Commission on Evangelism and Church Extension at the NAE convention in April came face to face with the problem of who should be the ones to get new churches established. The commission was united that there must be a man of God in the center of the picture, but there was a division of thought as to whether older, experienced ministers or the more enthusiastic, younger ministers just out of college and seminary are the most effective in getting the job done in formation of the new suburban churches.

The lost key in the whole matter of church extension work is that of evangelism itself. Whether a man is young and inexperienced and just out of school or whether he has the maturity which separates "the man from the boys," he must be a man with a consuming passion for the lost. The Book of Acts furnishes us the pattern for this type of work. A man with a consuming passion for the lost will get a new church started while others are merely entering into academic discussion about it all.

The NAE commission concluded that a happy combination of maturity and youth could be invested in a new church with an experienced pastor giving proper direction for a new parish to which a young, inexperienced minister is assigned.

This "mothering" of new churches over America is setting a definite pattern in a number of evangelical denominations, especially among the newer and very aggressive ones.

Some areas are not being reached because of a traditional "dog in the manger" attitude on the part of some churches and pastors who are not willing to yield members or financial support for needed leadership in the suburbs, but whenever this "mothering" is done there has been tremendous results, both in the home church and in the newly established church in "Suburbia land."

It appears as an established "norm" that whenever this "mothering process" is used, churches are brought to a place of maturity and self support much faster than when some inexperienced worker is thrust out into the field more or less on his or her own, but however it must be done, "Let's build that new Quaker church."

ITEMS OF INTEREST

FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY AT ENTIAT FRIENDS

May 10 and 11 were happy days of reunion with old friends, and precious fellowship in the Lord, as former members and friends gathered at Entiat for the celebration of the 50th anniversary of the church.

The meeting was organized May 30, 1908, as directed by Puget Sound Quarterly Meeting of Indiana Yearly Meeting, with 34 charter members, eight of whom we know to be living, three of that number being present—Enola Churchill Aarbak, Elva Churchill Fowler, and Benjamin Pressnall. Benjamin Pressnall and Gladys Bonnell Russell, who became a member in 1909 had not been here for 42 years.

The "little white church on the hill" was built in 1908, north of the present town. With the coming of the railroad and the moving of the town to its present location, the church decided to move its services to town in December, 1916, and services were held in Hedding's Hall until the basement of the present church was built in 1919. Construction of the church auditorium was started in the fall of 1930, with dedication in June of 1931. It is of interest to note that the building committee in their final report gave $1,482.87 as total expenditures, with all bills paid.

In 1922 we became a part of Oregon Yearly Meeting and Tacoma Quarterly Meeting, and in 1955 a part of the new Inland Quarterly Meeting.

And now, after 27 years of worshipping in this church, we might well use the old saying, "We don't know where we're going, but we're on our way," as the town has to move again because of Rocky Reach dam. Our church has been purchased by the P. U. D. and must be moved within a year, but we are not sure of a location as yet. We are looking to the Lord to open the way for the right place.

Of the 14 former pastors, 10 are living—four were present, and greetings were received from all others except one. Greetings were also received from many former members and friends—Ralph Choate in Africa, Orpha Cammack and the Chapmans in Bolivia, and others from Alaska and many parts of the United States.

We appreciated Dean Gregory, our Yearly Meeting superintendent, Saturday evening; William Murphy, pastor 1923-26, Sunday morning; and Calvin Choate, pastor 1920-23, Sunday afternoon; as they spoke words of encouragement and admonition as the Lord laid the message on their hearts.

Words cannot express our appreciation of the presence of Louie Choate. Five of "her girls," who were members of her Sunday school class of more than 15 girls in 1920-23, were also present, and greetings were received from others. This class of girls is one of the out-standing memories as we look back over the history of the church. Also lingering in our memory are the many dear ones who served so faithfully, many of whom have gone on to their reward.

GROUND BREAKING AT LYNWOOD

Ground breaking ceremonies were held for the Lynwood church at the church site, S. E. 162nd and Taylor, on May 4th. At four o'clock a good crowd, representing all the churches of Portland quarter, had gathered to participate in the eventful hour. George Palmer presided.

On the program was the singing of "The Church's One Foundation," led by Elvin Mardock; brief speeches by Ray L. Carter, Quarterly Meeting superintendent; James Meireis, chairman of the building committee; Dr. Earl P. Barker, who will supervise the building; and Walter Bolitho, contractor.

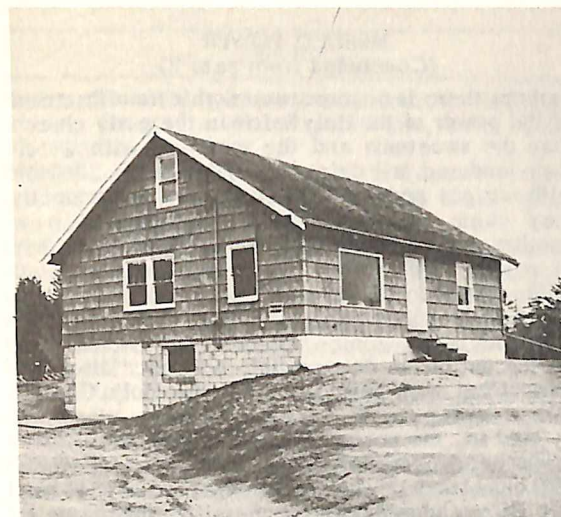

The first spade of soil was turned by Ray Carter, followed by George Palmer and James Meireis. Actual construction was begun on May 15 by Mr. Bolitho. When he has finished his preliminary work Bertram Frazier will carry on the construction with the help of donated labor. Completion is hoped for early autumn.

