The Second Listening Book is a collection of 27 more tales of the unexpected. These short stories each demonstrate a different facet of the ups and downs of life’s experiences; a Christian perspective to the joys and struggles of existence through the medium of beautifully illustrated parables.

Similar to Webb’s first book, entitled The First Listening Book, the author continues to offer us an innovative and creative insight into God’s Word and the stories are ones that we can all easily relate to and reflect upon.

Once again, The Second Listening Book comes with captivating illustrations throughout and is a joy to pick up and enjoy the easy to read style of Webb’s work.

I would highly recommend this book for family quiet times and/or book discussion groups.
