Dear Friends,

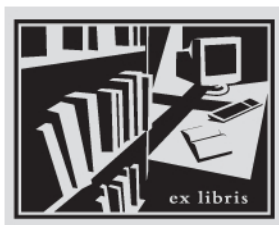

I am happy to offer my congratulations on the occasion of the 50th anniversary of the Association of Christian Librarians.

The growth of your membership from five librarians in 1956 to over five hundred today is a testament to the benefits you find in professional development and networking. The theme of this year's conference, "Celebrating the Past, Racing into the Future," highlights the strength of your organization and underscores the special role you play in the lives of your schools and of each other.

I admire your dedication to your faith, to your work as librarians, and to ACL. Please give yourselves a round of applause, and have a great time together!

With best wishes,