NEWPORT OUTPOST

The first service was conducted on Sunday afternoon in the home of Ray and Ruth Houston, in November, 1956.

Rented a hall across from bus depot in downtown Newport and began services there in December, 1956.

Purchased property, June 1, 1957. Good location, one block from a new 18-room elementary school—lot 200'x300' with frame work of house on it. Minister's Retirement Fund loaned $1500. Local Friends paid $500. Evangelistic Board gave $1000, making a total down payment of $3000. Newport Friends are paying $90.00 a month on the $9000.00 owed on the property, plus $30.00 a month to the Minister's Retirement Fund on its loan. We are a few months behind with the payments to the Retirement Fund, but hope to make them up after we catch up with some current building debts.

NEWPORT OUTPOST

The Highland Friends meeting is sponsoring the Newport work and has given $3000.00 for materials for completing the building for a parsonage with a daylight basement for chapel, two SS class-rooms and a rest room. There is a nice location for church building as the Lord may lead and provide in the future.

Work began on the present building July 4, 1957. Began using the daylight basement for meeting place on October 6, 1957. Moved into the parsonage March 1, 1958. Attendance during first four months of 1958 averaged 23.

There are many improvements needed yet. We recently put ceiling tile on the chapel room and painted the walls. This cost about $164.00 which has to be paid yet. The tile cost $12.00 a box. Someone might wish to contribute a box.

The parsonage needs several things yet, among which are: a stairway, materials for which will cost $25.00; a front porch and steps at a cost of about $1500.00; and upstairs bedrooms to be finished.

Newport Friends have kept an active interest in missions and are giving regularly to the United Budget and to George Fox College. Although Newport Friends are few in number, most of them are good tithers and are praying for the salvation of the many needy souls all about.

We are having a Daily Vacation Bible School June 9-13.

Pray for Newport that souls might be saved and that expenses may be met from month to month.

GREENLEAF QUARTERLY MEETING

Greenleaf Quarterly Meeting met at Greenleaf Friends church May 3rd. Oral Tish presided at the Saturday morning worship session which was a time of song, testimony and praise. The songs "Oh, it is Wonderful," and "Jesus Walks With Me," were led by Leta Hockett, accompanied by Agnes Tish. Thelma Green sang "It's Real," and Merle Green, pastor of the Melba church, was the morning speaker reading Acts 3:1-13.

A pot-luck dinner was served in Friendship hall and friends enjoyed greeting each other during the noon interlude.

Forrest Holmes, Quarterly Meeting presiding clerk, had charge of the afternoon meeting, which began with a short song service. Dale Gossard led in prayer. Lloyd Melhorn, Ontario pastor, brought a short devotional from Psalm 1.

Sixteen delegates answered roll call. Reports of committees were given. Cornelia Holmes said transportation money for missionaries is badly needed and reported the Chapmans were to leave May 5 from La Paz for home.

Mrs. Bessie Barnes reported a filmstrip is needed for the stewardship committee to represent the work in all churches of the Quarterly Meeting. She suggested $12 of the day's offering be used for this purpose. The request was granted.

John Tish, chairman of the nominating committee, submitted names of new officers and committees for the 1958-59 year. Forrest Holmes was re-elected presiding clerk; Clayton Barnes, assistant clerk; Elsie Hockett and Lela Morse, recording and reading clerks; and Faye Dillon publicity.

Lloyd Melhorn reported the Ontario church had the new pulpit and altar rail installed. This was obtained through the offering given when the February Quarterly Meeting was held there.

Harold Ankeny showed the type of filing cabinets being used in the new vault built in the academy building, and was granted permission to purchase several more units. These are being used to store records of all churches of the Quarterly Meeting.

At the close of the session, the annual essay contest was held, with two contestants, Philip Roberts and Daniel Roberts, Greenleaf academy students, winning first and second place respectively. Topic was "Should a Christian Participate in War?"

BOISE VALLEY QUARTERLY MEETING

On Thursday evening, April 24th, Quarterly Meeting Ministry and Oversight met at Melba at 8:00 o'clock, with Hubert Mardock bringing the message on the theme of the value of the sermon.

On Saturday, the 26th, the regular sessions opened at 10:30 with a worship and praise service, after which Roy Dunagan from Fairfield brought the message.

A pot-luck dinner was shared at noon after which the business meeting was held, with Raymond Haworth in charge. Raymond also had charge of the devotions.

Under the direction of the Peace Committee, Veva Tucker gave her oration on "Peace" which was rated by the judges as very good.

After the reports of the various committees the meeting concluded with prayer.

On Sunday afternoon the young people of the CE attended the Youth for Christ meeting held at the Nazarene Church in Nampa.

NEWBERG QUARTERLY MEETING

Newberg Quarterly Meeting was held at Sherwood Friends church on May 9, 10 and 11. Herman Macy read a paper at the Ministry and Oversight meeting and led in the discussion.

Ward Haines presided at the Saturday afternoon meeting for worship. George and Jeanette Stevens of Portland sang several gospel songs during the afternoon. Ray Carter brought the message. His text was 1 Cor. 1:22, 23, 24: "We preach Christ crucified. . . the power of God and the wisdom of God."

During the foreign missions hour Paul Cammack brought recent news from the field, and Virginia Helm and Everett Heacock told about their visit to the Bolivian field in April.

Orville Winters told about the work of the church at Tigard, and their building plans. He presented plans for financing the work. A collection was taken for the work. Special music was presented by David and Jonathan Bishop.

Dinner was served in the basement. The business meeting followed. Arthur Roberts presided at this service. The different departments reported on their activities.

Dr. Winfield Am, Portland YFC director, was speaker at the CE rally on Sunday afternoon. George Fox College students furnished music. Ralph Cammack presided at this rally.

NEEDED POWER (Concluded from page 2)

Perhaps there is no more remarkable manifestation of the power of the Holy Spirit in the early church than the sweetness and the grandeur with which they endured all things for Jesus sake. Beaten with stripes and humiliated before the council, they came together, not to commiserate one another, or to show their bleeding wounds, but to rejoice "that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for His name" (Acts 5:41).

In Antioch they were run out of town by a mob of respectable women, pelted with stones and hooted out of the community, but the "disciples were filled with joy, and with the Holy Ghost" (Acts 13:52).

And so, the power of the Holy Spirit will give us the heroism of endurance, and make us more like our Master, "who for the joy that was set before Him, endured the cross, despising the shame." It will bring about a spirit of self-denial and holy sacrifice, and make it easy to "endure all things for the elect's sake," and to say with the great apostle, "Yes, and if I be offered upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy and rejoice with you all" (Phil. 2:17).

This is the work of the Holy Spirit, and it is the kind of power we need to live as we ought to live in this evil world.

Congratulations to Puget Sound Quarterly Meeting for having the largest percentage of its Fixed Expense paid. They lacked only $30.04 of having their ten months quota paid as of May 1. Greenleaf Quarterly Meeting is leading in United Budget with a little over $40.00 more than their 10 months goal paid. BUT JUNE 30 is just ahead. If we are to end the year with all balances taken care of we must work this month. I am looking forward to seeing a paid-up list by that time.

MONEY MEASURES MEN

Money measures men—their capacity and their consecration. In some instances money masters men. They become its slaves. In many instances money multiplies men. Through the ministry of the money he earns and gives, a Christian labors on every continent, preaches in a thousand pulpits, teaches and trains tomorrow's leaders. He ministers to multitudes in the name of Christ.

—Clifton J. Allen

MARTHA SNELL NICHOLSON SAYS . . .

It would be sweet could I see it,
That land where the Savior walked,
The quiet roads in the gloaming,
The hills where He sat and talked.

My heart would be ever searching
For some dear trace of Him there,
His footprints in the meadows,
The tones of His voice in the air.

My hand would be ever questing,
With finger tips athrill,
For an ancient wall or a rock where
His touch might linger still.

My feet would falter in anguish
At the place where my dear Lord died,
My very soul would be sobbing,
My heart would be crucified.

Yes, it would be sweet could I see it,
But my cup is filled to the brim
With the blessed hope of seeing soon
Not the place where He dwelt,—but HIM!

Christian Endeavor Doings

WEST CHEHALEM

Our CE has been pretty busy for the past couple of months. The other day we had a dinner for our parents in the church basement. The same afternoon several of us went around the community inviting other kids to CE. We got several new ones that way too.

Newberg CE had a lesson with us a few weeks ago. During the church hour the movie, "Silent Witness," was shown.

Just recently we had an after-the-game party at one of the CE'er's home. There were about 20 present. We played games, and hot chocolate and doughnuts were served for refreshments.

—Helen Huff, reporter

WOODLAND CE

The young people and several adults of the church went to a Youth for Christ meeting at the First Baptist church in Kooskia.

A combination consecration service and anniversary party was held Feb. 21 in the church basement. This is our CE's fourth anniversary. There were games and refreshments.

The young people of the First Baptist church in Kamiah gave a party and invited our young people's group. This was in honor of Washington's birthday, and cherry pie was served for desert.

ONTARIO JUNIOR CE

We had seven members and four visitors for our CE party; Irene Hatfield was in charge of games. We had ice cream sundaes and cookies for refreshments.

During our revival meetings, Dorwin Smith spoke to our group. His topics were on, "Things we can be sure about."

CALDWELL CE

A banquet was given Friday, March 14, by the Caldwell CE for all the CE's in Greenleaf and Boise Quarterly Meetings and the students of Greenleaf Academy. The theme of the banquet was "A Score for Christ." The proceeds went to help build the new Caldwell Friends church.

Easter Sunday morning everyone attended a breakfast for the CE out at the Clare Howard place. We were privileged to have our evangelists, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Lee, of Stafford, Kan., with us at this breakfast following the sunrise service.

ROSEMERE CE

Clarence Shupe spoke to the young people during the CE hour, May 11.

The Sunday evening service May 18, was conducted by the young people. Clarence Shupe was the speaker. Ronda Brown and Shirley Burnett, both students at George Fox College, were present.

The Rosemere Friends church and young people were hosts for the "Singspiration" after church, May 18. Light refreshments were served afterwards.

—Lucille Hughes reporter.

HIGHLAND AVENUE CE

The high school juniors sponsored a "car wash" to raise money for a junior and senior banquet to be held May 23rd.

On May 18th the young people were in charge of the regular evening worship service.

A junior CE has been organized under the leadership of Marjory Hawk and Nina DeLapp.

The young boys and men have been playing in the senior division of the church's softball league.

FIRST FRIENDS JUNIOR (Portland)

The junior CE group had a swimming party May 9. They went to Don and Maxine Smith's for refreshments later.

From the Board of CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

ACTION POSTPONED

The urgent need of the Board of Christian Education for full-time leadership has had to be postponed. The reasons are many, but the main one is the tragic shortage of qualified leadership in this field. Certainly this should help us to see the need within our Yearly Meeting for a greater emphasis upon Christian education leadership.

Some temporary "stop-gap" moves have been made that will be satisfactory for the present by using the leadership we do have on a part-time basis (most of them are already busy in pastoral work), and by arranging more area leadership training conferences and by conducting Sunday School clinics throughout the Yearly Meeting. We hope to aggressively pursue the goals set up by the board.

However we are praying and planning for the day when God's man will be sent our way for this great work. Your prayers are urgently needed that we on the board may have added wisdom and strength for the job that lies ahead. Especially focus your prayers on our youth work and Sunday Schools.

AROUND GEORGE FOX COLLEGE

PUBLICITY

Favorable publicity for the college has recently appeared in such national publications as the June issue of Better Homes and Gardens, "89 Uncrowded Colleges," Glamour magazine, Christian Science Monitor, and other eastern papers. George Fox College, being a member of the Council for the Advancement of Small Colleges, was included in this publicity.

During the recent executive board meeting of CASC at Menucha, near Corbett, Oregon, President Milo Ross with K. Duane Hurley, president of both CASC and Salem College, Salem, West Virginia, and Dr. Alfred T. Hill, executive secretary of CASC, appeared on KOIN-TV May 6 on the "Hi Neighbor" program, and also on Johnny Carpenter's educational newscast.

DEPUTATION TEAM AVAILABLE

The college will have a team of two young men available for deputation work throughout Oregon Yearly Meeting this summer. Pastors and managers of summer camps desiring assistance from such a team for special music, song leading, classes and information, should contact the college as soon as possible. A schedule will be developed as the requests come in.

ADDITIONS TO FACULTY

On behalf of the college board President Ross is pleased to announce to the college constituency several additions to the faculty for 1958-59:

Harvey Campbell, '36 graduate, presently teaching at Northwest Nazarene College, Nampa, will be associate professor of social studies, teaching freshman English and some sections of sociology. He, with his family, will be moving to Newberg during the summer.

Floyd Weitzel, '57 graduate, now working on his Master's at University of Colorado, will return as instructor in biology. He is a member of Denver Friends church.

Hector Munn, graduate of Seattle Pacific, presently doing graduate work at Claremont College, California, will be instructor in chemistry.

Both Weitzel and Munn will be teaching part-time while continuing their graduate work at Oregon State College. This arrangement will free both Mr. and Mrs. Alex Beltz, assistant and associate professor of science respectively, to do part-time teaching in the science department while pursuing graduate work at Oregon State.

The music and art division will be strengthened with the addition of Earl Hazelle, Portland artist and musician. Mr. Hazelle will be instructor in art and may do some piano instructing. Mrs. Mary Hazelle, wife of Earl Hazelle, will continue as assistant professor of music. Other continuing music faculty includes William Koenig, director of choir, and Lloyd Mallet, instructor in voice. This makes for a strong and well balanced music division, President Ross states.

Other adjustments include the teaching of Greek by Dr. Cecilia Martin at the retirement of Scott Clark. Dr. Martin is assistant professor of language arts, and during this year has been teaching the freshman English section and Spanish. We regret the retirement of Scott Clark, as his many years of teaching and pastoral work with deep spiritual impact, and his loyal interest in every college activity, will be greatly missed. May God continue to bless and prosper his rich ministry is the prayer of the GFC faculty and student body.

A REMINDER TO CHURCHES

A reminder to all churches regarding special recognition at Yearly Meeting relative to the $25 Club Living Endowment for all that have achieved their goal, or nearly so, is in need of mention at this time. Each church is urged to survey its $25 Club members in hopes for payment in full immediately or at least by Yearly Meeting time. The college is in desperate need of these amounts to be paid up to date. Any new ones would be greatly appreciated. The college largely depends upon this Living Endowment program to meet current expenses, and when it does not come in there is not sufficient to meet the monthly bills. Enter with us in prayer and sacrificial giving that the financial needs of the college may be met before Yearly Meeting.

The administration is deeply grateful to every person who has given and is currently giving of his or her prayers and financial means in support of the college, through any one or several of the following avenues: The $25 Club Living Endowment Alumni Project; Debt Liquidation; Special Gifts; Scholarships; Class Projects; Deputation; Advertising and Promotion; Endowments.

GRADUATING CLASS

The largest graduating class since 1950, including twenty-two seniors, was a highlight of the 1958 commencement held on the George Fox campus June 1.

Included in the list of graduates were eleven young men and eleven young women with their degrees as follows:

Bachelor of Arts Degree
Meredith Kay Beals, Newberg, Oregon
Kara Newell Cole, Portland, Oregon

NEWBERG DRIVE

The Newberg part of the Debt Liquidation Drive is taking the major interest now. Developments since the last printing of the Northwest Friend include:

Some twenty appearances by members of the Speakers' Bureau before various churches, civic clubs, schools, etc.

Preparation of prospect donor lists by the secretaries of the high school staff.

Printing materials for the use of solicitors.

Printing a large sign to be hung over First Street, with this slogan: "Are you giving to GEORGE FOX COLLEGE?" and in smaller letters, "Chamber of Commerce Drive."

Securing a corps of workers for the actual solicitation.

At the meeting of the C. of C. Board on Monday, May 19, the date of June 17 was chosen for the kick-off breakfast, followed by three days of solicitation, June 18-20.

A mounting wave of enthusiasm and good-will is attending the drive. We wish to give the praise and glory to our God for His good hand of blessing upon us, and at the same time thank all of you, both in Newberg and elsewhere, who have prayed for this day, and whose loyalty and sacrifice have made it possible.

On May 20, the drive stood at $101,200.

GREENLEAF ACADEMY

The month of May catches Greenleaf Academy in a whirl of activity as students and faculty endeavor to bring to a smooth stop the scholastic activity of the year. But even with students cramming to get in makeup work, the extra curricular activities continue at a maddening pace.

The choir has appeared in many churches over the Boise Valley. May 1st it appeared on television, and Sunday, May 4th, the choir traveled to Meadows for a concert in the morning, and appeared at Cambridge for the evening service there. Wednesday, the 14th, the choir traveled to Ontario, Ore., for a performance.

May 1st was also the day of the student body elections. The new officers are: president, Daniel Roberts, vice president, Jack Winslow; treasurer, Norma Crawford; secretary, Phyllis Williams; annual editor, Sherrill Hull; and sargent at arms, Tom Bartlett.

Another event which made May 1st a popular date was the senior class box social and play. The seniors grossed about $70.

The annual junior-senior banquet was May 9th in the Friendship Hall. The theme was "Far Away Places," with Leon Roberts as emcee, and Rev. Johnson, from the Free Methodist church in Caldwell, as guest speaker.

May 13th, that infamous unlucky day, was the date of the Pep Club party. The girls all climbed on hayracks and went to Chalk Bluff.

The faculty was honored at a luncheon on May 14th. The lunch was served by the home economics girls. The next day was the eighth grade Visitation Day. Eighth graders from grade schools in surrounding communities visited the Academy and were served lunch. May 14th the Girls "G" Club had their annual dinner in the Strato room of the Boise Airport.

Mrs. Gwynn presented her high school piano students in recital on Sunday, May 18. The recital, which lasted three hours, was participated in by 14 students.

Friday, May 23, was the date of the all-school picnic. The whole student body clambered aboard two trucks and traveled to Smith's Ferry where lunch was eaten and everyone forgot for one day the cares of school and studies.

Baccalaureate was Sunday night, the 25th, with Rev. Hubert Mardock as speaker. Monday morning the seniors were honored at a breakfast. The crowning day was May 29, with last day of school activities and commencement that night. There was a special celebration in honor of the 50th anniversary of the school. Rev. Charles Beals, was speaker at commencement, Barbara Bartlett received valedictorian status, with a 3.5 grade point average. Barbara Morse and Ilona Trost tied for salutatorian honors with a 3. grade point average.

AMONG THE CHURCHES

NEWBERG QUARTERLY MEETING

CHEHALEM CENTER

Scott and Grace Clark, pastors

Although our attendance has dropped down some, we keep praising Him. We know God will be on our side in bad or good times.

Geraldine Custer, a missionary from Africa, was guest speaker at WMU on May 7th in the home of Mrs. Ray Jones. Everyone enjoyed her talking about the interesting work with the natives.

The evening of the same day she showed pictures at the church for prayer meeting. God is using her in a most gracious way, as she labors on the field.

Roscoe Hutchins spoke for the "Gideons" the morning of May 11th. This group is doing wonderful work in the spreading of God's Word.

Please pray for us as we are about to have a SS contest, "The Battle of the Sexes," starting in June, and will be on for two months.

NEWBERG

Charles A. Beals, pastor

The basement of our new annex was first used for SS on May 4. The primary department uses two rooms, one junior class meets there, and two adult classes meet there.

The George Fox College a cappella choir presented their sacred concert under the direction of William Koenig on Sunday evening, May 4.

The following babies and small children were presented for dedication to the Lord by their parents on May 11: Jack Douglas Lyda, Jeanne Raye and Terri Lee Mirgon, Malcolm Dean Magee, Phyllis and Cheryl Annette Mardock, Steven Paul Stanfield, and Roger Glenn Watson.

Services were dismissed on Sunday evening, May 18, to attend the high school baccalaureate service. The speaker was Donald Fivecoat, pastor of the Newberg Church of the Nazarene.

The Youth for Christ club of the high school held one week of services at the Church of the Nazarene, April 28 to May 2, with Willie Foote as evangelist. Our prayer meeting dismissed to attend the Wednesday evening service.

SPRINGBROOK

Herbert Sargent, pastor

We were glad to have Bob and Pat Smith and family in our service Sunday evening April 27. Bob brought the evening message.

In the absence of our pastor, Arthur Roberts brought the morning message and David Wing the evening message on May 4.

On May 8, the WMU invited their husbands and families to a pot-luck supper at the church. The program of the evening was presented to us by Mr. and Mrs. Evert Tuning of Eugene. They talked and showed pictures of the work at Sprague River.

Several from here attended Quarterly Meeting held at Sherwood.

The Quarterly Meeting has obtained four stewardship films, and they were shown at our church on the evening of May 11. The CE enjoyed a trip to the coast on May 17.

A pot-luck dinner was enjoyed by a number of people following morning worship service on May 18 on the Glen Mills home.

TIGARD

Orville Winters, pastor

Orville Winters held a special series of meetings at Forest Home Friends church in Camas, Wash., April 20th to May 4th. Kenneth Williams, dean of George Fox College, and Denver Headrick conducted the services at the Tigard church during the minister's absence.

Ground breaking services were held at 3:00 p.m. May 25th for the new church on S.W. 72nd Avenue. Charles Beals was the speaker.

An association was formed in order to more effectively handle church business. Officers chosen were: Bill Potter, president; Betty Macy, secretary; and Elizabeth Bishop, treasurer. This association will add stability to negotiations in financial matters.

In connection with this association the church has set up a schedule of financing whereby people who wish to invest money can loan money to the church at 5% interest for three years. At the end of three years the principle will be repaid in one sum.

The Student Christian Union of George Fox College presented the church with a one hundred dollar check for the building fund.

PORTLAND QUARTERLY MEETING

FIRST FRIENDS (Portland)

Gerald Dillon, pastor

Kara Cole was given a surprise baby shower by the mothers and girls of the high school CE. Wayne and Kara Cole sponsor this group. Janice Hadley and Susan Eichenberger planned the surprise.

Our annual golf tournament was held at the Colewood Golf Course on May 17. Twenty-five men participated. Gerald Dillon won first prize, George Stevens came in second, and Carl Carpenter was third.

The young married people's SS class had a picnic on May 25. Each family helped contribute the food. Wilbert Eichenberger is the teacher of this class.

June 8 is the deadline for our goal of $4000 for our remodeling program. To date $2164.91 has been given. We have saved $432.98 interest.

May 25, the Ambassador SS class went to Salem to visit Floyd and Ruby Geil, former members of the class. The class left after church for the housewarming in Salem.

The WMU and Marie Chapman Missionary Union held a joint meeting May 6 in the church basement. The Japanese theme was planned by the program chairman, Marguerite Eichenberger. Miss Ophelia Hendrickson, missionary from China and Japan, was our speaker.

PIEDMONT

Myron Goldsmith, pastor

Our new junior choir of about 30 members is both an inspiration and blessing in our services. Their white robes and red ribbons, made by women of the church, are very attractive. They sang at a recent family night service, and also in the Easter and Mother's Day programs.

Our leadership course is now in progress. Paul Mills led three sessions on "Backgrounds of New Testament Times," and Prof. Bennett of Western Evangelical Seminary introduced a series of lessons on visitation.

Milo Ross brought an interesting presentation entitled, "The Distinctives of George Fox College," on May 11th.

Representatives from Piedmont attended the ground breaking for the new Lynwood Friends church, and the dedication service of the new Friends church at Silverton.

Irena Cunningham, Ruth Huff and Robert Mott are on our sick list at present. Peter Snow suffered a broken nose in an accident recently, when an auto failed to yield right of way.

Wayne Piersall ministered very acceptably as our evangelist and song leader in a five-day series of meetings in April. The services lifted our meeting.

The WMU sponsored an all-church family night service, May 23rd, with Everett Heacock as the principal speaker. Refreshments were served following the service.

HILLSBORO

Frederick B. Baker, pastor

Hillsboro Friends church is filling a place as an evangelical church in Hillsboro, Ore., county seat of Washington county. The city has a population of about 7,000 people, but destined to speedily grow as new industry moves into the area. Hillsboro forms a triangle with Portland, 17 miles to the east, and Newberg, 20 miles to the south. Other Friends churches in the county are at Tigard, Sherwood and Timber.

Ron and Mardee McDougal assistant pastor and wife, have been working at Hillsboro church the past year; but moved to Beaverton this month where they have purchased a home with concern to assist in getting a Friends church under way in this fastest growing area in the county. Beaverton is half way between Hillsboro and Portland.

Slogan of the church, "Dedicate in 58," is closer to realization with plans for a dedication service this fall.

The church has extended a call to the pastors to serve for their tenth year.

The congregation is to be commended for its willingness to assume responsibility in enabling the pastor to have more time for added spiritual responsibilities as the church takes on the norm of mature church relationships. The goal of real maturity with 25 supporting families and a membership of 100 is still in the future.

PUGET SOUND QUARTERLY MEETING

SEATTLE MEMORIAL
Paul E. Goins, pastor

On April 25 the church basement was the scene of a church social in honor of our pastors' wedding anniversary. After playing a few games, various gifts of food were presented to our pleasantly surprised pastor and his family. Refreshments of cake and ice cream were served to about 35 who were present.

The Quaker Men prepared and served a delicious turkey dinner to the mothers and daughters of the church on May 13. About 50 were present to enjoy the meal. The men provided an interesting program which closed with devotions.

Final plans are being made for our DVBS June 9-20. The teachers and workers have met several times for prayer and preparation. We pray that many boys and girls will come to know Christ as Savior.

Our new hymnbooks, "Inspiring Hymns," were dedicated and put in use on June 1. Our thanks goes to the CE'ers who have worked hard to supply almost all the money for this much needed project.

BETHANY

Mrs. Hendricks spoke at meetings held at Rosemere, April 20-27. She spoke at seven services and held a 10-minute Bible quiz each night before services. The attendance averaged 34.

The Negro group "the Friendly Brethren" sang several spirituals and hymns at the Sunday evening service May 18.

When Rayner and Lucile Heacock were away on Sunday morning, May 18, Clinton took charge of the SS and brought the message for the morning. The members take turns supplying for us while we are without a pastor.

We will be filing for our building permit soon. The blueprints are nearly ready. The Lord is supplying and guiding our work and needs.

EVERETT

Leroy Neifert, pastor

The spring rally of the Snohomish County Women's Missionary Fellowship was held at our church, with Norman P. Grubb and Percy Wills as speakers.

Our pastors have accepted the unanimous call of the church to remain with us for the coming year. We have been able to offer them an increase in salary, beginning May 1.

Six of our ladies attended the Quarterly Meeting WMU rally at Tacoma. They reported a most enjoyable and profitable day.

On Mother's Day the children of the SS presented a short program during the opening exercises. Each mother was given a carnation, and Flora Jones, the oldest mother present, was given a special corsage. During the morning worship hour the choir presented a concert of "Mother's Favorite Hymns," during which they sang numbers requested by the mothers.

Seven of the young people from Everett were able to attend the May Day festivities at George Fox College.

Mrs. Allen Ricketts was welcomed into the church as an active member.

The May fellowship dinner was held in honor of the young people of our church who are graduating from high school this year. Those honored were Wayne Kines, Ralph Kines, Shirley Pierce, and Thirza Burris. A musical program followed the dinner.

McKINLEY AVENUE
William Murphy, pastor

The WMU Quarterly Meeting rally was held at McKinley Avenue April 29th. Eleanor Smith, of Northeast Tacoma, was in charge of the morning devotions, and a solo by Grace Fisk of McKinley Avenue. Beatrice Benham, WMU Yearly Meeting president, presided at the president's round table, at which reports were given by each president. The morning speakers were Charlotte Macy and Dorothy Barratt. They gave an excellent talk and report on the beginning of the Silverton church, the WMU home missions project for 1958. Lunch was prepared by McKinley Avenue church. The colors of Bolivia were used for decorations, with individual maps and flags. Pictures of Bolivia were placed about the room. The afternoon devotions were led by Kay Goins of Memorial church, and a solo by Muriel Ostrin of Holly Park. A very good and unusual talk was made by Genevieve Cole, WMU Yearly Meeting treasurer. Phyllis Cammack, the main speaker, was very interesting, giving us a look into the life of the missionaries, and giving us the desire to do more for Bolivia.

Herbert Sargent of Springbrook, Ore., was the speaker at our morning service May 4th.

The annual Wauna Mer banquet was held on May 9th, with a large attendance.

SALEM QUARTERLY MEETING

EUGENE
Evert Tuning, pastor

The Board of Missions has called the Tunings back to the work at Sprague River, so while they will be greatly missed here at Eugene, we pray God's richest blessings upon them as they go back to this work that is so close to their hearts. We feel that God has truly led in the calling of our new pastors, and are glad to report that Frank and Lois Haskins have accepted the call.

Ten alumni of George Fox College and guests met at Moreno's Mexican Restaurant for a time of food and fellowship and news and pictures of the college. Arthur Roberts met with us, and we all enjoyed the pictures and comments that he brought.

Plans and preparations for our VBS are under way and we are looking forward to a good school. The teachers and workers met for a meeting with Norma Beebe for a planning session, then several were able later in the week to attend a city-wide workshop using the materials that we plan to use.

Evert and Virena Tuning were honored on the occasion of their silver wedding anniversary this month. A reception and open house was held at the parsonage with Esther House, our social chairman, in charge.

HIGHLAND AVENUE
Nathan Pierson, pastor

J. J. Ray and Peter J. Becker, of the American SS Union, were with us in an evening service and showed the film, "Proclaim Victory."

A baby dedication service was held Easter Sunday with three families participating.

George Fox College Day was observed on April 27th. The college choir presented a concert that evening.

A special feature for Mother's Day was a men's chorus. During SS the Teacher-Mother having the best SS attendance was honored. Also honored was the mother and family with the best attendance.

At a recent WMU meeting Thelma Rose and Virena Tuning showed colored slides of the work at Sprague River.

The Onward Club (young women) meet regularly each month with Beckie Howard as president. The project of junior choir robes is near completion.

SOUTH SALEM
John Fankhauser, pastor

WMU met May 15 with a fair crowd. Pot-luck dinner at noon. The ladies tied a small quilt and worked on tea towels.

FOREST HOME

Walter and Gladys Cook, pastors

Our revival services with Orville and Lois Winters were a source of great blessing and encouragement. Their help with vocal and instrumental music was a great treat.

Our VBS plans for June 2-13 are going ahead with Janice Tiffany as director. Teachers and helpers are Peggy Cadd, Gladys Cook, Lois Blanchard, Annabelle Barnes, Joy Brewster, Viva LaFrance, Patsy Heriford, and Mildred Raymond.

We have enjoyed a week of teacher training classes with Oak Park with outstanding speakers: Grace Clark, Dr. Arthur Roberts, Gerald Dillon and Rev. Ulphin Davis. A final evening with dinner at Nohlgren's in Portland was enjoyed, and Dr. Winston Miller challenged us afresh with his good message.

On Mother's Day a dedication service was held for Mark Gustafson, son of Harold and Ruth Gustafson, and for Douglas and Michael Smith, sons of Robert and Pat Smith. Corsages for the oldest mother, mother of the youngest child, and mother with the largest number of children present, were given to members of the same family: Edna Wright, her daughter Murna Smith, and her grand-daughter-in-law Pat Smith.

A mother-daughter tea was held in the church parlors with good attendance and interesting program. Music was furnished by junior girls, and by Alice Faulkner and her mother.

BOISE VALLEY QUARTERLY MEETING

NAMPA

Clare Willcuts, pastor

Our pastors were called to Newberg, Ore., this month by the sudden death of Clare's father, Otis Willcuts. Our sympathy is with the family in this time of bereavement.

We are glad to have Arthur and Mary Pruitt and family worshipping with us again since their return from Portland.

Thirty-one persons were served at a junior-senior banquet held in our church. Twenty were young people, with the rest, pastors of the cooperating churches. Rev. Teddy Turner, of the Nampa Christian church, was the speaker of the evening.

The annual May dinner of the Wilma Roberts WMU was attended by 23 ladies. It was held in the home of Eleanor Antrim, with Louella Dillon, Ginger Cline, and Helen Glass as co-hostesses. Speaker of the evening was Beatrice Fritschle.

A number of our young people were among the 300 in attendance at the Boise Valley YFC formal reception held in Boise. Main attraction of the evening was the Four Flats quartet. Harold Antrim is Boise Valley YFC director.

DVBS will be held June 2-6, with Marlin Witt as evangelist.

WHITNEY

Walter P. Lee, pastor

Mother's Day was observed at the church with a program by the children and other selections. Corsages were presented to the youngest mother, Mrs. Arnold Lee, and the oldest mother, Mrs. Iva Walton. Five babies were dedicated at this service: Dennis Rourke, son of Joe and Leola Rourke; William Timson, son of Benny and Mabel Timson; Eric Porter Howard, son of James and Hope Howard; Marsha Kay Fitch, daughter of Milton and Bertha Fitch; and Shawna Lee, daughter of Arnold and Marilee Lee.

Arnold Lee has been giving a series of talks at the youth and adult study hour each Sunday evening on the subject, "The Christian and War." These discussions have been helpful to our young people.

On the evening of May 9 a "Family Night" meeting was held with a time of fellowship, followed by refreshments. A good time is reported.

Betty Currier, of Spokane, sister of Marilee Lee, visited a few days at the Lee home.

Several of the Whitney folks visited George Fox College over the May Day weekend and enjoyed the program put on by the college.

The WMU invited the Helen Cammack Missionary Society to join in on May 8th for an all-day work meeting in the church annex.

STAR

Dorwin Smith, pastor

Others who received recognition on Mother's Day were Harold and Bertha Hadley and Delwin and Jane Ireland. These couples each were presented a large cake for having the largest family consistently attending SS throughout the year.

BOISE

Waldo Hicks, pastor

We are happy to report that our pastor, Waldo Hicks, is convalescing at home since his recent illness. Thank the Lord for answered prayer! Marlin Witt is bringing the messages in the Sunday services.

The special meetings from April 30th through May 11th with Kenneth Wells as speaker were a blessing to everyone who attended. We appreciated his music and singing. His wife Lily, who ordinarily assists him was hospitalized just as the meetings started and was unable to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Gulley recently spent two weeks visiting relatives in California.

Mrs. May Anderson, daughter of Mrs. Lula VanHorn, was a visitor in our services on Mother's Day.

The WMU met with Mrs. Ethel Folwell the evening of May 15th. Evelyn Hickerson was co-hostess and Mrs. Ada Haworth gave an interesting book review on the "Seven Steeples."

We are missing Emma Trout from our services. She is still hospitalized from a slight stroke she suffered last month.

GREENLEAF QUARTERLY MEETING

ONTARIO

Lloyd Melhorn, pastor

On April 18 the color film, "Angel in Ebony," was shown in our church. A stork shower was given for Mrs. Harlan Hull by the WMU on April 18.

On April 19 the Boys and Girls Clubs held their first meetings. The total enrollment of the clubs is 16.

The final class for the teacher training course was held on May 6.

The mothers were honored on Mother's Day in presenting corsages to the youngest mother, oldest mother and the mother with the most children present.

On Wednesday evening, May 14, the Greenleaf Friends Academy choir presented a fine sacred concert.

GREENLEAF

Oscar Brown, pastor

We at Greenleaf are looking forward to DVBS June 2 through 13. Do remember us in prayer!

Ruth Brown is back in active service again following major surgery.

We enjoyed having Orpha and Marita Cammack with us for a few days. She spoke to the WMU May 8. At present she is in Oregon.

Greenleaf grade school graduation was held in the church May 20 with Harold Ankeny speaking.

On May 21 the academy choir gave its home recital under the direction of Mrs. Leona Gwinn. They have been giving concerts over Boise Valley and Greenleaf Quarterly Meetings as well as in other churches.

The Four Flats quartet had charge of the evening service May 18. They presented their songs, testimonies and film to a full house.

WCTU met May 2 in the home of Ruth Tucker. Lois Smith had charge of the White Ribbon Recruit service. Kathryn Tharrington served refreshments of punch and cookies.

RIVERSIDE

Robert Morse, pastor

An informal social was held at the parsonage for Muri and Ervin Hodson before they moved to Silverton, Ore. A gift was presented them in appreciation of their faithfulness.

Plans have been completed for our DVBS to be held May 26 to June 6 with Jacque Puckett as our superintendent. A carload of women interested in Bible School went to Caldwell to see a film by Scripture Press based on the material we are using this year.

Several of our teachers and officers attended the SS workshop at Nampa.

A group of our members were privileged to attend the sessions of Quarterly Meeting held at Greenleaf April 3.

Joyce Hoover attended the May Day festivities at George Fox College.

Oscar Brown was speaker at the 8th grade graduation at Riverside. Steven Hill was among the graduates. The trio from Greenleaf sang, and Robert Morse offered the closing prayer.

Our pastor brought a very inspirational message on "Faith" for Mother's Day.

Riverside was well represented at the Quarterly Meeting Brotherhood meeting at Greenleaf.

Canyon County Holiness meeting was held at Riverside on May 13.

INLAND QUARTERLY MEETING

SPOKANE

Floyd R. Dunlap, pastor

The month of June marks the third year of occupation of our church building.

The youth night of May 16 featured "Assassin of Youth," a film depicting the dangers of narcotics. Thirty young people enjoyed the film, games, and refreshments.

We were happy to have the Howard Harmon and Phil Harmon families with us on May 18.

ENTIAT

Kenneth L. Eichenberger, pastor

We were all saddened by the tragic death of T. L. Jones when he was instantly killed by a car as he came back across the road after mailing letters.

We had a very wonderful Golden Anniversary on the 11th of May following our Quarterly Meeting on the 9th and 10th. There were four former pastors, and the widow of another, as well as many old-time members and friends and former members who came to visit us.

We had three wonderful sermons by Dean Gregory, William Murphy, and Calvin Choate.

Plenty of food was furnished for all who came, with two meals furnished on Saturday and one on Sunday.

Alice Hadley injured her back in getting ready for the services, so that a few days later she spent four days in the hospital.

Our pastors thought that right after the anniversary was a good time to take their vacation, so on Thursday May 15 they went to Spokane. Geneva met with the WMU there, and then the next day they went on to see their new grandchild in Iowa. They will be gone two weeks.

We were happy to have Dean and Edna Mae Rose as full members after having them as affiliate members for some time.
